THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

March 20, 1991

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: C. BOYDEN GRAY cmg
COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Invitation to the Supreme Court Justices to lunch at Camp David

As we discussed, I have locked in April 20 with Patty and Kathy Super as the day to invite the Supreme Court Justices for lunch and an afternoon at Camp David.

We had also talked briefly about whom to invite. I think we had got as far as the following:

- You and Mrs. Bush
- Chief Justice and Mrs. Rehnquist
- Justice and Mrs. White
- Justice and Mrs. Marshall
- Justice and Mrs. Blackmun
- Justice and Mrs. Stevens
- Justice and Mr. O'Connor
- Justice and Mrs. Scalia
- Justice and Mrs. Kennedy
- Justice Souter
- Attorney General and Mrs. Thornburgh

21

Do you also want to invite Andy Stewart, Justice and Mrs. Burger, Justice and Mrs. Powell, and Justice and Mrs. Brennan? 28

We had also discussed adding some non-Court members. You had mentioned the possibility of inviting General Schwarzkopf, Dick Cheney, or Colin Powell to come and speak about the war. Does that idea still appeal to you? 34

You had also suggested some people from around Washington, lawyers and other. You had mentioned Lloyd Cutler, and I assume his wife. Additional possibilities would be Sally Katzen (also at Wilmer, Cutler, & Pickering) and her husband Tim Dyk, who is a distinguished First Amendment lawyer in his own right. Dean and Mrs. Burch and Bain and Mrs. Kerr also strike me as good additions, as does Katherine Graham. Finally, how about Lamar Alexander and his wife? As you know, Alexander is a lawyer, and I'm quite impressed with him. 45

Which White House people do you want to have? And do you want me to make the Court invitations or would you like to do that yourself?
