Lunch in Holly
(Holly, Michigan)

September 27, 1992

Before entering the Holly Hotel for lunch, Bush responded to a few questions from reporters. When asked how he will convince undecided people to vote for him, Bush said "Just the truth will do it. I'm going to make it. Really feel confident." When asked if he will meet with Perot tomorrow, Bush said "I don't believe we will. We've got a team down there."

After lunch, Mr. and Mrs. Bush walked briskly to the train. Mrs. Bush rolled her eyes and rubbed her tummy, expressing to the crowd that the lunch was good. The President didn't shake many hands, just pointed to his watch to show bystanders that he was in a hurry.

POOL REPORT #6

Train stops in Milford
(Milford, Michagan)

September 27, 1992

A few hundred folks, many carrying flags, were on hand for the "unscheduled" stop at a railroad crossing next to a stream. The crowd was roped off and kept well away from the train. Notable signs included "Get off your caboose and debate" and "Clinton sucks." Bush was still in his blue presidential windbreaker as he addressed the group. Mrs. B. and the Gov. Engler and his wife were beside him. As your pool was rushed back to the train, the President introduced Barbara who said some words we couldn't hear.

POOL REPORT #5

(Livonia, Michigan)

September 27, 1992

President Bush and Barbara Bush were up bright and early, along with bleary-eyed pool, for the 7:45 church service at Saint Andrew's Episcopal Church in Livonia.

The Rev. Robert A. Clapp, Rector, acknowledged the Bushes, saying he was "terribly excited" about his guests.

"It took me awhile to calm down and decided I was writing a sermon for the people of God, not for the President of the United States," Clapp said.

The Bushes, he dressed in a grey suit, she in a red suit, stayed throughout the rather lengthy service, took communion and shook hands with more than half the 50-member congregation during a prolonged "peace be with you" greeting period.

After returning to the hotel, the President had a quick breakfast at a corner table in the Marriott's restaurant, joined by White House physician Larry Moore and an unidentified hotel or White House staffer.

Then on to the train. Motorcade uneventful.

Mr. President:

JoAnne Bagnell called (so did Cy Laughter) to say that
Reds has undergone surgery for a five-way heart bypass.
Apparently, he had his third heart attack on Sunday.
He is in intensive care and will be there until Sunday.

JoANNE at home (215) 527-2143

Hahneman Hospital (215) 762-7000 (ask for cardiac unit.

JoAnne asked to be remembered to Mrs. Bush.

4:00 p.m. report on Reds Bagnell's surgery, from his office:

Son Billy had just come by to say, though Reds is still unconscious, in intensive care and on critical list for 48 hours, all went well with his five-way heart bypass.

Here are weekend numbers:

JoAnne at home: 905 Stony Lane
Gladwyne, Pennsylvania 19035
(215) 527-2143

Or: Hahneman Hospital
(215) 762-7000 (ask for cardiac unit)

Or: Dr. Arnold Berman (a very dear friend of theirs who is a doctor at the hospital) (215) 762-8168

5:00 p.m. JoAnne called. She said he had his third heart attack on Sunday. She just left him in recovery and he looked good. She expects he will leave intensive care on Sunday.

She said to give a special hello to Mrs. Bush.

9/25/92

Cy Laughter called and left the following message:

"Regs Bagnell is having open heart surgery"

Would you please call and check this out. The Pres would probably want to send a note if it's so. Please prepare one and send it over for signature.

THE PRESIDENT

Sept. 27, 1992

Dear George & Linda,
While it's fresh in my mind, I want to thank you
for today's very special hospitality
and for that wonderful meal
too. I can't begin to tell you how much Barbara & I enjoyed our stop

in Holly and our visit to The Historic Holly Hotel.
Good luck - May Thales.

THE PRESIDENT

Dear Rev. Clapp, Father Bob to
Barbara & me now -

I just want to tell you how much we enjoyed attending today's Communion Service. There was something very special in your

Church today. It was much more than hospitality - there was a lot of love there today.

You are a fantastic communicator and your message touched our hearts - besides you can really sing. Please thank your fellow clergy and those 8 AM church
goers - all of whom made us welcome.
With appreciation from a grateful
Bill

To Mrs Helen Clayman

Dear Helen,

Excuse my informality, but
you made us feel so welcome
it's got to be "Helen".

Thank you so very much
for being so kind to Barbara

and me.

I wrote Father Bob, because he was wonderful and we felt

so at home.

Barbara sends her love!

Sincerely,

Ag. Ruth

Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release

September 27, 1992

STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDENT

Today I am pleased to sign into law H.R. 4551, the "Civil Liberties Act Amendments of 1992." This legislation fulfills the commitment that this country made in 1988 to individuals of Japanese ancestry who were interned or relocated during World War II, and to their families.

In the Civil Liberties Act of 1988, the United States apologized for the wrongful internment and relocation of innocent, loyal individuals and promised monetary compensation to each such person (or his or her heirs). The funds provided by this bill will ensure that all of these individuals are compensated as promised. These payments are compelled by justice, and I am proud to sign this bill into law.

H.R. 4551 also makes important technical amendments to the 1988 Act, which will help to ensure fair treatment of claimants and smooth administration of this program.

No monetary payments can ever fully compensate loyal Japanese Americans for one of the darkest incidents in American constitutional history. We must do everything possible to ensure that such a grave wrong is never repeated.
