CONGRESSIONAL MONITOR

Monday, October 8, 1990

Volume 26, Number 03

Last Week in Congress

With a government financial crisis looming, Congress met throughout the weekend in an effort to craft a budget agreement acceptable to members and the White House.

Late Sunday both chambers were awaiting development of a new budget plan by congressional leaders, who hoped to pass both a budget resolution and a short-term spending bill to keep the government in business.

The urgency of their work was apparent to everyone: Because a previous budget agreement — reached by the White House and congressional leaders — had been decisively rejected early Friday, President Bush refused to sign a stop-gap spending bill that would keep the government operating for another week.

The president's veto early Saturday of the spending bill (H J Res 660) and the House's inability to override that veto meant that the government shut down. The immediate effect was seen at parks and monuments throughout the country, where tourists were turned away.

The full effects of the shutdown would be felt Tuesday morning, when government workers are due to return after a three-day holiday weekend.

The crisis began early Friday, when the House, ignoring the pleas of the president and leaders of both parties, trashed the five-year, $500-billion deficit-reduction agreement negotiated by White House officials and five congressional leaders.

The House defeated the conference report on the budget resolution (H Con Res 310), which would have been the first step toward implementing the budget agreement. The vote was overwhelming, 179-254, and bipartisan: 58 percent of the Democrats and 60 percent of the Republicans voted against the package.

With a five-day stopgap spending measure (H J Res 655) due to expire Friday at midnight, congressional leaders quickly took up a second short-term appropriations measure (H J Res 660), that would continue government operations through Oct. 12. The House approved the measure, 300-113. The Senate cleared it by voice vote later Friday night.

But the president, reminding Congress that he had vowed to veto any further continuation of spending authority unless the budget plan was approved, made good on his promise. He vetoed the measure Saturday morning, saying, "I made it very clear I am not going to be part of business as usual."

Democrats blasted the president for taking what House Speaker Thomas S. Foley, D-Wash., said was an "unnecessary, unjustified, harmful" action.

Foley and other leaders pointed out that congressional leaders had already begun trying to craft another deficit-reduction package — one that could win the support of both parties.

But House Republicans overwhelmingly supported the veto, and it was sustained, 260-138 — six votes short of the two-thirds needed to override.

House Floor

While the budget drama was played out in private negotiations and lobbying efforts during the week, members continued to work on other important legislation.

Crime Bill

The House passed a sweeping anticrime bill (HR 5269) that would impose a broad federal death penalty, tighten

This Week

Lawmakers will continue to struggle to put the country's fiscal affairs in order this week.

In addition, if it has not acted by Tuesday night, Congress must clear a bill to raise the national debt limit. Without the debt limit increase, the government would default on its bills on Thursday. President Bush has said he would sign a debt limit extension that is free of amendments.

The Appropriations committees will have to reallocate funding among their subcommittees so that the fiscal 1991 appropriations bills can be modified to reflect new spending totals in the budget resolution.

Other committees must meet to recommend ways to reduce spending — as instructed by the budget resolution — through legislative changes. These recommendations will be rolled into a deficit-reduction, or reconciliation, bill.

While most of the attention will be on the immediate fiscal crisis, congressional leaders will be trying to complete action on a number of other measures.

House Floor

According to last week's House schedule, members plan to take up more than two dozen bills on Tuesday on a range of matters from health to Puerto Rican independence to river protection. The legislation will be considered under suspension of the rules, which allows for speedy passage of measures that come to the floor with little opposition.

The Puerto Rico bill (HR 4765), supported by the president, would allow residents of the U.S. commonwealth to hold a plebiscite to determine whether they wish to become the 51st state of the United States, an independent nation or assume enhanced commonwealth status.

Textile Veto: On Tuesday the House may vote on whether to override the president's veto of a measure (HR 4328) that would limit the growth in imports of textiles and related products to 1 percent annually.

President Bush vetoed the measure late Friday.

Weapons Restrictions: Members also are expected to turn tomorrow to a bill (HR 4224) to impose restrictions on domestically produced assault weapons and other types of firearms, including a prohibition on the manufacture of those capable of being easily fitted with a silencer or bayonet.

