Re: Lecture Series on Presidency

Fine on State dining Room under Healey etc.

It can be a week day, but it should not be at 8-5 hours.

Maybe 6-7:30 with refreshements (sherry)
after the lecture.... Maybe Sunda evening after Camp David....

But is should not be just another eventr crowded into an overly hectic shcedule.. It should the the:

Presidential Series on the Presidency

It should include invitations to historians
Nobel types, the Arts, Profs,
Lincoln Buffs

Re: TV... no strong feeling at all....
C.Span carries things a lot worse than this.. In House Video, great idea.

Mrs. Bush,

You might want to mention to the President that things with the Lecture Series are on track.

Lyn Cheney has been traveling with the Secretary, but will be back early next week, so we will get together early in the week, & Laurie too. I'll work with Joe to get a date (I am glad to get from you that this can be any day of the week and does not have to be necessarily a Sunday afternoon or early evening.)

You might also mention the thought of having the first lecture in the State Dining Room under the Healey painting and the thought that it would be nice to bring down the Emancipation Proclamation and your thought of bringing down the other Healey.

I think the lectures should be video'd (in-house) as ultimately if you have 2-3 a year, it would be a lovely collection. Does the President have any strong thoughts about whether you try to do this for TV? (like In Performance)

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

And we are also thinking of the guest list and categories. Any living Lincoln descendants? (or Sandburg?) The academic people, the DC college presidents (spread throughout the series), suggestions from Lyn, etc. etc.

- Mrs. Ellis
- 2 Ill. Senators?
- Springfield Ill. Congressmen?
- Hatfields
- Bertlett

The bottom line is that things are moving and on track. I would hope early January would work for you & for Lind. Tom.

Dear Lorena,

On the way back to Washington, I opened that present you gave me there at the Museum. What a lovely volume it is, too. It will always remind me of your warm hospitality.

Your enthusiasm for that wonderful Museum was genuinely courageous. Many, many thanks.

Sincerely,
