REMARKS: CENTENNIAL OF THE STATE OF MONTANA
HELENA, MONTANA
SEPTEMBER 18, 1989
1:20 P.M.

THANK YOU. GOVERNOR STAN STEPHENS FOR THAT KIND INTRODUCTION, AND THANK YOU LT. GOVERNOR KOLSTAD AND MAYOR RITTER FOR YOUR WARM WELCOME. ITS WONDERFUL TO SEE SO MANY GOOD FRIENDS LIKE YOUR GREAT SENATOR CONRAD BURNS, FLOYD MARTEN, CHUCK HERINGER, AND BARBARA CAMPBELL. AND, OF COURSE, OUR OUTSTANDING EPA ADMINISTRATOR BILL REILLY. AND LET ME SAY TO EVERYONE GATHERED HERE AND TO ALL THE PEOPLE OF MONTANA, IT'S A PLEASURE TO BE BACK IN THIS GREAT STATE. HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

AND YOU'RE CERTAINLY CELEBRATING YOUR 100TH IN STYLE. I HAVE TO TELL YOU I WAS IMPRESSED WITH YOUR CENTENNIAL CATTLE DRIVE. NEARLY 3000 CATTLE, 60 MILES IN 6 DAYS.... MAYBE I CAN GET A FEW DROVERS TO COME BACK WITH ME TO WASHINGTON. THERE'S A HERD BACK ON CAPITOL HILL I'D LIKE TO MOVE IN MY DIRECTION.
[[PAUSE]]

THIS IS MY FIRST VISIT TO MONTANA SINCE THE CAMPAIGN -- AND SINCE I STARTED MY NEW JOB. NOVEMBER 8TH WAS A BIG DAY FOR ME IN 1988 -- AND I KNOW IT'S THE BIG DAY FOR ALL MONTANANS IN 1989.

YOU KNOW, I'VE COME A LONG WAY TODAY FROM PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE. BUT HERE I AM -- STANDING ON CAPITOL HILL -- JUST A MILE AWAY FROM LAST CHANCE GULCH. [[PAUSE]] MAYBE I HAVEN'T LEFT HOME AFTER ALL.

BUT IT IS GOOD TO BE BACK UNDER THE BIG SKY. LOOKING OUT AT THE SLEEPING GIANT, WITH YOUR HISTORIC STATEHOUSE -- A MARVEL OF MONTANA GRANITE, SANDSTONE AND COPPER -- STANDING AT MY BACK. YOU CAN FEEL THE HISTORY OF MONTANA -- ITS LAND AND ITS PEOPLE.

AND I'VE HEARD THERE'S A 5-POUND TROUT WAITING FOR ME UP IN THE BOB. I DON'T KNOW WHETHER YOU'VE HEARD ABOUT THE FISH SHORTAGE UP IN MAINE THIS SUMMER. [[PAUSE]] ANYWAY, IT'S NOT A PROBLEM HERE, SINCE I HEAR MONTANA'S GOT 896 "CATCHABLE" FISH PER SQUARE MILE. [[PAUSE]] NOW I KNOW WHY I HAD SO MUCH TROUBLE CATCHING A FISH UP IN KENNEBUNKPORT. THEY'RE ALL IN MONTANA. [[PAUSE]]

MONTANA'S CONTRIBUTED A GREAT DEAL IN THE HUNDRED YEARS SINCE IT BECAME A STATE: ALONG WITH ITS GOLD, COPPER AND ORE -- MONTANA'S GIVEN OUR NATION A SENSE OF ITS OWN PIONEERING DESTINY. THERE'S SOMETHING ABOUT SPACES SO VAST YOU CAN SEE THE CURVE OF THE EARTH. WHAT ENCOURAGEMENT IT GIVES US TO SEE THE FUTURE AS AN UNLIMITED HORIZON.