The bill would allow the Treasury secretary to ban domestically made weapons that do not pass a "sporting purposes" test — a restriction that now applies to imported firearms.

Intelligence: The House is scheduled to consider on Tuesday the fiscal 1991 authorization bill (HR 5422) for intelligence operations, including funds for the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) staff, support for specific overseas operations, spy equipment and retirement pay for CIA agents.

Disabled Education: Also on Tuesday, members plan to take up a House-Senate compromise on a measure (S 1824) to reauthorize federal education programs for disabled students. States must provide free education to such students, and the bill would reauthorize a number of grant programs to help states pay for the education.

The legislation would authorize more than $308 million in the current fiscal year.

The Senate approved the conference report last week.

Appropriations Bills: Later in the week members may take up fiscal 1991 appropriations bills for the legislative branch (HR 5399), the Interior Department (HR 5769) and the Defense Department.

NEA Authorization: The House may consider a bill (HR 4825) to reauthorize the National Endowment for the Arts. Although a bipartisan compromise on the issue of funding obscene works was reached last week, support for the proposal is not unanimous. Some conservative Republicans have said the compromise — which would leave the decision on what is obscene to the courts — would still allow the endowment to fund obscene and sacrilegious projects.

The agreement calls for fines and other sanctions on grantees whose work is determined by the courts to be obscene.

China Trade: The House is also planning to vote on legislation (HR 4939) to extend most-favored-nation trade treatment to China, as the president has recommended, and on a resolution (H J Res 647) to disapprove of the favored treatment.

HR 4939 would extend the favored trade status for one year, but make further renewals subject to human rights improvements by the Chinese government.

Senate Floor

The Senate schedule is less certain. Action on various items is possible while the Senate deals with budget matters.

Social Security: Senators are expected to take up a measure (S 3167) that aims to cut social security contribution rates and return Social Security to a "pay-as-you-go" financing procedure.

Aircraft Collisions: Members may consider a bill (HR 2151) that would set a schedule for installing the TCAS-II collision avoidance system in certain civilian aircraft.

German Reunification: Senate action is expected this week on a treaty (Treaty Doc. 101-20) that would return full sovereignty to a unified Germany.

Under the treaty, the United States, Great Britain, France and the Soviet Union would renounce all rights over Germany.

Conference Action

House-Senate conferences on a number of bills are possible this week, and could be scheduled on short notice.

● Negotiators on the housing bill (S 566) plan to meet Tuesday morning. On the agenda will be the issue of how to deal with an expiring moratorium that has prevented owners of low-income housing units from paying off federally subsidized mortgages and then renting the units at higher market rates.

House conferee Steve Bartlett, R-Texas, warned his colleagues that he would fight any proposal that would not result in the building owners receiving fair market compensation.

● Conferences on the farm bill (S 2830), clean air bill (S 1630), child-care bill (HR 3) and defense authorization bill (HR 4739) may meet this week.

Several of those bills could be delayed until more definite actions have been taken on the budget and deficit-reduction packages.

● Other conferences scheduled this week include one on S 580, which would require colleges and universities to disclose information about campus crimes and on the graduation rates of athletes and non-athletes.

Committee Action

Action at the committee level has slowed considerably. With only a few weeks remaining in the congressional session, legislation that is still at the committee stage of the legislative process generally has little chance of becoming law.

Virtually the only important role remaining for the committees this year will be to draft specific legislative language to implement the details of a comprehensive deficit-reduction, or reconciliation, bill. The budget resolution — once one is approved — will tell committees how much money they have to save, or how much in new revenues they have to generate.

Some committees will continue to hold some oversight hearings and may schedule hearings on legislation in order to begin building a record that could be helpful during the next Congress.

Johnston Captures Louisiana Senate Victory

Democratic Sen. J. Bennett Johnston apparently won a fourth term in the Senate on Saturday when he overcame a surprisingly strong challenge from Republican David Duke to capture victory in the Louisiana primary.

Under Louisiana's unique election law, all candidates run on the same ballot and any candidate who wins 50 percent or more of the vote is elected.

Johnston had 54 percent of the votes to Duke's 44 percent. But Duke, a former Ku Klux Klan leader who was repudiated by the Republican Party, said he would demand that absentee ballots cast for former Republican candidate Ben Bagert also be counted. It was unclear over the weekend whether those votes — even if they were counted — would be enough to deny Johnston the 50 percent he needed.

