NOTE FROM JIM PINKERTON

DATED: April 28, 1992

Dear Mr. President:

I'm sorry I missed you this afternoon! Everyone was thrilled to have you over.

I hope my efforts -- speechwriting and otherwise -- are making a contribution. I'm always here!

Best,

Jim Pinkerton

ACTION

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: BRENT SCOWCROFT

SUBJECT: Letter to Former Presidents on Your Strategy to Support Reform in the New States of the Former Soviet Union

Purpose

To report to former Presidents on developments in the former Soviet Union, and to outline your strategy for supporting democratic and market reforms in the region.

Background

Over the last few months your Administration has moved rapidly, and on many fronts, to support democratic and market reforms in Russia and the other states of the former Soviet Union. The press has generally only caught on to part of what we are doing, despite our considerable efforts to get the story out.

This letter to your four predecessors provides them a full update of what you are doing, and intend to do; and it asks for their support. The letter to President Nixon praises his high profile in support of assistance to Russia and the other newly independent states.

I propose that you enclose in the letter copies of the Freedom Support Act, your April 1 statement when you announced the $24 billion package, your April 9 speech to the American Society of Newspaper Editors, and your April 21 statement at the meeting with U.S. business leaders.

RECOMMENDATION

That you sign the letters at Tabs A-D.

BUSH APPEALS FOR CALM AFTER RODNEY KING VERDICT

WASHINGTON, Reuter - President Bush Thursday expressed
"frustration and anguish" at the verdict in the Rodney King case, but called for an end to the rioting that followed it.

"Yesterday's verdict in the Los Angeles police case has left us all with a deep sense of personal frustration and anguish. Yet it is important that we respect the law and the legal processes that have been brought to bear," he said.

"I call upon all citizens to be calm and to abide by the law as the legal process in this case continues," Bush said.

The president, whose comments came in a written statement, said he would meet Attorney General William Barr to consider the case before beginning a scheduled speaking trip to Ohio.

"We will work with (California) Gov. (Pete) Wilson, (Los Angeles) Mayor (Tom) Bradley and others to ensure that all appropriate steps will be taken to maintain law and order and to ensure that the legal process proceeds with due deliberation," Bush said.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Bush called today for "all citizens to be calm and to abide by the law" in the aftermath of the verdict in the Los Angeles beating case. He said the federal government will work with California officials to maintain law and order.

The verdict in the case Wednesday "has left us all with a deep sense of personal frustration and anguish," the president said in a statement early today. "It is important that we respect the law and the legal processes that have been brought to bear in this case."

Bush said he was meeting with Attorney General William Barr to discuss ways the government can help.

The president delayed his departure for a speech in Columbus, Ohio, by an hour and a half because of the meeting.

Press Secretary Marlin Fitzwater said the president had been kept up to date on the Los Angeles situation until he went to bed Wednesday night and again this morning.

"We will work with Gov. (Pete) Wilson, Mayor (Tom) Bradley and others to insure that all appropriate steps will be taken to maintain law and order and to ensure that the legal process proceeds with due deliberation," Bush said.

The president's statement was issued after a night of fires, looting and gunfire in Los Angeles following the acquittal of four white policemen in the videotaped beating of black motorist Rodney King.

At least five people were reported killed and 138 hurt.

"Today Los Angeles faces the aftermath of a terrible night of violence in which several people have lost their lives," Bush said. "Yet out of this rage we must find tolerance for each other and adherence to the rule of law that protects the lives and property of everyone."

The president said "I call upon all citizens to be calm and to abide by the law as the legal process in this case continues. The civil rights of all Americans demand this respect."

Bush delays trip to assess Los Angeles violence

WASHINGTON (UPI) - President Bush Thursday delayed for a few hours a trip to Columbus, Ohio, in order to meet with Attorney General William Barr to assess the situation in Los Angeles, which has been wracked by a night of violence in the aftermath of the verdict in the Los Angeles police case.

In a written statement, Bush said:

"Yesterday's verdict in the Los Angeles police case has left us all with a deep sense of personal frustration and anguish. Yet it is important that we respect the law and the legal processes that have been brought to bear in the case."

1. PHONE CALL FOR THE PRESIDENT
FROM: Pete Teeley (11:30 a.m.)

Inquired about your stand on Rodney King. I read him your statement of this a.m. He then proceeded to dictate the following note for you:

"Dear Mr. President:

Following your meeting with your Justice Department officials and others, you should make a televised statement regarding the case, and it should include all of the elements of your statement this morning and should be completed by an announcement of actions to be taken by the Justice Department. You should make this statement but not take questions from the press. You should not take questions from the press because your statement needs to be made in an unfiltered fashion. Taking questions will put a spin on the story by the press and not by the President of the United States."

He will be available to discuss with you if you desire, otherwise, it is not necessary to return his call.

10:00 A.M. NEWS UPDATE

LOS ANGELES VIOLENCE (Los Angeles/AP) -- Fires glowed across wide areas of the city and smoke shrouded the skyline. Arsonists, looters, gunmen and vandals turned parts of the city into war zones in response to Wednesday's acquittals of four white police officers in the beating of black motorist Rodney King. Councilwoman Rita Walters said: "It's reminiscent of Watts. It will take years for us to recover." At least five people were killed and 138 hurt, authorities said. Some 2,000 National Guardsmen were put on standby.

(Los Angeles/UPI) -- Thousands of youths ignored pleas for calm and rampaged through the streets to protest the acquittal, dragging people from their cars, setting scores of fires, shooting at police and looting stores. At least nine people were killed.

(Harry Rosenthal, AP) -- President Bush called for "all citizens to be calm and to abide by the law" in the aftermath of the case. He said the federal government will work with California officials to maintain law and order. The verdict "has left us all with a deep sense of personal frustration and anguish," the president said in a statement early today. "It is important that we respect the law and the legal processes that have been brought to bear in this case." Bush said he was meeting with Attorney General Barr to discuss ways the government can help.

FACILITIES SALES (Rita Beamish, AP) -- President Bush is making it easier for state and local governments to sell public facilities such airports, bridges and sewage-treatment plants. Advocates of privatization hailed it as a major change in attitude. Others said it could lead to higher costs. Bush today was signing an executive order directing federal agencies that helped finance construction of local facilities to reverse their past practice of demanding a hefty share of profits from the sale of those facilities.

The president also was traveling to Columbus, Ohio, to discuss the new policy in a speech to the Ohio Association of Broadcasters. It was Bush's second trip to the Midwestern industrial state in just over a week, as he focuses attention on states expected to be battlegrounds with the Democratic presidential nominee in November.

The privatization change, part of Bush's focus on decreasing government regulation, is intended to help financially strapped local governments find new ways of getting revenue, officials said.

ECONOMY (Reuter) -- The Commerce Department's Index of Leading Economic Indicators rose for the third straight time in March, the latest sign the economy is on the mend, the Commerce Department said.

JOBLESS CLAIMS (AP) -- The number of Americans filing first-time claims for unemployment benefits was unchanged during the third week of April. It was the fourth straight week without an increase, the Labor Department said.

Despite recent signs of an improving economy, many analysts believe the labor situation will remain little changed, at least until midyear. They note that employers often rely on overtime, rather than hiring new workers, to meet increased demand until they are certain a recovery can be sustained.

STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDENT

The United States Department of Justice will immediately undertake an investigation of the police violence case in Los Angeles to ensure that the the civil rights laws of our nation are fully and equally applied. We are seeing a tragic series of events in Los Angeles that include frustration over a verdict, the wanton destruction of property, and the senseless death of several citizens in the last few hours. I urge all Americans to approach this situation with calm, with tolerance, and with a respect for the rights of all individuals under the Constitution.

I have just met with the Attorney General of the United States to consider the Federal Government's legal course at this point, and to review any other forms of assistance that we should provide the state of California and the city of Los Angeles. I also discussed these matters this morning with Governor Wilson and with other senior members of my administration.

If we are concerned about excessive police violence, we must be equally concerned about excessive public violence. The murder and destruction in the streets of Los Angeles last night and today must be stopped. Lootings, beatings, and random violence against innocent victims is also outrageous. The community must pull together to heal the wounds and provide constructive solutions.

There are some principles of law, and of behavior, that should be repeated in these circumstances. First, we must maintain a respect for our legal system and a demand for law and order. Second, we have a right to expect a police force that protects our citizens and behaves in a responsible manner. Third, in the American conscience, there is no room for bigotry and racism. And fourth, we have responsibilities as citizens of this democracy. I want everyone to know that the Federal Government will continue to pursue its legal responsibilities in this case.

