-- The President asked us to be sure that his position on global family planning was clearly reflected in guidance to the field. He said that just because he is opposed to abortion does not mean he is opposed to family planning and he wants to make sure this is communicated to government organizations.

-- 1.4(d) [redacted]

-- Referring to the meeting with the families of the victims of Pan Am 103 on Monday, the President said he wanted to have a more caring knowing policy. He said in the first instance he wants the government to get its act together to ensure that the next time there is a tragedy that the bureaucracy does not swallow communications to or from the families and that the families know immediately that the government has compassion and wants to be as helpful as it can. He also wants further work with the FAA in terms of putting limits on being able to carry radios on planes or whatever other actions can be taken to diminish the threat.
