GEORGE PEPPARD

March 8, 1990

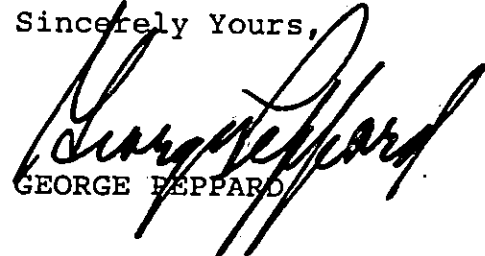

Dear Mr. President,

I notice that more people are coming around to my point of view that your thoughtful and conservative leadership does not at all indicate a man who hesitates to take resolute - and if need be - forceful action.

I was most gratified to observe your intelligent and quick responses at your televised news conference. World leaders as well as American citizens could take note of a highly informed, tough minded President.

I quite agree with your conduct regarding the Russian transformation. Your prudent attitude was again confirmed by the "discovery" of the additional missiles in East Germany. Those who now advocate a warm political and financial embrace for the Russian bear have perhaps forgotten that that animal is, by nature, carnivorous.

Sincerely Yours,

GEORGE PEPPARD

Dear Dick,

What do you mean 'still at the breakfast table at 9AM'?
I've put in half a days work by then.

I just saw your good letter and I will try to catch a show or two. Actually it comes at a good time for me when at CD 'cause I am at my cozy little office here at that time catching up on paper work-- and I know that a jolt or two from Madeline Albright might be better than bran-flakes. make that coffee.

It does sound like an interesting series. I am high on Karen house....Hastily.
