Subject: Message from the President to President Assad of Syria

1. ~~Secret~~ -- Entire Text

2. Ambassador should deliver the following message from the President to President Assad. No signed original will follow.

3. Begin Text:

Dear Mr. President:

As I believe you know, I have been considering the possibility of visiting the Middle East, both to consult with our friends and to visit with American forces now defending Saudi Arabia. I would still like to undertake such a trip soon, but I have decided that right now is not the best time. I do not want to divert anyone's attention from the central issue -- the invasion and occupation of Kuwait by Iraq.

Mr. President, had I made a trip to the Middle East, I hope I would have been welcome in Syria. I did not approach you directly on this idea because I had reached no decision on a trip, but I do believe it would be useful for us to have a direct and leisurely exchange of views. I hope we will have such an opportunity before long.

Permit me to express my appreciation for Syria's excellent response to Saudi Arabia's request for assistance in deterring Iraqi aggression and for Syria's determined stance in favor of the United Nations and Arab League resolutions.

~~_____~~ in combination with your political dialogue with Egypt, these are powerful signals of solidarity from the Arab world.

As I have said before, I value greatly our written exchanges and our conversations. I intend to remain in touch with you on all subjects in our relations. I would hope you would feel free to do the same.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

George Bush

SUBJECT: Messages on the Helsinki Meeting

Brent,

Pending resolution of the Woerner request for a follow-up meeting
at NATO, we can add a sentence on Baker
appearance in Brussels.
CR

Attached are tailored messages for key Allied leaders (Tab I), a general message for other Allies (Tab II), a message for selected East European leaders (Tab III), and talking points for use with European neutrals and nonaligned plus Bulgaria and Romania (Tab IV). Similar in substance, the messages lay out the President's objectives for his meeting with Gorbachev in Helsinki, stressing that the agenda will be broad and open. We will also ask Karl Jackson to tailor messages for Kaifu, Roh, and Hawke.

The message to Kohl includes points on German unification -- to reassure the Chancellor that no surprises will be sprung and to reiterate some basic objectives as we approach end-game. These reminders will be useful in our efforts to resolve the recent differences we have had with Bonn on the future status of current GDR territory and the legal basis governing U.S. and other Allied forces in Germany after Four Power rights are terminated.

RECOMMENDATION

That you approve the messages at Tabs I through IV for dissemination on Wednesday, September 5.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT TO PRIME MINISTER THATCHER OF THE UNITED KINGDOM
VIA WHITE HOUSE PRIVACY CHANNELS

Dear Margaret:

As you learned from Governor Sununu, I will be meeting with President Gorbachev in Helsinki for a full day of discussions on Sunday, September 9.

One of my main objectives will be to secure continuing Soviet support for the international effort against Saddam Husayn. Soviet policy to date has been extraordinarily helpful, and I want to reinforce the positions President Gorbachev has taken and discuss with him the situation in the Gulf as we see it.

As we are in the midst of the first post-Cold War crisis, it is important that we and the Soviet Union cooperate effectively and be seen to be doing so. This is crucial not only in meeting the current challenge, but in setting a tone and pattern for a new kind of relationship between the Soviet Union and the Western Allies.

But the meeting will not be only about the Gulf. When he was in Washington in early June, President Gorbachev and I agreed to meet regularly, and there are a number of items springing from the Washington Summit that need discussion.

I plan to use this meeting to give another push to our arms control agenda -- especially in CFE -- so that we can move forward to a CSCE Summit in Paris in November. I also intend to discuss other broad questions involving European security, including our London Summit initiatives.

This meeting will give me an opportunity to hear President Gorbachev's views of the domestic political situation, particularly in light of the discussions of the establishment of new federal relations between the Republics and the Union and the continuing economic reform debate. ~~As you may know, I had previously decided to send Jim Baker and Commerce Secretary Mosbacher, along with a group of U.S. business leaders, to Moscow to discuss prospects for expanding trade and investment. They will be arriving shortly after my meeting with Gorbachev in Helsinki.~~

I would be grateful for any thoughts or advice you may want to share before I depart. I will of course give you my impressions of the meeting upon my return to Washington.

Sincerely,

George Bush

They will be arriving shortly after my meeting with Gorbachev in Helsinki.

On German unification, your meeting with Gorbachev in July seemed to clear the way for agreement on a final settlement document. I will simply use my meeting with Gorbachev to reiterate the importance of finishing all the work before us by the Two Plus Four Ministerial in Moscow on September 12. In welcoming Soviet acceptance of Germany's continued full membership in NATO, I will also reiterate that Germany must enjoy full sovereignty from the moment of unification.

I am especially concerned that the Soviets not come to expect any further limitations on your NATO membership beyond those already agreed regarding the stationing of foreign troops on the territory of the current GDR. In all these discussions, including those regarding the presence of U.S. and other Allied forces, we should emphasize the continuity of Germany's relations with its NATO partners.

I would be grateful for any thoughts or advice you may want to share before I depart. I will of course give you my impressions of the meeting upon my return to Washington.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT TO PRIME MINISTER MULRONEY OF CANADA
VIA WHITE HOUSE PRIVACY CHANNELS

Dear Brian:

As you know, I will be meeting with President Gorbachev in Helsinki for a full day of discussions on Sunday, September 9.