(PAUSE) THEN SHE SAID I HAVE TO KEEP COMING BACK TILL
I GET IT RIGHT. \ \ OF COURSE, I WAS HERE TO HELP
COMMEMORATE A VOYAGE 500 YEARS OLD. \ THE DEMOCRATS AREN'T IMPRESSED WITH SUCH ANTIQUITY. \ HECK, MOST OF THEIR POLICIES ARE OLDER THAN THAT. \ \

BUT WHILE THE DEMOCRATS BUILD THEIR AGENDA ON TIME-WORN POLICIES, WE'VE BUILT THE REPUBLICAN AGENDA ON TIMELESS LEGACIES: GOOD JOBS, STRONG FAMILIES, AND WORLD PEACE. YES, IT'S CAMPAIGN SEASON -- I'VE SEEN
THESE SEASONS COME AND GO. I'VE WATCHED SOUNDBITES COMPETE WITH SOUND POLICY; THE BATTLES OF THE
BUMPERSTICKERS AND THE WAR OF WORDS. BUT I BELIEVE DEMOCRACY IS MORE THAN THAT. DURING ONE POLITICAL SEASON IN GREAT BRITAIN, MARGARET THATCHER REMARKED:
"WE WERE TOLD THAT OUR CAMPAIGN WASN'T SUFFICIENTLY SLICK. \ WE REGARD THAT AS A COMPLIMENT." YOU SEE, I BELIEVE THAT ELECTIONS ARE ABOUT MORE THAN WINNING PEOPLE'S VOTES, THEY'RE ABOUT WINNING THE PEOPLE'S TRUST.

I'VE WATCHED CANDIDATES TRY TO CONVINCE PEOPLE THAT THE SKY IS FALLING -- JUST SO THEY CAN PROMISE THE MOON. BUT OUR NATIONAL SYMBOL ISN'T CHICKEN LITTLE -- IT'S THE AMERICAN EAGLE. AND OUR NATIONAL SPIRIT ISN'T SELF-DOUBT -- IT'S SELF-CONFIDENCE, SELF-RELIANCE. WHAT'S THE AMERICAN DREAM? IT'S A DREAM WE STRUGGLED TO MAKE COME TRUE.

WHEN WE THOUGHT OF THE SOVIET UNION AND EASTERN EUROPE, WE DREAMED OF FREE PEOPLE WITH FREER MARKETS AND FEWER BOMBS -- AND THEN WE WORKED TO MAKE IT COME TRUE. I TAKE GREAT PRIDE THAT IT WAS AMERICAN LEADERSHIP THAT HAS DIMINISHED FOR OUR CHILDREN THE THREAT OF NUCLEAR WAR. \

FOR OUR NEIGHBORS IN SOUTH AMERICA, WE ENVISIONED PEACE AND DEMOCRACY -- NOW WE ARE ON THE THRESHOLD OF AN ENTIRELY FREE AND DEMOCRATIC HEMISPHERE. AND WHEN THE IRAQI NIGHTMARE THREATENED TO ENGULF THE MIDDLE EAST, AMERICA PROTECTED THE PEOPLE OF ISRAEL AND TURKEY AND SAUDI ARABIA; AND HELPED LIBERATE THE SMALL COUNTRY OF KUWAIT. AND IN THE PROCESS WE TURNED WHAT HAD BEEN THE MIRAGE OF 44 YEARS INTO AN OASIS OF HOPE: WE BROUGHT ARAB NEIGHBORS FACE TO FACE WITH ISRAEL FOR THE FIRST TIME -- FOR THE FIRST STEP TOWARDS PEACE.

THERE WERE THOSE THAT SAID THAT THE DEFEAT OF COMMUNISM, THE LIBERATION OF THE OPPRESSED, THE TRIUMPH OF DEMOCRACY -- THAT ALL THESE THINGS WERE NOTHING BUT A DREAM. THEY WERE RIGHT. IT WAS AN AMERICAN DREAM.

AMERICA HELPED CREATE A WORLD OF FREER PEOPLE AND FREER MARKETS. THAT HAS BROUGHT GREATER PROSPERITY -- BUT IT'S ALSO BROUGHT GREATER COMPETITION. THERE'S GOOD NEWS: ALL AROUND THE WORLD, MORE AND MORE PEOPLE ARE BUYING AMERICAN. OUR EXPORTS SHOT UP 7% IN FEBRUARY TO A RECORD HIGH OF ALMOST $38 BILLION DOLLARS. THAT'S BAD NEWS FOR CHICKEN LITTLE. BUT THAT'S GOOD NEWS FOR AMERICA. AND IT SUMS UP WORDS THAT WILL HELP CHART A NEW AMERICAN DESTINY: IF WE ARE TO SUCCEED ECONOMICALLY AT HOME, WE HAVE TO LEAD ECONOMICALLY ABROAD.

BY EXPANDING TRADE WITH OTHER COUNTRIES, WE EXPAND OPPORTUNITY WITHIN OUR OWN. SURE THE COMPETITION'S TOUGH -- BUT THE ANSWER ISN'T TO BUILD UP OUR TRADE BARRIERS; IT'S TO GET OTHER COUNTRIES TO TEAR DOWN THEIRS. LAST WEEK I MET WITH THE HEADS OF EUROPE'S COMMON MARKET TO TALK ABOUT THE WORLD TRADE NEGOTIATIONS. IF THESE NEGOTIATIONS SUCCEED, AN AGREEMENT COULD PUMP FIVE TRILLION DOLLARS INTO THE GLOBAL ECONOMY OVER THE NEXT TEN YEARS -- WITH THE U.S. SHARE TOPPING $1 TRILLION. WE'RE ALSO WORKING ON OUR SOUTHERN TRADE FRONT -- WITH NEGOTIATIONS ON THE NORTH AMERICAN FREE TRADE AGREEMENT -- AN AGREEMENT THAT WOULD INCREASE TRADE WITH MEXICO BY BILLIONS OF DOLLARS AND CREATE GOOD AMERICAN JOBS RIGHT HERE. THIS AGREEMENT ISN'T ABOUT GOOD POLITICS -- IT'S ABOUT GOOD POLICY AND GOOD AMERICAN JOBS. I HAVE FAITH IN OPEN TRADE BECAUSE I HAVE FAITH IN THE AMERICAN WORKER. WHEN TRADE IS FREE AND FAIR, AMERICANS CAN BEAT THE COMPETITION FAIR AND SQUARE.

BUT FAIR COMPETITION DOESN'T JUST MEAN PLAYING BY THE SAME RULES -- IT MEANS COMPETING WITH THE SAME TOOLS. I'M TALKING ABOUT THE COST OF CAPITAL. TOUGH COMPETITION FROM GERMANY? NO CAPITAL GAINS TAX. JAPAN? AN ENTREPRENEUR WHO SELLS THE COMPANY HE'S BUILT FROM SCRATCH PAYS A TAX OF ONE PERCENT. A LOW CAP-GAINS TAX RATE ENCOURAGES INVESTMENT \ THAT MEANS BUSINESS EXPANSION \ AND THAT MEANS NEW JOBS. WHEN I LISTEN TO THE DEMOCRATS RAIL AGAINST CAPITAL GAINS -- THEN TURN AROUND AND COMPLAIN ABOUT FOREIGN COMPETITION -- IT MAKES ME THINK OF SOMEONE WHO WOULD PRICE EGGS AT $100 A CARTON, THEN COMPLAIN THAT NO ONE MAKES OMELETTES ANYMORE. A LOWER CAPITAL GAINS RATE WOULDN'T JUST BENEFIT SOMEONE WHO RUNS A BUSINESS, IT WOULD HELP PEOPLE WHO OWN HOMES, OR FARMS, OR SIMPLY SEEK BETTER JOBS. IT'S TIME TO QUIT PLAYING POLITICS WITH THIS ISSUE, AND CUT THE TAX ON CAPITAL GAINS.

AND IF AMERICA IS TO REMAIN TRULY COMPETITIVE, WE'VE GOT TO STOP REGULATING OUR BUSINESS OUT OF BUSINESS. WASHINGTON DOESN'T UNDERSTAND THE DEADLY PROCESS THAT CAN TURN RED TAPE INTO PINK SLIPS. HERE IN COLUMBUS, THE CITY GOVERNMENT HAS PROJECTED THAT OVER THE NEXT DECADE, THE COST OF COMPLYING WITH FEDERAL ENVIRONMENTAL REGULATIONS ALONE WOULD BE $1.6 BILLION DOLLARS -- THAT'S FOR A COMMUNITY WHOSE ENTIRE CITY BUDGET LAST YEAR WAS $591 MILLION. IT'S TIME TO PUT A STOP TO COSTLY, COUNTER-PRODUCTIVE REGULATIONS.

IN JANUARY I ANNOUNCED A 90-DAY MORATORIUM ON FEDERAL REGULATIONS. WE BLOCKED REGULATIONS THAT HURT GROWTH -- AND SPEEDED UP REGULATIONS THAT HELP GROWTH. OUR EFFORTS HAVE PAID OFF: JUST SINCE JANUARY, THE REFORMS WE'VE SET IN MOTION WILL SAVE CONSUMERS $15 TO $20 BILLION A YEAR -- THAT'S A SAVINGS OF 225 TO 300 DOLLARS PER YEAR FOR THE AVERAGE AMERICAN HOUSEHOLD. AND THAT'S JUST THE BEGINNING.

