MEMORANDUM TO THE PRESIDENT

FROM: CLAYTON YEUTTER

This is a mid-week report since we're about to gather the RNC in Houston. Expected attendance is 138 members which is a tremendous turnout. If your schedule isn't too hectic next week, I'll slip over and give you a report on what transpires. (Incidentally, I neglected to mention after my last trip that Hal DeMoss asked me to pass on "warm regards to the broccoli eater!"

✓ Jeanne went with me on a quick trip to Europe this past week. I addressed a meeting of the Young President's Organization (YPO) in Vienna, which had about 400 people (probably 3/4 American) plus spouses involved. It was a tremendously well organized meeting, and provided a good recruiting ground for major donors. I also spoke to a ✓ major investment seminar in Paris, and tried to give a strong boost to the Uruguay Round. I pointed out that Kohl and Mitterand are still the keys to success of that exercise, and added that it is imperative that they take a different attitude toward it now that they chose to do last December.

✓ We had Republicans Abroad events in both cities, and the one in Paris was excellent. ✓ We stayed with the Curleys while there, and they both send their best. Walter plans to try to help a bit from a distance as we try to breathe some life into the New York ✓ Republican Party.

✓ The Louisiana convention turned out about as well as could be expected. As you undoubtedly know, Congressman Holloway got the official gubernatorial nomination, thereby denying it to Duke. But he received only slightly more than a majority of the votes, so it was no big victory for him. That should leave Governor Roemer in a relatively strong position, assuming his veto of their abortion legislation is not too damaging.

*I am for Roemer, and, you
I want to help*

I do hope you'll sometime be able to work in an event for Roemer, even though some of the party hierarchy has been objecting to White House and "national party" interference in Louisiana politics. I'll be meeting with their RNC members in Houston this week, and I will quietly suggest to the party chairman, Billy Nungesser, that he do his criticizing in private!

Let me know how this goes.

The Strauss nomination was a good move. This is a such a critical time for the Soviet Union that you need someone in Moscow who understands business and politics. I'm not sure the Soviets can get through the political and economic reform process even with guidance and support from you, Secretary Baker, and Ambassador Strauss, but without some guidance they are in deep trouble. We got a few phone calls from party people objecting to the nomination, but not many. I told Ron Brown we were going to follow the same appointment strategy for any legitimate Presidential candidate he might surface!

✓ The Thornburgh Senatorial candidacy is in the hands of the courts, as you know, but we're reasonably confident that the final outcome will be satisfactory. Were the extant decision to be affirmed, both we and the Democrats would have to change electoral procedures in a whole host of states. I did a fundraiser for Congressman Ritter early this week, and there was lots of discussion of the issue since his is the home area of the Federal District Judge who ruled on the matter. People there are just astonished at and totally surprised by what occurred. We do need a timely outcome, and that may require skillful legal follow up in Pennsylvania.

✓ In my last report I neglected to congratulate you on the fast track victory. That was a sensational, heartwarming result in a rugged battle on a very critical issue. Your personal intervention was crucial, and the world will benefit. The Democrats, of course, chose the labor unions over Hispanics and we need to point that out over and over again from now until November 1992.

✓ Direct mail fundraising is still tough, but so far we are keeping our heads above water. We're giving considerable attention to our major donor program, and I've begun to invite small groups of Team 100 members and Eagles to the White House for breakfast or lunch with me. They seem to like having an opportunity for some input in that intimate environment, so I plan to keep doing it even though it is time consuming.

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

SECRETARY OF LABOR
WASHINGTON, D.C.

June 18, 1991

The President
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN

Dear Mr. President:

Since I left Camp David and the warm Bush hospitality, I have been traveling. I know you get reports from everywhere in Europe, so this may be repetitive or boring. But you may find some of these personal observations are tiled in the mosaic you must observe.

Italy: Of course, the Secchias send their greetings. Peter brings enormous energy to his job (b)(6) He has turned a suite of rooms in the residence into the "Bush Suite". Very nice.

Italy looks sleekly prosperous, better than I have ever seen it. I hope you can take a little time off when you and Barbara are there. I am not saying you would be canonized (right) but it might be close. The papers talk always of Pax Americana.

