

Originally Processed With FOIA(s):

S

FOIA Number:

S

FOIA MARKER

This is not a textual record. This is used as an administrative marker by the George Bush Presidential Library Staff.

Record Group/Collection:	Donated Historical Materials
Collection/Office of Origin:	Frieden, Lex, Collection
Series:	Printed Materials
Subseries:	Manuals

OA/ID Number:	52104
Folder ID Number:	52104-002

Folder Title:
"Rehabdata Custom Search: Attendant Care" [1986]

Stack:

Row:

Section:

Shelf:

Position:

REHABDATA CUSTOM SEARCH

ATTENDANT CARE

The logo for NARIC is located at the bottom left of the page. It consists of the word "NARIC" in a bold, sans-serif font, enclosed within a rounded rectangular border. The logo is positioned at the intersection of a vertical column of five thick black bars and a horizontal line that extends across the page.

NARIC

NARIC

4407 Eighth St., NE
Washington, DC 20017
(202) 635-5826 (Voice/TDD)
1-800-34-NARIC

REHABDATA CUSTOM SEARCHATTENDANT CARE

This bibliography has been compiled by searching REHABDATA, a computerized listing of rehabilitation research reports and related documents. REHABDATA contains over 14,000 entries in the following broad categories:

- ° 48% research reports funded by the National Institute of Handicapped Research (NIHR) or the Rehabilitation Services Administration (RSA), identified by call numbers starting with 0
- ° 34% journal articles, identified by call numbers starting with J
- ° 18% reference resources,
identified by call numbers starting with R

NARIC's library maintains copies of most items listed in REHABDATA and can provide photocopies of non-copyrighted materials. For information on identifying available documents and ordering photocopies, see the last page of this bibliography.

NARIC operates under contract #300-84-0007 with the National Institute of Handicapped Research, Office of Special Education and Rehabilitative Services, U.S. Department of Education.

April 1986

Each REHABDATA listing contains the following information:

CALL NUMBER: NARIC's library shelf number; also indicates audiovisual format.

TITLE: Title of document or journal article. Exception: periodical listings include the article title, journal name, volume, and date.

AUTHOR: Up to three authors; if there are more, the first author and "et al." are used. In some cases, corporate authors are listed.

INSTITUTION: Research institutes, universities, and other organizations; includes state abbreviations.

SOURCE: Publisher, if applicable; indicates number of pages.

YEAR: Year of publication; "$" indicates approximate date; "C" designates a document as copyrighted.

DESCRIPTORS: Chosen from the controlled vocabulary in NARIC's REHABDATA Thesaurus.

ABSTRACT: Brief description of the scope of a document, not a document summary.

Call No: R1894

Title AMERICANS NEEDING HELP TO FUNCTION AT HOME: NATIONAL CENTER FOR HEALTH STATISTICS ADVANCE DATA NUMBER 92

Author Fellor, B A

Institution National Center for Health Statistics MD

Source 12 p

Year 1983

Descriptors DAILY LIVING; ATTENDANT CARE; HEALTH STATISTICS; BLADDER FUNCTION; BOWEL FUNCTION

Abstract Data from the Home Care Supplement to the 1979 National Health Interview Survey. Provides statistics in table and narrative form on the number of adults who need assistance in basic physical activities, adults who need or receive help in home management, adults who usually stay in bed all or most of the time and adults who have difficulty with or use device to control bladder or bowel function. Includes tables.

Call No: R2811

Title ASSESSMENT OF ATTENDANT CARE NEEDS AMONG DISABLED PENNSYLVANIANS

Author Connell, J; Vagnoni, J; Vafeas, J

Institution University of Pennsylvania Physically Handicapped Training Center PA

Source 165 p

Year 1984

Descriptors ATTENDANT CARE; NEEDS ASSESSMENT; EVALUATION; SURVEYS; QUESTIONNAIRES

Abstract Documents the dimensions of the need for attendant care, or consumer-managed physical assistance, for activities of daily living for disabled persons in Pennsylvania. Telephone and mail surveys were used to determine the population of noninstitutionalized severely physically disabled mentally alert adults aged 18 to 59. Identifies the size and characteristics of the population and assesses the parameters of attendant care services. Estimates costs of providing attendant care and reviews options for financing, administering and delivering these services. Includes a literature review, survey questionnaires, data summaries, tables, funding sources, a position paper, Pennsylvania legislation, testimony from disabled persons, and bibliography. Study sponsored by the Pennsylvania Developmental Disabilities Planning Council.

Call No: R0146

Title ATTENDANT CARE MANUAL

Author Larson, M R Snobl, D E

Institution Southwest State University MN

Source 81p

Year 1975

Descriptors DISABLED STUDENTS; UNIVERSITIES; DAILY LIVING; DEVICES; SEXUALITY; HANDBOOKS; ATTENDANT CARE; CATHETERIZATION

Abstract Manual prepared for individuals who provide attendant care to handicapped students that attend Southwest State University in Marshall Minnesota. Describes the duties of an attendant, provides information on disabilities, sex and disability, activities of daily living including self help devices, care of devices, administration of medications and other medical needs such as catheter irrigation, bowel evacuation, bathing procedures, and first aid treatment. Includes an attendant checklist.

Call No: J4763

Title ATTENDANT CARE NEEDS OF THE PHYSICALLY DISABLED: INSTITUTIONAL PERSPECTIVES: REHABILITATION LITERATURE VOL 39 NO 5 MAY 1978, P 147-153

Author Thornock, M; et al

Institution National Easter Seal Society IL

Year 1978

Descriptors ATTENDANT CARE; SURVEYS

Abstract

Survey of established rehabilitation programs conducted to obtain more information about how rehabilitation agencies perceive the attendant care issue and respond with respect to their own clients. Presents the institutions' assessments of the importance of and need for attendant care of their own clients; their response to the need; and their perceptions of creative options and ways of making dependable attendant care more available to disabled people. Suggests possible approaches to meeting this need, discusses the difficulties involved and suggests priorities for future research. Includes 2 tables and 16 references. Other authors: Hutchins, T K; Meyer, S; Kenyon, A; Williams, M.

