

Originally Processed With FOIA(s):
2005-0336-F

FOIA Number:
2005-0336-F

FOIA MARKER

This is not a textual record. This is used as an administrative marker by the George Bush Presidential Library Staff.

Record Group/Collection: George H.W. Bush Presidential Records
Collection/Office of Origin: Science and Technology Policy, Office of (OSTP)
Series: Bromley, D. Allan, Files
Subseries: Global Climate Change Files - Conferences/Meetings

OA/ID Number: 62057
Folder ID Number: 62057-002

Folder Title:
White House Conference on Science and Economics Related to Global Change - 5/90

Stack:

Row:

Section:

Shelf:

Position:

0

0

0

0

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 16, 1990

Dear Erich:

Your support of The White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for funds and personnel.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research. The success of the conference is directly attributed to the dedication and hard work by members of your department.

I would ask that you appropriately recognize Louis B. Brown and Pamela Stephens for their outstanding efforts toward making "Global Stewardship" a reality.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely,

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

The Honorable Erich Bloch
Director
National Science Foundation
1800 G Street, N.W. Room 520
Washington, D.C. 20550

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Ms. Kane:

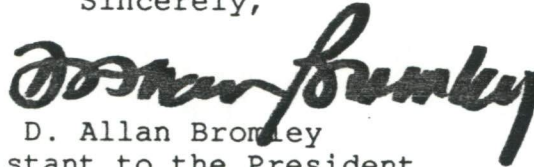

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bromley", written in a cursive style.

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Ms. Sally Kane
National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration
14th and Constitution Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20230

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Dr. Lave:

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Dr. Lester Lave
Professor of Economics
Graduate School of Industrial Administration
Carnegie-Mellon University
Pittsburgh, PA 15213

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Frances
Dear Ms. Li:

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

D. Allan Bromley

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Ms. Frances Li
Department of State
2201 C Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20520

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Mr. Lukens:

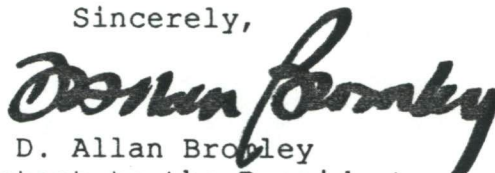

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Brodley", written in a cursive style.

D. Allan Brodley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Mr. Richard Lukens
Richard Lukens and Associates
4429 Canoga Avenue
Woodland Hills, CA 91364

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Ms. McDonald:

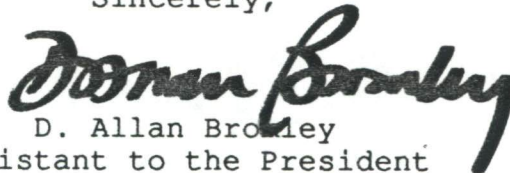

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bromley", written in a cursive style.

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Ms. Lauren McDonald
Counselor the Deputy Secretary
Department of Commerce
14th Street and Constitution Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20230

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Dr. Miller:

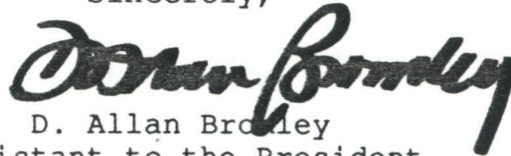

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bradley", written in a cursive style.

D. Allan Bradley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Dr. James A. Miller
Chairman
World Technology Foundation
1912 Sunderland Place, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20036

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Ms. Odell:

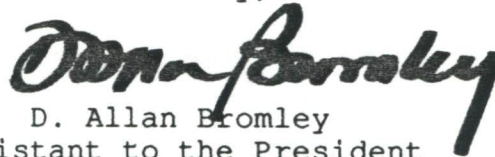

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bromley". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "D. Allan" and last name "Bromley" clearly distinguishable.

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Ms. Deborah Odell
Department of State
2201 C Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20520

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Mr. Popovich:

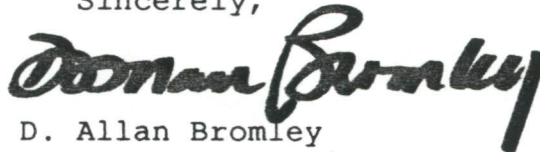

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bromley". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "D. Allan" and last name "Bromley" clearly distinguishable.