I was having dinner in Gubbio, a small charming medieval town between Florence and Rome, with a bookseller and the police and security folks. It was a small group of "real" Italians. The youngest cop suddenly rose mid-course with a toast to "President Bush" and a wish that Italy will have leaders like you. Very moving and a great time. The Italians still speak of Max Rabb. We are on a roll with Ambassador Secchia, too. There is a new Labor Minister, a trade union head, who is trying to reform an incredibly expensive pensions system. He seems confident he can. He's very sure of himself and a favorite of the press; he bears some watching for future moves.

Switzerland and the ILO remain about the same. I stayed with Max Abram and his new wife Bruna. He is a thoughtful, kind man, very in tune with you and Boyden on the Civil Rights bill. He is quite in love with Bruna, a charming Italian who has worked in the Human Rights organizations here. Very nice to see.

The new Director General of the ILO had just come back from Kuwait. He wants to work closely with us, I found him a good choice and his observations about Kuwait fascinating.

Mom's ?
Sadri (Prince Sadruddin Aga Khan)

Had dinner with your friends Sadin and Katie at their chateau where you used to stay. They were both as lovely and welcoming as could be. If you ever wish to know some of the "chatter" about his future, I will be happy to pass it on.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: Carla A. Hills Carla

SUBJECT: Enterprise for the Americas Initiative:
Trade Pillar

As we approach the first anniversary of your June 27, 1990 speech announcing the Enterprise for the Americas Initiative, and its three pillars for building a broad-based partnership in the Hemisphere, we can report significant progress on its trade pillar. 6-23

Your initiative set forth a three-point plan to encourage free market reform in Latin America: a successful Uruguay Round, a free trade system linking all the Americas to begin with a free trade agreement with Mexico, and framework agreements on trade and investment. Now that Congress has approved fast track, we can move forward with the Uruguay Round and the North American Free Trade Agreement which, in turn, will pave the way for negotiating free trade agreements with other countries or groups of countries in the region.

As the first anniversary of your Initiative approaches, we can document great progress on the third aspect of its trade pillar. Thus far, we have concluded nine negotiating framework agreements on trade and investment to open markets and develop closer trade ties with nine nations (Bolivia, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Ecuador, El Salvador, Honduras, Peru, and Venezuela). We plan to sign the first agreement with a group of countries (Argentina, Bolivia, Uruguay, and Paraguay, the so-called Southern Common Market or Mercosur) in June. In July, we expect to sign another Agreement with a group of countries (members of CARICOM -- comprised of 13 English-speaking Caribbean nations).

Our remarkable progress on negotiating these Agreements testifies to the increasing commitment in the Western Hemisphere to economic reform, liberalization, and democracy.

JUN 11 1991

FROM: Carla A. Hills CAH
SUBJECT: Last Week's Trip to Europe

On Saturday, I returned from a week in Europe. In Paris I attended the OECD Ministerial, where our delegation was very ably led by Nick Brady, and I met with government and business leaders. I also met with government and business leaders in London and Bonn. The primary focus of all my meetings was the Uruguay Round.

At the OECD Ministerial, the general tone of discussions on the Round was positive. We made clear that the successful conclusion of the Round remains a top U.S. priority. We declined to set an explicit deadline for the Round that could force inadequate results, stressing that real results should create the deadline. Toward that end, we proposed an action plan whereby the technical work in key areas of the Round would be completed by the end of July. Our aim is to achieve tangible benefits in terms of increased market access for manufactured goods, services, government procurement, and agriculture, in order to ensure the participation of a broad range of countries and political support at home. We persuaded Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Switzerland, and the Netherlands to exert pressure in the coming weeks on the EC, the Latins, and the Southeast Asians to move the negotiations.

The LDCs still will not negotiate in all areas of the Uruguay Round unless there is progress in agriculture. In part, this progress hinges on the EC's internal reform of the Common Agricultural Policy (CAP). The EC Commission plans to have a first draft of CAP reform available for discussion by the end of June. In addition, GATT Director-General Dunkel plans by late June to table a paper designed to narrow the options for achieving agricultural reform in the Round. Despite this activity, German officials cautioned us that the EC may not be in a position to deal constructively with agriculture until September or October.

It may be useful for a small group of us to discuss with you the prospects for the Round before the Economic Summit in July.

Ambassador Hills is sending you the attached report on her Uruguay Round discussions at the OECD Ministerial in Paris last week.