Call No: J1077

Title

ATTENDANT CARE: TAKING A FIRST LOOK AT A CRITICAL ISSUE: MAINSTREAM VOL 10 NO 2 MAY 1985, P 29-30

Author

World Institute on Disability

Institution

Exploding Myths CA

Year

1985

Descriptors

ATTENDANT CARE; SERVICE DELIVERY

Abstract

Summarizes a study on attendant care by the World Institute on Disability, based in Berkeley, California. Describes the In-home Supportive Services, an attendant care program established in California in 1959 that permits disabled people to live independently including funding, services provided, eligibility requirements, cost of attendant care, the severity of client disability and the service delivery mode. Attributes the success of the program to the fact that it provides a social service and is not organized according to the medical model.

Call No: R3147

Title

ATTENDANT MANAGEMENT MANUAL

Author

Juntti, B

Institution

Washington Coalition of Citizens with Disabilities WA

Source

79 p

Year

1980 C

Descriptors

ATTENDANT CARE; MANAGEMENT; HANDBOOKS

Abstract

Suggests methods for helping disabled people and professionals they work find suitable attendant care. Presents a profile of an attendant including qualities to look for, attitudes, and expectations. Discusses finding, interviewing, hiring, and training an attendant, including funding sources, rates of pay, and termination of employment. Provides tips on getting along, developing a social support network, taxes, housing and traveling. Includes legislation information and resource list of services and helpful telephone numbers in the Seattle area.

Call No: R0313

Title

ATTENDEES AND ATTENDANTS: A GUIDEBOOK OF HELPFUL HINTS

Author

DeGraff, A E

Source

Washington DC: College and University Personnel Association 44p

Year

1979 c

Descriptors

ATTENDANT CARE; DAILY LIVING; HANDBOOKS

Abstract

Hints for attendees and attendants on responsibility, appropriateness, recruiting, pay, taxes, training, personal qualities, duties and relationships.

Call No: 02529

Title

BCIL REPORT: A SUMMARY OF THE FIRST THREE YEARS OF THE BOSTON CENTER FOR INDEPENDENT LIVING: A TRANSITIONAL LIVING PROGRAM FOR PERSONS WITH PHYSICAL DISABILITIES

Author

Reich, P; ed

Institution

Tufts University Medical Rehabilitation Research and Training Center MA

Source 40 p
Year 1977
Descriptors INDEPENDENT LIVING; INSURANCE; PHYSICALLY DISABLED; LIVING FACILITIES; DEINSTITUTIONALIZATION; PERSONNEL; ATTENDANT CARE
Abstract Study summarizes the program of the Boston Center for Independent Living (BCIL) including the three phase program of transitional, cluster and independent living; resident selection criteria; management and budget; medicaid contract; additional services, such as transportation, vocational rehabilitation, employment; personal care assistants recruiting, training and scheduling. Also includes a check list of items to consider in planning a center for independent living.

Call No: J1996

Title CAMPUS SCENE: ATTENDANTS TRAINED TO AID HANDICAPPED STUDENTS: JOURNAL OF REHABILITATION VOL 39 NO 6 NOVEMBER-DECEMBER 1973, P 11-13
Author Graden, H Lips, R Mitchell, K
Institution National Rehabilitation Association VA
Year 1973 C
Descriptors ATTENDANT CARE; TRAINING PROGRAMS; UNIVERSITIES; DISABLED STUDENTS
Abstract Discusses selection and training of attendants for disabled students.

Call No: J0108

Title COMMUNITY BASED ATTENDANT CARE: A KEY TO INDEPENDENT LIVING. AMERICAN REHABILITATION VOL 6 NO 6 JULY-AUGUST, 1981, P 28-32
Author Page, H
Institution Rehabilitation Services Administration Dept of Ed DC
Year 1981
Descriptors ATTENDANT CARE; INDEPENDENT LIVING; MODEL PROGRAMS; PROFESSIONAL TRAINING; STAFF DEVELOPMENT; MANAGEMENT; CONTINUING EDUCATION
Abstract Presents a model management training program for rehabilitation personnel who have responsibility for attendant care programs. The model was developed by the Center for People with Disabilities (CPWD) in Boulder, Colorado. Article discusses training elements and goals of the three and one-half day program as well as an analysis of some dangers to the independence of disabled people which an organized personal care program may present. The CPWD continuing education program emphasizes: 1) The conjunction of personal care services with strategies for developing positive attitudes and skills by the disabled people; 2) The management tools of recruitment, hiring, training, and supervising a pool of personal care aids; the work that an aide performs; and the relationship between the disabled person and the personal care attendant.

Call No: R2645

Title COMMUNITY-BASED SYSTEMS OF LONG TERM CARE
Author Zawadski, R T; ed
Source New York: Haworth Press 256 p
Year 1984 C
Descriptors LONG TERM CARE; COMMUNITY RESOURCES; ATTENDANT CARE; DAY CARE; AGING; COMMUNITY CENTERS; HOSPICES; NURSING HOMES
Abstract Intended as a view of developments in community-based long term care in the early 1980's. Presents background of long term care. Traces the problems motivating the development of community-based long term care including cost, quality of care, fragmentation of services, lack of integration mechanisms, and lack of incentives. Emphasizes use of community-based services and system alternatives and integration of services. Long term care demonstration projects described are ACCESS, the case management unit of the Monroe County Long Term Care Program, Inc. in Rochester, New York; the Georgia Alternative Health Services Project; the South Carolina Community Long Term Care Project; the New York City Home Care Project; New York's "Nursing Home Without Walls"; Project OPEN (Organizations Providing for Elderly Needs) at Mount Zion

Hospital in San Francisco; On Lok Senior Health Services' Community Care Organization for Dependent Adults in San Francisco; and Triage, Inc. in Bristol, Connecticut. Presents a theoretical framework for use in systematic comparison of projects. Discusses policy implications. Includes graphs, tables, and references. Also published in House Health Care Services Quarterly Vol 4 No 3/4 Fall/Winter 1983.

