Please look over & draft a reply. The reply should be warm & polite, but state that comment on a proposal for funding from fed. agency is inappropriate for W.H.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Dear Jon:

This is to let you know I was pleased to receive a copy of your Program Plan for continuing and extending the work of the Teachers Academy for Mathematics and Science in Chicago. It is clear to me that you and your colleagues have done considerable work in marshalling resources and talent to strengthen the substantive knowledge and skills of teachers working in Chicago's classrooms.

I fully support efforts to strengthen the existing corps of professionally committed elementary and secondary school teachers, and to provide them with the resources and technologies which most other professions and sectors already have at hand. However, beyond this note of encouragement and support, I am reluctant to provide you with specific comments on the Plan. My position makes it necessary to avoid direct involvement with grant applications. I expect the prospective funding agencies and their reviewers to provide specific comments and ideas on such proposals.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Jon:

This is to let you know I was pleased to receive a copy of your Program Plan for continuing and extending the work of the Teachers Academy for Mathematics and Science in Chicago. It is clear to me that you and your colleagues have done considerable work and an outstanding job in marshalling resources and talents in an effort to strengthen the substantive knowledge and skills of teachers working in the Chicago's classrooms.

I fully support efforts to strengthen the existing corps of professionally-committed elementary and secondary school teachers and to provide them with the resources and technologies which most other professions and sectors already have at hand. However, beyond this note of encouragement and support, I am reluctant to provide you with specific comments on the Plan. My position in matters such as this is to expect the prospective funding agencies and their reviewers to provide preliminary comments which might strengthen proposals for funding consideration.

Sincerely yours,