Secretary Brady has discussed with Ambassador Hills the need for Cabinet-level consideration of our Uruguay Round strategy. Secretary Brady has indicated to me that once you have heard from Carla on the OECD he would like in the next several weeks to convene a small meeting with her and other Cabinet colleagues to discuss our approach in the Uruguay Round.

KURDISH LEADER READY TO SIGN DEAL WITH SADDAM

BY ANDREW ROCHE

BARZANI, IRAQI, JUNE 23, REUTER - KURDISH LEADER MASSOUD BARZANI SAYS HE HAS REACHED AN AUTONOMY DEAL WITH IRAQI PRESIDENT SADDAM HUSSEIN WHICH WILL ENSURE FREE ELECTIONS IN KURDISTAN AND IRAQ.

"AFTER 30 BLOODY YEARS I THINK ALL OF US, THE (IRAQI) GOVERNMENT AND THE KURDS, BELIEVE THE ONLY WAY IS PEACE," BARZANI, HEAD OF THE KURDISH DEMOCRATIC PARTY (KDP), TOLD REUTERS ON SATURDAY.

PUBLICISING DETAILS OF THE DRAFT ACCORD FOR THE FIRST TIME, HE SAID IT STIPULATED FREE ELECTIONS IN KURDISTAN IN THREE MONTHS' TIME AND IN THE WHOLE OF IRAQ WITHIN SIX MONTHS TO A YEAR.

BARZANI, 45, INTERVIEWED AMID THE RUBBLE OF HIS ANCESTRAL VILLAGE OF BARZANI WHICH WAS RAZED BY IRAQI TROOPS IN 1975, SAID THE KURDS HAD TO FORGET THEIR PAINFUL HISTORY AND TRUST BAGHDAD.

HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF KURDS FLED IRAQ IN TERROR THREE MONTHS AGO AFTER SADDAM CRUSHED THEIR REBELLION.

BARZANI, WHO MET OTHER FACTIONS IN THE KURDISH GUERRILLA ALLIANCE ON FRIDAY, SAID HE HAD WON THEIR BACKING FOR THE DEAL HE HAD HAMMERED OUT WITH BAGHDAD AND WOULD RETURN THERE.

"I DON'T KNOW IF THE AGREEMENT WILL BE SIGNED THIS WEEK BUT IT WILL BE SIGNED," HE SAID. "NOW WE CAN GO BACK AND SIGN WITH THE SUPPORT OF THE KURDISH PEOPLE."

BARZANI SAID THE DRAFT ACCORD GRANTED THE KURDS CONTROL OF THEIR REGION IN THE NORTH EXCEPT FOR MILITARY AFFAIRS, FOREIGN POLICY, FINANCE AND MINERAL WEALTH. PARTS OF KURDISTAN ARE RICH IN OIL.

IT CALLED FOR A GENERAL AMNESTY FOR THOUSANDS OF KURDISH GUERRILLAS AND GOVERNMENT GRANTS TO HELP KURDS TO REBUILD VILLAGES LAID WASTE BY THE IRAQI ARMY OVER THE LAST TWO DECADES.

BAGHDAD AND THE KURDS HAVE YET TO AGREE THE EXACT BORDERS OF KURDISTAN IN MIXED ETHNIC AREAS BUT BARZANI SAID SUCH LOCAL ISSUES COULD BE RESOLVED LATER.

THE MULTI-ETHNIC CITY OF KIRKUK WOULD COME UNDER A JOINT ADMINISTRATION, HE SAID.

BARZANI DESCRIBED SADDAM AS "VERY HAPPY AND VERY POSITIVE" ABOUT THE AGREEMENT.

"WE DIDN'T GET 100 PER CENT OF WHAT WE WANTED BUT WE GOT 75 PER CENT. THAT IS BETTER THAN WAR, IN WHICH WE LOSE EVERYTHING. MAYBE SOME (KURDS) WILL OBJECT BUT THAT IS THEIR PROBLEM," HE SAID.

HE SAID HE HAD NOT YET MET JALAL TALABANI, HEAD OF THE OTHER MAIN KURDISH PARTY, THE PATRIOTIC UNION OF KURDISTAN (PUK), WHOSE ASSENT TO THE AGREEMENT IS VITAL. HE SAID HE HOPED TO SEE TALABANI WITHIN TWO DAYS.