One of my main objectives will be to secure continuing Soviet support for the international effort against Saddam Husayn. Soviet policy to date has been extraordinarily helpful, and I want to reinforce the positions President Gorbachev has taken and discuss with him the situation in the Gulf as we see it.

As we are in the midst of the first post-Cold War crisis, it is important that we and the Soviet Union cooperate effectively and be seen to be doing so. This is crucial not only in meeting the current challenge, but in setting a tone and pattern for a new kind of relationship between the Soviet Union and the Western Allies.

But the meeting will not be only about the Gulf. When he was in Washington in early June, President Gorbachev and I agreed to meet regularly, and there are a number of items springing from the Washington Summit that need discussion.

I plan to use this meeting to give another push to our arms control agenda -- especially in CFE -- so that we can move forward to a CSCE Summit in Paris in November. I also intend to discuss other broad questions involving European security, including our London Summit initiatives.

This meeting will give me an opportunity to hear President Gorbachev's views of the domestic political situation, particularly in light of the discussions of the establishment of new federal relations between the Republics and the Union and the continuing economic reform debate. As you may know, I had previously decided to send Jim Baker and Commerce Secretary Mosbacher, along with a group of U.S. business leaders, to Moscow to discuss prospects for expanding trade and investment. They will be arriving shortly after my meeting with Gorbachev in Helsinki.

I would be grateful for any thoughts or advice you may want to share before I depart. I will of course give you my impressions of the meeting upon my return to Washington.

MESSAGE FOR EAST EUROPEAN LEADERS VIA STATE CABLE

TO WARSAW, PRAGUE, BUDAPEST, EMBASSY BERLIN

(Following is a message from the President to Prime Minister Mazowiecki, President Havel, Prime Minister Antall, and Prime Minister de Maiziere. The President has communicated separately with Allied leaders. European neutrals and nonaligned, as well as Bulgaria and Romania, will be briefed by via talking points for use by posts.)

Dear :

As you know, I will be meeting with President Gorbachev in Helsinki for a full day of discussions on Sunday, September 9. Our agenda will be broad and open.

One of my objectives will be to reinforce the constructive approach President Gorbachev has taken in the international effort against Saddam Husayn. In stressing the need for continuing full observation of the sanctions under the United Nations Security Council mandate, I also plan to address the concerns you have raised regarding the economic costs of your compliance with U.N. sanctions. More generally, as the Iraqi invasion of Kuwait constitutes the first major challenge of what we might call the post-Cold War era, it is of great importance that the United States and the Soviet Union cooperate effectively and set a tone and pattern for a new kind of relationship.

I do not, however, intend for the Gulf situation to dominate our talks. When President Gorbachev was in Washington in early June, we agreed to meet regularly on the full range of issues before us. I particularly want to advance the agenda we set in Washington for conclusion of a CFE Treaty, so that we can move forward to a CSCE Summit in Paris in November. I also want to discuss with him other broad questions involving European security, including those the North Atlantic Alliance advanced in the London Summit Declaration.

((FOR EMBASSY BERLIN ONLY: On German unification, I will stress the importance of finishing the work on a final settlement document by the Two Plus Four Ministerial in Moscow September 12. Although I do not plan to discuss German issues in detail, I do want to insure that the Soviets not come to expect further limitations on a united Germany's participation in NATO beyond those already agreed regarding the stationing of foreign troops on the territory of the current GDR.))

Finally, this meeting will give me an opportunity to hear President Gorbachev's views of the domestic political situation, particularly in light of the discussions of the establishment of new federal relations between the Republics and the Union and the continuing economic reform debate. In that context, I will review with him the prospects for improving U.S.-Soviet economic relations.

1. ~~SECRET~~ - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. AMBASSADOR SHOULD DELIVER THE FOLLOWING MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT TO KING HUSSEIN. NO SIGNED ORIGINAL WILL FOLLOW.

3. BEGIN TEXT:

YOUR MAJESTY:

IN THE DAYS SINCE OUR MEETING IN KENNEBUNKPORT, THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY HAS STRENGTHENED ITS UNIFIED POSITION AGAINST IRAQ'S INVASION OF KUWAIT. FORCES OF TWENTY-SIX NATIONS WILL SOON BE ON THE GROUND OR AT SEA IN THE REGION. A REMARKABLE DISPLAY OF INTERNATIONAL, INCLUDING ARAB AND ISLAMIC, SOLIDARITY. SANCTIONS ARE BEING IMPLEMENTED, WITH EXCELLENT COMPLIANCE, AND THERE IS UNITED NATIONS SUPPORT FOR MEASURES TO ENFORCE THEM IF NECESSARY. IRAQ HAS FURTHER ISOLATED ITSELF WITH ITS SEIZURE OF INNOCENT PEOPLE OF MANY NATIONALITIES AS HOSTAGES.