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Mr. Robert Popovich
Robert Popovich & Associates, Inc.
Apartment 1500
3001 Park Center Drive
Alexandria, VA 22302

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Frank
Dear Dr. Press:

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Alan

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Dr. Frank Press
President
National Academy of Sciences
2101 Constitution Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20418

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Ms. Shea:

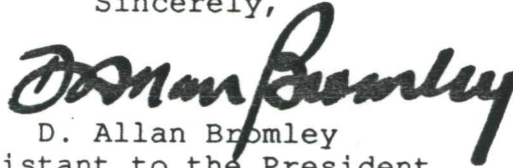

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bromley", written in a cursive style.

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Ms. Eileen Shea
National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration
1355 East-West Highway
Silver Spring, Maryland 20910

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Sam
Dear Secretary Skinner:

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Anna

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

The Honorable Samuel K. Skinner
Secretary
Department of Transportation
400 Seventh Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20590

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Lon
Dear Secretary Sullivan:

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Allan

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

The Honorable Louis W. Sullivan
Secretary
Department Health and Human Services
200 Independence Avenue, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20201

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

B.W.
Dear Dr. Watson:

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Alan

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Dr. Robert T. Watson
National Aeronautics and Space Administration
Code EEU
NASA Headquarters
Washington, D.C. 20546

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Commander Weatherbee:

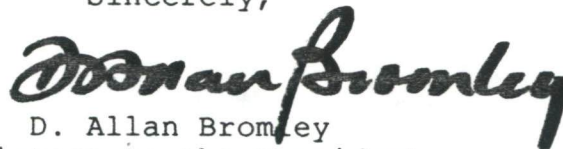

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bromley". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "D. Allan" and last name "Bromley" clearly distinguishable.

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Commander James Weatherbee
Lyndon Baines Johnson Space Center
National Aeronautics and Space Administration
Mailcode CB
Houston, Texas 77058

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Dr. White:

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Dr. Robert M. White
President
National Academy of Engineering
2101 Constitution Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20418

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Ms. Cavanagh:

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bromley". The signature is stylized with a large, looped initial "D" and a cursive "Bromley".

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Ms. Mary Cavanagh
Apartment 205
11 Second Street, N.E.
Washington, D.C. 20002

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Ms. Church:

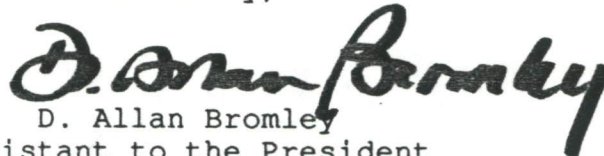

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bromley". The signature is stylized with a large, sweeping "B" and a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Ms. Misty Church
Apartment 305
5101 - 8th Road S.
Arlington, VA 22204

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 25, 1990

Dear John:

Please accept my deepest apology for the situation that occurred on April 18th at the White House Rose Garden reception. It is most embarrassing to me personally, as well as to the White House, that you were personally invited by the President to the Rose Garden and that your arrival was not properly coordinated. Although nothing can be done to erase those events, please rest assured that steps have been taken to prevent this from happening in the future.

It is my sincere hope that the events at the Rose Garden will not detract you from our commitment to make "Global Stewardship" a reality and thus assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Again, please accept my apology.

Sincerely,

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

The Honorable John A. Knauss
Undersecretary for Oceans and Atmosphere and Administrator of National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration
14th and Constitution Ave., N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20230

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 25, 1990

Dear Erich:

Please accept my deepest apology for the situation that occurred on April 18th at the White House Rose Garden reception. It is most embarrassing to me personally, as well as to the White House, that you were personally invited by the President to the Rose Garden and that your arrival was not properly coordinated. Although nothing can be done to erase those events, please rest assured that steps have been taken to prevent this from happening in the future.

It is my sincere hope that the events at the Rose Garden will not detract you from our commitment to make "Global Stewardship" a reality and thus assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Again, please accept my apology.

Sincerely,

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

The Honorable Erich Bloch
Director
National Science Foundation
1800 G Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20550

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 25, 1990

Dear Minister Gandhi:

Please accept my deepest apology for the situation that occurred on April 18th at the White House Rose Garden reception. It is most embarrassing to me personally, as well as to the White House, that you were personally invited by the President to the Rose Garden and that your arrival was not properly coordinated. Although nothing can be done to erase those events, please rest assured that steps have been taken to prevent this from happening in the future.

It is my sincere hope that the events at the Rose Garden will not detract you from our commitment to make "Global Stewardship" a reality and thus assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Again, please accept my apology.

