MEMORANDUM FOR HENSON MOORE

FROM:

D. ALLAN BROMLEY

SUBJECT:

METROTECH DEVELOPMENT IN BROOKLYN

Enclosed herewith is an article regarding Metrotech that we discussed. President George Bugliarello of Brooklyn Polytechnic University, which is responsible for the development of Metrotech, has invited the President to speak at the inauguration of the centerpiece of this development-- The Dibner Library/ Center for Advanced Technology in Telecommunications-- on May 28.

I have already sent a note to Kathy Super supporting this invitation because I think it would be an excellent occasion for a major Presidential speech on technology and its role in job creation and revitalization of blighted urban areas.

It may well be that the Pasadena NTI appearance will preclude the President's attendance at this New York event, but if the schedule changes I wanted to keep Metrotech on your radar screen.
