WE HAVE CHANGED THE WORLD, AND NOW WE WILL CHANGE
AMERICA. AND AS MY GOOD FRIEND RANDY TRAVIS MIGHT SAY -- "THERE IS NO STOPPING US NOW!"

THANK YOU FOR YOUR HOSPITALITY, AND GOD BLESS THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Branson and the people who come here is "family" we want something the American family (we must encourage respect for the law, respect neighbors etc)

Do what Truman Did, when challenged by a Governor - take it to the people with this promise that anything enhances government to the God-fearing Congress and the 9th 11th and 12th are for a savior, now serve some

BRANSON RALLY \ BRANSON, MISSOURI
AUGUST 22, 1992 \ 4:30 P.M.

THANK YOU GOV. ASHCROFT FOR THAT KIND INTRODUCTION.
I'M GLAD THAT ALL OF YOU -- ENTERTAINERS, SILVER DOLLAR
CITY ENTHUSIASTS AND ALL YOU MISSOURIANS OUT THERE -- TURNED OUT FOR THIS WARM WELCOME. AND I WANT TO RECOGNIZE MY MOST SPECIAL GUEST -- MY FIRST LADY AND AMERICA'S FIRST LADY -- BARBARA BUSH.

BARBARA WILL TELL YOU, IF YOU ASK ME MY FAVORITE
KIND OF MUSIC -- IT'S A TWO-WAY TIE: BETWEEN COUNTRY
... AND WESTERN.

SO FOR ME TO VISIT BRANSON -- IS A DREAM COME TRUE.

AMERICA LOVES COUNTRY MUSIC -- BECAUSE COUNTRY
MUSIC LOVES AMERICA. //

TODAY I WANT TO TALK A LITTLE ABOUT THE CHOICE BEFORE
AMERICA THIS FALL -- MAYBE I'LL EVEN MENTION A FEW
COUNTRY MUSIC SONGS ALONG THE WAY. //

THIS IS MY SECOND STOP AFTER OUR REPUBLICAN CONVENTION IN HOUSTON. ~~I MUST SAY, I'M FEELING GREAT!~~
~~IF THE OVERNIGHT POLLS ARE ANY INDICATION, THE AMERICAN~~ ~~PEOPLE AGREE WITH ME. I DO LOOK BETTER IN MY JOGGING~~
~~SHORTS THAN THE GOVERNOR OF ARKANSAS.~~

*We had a great Convention in Houston
And now I will take our message of a safer more prosperous America to the entire country*

LAST WEEK, MY OPPONENT GAVE AN INTERVIEW, WHERE HE SOUNDED AS IF HE WAS GETTING READY TO MEASURE THE DRAPES IN THE OVAL OFFICE. I SAY, NOT SO FAST. LET'S SEE WHAT THE PEOPLE HAVE TO SAY.

I BELIEVE THAT COME NOVEMBER 3RD, MY OPPONENT AND HIS SAXOPHONE WILL BE PLAYING THAT OLD BUCK OWENS CLASSIC: IT'S CRYING TIME. //

LAST NIGHT I HAD SOME STRAIGHT TALK WITH THE AMERICAN PEOPLE. ONE OF THE QUESTIONS I WANTED TO ANSWER, WAS WHY -- WITH ALL OUR CHALLENGES AT HOME --
FOREIGN POLICY IS STILL IMPORTANT?

REMEMBER BACK TO THOSE DAYS WHEN KIDS HAD TO CLIMB
UNDER SCHOOL DESKS TO PRACTICE NUCLEAR WAR DRILLS?

I SAW THE CHANCE TO RID OUR CHILDREN'S DREAMS OF THE NUCLEAR NIGHTMARE -- AND I DID, AND WE SHOULD BE PROUD THAT OUR KIDS CAN SLEEP IN THE SUNSHINE OF PEACE.

YOU KNOW THAT GARTH BROOKS SONG, "ONE DREAM PER CUSTOMER?" TO ME, THAT'S NOT A BAD DESCRIPTION OF AMERICA -- BECAUSE FREEDOM MEANS THAT EVERY CITIZEN CAN HAVE THEIR DREAM. IN THE PAST FOUR YEARS, MORE PEOPLE AROUND THE WORLD WERE ABLE TO HAVE THEIR FIRST DREAM OF FREEDOM THAN AT ANY TIME IN HUMAN HISTORY.

