THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 29, 1989

Professor Yuriy Ossipyan
Director
Institute of Solid State Physics
Academy of Sciences of the USSR

Dear Yuriy:

Many thanks for your warm congratulations on my appointment as Scientific Advisor to President Bush. I am particularly pleased because with your new appointment I know that our paths will cross on a frequent basis and I look forward to that with very real pleasure.

Pat and I are planning to attend the IUPAP Executive Council Meeting in Quebec in September and will be happy to see you there if not before. We hope that it will be possible for you to bring Lyidmilla with you to Quebec because Quebec is a magnificent city if you have not visited it previously, and I am sure that Larkin Kerwin will have arranged an outstanding session.

We had the pleasure of a visit from Georgi Flerov and Yuri Oganessian a week or so ago, and I had a chance to talk about a number of the new possibilities for scientific cooperation in the area of nuclear science. I am sure that there are a great many other areas that we might discuss and I look forward to this.

Pat joins me in sending you and Lyidmilla our very warmest best wishes.

Sincerely yours,