Sincerely,

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

The Honorable Maneka Gandhi
Minister of State for Environment and Forests
Paryavaran Bhawan
CGO Complex
Lodhi Road
New Delhi India 10003

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 25, 1990

Dear Minister Flynn:

Please accept my deepest apology for the situation that occurred on April 18th at the White House Rose Garden reception. It is most embarrassing to me personally, as well as to the White House, that you were personally invited by the President to the Rose Garden and that your arrival was not properly coordinated. Although nothing can be done to erase those events, please rest assured that steps have been taken to prevent this from happening in the future.

It is my sincere hope that the events at the Rose Garden will not detract you from our commitment to make "Global Stewardship" a reality and thus assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Again, please accept my apology.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bromley". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "D." and last name "Bromley" clearly distinguishable.

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

The Honorable Padraic Flynn
Minister for the Environment
Customs House
Dublin 1 Ireland

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 16, 1990

Dear Clayton:

Your support of The White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for funds and personnel.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research. The success of the conference is directly attributed to the dedication and hard work by members of your department.

I would ask that you appropriately recognize Gary R. Evans and Elvia E. Niebla for their outstanding efforts toward making "Global Stewardship" a reality.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely,

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

The Honorable Clayton Yeutter
Secretary of Agriculture
Department of Agriculture
12th Street and Jefferson Drive, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20250

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 16, 1990

Dear Jim:

Your support of The White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for funds and personnel.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research. The success of the conference is directly attributed to the dedication and hard work by members of your department.

I would ask that you appropriately recognize Denise Dwyer and Carol W. Lee for their outstanding efforts toward making "Global Stewardship" a reality.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely,

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Admiral James D. Watkins, USN (Ret)
Secretary of Energy
Department of Energy
1000 Independence Avenue, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20585

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 16, 1990

Dear Mr.  Thornburgh:

Your support of The White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for funds and personnel.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research. The success of the conference is directly attributed to the dedication and hard work by members of your department.

I would ask that you appropriately recognize Annie Petsonk and Jonathan Wiener for their outstanding efforts toward making "Global Stewardship" a reality.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely,

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

The Honorable Dick Thornburgh
Attorney General of the United States Department of Justice
10th Street and Constitution Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20530

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 16, 1990

Dear Dick:

Your support of The White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for funds and personnel.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research. The success of the conference is directly attributed to the dedication and hard work by members of your department.

I would ask that you appropriately recognize Ralph Brescia and Shelby Tilford for their outstanding efforts toward making "Global Stewardship" a reality.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely,

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Rear Admiral Richard H. Truly
Administrator
National Aeronautics and Space Administration
400 Maryland Avenue, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20546

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 16, 1990

Dear Bill:

Your support of The White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for funds and personnel.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research. The success of the conference is directly attributed to the dedication and hard work by members of your department.

I would ask that you appropriately recognize Jack F. Fitzgerald and Richard Morgenstern for their outstanding efforts toward making "Global Stewardship" a reality.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely,

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

The Honorable William K. Reilly
Administrator
Environmental Protection Agency
401 M Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20460

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 16, 1990

Dear Mr. Secretary:

Your support of The White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for funds and personnel.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research. The success of the conference is directly attributed to the dedication and hard work by members of your department.

I would ask that you appropriately recognize Harlan Watson and Gwen Williams for their outstanding efforts toward making "Global Stewardship" a reality.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely,

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

The Honorable Manuel Lujan, Jr.
Secretary of the Interior
18th and C Streets, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20240

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 16, 1990

Dear John:

Your support of The White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for funds and personnel.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research. The success of the conference is directly attributed to the dedication and hard work by members of your department.

I would ask that you appropriately recognize Michael J. Hall and James L. Buizer for their outstanding efforts toward making "Global Stewardship" a reality.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely,

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

The Honorable John A. Knauss
Under Secretary of Commerce for Oceans and Atmosphere
14th Street and Constitution Avenue, N.W.
Washington D.C. 20230

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 16, 1990

Mike
Dear Chairman Deland:

Your support of The White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for funds and personnel.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research. The success of the conference is directly attributed to the dedication and hard work by members of your department.

I would ask that you appropriately recognize Jonathan Elkind and Robin O'Malley for their outstanding efforts toward making "Global Stewardship" a reality.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely,

Alan

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

The Honorable Michael R. Deland
Chairman
Council on Environmental Quality
722 Jackson Place, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20503

Inquire the Banker Note!