I SAW A CHANCE TO HELP SPREAD FREEDOM, AND I DID. AND AMERICA SHOULD BE PROUD OF WHAT WE HAVE DONE FOR THE WORLD.

WE KNOW THAT A STRONG AMERICA MEANS A SAFER WORLD -
- BUT WE ALSO KNOW THAT A SAFER WORLD MEANS AMERICA CAN BECOME STRONGER AND MORE SECURE.

ALL THIS NEW FREEDOM AROUND THE WORLD MEANS NEW DEMANDS, NOT JUST FOR COUNTRY MUSIC, BUT FOR ALL THE PRODUCTS OF AMERICA.

MY OPPONENTS IDEAS ARE CLEAR, PRESENT AND DANGEROUS.

HE SAYS HE'S CONVERTED, HE'S NOT A LIBERAL. BUT RIGHT OUT OF THE BLOCK -- HE OFFERS $220 BILLION IN NEW GOVERNMENT ^{spending} PROGRAMS, AND THEN $150 BILLION IN ^{new} TAXES --
THE LARGEST TAX INCREASE IN HISTORY.

YOU KNOW WHAT HANK THOMPSON WOULD SING ABOUT THAT KIND OF "CONVERSION" -- BILL CLINTON, "YOU'RE GOING BACK TO YOUR OLD WAYS AGAIN."

- 10 -

MY OPPONENT WILL TELL YOU THAT HE'S JUST GOING TO TAX THE RICH. BUT THERE AREN'T ENOUGH RICH TO PAY FOR ALL THE PROGRAMS HE'S PROMOTING. SO WHEN YOU PEEL AWAY ALL HIS NICE-SOUNDING RHETORIC -- THE IMPACT OF HIS ECONOMIC PLAN CAN BE SUMMED UP BY AN OLD SONG BY MY GOOD FRIEND -- LORETTA LYNN. "WHEN THE TINGLE BECOMES A CHILL."

- 11 -

I PROPOSE A DRAMATICALLY DIFFERENT WAY TO CREATE NEW JOBS. I WANT TO CUT GOVERNMENT SPENDING AND THEN CUT YOUR TAXES.

LAST NIGHT I PROPOSED A NEW IDEA -- TO LET YOU CHECK YOUR INCOME TAX FORM -- TO DESIGNATE UP TO 10 PERCENT OF YOUR TAXES FOR ONE PURPOSE: REDUCING THE DEFICIT, I'VE PROPOSED TO ELIMINATE OVER 200 GOVERNMENT PROGRAMS AND 4,000 PROJECTS, AND I'VE ASKED FOR A FREEZE ON DISCRETIONARY SPENDING.

CONGRESS HAS REFUSED TO GO ALONG. SO TODAY I SAY --
LETS GIVE THE AMERICAN PEOPLE THE FREEDOM TO DO WHAT CONGRESS HAS REFUSED TO DO -- GET THE DEFICIT DOWN.

AND I WANT TO GO FURTHER. AS WE CUT SPENDING, I BELIEVE WE WILL BE ABLE TO CUT TAXES -- GIVE FAMILIES
MORE MONEY TO PAY THEIR BILLS AND BUSINESSES MORE INCENTIVE TO HIRE NEW WORKERS.

and Gov. Clinton
CONGRESS, [^]SAYS NO, BUT I SAY YES.

- 13 -

I HAVE OTHER PRIORITIES. HEALTH CARE FOR EXAMPLE.
MY OPPONENT PROPOSES A PLAN THAT WOULD LEAD TO A BACKDOOR GOVERNMENT TAKEOVER OF OUR HEALTH CARE SYSTEM.
and would slap a tax on small business
I HAVE A DIFFERENT APPROACH. I WANT TO MAKE HEALTH CARE MORE AFFORDABLE, AND EXTEND BENEFITS TO THE POOREST OF THE POOR -- BUT DO IT WITHOUT A GOVERNMENT TAKEOVER.