Call No: R1770

Title CONSUMER'S GUIDE TO ATTENDANT CARE: SECOND EDITION
Author Roberts, S; Sydow, N
Institution Access for Independence WI
Source 41 p
Year 1984 C
Descriptors ATTENDANT CARE; CONSUMERS; HANDBOOKS; DAILY LIVING
Abstract Guide intended to help disabled people in learning to hire and direct people to provide attendant care. Discusses and provides worksheets or checklists on personal and homemaking needs inventories, lifestyle assessment, job description, advertising, telephone screening, attendant application, interviewing, references, work agreement, training, record keeping, emergency backup and communication skills. Includes a reprint of an article, "Some Thoughts on the Care and Keeping of Attendants" by Nancy K Smith.

Call No: 02119

Title COOPERATIVE SELF-SUPPORT SYSTEM FOR SEVERELY PHYSICALLY DISABLED YOUNG ADULTS: A FINAL PROJECT REPORT
Author Stock, D D; Cole, J A
Institution Texas Institute for Rehabilitation and Research TX
Source 139 p
Year 1977
Descriptors FINAL REPORTS; SEVERELY DISABLED; INDEPENDENT LIVING; ATTENDANT CARE; COMMUNITY RESOURCES
Abstract An examination of requirements for establishing an independent living arrangement for severely physically disabled, non-retarded, young adults, which includes providing new vocational and educational opportunities for the residents; determining the feasibility of sharing costs, thereby reducing costs to the individual, his family, or the agencies that support him; evaluation the impact of an independent living system on the vocational - economic productivity of the individual; assessing the changes in attitude and socialization of the individual; monitoring improved health practices; determining the feasibility of extending the project to a larger population. Includes follow up on many residents, and samples of forms used.

Call No: R1938

Title DESIGN FOR INDEPENDENT LIVING: THE ENVIRONMENT AND PHYSICALLY DISABLED PEOPLE
Author Lifchez, R Winslow, W
Source New York: Whitney Library of Design Watson Guptill Publications 207 p
Year 1979 C
Descriptors INDEPENDENT LIVING; ARCHITECTURAL ACCESSIBILITY; ATTENDANT CARE; PSYCHOSOCIAL FACTORS; DISABLED STUDENTS; DISABLED PERSONS ATTITUDES; SEXUALITY; DAILY LIVING; SEVERELY DISABLED; ENVIRONMENTAL CONTROL SYSTEMS
Abstract Discusses Independent Living for physically disabled people in Berkeley, California. Profiles seven disabled people, describing the adaptations and adjustments they make to live independently. Describes formal and informal networks, organizations, and role of attendant care. Briefly discusses the design and personal developmental aspects of physical places for daily activities such as living, sleeping, grooming, feeding, toileting, storing, playing, meeting, competing, working and sexual activities. Describes techniques to help design environments for disabled people, including empathy and intentionality. Catalogs ways and means of adapting the environment including nonconforming uses, ad hoc designs, adaptations and tools. Includes photographs and index. Paperback edition published by University of California Press, Berkeley.

Call No: J0847

Title ENHANCING THE ATTENDANT MANAGEMENT SKILLS OF PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES: AMERICAN REHABILITATION VOL 11 NO 2 APR-MAY-JUN 1985, P 18-20
Author Ulichny, G; Jones, M L
Institution Rehabilitation Services Administration Department of Education DC
Source Washington, DC: Government Printing Office
Year 1985
Descriptors ATTENDANT CARE; MANAGEMENT
Abstract Describes procedures for attendant care management for disabled persons. Discusses the background and problems of disabled persons training and supervising their own personal care attendants in independent living environments. Presents a management model that uses performance checklists develop by the Research and Training Center on Independent Living. Describes checklist use for hiring, training and supervising attendants. Includes a sample checklist in table form and references.

Call No: J5425

Title ENHANCING THE ATTENDANT MANAGEMENT SKILLS OF PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES: PARAPLEGIA NEWS FEB 1986, P 22-24
Author Ulichny, G; Jones, M L
Institution Paralyzed Veterans of America DC
Year 1986
Descriptors ATTENDANT CARE; EMPLOYERS; MANAGEMENT
Abstract Presents a model of attendant care management for persons with disabilities that attempts to overcome management deficits by using performance checklists to outline specific job descriptions. Discusses the use of the model to ensure consumer choice and control. Presents generic checklists for daily living routines and examples of actual personalized checklists developed by consumers. Includes 7 references.

Call No: R2124

Title EXAMPLES OF INDEPENDENT LIVING SERVICES: THEIR COMPONENTS, AND THEIR USERS: WORKING PAPER
Author Toms, L; SantaPaul, D; Stoddard, S
Institution Berkeley Planning Associates CA
Source 69 p
Year 1979
Descriptors INDEPENDENT LIVING; TRANSPORTATION; HOUSING; ATTENDANT CARE
Abstract Report for the State of Illinois on the components required for comprehensive rehabilitation services. Describes housing services including integrated community living, cooperative living arrangements, cluster housing, group homes, transitional programs, and emergency and temporary housing; transportation services, with a focus on vehicle modification, drivers, transportation systems, adaptive mobility aids and mobility instruction; and attendant/homemaker services including attendant referral and training, training in attendant management and financial advocacy. Also covers communication; health vocational recreation and socialization; counseling; information/referral; education and training; and services to ensure legal and economic rights and benefits. Includes references. Developed under subcontract to Stanley E Portny and Associates.

Call No: R3176

Title EXPANDING ATTENDANT CARE OPTIONS FOR DISABLED TEXANS: OCCASIONAL PAPER NO 2
Author Nosek, M A; ed
Institution Independent Living Resource Unit Project TX

Source 280 p
 Year 1985 C
 Descriptors ATTENDANT CARE; SERVICE DELIVERY; MODEL PROGRAMS; CONFERENCES
 Abstract Describes the Texas perspective on personal care assistance services including proceedings from a conference on the topic. Provides background materials from California, Colorado, Massachusetts, Missouri, Kansas, North Carolina, and Ohio to help establish personal care assistance services to increase independent living. Includes bibliography on attendant care, tables, charts, fact sheets, and interview forms. Intended as a resource for new models of personal care assistance service delivery.

