RECOMMENDED VICTORY TELEPHONE CALL

TO: Senator Jesse Helms (North Carolina)
Home: (919) 828-1122

DATE: Wednesday, November 7, 1990

RECOMMENDED
BY: Edward M. Rogers, Jr.
Deputy Assistant to the President and
Executive Assistant to the Chief of Staff

David M. Carney
Special Assistant to the President and
Director, Office of Political Affairs

PURPOSE: To congratulate Senator Helms on his victory over Democrat Harvey Gantt for U.S. Senator of North Carolina.

BACKGROUND: Senator Jesse Helms defeated former Mayor of Charlotte Harvey Gantt for re-election to a third term in the U.S. Senate

Helms won a brutal race with 53% of the vote.
In the final weeks of the campaign, he was harshly criticized for airing campaign advertisements which many interpreted as containing a racial bias.

TOPICS OF DISCUSSION:

1. In a state where Democrats have monopolized power for so many years, your continued success shows the growing strength of the Republican party across the country.
2. Your success is a message from the voters that they need change from the big spending Democrats who control Congress.

RECOMMENDED VICTORY CALL

DATE:

RECOMMENDED BY:

Ed Rogers
Deputy Assistant to the President and
Executive Assistant to the Chief of Staff

David M. Carney
Special Assistant to the President and Director, Office of Political Affairs

PURPOSE

To congratulate Governor-elect Edgar on his successful bid for Governor of Illinois.

BACKGROUND:

Republican Jim Edgar defeated Democrat Neil Hartigan by a margin of % to % in Tuesday's Illinois gubernatorial race. Edgar and Hartigan were neck and neck throughout the entire campaign, and there was no clear favorite heading into election day. Edgar's success is considered a major GOP victory in a race that was considered a toss-up.

TOPICS FOR DISCUSSION:

1. Your victory will allow you to build upon the gains made by Governor Jim Thompson.
2. Your success is a great one for our party, but the people of Illinois are the real winners. I am certain you will that you will lead Illinois on to a bright and prosperous future.
3. Barbara and I wish you and your family continued success in the future, and I look forward to working with you as Illinois's next Governor.

TO: Governor Judd Gregg (New Hampshire)
(603) 271-2121 (Office)

DATE: Wednesday, November 7, 1990

RECOMMENDED BY: Ed Rogers
Deputy Assistant to the President and
Executive Assistant to the Chief of Staff

David M. Carney
Special Assistant to the President and
Director, Office of Political Affairs

PURPOSE: To congratulate Judd Gregg on his successful re-election campaign for Governor of New Hampshire.

BACKGROUND: Judd Gregg was seeking his second term after succeeding former Governor John Sununu.
Gregg, an early Bush supporter in 1979 and 1987, faced former New Hampshire Democrat Party Chairman Joe Grandmaison. Grandmaison, a former Dukakis campaign manager, raised most of his campaign funds through Dukakis financial and campaign supporters. This close association with Dukakis allowed Gregg to brand Grandmaison with the label of a "tax and spend liberal."

You and Mrs. Bush attended a fundraising reception for Governor Gregg at the Seascapes Restaurant in Cape Porpoise, Maine back in August.

Gregg had been the frontrunner for the entire race. Latest polling figures showed the race at 51%-29%.

TOPICS FOR DISCUSSION:

1. Congratulations Judd on winning a second term in office.
2. I appreciate the support you and your father have shown me over the years.

Bush Presidential Library Photocopy

3. I was glad to attend a fundraising event for you in Kennebunkport this summer.

4. At a time when all the New England states are facing a slowing economy and tough budgetary decisions, you have provided the necessary leadership to cut government spending and keep New Hampshire going.

5. Barbara and I send our best wishes to you and Kathy on all your future success.

PURPOSE: To congratulate Senator Pete Wilson on his election victory for Governor of California.

BACKGROUND: Governor-elect Pete Wilson defeated Democrat Diane Feinstein by a margin of % to % in the California gubernatorial race.

TOPICS FOR DISCUSSION:

1. Barbara and I send our best wishes to you and Gayle on your very successful victory to become the next Governor of California.
2. You showed true determination in your fight for Governor and should be proud of your success.
3. I know you'll provide strong leadership for California in the 1990's and help strengthen the Republican effort in California.
4. I know you'll face many challenges ahead, but just remember you have a friend in the White House.