In other races, seven incumbents won re-election to the House. Bob Livingston, R, won 84 percent of the votes in the 1st District. Other incumbents, and their winning percentages: W. J. "Billy" Tauzin, D-3 (88 percent); Jim McCrery, R-4 (55 percent); Jerry Huckaby, D-5 (73 percent); Richard H. Baker, R-6 (100 percent); Jimmy Hayes, D-7 (58 percent); and Clyde C. Holloway, R-8 (56 percent).

In the 2nd District, where Rep. Lindy (Mrs. Hale) Boggs, D, is retiring, William J. Jefferson and Mark H. Morial, both Democrats, will face off in a Nov. 6 runoff. Jefferson had 24 percent and Morial captured 22 percent in a 12-candidate race.

gun controls and curtail habeas corpus appeals of capital sentences.

The measure, approved 368-55, also calls for a number of substantial steps to punish drug traffickers, including imposing the death penalty for killings and some other drug-related crimes.

Some 20 federal crimes, including assassination of the president, espionage and murder by mail bomb, would be punishable by death.

The measure includes a provision that would permit death row prisoners to challenge the death sentence if they could show that racial discrimination played a factor. But the House on Friday approved an amendment that would weaken the original provision somewhat.

Members approved an amendment to establish a "good faith" exception to the exclusionary rule, which prohibits illegally obtained evidence from being presented at trial. It would allow such evidence to be introduced if police made good faith efforts to comply with constitutional protections against illegal search and seizure.

Immigration: Members approved an overhaul of the U.S. immigration system, passing legislation (HR 4300) that is designed to reunite families and fill job shortages in certain industries.

The measure, approved 231-192, would increase the number of legal immigrants from 540,000 to 775,000 a year. The Senate-passed version (S 358) would cap immigration at 630,000, aliens, annually.

White House-bound: The House cleared several bills for the president's desk last week, including S 3155, to temporarily reauthorize the Defense Production Act, which would ensure the production of critical materials during wartime; S 1511, to prohibit employers from discriminating against older workers in providing disability and other benefits; S 647, to give the Securities and Exchange Commission greater powers to enforce penny stock and other securities laws; and HR 1677, to impose limits on the amount of television advertising directed toward children.

Members also cleared S 1974, to require TV sets 13 inches and larger sold in the United States after July 1993 to be equipped with circuitry to decode closed-captioned signals, which allow hearing-impaired viewers access to programming.

Miscellaneous: The House passed a variety of other bills as well, including HR 5732, aimed at improving security in airports and on airplanes; H J Res 418, which calls on the administration to seek immediate negotiations for a new international agreement to protect Antarctica's environment; and H J Res 658, which expresses congressional support for President Bush's objectives and policies in the Persian Gulf and urges a diplomatic solution to the crisis.

Senate Floor

Souter Nomination: Soft-spoken New Hampshire Judge David H. Souter was easily confirmed to become an associate justice on the United States Supreme Court last week. The vote was 90-9. Souter is to be sworn in Tuesday.

VA-HUD Appropriations: Members passed, 90-8, an appropriations bill (HR 5158) for fiscal 1991 providing $78.6 billion for the Departments of Veterans Affairs and Housing and Urban Development and about 20 independent agencies. The National Aeronautics and Space Administration would receive $13.5 billion, about $1.6 billion less than the administration request. The Environmental Protection Agency would get about $6 billion.

Money Laundering: Senators passed a money laundering bill (S 3037) that aims to put the clamps on money launderers and their accomplices by increasing penalties on violators, requiring better records on international money transfers, calling on the Treasury Department to share classified banking information with state supervisory agencies and requiring the Treasury to consider changing the size and look of U.S. currency.

The bill also would require banks to include specific information — annual percentage yields, basic fees, possible penalties — on advertisements for savings accounts and on mailed account statements.

Miscellaneous: Senators passed several other bills, including:

- HR 2331, which would allow the U.S. Postal Service to refuse to deliver mail that appears to be an official government letter soliciting money for services unless a large disclaimer is evident.

- S Con Res 147, which endorses the president's handling of the Persian Gulf crisis.