Call No: R0362

Title HANDLING THE HANDICAPPED: A GUIDE TO THE LIFTING AND MOVEMENT OF DISABLED PEOPLE
 Author Chartered Society of Physiotherapy
 Source New York: Springer Publishing 142p
 Year 1975 c
 Descriptors PHYSICALLY DISABLED; NURSING; MOBILITY AIDS; DEVICES; ATTENDANT CARE
 Abstract Describes methods for lifting and moving physically handicapped people, including: assessing the situation, rules and mechanical principles, basic holds and lifts; general mobility, transfer movements, use of a sliding board; hoists and beds; wheelchairs; handling in the swimming pool area; handling handicapped horseback riders.

Call No: 03761 Audio Cassette

Title HIRING AND SUPERVISING PERSONAL SERVICE PROVIDERS: A GUIDE
 Author Morrione, B
 Institution Institute for Information Studies VA
 Source 44p
 Year 1980 C
 Descriptors PHYSICALLY DISABLED; SERVICE DELIVERY; MANAGEMENT; ATTENDANT CARE; MODELS; INDEPENDENT LIVING; MANPOWER; DAILY LIVING; HANDBOOKS; INFORMATION RESOURCES; AUDIOVISUAL MATERIALS
 Abstract Provides information on finding, hiring, training, supervising and firing attendants or other personal care providers such as notetakers or drivers for disabled people who wish to live independently. Describes two programs for people who depend entirely on public funds to meet basic living and attendant care needs, the California In Home Supportive Services (IHSS) and the Massachusetts Personal Care Assistance (PCA) program, and details tax deductions for people who pay their attendants personally. Lists, by state, available resource organizations which deal with personal service care or activities of daily living training. In print and audio cassette format.

Call No: R2193

Title HOUSING WITH DAY AND NIGHT SERVICE FOR THE SEVERELY DISABLED
 Author Mansson, K
 Institution Swedish Institute for the Handicapped Sweden
 Source 65 p
 Year 1980
 Descriptors INTERNATIONAL REHABILITATION; SWEDEN; HOUSING; ATTENDANT CARE; INDEPENDENT LIVING; ARCHITECTURAL ACCESSIBILITY
 Abstract Describes a housing system that allows disabled tenants to live independently and still be able to obtain assistance with daily living activities day or night. Discusses the day-night service and the allocation of responsibility, and presents seven specific housing projects. Includes a chapter on housing design, with a guide to reading the drawings, and provides photographs and floor plans of accessible housing units.

Call No: 05554

Title IN-HOME RESPITE CARE PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT: BACKGROUND, COORDINATORS MANUAL, TRAINING MANUAL

Author Parham, J D, et al

Institution Texas Tech University Rehabilitation Research and Training Center in Mental Retardation TX

Source 256 p

Year 1982 C

Descriptors TRENDS; RESPITE CARE; HANDBOOKS; MANAGEMENT; TRAINING; ATTENDANT CARE

Abstract Training handbook designed for use by communities considering a respite care program. Unit I deals with definitions of developmental disabilities, trends in service, residential care, family service, respite care, and home respite services. Unit II, an operations manual, discusses the first steps of the program coordinator, establishing a communication system, fees, legal concerns, recruiting respite care providers, recruiting consumer families, matching families and providers, program administration and follow-up. Unit III addresses training respite care providers. Includes general guidelines, program goals, planning training sessions, observational guidelines and the training sessions. Each unit contains related references.

Call No: R1039

Title INDEPENDENT LIVING AND ACCESSIBILITY HANDBOOK: REVISED

Author Brennan, D

Institution Services for Independent Living OH

Year 1984 C

Descriptors HANDBOOKS; INDEPENDENT LIVING; ATTENDANT CARE; DAILY LIVING; PSYCHOSOCIAL FACTORS; HOUSING

Abstract Revision of a 1980 handbook on independent living and accessibility. Discusses housing alternatives, attendant care, psychosocial factors, economic factors, rehabilitation technology, consumer advocacy and government programs. Funded by the Department of Education.

Call No: R1961

Title INDEPENDENT LIVING FOR PHYSICALLY DISABLED PEOPLE: DEVELOPING, IMPLEMENTING, AND EVALUATING SELF-HELP REHABILITATION PROGRAMS

Author Crewe, D M; Zola I K

Source San Francisco: Jossey-Bass. 424 p

Year 1983 C

Descriptors INDEPENDENT LIVING; MODEL PROGRAMS; SERVICE DELIVERY; PHYSICALLY DISABLED; RURAL; ATTENDANT CARE; TECHNOLOGY

Abstract Collection of essays on various aspects of living (IL), including foundations and evolution of the movement, models and locations, key IL services, and achievements and prospects. Specific topics includes defining and implementing the IL concept, social attitudes and Legislation regarding disability, developing new self-images and interdependence, alternative program models, programs in rural areas, IL in other countries. Location of IL housing and programs, designing supportive physical environments attendant care, peer counseling, skills training, accessible transportation, specialized housing, technology, evaluating program methods and results, field research, organizing disabled people for political action, the future of independent living, goals, and the right to choose. Contains bibliography and index.

Call No: J0358

Title INDEPENDENT LIVING IN SWEDEN AND THE NETHERLANDS: MAINSTREAM VOL 7 NO 1 NOVEMBER, 1981, P 6-9

Author Frieden, L Frieden, J

Source San Diego: Able-Disabled Advocacy

Year 1981 C

Descriptors ATTENDANT CARE; ATTITUDINAL BARRIERS; INDEPENDENT LIVING; SWEDEN; NETHERLANDS; HOUSING; TRANSPORTATION; EDUCATION; INSURANCE; INTERNATIONAL REHABILITATION; CONSUMERS; PSYCHOLOGICAL ASPECTS

Abstract Reports experiences and findings of the authors on a 1980 study trip to Sweden and the Netherlands funded by the International Exchange of Experts in Rehabilitation Programs, sponsored by the World Rehabilitation Fund (WRF), and the National Institute of Handicapped Research (NIHR). Discusses transportation systems, barrier-free architecture, attendant care programs, innovative educational methods, provision of technical aids, social insurance, consumer organizations for the disabled, attitudinal barriers, integrated and separate housing, and psychological effects of programs. Compares independent living in Sweden, the Netherlands, and the United States.

