My dear Mr. President:

Even though I knew your dear Mother had been seriously ill, I was hoping that this remarkable woman would recover.

As you know, I had the good fortune to know her and your dear dad from the first days of your Father's service in the Senate.

As with your dad, I had tremendous respect for your Mother and recall so vividly my conversation with her at the White House following your inauguration. Even then, after all those years, her strength and her innate intelligence manifest itself in a very pleasant conversation that I will treasure.

Mr. President, I know from the loss of both of my parents that no matter how long we have them, no matter how ill they may have been, we are really never ready to part with them.

I could write many pages here, Mr. President, but I realize they would not be of much comfort at this time. However, I do want you to know that I am thinking of you and all those dear to you and sympathizing with you in your great loss.

Very sincerely,

Dear Mr. President:

The distressing news about your mother brought memories of another sad occasion for the Bush family. Indelibly impressed upon my mind is the Greenwich service for your father at which was read the beautiful eulogy written by your mother. Her tribute and her courage were an inspiration for all present.

The thoughts of and sympathy for you now are the same as they were then.

Dear Mr. President:

Words cannot express the sympathy I felt for you and your family upon hearing the news of your great loss. I know this is a difficult time and thought I would share with you a quote I came across which has meant a lot to me:

mand.

"In this sad world of ours, sorrow comes to all...it comes with bitterest agony... Perfect relief is not possible, except with time. You cannot now realize that you will ever feel better. And yet this is a mistake. You are sure to be happy again. To know this, which is certainly true, will make you some less miserable now. I have had experience enough to know what I say."

Abraham Lincoln

My thoughts and prayers go with you. If I can be of help, please do not hesitate to call. God bless.

RECEIVED P12: 12 November 20, 1992

My dear Mr. President:

The tragic news of your mother's death reached us in Dublin today.

When Annahie and I visited your mother in Hobe Sound last winter, she appeared so well, alert and interested in the news of the world.

I realize that your mother was 91 years of age, had lived a very happy, active and full life and was ready when our Lord decided to take her from this life.

To lose your mother - a wonderful lady is a terrible blow but your pain will be assuaged by the happy memories which you have had whenever you have been together over these many years.

I want you to know, Mr. President, that Annahie and I offer our deepest sympathy and that our thoughts are with you during these very sad days.

With our deepest respect and affection to you and Barbara,

Sincerely,

Bill.

I was deeply saddened to learn of the death of your beloved mother, Dorothy. You always spoke so highly of her and her influence on your life. Few things touched me as deeply as the pain of losing my own mother; that orphaned feeling has never left me.

During these difficult days you have carried yourself with the dignity that has come to characterize you. I know that this stems from your strong faith in God and His divine plan. His love will continue to sustain you and give you peace.

You and your family are in my prayers in a special way during these days when we celebrate the many blessings God has bestowed upon our nation. And I will say Mass for your mother, praying that the rewards of heaven are hers.

Dear Mr. President and Mrs. Bush:

I wanted to take the time to send my condolences on the death of your mother. Having lost my own parents, I am acutely aware of how devastating it is when they are no longer with us here physically. Our lives, obviously, are impacted by theirs and the loss we feel, as you know, over time is filled with reflections and new responsibilities as we carry on their heritage.

My best to you and your family during this difficult period.

Sincerely,

Dear President Bush,

I was saddened to hear of the death of your mother last week, and I wish to extend my sympathies to you and Mrs. Bush and your family.

I never met your mother, but I did have the opportunity to correspond with her from 1983 to 1985 when I was an undergraduate at Yale. I was awarded the Prescott S. Bush Memorial Scholarship, which as you may know was funded by your father's friends and classmates in his honor shortly after his death. The grant helped significantly to support my last two years of study toward the bachelor's degree.

When I wrote to thank Mrs. Bush and tell a little about myself, I was pleasantly surprised to hear back from her. She noted that, like Senator Bush, I came from Connecticut (Milford), had a deep interest in government (I was at the time heavily involved in Yale's student government), and most importantly, loved to sing! (Glee Club tenor) I was deeply honored by the parallels. Despite what must have been considerable effort for her, we continued writing through my time at Yale.

I will long remember her kindness.