- 14 -

AND I ALSO HAVE A PLAN TO RENEW OUR SCHOOLS FOR A NEW CENTURY -- AND TO PUT AN END TO CRAZY LAWSUITS THAT ARE COSTING OUR ECONOMY HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS OF DOLLARS. AS A NATION, I BELIEVE, IT'S TIME WE START
SUING EACH OTHER LESS, AND ^{caring for} ~~LOVING~~ EACH OTHER MORE.

I PROPOSE DRAMATIC CHANGE IN EACH OF THESE AREAS,
TO GET AMERICA MOVING AGAIN. YET TODAY, EACH ONE IS BEING BLOCKED BY THE GRIDLOCK DEMOCRATIC CONGRESS.

- 15 -

LET ME GIVE YOU ONE EXAMPLE, I MENTIONED IT LAST NIGHT. On this day I sent plans for Baghdad. I sent a new energy program to Congress. IT TOOK 43 DAYS TO WIN THE GULF WAR, BUT IT HAS TAKEN 533 DAYS -- AND STILL COUNTING -- TO GET CONGRESS TO SEND ME A NATIONAL ENERGY PROGRAM. THE GRIDLOCK CONGRESS IS CAUGHT IN A TANGLED WEB OF PERKS, PACs, PARTISANSHIP AND PARALYSIS. THEY TIPTOE AROUND EVERY ISSUE.

- 16 -

TOMORROW, I HEAR DOWNTOWN BRANSON IS HOSTING THE 5TH ANNUAL OLDTIME FIDDLE CONTEST. I WOULDN'T BE SURPRISED TO FIND OUT THAT ALL THE LIBERAL LEADERS OF CONGRESS ARE SIGNED UP TO PARTICIPATE AS A TEAM. THEY FIDDLE, WHILE AMERICA GETS BURNED BY THEIR INACTION.

MY OPPONENT AND THE GRIDLOCK CONGRESS COME FROM THE SAME BACKGROUND, AND SHARE THE SAME PHILOSOPHY. THEY SHARE A PASSION FOR EXPANDING GOVERNMENT.

- 17 -

TOGETHER, THE CLINTON-GORE TEAM AND THE GRIDLOCK CONGRESS HAVE WHAT IT TAKES -- TO TAKE WHAT YOU GOT.

SO I HAVE TWO MESSAGES TO TAKE TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE. FIRST, WITH MY OPPONENT, FOLLOW THE INSTRUCTIONS OF THE OLD ELVIS PRESLEY TUNE -- "RETURN TO SENDER" -- RETURN TO ARKANSAS.

- 18 -

THEN, BREAK UP THE GRIDLOCK CONGRESS, KICK THE LIBERALS OUT OF WASHINGTON, AND GIVE ME A CONGRESS THAT WILL CUT SPENDING, CUT TAXES -- AND DO WHAT IS RIGHT TO GET AMERICA MOVING AGAIN.

THIS IS THE CASE I'M GOING TO TAKE TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE. YES WE HAVE OUR CHALLENGES, YES WE HAVE OUR PROBLEMS, BUT AMERICA'S SUN IS STILL ON THE RISE.

DINKINS IS GRANTING BUDGET AUTONOMY TO CITY HOSPITALS

INCENTIVES TO CUT WASTE

New York Will No Longer Take Surplus Revenue Generated by Health-Care System

By JOSH BARBANEL

The Dinkins administration has agreed to broad changes in its relationship with New York City's large and overburdened public hospital system, giving the system far more control over its finances.

Justices Uphold Federal Seizure Of Abortion Pill

By PHILIP J. HULTS

WASHINGTON, July 17 — The Supreme Court today refused to order the Federal Government to return the French abortion pill it had seized from a pregnant woman two weeks ago.

In a 7 to 2 vote, the court decided the case on an emergency basis. The woman, Leona Benton, is eight weeks pregnant, and Saturday is the last day she could take the drug to end her pregnancy under the guidelines of the manufacturer, the French company Roussel Uclaf.