YOUR MAJESTY, JORDAN'S COMMITMENT TO OBSERVE THE SANCTIONS RESOLUTION WAS MOST ENCOURAGING, AS HAVE BEEN THE STEPS YOU HAVE TAKEN RECENTLY TO IMPLEMENT THIS DECISION. I AM CONVINCED THAT A ROBUST SANCTIONS REGIME IS THE ESSENTIAL BACKDROP TO DIPLOMACY. SUCCESS IN REALIZING THE OBJECTIVES OF THE UNITED NATIONS RESOLUTIONS WILL NOT BE POSSIBLE UNLESS THE WORLD REMAINS UNITED IN ITS DETERMINATION TO MAKE IRAQ BEAR THE COSTS OF ITS AGGRESSION.

AT THE SAME TIME, OUR FRIENDS SHOULD NOT SUFFER MORE THAN THE TARGET OF SANCTIONS -- IRAQ. I HAVE THOUGHT A GREAT DEAL ABOUT JORDAN AND ITS SPECIAL SITUATION. I REALIZE THAT AS YOU IMPLEMENT SANCTIONS, THE COSTS JORDAN IS ALREADY EXPERIENCING WOULD BECOME SEVERE UNLESS REDRESSED BY EXTERNAL HELP. FOR THAT REASON, AND BECAUSE OF OUR LONGSTANDING INTEREST IN JORDAN'S SECURITY, WE BELIEVE THAT JORDAN DESERVES SPECIAL ASSISTANCE. AS SECRETARIES BAKER AND BRADY BEGIN TO PUT TOGETHER A COLLECTIVE INTERNATIONAL EFFORT TO HELP THOSE IN THE MOST CRITICAL NEED, JORDAN WILL BE FEATURED, ALONG WITH EGYPT AND TURKEY, AS AN IMMEDIATE PRIORITY. 14(d)

WE AGREE, YOUR MAJESTY, THAT A PEACEFUL RESOLUTION OF THIS CRISIS CAN ONLY BE ATTAINED IF EVERYONE MEETS HIS RESPONSIBILITIES AND SHOULDERS PART OF THE BURDEN. YOU WERE ELOQUENT IN EXPLAINING JORDAN'S SEARCH FOR A PEACEFUL

RESOLUTION, AND I WAS IMPRESSED BY YOUR SENSE OF DUTY. AS YOU KNOW, I HAVE BEEN SKEPTICAL OF THE POSSIBILITIES WITH IRAQ, BUT I SINCERELY HOPE FOR SUCCESS IN OPENING THE AVENUE OF A PEACEFUL IRAQI WITHDRAWAL FROM KUWAIT AND RESTORATION OF ITS LEGITIMATE GOVERNMENT THAT WE ALL SEEK. I BELIEVE WE CAN GIVE STRENGTH TO SUCH AN ENDEAVOR IF WE STAND TOGETHER TO KEEP THE PRESSURE ON IRAQ FOR A SOLUTION CONSISTENT WITH THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY'S DECISIONS.

Heads of State Correspondence Summary

President Delors of the EC - September 4, 1990
(Received September 4)

President Delors expresses his condolences for the U.S. Air Force transport plane crash in Germany.

Amir Thani of Qatar - September 3, 1990
(Received September 4)

Amir Thani appreciates your Independence Day message. He also supports your stand against the Iraqi invasion of Kuwait and is confident that the international community, led by the U.S., will help to re-establish justice and restore Kuwait's legitimate government.

Prime Minister Shamir of Israel - September 2, 1990
(Received September 3)

PM Shamir acknowledges your August 27 letter. He shares your view that Saddam Hussein should be prevented from turning the situation in Kuwait into an Arab-Israel conflict. However, Israel must be prepared for a "worse-case" scenario. Since Iraq may attack without provocation, PM Shamir sees Hussein's long-standing hostility towards Israel as a real danger and is concerned by the recent developments in Jordan. Israel is confident that it can rely upon U.S. commitment to Israel as defense needs increase. Israel also seeks to expand communications with the U.S. defense establishment.

Prime Minister Kaifu of Japan - August 30, 1990
(Received September 4)

PM Kaifu praises your strong leadership in dealing with the Gulf crisis. After speaking with you and considering all "available options except for the constitutionally impossible dispatch of self-defense forces", he has decided to take measures made up of two major components. The first component is cooperation with the multinational forces such as transportation, equipment, medical and financial assistance. The second part is substantial economic assistance to countries such as Jordan, Turkey and Egypt.

He notes his serious political and legal difficulties in formulating these measures and hopes that Japan does not appear to be slow in responding. He is also considering new legislation to permit a more effective Japanese response to global security issues.

Prime Minister Bashir of Sudan - August 28, 1990
(Received September 3)

PM Bashir acknowledges your August 8 letter and wishes to clarify a number of points. He explains that he avoided an out-right condemnation of Iraq because it would alienate one or both of the parties involved and would not allow Sudan to act as a negotiator. He has formulated a peace initiative and will present it to you after consultations with Iraq, Kuwait, and Saudi Arabia.

President Collor of Brazil - August 17, 1990
(Received September 3)

President Collor regrets that you must postpone your Brazil visit; however, he understands that unexpected matters made it unavoidable. Your suggestion to reschedule the visit in late November is acceptable to him.

President Trouillot of Haiti - August 14, 1990
(Received September 4)

President Trouillot appreciates the U.S. assistance to prepare Haiti for its November elections. Vice President Quayle's visit served to reaffirm and to strengthen Haiti's determination to hold free and fair elections.