WEDNESDAY, I ORDERED A 120 DAY EXTENSION OF THE MORATORIUM ON NEW REGULATION. \\\ AND I PUT CONGRESS ON NOTICE: I WILL YETI ANY BILL THAT ATTEMPTS TO PUT EXCESSIVE NEW BURDENS OF REGULATION ON THE BACKS OF OUR FAMILIES, OUR CONSUMERS, OUR WORKERS, AND OUR BUSINESSES. \\\ THERE WILL BE NO -- I REPEAT, NO -- RETURN TO BUSINESS AS USUAL. \\\

THERE'S BEEN A LOT OF TALK ABOUT CHANGE THIS ELECTION YEAR. MOST OF IT'S BEEN JUST THAT -- TALK. BUT THAT'S NOT GOOD ENOUGH IF WE'RE GOING TO BUILD A BETTER AMERICA.

I'VE CALLED FOR REFORM. MORE IMPORTANTLY -- I'VE ACTED: WITH FAR-REACHING PROPOSALS FOR REFORM, IN EDUCATION, IN HEALTH CARE, IN OUR COURTS AND IN OUR CAMPAIGNS. WE'VE WON OUR BATTLES, BUT WE'VE NOT YET WON THE WAR: TOO OFTEN, IN TOO MANY WAYS, CONGRESS, AND AN ARMY OF SPECIAL INTERESTS HAVE STOOD IN THE WAY OF CHANGE. \ THEY ARE NOT INTERESTED IN REFORM. THEY STAND SQUARELY BEHIND THE STATUS QUO. THEY MAY BE POWERFUL. THEY MAY BE INFLUENTIAL. THEY MAY BE WELL-CONNECTED. BUT LET ME TELL YOU THIS: THEY ARE WRONG.
AND THEY'RE NOT GOING TO STAND IN OUR WAY.

FIRST: OUR LEGAL SYSTEM. VOLUNTEERS ARE AFRAID TO VOLUNTEER, DOCTORS ARE AFRAID TO DELIVER BABIES, PARENTS ARE AFRAID TO COACH LITTLE LEAGUE -- ALL BECAUSE OF THE FEAR OF LAWSUITS. THAT'S WRONG. PEOPLE SHOULD SPEND MORE TIME HELPING EACH OTHER AND LESS TIME SUING EACH OTHER. THAT'S WHY WE'VE INTRODUCED PROPOSALS TO REFORM OUR LEGAL SYSTEM. SURE, THE SYSTEM'S COMPLICATED; AND YES, PEOPLES' RIGHTS MUST BE PROTECTED. BUT THE SYSTEM NEEDS REFORM -- AND WE'RE NOT GOING TO LET SOME LAWYERS' LOBBY STAND IN THE WAY.

IN EDUCATION, OUR AMERICA 2000 REFORMS ARE GAINING STEAM. BREAK-THE MOLD SCHOOLS -- NATIONAL STANDARDS AND TESTING, COMMUNITY BY COMMUNITY. AND WHETHER IT'S AMONG PUBLIC SCHOOLS, OR PRIVATE, OR RELIGIOUS, PARENTS DESERVE THE RIGHT TO CHOOSE THEIR CHILDREN'S SCHOOLS. IT'S A GIANT UNDERTAKING TO CHANGE THE NATION'S EDUCATION SYSTEM -- BUT WE ARE GOING TO DO IT WITH OR WITHOUT A NOTE FROM THE NEA -- OR THE CONGRESS.

IN HEALTH CARE -- NO ONE SHOULD HAVE TO GO BROKE JUST TO GET BETTER -- THAT'S WRONG AND IT'S GOT TO CHANGE. AND WHILE OUR HEALTH CARE IS STILL THE FINEST QUALITY IN THE WORLD, TOO MANY PEOPLE CAN'T QUALIFY FOR HEALTH INSURANCE OR CAN'T AFFORD IT. SOME SAY THE ANSWER IS NATIONALIZED HEALTH CARE. ASK THE CANADIAN WAITING MONTHS FOR CRITICAL SURGERY -- ASK HIM WHAT HE THINKS OF THAT IDEA. OUR HEALTH CARE PROPOSAL IS COMPREHENSIVE -- IT OPENS ACCESS AND IT LOWERS COST -- BUT IT DOES NOT AND WILL NOT LOWER QUALITY. BOTTOM LINE: NATIONAL HEALTH CARE IS A PRESCRIPTION FOR NATIONAL DISASTER. \ \ AND I WON'T LET THAT HAPPEN ON MY WATCH.

IN THESE AND SO MANY AREAS THAT DEMAND REFORM, OUR GOVERNMENT CAN PLAY A POSITIVE ROLE. HALF MY LIFE HAS BEEN IN GOVERNMENT, HALF IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR. I'VE SEEN THIS COUNTRY CHANGE -- SOMETIMES FOR THE BETTER, SOMETIMES FOR THE WORSE. YOU NEED TO KNOW WHAT NEEDS TO BE CHANGED. "CHANGE FOR CHANGE'S SAKE" IS MEANINGLESS. IT TAKES MORE THAN HAPPY TALK. MORE THAN LIP SERVICE TO REFORM -- AND THEN FULL SERVICE TO SPECIAL INTERESTS.

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY WILL ALWAYS REVERT TO FORM -- ATTACKING PROBLEMS BY CREATING PROGRAMS. THEY DON'T UNDERSTAND THAT PEOPLE WANT A RETURN TO SOME OLD-FASHIONED VALUES LIKE RESPONSIBILITY AND
ACCOUNTABILITY. AND WHEN IT COMES TO GOVERNMENT, THE AMERICAN PEOPLE KNOW -- AS GOVERNMENT TRIES TO DO MORE
AND MORE, IT ENDS UP DELIVERING LESS AND LESS. NEXT YEAR, THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT WILL SPEND $1.5 TRILLION DOLLARS OF YOUR MONEY. THERE'S JUST NO QUESTION ABOUT
IT. THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT IS TOO BIG AND SPENDS TOO MUCH.

MAJOR REFORMS ARE IN ORDER. FIRST IT'S TIME FOR THE CONGRESS TO GOVERN ITSELF BY THE LAWS IT IMPOSES ON OTHERS. NO MORE SPECIAL TREATMENT. AND IT'S TIME FOR SWEEPING CAMPAIGN FINANCE REFORM -- BUT REAL REFORM IS NOT SADDLING THE TAXPAYER WITH THE COST OF CONGRESSIONAL CAMPAIGNS. IT'S TIME FOR REAL SPENDING REFORM; TIME FOR THE PRESIDENT TO HAVE WHAT 43 GOVERNORS HAVE -- THE LINE ITEM VETO. \\\ FINALLY, IT'S TIME TO MAKE CONGRESS A CITIZEN ASSEMBLY, NOT A CLUB FOR CAREERISTS -- TIME TO LIMIT THE TERMS OF MEMBERS OF CONGRESS. I'M LIMITED TO TWO TERMS AND I WANT TO SERVE BOTH -- IS IT TOO MUCH TO ASK TO LIMIT SENATE TERMS TO TWO AND HOUSE TERMS TO SIX? I BELIEVE THIS WOULD KEEP GOVERNMENT MORE ACTIVE, MORE VITAL, AND CLOSER TO THE PEOPLE.

THOMAS JEFFERSON KNEW THAT "[THE PEOPLE] ARE THE ONLY SURE RELIANCE OF OUR LIBERTY." THAT'S WHY YOU'RE HERE TODAY. YOU ARE NOT AMONG THE CYNICS -- BECAUSE YOU KNOW YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE. THINK OF A LITTERED PARK -- YOU CLEAN IT UP ONE PIECE AT A TIME. THEN THINK OF OUR GOVERNMENT -- WE CAN REFORM IT, ONE VOTE AT A TIME. IT MAKES A DIFFERENCE.

WHY SHOULD WE CARE? BECAUSE THIS GOVERNMENT, JUST LIKE A PUBLIC PARK, ISN'T JUST SOMETHING WE INHERITED FROM OUR PARENTS -- IT'S SOMETHING WE BORROW FROM OUR CHILDREN. \\\

I KNOW THIS COUNTRY, AS YOU DO. AMERICA'S GOT A HEART OF GOLD AND A WILL OF STEEL. IT'S HONEST. IT'S GENEROUS. IT'S GOOD. WITH YOUR HELP, IT'S ABOUT TO BECOME EVEN BETTER. GOD BLESS YOU AND GOD BLESS THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

OHIO BROADCASTERS ASSOCIATION \ COLUMBUS, OHIO
THURSDAY, APRIL 30, 1992 \ 3:15 PM

THANK YOU, FRED [CUSIMANO]. LET ME BEGIN WITH A FEW WORDS ABOUT THE GREAT MAN WHO GAVE HIS NAME TO THIS CITY. CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS DARED TO EXPLORE FAR BEYOND THE HORIZONS OF HIS CONTINENT -- AND HE DISCOVERED A NEW WORLD. NONE OF US WOULD BE HERE HAD IT NOT BEEN FOR HIS VISION.