Call No: R0634

Title INDEPENDENT LIVING REHABILITATION PROJECT: SERVICES, ASSESSMENT, RESEARCH, PROGRAM PLANNING: FINAL REPORT

Author Taylor, C, ed

Institution University of Washington Department of Rehabilitation Medicine WA

Source 535p

Year 1979

Descriptors INDEPENDENT LIVING; ATTENDANT CARE; EVALUATION; NEEDS ASSESSMENT; TRANSPORTATION; INCOME; EDUCATION; LEISURE; MEDICAL TREATMENT; SHELTERED WORKSHOPS; HOUSING; PROGRAM EVALUATION; SEVERELY DISABLED

Abstract Prepared by the Independent Living Rehabilitation Project, Department of Rehabilitation Medicine, University of Washington. Defines independent living, and describes a study of independent living support systems. Includes research and assessment results on needs identification, health support, attendant care, transportation, income support, higher education, recreation, and leisure, medical rehabilitation programs, sheltered workshops, housing needs, and direct services. Describes a proposed program for independent living in Washington state. Appendices briefly discuss housing survey, community and consumer participation, architectural barriers, cerebral palsy and multiple sclerosis. Report made possible through a grant from the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, Department of Social and Health Services, Olympia, Washington.

Call No: R2126

Title INDEPENDENT LIVING SERVICES

Author Stoddard, S; Toms, L; SantaPaul, D

Institution Berkeley Planning Associates CA

Source 37 p

Year 1979

Descriptors INDEPENDENT LIVING; SEVERELY DISABLED; TRANSPORTATION; HOUSING; ATTENDANT CARE

Abstract Presents a basic list of services designed to address the independent living needs of severely disabled individuals. Discusses basic service areas: housing, mobility, communication, attendant/homemaker, health, vocational, recreation/socialization, counseling, information, referral, advocacy/legal, financial, community development, education, training. Provides examples of services under each heading. Includes tables and references. Prepared under subcontract to Stanley E Portny and Associates.

Call No: 05330

Title INDEPENDENT LIVING WITH ATTENDANT CARE: A GUIDE FOR THE PERSON WITH A DISABILITY

Author Board, M A, et al

Institution Independent Living Research Utilization Project TX

Source 21p

Year 1980 C

Descriptors INDEPENDENT LIVING; ATTENDANT CARE; INTERPERSONAL RELATIONS; MODELS

Abstract

The Independent Living Research Utilization Project (ILRU) is affiliated with the Institute for Rehabilitation and Research (TIRR) and Baylor College of Medicine Medical Rehabilitation Research and Training Center. This booklet provides information on personal attendant care (PCA) resulting from three years, experience in the New Options Transitional Living Project. Examines models of providing attendant care, interviewing and hiring an attendant, the relationship between a disabled person and the attendant, back-up systems, and terminating an attendant's employment. Appendix provides a functional assessment form.

Call No: 05331

Title

INDEPENDENT LIVING WITH ATTENDANT CARE: A GUIDE FOR THE PERSONAL CARE ATTENDANT

Author

Board, M A, et al

Institution

Independent Living Research Utilization Project TX

Source

24p

Year

1980 C

Descriptors

INDEPENDENT LIVING; ATTENDANT CARE; INTERPERSONAL RELATIONS; GLOSSARIES

Abstract

The Independent Living Research Utilization Project is affiliated with the Institute for Rehabilitation and Research and Baylor College of Medicine Medical Rehabilitation Research and Training Center. This booklet a result of three years of the New Options Transitional Living Project. Explains need for personal care attendants and contrasts dependent and independent environments. Intended to provide the attendant with information on categories of disability, interview techniques and where to look for possible jobs, possible pitfalls and conflict situations, and improving communications with a disabled person. Mentions back-up systems and rewards. Appendices include a glossary and references.

Call No: 05332

Title

INDEPENDENT LIVING WITH ATTENDANT CARE: A MESSAGE TO PARENTS OF HANDICAPPED YOUTH

Author

Board, M A, et al

Institution

Independent Living Research Utilization Project TX

Source

13p

Year

1980 C

Descriptors

INDEPENDENT LIVING; ATTENDANT CARE; INTERPERSONAL RELATIONS; FAMILY LIFE; PARENTS

Abstract

The Independent Living Research Utilization Project is affiliated with the Institute for Rehabilitation and Research and Baylor College of Medicine Medical Rehabilitation Research and Training Center. Booklet is a result of three years of the New Options Transitional Living Project. Discusses the family role in preparing a disabled person for independent living. Includes teaching responsibility, independent living support systems, self-direction, and when to use an attendant. Includes bibliography.

Call No: R1149

Title

INTERIM REPORT: WORLD INSTITUTE ON DISABILITY ATTENDANT RESEARCH PROJECT: NATIONAL ATTENDANT CARE SYMPOSIUM: WASHINGTON, DC JUL 15, 1985

Author

Litvak, S

Institution

World Institute on Disability CA

Source

16 p

Year

1985

Descriptors

ATTENDANT CARE; STATISTICS

Abstract

Interim report of the World Institute on Disability attendant research project. Summarizes data on methodology, the history of the programs, types of services provided, eligibility criteria, service providers, administration, clients and expenditures in tables.

Call No: J1051

Title LIVING INDEPENDENTLY WITH A PERSONAL CARE ATTENDANT: PARAPLEGIA NEWS VOL 36 NO 5 MAY 1982, P 24-28

Author Slagle, D K

Institution Paralyzed Veterans of America DC

Year 1982 C

Descriptors INDEPENDENT LIVING; DAILY LIVING; MODEL PROGRAMS; ATTENDANT CARE; HOMEMAKERS; SURVEYS

Abstract Discusses the use of personal care attendants (PCAs), including job duties; where to advertise, interviewing and hiring, attitudes of an effective employer, results from a survey of PCAs concerning their work, substitute emergency care, and income tax deductions of attendant care expenses. Includes comparison of two model programs to help the disabled individual to live independently and employ a PCA. California's program, "In Home Supportive Services" helps pay for the cost of homemaker and chore services on a sliding scale based on the recipient's income. The Personal Care Assistance program in Massachusetts pays for the cost of attendant care for working disabled people. Includes photographs and bibliography.