President Gonzalez of Spain - August 10, 1990
(Received September 4)

President Gonzalez acknowledges your July 13 letter concerning Nicaragua. He continues to support the Transition Accords and efforts toward economic and social development in Nicaragua.

He is also concerned over civil war in El Salvador and is encouraging dialogue between the FMLN and the government.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

U. S. A.

DEAR MR. PRESIDENT.

I TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY, IN RESPONDING TO YOUR MESSAGE OF AUGUST 8, 1990, TO CLARIFY A NUMBER OF POINTS WHICH ARE OF IMMEDIATE CONCERN TO OUR RESPECTIVE COUNTRIES. CHARTER OF THE ARAB LEAGUE AND UNDER ALL OTHER INTERNATIONAL AND REGIONAL TREATIES, AGREEMENTS AND CONVENTIONS.

MY GOVERNMENT'S POSITION ON THE GULF CRISIS HAS BEEN FORMULATED AS A DIRECT RESULT OF THE COMMITMENTS REFERRED TO ABOVE. IT IS TRUE THAT MY GOVERNMENT AVOIDED AN OUT-RIGHT CONDEMNATION OF THE IRAQI ACTION IN KUWAIT. SUCH CONDEMNATION WOULD HAVE ALIENATED ONE OF THE TWO PARTIES TO THE DISPUTE, OR BOTH OF THEM, AND THEREBY DEPRIVED THE SUDAN OF THE OPPORTUNITY TO PLAY A RECONCILIATORY ROLE. THAT ATTITUDE ALSO EXPLAINS THE POSITION WHICH MY GOVERNMENT HAS TAKEN DURING THE LAST ARAB SUMMIT CONFERENCE IN CAIRO, EGYPT EARLIER THIS MONTH. THE BASIC PREMISES OF MY GOVERNMENT'S POSITION ARE:

- (A) TO CONFIRM THE NEED FOR REACHING A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT BETWEEN THE TWO MAIN DISPUTING PARTIES, AND
- (B) TO SEEK SUCH A SETTLEMENT WITHIN THE CONTEXT OF THE

ARAB FAMILY OF STATES.

The President of the Republic

No. 0075/PR/SP

Dakar, June 30, 1990

Mr. President:

I should like to inform you that Senegal has decided to submit the candidacy of Seydou Madani Sy, my Minister and Special Adviser, for the position of Judge of the International Court of Justice at The Hague. This position will become vacant on February 5, 1991, at the end of the term of Judge Kéba Mbaye, who is not seeking reelection.

Seydou Madani Sy is an eminent jurist with a Doctorate in public law, who has acquired a wealth of university and political experience, as indicated in his curriculum vitae, which is enclosed.

He was, successively, Professor and Dean of the Faculty of Law and Economics of the University of Dakar, and subsequently Rector of this university.

His Excellency
George Bush,
President of the United States of America,
Washington.

He was Keeper of the Seals and Minister of Justice of my government from January 1986 to March 1990. At the moment, he is serving in this Ministry as Minister and Special Adviser to the President.

My very special interest in the candidacy of Mr. Sy stems from a desire to preserve, within the International Court of Justice, a francophone-oriented sensitivity and legal tradition, representative of the civilizations of Sub-Saharan Africa.

Given the privileged ties of friendship and cooperation that so happily exist between our two countries, I should like to count on the support and backing of you and your government for this candidacy during these elections, to take place at the headquarters of the United Nations at New York, at the Security Council and the General Assembly, during its Forty-Fifth Regular Session, scheduled to begin on September 18, 1990.

I should like to thank you for your positive response to my endeavor, and ask you to accept, Mr. President, my best wishes to you and our friends, the American people, together with the assurances of my very high and fraternal consideration.

[Handwritten] Sincerely,

[Signature]

PRES NOTED SUMMARY

THE PRESIDENT OF THE GOVERNMENT

Madrid, August 10, 1990

Mr. George Bush
President of the United States of America
WASHINGTON

Dear George,

This is in response to your letter dated July 13 in which you present your thoughts on the situation in Nicaragua.

As you know, I follow very closely the situation in Central America and particularly in Nicaragua. We here have also been worried about the events that are taking place and especially by the recent strike which fortunately is now over.

Nicaragua is experiencing a delicate transition phase. This journey will undoubtedly be a slow and difficult one, and for a suitable conclusion, it will require the collaboration of all the implicated parties within the country and the support and the encouragement of foreign countries.

You are aware of the firm and determined support that my Government has been offering to the constitutional President ever since the day she was elected, which we have accorded not only with political actions but also with important economic contributions.

At the same time, we are advising in a permanent manner, moderation and discretion to all those who have the obligation to contribute to improving the situation, whether from a loyal opposition or from the practice of the government's responsibilities.

No effort will be too great, and therefore, I believe that our actions before the different players, united with those of other Latin American leaders, will be of great aid to reaching- in line with the Transition Accords- a definite reconciliation and democratization in Nicaragua, that will allow for economic development with social progress.