Ms. Benton flew into Kennedy International Airport on July 1 with the drug, RU-486, in her luggage. Federal agents seized the pill in accordance with a special import alert saying that "for health reasons RU-486 should not be allowed in the United States."

Administration officials said that the change had been prompted by years of intractable squabbling between the Health and Hospitals Corporation and City Hall over how to manage the system, which has been widely criticized for the quality of its care. Officials said that the changes should make hospital managers more accountable, provide them with incentives to cut waste and improve efficiency and allow them to shift resources to provide better care to poor people.

Under the agreement, the Health and Hospitals Corporation will have new spending powers and the ability to draft its own budget, set its own priorities and even sell its own bonds without interference from City Hall.

A More Distant Link

The agreement means that the city's relationship with its hospital system — with its 11 hospitals, 3 long-term care centers and network of neighborhood clinics — will finally resemble those in many other cities across the nation, where hospitals are more autonomous.

In New York City, where City Hall has traditionally managed some of the smallest details of a $3 billion hospital budget, the change is enormous. Most significant, officials said, is that the city will abandon a longstanding practice of skimming surpluses produced by the hospital system.

Democrat Takes 24-Point Lead Over Bush

By R. W. APPEL Jr.

With the 1992 Presidential race in ferment once more, both parties began intensive bids for former supporters of Ross Perot yesterday, and a new New York Times/CBS News Poll showed the Democratic number — Bill Clinton — as the main beneficiary of the independent candidate's sudden withdrawal.

The survey, taken Thursday evening as the Denver National Convention was ending, and yesterday as the delegates began leaving town, showed Mr. Clinton gaining the biggest post-convention "bounce" in the 50 years such measurements have been taken. He now leads President Bush among registered voters by 55 percent to 31 percent, with 13 percent undecided.

Other flags of warning for Mr. Bush abound in the poll, including a 63 percent disapproval rating, his highest ever. Among established backers of Mr. Perot, the figure is 73 percent, which is a major reason that 45 percent of Perot adherents now say they will back Mr. Clinton and only 26 percent say they will vote for Mr. Bush.

A Democrat at Heart

Joe Madden, a 30-year-old supervisor in Hometown, in a working-class suburb northwest of Chicago, offers a telling example of a Democrat at heart who was stolen away by the Republican minny election.

"I feel he's going to bring the country together," Mr. Madden said of Mr. Clinton today. "We're in the hole if he's on the ball of what he said, four years from now we'll be a much better country." (Page A1)

Still, Mr. Clinton scoffed at the latest polls with the comment, "We came to fight until November." He set off from New York at once in pursuit of crucial Rust Belt votes, joining a caravan like the one former Gov. Michael S. Dukakis of Massachusetts took after his domination in 1988.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: STEVE PROVOST SP
FROM: ANDY FERGUSON AF
SUBJECT: PROPOSED REMARKS FOR BUSH/QUAYLE RALLY IN BIRMINGHAM ALABAMA

Summary:

On Saturday, August 22, at 2:55 p.m. you will address approximately 9,000 to 12,000 people in the parking lot of the Riverchase Galleria shopping center. The Riverchase Galleria is a mixed-use retail, hotel and office project, and has close to 200 specialty stores.

Discussion:

Your remarks (approximately 10 minutes / cards) are derived from your RNC acceptance speech. They are almost identical to those you will deliver earlier in the day in Woodstock, Georgia.

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: CAMPAIGN RALLY
SATURDAY, AUGUST 22, 1992
BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA

Thank you for that warm 'Bama welcome. Let me tell you -- the "Magic City" is the perfect place to start a magic campaign - - I've got a feeling this fall we're going to make some Democrats disappear.

There is an important battle going on this fall -- two fiercely determined rivals locked in combat. I'm just not sure whether this thing will be won by the Tigers or the Crimson Tide.

I'm sorry I wasn't here last weekend, when George Archer won the Senior PGA tournament. I would have loved those big headlines: "George Comes on Strong -- Pulls Off Big Win."

You're going to see another headline just like that one come November -- because now we're coming on strong, taking our case to the American people.

This afternoon I want to talk to you about the sharp choice I will offer every American this fall. It's a choice between different agendas -- different directions for America. And yes, it's a choice about the character of the man you want to lead our nation.