- HR 486, which would reauthorize the Defense Production Act. The bill gives the president added authority in wartime and aims to ensure the health of domestic industries critical to a war effort.

Attached to HR 486 was an amendment that would change U.S. policy toward foreign banks. Under the proposed policy, called "reciprocal national treatment," U.S. regulators could reject a foreign bank's application if that country did not provide fair access to U.S. banks.

- On Friday, the Senate passed a bill (HR 1608) to provide an overview of the U.S. population's nutritional habits. The bill would require the government to conduct a comprehensive 10-year study of U.S. diets and nutritional health and to establish dietary guidelines.

- Senators on Friday passed a bill (S 3118) to bolster Medicaid programs dealing with drug dependency.

- Also passed on Friday was a bill (HR 5070) that would provide nearly $50 million for repairs and upgrades at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts.

Conference Action

Farm Bill: By the end of the week, the conference on the 1990 farm bill, which had been moving at a glacial pace, came to a standstill. With the House's rejection Friday morning of the fiscal 1991 budget resolution, which embodied a $13 billion cut in crop subsidies, conferees were left without the answer to their primary question: how much would they have to reduce the five-year $54 billion-plus measure.

Meeting on Friday, conferees completed action on a section of the bill establishing national standards for organic agricultural production.

Conferees also completed action on the research section and part of the conservation section. In research, they resolved a dispute over "low-input" agriculture, which relies on lower use of pesticides, by authorizing $40 million in research funds and lessening the emphasis on assisting small family farmers.

Head Start: House and Senate conferees agreed on a compromise version of legislation (HR 4151) to reauthorize a variety of human services programs for the poor, including Head Start, the popular education, nutrition, health and social service program for preschoolers.

The conference agreement would provide nearly $2.4 billion for Head Start in fiscal 1991, increasing to more than $7.6 billion in fiscal 1994. Funding in fiscal 1990 was $1.4 billion.

The agreement would also increase funding for the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program, which provides funds to states to help those with low incomes pay their utility bills and weatherize their homes; the Community Services Block Grant program, which funds activities aimed at helping the poor become self-sufficient; and the Community Food and Nutrition Program, which helps nonprofit agencies plan ways to meet the nutritional needs of the poor.

Taft Institute: Negotiators also reached agreement on a bill (S 1939) to reauthorize the Taft Institute, which provides training in political science to high school government teachers.

Housing Programs: House and Senate conferees on the housing bill (S 566) reached agreement on numerous mostly minor differences in the two chambers' versions of the bill.

One of the provisions agreed upon would authorize $150 million to provide housing and financing for homeless people with AIDS.

Conferees also appeared to be moving toward combining the Senate's Housing Opportunity Partnerships program — which would authorize $2 billion for grants to state and local governments to buy, build and rehabilitate housing for low- and middle-income families — and a proposal by Rep. Charles E. Schumer, D-N.Y., to provide $300 million for construction of new homes for low-income families.

Committee Action

Here are highlights of last week's committee and subcommittee markups. The entries are arranged alphabetically by committee, starting with Senate panels.

Foreign Aid: The Senate Appropriations Foreign Operations Subcommittee sided with President Bush last week by voting to forgive Egypt's $6.7 billion military debt as part of a fiscal 1991 foreign aid bill (HR 5114) that the panel approved.

The House version of the measure would grant Egypt a temporary payment waiver instead of forgiving the loans.

The bill also includes a conditional 50 percent cut in military aid to El Salvador and $15 million for international family planning efforts under the United Nations Population Fund — two provisions that would prompt a veto, according to Bob Kasten, Wis., ranking Republican on the Foreign Operations Subcommittee.

Keating Five: The Senate Ethics Committee met with John Glenn, D-Ohio, and John McCain, R-Ariz. — two of the five senators under investigation in connection with their involvement with thrift operator Charles H. Keating Jr.

The panel is looking into whether the senators improperly pressured thrift regulators to ease up on Keating's troubled Lincoln Savings and Loan in exchange for campaign contributions.

According to recent news reports the panel's special counsel has recommended that the committee drop its investigation of Glenn and McCain.