The situation in Nicaragua is intimately tied to that of other countries in the area that also need to consolidate their democracies, to reach a higher level of regards towards human rights and improve their economic situation. In this regard, I am particularly concerned about the situation in El Salvador, where we are still encouraging dialogue between the FMLN and the government as the only means of reaching a conclusion to the cruel civil war that is beating upon the Salvadoran people.

With kindest regards,

Felipe González Márquez
President of the Spanish Government

Monsieur le Président,

J'ai l'honneur de vous exprimer ma profonde reconnaissance pour l'assistance de votre pays au processus électoral prévu au mois de novembre prochain.

Le Président de la République

N°0075/PR/SP.

Dakar, le 30 Juin 1990

Monsieur le Président,

Je voudrais porter à Votre haute connaissance que le Sénégal a décidé de présenter la candidature de Monsieur Seydou Madani SY, mon Ministre, Conseiller spécial, au poste de Juge à la Cour Internationale de Justice de LA HAYE qui sera vacant, le 05 février 1991, à l'expiration du mandat du Juge Kéba MBAYE qui ne sollicite pas une réélection.

Monsieur Seydou Madani SY est un éminent juriste, agrégé de Droit public, qui a acquis une longue et riche expérience universitaire et politique, reflétée par son curriculum vitae ci-joint.

Il fut successivement Professeur et Doyen de la Faculté des Sciences juridiques et économiques de l'Université de Dakar, ensuite Recteur de la même Université.

Il a été Garde des Sceaux, Ministre de la Justice de mon Gouvernement entre janvier 1986 et mars 1990 et y occupe aujourd'hui les fonctions de Ministre, Conseiller spécial du Président de la République.

L'intérêt tout particulier que j'attache à la candidature de Monsieur SY répond au souci de maintenir au sein de la Cour Internationale de Justice une sensibilité et une tradition juridique d'inspiration francophone et représentative des civilisations de l'Afrique sub-saharienne.

Dans l'esprit des relations privilégiées d'amitié et de coopération liant si heureusement nos deux pays, je voudrais compter sur l'appui et le soutien de Votre Excellence et de Son Gouvernement à cette candidature, lors des élections qui se dérouleront au siège des Nations-Unies, à New-York, au Conseil de Sécurité ainsi qu'à l'Assemblée Générale, au cours des travaux de sa 45ème Session ordinaire, prévue à partir du 18 septembre 1990.

En Vous remerciant de l'accueil bienveillant que Vous voudrez bien réserver à ma démarche, je Vous prie d'agréer, Monsieur le Président, avec mes vœux les meilleurs pour Vous-même et le peuple américain ami, les assurances de ma très haute et amicale considération.

Heads of State Correspondence Summary

President Delors of the EC - September 4, 1990
(Received September 4)

President Delors expresses his condolences for the U.S. Air Force transport plane crash in Germany.

Amir Thani of Qatar - September 3, 1990
(Received September 4)

Amir Thani appreciates your Independence Day message. He also supports your stand against the Iraqi invasion of Kuwait and is confident that the international community, led by the U.S., will help to re-establish justice and restore Kuwait's legitimate government.

Prime Minister Shamir of Israel - September 2, 1990
(Received September 3)

PM Shamir acknowledges your August 27 letter. He shares your view that Saddam Hussein should be prevented from turning the situation in Kuwait into an Arab-Israel conflict. However, Israel must be prepared for a "worse-case" scenario. Since Iraq may attack without provocation, PM Shamir sees Hussein's long-standing hostility towards Israel as a real danger and is concerned by the recent developments in Jordan. Israel is confident that it can rely upon U.S. commitment to Israel as defense needs increase. Israel also seeks to expand communications with the U.S. defense establishment.

Prime Minister Kaifu of Japan - August 30, 1990
(Received September 4)

PM Kaifu praises your strong leadership in dealing with the Gulf crisis. After speaking with you and considering all "available options except for the constitutionally impossible dispatch of self-defense forces", he has decided to take measures made up of two major components. The first component is cooperation with the multinational forces such as transportation, equipment, medical and financial assistance. The second part is substantial economic assistance to countries such as Jordan, Turkey and Egypt.

He notes his serious political and legal difficulties in formulating these measures and hopes that Japan does not appear to be slow in responding. He is also considering new legislation to permit a more effective Japanese response to global security issues.

(Received September 3)

PM Bashir acknowledges your August 8 letter and wishes to clarify a number of points. He explains that he avoided an out-right condemnation of Iraq because it would alienate one or both of the parties involved and would not allow Sudan to act as a negotiator. He has formulated a peace initiative and will present it to you after consultations with Iraq, Kuwait, and Saudi Arabia.

President Collor of Brazil - August 17, 1990
(Received September 3)

President Collor regrets that you must postpone your Brazil visit; however, he understands that unexpected matters made it unavoidable. Your suggestion to reschedule the visit in late November is acceptable to him.

President Trouillot of Haiti - August 14, 1990
(Received September 4)

President Trouillot appreciates the U.S. assistance to prepare Haiti for its November elections. Vice President Quayle's visit served to reaffirm and to strengthen Haiti's determination to hold free and fair elections.

President Gonzalez of Spain - August 10, 1990
(Received September 4)

President Gonzalez acknowledges your July 13 letter concerning Nicaragua. He continues to support the Transition Accords and efforts toward economic and social development in Nicaragua.