They say this election is about change -- and they're right. But let's not forget: The things that must guide change are the things that never change: our belief in a strong defense, in strong families, in leaving the world a better place for our children.

Think for a minute about the world of change we've already seen these last four years. The Berlin wall came tumbling down. Millions of people took their first breath of freedom. And America -- her strength and ideals -- won the Cold War.

Now these changes didn't come about by accident -- the world changed because America remained true to her unchanging principles. My opponents say I spent too much time on foreign policy these past four years. Well, let me tell you: When I took office, I saw the chance to help finish off imperial Communism - - and I did.

I saw the chance to help rid our children's dreams of the nuclear nightmare, to help them live in a safer world -- and I did.

So let my opponents understand this: I will never apologize for one single minute I've spent making this world a place of peace for all our children.

For forty years, this was the change Americans fought for and died for -- and now it offers us the defining challenge of the 90s: to take advantage of our victory around the world, to build a more secure and prosperous nation here at home.

And so these next 73 days, I'm going to ask the American people: Who do you trust to bring it all home -- foreign policy, security policy, and economic policy -- so that it can make a difference to you here in your own neighborhoods, right here in central Alabama?

My experience, my character, my ideas -- I am that man.

And we start right here, right now. I believe our government is too big and it spends too much of your money -- and I believe the deficit is a dark cloud on our children's future. You know it -- and I know it.

But the liberal Democrats don't. They think the deficit is a big game of Wheel of Fortune. And they only want to buy three vowels: I // O // U.

Well, I'm the man to solve the puzzle.

Here's how. In Houston two nights ago, I announced a freeze on government spending. If Congress sends me a bill spending one penny more than I requested -- I will veto it faster than they can say "Tax and Spend".

And if Congress needs more help curing its pork addiction, I say let's give the people the power to dedicate 10 percent of their tax dollars directly to the deficit. If Congress won't cut spending, then the people will.

And we will do more: I say let's jumpstart this economy. Let's give small business a shot in the arm. Small businesses create two-thirds of the new jobs in America. Think about some of the businesses right here in the mall -- McMillan's, or Norton's Florists. If we're going to get this economy moving, small business needs relief -- from taxation, litigation, and regulation. And we're going to give it to them.

Now, Governor Clinton wants a different kind of change. He wants to raise government spending by $220 billion. And raise taxes -- the biggest tax hike in history -- $150 billion dollars.

Well, that's change all right. By the time he gets through, change is about all you'll have left in your pocket.

You see, when you get down to it, it's a question of trust. Look at every big issue we face. You'll see a choice -- a choice between people who put their faith in everyday Americans, and those who put their faith in government.

I trust you -- families and parents -- to make the decisions that matter in life.

I trust parents -- not the government -- to choose their children's schools -- public, private, or religious.

I trust parents -- not the government -- to choose their children's child care.

And I trust you -- not the government -- to decide how you want to spend and save the money you earn.

These are my ideas -- and I think these are the American people's ideas. Do you believe that the federal government is already big enough -- and taxes too much?

Do you want fewer lawsuits, fewer regulations, and more opportunity for small businesses?

Do you think that competition can help cure the ills that plague our schools, and bring the cost of health care down?

If you believe in these ideas -- then you believe in my ideas.

I wonder about Governor Clinton sometimes -- I wonder why it is that whenever he's faced with any problem, his solution is always to put government first.

But it's not really so surprising, I guess. When you've spent your life in government like he has, government is pretty much all you see.

I got my belief in trust -- in limited government -- from working out in the oil fields of west Texas, building a business, meeting a payroll.

I'd say that's a pretty good credential for being President.

That's where I learned how jobs are created. That's where I learned that in this country the government works for the people, not the other way around.

Governor Clinton isn't the only one who's forgotten that lesson -- if he ever knew it. There's a whole party full of his colleagues up there on Capitol Hill who've spent their lives on the government payroll. And somehow I don't think Governor Clinton is the guy to stand up to them.

The last thing this country needs is a rubber-check Congress and a rubber-stamp President.

I know about those guys. At my first inauguration, I extended my hand to the Democratic leaders on Capitol Hill -- and they bit it off.

