WASHINGTON

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN

Dear Mr. President,

I watched your speech in my little bunker in the basement of the White House tonight. And then I witnessed the great media convulsions that followed. I walked back to my office through Lafayette Square thinking that never before in my 34 years of covering these things has a President been so courageous, so thorough, so caring - so good at his job.

Oddly, I was interviewing Nixon this morning when you called him. I figured it out. We both agreed that no other President had worked so hard, touched so many bases, done everything humanly possible to sustain honor and decency in this world.

If men can make it work, you and your cabinet and staff will. I'll sleep well tonight.

With confidence,

The Day after The State of the Union 1991

C

Dear George,

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN

Cousin to Cousin - The State of the Union address was so fine, so principled, so just an explanation and exhortation of the cause at hand. By focusing on the "we" you honor all Americans to share in the dream you have set before the nation and the sacrifices necessary to achieve that end. Davis and I are both ready, willing, and able to use whatever gifts the God had has given us to make a difference in the lives of others. One humble contribution to your own catalog is the attached listing of "Mornings" from Gandy Walker's Bible - Louise Wear Walker - the scope and breadth is truly a witness to her beautiful character.

May they sustain you in the tough times you face.

Devotedly,
Susanne

P.S. Went by to see Aunt Dottie yesterday - so beautiful - I read to her and we talked - the nurse came in and said it was time to leave - after the nurse went, Aunt Dottie said "Pay no attention to her" - at which point we recalled G. Shultz when Sec. & State was harassing her & you & his staff said, "You must save yourself, Mr.
Secretary" - G.S. replied "What in earth for?"
Aunt Dottie laughed a little and said she knew the same way. So I asked her to tell me all the things she would like to do and if the body is willing - we might make them come come true. She is one of a kind - so beloved & so proud, all her chills

RADIO ADDRESS BY THE PRESIDENT IN PROCLAIMING FEBRUARY 3RD AS THE NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER

The Oval Office

THE PRESIDENT: At this moment, America, the finest, most loving nation on Earth, is at war. At war against the oldest enemy of the human spirit -- evil that threatens world peace.

At this moment, men and women of courage and endurance stand on the harsh desert and sail the seas of the Gulf. By their presence they're bearing witness to the fact that the triumph of the moral order is the vision that compels us.

At this moment, those of us here at home are thinking of them and of the future of our world. I recall Abraham Lincoln and his anguish during the Civil War. He turned to prayer, saying: "I've been driven many times to my knees by the overwhelming conviction that I have nowhere else to go."

So many of us, compelled by a deep need for God's wisdom in all we do, turn to prayer. We pray for God's protection in all we undertake, for God's love to fill all hearts, and for God's peace to be the moral North Star that guides us.

So I have proclaimed Sunday, February 3rd, National Day of Prayer. In this moment of crisis, may Americans of every creed turn to our greatest power and unite together in prayer.

Let us pray for the safety of the troops -- these men and women who have put their lives and dreams on hold because they understand the threat our world faces.

Let us pray for those who make the supreme sacrifice. In our terrible grief, we pray that they leave the fields of battle for finer fields where there is no danger -- only tranquility; where there is no fear -- only peace; and where there is no evil -- only the love of the greatest Father of all.

Let us pray for those who are held prisoner, that God will protect these, his special children -- and will enlighten the minds and soften the hearts of their captors.

Let us pray for the families of those who serve. Let us reach out to them with caring, to make them part of a greater family filled with love and support.

Let us pray for the innocents caught up in this war. All of them, wherever they may be. And let us remember deep in our hearts the value of all human life, everywhere in the world.

Let us pray for our nation. We ask God to bless us, to help us, and to guide us through whatever dark nights may still lay ahead. And, above all, let us pray for peace -- "Peace, which passeth all understanding."

On this National Day of Prayer and always, may God bless the United States of America.