He is also concerned over civil war in El Salvador and is encouraging dialogue between the FMLN and the government.

MEMORANDUM FOR BRENT SCOWCROFT

FROM: RICHARD N. HAASS RCH

SUBJECT: Your 9:10 Meeting with Israeli Foreign Minister David Levy

You will be seeing Levy for no more than half an hour in the wake of his 3 hour session with Jim Baker and his 5 minute meeting with the President. I see a few themes to touch on:

- Reiterate our ongoing desire for Israeli restraint, making the point that it is essential that we not play into Saddam's hands by making this appear to be anything other than it is, which is Iraq against the world, not Israel.
- On the crisis, emphasize that it is too soon to know how it will end, but that we will not allow Iraq to hold onto Kuwait. If Iraq withdraws and survives, we are serious about putting together a long term security structure for dealing with him.
- As regards the peace process, you might want to suggest that there may be opportunity here amidst the crisis. The coalition of Arab states that includes the Saudis, Syria and Egypt has the potential not only to prevail against Iraq but to make peace with Israel. At the same time, we cannot afford to ignore the Palestinian dimension of the issue. Legitimate Palestinian rights must be satisfied. This does not mean the PLO, but it will require implementation of Security Council Resolution 242 and the principle of territory for peace.
- On the question of the $400 million in Housing Loan Guarantees, I would not reopen the issue unless he does, in which case I would only suggest you say that we want to help but only if we get what we need on assurances regarding settlement activity. It is time for Israel to decide its priorities here.

MEMORANDUM FOR BRENT SCOWCROFT

FROM: RICHARD N. HAASS
SUBJECT: Your 9:10 Meeting with Israeli Foreign Minister David Levy

You will be seeing Levy for no more than half an hour in the wake of his 3 hour session with Jim Baker and his 5 minute meeting with the President. I see a few themes to touch on:

- Reiterate our ongoing desire for Israeli restraint, making the point that it is essential that we not play into Saddam's hands by making this appear to be anything other than it is, which is Iraq against the world, not Israel.
- On the crisis, emphasize that it is too soon to know how it will end, but that we will not allow Iraq to hold onto Kuwait. If Iraq withdraws and survives, we are serious about putting together a long term security structure for dealing with him.
- As regards the peace process, you might want to suggest that there may be opportunity here amidst the crisis. The coalition of Arab states that includes the Saudis, Syria and Egypt has the potential not only to prevail against Iraq but to make peace with Israel. At the same time, we cannot afford to ignore the Palestinian dimension of the issue. Legitimate Palestinian rights must be satisfied. This does not mean the PLO, but it will require implementation of Security Council Resolution 242 and the principle of territory for peace.
- On the question of the $400 million in Housing Loan Guarantees, I would not reopen the issue unless he does, in which case I would only suggest you say that we want to help but only if we get what we need on assurances regarding settlement activity. It is time for Israel to decide its priorities here.

MEMORANDUM OF TELEPHONE CONVERSATION

SUBJECT: Telephone Conversation with President Mubarak of Egypt (U)

PARTICIPANTS: The President
President Mubarak
Notetaker: C. David Welch

DATE, TIME August 16, 1990; 5:28 - 5:35 p.m. EDT
AND PLACE: Kennebunkport

The President initiated the call. (U)

The President: Hosni, I just finished a couple of interesting meetings; thought I'd fill you in with a quick readout. First, King Hussein. You know of the strains between Jordan and the United States. We had a very frank discussion about things. You know, I've always liked him, and I still do. But the key thing is that there was no letter, no proposal (from Saddam Hussein); the whole thing was a big media hype. I told him of the essentiality of our objectives: Iraq must get out; and the legitimate rulers must be restored. He mentioned an election, but did not push it. I said no. He said Jordan was/would support international sanctions -- and he said so in public. That was positive and will help Jordan in the United States. (U)

President Mubarak: I heard it. (U)

The President: I was encouraged in that. He still talks of an Arab solution. He said Arab opinion is against the United States. I said let's figure out how to make it better. I told him I'm committed to our policy. We had a really long talk. Also, he talked to Jim Baker on the plane ride up. He was worried, but he was pleasant. He thinks we've done the wrong thing. The press had it there was a letter. I told him that we had lost confidence in anything Saddam Hussein says. He told me a long story about the Arab League Summit. We discussed the Saddam Hussein story about pulling out of Kuwait when in fact another whole division was going in. He was very gracious; he always is. There was no hidden agenda, secret mission, or special message. I also had a good visit with Saud and Bandar. They wanted to thank us and think of next steps. But no one is really in a position yet to discuss next steps -- we need to see how sanctions work. We talked at length; no decisions were made.