IN THE SAME MANNER, WE WOULDN'T BE ATTENDING A BROADCASTERS CONVENTION HAD IT NOT BEEN FOR THE DARING
OF SCIENTIFIC PRODIGIES LIKE DeFOREST AND MARCONI, PIONEER NEWSMEN LIKE MURROW, AND BUSINESS GENIUSES LIKE SARNOFF AND PALEY.

WE SHOULD KEEP IN MIND JUST HOW NEW THIS THING CALLED BROADCASTING IS. THE SAME YEAR MY FATHER WAS BORN HERE IN COLUMBUS, JUST A FEW BLOCKS AWAY ON EAST BROAD STREET, MARCONI INVENTED RADIO.

AND I AM SURE THERE ARE MANY HERE WHO CAN REMEMBER WHEN THE FIRST TV BROADCASTS WENT ON THE AIR.

YES, TELECOMMUNICATIONS IS STILL IN ITS INFANCY. AND IT IS TAKING ITS FIRST BABY STEPS HAND IN HAND WITH ANOTHER THING THAT'S BRIGHT AND NEW IN HUMAN HISTORY: THE WORLDWIDE SPREAD OF FREEDOM AND DEMOCRACY. AROUND THE GLOBE, NATIONS ARE JOINING A MOVEMENT IN WHICH THE UNITED STATES IS THE GREAT PIONEER AND THE UNSURPASSED LEADER.

PROTECTING OUR FREEDOMS -- TRUSTING PEOPLE WITH THEIR FREEDOMS -- THESE FORM THE CORE OF OUR CRUSADE TO MAKE THIS COUNTRY STRONGER. A FREE ECONOMY WILL BE A STRONG ECONOMY, CREATING MORE GOOD JOBS. WE'LL KEEP OUR SOCIETY HEALTHY BY PUTTING THE FAMILY FIRST. AND BY KEEPING OUR DEFENSES STRONG, WE'LL KEEP THE PEACE.

I'M WORKING TO OPEN WORLD MARKETS. OPEN TRADE WILL CREATE MORE AND BETTER JOBS FOR AMERICANS. IT OFFERS OUR CONSUMERS LOWER PRICES AND MORE CHOICES.

EXPANDING TRADE IS ONE OF FIVE PROGRAMS FOR THIS COUNTRY'S FUTURE THAT I VIEW AS TOP PRIORITIES.

WE'RE WORKING AS WELL TO REVOLUTIONIZE -- LITERALLY RE-INVENT -- OUR SCHOOLS. PARENTS ARE LEADING THE WAY. IN COMMUNITY AFTER COMMUNITY, THEY ARE STANDING UP TO THE BUREAUCRATIC ESTABLISHMENT -- ASSERTING THEIR RIGHTS IN THEIR CHILDREN'S EDUCATION. \\ WE'RE WORKING FOR FUNDAMENTAL REFORM OF GOVERNMENT -- INCLUDING A BALANCED BUDGET AMENDMENT AND TERM LIMITS TO MAKE CONGRESS MORE ACCOUNTABLE. **

WE'RE WORKING TO HELP THE INNOVATIONS AND EFFICIENCIES OF FREE MARKETS MAKE QUALITY HEALTH CARE AVAILABLE TO ALL. \\ AND WE'RE FIGHTING THE EXPLOSION OF NUISANCE LAWSUITS. \\ LET'S SPEND MORE TIME HELPING ONE ANOTHER AND LESS TIME SUING EACH OTHER. **

WE'RE FIGHTING HARD TO GET THE BURDENS OF UNREASONABLE GOVERNMENT REGULATION OFF THE BACKS OF THE AMERICAN PEOPLE. REGULATION IMPOSES A HIDDEN TAX ON EVERY MAN, WOMAN AND CHILD IN THIS COUNTRY.

IN MY STATE OF THE UNION ADDRESS, I LIT A FIRE UNDER MY ADMINISTRATION'S EFFORTS FOR FUNDAMENTAL REFORM OF GOVERNMENT REGULATION. THIS WEEK WE COMPLETED THE 90-DAY MORATORIUM I ORDERED ON NEW REGULATIONS. IN JUST THOSE 90 DAYS, WE HAVE COMPLETED OR SET IN MOTION REFORMS THAT WILL SAVE AMERICANS 15 TO 20 BILLION DOLLARS A YEAR. YESTERDAY, I ORDERED A 120 DAY EXTENSION OF THE MORATORIUM -- AND I AM EXPECTING MANY MORE ACHIEVEMENTS FOR FREEDOM AND COMMON SENSE.

FUNDAMENTAL REFORM OF REGULATION CAN'T BE ACHIEVED OVERNIGHT. IT'S GOING TO TAKE A LOT OF TOUGH, IMAGINATIVE, PATIENT EFFORT. BUT I AM TOTALLY COMMITTED TO REFORMING REGULATION, BECAUSE THE COST OF INACTION WOULD BE MORE THAN WE COULD BEAR. THINK OF SOME OF THE BURDENS AND CONTRADICTIONS WE ALREADY FACE:

HERE IN COLUMBUS, THE CITY GOVERNMENT HAS PROJECTED THAT OVER THE NEXT DECADE, ITS COST OF COMPLIANCE WITH FEDERAL ENVIRONMENTAL REGULATIONS ALONE WILL BE $1.6 BILLION. THAT'S $856 PER HOUSEHOLD PER YEAR.

NOW, THIS IS FOR A COMMUNITY WHOSE ENTIRE CITY BUDGET LAST YEAR WAS $591 MILLION. THE SHARE OF THE CITY'S BUDGET TO MEET THESE REGULATIONS STANDS TO INCREASE FROM 10 PERCENT TO 23 PERCENT. RIGHT NOW, COLUMBUS IS ONE OF THE MOST ATTRACTIVE PLACES IN THE COUNTRY FOR PEOPLE TO WORK AND TO LIVE. BUT I CAN'T SAY THINGS WILL STAY THAT WAY IF THE COST OF MEETING GOVERNMENT MANDATES KEEPS GOING THROUGH THE ROOF.

- 10 -

IN JUNEAU, ALASKA, A LOCAL CHARITY, THE ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY, WANTED TO BUILD AN ADDITION TO ITS SHELTER FOR THE HOMELESS, ALSO REQUIRING MORE PARKING SPACES. UNFORTUNATELY THE BUILDING PROJECT WAS DELAYED FOR A WHOLE YEAR BECAUSE BUREAUCRATS DECLARED THE SITE A "WETLAND." NOW GET THIS: THE SHELTER IS IN THE MIDDLE OF TOWN, SURROUNDED BY CONCRETE -- DRY CONCRETE, I PRESUME -- ON A CITY BLOCK THAT INCLUDES TWO CAR DEALERSHIPS, A PLUMBING STORE AND A STORAGE BUSINESS.

- 11 -

THERE'S SOMETHING WRONG WITH THIS PICTURE. OBVIOUSLY SOMEBODY IN THIS EPISODE WAS ALL WET -- BUT IT WASN'T THE REAL ESTATE FOR THE HOMELESS SHELTER.

AND BACK HERE IN OHIO, AN UNREASONABLE FEDERAL REGULATION ALMOST FORCED THE CLOSING OF THE DAYTON AREA HEALTH PLAN -- AN INNOVATIVE MANAGED CARE PROGRAM DESIGNED TO OFFER HIGH QUALITY CARE TO SOME 43,000 MEDICAID RECIPIENTS IN DAYTON.

GOVERNOR VOINOVICH LED THE EFFORT TO CHANGE THIS INEQUITY -- AND JUST THIS WEEK, I SIGNED LEGISLATION GRANTING AN EXEMPTION FOR THIS OHIO REFORM INITIATIVE. I HAVE CONFIDENCE IN THE NEW IDEAS OHIOANS ARE DEVELOPING ON THEIR OWN -- WITHOUT MANDATES FROM KNOW-IT-ALLS IN THE WASHINGTON BUREAUCRACY. WE DON'T DO MUCH FOR AMERICANS' HEALTH WHEN WE PUT HMOs LIKE THE ONE IN DAYTON ON THE CRITICAL LIST. **

IT'S STORIES LIKE THESE THAT REMIND US WHAT A VISIONARY ALEXIS DE TOCQUEVILLE WAS. A CENTURY AND A HALF AGO, HE WARNED THAT IF AMERICANS WERE NOT CAREFUL, GOVERNMENT WOULD "COVER THE SURFACE OF SOCIETY WITH A NETWORK OF SMALL, COMPLICATED RULES, MINUTE AND UNIFORM, THROUGH WHICH THE MOST ORIGINAL MINDS AND THE MOST ENERGETIC CHARACTERS CANNOT PENETRATE."

WELL, WE'VE HEARD THE WARNING. WE'RE FIGHTING BACK. OUR REFORM EFFORTS ARE BREATHING NEW LIFE INTO AMERICA'S ABILITY TO COMPETE, TO INNOVATE, TO CREATE JOBS. EVERY FEDERAL AGENCY I ASKED HAS RESPONDED WITH ACTION TO EASE THE BURDEN OF UNNECESSARY REGULATION. FROM BIOTECHNOLOGY TO ENERGY TO BANKING -- AND, YES, TO BROADCASTING AND TELECOMMUNICATIONS -- WE ARE TAKING THE SHACKLES OFF OF AMERICAN ENTERPRISE.

