Mr. President:

You received a phone call today from former Congressman Bill Schuette. It has not been announced yet, but he has accepted the position of Director of Agriculture for the State of Michigan. He will begin mid-January. He does plan to run again and feels this is an excellent position from which to do so.

He would like to talk to you about this -- at your convenience.

Dear Mrs. Allen:

Please find enclosed a personal note from the President to Mr. Allen. I deeply regret that this was held up in the White House mail room over the New Year's holiday, but I send it now in the hope that you will find some comfort of knowing that the President thought so highly about your late husband's work and philosophy of life.

Please accept as well my personal sympathy at this difficult time.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

John S. Gardner
