Summary of Conclusions

It was agreed that:

- the temporary ban on spending the $7 million to support both the ANS and the KPNLF with food and medical supplies should be immediately lifted. (S)
- Congressional allies of the Administration (i.e. Solarz and Robb) should be informed that, after careful examination of all the evidence, we feel that no Presidential determination is currently required, and that the $7 million should presently be spent. (S)

- In order to minimize Congressional opposition to spending the remaining $13 million, A.I.D. and State should provide a plan for using a PVO to conduct the required assessment -- without sending U.S.G. personnel into Phnom Penh-controlled areas of Cambodia. (S)
- If in the future we receive reliable information that the anti-NCR/KR cooperation law is being broken, we will cut off assistance to those involved in the same. (S)

Summary of Conclusions

It was agreed that:

- the temporary ban on spending the $7 million to support both the ANS and the KPNLF with food and medical supplies should be immediately lifted. (S)
- Congressional allies of the Administration (i.e. Solarz and Robb) should be informed that, after careful examination of all the evidence, we feel that no Presidential determination is currently required, and that the $7 million should presently be spent. (S)

- In order to minimize Congressional opposition to spending the remaining $13 million, A.I.D. and State should provide a plan for using a PVO to conduct the required assessment -- without sending U.S.G. personnel into Phnom Penh-controlled areas of Cambodia. (S)
- If in the future we receive reliable information that the anti-NCR/KR cooperation law is being broken, we will cut off assistance to those involved in the same. (S)