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 16, 1990

Dear Ambassador Davis:

Your support of The White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for funds and personnel.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research. The success of the conference is directly attributed to the dedication and hard work by members of your department.

I would ask that you appropriately recognize Coleman Nee for his outstanding efforts toward making "Global Stewardship" a reality.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bromley", written in a cursive style.

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

The Honorable John R. Davis, Jr.
Ambassador to Poland
American Embassy Warsaw
Box 5010
APO, New York 09213-5010

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 16, 1990

Dear Mr.  Darman:

Your support of The White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for funds and personnel.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research. The success of the conference is directly attributed to the dedication and hard work by members of your department.

I would ask that you appropriately recognize Jack Fellows for his outstanding efforts toward making "Global Stewardship" a reality.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely,

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

The Honorable Richard G. Darman
Director
Office of Management and Budget
Executive Office of the President
Room 252
Old Executive Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20503

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Ms. Claffey:

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bromley", written in a cursive style.

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Ms. Barbara Claffey
Council of Economic Advisers
17th and Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Ms. Collins:

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bromley". The signature is stylized with a large, sweeping "D" and a long, horizontal stroke extending to the right.

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Ms. Meg Collins
Camp, Barsh, Bares & Tate
Suite 275
2550 M Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20037

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Mr. Cunningham:

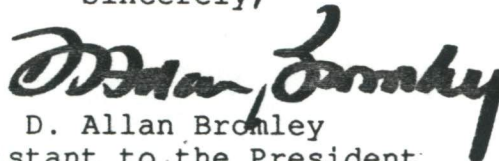

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bromley". The signature is stylized with a large, sweeping initial "D" and a long, horizontal stroke extending to the right.

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Mr. Frank Cunningham
Department of State
2201 C Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20520

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Ms. Davis:

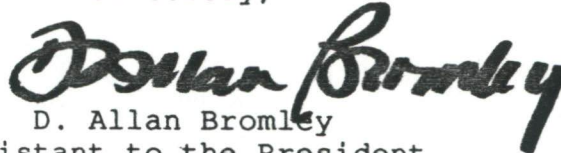

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bromley". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "D. Allan" and last name "Bromley" clearly distinguishable.

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Ms. Susan Davis
Susan Davis Companies
Suite 700
1146 - 19th Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20036

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Mr. Grabhorn:

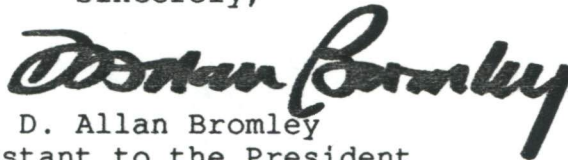

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bromley". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "D. Allan" and last name "Bromley" clearly distinguishable.

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Mr. Paul Grabhorn
Meeting Technologies, Inc.
P. O. Box 1084
Occidental, CA 95465

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Dr. Harris:

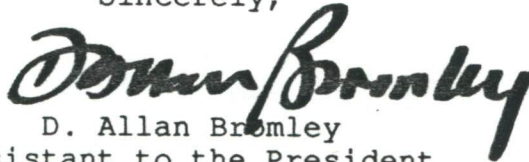

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bromley", written in a cursive style.

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Dr. W. Franklin Harris
Executive Officer
Biological Behavior and Social Sciences Directorate
National Science Foundation
1800 G Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20550

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Mr. Hartness:

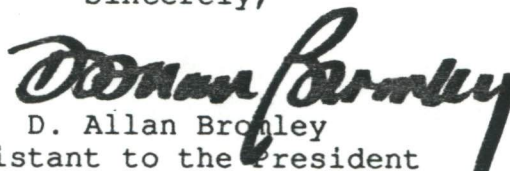

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Mr. Norman Hartness
Office of Management and Budget
17th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20013

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Martin

Dear Dr. Harwit:

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Allan

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Dr. Martin Harwit
Director
National Air and Space Museum
6th Street and Independence Avenue, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20560.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Mark
Dear Mr. Hatfield:

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Ann

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Mr. Mark Hatfield, Jr.
Apartment 20
410 - 11th Street, N.E.
Washington, D.C. 20002

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Mr. Himmelstein:

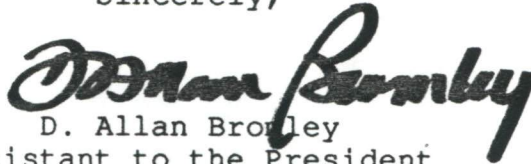

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bromley", written in a cursive style.

