THE WHITE HOUSE

January 8, 1992

Dear Connie:

Here with The CV for Bryant Resister - who is a great Republican and a great chemist. I enclose herewith also a memo that I received from my Associate Director, DA Henderson who also knows Bryant very well.

Our informal probe suggests that he would consider the #2 position at ACD, particularly if he thought that there might be any possibility of possibly having an eventual shot at the #1.

Sincerely
Dan

Ms. Constance Horner
Assistant to the President and Director of Presidential Personnel
The White House
Washington D.C. 20500

Dear Ms. Horner:

I have received your letter of February 18, 1992 inviting me to submit my resume' in consideration of Presidential Advisor D. Allan Bromley's nomination for me to serve as the Administrator of the Agency for International Development. I am flattered and honored that Dr. Bromley and his associates consider me worthy to fill such a high and important position. As I have indicated to Dr. Bromley, I have never contemplated such a post and I am not seeking the Office. In fact, I am reluctant to leave our newly established home in Southern California. I do, however, love our country and believe citizens have a responsibility to serve the nation when conditions are appropriate and they are invited to do so. In this sense, I am willing to accept a call to service subject to further discussion and the desires of the President. I await your pleasure and reply.

Sincerely yours,

Bryant W. Rossiter

cc: Dr. D. Allan Bromley