- 15 -

LET ME TAKE THIS OCCASION TO SALUTE THE FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION FOR ITS ACTION TO RELAX NEEDLESS RESTRICTIONS ON OWNERSHIP OF RADIO STATIONS. THE FCC ALSO HAS TAKEN ACTION TO ALLOW COMPETITION AMONG INTERNATIONAL SATELLITE COMPANIES. THIS WILL HELP REDUCE PRICES AMERICANS NOW PAY ON MORE THAN A BILLION TELEPHONE CALLS EVERY YEAR TO OTHER COUNTRIES. THESE ARE VERY WELCOME REFORMS.

- 16 -

AL SIKES, THE FCC CHAIRMAN, BELIEVES IN FREE MARKETS AND INNOVATION -- AND IT'S CLEAR TO ME THAT IS THE RIGHT DIRECTION.

LOOKING FORWARD, ONE CAN'T HELP BUT SEE THAT NEW TELECOMMUNICATIONS TECHNOLOGIES WILL REVOLUTIONIZE SCIENCE, EDUCATION, AND THE WAY WE DO BUSINESS. THEY'LL BE AN IMPORTANT BOON TO FAMILIES:

- 17 -

THE DAY IS COMING WHEN MOTHERS AND FATHERS WILL BE ABLE TO SPEND MORE TIME AT HOME WITH THEIR CHILDREN EVEN AS THEY MAKE EVER MORE PRODUCTIVE CONTRIBUTIONS TO OUR ECONOMY.

IN THE SAME SPIRIT AS REGULATORY REFORM IS PRIVATIZATION -- FACILITIES NOW RUN BY GOVERNMENT TO BE OWNED AND OPERATED BY COMPETITIVE ENTERPRISES AND THUS SERVE THE PUBLIC FAR MORE FAIRLY AND EFFICIENTLY.

- 18 -

TODAY, BEFORE I CAME HERE TO COLUMBUS, I SIGNED AN EXECUTIVE ORDER THAT WILL GIVE STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENTS MORE FREEDOM TO SELL OR LEASE THEIR INFRASTRUCTURE TO THE PRIVATE SECTOR IF THEY CHOOSE TO DO SO. WE HEAR COMPLAINTS THAT AMERICA'S INFRASTRUCTURE IS CRUMBLING, AND THAT STATES AREN'T PUTTING ENOUGH MONEY INTO EXPANDING OR REPAIRING IT. AT THE SAME TIME, MANY PRIVATE COMPANIES WANT TO INVEST IN THESE PROJECTS.

- 19 -

MY EXECUTIVE ORDER WILL REMOVE IMPEDIMENTS TO COMPETITIVE ENTERPRISES BUYING INFRASTRUCTURE ASSETS -- INCLUDING BRIDGES, ROADS, HOUSING AND SEWAGE TREATMENT PLANTS. THIS INITIATIVE COULD GENERATE BILLIONS OF DOLLARS IN NEW INVESTMENT AND MILLIONS OF NEW JOBS. AMERICAN BUSINESS HAS THE FUNDS TO INVEST IN INFRASTRUCTURE AND EXPAND IT.

- 20 -

THROUGH TODAY'S ACTION, WE WILL HELP MORE PEOPLE ENJOY CHEAPER AND BETTER WASTE-WATER TREATMENT SERVICE BY LETTING BUSINESSES WITH REAL MARKET INCENTIVES DO THE JOB. WE'LL HELP LOW-INCOME TENANTS BUY THEIR OWN HOUSING. WE'RE PROMOTING COMPETITION THAT COULD DRAMATICALLY REDUCE THE COSTS OF URBAN MASS TRANSIT. AND THE MONEY THAT STATES WILL RECEIVE FOR SELLING THESE FACILITIES WILL BE USED TO BUILD EVEN MORE NEW NEEDED INFRASTRUCTURE, OR TO LOWER THE STATES' DEBTS -- OR TO CUT YOUR TAXES.

- 21 -

OF ONE THING, HOWEVER, I AM CERTAIN: THE STATUS QUO WILL NOT YIELD WITHOUT A FIGHT. THE SPECIAL-INTEREST CROWD WON'T LIKE OUR AGENDA. THEY THINK GOVERNMENT SHOULD OWN MORE, NOT LESS.

- 22 -

WASHINGTON IS SWARMING WITH NOISY LOBBYISTS FOR THE OLD INTERESTS OF KNOW-IT-ALL GOVERNMENT -- PEOPLE WHO'VE NEVER MET A REGULATION THEY DIDN'T LIKE.

THIS IS SPRINGTIME, AND A YOUNG MAN'S THOUGHTS TURN -- AND HIS RADIO DIAL TURNS -- TO BASEBALL. SO I'D LIKE TO LEAVE YOU WITH A FAVORITE STORY ABOUT THE LEGENDARY YOGI BERRA. IN YOGI'S HOMETOWN OF ST. LOUIS, THE LOCAL PEOPLE ORGANIZED A CELEBRATION IN HIS HONOR AT THE OLD SPORTSMAN'S PARK.

YOGI QUAVERED WITH EMOTION AS HE STEPPED UP TO SPEAK.
"FIRST," HE SAID, "FROM THE BOTTOM OF MY HEART, LET ME THANK ALL THE PEOPLE WHO HAVE MADE THIS DAY NECESSARY."

THE POINT OF THE STORY IS THIS: THE FREEDOM-LOVING PEOPLE IN THIS COUNTRY -- PEOPLE OF INGENUITY AND ENTERPRISE, PEOPLE IN LEADING-EDGE INDUSTRIES LIKE YOUR OWN -- ARE NOT MERELY MAKING RENEWAL OF LIMITED GOVERNMENT POSSIBLE. \\ THEY'RE MAKING IT NECESSARY.

THEY'RE MAKING IT INEVITABLE. \\ TECHNOLOGICAL ADVANCE IS ACCELERATING SO RAPIDLY THAT THE OLD GUARD
CAN ONLY HOPE IN VAIN TO KEEP UP. WE'LL MAKE INTRUSIVE AND GLUTTONOUS GOVERNMENT A THING OF THE PAST.

WE'VE REACHED A TURNING POINT. \\ WE'RE ON THE VERGE OF WATERSHED REFORMS TO MAKE GOVERNMENT STOP STIFLING PEOPLE WHO WANT TO USE THEIR FREEDOMS TO CREATE, TO PRODUCE, TO SERVE. \\

- 25 -

THE DAY IS COMING WHEN ENTERPRISERS AND INNOVATORS LIKE YOURSELVES WILL LEAD US TO NEW HORIZONS. THE DAY IS COMING WHEN DREAMS NOT YET IMAGINED WILL COME TRUE.

I AM CONFIDENT ABOUT THE YEARS AHEAD: WE WILL KEEP THIS NATION A CHAMPION OF IDEAS AND OPPORTUNITY AND JUSTICE. WE CAN REFORM OUR SCHOOLS AND OUR COURTS AND OUR HEALTH SYSTEM -- OUR VERY SYSTEM OF GOVERNMENT. WE CAN ASSURE THAT WHEN WE REACH THE NEW CENTURY, AMERICA WILL STILL BE THE STRONGEST, THE BRAVEST, AND THE FREEST NATION ON THE FACE OF THE EARTH.

- 26 -

THANK YOU, AND MAY GOD BLESS THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Mike:

Not to worry!

Thanks for your note on Fred Krupp. I understand perfectly, so please don't be further concerned. The press opportunity out there is like a giant magnet and people gravitate towards it like moths to a flame. I guess Krupp couldn't resist it- helps him with the environmental community- so hell with what it does to us.... anyway, you've done all that needs to be done.

Thanks

Michael R. Deland
Chairman

The President
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. President:

You have my deep-seated apologies for my providing Fred Krupp, of the Environmental Defense Fund, the opportunity to criticize your Regulatory Reform Program at the stake-out today.

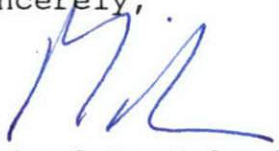

By way of explanation -- although certainly not excuse -- it was Fred and EDF who worked closely with Boyden to devise the market-based trading program under the Clean Air Act to which you referred in your speech. Similarly, Fred has worked productively as a member of your Commission on Environmental Quality to help implement private sector initiatives. In fact, at a meeting of your Commission just prior to the Rose Garden ceremony, Fred took the initiative, along with Ken Derr and Ken Lay, to urge the Commission to become involved in highlighting the "cash for clunker" program which is a component of your Regulatory Reform package...!

I have relayed to Fred, both in person earlier this afternoon and tonight on the phone, my extreme disappointment at what I view to be his unconscionable behavior. I had thought him to be both trustworthy and a gentleman, and clearly his actions of this afternoon do not fit those categories.

