RE:

Invitation

I would appreciate it if you could arrange for Paul McNeill to come to the Christmas party with the rest of the Office of Communications staff on December 12, 1990. Paul has joined our staff since the list came to you for the invitations. At the present time he is on "permanent loan" from the Office of Correspondence until the hiring freeze is lifted.

Thank you for your help with this matter.

RE: STAFF GUEST LISTS/DECEMBER CHRISTMAS PARTIES

The President and Mrs. Bush will be hosting six evening Christmas parties this year, and I would like to begin assembling the guest lists for them as soon as possible. I am requesting that each of you submit to my office, the names, titles, marital status, office addresses, and office telephone numbers, of those members of your staff you believe should be included in these evening receptions. I would like to receive your lists no later than Friday, November 13, 1992.

While compiling your guest lists, please remember that we are limited in the numbers we can invite; you may want to refer to the list you submitted last year. (A copy is enclosed for your reference.) In putting your lists together, you and your staff should be aware this is your list of "suggested" guests. For those senior staff who may share the supervision of various offices, please cross-reference your lists to avoid duplication. You should work closely with the Deputy Assistants on your staffs to insure no one is omitted. Finally, I want to emphasize my desire to work with each of you in extending these invitations in as fairly a manner as possible.

Thank you for your cooperation and assistance.

MEMORANDUM TO ALL ASSISTANTS TO THE PRESIDENT/OFFICE DIRECTORS

FROM: LAURIE FIRESTONE LF SOCIAL SECRETARY, X7064

RE: ENCLOSED INVITATIONS TO CHRISTMAS RECEPTIONS

Enclosed, are the invitations from the President and Mrs. Bush to each of your staff members for this year's Christmas receptions. Thank you for distributing these for us.

It would be extremely helpful if you designated someone in your office to collect the RSVP's for your staff and submit them to me in writing. (Because of the large number of guests being invited, this will eliminate the frustration of trying to get through our RSVP phone line.) Security (DOB AND SS#) is not required for spouses of White House passholders, but their full, legal name is needed. Security is required for unmarried guests of passholders.

Because of the many guests the President and Mrs. Bush hope to include in their last Christmas season at the White House, please discourage your staff from making requests for additions or special requests. The receptions begin at 6:30 p.m. and all guests should arrive via the Visitors Center on East Executive Avenue. (Parking is very limited on the avenue.) Thank you for your cooperation, and we would appreciate receiving your list of responses as soon as possible.

RE: STAFF GUEST LISTS/DECEMBER CHRISTMAS PARTIES

The President and Mrs. Bush will be hosting six evening Christmas parties this year. Because of the President's schedule, I would like to begin assembling the guest lists for these parties as soon as possible. I am requesting that each of you submit to my office, the names, titles, marital status, office addresses, and office telephone numbers, of those members of your staff you believe should be included in these evening receptions. I would like to receive your lists no later than Friday, November 15, 1991.

While compiling your guest lists, please remember that we are limited in the numbers we can invite; you may want to refer to the list you submitted last year. In putting your lists together, remember that this is your list of "suggested" guests and I would appreciate your reminding all of your staff of this. For those senior staff who may share the supervision of various offices, please cross-reference your lists to avoid duplication. You should work closely with the Deputy Assistants on your staffs to insure no one is omitted. Finally, I want to emphasize my desire to work with each of you in extending these invitations in as fairly a manner as possible.

Thank you for your cooperation and assistance.