Call No: 04697

Title LIVING INDEPENDENTLY: THREE VIEWS OF THE EUROPEAN EXPERIENCE WITH IMPLICATIONS FOR THE US

Author Frieden, L Frieden, J Laurie, G

Institution World Rehabilitation Fund NY

Source 72p

Year 1981 C

Descriptors INTERNATIONAL REHABILITATION; SWEDEN; NETHERLANDS; GREAT BRITAIN; DENMARK; SEVERELY DISABLED; INDEPENDENT LIVING; ATTENDANT CARE; TRANSPORTATION ACCESSIBILITY; MAINSTREAMING

Abstract World Rehabilitation Fund International Exchange of Information in Rehabilitation Monograph Number Ten. Includes two papers, "Observations of the Lifestyles of Disabled People in Sweden and the Netherlands" and "Relationships Between American and European Concepts of Independent Living," the latter based on study in the United Kingdom and Denmark. Each describes service programs, benefit systems and organizations of disabled people in European countries to suggest ideas for use in the United States, and expresses views of disabled people who use the programs about their effectiveness. The first paper focuses on attendant care, the second on accessibility of public transportation and education. See NARIC REHABDATA CN 05718 for document summary.

Call No: 05718

Title LIVING INDEPENDENTLY: THREE VIEWS OF THE EUROPEAN EXPERIENCE WITH IMPLICATIONS FOR THE US: NARIC REHABILITATION DOCUMENT SUMMARY: NUMBER 6: 1983

Author Frieden, L; Frieden, J; Laurie, G

Institution World Rehabilitation Fund NY

Source 2 P

Year 1981 C

Descriptors INTERNATIONAL REHABILITATION; SWEDEN; NETHERLANDS; DENMARK; GREAT BRITAIN; INDEPENDENT LIVING; ATTENDANT CARE; SEVERELY DISABLED; TRANSPORTATION ACCESSIBILITY

Abstract Summary of this document prepared by NARIC under NIHR contract number 300-83-0006. Brief description of purposes and summary of conclusions in the World Rehabilitation Fund monograph on independent living opportunities for severely disabled persons in various European countries. Specifically discusses attendant care and transportation. See NARIC REHABDATA CN 04697 for document.

Call No: J5098

Title MAINTAINING PERSONAL CARE ATTENDANT SERVICES: AMERICAN REHABILITATION NOV-DEC 1980, P 24-26

Author Kahn, P

Institution Rehabilitation Services Administration DC

Year 1980

Descriptors ATTENDANT CARE

Abstract Explores the use of personal care attendants (PCAs) by disabled people. Focuses on how PCAs are used, the problems associated with PCAs, and coping strategies used by disabled people to help solve these problems. Makes recommendations for improving PCA services. Includes 1 references.

Call No: J1684

Title MODEL ATTENDANT CARE PROGRAM BENEFITS ALL: JOURNAL OF REHABILITATION VOL 46 NO 4 OCT-NOV-DEC 1980, P 26-31

Author Birdwell, V; Fonosch, G G

Institution National Rehabilitation Association VA

Year 1980 C

Descriptors ATTENDANT CARE; UNIVERSITIES; MODEL PROGRAMS; DISABLED STUDENTS

Abstract Describes a program in which severely disabled college students are assisted by nondisabled students who provide personal care services through an on-campus attendant care program. Disabled students are counseled to articulate their attendant care needs to the student attendants to foster independence and responsible decision making. The overall goal of the program is to create conditions for meeting attendant care needs that maximize severely disabled students' access to the same environments open to other students. Includes 11 references.

Call No: 02555

Title NEW OPTIONS TRAINING MANUAL: ELEVEN TRAINING MODULES IN COMMUNITY LIVING SKILLS

Author Cole, J A, et al

Institution Texas Institute for Rehabilitation Research TX

Source 133p

Year 1979

Descriptors LIVING FACILITIES; SEVERELY DISABLED; INDEPENDENT LIVING; TRAINING; DAILY LIVING; HANDBOOKS; INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS; ATTENDANT CARE

Abstract New Options program in Houston, Texas, is a transitional living project where a six week live in program teaches community living skills, with the aid of training modules, to severely disabled individuals. Training manual includes detailed descriptions and outlines for each meeting of the eleven training modules in the New Options program in the following areas: attendant management; consumer affairs; financial management; functional skills; living arrangements; medical needs; mobility; sexuality; social skills; time management; vocational / educational opportunities. Also lists independent living resources.

Call No: J1785

Title PERSONAL CARE ATTENDANTS: ATTITUDES AND FACTORS CONTRIBUTING TO JOB SATISFACTION: JOURNAL OF REHABILITATION VOL 48 NO 3 JULY/AUGUST/ SEPTEMBER 1982, P 20-24

Author Atkins, B J Meyer, A B Smith, N K

Institution National Rehabilitation Association VA

Year 1982 C

Descriptors ATTENDANT CARE; INDEPENDENT LIVING; PHYSICALLY DISABLED; ATTITUDES TOWARDS DISABLED; TESTS; STATISTICS

Abstract Quality personal attendant care is imperative to successful independence for physically disabled persons. To help eliminate the existing void in the research literature regarding attendant input, this study was conducted to provide information from the attendant's point of view which could be used to enhance care to physically disabled adults. Data from the 56 current or former attendants were collected via several instruments, including Attitudes Toward Disabled Persons scale, Gordon Personal Profile and Current Attendant Profile. It was found that attendants represented varied backgrounds, were sincerely interested in their work, and felt they needed specific training to be more effective. (Author).

Call No: J4777

Title PERSONAL CARE ATTENDANTS: KEY TO LIVING INDEPENDENTLY: REHABILITATION LITERATURE VOL 42 NO 9-10 SEP-OCT 1981, P 258-265

Author Smith, N K; Meyer, A B

Institution National Easter Seal Society IL

Year 1981

Descriptors ATTENDANT CARE

Abstract Discusses the role of the personal care attendant (PCA) in helping severely disabled people achieve their maximum degree of independent living. Provides a literature review focusing on the characteristics of PCAs, the problems they encounter, the need for personal care as seen by consumers and rehabilitation program administrators, and modes of service delivery. Examines some of the personal factors that influence the delicate employer-attendant relationship, such as job satisfaction and personality characteristics. Makes recommendations for facilitating the use of PCAs. Includes 14 references.