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Mr. Marc Himmelstein
National Environmental Strategies
600 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20037

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 16, 1990

Dear Nick:

Your support of The White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for funds and personnel.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research. The success of the conference is directly attributed to the dedication and hard work by members of your department.

I would ask that you appropriately recognize Raymond L. Squitieri for his outstanding efforts toward making "Global Stewardship" a reality.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely,

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

The Honorable Nicholas F. Brady
Secretary of the Treasury
Department of the Treasury
1500 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20220

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear  Adair:

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Mr. Doug Adair
Associate Director
Office of Cabinet Affairs
235 Old Executive Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20500

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Dr. Albritton:

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Dr. Daniel L. Albritton
Director
Aeronomy Laboratory
Environmental Research Laboratories
National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration
325 Broadway
Boulder, Colorado 80303

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Ms. Amend:

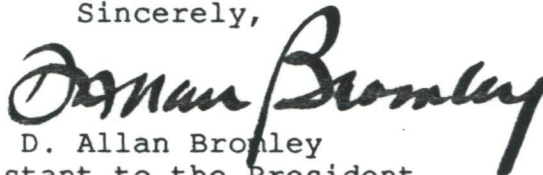

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Ms. Deb Amend
Special Assistant to the President for Communications
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Secretary Anderson:

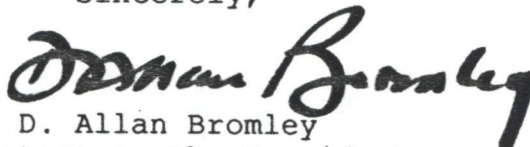

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bromley". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "D. Allan" and last name "Bromley" clearly distinguishable.

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

The Honorable Dean W. Anderson
Secretary
The Smithsonian Institution
Washington, D.C. 20560

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Ms. Andrews:

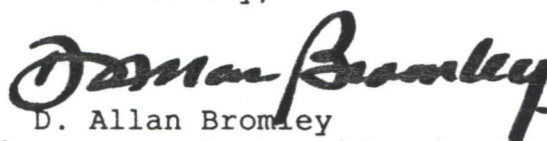

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bromley". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "D." being small and the last name "Bromley" being larger and more prominent.

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Ms. Melinda Andrews
Susan Davis Companies
Suite 700
1146 - 19th Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20036

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Mr. Antle:

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, reading "D. Allan Bromley". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "D." being small and the last name "Bromley" being larger and more prominent.

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Mr. John M. Antle
Council of Economic Advisers
17th and Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

~~Jesse~~
Dear Dr. Ausubel:

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Dr. Jesse Ausubel
Director of Studies
Carnegie Commission on Science
Technology and Government
Rockefeller University
1230 York Avenue
New York, New York 10021

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Ms. Best:

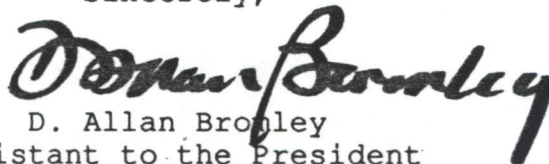

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bromley". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "D." and last name "Bromley" clearly distinguishable.

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Ms. Alyse Best
13120 Kara Lane
Silver Spring, Maryland 20904

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1990

Dear Dr. Broadus:

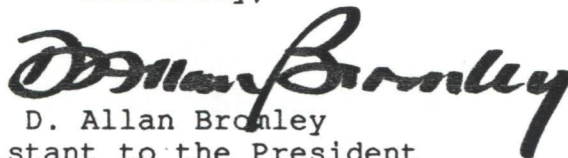

Your support of the White House Conference on Science and Economics Research Related to Global Change was superb. We could not have held this important conference without your quick response to my request for support.

This conference went a long way toward advancing the notion that national and international policies dealing with the complexities and uncertainties of global change must be based on the effective integration of science and economics research.

Continuing commitment to this issue is vital to making "Global Stewardship" a reality and assuring the prosperity of humanity on this planet.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "D. Allan Bromley". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "D." being a stylized monogram.

D. Allan Bromley
Assistant to the President
for
Science and Technology

Dr. James Broadus
Director
Marine Policy Center
Crowell House
Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution
Woods Hole, MA 02543