RE: December 18, 1990 Mess Charges

Attached, please find the proper documentation for event held on December 18, 1990. The Office of Media Relations, at that time, in the Office of Communications held a Conference for Regional Press and a luncheon in the Indian Treaty room. The charge for this was $1800.00 and is proper for payment.

I do not believe that the charge of $360.00 on the same day should be assigned to Office of Communications. This was a luncheon for African-American Editors. The President did attend this luncheon. I have attached the list of attendees for the event.

My apologies for my tardiness. This is the first time that I have been able to get everyone together to put together the details since the first invoice arrived. If you have further questions, please call.

Thank you for your help and patience.