I SPENT THIS MORNING IN YOUR NEIGHBOR STATE OF SOUTH DAKOTA, WHICH IS CELEBRATING ITS OWN CENTENNIAL THIS YEAR. YOU'VE GOT A LOT IN COMMON OUT IN THIS PART OF THE COUNTRY. A CAN-DO ATTITUDE, A FAITH IN HARD WORK -- AND A STRAIGHT-FORWARD LOVE OF NATURE AND THE LAND WE LIVE IN.

THIS MORNING, I SPOKE IN SIOUX FALLS ABOUT A COMMON CONCERN OF ALL OF OURS: THE ENVIRONMENT -- ABOUT THE NEED TO AWAKEN A NEW SPIRIT OF ENVIRONMENTALISM ACROSS AMERICA.

HERE IN MONTANA, I KNOW THAT SPIRIT EXISTS. THIS GREAT STATE WAS ONCE THE SCENE OF AN EPIC BATTLE -- MAN AGAINST NATURE. TOO OFTEN, THE ONLY QUESTION THAT MATTERED WAS WHAT MAN COULD TAKE FROM THE EARTH -- NOT HOW WE LEFT IT, OR WHAT WE PUT BACK.

WELL, NO MORE. TIMES HAVE CHANGED. THE CONSERVATION ETHIC RUNS DEEP HERE. IN THE PAST TWO DECADES, MONTANA HAS ENACTED SOME OF THE MOST ADVANCED ENVIRONMENTAL STATUTES IN ALL OF THE 50 STATES. THE CITIZENS OF THE BIG SKY STATE UNDERSTAND IT'S NOT MAN AGAINST NATURE -- IT'S MAN AND NATURE. MONTANANS HAVE MADE A DECISION NEVER TO LET ENVIRONMENTAL EXPLOITATION GO UNCHECKED. WE CAN HAVE A SOUND ECOLOGY AND A STRONG ECONOMY.

THE NATION -- AND THE WORLD -- CAN LEARN FROM YOUR EXAMPLE. AND WE MUST LEARN. THE SINGLE MOST SIGNIFICANT WORD TODAY IN THE LANGUAGE OF ALL ENVIRONMENTALISTS IS: INTERDEPENDENCE.

THAT'S A FACT ALL MONTANANS SHOULD FIND IT EASY TO APPRECIATE. NOT SO MANY MILES FROM WHERE WE STAND IS A SPOT CALLED THE TRIPLE DIVIDE, WHERE THE WATERS BEGIN THEIR SEPARATE JOURNEYS TO THE PACIFIC, TO THE GULF OF MEXICO, TO THE HUDSON BAY AND THE ARCTIC BEYOND -- THE EARTH'S OWN GEOGRAPHY LESSON IN GLOBAL INTERDEPENDENCE.

THE PLAIN FACT IS THIS: POLLUTION CAN'T BE CONTAINED BY LINES DRAWN ON A MAP. THE ACTIONS WE TAKE CAN HAVE CONSEQUENCES FELT THE WORLD OVER. THE DESTRUCTION OF THE RAINFORESTS IN BRAZIL. THE RAVAGES OF ACID RAIN, THAT THREATEN NOT JUST OUR COUNTRY BUT OUR NEIGHBORS TO THE NORTH -- AND NOT JUST THE EAST BUT THE LAKES AND FORESTS OF THE WEST AS WELL. THE MILLIONS OF TONS OF AIRBORNE POLLUTANTS CARRIED ACROSS THE CONTINENTS, AND THE THREAT OF GLOBAL WARMING: WE KNOW NOW THAT PROTECTING THE ENVIRONMENT IS A GLOBAL ISSUE. THE NATIONS OF THE WORLD MUST MAKE COMMON CAUSE IN DEFENSE OF OUR ENVIRONMENT. AND I PROMISE YOU: THIS NATION WILL TAKE THE LEAD.