Call No: J0536

Title PHYSICALLY DISABLED STUDENT'S RESIDENCE PROGRAM: UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, BERKELEY: 1962-1981: REHABILITATION GAZETTE VOL 24 1981, P 19

Author O'Hara, S

Institution Rehabilitation Gazette MO

Year 1981 C

Descriptors INDEPENDENT LIVING; UNIVERSITIES; STUDENTS; SEVERELY DISABLED; STATISTICS; ATTENDANT CARE

Abstract Describes and evaluates a university-based independent living program for severely disabled students. Initiated in the 1960's, the program now has served 115 persons. Participants live in university residence halls, assisted by a program coordinator and support staff. Staff acquaint participants with the attendant referral service, and assist with learning the campus and community, as well as any other needs. Includes statistics on participant employment, education, present living arrangement, and type of disability. Participants surveyed ranked independent living skills and attendant management as the most important benefits of the program.

Call No: J4827

Title PROFILE OF INHOME ATTENDANT CARE WORKERS: AMERICAN REHABILITATION NOV-DEC 1978, P 18-22

Author Hutchins, T K; et al

Institution Rehabilitation Services Administration DC

Year 1978

Descriptors ATTENDANT CARE

Abstract Examines characteristics and viewpoints of in-home attendant care workers. Describes attendant characteristics, identifies means for locating and recruiting attendants and develops ways of increasing the rewards and satisfactions and minimizing the problems inherent in attendant care work. Defines an attendant as a paid employee who regularly provides in-home care to adults having severe, permanent physical disabilities without mental impairment. Includes 25 references. Other authors: Thornock, M; Lindgre, B; Parks, J.

Call No: 03030

Title PROJECT THRESHOLD: A MODEL SYSTEM FOR DELIVERY OF REHABILITATION ENGINEERING SERVICES: ANNUAL REPORT: 1980

Author Somerville, N; Pendleton, H M

Institution Rancho Lost Amigos Hospital Rehabilitation Engineering Center CA

Source 56 p

Year 1980

Descriptors DAILY LIVING; REHABILITATION ENGINEERING CENTERS; ANNUAL REPORTS; FUNCTIONAL EVALUATION; ATTENDANT CARE; SERVICE DELIVERY

Abstract Annual progress report of the Project Threshold program for fiscal year 1979-1980. Describes the purpose of the program and direct client services regarding living/home evaluations and functional and site assessment of school/job; identification of problem areas in independent living and selection of adaptive equipment to increase the client's independence; assessment of functional skills in model homes and at the work site; development of counselor/client education programs and inservice training for allied health professionals; establishment of an information dissemination system on community resources and assistive devices; and consultation with other agencies serving disabled individuals. Describes the Project's process for determining problem areas and solutions; and the client interview, intake meeting, preparation for evaluation, report to the rehabilitation counselor and follow up. Provides a list of core staff, major supporting staff, and statistical documentation of client services provided from July 1979 to June 1980. Includes representative case studies of clients, photographs, tables, guidelines for attendant management and initial client interviews, a counselor evaluation form and definitions of terms regarding measurement criteria.

Call No: J0139

Title QUADS UNITE AGAINST DEPENDENCY: ACCENT ON LIVING VOL 26 NO 3 WINTER, 1981, P 78-85

Author Eisler, G

Source Bloomington, Illinois: Cheever Publishing

Year 1981 C

Descriptors QUADRIPLÉGIA; INDEPENDENT LIVING; HOUSING; ARCHITECTURE; ATTENDANT CARE; FUNDING

Abstract Presents information on QUAD House in Portland, Oregon including the personal story of Bud Myers, the impetus behind this 18 unit, 15,000 square foot apartment complex designed for quadriplegics. Myers organized Quadriplegics United Against Dependency (QUAD) so that he and other quadriplegics could live independently. The goal of QUAD House is to help quadriplegics regain independence so they can leave QUAD House and live on their own. Besides the specifically designed environment, there is nursing and attendant care and programs including peer counseling, stress and depression management, and attendant hiring and training. Information services about federal, state, and local agency programs are provided and residents are encouraged to pursue education or employment. Includes discussion of funding sources and photographs.

Call No: J4782

Title SELECTED FACTORS INFLUENCING JOB SATISFACTION OF ATTENDANTS OF PHYSICALLY DISABLED ADULTS: REHABILITATION LITERATURE VOL 42 NO 5-6 MAY-JUN 1981, P 130-137

Author Stelmach, M; et al

Institution National Easter Seal Society IL

Year 1981

Descriptors ATTENDANT CARE; JOB SATISFACTION

Abstract Identifies factors unique to attendant care work with physically disabled adults that may influence job satisfaction of attendants. Data collected from the interviews of forty attendants consisted of demographic information about the attendant and the disabled person for whom the attendant worked, job-related information, and job satisfaction ratings. Describes the significant positive relationship between the and the attendant's having had five or more previous attendant care jobs. Job satisfaction was also positively related to working with disabled adults requiring less than 25 hours per week of attendant care. Calls for further research to identify other factors affecting attendant care services, job dissatisfaction, and job turnover, in order to foster quality attendant care services. Includes 11 tables and 14 references. Other authors: Postma, J; Goldstein, S; Shepard, K F.

Call No: R1892

Title SEWCIL/VNA ATTENDANT CARE PROJECT: PERSONAL CARE ATTENDANT CURRICULUM AND DISABLED INDIVIDUAL CURRICULUM

Author Southeastern Wisconsin Center for Independent Living and Visiting Nurse Association of Milwaukee

Institution Southeastern Wisconsin Center for Independent Living and Visiting Nurse Association of Milwaukee WI

Source 118 p

Year 1981

Descriptors ATTENDANT CARE; CURRICULUM; TRAINING PROGRAMS; INTERPERSONAL RELATIONS; SURVEY FORMS

Abstract Outlines training programs for personal care attendants and disabled individuals who plan to live independently with the aid of an attendant. Attendant trained subject areas include introduction to independent living, attitudes and values regarding disabled persons, basics for care, use of mechanical devices, transfers and ambulation. The consumer curriculum outlines realities of working with are attendant, recruiting, interviewing and hiring, finances, home management, safety, food shopping and storage, teaching safety, attendant, communication and principles of teaching and learning. Both outlines include worksheets and self-survey forms.

