Re: Disposition of Reagan Administration Policy Papers

Your memorandum of September 13, 1990 was received by the Department of Justice on October 18, 1990, which explains the delay in our response.

We have reviewed the attached lists of National Security Decision Directives and find the characterizations of these directives to be consistent with our files. We have no comments to offer with respect to the lists.

MEMORANDUM FOR WILLIAM W. WORKING

FROM: WILLIAM F. SITTMANN

SUBJECT: Review of Reagan Administration Policy Papers

Secretariat is conducting a review of active National Security Decision Directives (NSDDs) from the Reagan Administration. The purpose of this review is to determine which directives should be removed from active status due to changing circumstances since the directives were issued. Please review the attached list of NSDDs and update the status of each directive as necessary. The three possible status options (plus a comment field) are described below:

Active	-	The NSDD reflects current policy or describes actions that have not yet been completed.
Implemented	-	Policy reflected in the NSDD has been completed.
Superseded	-	Policy reflected in the NSDD has been superseded or revised in a subsequent policy document. Identify the new document by its directive number.
Comment	-	This area is provided for any other comments you wish to give relating to the status of the directive.

Robert Gerry is providing Secretariat support for this project. He will be available to answer questions and provide copies of requested NSDDs for your review. Your cooperation in completing this project is vital in our effort to provide clear, concise, and up-to-date policy guidance to the executive agencies of the Bush Administration.

MEMORANDUM FOR RICHARD C. BARTH

FROM: WILLIAM F. SITTMANN

SUBJECT: Review of Reagan Administration Policy Papers

Secretariat is conducting a review of active National Security Decision Directives (NSDDs) from the Reagan Administration. The purpose of this review is to determine which directives should be removed from active status due to changing circumstances since the directives were issued. Please review the attached list of NSDDs and update the status of each directive as necessary. The three possible status options (plus a comment field) are described below:

Active	-	The NSDD reflects current policy or describes actions that have not yet been completed.
Implemented	-	Policy reflected in the NSDD has been completed.
Superseded	-	Policy reflected in the NSDD has been superseded or revised in a subsequent policy document. Identify the new document by its directive number.
Comment	-	This area is provided for any other comments you wish to give relating to the status of the directive.

Robert Gerry is providing Secretariat support for this project. He will be available to answer questions and provide copies of requested NSDDs for your review. DP--

After 2/3 weeks ago, Robert Gerry handcarried up a folder in which it was requested that you review the NSDDs mentioned to determine if they needed to be updated, etc.

The NSDDs were not attached to this package.

The attached are the two NSDDs that are mentioned in the previous package described above.

Robert Gerry needs these returned to him marked with your druthers.
