THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 26, 1990

Dear Bob:

I have reminded the President of your request that he participate in making the Heald Award and I hope that he will find it possible to do so.

I have not yet found an evening in John Sununu's schedule so that we can get together as we discussed during our meeting with him, but I have talked with him on several occasions about it and I know that he is anxious to find the time and to hold a meeting. His problem, as you might suspect, is that he is wildly over-booked and finding a free evening is not as simple as I would have hoped.

The fact that he made this suggestion is an auspicious one and I look forward to the opportunity to sit down with him and with you and your colleagues to discuss some of the very real problems that the semiconductor industry in this country faces.

With all best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

D. Allan Bromley
