Dear  Dr. Decker:

I would like to convey my thanks for the role you played in the first meeting under the U.S.-Canada Joint Consultative Mechanism on October 30. I believe this first meeting was a success, thanks in large part to the genuine enthusiasm of all the participants in strengthening the bilateral U.S.-Canada S&T relationship.

I am confident that S&T cooperation between our two countries will be significantly increased in the future as we explore new areas of mutual interest. Your participation, both in preparing for the meeting and as a member of the U.S. Delegation, is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Minister Winegard:

Thank you for the Canadian User's Guide to the regulation of biotechnology products. Canada's view that existing regulatory statutes provide appropriate oversight of biotechnology products is similar to the position taken by the United States. The User's Guide should provide Canadian scientists and industry with a valuable resource to department contacts and their regulatory requirements.

Sincerely yours,

D. Allan Bromley