Call No: 06894

Title STEP BY STEP GUIDE TO TRAINING AND MANAGING PERSONAL CARE ATTENDANTS

Author Ulciny, G R; Kennedy, S E; Jones, M L

Institution University of Kansas Vocational Rehabilitation Research and Training Center KS

Source 98 p

Year 1985 C

Descriptors ATTENDANT CARE; TRAINING; MANAGEMENT; HANDBOOKS; INDEPENDENT LIVING

Abstract Manual on training and managing one's own personal care attendants, intended for people with severe disabilities. Discusses needs assessment checklists and developing procedures to meet specific needs; hiring an attendant including advertising, screening, interviewing and emergency attendants; using the checklists for training and feedback; and supervision, management and pay, including Social Security and tax information. Includes information for attendants and for independent living specialists. Appendix includes sample checklists

Call No: 07022

Title STUDENT AIDES FOR HANDICAPPED COLLEGE STUDENTS: FINAL REPORT OF A PILOT STUDY OF THE USE OF STUDENT AIDES FOR THE PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED IN HIGHER EDUCATION

Author Urie, R M

Institution Saint Andrews Presbyterian College DC

Source 37 p

Year 1967

Descriptors DISABLED STUDENTS; UNIVERSITIES; ATTENDANT CARE; PILOT PROJECTS

Abstract Final summary of the pilot study covering the period from November 1, 1965, to February 28, 1967, to discover ways in which the disabled students at St Andrews Presbyterian College, Laurinburg, North Carolina, could best be served. Specifically the study was to provide sociological observation of physically disabled college students, evaluate the use of student aides as counselor assistants and document the student aide program. Includes tables and references. For final project report see NARIC CN 02007.

Call No: 02007

Title STUDENT AIDES FOR HANDICAPPED COLLEGE STUDENTS: FINAL REPORT: THE USE OF STUDENT AIDES TO THE PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED IN HIGHER EDUCATION
Author Saint Andrews Presbyterian College
Institution Saint Andrews Presbyterian College NC
Source 175P
Year 1971
Descriptors ATTENDANT CARE; STUDENTS; UNIVERSITIES
Abstract Describes project to determine whether the use of student aides to assist physically disabled students would result in satisfactory academic, physical, psychological, social and vocational adjustment for both groups. Includes study methodology and results of personality inventories, vocational interest tests, and attitude surveys. Also includes a manual "Student Aides for Physically Handicapped College Students," tables and questionnaires.

Call No: 04685

Title STUDENT AIDES FOR HANDICAPPED COLLEGE STUDENTS: RESEARCH BRIEF
Author Saint Andrews Presbyterian College
Institution Saint Andrews Presbyterian College NC
Source 3p
Year 1971
Descriptors ATTENDANT CARE; STUDENTS; UNIVERSITIES
Abstract Describes study to determine to what extent and how successfully a college could serve physically disabled students using student peers as aides. Lists implications for action.

Call No: 01570

Title STUDENT AIDS FOR HANDICAPPED COLLEGE STUDENTS: FINAL REPORT OF A PILOT STUDY OF THE USE OF STUDENT AIDS TO THE PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED IN HIGHER EDUCATION
Author Saint Andrews Presbyterian College
Institution Saint Andrews Presbyterian College NC
Source 36P
Year 1967
Descriptors UNIVERSITIES; STUDENTS; ATTENDANT CARE; PILOT PROJECTS
Abstract Describes a system of serving disabled college students by providing students as aides. The aide and disabled partner usually shared a dormitory room, and the aides were paid by the school for their services. States purpose and rationale of the project, methodology, results and conclusions. Appendices include a self concept scale, personality inventory and student grades and test scores.

Call No: J5356

Title SUMMARY OF FEDERAL FUNDING SOURCES FOR ATTENDANT CARE: PARPALEGIA NEWS VOL 40 NO 2 FEB 1986, P 24-25
Author Zukas, H
Institution Paralyzed Veterans of America DC
Year 1986 C
Descriptors ATTENDANT CARE; FUNDING
Abstract Presents a brief overview of the provisions for attendant care that are included in five federal programs: Medicare, Medicaid, the Social Services Block Grant, the Rehabilitation Act, and Title III of the Older American Act.

Call No: 07191

Title	TOWARD A NATIONAL POLICY ON ATTENDANT CARE: THE DUTCH BACKDROP: CONFERENCE SUMMARY REPORT: WASHINGTON DC MAR 20-21, 1985
Author	Nosek, M A
Institution	World Rehabilitation Fund NY
Source	17 p
Year	1985
Descriptors	CONFERENCES; ATTENDANT CARE; INTERNATIONAL REHABILITATION; SWEDEN; NETHERLANDS
Abstract	Summary of activities at a conference on attendant care to enable severely disabled people to live as independently as possible. Outlines practices in the Netherlands and Sweden and techniques used to fill the need for personal care assistance by people who have had polio in the US.

INFORMATION ABOUT ORDERING COPIES OF DOCUMENTS

NARIC can provide photocopies of NIHR/RSA-funded documents (CALL NUMBER starting with 0) or any other non-copyrighted items (those without the "C" designation). To calculate the total cost for this service, add the number of pages in each document (shown in the SOURCE line) and multiply by 10¢ per page.

To place a document order, please print the TITLE and CALL NUMBER for each item on the form provided below. For larger orders, attach a separate sheet. Send your check or purchase order (payable to CUA) to the following address:

NARIC/Document Delivery
4407 Eighth Street, NE
Washington, DC 20017

Please print:

TITLE	CALL NUMBER	PAGES
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Total pages _____

x .10

Total $ _____

SHIP TO:

Name/Title _____

Address: _____

Phone: () _____

Minimum order $5.

Price includes domestic shipping and handling and is effective through 10/31/86.