RE: Directory

Jean, will you get this to the proper people so this list can be corrected. If you will notice, there are several discrepancies in the list that we turned in and the one that was printed.

We would really appreciate it if in the future they would send up a copy for us to proof before it goes to print. It would save a lot of knashing of teeth and hard feelings.

I would also like to know when these corrections will be made. As you can tell, I have some very unhappy people. Thank you for your help with this matter.

PRESIDENTIAL VIDEO: ADDRESS TO DOLE FOUNDATION EVENT

Good evening. Tomorrow is the first anniversary of the day I signed the Americans with Disabilities Act. I'm proud to celebrate this anniversary with you because the Dole Foundation was committed to the goals of this bill long before it became law.

As the only foundation dedicated solely to the employment of people with disabilities, for the past eight years you have led the private sector in raising the awareness of the business community to the talents -- and the potential -- of this sadly underutilized segment of the American workforce.

What a difference you have made. You have touched the lives of individuals and awakened the conscience of a nation. This is the spirit I have in mind when I talk about points of light. Tonight I'm pleased to salute your corporate, foundation and individual donors. Your support over the years has enabled the Foundation to give over $3.3 million in grants. And we salute the creation of the Funding Partnership for People with Disabilities.

And tonight I'm particularly pleased to honor a good man, a good friend, who inspires personally and professionally. Bob Dole once said about his accident: "Doors have been closed, but windows opened." Bob: you have opened windows of opportunity for every American regardless of disability. You have set a challenge to your nation: to provide equal opportunity for all. Thank you.

And congratulations to all of you Dole Foundation supporters -- thank you for your vision and commitment. God bless you all.