William Weld (Republican Candidate for Governor of Massachusetts)

RECOMMENDED

BY:

Ed Rogers
Deputy Assistant to the President and
Executive Assistant to the Chief of Staff

David M. Carney
Special Assistant to the President and Director, Office of Political Affairs

PURPOSE:

To congratulate Bill Weld for his successful race for Governor of Massachusetts.

BACKGROUND:

Bill Weld defeated House Minority Leader
Steve Pierce to become the Republican nominee for Governor on September 18th. Weld faced Democrat John Silber, who is President of Boston University.

With the state's weak economy and budgetary problems, the feeling of the voters was to "Throw the bums out". Republicans had a great chance to win the governorship, the state treasurer position and possibly the U.S. Senate.

In the past few weeks, Weld has been able to climb back into the race. Silber's recent appearances on local and national T.V. have shown he is a short temper and lack of patience.

Weld's running mate is State Senator Paul Cellucci, who was your Massachusetts GBFP Campaign Chairman.

TOPICS FOR DISCUSSION:

1. Congratulations Bill on becoming the first Republican Governor of Massachusetts in almost 20 years.

Bush Presidential Library Photocopy

Bush Library Photocopy
George Bush Handwriting

2. The voters clearly sent a message this Election Day that they were "fed up" with the Democrat's lack of leadership.

3. You now have the opportunity to show that the liberal tax and spend government of the Democrats does not work.

4. I know you will face many challenges ahead and you have a friend in the White House.

5. This election in Massachusetts is the first step toward turning the Bay State into a two party state.

6. Barbara and I send our best wishes to you and your running mate, my good friend Paul Cellucci, on your future success.

David M. Carney
Special Assistant to the President and
Director, Office of Political Affairs

PURPOSE: To congratulate Jock McKernan on his successful re-election as Governor of Maine.

BACKGROUND: Republican Governor John "Jock" McKernan faced a tough re-election campaign from the start. His opponent was former Governor and Congressman Joe Brennan, who had switched seats with McKernan in 1986.

McKernan was faced with budgetary and fiscal problems similar to other New England Governors. However, McKernan was able to balance the budget without having to raise taxes.

Brennan attacked McKernan for his sloppy handling of the state government and supposed lack of vision for the state. Late in the campaign, McKernan was able to attack Brennan for government real estate transactions and stays of execution for friends of his staff made at the close of his Administration.

You attended a golf fundraiser for Governor McKernan this past August. Mrs. Bush made two fundraising trips to Maine for Governor McKernan.

Governor McKernan's wife, Congresswoman
Olympia Snowe, won re-election with 51%.

TOPICS FOR DISCUSSION:

1. Congratulations on winning a second term
Jock.
2. Everybody knew you were facing an uphill battle from the start, but the voters finally agreed that they could not go back to the days of Democratic leadership.
3. You have always been a fighter for the people of Maine and they are fortunate to have you serving another term.
4. I enjoyed campaigning with you this past summer at the golf fundraiser in Falmouth.
5. Barbara and I send our best wishes to you and Olympia on your future success.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

TO: Senator Mark Hatfield (Oregon)
Portland Hilton (International Room)
(503) 226-1611 ext. 187

DATE: October 7, 1990

RECOMMENDED
BY: Edward M. Rogers, Jr.
Deputy Assistant to the President and
Executive Assistant to the Chief of Staff

David M. Carney
Special Assistant to the President and
Director, Office of Political Affairs

PURPOSE: To congratulate Senator Mark Hatfield on his re-election.

BACKGROUND: Senator Mark Hatfield (R) defeated Democrat businessman Harry Lonsdale by 53% to 47% to return to Washington for a fifth term. After a sluggish start and a drop in the polls Hatfield put his campaign into full gear and overcame the "Oregon Curse" (no elected official has retained their seat for more than 24 years).

TOPICS FOR DISCUSSION: 1. Congratulations on your re-election to the U.S. Senate.

2. I know you will continue your strong leadership in the U.S. Senate and will carry on the effort to strengthen the Republican party in Oregon.

3. Barbara and I send our best wishes to you and Antoinette.