BARZANI SAID THE HALT TO THE ALLIED WITHDRAWAL FROM NORTHERN IRAQ THIS WEEK AND PROPOSALS FOR THE ALLIES OR THE UNITED NATIONS TO GUARANTEE AN AUTONOMY AGREEMENT WOULD NOT ALTER HIS PLANS.

"I THINK THE BEST GUARANTEE IS TRUST BETWEEN BAGHDAD AND THE KURDS. WE SHOULD FEEL CONFIDENT AND TRUST EACH OTHER," HE SAID.

BARZANI SAID HE DID NOT NEED TO MEET THE ALLIES BEFORE.

~~SECRET~~ daily

SIGNING THE PACT.

"WE HAVING BEEN FIGHTING BAGHDAD FOR YEARS AND IN THIS TIME THESE ALLIES WERE HELPING BAGHDAD. IF THEIR SUPPORT IS ONLY FOR REFUGEES, THIS IS WRONG. OUR PROBLEM IS NOT HUNGER BUT POLITICAL RIGHTS," HE SAID.

GAZING OVER THE HEAP OF STONES WHICH WAS ONCE HOME TO 300 FAMILIES, BARZANI SAID THAT OPENING NEGOTIATIONS WITH SADDAM IN APRIL HAD BEEN A BITTER MOMENT.

"WE HAVE TO FORGET...THERE ARE MANY DANGEROUS THINGS IN THE PAST," HE SAID, HIS 10-YEAR-OLD SON MUSTAFA AT HIS SIDE. "TO REACH PEACE, WE SHOULD FORGET THEM."

KURDISH LEADER SAYS DEBATE NEEDED ON AUTONOMY DEAL

ANKARA, JUNE 23, REUTER - KURDISH REBEL CHIEF JALAL TALABANI LEFT ANKARA FOR NORTHERN IRAQ ON SUNDAY SAYING KURDISH LEADERS MUST DEBATE A DRAFT AUTONOMY DEAL WORKED OUT WITH BAGHDAD.

THE ANATOLIAN NEWS AGENCY QUOTED TALABANI AS SAYING A DEAL RUCK BY MASSOUD BARZANI, HEAD OF THE KURDISTAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (KDP), IN TALKS WITH THE IRAQI GOVERNMENT HAD NOT YET BEEN APPROVED.

"THIS IS ONLY A DRAFT. ALL THE KURDISH LEADERS WILL DISCUSS THIS. AGREEMENT WITH IRAQ IS POSSIBLE IF ALL THE LEADERS AGREE ON THE DRAFT AND APPROVE IT," TALABANI SAID.

"THE MOST IMPORTANT THING IS TO ESTABLISH A DEMOCRATIC REGIME AND A CONSTITUTION IN IRAQ," HE ADDED. "IT IS OF SECONDARY IMPORTANCE WHETHER KIRKUK SHOULD BE INCLUDED IN KURDISH AUTONOMY."

ANATOLIAN SAID TALABANI, HEAD OF THE PATRIOTIC UNION OF KURDISTAN (PUK), HAD FLOWN TO DIYARBAKIR IN SOUTHEAST TURKEY AND WOULD DRIVE FROM THERE TO THE IRAQI BORDER.

BARZANI SAID ON SATURDAY HIS DRAFT ACCORD WITH PRESIDENT SADDAM HUSSEIN WOULD ENSURE FREE ELECTIONS IN KURDISTAN IN THREE MONTHS' TIME AND IN IRAQ WITHIN SIX MONTHS TO A YEAR.

HE SAID THE EXACT BORDERS OF KURDISTAN HAD YET TO BE AGREED, BUT THE OIL CENTRE OF KIRKUK WOULD BE JOINTLY ADMINISTERED.

"AFTER 30 BLOODY YEARS I THINK ALL OF US, THE (IRAQI) GOVERNMENT AND THE KURDS, BELIEVE THE ONLY WAY IS PEACE," HE TOLD REUTERS IN HIS ANCESTRAL VILLAGE OF BARZAN, NORTHERN IRAQ.

BARZANI SAID HE HOPED TO MEET TALABANI WITHIN TWO DAYS, BUT SOME OTHER KURDISH FACTIONS HAD ALREADY APPROVED THE DEAL.

