FITZGERALD BEMISS

C

October 4, 1989

The President
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear George,

We are back from Maine, a bit reluctantly because it's so beautiful up there this time of year. But it's good to be home and catch up with friends and activities.

The Coleman Campaign doesn't look good to me. We are swamped by fundraisers, but Coleman himself doesn't make good friends and inspire the kind of personal commitment it takes to carry an election. My view: close but not good enough. But I was very wrong about the primary, so I hope I am wrong again here.

✓ Your Virginia friends, many of whom have been supporters of yours since I recruited them for your qualifying campaign nine years ago, have been wonderfully supportive of you and are doing a lot to help the Republican cause in this instance. Lots of people have gotten on the wagon since those early days, but I feel pretty sentimental about the gang that signed up at the very beginning.

Our friend Loncar (now Foreign Minister of Yugoslavia) called yesterday and we had a long talk. He is most complimentary about you, particularly your understanding and sympathy for the Eastern European situation. His country is having a very hard time, both with its economy and debts, and with the nationalistic divisions. On top of these, they are having the same problem Poland has of replacing a managed economy with a free economy without the lid blowing off. Loncar is in the midst of the action. I think he is a fine man and a good friend and that his success is of great importance to us.

The President

We were in England on James River Corporation business during the Ryder Cup matches and got to see quite a lot of it on TV. It was a great show. I am sure that with that fancy new set of clubs they gave you, you would not have come a cropper on the 18th as did at least three of our gang.

Give our love to Bar. Stay in touch.

As ever

Gerry
