Dear Mr Frieden,

We are going to publish a Memorial of Mr Peter Chan, for circulation in August, at a booth in the exhibition of the RI Regional Conference in Hong Kong. It will be composed of photos and articles to reflect the richness of Peter's life, his personality, his style and the friendships he had won. As a good friend of Peter, you are invited to write an article on Peter. You may just drop a few lines or pages from your memory. You may send us photos too. The deadline will be 15th July, 1998. For editing purpose, please fax your article to me on 852-25421646, before you mail it to me at Room 904-8, Kai Tak Commercial Building, 317-9 Des Voeux Road Central, Hong Kong. For any further information, please call me at my office, tel. no. 852-25435678 or at home, tel. no. 852-25740452.

You are also welcomed to send your article or digital photos c/o Mr Joseph Kwok's e-mail: ssjk@cityu.edu.hk .

Please also be informed that last year we had set up the "CHAN FUK SING Memorial Trust Fund for Rehabilitation", in memory of Peter's selfless contribution and life long effort fighting for the well being of persons with disabilities.

We believe that the story of Peter is a shining example of how a person with disability can overcome handicapping environment to achieve a higher goal in life. Let's capture those unforgettable moments with him in his Memorial!

Yours sincerely,

Rosaline and George.

Dear Lex:

Please find attached a copy of the full grant proposal on the proposed collaboration between RTC/IL and ILRU for the Disability Research Information Center. The grant went out to the KCI FEDEX drop-off at 9:00 p.m. on Friday.

Our original target for the fine editing was Monday July 6th, but we were still at it on Friday morning the 10th. In spite of this delay, our product, I believe, was not compromised. As you might expect, during the 8th, 9th, and 10th things were a bit tense and fatigue had pretty well set in for all those concerned with the proposal. I want to extend my thanks to you and your fine team (Laurel Richards, Carrie George, Quentin Smith, and Roxy Funchess).

I would also like to acknowledge the folks here at RTC/IL who helped make this proposal possible through literature reviews, writing, critiquing materials, proofing, assembling the grant, and sending it out. These include, Pam Willits, Ken Golden, Lori Reasoner, Ann Branstetter, Kirsten Larson, Mandy Goodnight, Dot Nary, Katherine Froehlich, Mike Bultena, Susan Parker-Price, Judith Galas, Brad Rinke, Jim Budde, and myself. The exciting thing for me was that many of these folks are not directly associated with the grant in terms of activities or possible financial gain, and yet they worked hard to ensure that a quality application went out the door. The esprit de corps that is gained by our respective teams working on such a project as this is invaluable. I look forward to that same working spirit with the ILRU team in the future.

Jim Budde will keep you posted on the results from this competition. In my discussions with Donna Nangle from NIDRR, she noted that all of these grants have to be awarded and out the door from NIDRR by September 30th, so they are on a fast track for reviewing and beating the budget deadline. That is good news for a change! Please call if you have any questions.

With best wishes,