"I DON'T KNOW IF THE AGREEMENT WILL BE SIGNED THIS WEEK BUT IT WILL BE SIGNED," HE SAID. "NOW WE CAN GO BACK AND SIGN WITH THE SUPPORT OF THE KURDISH PEOPLE."

TALABANI MET SADDAM IN BAGHDAD IN APRIL, BUT LATER TURNED OVER NEGOTIATIONS ON AUTONOMY FOR IRAQ'S 3.5 MILLION KURDS TO HIS FORMER RIVAL BARZANI.

KURDISH PARTIES ACCEPTED SADDAM'S OFFER OF TALKS AFTER THE SUPPRESSION OF THEIR UPRISING IN MARCH CAUSED UP TO TWO MILLION KURDS TO FLEE IN TERROR TOWARDS THE IRANIAN AND TURKISH BORDERS.

TALABANI SAID 10 DAYS AGO THAT SADDAM'S INSISTENCE ON MONOPOLISING POWER WAS A MAJOR OBSTACLE IN AUTONOMY TALKS.

"THE BAATH PARTY HAS DRAFTED A CONSTITUTION WHICH IS NOT ACCEPTABLE TO US," HE TOLD REUTERS. "THE DRAFT IS ENSHRINING THE PERSONAL CULT OF PRESIDENT SADDAM HUSSEIN. IT IS ENSHRINING THE MONOPOLY OF THE BAATH PARTY IN IRAQI POLITICAL LIFE."

TALABANI HAS RECEIVED MEDICAL TREATMENT IN TURKEY, WHERE HE HAS STAYED SINCE ATTENDING A SOCIALIST INTERNATIONAL MEETING IN EARLY JUNE.

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

SECRETARY OF LABOR
WASHINGTON, D.C.

June 18, 1991

The President
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN

Dear Mr. President:

Since I left Camp David and the warm Bush hospitality, I have been traveling. I know you get reports from everywhere in Europe, so this may be repetitive or boring. But you may find some of these personal observations are tiled in the mosaic you must observe.

Italy: Of course, the Secchias send their greetings. Peter brings enormous energy to his job (b)(6). He has turned a suite of rooms in the residence into the "Bush Suite". Very nice.

Italy looks sleekly prosperous, better than I have ever seen it. I hope you can take a little time off when you and Barbara are there. I am not saying you would be canonized (right) but it might be close. The papers talk always of Pax Americana.

I was having dinner in Gubbio, a small charming medieval town between Florence and Rome, with a bookseller and the police and security folks. It was a small group of "real" Italians. The youngest cop suddenly rose mid-course with a toast to "President Bush" and a wish that Italy will have leaders like you. Very moving and a great time. The Italians still speak of Max Rabb. We are on a roll with Ambassador Secchia, too. There is a new Labor Minister, a trade union head, who is trying to reform an incredibly expensive pensions system. He seems confident he can. He's very sure of himself and a favorite of the press; he bears some watching for future moves.

Switzerland and the ILO remain about the same. I stayed with Max Abram and his new wife Bruna. He is a thoughtful, kind man, very in tune with you and Boyden on the Civil Rights bill. He is quite in love with Bruna, a charming Italian who has worked in the Human Rights organizations here. Very nice to see.

The new Director General of the ILO had just come back from Kuwait. He wants to work closely with us, I found him a good choice and his observations about Kuwait fascinating.

Sadri (Prince Sadruddin Aga Khan)

Had dinner with your friends Sadin and Katya at their chateau where you used to stay. They were both as lovely and welcoming as could be. If you ever wish to know some of the "chatter" about his future, I will be happy to pass it on.

Bush Presidential Library Photocopy

Had a private dinner (the two of us in jeans) with Begum Aga Khan. She is a hoot.

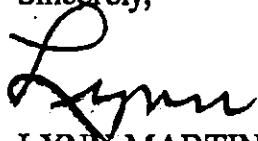

Long talks with Lane Kirkland. He is replacing Kenny Young, his long-time alter ego and communications guru, with Jim Baker. (Not that Jim Baker.) This one is a younger type who has been in charge of the ILO and Europe. Good speaker, fluent in French, et al. One cannot help but think this is a signal. Lane is not going to retire. He is bringing in a new, very qualified player.