He's going to Washington for some briefings. They were very pleased and grateful. And that's the report on that one. I also talked to Ozal. The Turks feel confident that sanctions will have a major effect on Iraq. Ozal says ten days is what it will take. Zero is going in and out, he says, and that will have an effect on Saddam Hussein. (S)

President Mubarak: If sanctions are well and firmly done, it will have an effect. (S)

The President: There was no secret mission; I guess that all started with the press speculation. He wants more support for Jordan's position in the United States, and I'd be willing to help but our positions are different. (S)

President Mubarak: About Saddam Hussein and the witnesses, we were alone, George. Only the two of us worked on this; we negotiated it alone. (S)

The President: I missed that part. (S)

President Mubarak: He said he would do nothing until the first meeting. I don't believe him any longer. (S)

The President: Well, I just wanted to give you those reports.
(U)

President Mubarak: Thank you. (U)

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: EDE HOLIDAY

SUBJECT: Union Pacific Corporation Support for the National Guard Call-up

I thought you would like to see the attached rather remarkable letter from Drew Lewis to employees of Union Pacific Corporation.

In support of your call-up of reserve troops, Lewis has announced Union Pacific will make up the difference in pay and benefits between what their employees receive in the military and what they would have received at Union Pacific. Lewis is making an effort to persuade other large businesses to follow suit, but has had little success to date.

DREW LEWIS
CHAIRMAN

August 24, 1990

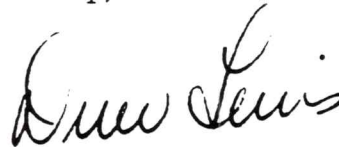

Dear Fellow Employee:

In support of the Reserves and the National Guard call-up, Union Pacific Corporation and its operating companies have adopted a policy under which the Company will make up the difference in pay and benefits between what our employees receive while serving in the military and what they would have received while working their normal jobs at Union Pacific Corporation or at its operating companies.

We have adopted this standard for our non-agreement employees and will initiate discussions with union-represented employees to try to implement the same policy.

We appreciate the efforts of our Reservists, including those volunteering for active duty, and know that this protection of income and benefits will provide them and their families with an added sense of security while they are serving us.

Sincerely,

/ss

POINTS TO BE MADE
CALL TO TURKISH PRESIDENT OZAL

- I am calling because I understand you have some thoughts to share before my meeting with Gorbachev in Helsinki.
- As I wrote in my letter to you, my main objective is to secure continuing Soviet support for the international effort against Sadaam Hussein.
- I thought it was important to share my views personally with Gorbachev so that we can cooperate effectively and be seen to be doing so.
- The meeting will not be only about the Gulf. We will also discuss bilateral issues. I'll be interested in his views on the current economic reform and federation talks.
- As we discussed last week, I am looking forward to seeing you when you are in the U.S. I understand we are now scheduled to have a meeting and lunch on September 25, not September 24 as we had discussed in our last phone conversation.

UNOFFICIAL TRANSLATION

PRES NOTED SUMMARY

The Honorable George Bush
President of the United States of America

Greetings and respects.

My country Kuwait is passing through the most difficult times in its history under brutal Iraqi occupation which has increased with spite and violence with the view of undermining the basic structure of a nation, a member of the United Nations and other international organizations, which has had extensive contributions in the building of human civilization through its distinguished relationship with all countries of this world.

Today, you embark on your trip to meet with the Soviet President Mikail Gorbachev in Helsinki, Finland, to consider the serious and dangerous situation that overshadows the Gulf region as a result of the brutal Iraqi invasion of Kuwait in the early hours of August 2nd and the refusal of the occupying power with flagrant challenges to abide by the international decision as implemented by the United Nations Security Council. At this juncture, I would like it to be on record that on behalf of myself and on behalf of the Kuwaiti people our extreme appreciation and respect for the noble position of the United States which had the positive influence in bringing about international consensus for the adoption of the Security Council resolutions with regard to the occupation of Kuwait which confirmed international condemnation for the Iraqi aggression and the demand upon Iraq, the aggressor, to immediately and unconditionally withdraw its troops from Kuwaiti territory and to enable legitimacy to be restored in Kuwait.

My dear friend,

I address the statesman of a superpower which is carrying its international responsibility for humanity and decency for the restoration of peace and security in the world in accordance with the charter of the United Nations which provides the protection and guarantee for smaller nations as Kuwait from the aggression and the evils of nations that attempt to brutalize peaceful people thereby subjecting the world to wars and destruction that are contrary to the international behavior.

Mr. President,

The people of Kuwait and I look forward to the forthcoming important summit to take firm actions to restore justice and to deter injustice and aggression and we believe that these cannot be achieved except by taking swift actions to compel Iraq to fully implement the Security Council resolutions without further delay and procrastination. We do not see any hope for any diplomatic initiative to succeed to remedy the deteriorating situation in the Gulf as a result of the arrogant position of the Iraqi regime.

I wish to seize this opportunity to express to you personally, Mr. President, and on behalf of the people and government of Kuwait our deep appreciation and admiration for your remarkable and responsible leadership role that you personally and the United States of America have confronted the Iraqi occupation of Kuwait. With all my heart, I wish all the success for you and for the historic summit.

MEMORANDUM FOR BRENT SCOWCROFT

FROM: ADRIAN BASORA AAB
SUBJECT: Lanxade Visit Follow-up

Your meeting with Lanxade succeeded in both of its essential goals: further consolidating the already close working relationship with the Elysee on Iraq/Kuwait, and laying the groundwork for a discreet dialogue with the Elysee on Alliance issues.