With sympathy,

Dear President Bush,

I'm sorry to hear about your lovable mother Dorothy Bush.

Hi! I'm Anna Conrades and I lived next to Mrs. Bush in Hobe sound, Florida. She was a very nice woman to me. She came to our church (Christ Episcopal Church) once here in Greenwich (my home-town, Florida is my winter home). I enjoyed having her here.

I'm truly sorry this had to happen. I will share your depression and I'm sorry you lost the election too. But losing your mother is more important.

Dear George,

It was very sad to learn that you had lost your Mother. Ninety-one is, of course, a grand age to attain, especially since she was able to share your greatest years with unconditional pride. My own Mother is a hundredites as well and her long life has been a source of real joy for me.

Yet a loss like this, no matter when it comes, is hard and painful on those left behind, and I wanted you to know that I was thinking about you and your family at a difficult time.

It will be good to have you and Barbara as neighbors again in Tanglewood, and I look forward to visiting with you both in happier, less stressful times.

We were deeply saddened to deepestest feelings sympathy goes out to you both and to all your family!

It was such a great privilege over the past thirty years in K'port and to know Dottie was to admirer and her gracious hospitality at luncheon in her home at Walker's Point - and her warm and cheery greetings after church at St Ann's each Sunday and early on her excellent golf game as she played along with her husband and her two and Mary - and her graceful bicycle ride to church after that with not long ago!

One of our fondest memories is of the evening we invited her to dinner at the Port and we arranged to have Milton Eisenhower as her dinner partner - Milton
"summered" for many years at the Lancaster Hotel in Portsmouth NH and was a much older than -

Well, Dottie utterly charmed Milton with her warmth and beauty!
And of course they had many, many friends in common - Her first question on meeting him was to flatteringly ask him "How shall I address you? as Secretary or Ambassador?"
And he of course answered, with a twinkle, "Just call me Milton!"

No one can have anything less beautiful and happy memories of Dottie

Marlene and I wish to extend to you our most sincere condolences in the death of your mother last week.

As you may recall, in August 1979 we stayed a week with her at Walker's Point during the "expert" briefings for your presidential race. I was impressed with her keen intellect, both in the general briefing sessions which she attended with you every day and in our evening private discussions. Her hospitality during our stay made that historic occasion a memorable one for us.

In this World of ours sorrows come to all of us. It comes with the bitterness of agony.

Perfect relief is not possible, except with
Time and Faith.

You cannot realize, that you will ever feel better again.

And that is a mistake, you are sure to be happy again.

To know this, which is certainly true and will make you somewhat less miserable
now. I know these expressions are true
Because I have had the experience,

By the loss of a devoted mother and a loving and caring wife. God bless you and may your late love live in Peace.

Dear Barbara and George,

I am very sorry to hear of the death of Dorothy Bush. When I joined International Club II, she was one of the 3 Republican Senate wives in the group. She was interesting, fun, and very attractive. It was a real addition to our meetings to have her as a member.

Both of you did such a wonderful job for the country these last four years. Bill used to say that most people "vote their pocketbooks". It is such a waste they forget the many great accomplishments of the Bush administration and the fine example you set.

Most sincerely,

Elsie Springer

FYI

Mrs. Bush:

The President asked me to tell you that Mary and Chuck Heringer would be coming to the Christmas Reception on December 17.

Mary called to extend invitation to you and the President for breakfast, lunch or dinner during the time they'll be here -- December 16--21.

The President asked me to regret but he thought perhaps he might invite them upstairs after the reception. I did not mention this to Mrs. Heringer except to say you and the President are looking forward to seeing them and are pleased they could attend. Don't know if he mentioned this to you.

I am returning your list. I have checked those who should be invited. I have left room for some additions.

The only outsiders are:

The Richard Moores, the Louis Walker, The Neil Bushes and Geo Bushes, and Marvin Bushes, and Bobby Kochs.

None of them will be staying at Camp David. All should be invited but, they might well not come.

Make clear to all invitees that this is no kind of command performance.

The small staff that travels with me to Camp David should be invited. We should shoot for about the same totals as we had for AMy Grant.. Leave room for some Camp Personnel to be included.

Be sure to ask Brent if his daughter wants to come and stay at Camp and attend both dinner and Vespers. .