HERE IN MONTANA, YOU'RE ALREADY TAKING THE LEAD WITH YOUR COMMITMENT TO THE ENVIRONMENT -- LED BY EVERY SCHOOLCHILD IN THIS STATE WHO'S PLANTED A PONDEROSA PINE TO COMMEMORATE 100 YEARS OF HISTORY. IN JUST A FEW MINUTES, I'LL BE PLANTING A TREE OF MY OWN -- AND LET ME SAY FROM THE HEART: THERE'S NO FINER SYMBOL OF THE LOVE EACH ONE OF US FEELS FOR THIS LAND THAN A TREE GROWING UP IN MONTANA'S GOOD EARTH. [[PAUSE]]

WE'RE WORKING HARD TO CLEAN UP AMERICA. BUT WE CAN'T STOP THERE. WE'VE GOT TO WORK WITH THE REST OF THE WORLD TO PRESERVE THE PLANET.

WE'RE ALREADY TAKING ACTION. TO PRESERVE THE OZONE LAYER, WE'RE GOING TO BAN ALL RELEASE OF CFCS INTO THE ATMOSPHERE BY THE YEAR 2000. TO PREVENT POLLUTION OF THE WORLD'S OCEANS, WE'RE GOING TO END VIRTUALLY ALL OCEAN DUMPING OF SEWAGE AND INDUSTRIAL WASTES BY 1991. AFTER THAT, ANYONE WHO CONTINUES TO POLLUTE IS GOING TO PAY FOR IT -- WITH STIFF FINES.

AND WE'RE GOING TO JOIN FORCES WITH OTHER NATIONS AS WELL. IN FEBRUARY, THE UNITED STATES WILL HOST THE PLENARY MEETING OF THE INTERGOVERNMENTAL PANEL ON CLIMATE CHANGE. IN JULY, WHEN I VISITED POLAND AND HUNGARY, I PLEDGED AMERICA'S HELP IN TACKLING THE INCREASINGLY SERIOUS POLLUTION PROBLEMS THOSE TWO NATIONS FACE. AT THE PARIS ECONOMIC SUMMIT, WE HELPED THE ENVIRONMENT ACHIEVE THE STATUS IT DESERVES -- AT THE TOP OF THE AGENDA FOR THE SEVEN MAJOR INDUSTRIAL DEMOCRACIES. AND I MEAN TO KEEP IT THERE.

AMERICA SPENDS MORE THAN ANY OTHER NATION IN THE WORLD ON ENVIRONMENTAL RESEARCH. WE'RE GOING TO CONTINUE THIS PIONEERING EFFORT TO PROTECT THE ENVIRONMENT -- AND PUT THAT ENVIRONMENTAL EXPERTISE TO WORK IN THE DEVELOPING WORLD AS WELL. WE CAN'T POLLUTE TODAY AND POSTPONE THE CLEAN-UP UNTIL TOMORROW. WE'VE GOT TO MAKE POLLUTION PREVENTION OUR AIM -- AND SHARING OUR EXPERTISE WITH THE WORLD IS ONE WAY TO DO IT.

TODAY, I WANT TO ANNOUNCE A NEW ENVIRONMENTAL INTIATIVE --ONE THAT WILL BRING THE ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY AND THE PEACE CORPS TOGETHER IN A JOINT VENTURE IN THE SERVICE OF THE GLOBAL ENVIRONMENT. BEGINNING IN 1990, AS PART OF THEIR STANDARD PREPARATION FOR DUTY, PEACE CORPS VOLUNTEERS WILL BE TRAINED BY THE EPA TO DEAL WITH A FULL RANGE OF ENVIRONMENTAL CHALLENGES: WATER POLLUTION PREVENTION. WASTE DISPOSAL. REFORESTATION. PESTICIDE MANAGEMENT.

