THE WHITE HOUSE

December 29, 1991

Dear George and Barbara --

Let me count the ways --- that I should thank you for these few days of rest and recreation (the same word as re-creation!!) and refreshment.

You have been very dear to me --- slumber in the Lincoln Room, lovely dinners, a quail hunting trip of such splendid pleasure and plain down fun, walks with the two Stewart dogs, private times, special times, cherished and memorable times.

Someone once said that 2.

"gratitude is the most inarticulate of human expressions." I believe that -- for how do I really thank you?

This message is my earnest effort. It comes to you both with great affection and deep pride. This blessed Country is blessed by your presence.

Now you leave its shores to represent us once again... and gracefully and beautifully so -- just as you have always done -- on so many occasions in the past... in so many ways and in so many capacities.

And when you return we will be in the New Year -- a political year of extraordinary dimension for our Country -- and for you both. A tough and Perhaps early years of Eisenhower, ... 3.

Clemens, Lincoln, Johnson, Betty Gooding, Franklin, Roosevelt, Roosevelt, and as all Bill took might say. Just a lot of plain old hell reason.

That's exactly the most general statement to which we a career of public service -- but you will be ready for it. You always have been. The one remarkable record strange and remarkable record. The one better than the rest of you. The one you have given me genuine counsel and friendly advice over the years. You have helped me and suggested me when I needed a bit of an extra charge of T.H.C. I marvel at that.
Now you must turn these gifts -- not given gifts of yours.

own admirable duality of persona...
-- you must turn and tilt those gracious traits a bit more inward toward yourselves.

Be kind and gentle of yourselves -- care for yourselves -- enjoy yourselves -- be as thoughtful and attentive of yourselves as you are of all of us and your family.
Be as good to yourselves as you are to your friends! God we love you both!

Ignore the critics and the the pinched and the arrogant who often practice that craft. (A dear woman gave me that good admonition -- you Barbara!) They do love you and deeply admire you but they have their "own thing" to do -- at least as they ~~see~~ perceive it to be.

Be your own dear selves ... 5.
George and Barbara Bush. Never change. The people of this Country now know who you are. They know you as decent, caring and loving persons. They will not be fooled in a "campaign year" setting. You are both close and they know it well... down well.

I recall that old Texas expression: "Once with the girl (guy) that bring ya." You know how you got here. Keep doing it. Follow your sense of political direction.
It hasn't failed you often. Stay Presidential not political. No one can match you. Ever. You are savvy, bright and canny. Use it all - but in your own unimitable way - no one else.

It's your great phrase - oft repeated - and most recently 6 notes on the fourth day of the Jury F. Rank of your door will F. Rank: Friday -- that would we do without family or friends? you both live that one. Would that we of your friends could help shoulder your load -- which is sometimes a burden. You have but to ask and we would surely try mightily.

I remember the go!! As we say of friends: Days: - - - a light room and put down in the middle -- and turn in force!! days. I can't ride on in force!! for it goes -- you are one half of a man -- with one half of a magnificent woman at your side.
So in force. The thought and joy of many millions 7. of the World go winging out to you.

You are an inspiration to us all.
Come back to us soon!

God Bless you. Be well.
Dearest Love from Ann and from me -- and just, Thanks - for who you are and for what you mean to our Country and to our World.

Love..

Dear President Bush, Continue to work for a strong Crime bill.
In 1980 Mrs. Bush stated you have moved 34 times + into the White House. We identified with that.
My husband I would have made our 35th. move - to Victoria, We had moved the business from Wallis Texas (small town) West of Houston. ^{250 people} as the Lord allowed me to continue operating the business in Victoria and live in Wallis and I still hold the Municipal Judge position 12 years.
I am 62 yrs. old and widowed March the 7-1990.
My husband was murdered while working in Columbus during a robbery. They took the cash register and no one has to date been indicted. He had the cash from his first Social Security check in his pocket. I have become involved in the Prison Ministry for Women through the Lutheran Church

MY GRANDPA RUDEL

My Grandpa wasn't very old, I think he was just right. He always smiled with me and some times would bring a surprise in a little brown bag, maybe gum. Once he brought some beef jerkey--never had that before. It was O.K.---gum was better. My Grandpa died. He wasn't sick Mom and Dad said Grandpa was shot to death at his job. he worked a lot and when he got home, he would be so tired he would fall asleep in his chair watching T.V. That was funny. He worked at night. On T.V. they try to find who the bad people are and always can tell real fast, but nobody knows who killed my Grandpa. I am very sad. I know I won't smile with him anymore. I have a pretty picture of Grandpa, of Grandpa and me. Grandpa told me if I eat all my food I would grow up to be big and strong, he should see me now, but I know he mever will.

He was a good Grandpa.

Natalie,

What's this about you in the hospital? We'll miss you on the trip, but first things first.

Barbara and I hope this finds you on the way to total recovery. Take it slow. We care a lot.

Sincerely,

Dear Becky -

I loved the picture and the card. We had a great hunt with my favorite hunting companion - your great Dad.

I hope you have

Dear President and Mrs. Bush,

It is an honor to be able to share our school with you. Giving you this picture has allowed the children to be in touch with our President and First Lady. We pride ourselves with providing a warm and loving educational environment, but Riverside has also won the National School Cafeteria Award with a nutritional education program. This program was designed by our lunchroom and is now through out the state. We extend an open invitation to you and Mrs. Bush to visit us and have lunch!
