President Bush

White House

Washington, DC 20500

Mr President:

As my President & as the leader of the free world, I implore you to make the strongest possible statement condemning the Chinese government for the massacre of their own people in Tiananmen Square.

For a government to spill the blood of its people because of their demand for the most basic of human rights goes against Everything we as Americans stand for. The right for non-violent exercise of Freedom of expression is guaranteed in the International Covenant of Civil and Political Rights, and the Abuse of that right by the Chinese Government should not be tolerated by any one.

We as Free men have a special obligation to protect the human rights of others, no matter what the political ramifications.

Please stand in defense of Human Rights for the students in Beijing

Sincerely

Eric Brickner
