~~I have a text here,~~

- Before I get into my text, let me make a few general comments
 - Stimulated by a Reaganian election
- We are living in a transitional, if not revolutionary period.
 - The direction and pace of change is breathtaking
- Just think for a moment how dramatically different today is
 - Every previous P since a war has dealt w/ a world ~~fashioned~~ growing from west and fashioned by US.
 - * - That is a world bequeathed ~~us~~ by WWII
 - Devastated allies, plus 50
 - * - We set out to rebuild from that world
 - Marshall Plan plus continuation
 - We have been enormously successful
 - But a world is now different
 - Compare when I in a job before and now
 - The P recognized a transforming world & that policies fashioned for that world - enormously successful - were no longer all tenable
- The P outlined his vision & strategy, which he has been pursuing. Only a rate of change was missed