That said, it was at my invitation that he came to the Rose Garden and I assume responsibility -- as one should -- for the actions of one's guests.

I feel extremely badly that I have thus subjected you -- the gentleman and President whom I so greatly admire -- to such criticism. I trust that on balance my actions of support for you and your programs will far outweigh the events of today. Along with my apologies for today, you have my deep and ever-growing respect for the remarkable gentleman and leader that you are.

Sincerely,

Michael R. Deland

With my apologies is my pledge to keep plugging for you --

CONGRESSIONAL MONITOR

Thursday, April 30, 1992

Volume 28, Number 64

Today in Congress

Senate Floor: The Senate will vote on the conference report on campaign finance legislation (S 3) that would apply voluntary spending limits on campaigns for House and Senate offices.

The House approved the conference agreement 259-165 on April 9.

While many Republicans are opposed to the bill, they have not tried to block final approval. Instead, they are relying on President Bush to veto the measure, confident that Congress will sustain the veto.

House Floor: The House will take up a bill (HR 3090) that would overturn a Bush administration ban on abortion counseling at federally supported family planning clinics.

In 1991, the Supreme Court upheld regulations proposed in 1988 by the Health and Human Services Department that prohibit clinics supported by the Title X family planning program from providing information on the use of abortion as a method of family planning. Those regulations are scheduled to be fully implemented next month.

The measure, which would authorize the Title X program through fiscal 1996, would overturn the regulations, which also require clinics that receive grants and provide abortion counseling or services with non-federal funds to certify they are complying with state parental notification laws.

Instead of trying to alter the measure, supporters of the regulations are working to defeat the bill or are counting on a veto by President Bush.

Gas Stations: The House Energy Subcommittee on Energy and Power will mark up legislation aimed at strengthening the hand of service station operators in their negotiations with oil companies.

The measure (HR 5000) would amend the Petroleum Marketing Practices Act, which regulates the franchise relationships between oil companies and service station operators.

The bill is in response to recent complaints that oil companies have been making unreasonable demands in franchise renewal negotiations in an attempt to squeeze out independent service station operators and replace them with more profitable company-owned stations.

The bill would bar oil companies from proposing contract terms with the intent of converting a service station to a company-owned station.

The bill is expected to gain approval easily; it is cosponsored by every member of the full committee.

Baker Testimony: Secretary of State James A. Baker III will testify before the House Foreign Affairs Committee on assistance to the republics of the former Soviet Union.

Baker will almost certainly address the political and economic developments in the former republics and the steps being taken by the United States and its allies to help reform efforts.

Earlier in the month, the Group of Seven industrial nations — comprising the United States, Japan, Germany, Great Britain, Italy, France and Canada — offered Russia and the other former republics a $24 billion aid package, conditioned on the continuation of market-oriented reforms. And on April 27, Russia and 13 of the other former republics were invited to join the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank. Admittance to these organizations would officially qualify these new nations for development loans.

But Russia's economic reform program has already been amended to lessen its painful impact on the republic's citizens. And Western economists have expressed concern that social pressures, such as price hikes and unemployment, may force the Russian government to continue to dilute the reforms. ■

Hill News

HOUSE FLOOR: Space station funding authority survives.

Supporters of the space station Freedom last night fended off a House floor attack on the project's fiscal 1993 funding authority.

Members were working on legislation (HR 4364) that would authorize the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) through fiscal 1995. The bill includes $2.3 billion for fiscal 1993 spending for the space station.

The House rejected, by a 159-254 vote, an amendment that would have cut fiscal 1993 spending authority for the project and used half to reduce the deficit and half to boost other NASA programs.

Supporters of the station said it was vital to maintain the country's commitment to space exploration and that outer space research could help provide the clues to curing cancer, AIDS or other diseases.

But critics did not buy that argument, saying that if the $2.3 billion was diverted it could be used to boost federal research into those diseases.

Other members said the vote on the bill was irrelevant because the real test for the space station would be when the House takes up the appropriations bill that includes NASA funding. The House last year restored funding for the station after it was cut by appropriators.

HOUSE FLOOR: House bank subpoena debate begins.

House leaders last night were trying to avert a constitutional challenge over a special counsel's subpoena of all the records of the House bank.

At press time, members were debating competing proposals on how to respond to the subpoena. The first plan, drafted by Democrats, would be to ask a federal court judge to decide whether Special Counsel Malcolm R. Wilkey's request was appropriate with, the promise

Kolter Loses in Pennsylvania Primary; Lynn Yeakel Set To Challenge Specter

One House lawmaker tasted defeat, but other members tainted by the House bank scandal were able to win primary victories in Pennsylvania primary balloting on Tuesday.

Joe Kolter became the sixth House member — all Democrats — to lose a primary. Kolter ran a dismal third in the 4th District after several politically damaging blows, including the disclosure of an audiotape of a campaign strategy meeting in which he called himself a "political whore" who is "here to get elected."

In the Pennsylvania Senate primary, in a race that captured national attention, political novice Lynn Yeakel won the Democratic Senate nomination to face incumbent GOP Sen. Arlen Specter in November. Yeakel took 44 percent of the vote, besting Lt. Gov. Mark S. Singel's 33 percent.

Yeakel's win, coming on the heels of Carol Moseley Braun's upset primary victory over Democratic Sen. Alan Dixon in Illinois last month, seems to affirm the dramatic political upheaval sparked by the Senate's Anita F. Hill/Clarence Thomas hearings last year.

House Races. Interestingly, Kolter was not among the 325 members or former members of the House who had overdrafts at the House bank. But the audiotape of Kolter's strategy meeting gave his opponents plenty of ammunition to label him a cynical and manipulative politician. The Pittsburgh Press story that revealed the audiotape of the meeting also detailed personnel problems and unusual business practices within Kolter's congressional office.

That left an opening for his primary challengers. Former television news reporter Ron Klink won the 4th District primary with 45 percent of the vote, followed by state Rep. Mike Veon with 23 percent and Kolter with 19 percent.

• In other races, Democrat Austin J. Murphy eked out a narrow victory in the 20th District, besting Washington County Commissioner Frank R. Mascara by 36 percent to 33 percent.

Although Murphy had only a half-dozen overdrafts at the House bank, challengers also mentioned his 1987 reprimand by the House for allowing another member to vote for him and keeping a ghost employee on the payroll.

The Pennsylvania election was a good example of just how limited an anti-incumbency movement can be: Although many voters are angry and looking for alternatives to sitting members, 13 of the 19 House members seeking re-election had no primary opposition, and three — Republicans William F. Clinger and Bud Shuster and Democrat John P. Murtha — had no opposition at all.

Among the six incumbents who had primary battles, only Kolter, Murphy and Lucien E. Blackwell, D, faced tough races. The others, including two who had House bank overdrafts, won their primaries with more than 70 percent of the vote.

Blackwell is seeking his first full term after winning a 2nd District special election last year to replace William H. Gray III, D, who retired. He won 54 percent of the vote, fighting off civil rights activist C. Dolores Tucker, who garnered 46 percent.

• Pennsylvania lost two seats in redistricting, but four incumbents retired, leaving two open seats. In the 6th District, Democrats nominated Schuylkill County Sheriff Tim Holden, who will face GOP primary victor John E. Jones, a judge and local party activist. In the 13th, Democrat Marjorie Margolies Mezvinsky, a former television reporter, won the nomination to oppose Republican Jon D. Fox, a county commissioner.

Elsewhere, from a crowded 12-candidate Democratic field seeking to challenge GOP Rep. Rick Santorum in a newly drawn, heavily Democratic district, 18th District voters nominated state Sen. Frank A. Pecora, who won with just 19 percent of the vote. Pecora won election to the state Senate as a Republican but switched parties after legislative redistricting earlier this year.

Senate Race. As was the case with Braun, Yeakel's campaign gained inspiration from the Hill/Thomas hearings, which energized women to support her. The 50-year-old Yeakel, a fundraiser for women's causes, came from way back in early polls to storm ahead in the last week. After her victory, the political novice said she won because she offered "new opportunities, new hope and new encouragement."

Yeakel must now beat Specter — who handily won his primary against state Rep. Stephen F. Freind — to become the first female senator from Pennsylvania.

In his race against Specter, Freind, an abortion-rights opponent, stressed his differences with the incumbent on the issue in a fierce campaign. But Specter, who is seeking a third term in the Senate, won easily with 65 percent of the vote.

NEWS from p. 1

that the House would abide by the judge's decision.

The second proposal, largely a Republican effort, would be to simply comply with the subpoena.

Under a "king-of-the-hill" procedure, if both proposals were passed, the second plan would supersede the first.

Wilkey, who was appointed by Attorney General William Barr to probe possible wrongdoing at the bank, has demanded access to all the records and suggested that potential criminal activity has already been uncovered.

Speaker Thomas S. Foley, D-Wash., had resisted complying with the subpoena, complaining that it was overly broad. But rejecting the subpoena would be political suicide, many members argued, because it would give the appearance of a cover-up.