The panel plans to meet this week with the other three senators — Donald W. Riegle Jr., D-Mich., Alan Cranston, D-Calif., and Dennis DeConcini, D-Ariz.

Federal Facilities: The Senate Environment Committee approved, 14-0, legislation (S 1140) to force the federal government to abide by its own environmental laws, despite Republican concerns that the measure would actually delay costly cleanup of nuclear weapons plants and other federal facilities.

The bill would give states authority to sue the federal government for failing to comply with the 1984 law governing hazardous waste disposal, the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act. Republicans argue that money will be spent on fines rather than cleanups.

Environmental Bills: The Senate Environment panel also approved, by voice vote, a number of other environmental protection bills. One bill (S 2706) would require the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) to develop national guidelines for beach water quality. States would have two years to adopt the water quality standards, including beach closure rules, based on the federal criteria.

Also approved were:

- S 585, which would set up an office within the EPA to develop a plan for reducing the generation of hazardous waste.

- S 1697, which would require that schools in areas with high concentrations of radon gas be tested by 1993.

- S 2637, which would ban or restrict the largest sources of lead pollution, such as lead paint used for nonartistic purposes, leaded gasoline or lead solder used in water pipes. The bill would require recycling of automobile batteries.

- S 2184, which would authorize $1.5 billion over five years for loans to small communities to help them finance facilities such as sewage treatment plants and solid waste landfills.

Germany Treaty: On the day before East and West Germany officially reunited, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee voted 17-0 to recommend ratification of a treaty granting full sovereignty to a united Germany. Under the treaty, the United States, Great Britain, France and the Soviet Union would renounce all rights over Germany. The treaty would recognize the post-World War II border between Poland and Germany as the official border.

Crime Against Women: The Senate Judiciary Committee unanimously approved a bill (S 2754) designed to combat violence against women.

The far-reaching bill would increase penalties for rape and spouse abuse, boost funds for police efforts in the 40 areas of the country deemed the most dangerous for women and require increased security measures at public transit facilities, such as special lighting and camera surveillance.

Interior Spending: The House Appropriations Committee approved a $12.8 billion fiscal 1991 interior spending bill (HR 5769), which includes restrictions on off-shore oil and gas drilling and logging in the Pacific Northwest but does not place restrictions on the National Endowment for the Arts.

The measure would put large segments of the nation's off-shore areas off-limits to oil and gas drilling and expand the areas covered by previous drilling moratoriums.

A new restriction that would reduce logging in old growth forests in the Northwest by about 20 percent is included in the bill in an effort to preserve the habitat of the threatened northern spotted owl.

The appropriations language will likely be the only congressional action this year on the timber vs. owl dispute: Rep. Bruce A. Vento, D-Minn., last week acknowledged that he will not be able to win passage of his bill (HR 5295) that would limit timber cutting in the region.

The committee rejected an effort to drop federal funding of the National Endowment for the Arts unless an authorization bill for the NEA becomes law. That authorization bill has been held up over a dispute about NEA grants for work on allegedly obscene art.

District Funding, Judges: The House District of Columbia Committee approved legislation (HR 5760) that would establish a formula for determining the amount of the annual federal payment to the District of Columbia. The bill calls for an annual payment to the District equal to 19.5 percent of local revenues.

The committee also approved HR 4257, which would establish a new, seven-member supreme court in the District.

Foreign Investment: The House Energy Committee and the Foreign Affairs International Economic Policy Subcommittee both gave approval to legislation (HR 4520) aimed at improving the government's information about foreign investment in the United States.

The legislation would authorize some sharing of information among several agencies and calls for an annual report by the Commerce Department comparing the employment, wages, research and development spending and capital investment of U.S.- and foreign-owned firms doing business in the United States.

Energy Bills: The House Energy panel approved several minor bills, including:

- HR 5707, which would clarify that the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission has no jurisdiction over the distribution of natural gas used in motor vehicles.

- HR 3429, which would make interstate simulcasts and off-track betting on greyhound races subject to the same regulations governing horse races.

- HR 5756, which would assert that political candidates should be able to buy broadcast advertising time at the lowest rate charged by the station in the period just before a primary or general election.