Women workers went on strike in Switzerland for one day - the day I addressed the ILO on the changed work force and women's roles. Life has wonderful ironies.

Last, if I can be at the Bulls reception at the White House, I will shamelessly agree to everything you ask for at least two minutes. My Bulls t-shirt is a big hit in Europe -- no remarks please.

Mr. President, thank you for this and all of my life's current opportunities. I hope I do you and our nation good service.

Sincerely,

LYNN MARTIN by fcm

Dear Tom -

You're right it wasn't well have been caused by "The Fever"
Perhaps the Rangers' winning stroke got the thyroid moving which in turn fibrillated the heart. Then when Nolan Ryan got hurt, the "Fever"

caused the thyroid to reverse the de-fibrillating the heart - get it??

Even if that theory is un-scientific, I sure enjoyed the singer edited Fairs Guide.

Long live the Fever Ag BJA

Dear Mr. President,

Is it possible that your doctors have missed the diagnosis? —
That it's not the water you drink or your Myroid that has your heart racing in the springtime?
What if it's the Fever ??? I hope this little book is a pleasant diversion from the weighty problems of the world, just as the weighty problems of the world can be a pleasant diversion from the agony of Baseball Fever — with best wishes and deep admiration —

Yes for the Bulls event.

Yes for letting me know about Sadri's future desires, though I expect he;s still interested in UNSYG.

Interesting on Secchia's desires-

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

SECRETARY OF LABOR
WASHINGTON, D.C.

June 18, 1991

The President
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN.

Dear Mr. President:

Since I left Camp David and the warm Bush hospitality, I have been traveling. I know you get reports from everywhere in Europe, so this may be repetitive or boring. But you may find some of these personal observations are tiled in the mosaic you must observe.

Italy: Of course, the Secchias send their greetings. Peter brings enormous energy to his job. (b)(6). He has turned a suite of rooms in the residence into the "Bush Suite". Very nice.

Italy looks sleekly prosperous, better than I have ever seen it. I hope you can take a little time off when you and Barbara are there. I am not saying you would be canonized (right) but it might be close. The papers talk always of Pax Americana.

I was having dinner in Gubbio, a small charming medieval town between Florence and Rome, with a bookseller and the police and security folks. It was a small group of "real" Italians. The youngest cop suddenly rose mid-course with a toast to "President Bush" and a wish that Italy will have leaders like you. Very moving and a great time. The Italians still speak of Max Rabb. We are on a roll with Ambassador Secchia, too. There is a new Labor Minister, a trade union head, who is trying to reform an incredibly expensive pensions system. He seems confident he can. He's very sure of himself and a favorite of the press; he bears some watching for future moves.

Manni's

Switzerland and the ILO remain about the same. I stayed with Max Abram and his new wife Bruna. He is a thoughtful, kind man, very in tune with you and Boyden on the Civil Rights bill. He is quite in love with Bruna, a charming Italian who has worked in the Human Rights organizations here. Very nice to see.

The new Director General of the ILO had just come back from Kuwait. He wants to work closely with us, I found him a good choice and his observations about Kuwait fascinating.

Sadri (Prince Sadruddin Aga Khan)

Had dinner with your friends Sadin and Katy at their chateau where you used to stay. They were both as lovely and welcoming as could be. If you ever wish to know some of the "chatter" about his future, I will be happy to pass it on.

Bush Presidential Library Photocopy

Had a private dinner (the two of us in jeans) with Begum Aga Khan. She is a hoot.

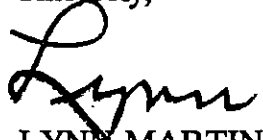

Long talks with Lane Kirkland. He is replacing Kenny Young, his long-time alter ego and communications guru, with Jim Baker. (Not that Jim Baker.) This one is a younger type who has been in charge of the ILO and Europe. Good speaker, fluent in French, et al. One cannot help but think this is a signal. Lane is not going to retire. He is bringing in a new, very qualified player.

Women workers went on strike in Switzerland for one day - the day I addressed the ILO on the changed work force and women's roles. Life has wonderful ironies.

Last, if I can be at the Bulls reception at the White House, I will shamelessly agree to everything you ask for at least two minutes. My Bulls t-shirt is a big hit in Europe -- no remarks please.