ARMED WITH GREATER KNOWLEDGE ABOUT OUR ENVIRONMENT, OUR PEACE CORPS VOLUNTEERS ARE GOING TO HELP SPREAD THE WORD IN THE DEVELOPING WORLD. THEY'LL WORK TO STOP POLLUTION BEFORE IT STARTS -- AND ENSURE THAT ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AND ENVIRONMENTAL STEWARDSHIP GO HAND IN HAND.

AND MONTANANS KNOW MORE THAN MOST HOW MUCH THAT MEANS. HOW VITAL IT IS FOR US TO ACCEPT OUR RESPONSIBILITIES -- OUR STEWARDSHIP -- OF THE ENVIRONMENT. IN MONTANA, ACROSS AMERICA AND AROUND THE WORLD: WE HOLD THIS LAND IN TRUST FOR THE GENERATIONS THAT COME AFTER. THE AIR AND THE EARTH ARE RICHES WE SIMPLY CANNOT SQUANDER.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO, MONTANA WAS A LAND WHERE MAN SOUGHT THE TREASURE THAT LAY BENEATH THE EARTH. TODAY, IT'S THE LAND ITSELF WE TREASURE -- A LIVING LEGACY WE MUST PRESERVE, AND PASS ALONG. ONE HUNDRED YEARS FROM NOW, ON THE BICENTENNIAL OF THIS GREAT STATE, WE WANT OUR CHILDRENS' GREAT GRAND-CHILDREN TO ENJOY THE NATURAL WONDERS THAT ABOUND ACROSS MONTANA TODAY -- FROM GLACIER DOWN TO YELLOWSTONE AND OUT TO THE GREAT PLAINS. WE WANT TO KNOW THAT -- ONE HUNDRED YEARS FROM NOW -- THE LEGACY WILL LIVE ON.

THANK YOU ALL FOR COMING OUT TO GIVE ME SUCH A WARM WELCOME. GOD BLESS YOU. AND MAY GOD BLESS THE STATE OF MONTANA, AND BRING IT ANOTHER HUNDRED YEARS OF HAPPINESS.

Official Guide to Centennial Events

THIS CENTENNIAL GUIDE includes a listing of scheduled events, Centennial Affiliates, Chambers of Commerce, telephone numbers. CALL LISTED NUMBERS to confirm events, dates, times.

Of special interest are the many reunions and special events taking place in small communities everywhere across the state. Attending these will give one a special sense of Montana and its people, who pride themselves on having the fourth highest literacy rate in the nation and the fourth lowest school dropout rate.

Some years ago in his book Inside U.S.A., author John Gunther described Montana as "a splendid, various, and exciting state. It illustrates, once again, the stupefying vastness and variety of the United States, its overwhelming sense of power, spaciousness, uncurable vitality..."

This Centennial Year promises to be a once-in-a-lifetime adventure and the best possible time to visit Big Sky Country and the Land of the Shining Mountains.

"Waking up on a fall morning in [Montana] is just as near going to heaven as any earthly experience can be."

—Elliott C. Lincoln

"No land has ever been more avid for its own history than Montana. Montana had a Historical Society organized and collecting dues and materials while many of the pioneers were still using the covered wagons they had arrived in."

—Dan Cushman

MONTANA'S CENTENNIAL

ON NOVEMBER 8, 1889, President Harrison issued the proclamation by which Montana Territory became the forty-first state. While Montana first sought statehood as early as 1865, it took more than 20 years before Congress was willing to put Montana's star on the American Flag. By 1888, Helena, enjoying a gold-rush boom, had over 700 millionaires, more per capita than any other city in the world. One hundred years later Montana's 147,000 square miles house few millionaires, but each square mile holds 1.4 elk or antelope, 3.3 deer, 896 catchable-sized fish, and one person. The states of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, and New Jersey would all fit into Montana with room to spare. First the expansive homeland for many Native American tribes, Montana has seen many changes, from early fur-trading to gold-rush days, from the days of the "Copper Kings" and the coming of the railroads, to the logger, cattleman, the homesteader.

The Montana Centennial is really a grassroots venture to honor all those from the past, celebrate the present, look forward into the future.