Abortion Rights: The House Judiciary panel's Civil and Constitutional Rights Subcommittee approved, on a party-line vote of 5-3, legislation (HR 3700) that would prohibit states from restricting a woman's legal right to an abortion. Backers said the bill would merely codify the Supreme Court's 1973 Roe v. Wade decision. Opponents said it would go much further.

Pipeline Safety: The House Public Works Committee on Friday approved a bill (HR 4888) requiring fuel pipeline owners to inspect and rebury exposed underwater pipelines in the Gulf of Mexico.

The bill, passed by voice vote, was prompted by two accidents in the gulf in which fishing boats struck exposed pipelines. ■

SWEARING-IN CEREMONY FOR JUSTICE SOUTER
EAST ROOM \ MONDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1990 \ 5:00 P.M.

THANK YOU, AND GOOD AFTERNOON. MR. CHIEF JUSTICE,
MEMBERS OF THE COURT, LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: TRULY, IT IS A GREAT HONOR TO GREET YOU AT THE WHITE HOUSE, AND IN PARTICULAR, TO WELCOME THE FRIENDS OF THIS EXTRAORDINARY JUDGE TO WASHINGTON.

TODAY'S CEREMONY IS HISTORIC FOR MANY REASONS. IT IS, OF COURSE, THE FIRST SUPREME COURT APPOINTMENT OF THIS PRESIDENCY.

BUT MORE IMPORTANTLY, IT SERVES AS ANOTHER OCCASION TO CELEBRATE THE 200 YEARS OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AND THE INDEPENDENT JUDICIARY IT LAUNCHED.

WE MEET ON COLUMBUS DAY, BIRTHDATE OF A MODERN HEMISPHERE -- AND AN AUSPICIOUS DATE FOR ANY NEW BEGINNING. ELSEWHERE AROUND THE WORLD, THE ORIGINS OF MANY COUNTRIES ARE ALMOST LOST IN TIME, THEIR ROOTS UNCLEAR OR UNKNOWN. NOT SO IN AMERICA.

WE KNOW EXACTLY WHERE -- AND EXACTLY WHEN -- OUR MODERN HISTORY BEGINS. BUT WE OFTEN FORGET THAT, BACK IN 1492, CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS WAS SEARCHING NOT FOR A NEW WORLD, BUT FOR A NEW WAY -- A PASSAGE TO THE RICHES OF THE FAR EAST. (IN FACT, COLUMBUS WAS SO CONFIDENT HE CARRIED A LETTER FROM QUEEN ISABELLA TO BE DELIVERED TO THE EMPEROR OF CHINA. THIS MARKED HISTORY'S FIRST KNOWN CASE OF MAIL GETTING LOST ON ITS WAY ACROSS AMERICA.)

BUT IF OUR MODERN HISTORY BEGAN WITH A SEARCH FOR EARTHLY TREASURE, IT WAS A SEARCH FOR SOMETHING MORE ELUSIVE THAT ACTUALLY GAVE BIRTH TO THE UNITED STATES. A SEARCH FOR FREEDOM. A SEARCH FOR JUSTICE AND SELF-GOVERNMENT. A SEARCH THAT PRODUCED THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

IN ANCIENT CHINA, THE WORD "WISDOM" WAS FORMED BY A COMBINATION OF THE IDEOGRAMS FOR WIND AND LIGHTNING. WIND AND LIGHTNING.

YEARS BEFORE THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, BENJAMIN FRANKLIN LOFTED A KITE UPON THE WIND AND SEIZED LIGHTNING FROM THE SKY. AT AGE 81, HE DID IT AGAIN. FOR FOUR SWELTERING MONTHS IN THE SUMMER OF 1787, 55 DELEGATES MET IN PHILADELPHIA, DEBATING A WONDERFUL, AUDACIOUS, UNSETTLING IDEA. WASHINGTON CALLED THE CONSTITUTION "LITTLE SHORT OF A MIRACLE." IT WAS WISDOM. WIND AND LIGHTNING. A NATION INVENTING ITSELF.