On Iraq, after his meeting with you Lanxade told me he was highly reassured by your statement that the President was not at this stage planning to initiate military action against Iraqi forces. Even before coming to Washington Lanxade had believed that this was U.S. policy, but Mitterrand had been dubious and was very concerned that the U.S. might attack. Despite Mitterrand's strong backing of the U.S. so far in the Gulf crisis, said Lanxade, it would be difficult for him to lead France into a war clearly triggered by the U.S. Lanxade was thus happy to be able to take your assurances back to Mitterrand.

Regarding the French role in NATO and French nuclear policy, Lanxade is clearly ready to probe for possible common ground. He was encouraged by your comments about our being closer than might appear on the fundamentals of nuclear policy. In his follow-on conversation with us, he repeated that it would be best to focus on nuclear policy first, leaving NATO organizational issues for a later stage in which the attitudes of a unified Germany would be clearer.

As to modalities for the dialogue, Lanxade said that the French side would consist of himself plus one other person from the Elysee (either Vedrine or his assistant). Although he was meticulous about leaving the choice of the U.S. side to you, the Admiral made it clear that he was not particularly comfortable with the idea of involving other agencies at this stage. As to level and location, he said he realized that you would not be able to travel to Paris nor even devote a lot of time to discussions here. He indicated he would have no problem dealing primarily with Bob Blackwill's replacement and suggested the second half of October as a target for the first round of exploratory discussions.

We would recommend acceptance of Lanxade's suggestion for talks in October, with you setting aside an hour or two in total for talks with Lanxade and David Gompert carrying the bulk of the discussion for the U.S. side. He would be assisted by Philip Zelikow (for his understanding of NATO structures and French doctrine, of the London Declaration initiatives, and of the political/military context) and myself (for knowledge of France, long-standing personal relationships at the Elysee, and interpretation from French). An option would be for Arnie Kanter to participate in the talks as well.

Condi Rice concurred in draft before departing.

RECOMMENDATION

That you authorize us to confirm a Lanxade visit for the second half of October.

SUBJECT: B-C-S Breakfast -- Liberia Update

APNSA Has Seen

We are all trying to figure out the effect of Doe's death on the Liberian political/military kaleidoscope. It's possible that this protracted melodrama will devolve into a stand-off between Taylor's forces -- controlling most of Liberia outside the capital -- and the ECOMOG troops plus Prince Johnson's ragtag but fierce band of gunmen who together control downtown Monrovia. ECOMOG, which is trying to get its Liberian "Interim Government" into Monrovia, could be in a make-or-break situation over the next week or so. If they lose ground vis-a-vis Taylor, they may have to fold their tents and depart. If so, our Embassy because of perceived USG support for ECOMOG would be in a delicate situation. If, on the other hand, Taylor can be cajoled into accepting the Interim Government -- admittedly a long shot -- the Liberia situation may begin to calm down.

In the meantime in a Monday's Deputies Committee Meeting, State was charged with coming up with a detailed list of proposals on what more they want us to do for ECOWAS/ECOMOG. This could include a financial contribution of about three million dollars to the ECOMOG fund drawn from various EFS accounts. This would require a Presidential Determination. State claims that you support this contribution which was supposedly agreed at a previous breakfast.

As has been apparent throughout much of the Liberia imbroglio, State in this Deputies Committee round was more forward leaning about involvement in Liberia and positive about ECOMOG than any other agency. Thus we were reluctant to accept State's view that we are micro-managing this crisis and more authority should be given to the Department and the Embassy in Monrovia.

APNSA Has Seen

SUBJECT: B-C-S Breakfast Item: Second Saudi Arms Package

The second arms sales package for Saudi Arabia is on its way to us for the President's approval. We have limited time to formally notify Congress before recess next month. State also is recommending pre-notification consultations so Congress doesn't choke when it sees the size of the proposed package - $17.8 or 19.9 billion depending on which one we notify -- State's or DoD's. The bulk of the cost is the armor brigade ($8 billion) and the air defense equipment of F-15s and Patriot ($4.9 billion) (Tab I).

State's package deletes some items that DoD would include, specifically: the Multiple Launch Rocket System (MLRS, RE-3 reconnaissance aircraft, KE-3 tanker aircraft. For "tactical" (i.e., political) reasons, State thinks these items should be deferred for now. DoD wants them included because the Saudis requested them (the MLRS was in the January 1990 Javits report), the Saudis already have them (the reconnaissance aircraft) and, most important, the Saudis have a military need for them (the tankers). Our feeling is $2.1 billion difference will hardly matter in a package of this magnitude. The fact that most of these items won't be delivered for at least 2-3 years is likely to generate more criticism than the price tag. We therefore support DoD's option.

Approving this package would send a strong signal to the Saudis and Saddam about our commitment to security of this region beyond the current crisis. We are building a stronger Saudi force structure to reduce the need for U.S. forces in a future contingency. We agree with state that determined Cabinet-level effort will be essential to win congressional support. It also will be imperative that DoD is able to articulate a clear, defensible strategic concept and military rationale to support the package.

It would help for you to encourage Larry Eagleburger and Dick Cheney to agree on one package to send to the President. The last thing we need is a leak about a divided Administration.
