President G. Bush
White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear President Bush,

As you have known, the PRC government has massacred thousands of peaceful pro-democracy protesters and citizens and they have been arresting many more. These arrested would face unjustified execution. We are so worrying about these protesters' fate and we are so angry with the inhumane PRC government.

In the name of human rights, I humbly petition that you use all your influence and power to stop immediately the PRC government's brutal massacre of its own citizens.

Respectfully yours,