Now I know Americans are tired of the blame game, sick of all the excuses, tired of your national leaders acting like they are the candidates for the next episode of American Gladiators.

I'm tired of it, too. Every American knows the truth: Congress has become corrupt, conceited, confused -- a body of PACs, perks, privilege, partisanship and paralysis.

And no wonder: Congress's leadership has not changed in 38 years -- since Bill Clinton was eight years old, ((right about the time he was campaigning for hall monitor)). Congress has a lower rate of turnover than the old Soviet Politburo.

It's time to say enough is enough. If you really want to get rid of the deadlock in Washington -- let's get rid of the deadwood in Congress.

We have our work cut out for us. But Americans will never settle for second best in anything. Not in our schools, not in our workers, not in our values.

And not in this election.

I know this race is long, and we are behind. And yet I also believe, deep in my heart, that we will win.

We will win because we trust the American people. We will win because our ideas are stronger. We will win because we understand the American way.

So tell the Democrats: If you can't run with the big dogs, stay under the porch.

Thank you and God bless you.

How to Become a Member of First Baptist Church Dallas

By Profession of Faith and Baptism. If you will receive Jesus Christ as your personal Savior and Lord and follow Him in baptism by immersion, we welcome you into our fellowship.

By Letter. As a Baptist whose church membership is elsewhere, should God lead you here we will be happy to welcome you into our church family. We will gladly take care of appropriate details for transferring your membership.

By Baptism from Another Denomination. If you know in your heart that you are saved and want to become a member of First Baptist, we invite you to join by baptism. This gives testimony of your salvation and your obedience to Christ's example in baptism.

By Statement. In the event church membership records are not available for a transfer of membership, or if you were once a Baptist Church member but are presently a member of another denomination, we will accept you upon your statement of these conditions.

Invitation. You are invited to respond to any of the above by coming forward during the invitation at the close of each worship service. Of course any decision assumes your commitment to being faithful in prayer and participation in our Lord's work at First Baptist.

Counseling. A minister will meet you at the altar to answer questions and pray with you. For further information, please call 969-0111, ext. 2435.

RECEIVE CHRIST NOW

You can invite Jesus Christ into your life right now by praying to God something like the following.

Dear Lord, I know that I am a sinner and that I need Your forgiveness. I believe that Christ died in my place to pay the penalty for my sin and that He rose from the dead. I now invite Jesus Christ to come into my life as my Savior. Thank you for making me Your child. Help me learn to please You in every part of my life.

My Decision:

On _____ I, _____,
Date Your Name

Your Address

received Jesus Christ as my Savior.

PROMISES FROM THE WORD OF GOD

"For whoever calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved."

Romans 10:13

If you just now received Christ by calling upon the name of the Lord in prayer, the following took place: your sins were forgiven (Colossians 1:14); you became a child of God (John 1:12); you were made heir to all of God's blessings (Romans

8:16-17); you now possess everlasting life (1 John 5:12-13).

You became a Christian the moment that you received Christ. Don't trust your feelings, for they will change; but take God at His Word and believe His promises. Review the above passages whenever doubts arise. You should be able to say with assurance, "I have received Christ. On the authority of God's Word, I have eternal life."

May God grant you "all joy and peace in believing" (Romans 15:13).

If you have accepted Jesus Christ as your Savior through reading this tract, we would like to send you some helpful, free literature. Just send your name to the address below.

HOW TO BECOME A CHRISTIAN

The central theme of the New Testament is God's love for you as an individual. This love was revealed through Christ's coming into the world and living among men, His dying on the cross, and rising from the dead. Through Christ's death God offers you forgiveness for your sins, and through His resurrection the promise of everlasting life. Christ died and rose again for the whole world, but for you to become a Christian is an individual matter. The only way to establish a personal relationship with Jesus Christ is to accept His offer of forgiveness and everlasting life. The following Scripture passages show God's part and yours. Read each verse and believe it, for it is the Word of God speaking to you.

GOD'S LOVE IS REVEALED

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

John 3:16

God loves you and all of mankind. He wants to bless your life and make it full and complete. He offers you not only an abundant life here and now, but a life which is eternal — His very own life.