ONE OF THOSE 55 DELEGATES WAS JAMES WILSON, THE SON OF A SCOTTISH FARMER, AND THE PENNSYLVANIA LAWYER WHO SHARED RESPONSIBILITY FOR WRITING THE CONSTITUTION'S FIRST DRAFT. A FERVENT ADVOCATE OF THE SOVEREIGNTY OF THE PEOPLE, WILSON FOUGHT FOR A STRONG NATIONAL JUDICIARY, AND WAS ONE OF THE FIRST TO ENVISION THE PRINCIPLE OF JUDICIAL REVIEW. TODAY, WILSON'S IDEA STANDS AS ONE OF THE CORNERSTONES OF OUR REPUBLIC -- AND ONE OF AMERICA'S GREATEST GIFTS TO THE WORLD. \\\

TOMORROW MORNING, JUSTICE DAVID SOUTER -- SOUNDS GOOD, DOESN'T IT? -- ASSUMES A DISTINGUISHED SEAT ON THE SUPREME COURT. IT WAS FIRST HELD BY THAT VERY SAME JAMES WILSON -- ONE OF THE FIVE MEN THAT PRESIDENT GEORGE WASHINGTON FIRST APPOINTED TO THE SUPREME COURT IN 1789. HIS SUCCESSOR WAS BUSHROD WASHINGTON, A NEPHEW OF THE PRESIDENT, SOLDIER IN THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR, AND FOUNDING MEMBER OF ONE OF THE MANY ORGANIZATIONS THAT HAS RECOGNIZED DAVID SOUTER FOR HIS BRILLIANT INTELLECT -- PHI BETA KAPPA.

34 YEARS AGO, THIS DISTINGUISHED SEAT BECAME OPEN DURING THE PRESIDENCY OF ONE OF MY PERSONAL HEROES -- DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER. AND IKE FILLED THAT SEAT WITH A JURIST WHO WAS TO BECOME ONE OF THE MOST PERSONALLY BELOVED MEMBERS OF THE COURT: JUSTICE WILLIAM BRENNAN. AND IN MARKING THIS MOMENT OF TRANSITION, LET ME FIRST -- ON BEHALF OF ALL AMERICANS -- WISH JUSTICE BRENNAN A MOST PLEASANT AND ACTIVE RETIREMENT. \\\

LIKE HIS PREDECESSOR, JUSTICE SOUTER COMES TO THE COURT WITH A DISTINGUISHED RECORD OF JUDICIAL SERVICE. AND I AM GRATEFUL THAT MANY OF THE FINE JUDGES WITH WHOM HE HAS SERVED ARE ABLE TO BE WITH US TODAY.

DURING THE RECENT HEARINGS, JUSTICE SOUTER CLEARLY DEMONSTRATED THE SUPERB EDUCATION, TRAINING, AND EXPERIENCE THAT GRACE HIS RECORD.

BUT EVEN MORE IMPORTANT, JUSTICE SOUTER ONCE AGAIN DEMONSTRATED HIS LIFE-LONG DEVOTION TO PRINCIPLE -- A SIMPLE, STRAIT-FORWARD, AND ENDURING PRINCIPLE -- A PRINCIPLE QUITE FAMILIAR TO JUSTICE JAMES WILSON AND THE OTHER FRAMERS OF THE CONSTITUTION. AND THE PRINCIPLE IS THIS: THE ROLE ASSIGNED TO JUDGES IN OUR SYSTEM IS TO INTERPRET THE CONSTITUTION AND LESSER LAWS -- NOT TO MAKE THEM.

AND ON THIS ISSUE OF PRINCIPLE, I ALSO WANT TO CONGRATULATE THE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE, AND THE FULL SENATE, FOR THE PROMPT AND FAITHFUL EXERCISE OF THEIR OWN CONSTITUTIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES.

LIKE MANY AMERICANS, I WAS PARTICULARLY MOVED BY JUSTICE SOUTER'S OPENING COMMENTS AT HIS HEARINGS.

"THE FIRST LESSON," HE SAID, "SIMPLE AS IT IS, IS THAT WHATEVER COURT WE ARE IN, WHATEVER WE ARE DOING ... AT THE END OF OUR TASK SOME HUMAN BEING IS GOING TO BE AFFECTED, SOME HUMAN LIFE IS GOING TO BE CHANGED BY WHAT WE DO." AND HE ADDED: AND SO "WE HAD BETTER USE EVERY POWER OF OUR MINDS AND OUR HEARTS AND OUR BEINGS TO GET THOSE RULINGS RIGHT."

