A BILL

To authorize assistance for the people of Afghanistan, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SHORT TITLE

SECTION 1. This Act may be cited as the "Afghanistan Recovery Act of 1989".

STATEMENT OF POLICY AND FINDINGS

SEC. 2. (a) The Congress finds as follows:

(1) the departure of the Armed Forces of the Soviet Union from Afghanistan marks first and foremost a victory for the people of Afghanistan to restore freedom to their land;

(2) the departure of Soviet troops is also a manifestation of a new relationship between the United States and the Soviet Union which the Congress hopes will be translated into the resolution of regional conflicts elsewhere in the world;

(3) the Government of Pakistan is to be commended for its unflinching economic, political, and moral support for Afghan refugees forced to flee to Pakistan;

(4) Afghan refugees currently living outside their homeland continue to suffer from the deprivations caused by years of fighting for the freedom of that homeland; and

(5) the years of fighting have also left Afghanistan in economic ruin, with those now living in Afghanistan and refugees who are returning to their country in immediate need of support to rebuild their lives and their country.

(b) It is the policy of the United States that it will provide humanitarian assistance, as well as support for the humanitarian efforts of multilateral programs, to help the Afghan people bring about their resettlement and the reconstruction of their country.

USES OF FUNDS AND AUTHORITIES

SEC. 3. (a) The President is authorized to use the funds made available pursuant to 4 of this Act for relief, recovery, and reconstruction assistance for the Afghan people in accordance with the statement of findings and policy of this Act. Assistance under this section shall be provided for humanitarian purposes and such assistance shall include, generally, a continuation and expansion of the activities authorized under section 537 of the Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs Appropriations Act, 1989 (Public Law 100-461), including-

- (1) the provision of food, medicines, fuel, transportation assets, and other commodities,
- (2) the provision of health services,
- (3) the provision of seed, fertilizer, and other agricultural implements and traction,
- (4) support for the reconstruction of infrastructure, including assistance in clearing the land mines, and

(5) such other assistance as may be consistent with the purposes of this Act.

(b) Assistance provided under this Act shall be made available in accordance with the policies and general authorities contained in section 491 of the Foreign Assistance Act of 1961, as amended.

(c) Funds transferred under the authority contained in section 4 of this Act may also be used for the operating expenses of the Agency for International Development to meet the necessary administrative expenses to carry out this Act.

(d) To the extent practicable, local currencies which may accrue as a result of the assistance provided under the authority of this Act should be used to carry out the purposes of this Act.

SOURCE OF FUNDS

SEC. 4. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the President is authorized to transfer, for purposes of this Act, from any department or agency to the Agency for International Development, any funds, commodities, or services currently available for Afghanistan or which may later become available for Afghanistan.

(b) Funds transferred pursuant to the authority of this section shall remain available for obligation until expended. No funds made available pursuant to this Act may be obligated after September 30, 1994, unless the President determines that to do so is in the national interest of the United States.

CONSULTATION

SEC. 5. Not later than March 1, 1990, and each year thereafter, the designated representatives of the President shall initiate consultations with the appropriate Committees of the Congress to review the worldwide humanitarian assistance program for Afghanistan and the role that the United States assistance is having in meeting the objectives of this Act.