MAN IS SINFUL

"For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God."

Romans 3:23

The saying, "Well, we are just human — nobody is perfect," is Biblically sound. When we acknowledge this truth, we can see our separation from God, for He is holy.

SIN HAS A PENALTY

"For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord."

Romans 6:23

To continue in sin will result in spiritual death, which is separation from God forever. The alternative is to personally receive God's free gift, which is pardon for sin and provision of life everlasting.

CHRIST PAID THE PENALTY

"But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us."

Romans 5:8

You may think you must lead a "good" life and do charitable acts before God will love you. This is not so. God loves you even in your sin. He sent Christ to die in your place and to pay the penalty for your sin so that you can be reconciled to Him.

SALVATION IS A FREE GIFT

"For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast."

Ephesians 2:8, 9

Grace means undeserved favor. God graciously offers to you what you could never do for yourself. God's gift to you is free. You do not, and cannot, work for a gift. All you need to do is receive it. Believe with all your heart that Jesus Christ died for you to provide deliverance from your sins.

WE MUST RECEIVE CHRIST

"But as many as received (Christ), to them He gave the right to become children of God, even to those who believe in His name."

John 1:12

When you receive Christ — when you accept what He has done for you — you become a child of God. Picture, if you will, Jesus Christ standing at the door of your life. Invite Him in. He is waiting to be received into your life.

POOL REPORT # 15

August 22, 1992

National Affairs Briefing
(Dallas, Texas)

Motorcade to The Dallas Convention center was short and uneventful. You heard the speech. This was to the National Affairs Briefings, a conservative religious group that held their first meeting 12 years ago, which Ronald Reagan attended. Their convention slogan was "A Defining Moment in American History" and their biblical quote on banners throughout the hall was from I Samuel 17:29 "Is there not a cause."

Bush was introduced by Dallas Mayor Steve Bartlett who drew applause when he proclaimed that Bush "has earned the right to reelection in this country. Missouri Gov. John Ashcroft described Bush as "tough as horseradish."

There were a number of politicians and evangelical ministers on stage and when the First Couple entered, Mrs. Bush gave Reverend Jerry Falwell a peck on the cheek and Bush gave him a brief embrace as they left.

The audience began chanting "Four More Years" and Bush made a face and held out his hands, ala Jack Benny, in a modest attempt to stop any overt political show. Later he told them again, "Listen, this is a non-political gathering."

Dr. Adrian Rogers' speech introducing the president received about five standing ovations, for "standing up for the sanctity of human life," for Bush providing his own family as an example, for promoting school prayer, because "we love you" and, as Woody Allen might say, just for showing up.

Bush got another half-dozen standing ovations when he said the GOP platform celebrating the country's Judeo-Christian heritage, for being pro-life, for voucher programs, school prayer. didn't work the rope line after his speech. Motorcade home uneventful.

POOL REPORT #14

August 22, 1992
(En route to Dallas, Texas)

Following the speech in Hoover which you all heard, Bush left the platform and walked along the rope line. He was drenched, and was pawed-over largely by young squealing admirers. He stopped to sign a few autographs. Uneventful 25 minute motorcade to the airport.

Sam Skinner came to the back of the plane to chat with your pool for about half an hour. The original purpose of the visit was to relay the official police count of the Alabama event's crowd numbers -- 19,800. Skinner responded to a number of questions on the following:

On his plans for the rest of the election: "I'm going to do a lot of traveling. If you didn't see 60 minutes, I like to travel."

On Baker taking over: Skinner said he will stay-on at the White House for three or four days next week to help Baker with the transition. Skinner expects Baker to have moved into his office by Monday afternoon. (FYI, Marlin came back later to say that Baker would be sworn in by an administrator on Sunday in a non-ceremonial event which Bush will not attend.)

On tonight's event: "These are people who really have a lot of respect for God." (FYI Marlin later briefed us on the event. In 1980, Reagan spoke to the group. Carter was invited, but didn't come. The group's cause is to call attention to "increased awareness to moral, ethical and social issues.")