NOW THOSE ARE THE SENTIMENTS OF ONE VERY THOUGHTFUL AND CARING MAN. \\\

JUST DOWN THE STREET, AS THE AUTUMN TWILIGHT
DESCENDS ON WASHINGTON, AN UNDERGROUND VAULT HOLDS
AMERICA'S FOUNDING PAPERS, THE BIRTH CERTIFICATE OF A NATION. THE PAPER IS A DEEP YELLOW, BUT THE WRITING IS STILL STRONG AND DISTINCT. "WE THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES..."

THE CONSTITUTION IS NOT JUST A SYMBOL BUT A LIVING IDEA, THE WORLD'S GREATEST EXPERIMENT IN FREEDOM AND SELF-GOVERNMENT.

FOUR HANDWRITTEN PAGES THAT PROMISE FREEDOM AND JUSTICE BEFORE THE LAW. UNLIKE OTHER NATIONS, AMERICANS CANNOT LOOK TO A COMMON HERITAGE OF CULTURE OR BLOOD.

AMERICANS COME FROM EVERY CORNER OF THE WORLD, LINKED ONLY BY THIS, AN IDEA, A NATION THAT INVENTED ITSELF.

IN JUST A FEW MOMENTS, WE WILL ALL BEAR SOLEMN WITNESS TO THE OATH OF OFFICE OF AMERICA'S NEWEST SUPREME COURT JUSTICE. AND SO LET ME CONCLUDE WITH JUSTICE SOUTER'S OWN DESCRIPTION OF THE TASK AHEAD:

IT IS "THE RESPONSIBILITY TO JOIN WITH EIGHT OTHER PEOPLE, TO MAKE THE PROMISES OF THE CONSTITUTION A REALITY FOR OUR TIME, AND TO PRESERVE THAT CONSTITUTION FOR THE GENERATIONS THAT WILL FOLLOW US, AFTER WE ARE GONE FROM HERE."

AND NOW I WOULD INVITE CHIEF JUSTICE WILLIAM REHNQUIST also Tom Rafter Sen. Rudman WITH THE ASSISTANCE OF ERIN RATH, TO ADMINISTER THE CONSTITUTIONAL OATH OF OFFICE TO JUSTICE DAVID SOUTER. \\\ MR. CHIEF JUSTICE.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

SWEARING IN OF JUSTICE SOUTER TO THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

DATE: OCTOBER 8, 1990
TIME: 5:00 P.M.
LOCATION: EAST ROOM

FROM: C. BOYDEN GRAY CBG/PAJ
COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

I. PURPOSE

The administration of the constitutional oath to Justice Souter.

II. BACKGROUND

David Souter became Justice Souter when you signed the commission appointing him Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States. Before he properly can participate in Court deliberations, however, he must take two oaths. The Chief Justice will administer the first oath at this ceremony; the second will be administered at the Court on Tuesday morning before the Court hears arguments.

The schedule calls for you to make brief remarks, which may serve as an opportunity to cast the recent hearings as an example of a good confirmation process in which the Senate did not require commitments from the nominee as to how he would rule or how he would weight constitutional factors in any given case. The Chief Justice will then swear in Justice Souter (with Erin Rath, the daughter of one of his closest friends, Tom Rath, holding the Bible), after which the new Justice may wish to make a few remarks. A reception follows.

The occasion also provides a way of thanking many of those who were involved in the confirmation efforts. Judiciary Committee members have been invited to attend, as have favorable witnesses, Justice Department officials, and others who worked behind the scenes. Many of Justice Souter's friends from New Hampshire will also be in attendance.

III. PARTICIPANTS

The President

Chief Justice William Rehnquist

Justice David Souter

Erin Rath (15 year-old daughter of Souter friend Tom Rath will hold Bible)

Others attending include Associate Justices White and Scalia and their wives, former Associate Justices Powell and Brennan and their wives, Mrs. Potter Stewart, Cabinet Members, the Senate and House Leadership and Senate Judiciary Committee Members, Governor and Mrs. Sununu, other Senior Staff Members and more than 200 other invited guests.

Public Liaison will provide a final list on Monday.
