THE WEEK

16

NATION: The Supreme Court shuns extremes in four major cases

WORLD: Talks break down in South Africa

BUSINESS: Lots of wood shavings

HEALTH: More than 1,000 AIDS cases in France are being attributed to four health officials

52 COVER: Pills for the Mind

Schizophrenia patients are being awakened from the long nightmare of madness by a remarkable drug. It is part of a new wave of medications that are enabling doctors to combat the most intractable mental illnesses and open a window on the mysterious world of human mood and emotion.

Lifting Depression With modern drugs and psychotherapy, 9 out of 10 patients with depression can be helped. Surprisingly, the same set of drugs is proving useful in treating eating disorders, anxiety and other problems.