On office moves with Baker's arrival, Marlin said that Janet Mullins will have an office in the West Wing and Kaufman will remain in the EOB. Baker will be in Skinner's old office and Zoellick in Henson Moore's. Tutweiler will be in Cameron Finley's office, across from Baker and Zoellick. Dennis Ross will be in Clayton Yeutter's old office.

Asked if Gingrich had spoiled the event in Woodstock, Marlin said, "no. It was a great event." Pressed on the subject, he said, "it's a free country. He can say what he wants, the president is running for president."

Landed in Dallas. Bush was greeted at the top of the receiving line by Senator Phil Gramm. He stopped to talk to Gramm for a while. Then he trooped a line of about 200 cheering fans carrying campaign placards. He spoke to them briefly, telling them that Bush/Quayle is going to win in November.

POOL REPORT #12
AIR FORCE ONE Branson-Dobbins
Saturday, Aug. 22, 1992

Marlin drifted back before AF One takeoff and chilled speculation on announcing a no-fly zone in southern Iraq this weekend. "I don't anticipate it," he said. Turning to polls, Marlin managed to gig the New York Times for today's news play [which was unspecified] of its own CBS-NYT poll. "The New York Times underplayed their poll, but maybe they'll come around."

He didn't overplay the polls either but seemed cautiously upbeat. "The polls look very good. There's a range of them but they all show that we're getting very close. We're closing the 30-point gap which by the end of our convention is pretty extraordinary. We feel very good about that." When asked what he attributes the bump in the polls to, Marlin said, "Hard word, good themes, good schedule and people are taking us seriously as candidates." Asked if he thinks the polls are credible, Marlin said "We've been 30 points up and 30 points down so you never know what to believe. But life is easier when you're ahead, I'll tell you." Are you ahead, Marlin? the pool asked. "Well, not yet but we will be." Asked if the president's support is soft, "It's hard to say. If hard work means hard support, then we'll have it. ... He [Bush] said all along that people wouldn't start to take notice until after the convention. People are starting to take a look at the things he stands for and the things he's been talking about ever since January -- the social agenda, his economic programs."

At pool holding area, Sam Skinner said everyone is pleased and surprised at CBS-NYT poll. "First of all, this is one night's poll. Let's wait," he said, noting that newsmagazines and others would be weighing in. "I'm sure when we wake up tomorrow morning we'll know. By Sunday or Monday we'll know."

Factors that Skinner included in the bounce are that "People were waiting to hear from Bush." and "We started to get a little even parity with the coverage." What now? "One of the things you want to do is keep hitting hard on your own message."

President didn't comment to pool but as motorcade pulled out of Palace Inn, Bush stopped to talk with the crowd waiting along the curbs. He and Mrs. Bush stood on the far side of the car from the people as he used the "talking car" mike. After a few polite hellos, he said, "For those interested in politics, we're going to take the message to the country. Our message is America is not in decline. We're a rising nation. We always have been. We are not in a sunset, we are in a sunrise. ... I will do my level best to take this message of faith and family all across this country. God bless you all and thanks for a great uplifting visit to Branson." Then, as the motorcade pulled away he kept chattering to onlookers from inside with thanks and goodbyes all the way out of town.

At the LZ on the grounds of School of the Ozarks, Bush was introduced to its philosophy that all students contribute to their tuition by working at least 15 hours a week. Bidding him farewell were school president Jerry C. Davis and student Yvonne Hughey, who dashed away and brought back a handmade basket full of student-made goodies including flour, jelly, a t-shirt proclaiming "Hard Work U" and placemats. Yvonne got a hug as she and Davis escorted the Bushes to the copter and they got a tour of Marine One, then posed with the president on the steps for a photo before they turned to pumpkins and their coach flew away.

Some follow-up on the Act-Up demonstrators at the luncheon in Houston. Secret Service Presidential Protective Division Director Richard Miller says the White House trip passes worn by the four were authentic, although earlier some had speculated the looked counterfeit. One was issued to "Asia-Pacific News Service" and another to "General Media," (not Media Genl.). He didn't know the IDs on the other two but said all are being tracked back to determine their bona fides as news organizations and whether the wearers worked for those entities.