CATTLE DRIVE MAP

On September 4, 1989 the Great Montana Centennial Cattle Drive will begin in Roundup, Montana and end in Billings. The drive follows the trail designated on the map (see adjacent map). The drive, approximately sixty miles long will travel ten miles a day. On the final day the cattle will cross the Yellowstone River.

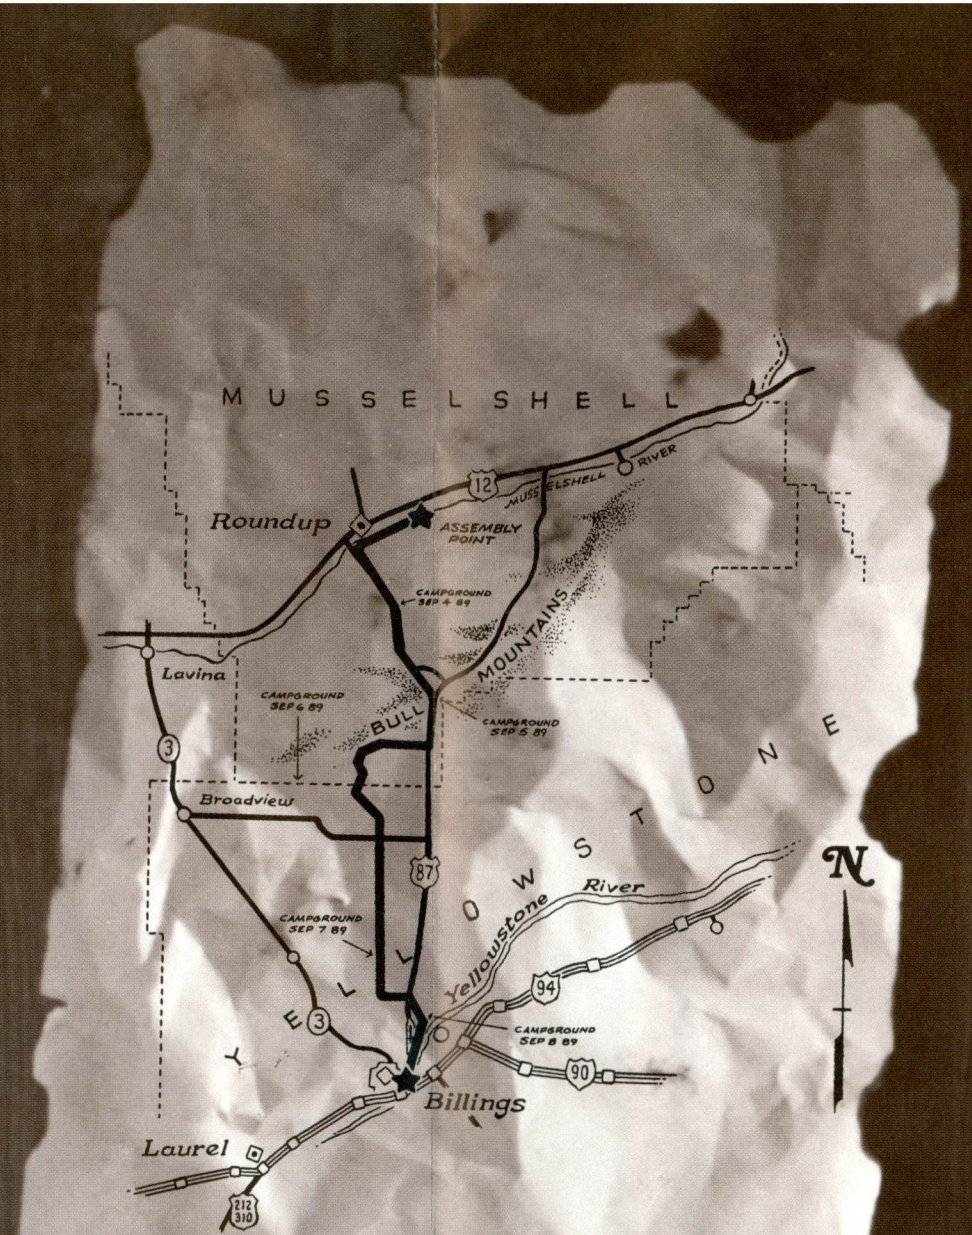

VIEWING THE DRIVE

The ideal place to view the drive would be in Roundup on September 4th. There would also be great viewing along Hwy 87, north of Billings, on September 8th and 9th.

On Saturday, September 9th, Billings Heights will host the final day of the drive when all cowboys, wagons and riders will parade down Main Street.

The citizens of our communities invite you to a real western experience. We have planned many events in our cities and towns. You are sure to find a real western welcome. Be sure to look at the many events listed below that will be taking place around the time of the drive.

A Stan Lynde Cattle Drive Map poster is available to purchase for $5 by sending check or money order to: Latigo Office, P.O. Box 1989B, Billings, Montana 59101 or calling (406) 245-2655.

CATTLE DRIVE ACTIVITIES

As of March 1, 1989

HELLO, FRIENDS!

Thanks for your interest in the Drive of '89. Probably the most important thing is to let everyone know that the Drive is a major event that is being planned especially to honor the cattle industry in Montana. We're fixin' to start from Roundup, Montana, on Labor Day, September 4, of 1989 with a herd of up to 10,000 head of cattle and riders from every corner of the Treasure State and throughout the country.

The drive is expected to cover about ten miles a day through some of the most colorful cattle country anywhere, with wagons circled each night for feeding, conversation, and entertainment. Sleeping is optional, but recommended.

As organizers, we're doing our best to provide for the needs of every man, woman, child, and critter on the drive, from medical, veterinary and security teams to good food. Food will be provided either by the participants or bought from community kitchens.

The punchers who actually move the herd will be served by their own wagons. Hot water, if any, may be of solar type, that's not guaranteed.