SENATE FLOOR: Campaign finance bill debate continues.

The Senate yesterday continued debating the conference report on legislation (S 3) that aims to make sweeping changes in the way candidates for federal office finance their campaigns.

The bill would apply voluntary spending limitations to all House and Senate races. Senate campaign spending limits would range from $950,000 to $5.5 million, depending on a state's size. House campaigns would be limited to $600,000.

Candidates who abided by the spending limits would be eligible to receive matching funds and discount advertising and postal rates.

But some Republican members, such as Mitch McConnell, Ky., strongly oppose the bill, arguing that public matching funds have no proper place in political campaigns.

BUDGET RESCISSIONS approved by House appropriators.

The House Appropriations Committee yesterday met President Bush's challenge to make a number of cuts in fiscal 1992 spending, and went a little further.

The panel gave voice vote approval to legislation (HR 4990) that would make about $5.8 billion in rescissions, about $142 million more than Bush requested. About $2.6 billion of the cuts were those proposed by Bush. Panel members declined to approve Bush's other proposals, instead proposing $3.2 billion of their own. Nearly $5 billion of the cuts would be to military programs, $734 million to domestic initiatives and $124 million to foreign aid.

A number of the cuts proposed by Congress were aimed at Republicans allied with Bush or his political appointees.

For example, HR 4990 would cut a $3.4 million laboratory in the Illinois congressional district of Harris W. Fawell, R-Ill. And a $22,000 cut would end the chauffeured car service for Agency for International Development (AID) Administrator Ronald J. Roskens. AID announced later in the day that Roskens was voluntarily giving up his car and driver.

Additionally, projects targeted by Bush won reprieves. The president proposed cancellation of the construction of two Seawolf submarines, but Congress chose to continue to build one of them.

The Senate Appropriations Committee will consider similar legislation this afternoon.

ENERGY BILL gets Ways and Means rewrite; others weigh in.

A sweeping energy strategy bill was reshaped by several House Committees yesterday, with the oil industry winning a significant concession from the Ways and Means Committee.

But the two committees with the most significant jurisdiction that have yet to weigh in — Ways and Means and Merchant Marine — were not able to complete action on the bill (HR 776).

Their jurisdiction over the bill ends tomorrow. Those committees, as well as the Public Works, Government Operations and Judiciary committees plan to wrap up action today.

The Energy, Science and Interior panels have already completed action on their portions of the omnibus measure.

• Yesterday, on a 23-12 vote, the Ways and Means Committee dropped from the bill a provision that would have required oil importers and refiners to set aside 1 percent of their product for the Strategic Petroleum Reserve. The oil industry and the Bush administration had vigorously protested the set-aside, which they called an unfair tax.

The tax-writing panel also rejected, 16-20, an amendment to ease a requirement that oil and gas drillers must pay a minimum tax, even if they can claim enough deductions to otherwise avoid it.

The committee also approved a tax break for purchasers of vehicles using clean-burning fuels such as natural gas, methanol and electricity.

• In addition, two Public Works subcommittees approved sections of the energy bill relating to oil pipeline regulations, the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) and highway-use issues.

The Surface Transportation Subcommittee, by voice vote, deleted provisions that would have granted drivers of automobiles that use alternative fuels special privileges, such as exemptions from paying certain tolls and access to roads set aside for high-occupancy cars even if only one person was in the car.

It also dropped a section of the measure that would have required the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission to speed up consideration of changes in oil pipeline rate-making procedures.

The Water Resources Subcommittee approved, by voice vote, sections that would exempt the Tennessee Valley authority from requirements on other utilities to provide independent power producers access to the transmission of power.

• The Foreign Affairs Committee approved, by voice vote, portions of the bill that would promote the export of coal and renewable energy technologies.

• Merchant Marine committee action on the bill was postponed until today because key committee members, including Gerry E. Studds, D-Mass., were not at the markup.

FAA AUTHORIZATION gains swift Ways and Means approval.

With little discussion, the House Ways and Means Committee yesterday approved a measure (HR 4691) by voice vote to reauthorize Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) programs for two years.

The bill would authorize $2 billion in fiscal 1993 and $2.1 billion in fiscal 1994 for the FAA's Airport Improvement Program and $4.6 billion in fiscal 1993 and $5 billion in fiscal 1994 for FAA operations. The measure also would require the FAA administrator to hire additional air traffic controllers so that there would be 18,128 controllers by the end of fiscal 1993.

WATER PROJECTS bill gains Senate Environment approval.

A $3 billion draft measure that would authorize 22 new Army Corps of Engineers water projects yesterday won the approval of the Senate Environment and Public Works Committee. The vote was 16-1.

The federal government's share of the tab would be $1.7 billion; state and local governments would pay $1.3 billion.

The biggest new project in the bill would authorize a $556 million navigational lock and dam project on the Monongahela River in Pennsylvania. Another big project, with a $426 million price tag, would restore wetlands along the Kissimmee River in Florida that were damaged by a corps navigation project in the 1960s.

The committee approved, 13-4, an amendment by Max Baucus, D-Mont., that would authorize a new grant program to help small communities build or improve their environmental infrastructure, such as water treatment plants. The amendment would authorize $500 million per year through fiscal 1998 for such projects. The communities would be required to pay 10 percent of the costs of the projects.

The committee also approved an amendment by George J. Mitchell, D-Maine, to place greater restrictions on what the corps may do with dredged sediments that contain pollutants.

INDIAN HEALTH measure gains in Interior panel.

Legislation (HR 3724) that aims to create minimum health standards for Native Americans and promote their recruitment into the health professions won the voice vote approval yesterday of the House Interior Committee. The bill would reauthorize a number of Indian health-care programs through fiscal 2000.

The measure would establish a set of health goals for the country's Native American community that includes dramatically lower teen-age pregnancy rates, and improvements in the rate alcoholism — especially among teenagers — and other chronic problems, ranging from tooth decay to AIDS.

In an effort to encourage American Indian youths to train for employment as doctors, nurses, dentists and social work professionals, the bill would establish grants, scholarships and an educational-loan repayment program for individuals who practice on reservations or in areas with urban Indian populations.

The bill also would authorize funding for construction of health clinics and substance abuse treatment facilities and for special studies and education programs dealing with fetal alcohol syndrome, a condition affecting children born to mothers who abuse alcohol while pregnant.

Although the bill sets no specific authorization levels, the Congressional Budget Office predicts that the programs under the bill would require about $221 million by fiscal 1996.

OIL AND GAS operators protection wins subcommittee approval.

The House Judiciary Subcommittee on Economic and Commercial Law approved, by voice vote, legislation that would protect the interests that independent oil or natural gas operators have acquired on property that is subsequently subject to bankruptcy proceedings.

Under the measure (HR 4363), bankruptcy trustees would be prevented from confiscating the natural gas or oil interests of independent operators in an effort to pay off the creditors of a bankrupt property owner.

Supporters of the measure claim that it would remove an unnecessary burden on those businesses that are among the main sources of domestic energy production.

The Senate Judiciary Committee approved a related measure (S 580) on Feb. 6.

INDIAN CLAIMS bill wins subcommittee approval.

Legislation (HR 4209) that would require the federal government to compensate a number of American Indian tribes for the damage to their lands caused by a large-scale water project won voice vote approval yesterday from the House Judiciary Administrative Law Subcommittee.

The Kerr-McClellan water project, completed in 1971, made the Arkansas River in Oklahoma navigable for barge traffic. But the project prevented three Indian tribes — the Cherokee, Choctaw and Chickasaw — from making full use of those parts of the river on their property. For example, the tribes could no longer extract natural resources from the river bed.

Federal courts have ruled that the government in this case is not required to compensate the Indians for the damages incurred due to a doctrine known as "navigational servitude," which gives the government the right to maintain the navigability of the nation's waterways.

This bill would direct federal courts to determine damages caused by the project and authorize payment to the tribes.

But the subcommittee voted to make the payment contingent on appropriations by Congress.

WHALING BAN pushed by House Merchant Marine panel.

The House Merchant Marine Committee approved, by voice vote, a measure (H Con Res 177) that calls for continuing indefinitely the International Whaling Commission's 1986 moratorium on the commercial killing of whales.

The non-controversial measure also expresses the sense of Congress that the United States should promote maximum protection of the world's whale, dolphin and porpoise populations. The bill was approved by the Foreign Affairs Committee on Oct. 10.

BALANCED BUDGET amendment not a panacea, Panetta says.

The House Budget Committee yesterday kicked off a series of hearings on proposals to amend the U.S. Constitution to require a balanced federal budget, but the chairman of the House Budget Committee was decidedly cool about its benefits.

With the annual federal deficit to easily top $300 billion both this fiscal year and next, a balanced budget amendment has won new support on Capitol Hill. House Speaker Thomas S. Foley, D-Wash., said last week that the House would vote on a constitutional amendment this summer.

But Panetta and economist Lawrence Chimerine said what was really missing was political courage in Congress to make tough spending decisions. "I have yet to see process changes that in fact produce the guts to make tough choices," said Panetta.

