Dear Mr. President:

In all my adult life, I've never been more proud of my President and his family than I am now. In that spirit, Joan and I - and the Capen gang - join in sending Barbara and you our warm wishes during Easter Week when we celebrate the joy of life.

I hope that John Sununu has briefed you on my recent very private conversation with him. If not, I'd be pleased to do so on the tennis court the next time you are desperate for a fourth!

I care deeply about your Administration and the agenda you have set, especially on foreign policy and defense issues.

Best regards.