If the House and Senate are able to muster the two-thirds support needed to approve an amendment, it must then be ratified by 38 states. Under the most optimistic scenario, Congress would not be operating under a balanced budget mandate until the end of the decade.

Even with a balanced budget amendment in place, Chimerine said that Congress could get around spending limits by placing programs off-budget or deploying numerous budget tricks that have been used in the past to mask the true size of the federal deficit.

Another economist who testified, William Niskanen Jr. of the Cato Institute, supports a balanced budget amendment but believes that Congress should be required to balance the federal books over a four- to five-year period, or about the length of the average economic cycle.

JOBLESS BENEFITS extension puts Martin on the defensive.

Labor Secretary Lynn Martin yesterday promised the Senate Finance Committee that the Bush administration would support legislation that would extend unemployment benefits until the end of the year.

But Martin came under fire from panel members when she would not detail how President Bush would propose to pay for the bill or reveal how many additional weeks of benefits workers could expect.

Committee Chairman Lloyd Bentsen, D-Texas, said the administration should take the lead in finding offsetting spending cuts to fund the benefits.

Martin said that she was prepared to sit down with lawmakers to work out what cuts could be made. "The president said to me, 'do it, let's go, let's move,' and you know, not try to embarrass anyone, let's just move it."

After months of partisan wrangling, the president signed into law last year legislation (PL 102-164) providing at least 13 weeks of additional benefits to those jobless workers who had exhausted their regular 26 weeks of coverage. When the economy remained jittery, Congress in February quickly approved, and the president signed, a measure (PL 102-244) providing another 13 weeks of coverage. These extended benefits are available through July 4.

Although the economy has shown signs of recovery, Martin said a new bill would protect against a lag in the job market.

FREE TRADE pact for North America pushed by Madigan.

Agriculture Secretary Edward Madigan told a House Appropriations panel that the North American Free Trade Agreement (NFTA) would benefit U.S. farmers, despite fears to the contrary.

Madigan said U.S. farmers would have the edge over Mexican farmers under such a pact because the United States has "better infrastructure, more arable land and fresher water."

But panel member Joe Skeen, R-N.M., was skeptical of NFTA, which is the subject of negotiations among the United States, Mexico and Canada, saying that farmers are not happy with the 1990 U.S.-Canada Free Trade Agreement and may stand to lose with an expansion of free trade to Mexico.

But Madigan said agricultural exports to Canada increase by more than 40 percent after the U.S.-Canada agreement was implemented.

Madigan was before the Agriculture Appropriations Subcommittee to detail the Agriculture Department's $82.6 billion fiscal 1993 budget request, which represents a $1.2 billion increase over fiscal 1992 appropriations. The budget request seeks significant increases in funding for biofuel research, nutrition education and soil preservation programs.

FOREIGN ESPIONAGE aimed at U.S. businesses, spy chiefs say.

CIA Director Robert M. Gates and FBI Director William S. Sessions told members of a House Judiciary subcommittee yesterday that their agencies were increasing counterintelligence efforts against spying on U.S. companies now that the Cold War was over.

"Some governments in Asia, Europe, the Middle East and to a lesser degree Latin America, as well as some former Communist countries — nearly 20 governments overall — are involved in intelligence activities that are detrimental to our economic interests at some level," Gates told the Economic and Commercial Law Subcommittee.

Sessions said republics of the former Soviet Union were likely to try economic spying to advance their weak economies.

"Defectors have stated that the new Russian intelligence service will target the increasing number of U.S.-Russian joint business ventures in an effort to steal highly desirable Western technology," Sessions said.

The FBI head said foreign government intelligence activities were aimed at critical U.S. technology such as computers, communications and aviation and at economic information.

"U.S. industry and government may have lost billions of dollars through the theft of trade secrets and other proprietary information by foreign government and business interests," subcommittee Chairman Jack Brooks, D-Texas, said.

CABLE TELEVISION bill complicated by copyright issues.

Sen. Daniel K. Inouye, D-Hawaii, warned yesterday that the Senate-passed cable re-regulation bill (S 12) should remain free of any copyright issues or the measure could be doomed.

Inouye's statement came at a Senate Judiciary subcommittee hearing to review the issue of whether to repeal a compulsory licensing fee that cable operators pay to receive distant broadcast signals.

Dennis DeConcini, D-Ariz., who chairs the Patents, Copyrights and Trademarks Subcommittee, said he was holding the hearing to learn the effects of the licensing fee on the availability of sports programming.

Currently, a "compulsory copyright license" provision, enacted in 1976 to help the then-fledgling cable industry, allows cable operators to retransmit local broadcasts for free. But it also requires them to pay a flat fee when retransmitting a distant broadcast signal, such as from a so-called superstation like WTBS in Atlanta.

As passed by the Senate, S 12 includes a provision that would let broadcasters negotiate local-signal retransmission fees with cable operators, a provision that broadcasters do not want removed in a conference on the bill with the House.

But Hollywood and professional sports leagues oppose the retransmission consent provision and instead favor an approach taken by the House Judiciary Committee that would gradually repeal the compulsory license law and return to a free-market system in which each cable operator negotiates with each program provider for retransmission rights.

Baseball Commissioner Francis T. Vincent Jr. told the panel that he opposes the compulsory license because competition from superstations has held down broadcasts of other teams.

But consumer advocates say the repeal of the compulsory license could mean the end of free sports on television because cable owners would replace the superstation sports telecasts with fewer and more expensive pay-per-view cablecasts.

THURMOND, WARNER to face-off for ranking Armed Services slot.

Saying he wants to protect South Carolina from cuts in the defense budget, Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., announced yesterday that he will challenge Sen. John W. Warner, R-Va., for the ranking position on the Armed Services Committee in the 103rd Congress.

Thurmond said he would assert his seniority over Warner to assume the position. But Warner signaled yesterday that he would fight the move. "The GOP caucus will decide on the (committee) leadership," Warner said in a statement.

In most cases, senators do not challenge more senior senators for chairmanships or ranking committee positions. But the situation becomes trickier when senior members attempt to displace those who already hold such positions.

For example, in 1987, Jesse Helms, R-N.C., gave up the ranking position on the Agriculture Committee for the ranking Foreign Relations Committee spot — but not before a 24-17 secret vote of Senate Republicans. Helms had seniority in that contest, and it was a major factor in his victory.

If Thurmond should prevail, Sen. Orrin G. Hatch, R-Utah, who is currently ranking on the Labor and Human Resources Committee, would have the option of assuming the top Republican post on Judiciary.

CLINTON PLEDGES to lawmakers his cooperation if elected.

Arkansas Gov. Bill Clinton, the likely Democratic presidential nominee, spent the day on Capitol Hill yesterday in a bid to pick up support from congressional Democrats.

Clinton said he told House Democrats: "Look, I'm going to disagree with you, but I will take my responsibility . . . I want to work with you to change the country." He also met with Senate Democrats and held private meetings with individual lawmakers and small groups of lawmakers.

House Majority Leader Richard A. Gephardt, D-Mo., said the Clinton visit bore fruit. "I think he'll pick up a sizable number of people today," said Gephardt after Clinton met with House Democrats.

While Clinton pledged to cooperate with lawmakers if he is elected president, he also said a major goal of his would be to take on some of the special interest groups that "Congress has been unwilling to take on in the past."

Not As Scheduled

The Senate Environment and Public Works Committee postponed until today its markup of solid waste legislation (S 976) after Republicans complained they did not have adequate time to study the details of the measure.

The markup was rescheduled for this morning.

STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDENT

The Briefing Room

12:05 P.M. EDT

THE PRESIDENT: A tragic series of events have occurred in Los Angeles that include frustration over a verdict. The wanton destruction of property and the senseless death of several citizens in the last few hours. I urge all Americans to approach this situation with calm, with tolerance and with the respect for the rights of all individuals under the Constitution.

The United States Department of Justice will continue its criminal investigation of the police violence case in Los Angeles to ensure that the civil rights laws of our nation are fully and equally applied. The Department of Justice has been monitoring this case since its inception and, as is customary in these kinds of situations, the Justice Department moved last night to accelerate the investigation that it started several months ago.

I have just met with the Attorney General of the United States to consider the federal governments legal course at this point and to review any other forms of assistance that we should provide the State of California and the City of Los Angeles. I also discussed these matters this morning with Governor Wilson and Mayor Tom Bradley and with other senior members of my administration. We are concerned about any question of excessive police violence and we are equally concerned about excessive public violence.

The murder and destruction in the streets of Los Angeles last night and today must be stopped. Lootings, beatings and random violence against innocent victims must be condemned. And society cannot tolerate this kind of behavior. There are some principles of law and of behavior that should be repeated in these circumstances:

First, we must maintain a respect for our legal system and a demand for law and order.

Second, we have a right to expect a police force that protects our citizens and behaves in a responsible manner.

Third, in the American conscience there is no room for bigotry and racism.

And fourth, we have responsibilities as citizens of this democracy.

I want everyone to know that the federal government will continue to pursue its legal responsibilities in this case.

Thank you very much.