Speaking of providing for needs, the modern day cousins of the old, beloved outhouse will be provided.

This drive will not be of the Hollywood cowboy school, but rather a 1989 drive which will honor and pay tribute to all the great drives of the past. We can't imagine why anybody in their right mind would want to wear a baseball cap, tennis shoes, hunter orange, a T-shirt, tank top, sunsuit and such, but we're outlawin' 'em just in case. Also no boom boxes or nylon pop-up tents. You get the idea. Motorized vehicles will not be allowed within sight, and no dogs, motorized or not, will be allowed.

We're encouraging folks who have 'em to put longhorns in the drive (there are already hundreds consigned). After all, those old mossy backs' greatgranddads helped start the cow business in Montana. Community cattle branding has been taking place since last spring and will continue during this year. The earlier the brand is on the hide the better the tanning process. The M-89 brand will be retired after the September '89 drive. Arrangements could be made to have the hides tanned so that those who want 'em will have a permanent memento of the Drive of '89.

Several days before the drive, in every part of the state, ranch people and their families will be busy getting their stock ready to join the herd at Roundup. Cattle entered in the drive—no calves, please—will be branded with the centennial brand, checked for general health by local vets, cleared by the brand inspector. As the pre-drive excitement gets rollin', it will be time for get-togethers with friends and neighbors, and for barbecues and parties.

The end result of the money realized by entry fees, commercial sponsorships, film rights, and product sales will be for the benefit of the Montana Community Foundation endowment, with the earnings designated to help in the education of Montana youth.

We hope this covers most of your questions, but if we've missed some, feel free to call or write us: Latigo Corporation, P.O. Box 1989B, Billings, MT 59101. Phone: 406-245-2655.

The Great Montana Cattle Drive has the support of the communities and cities surrounding or near the Cattle Drive route. Events are being planned in Laurel, Hardin, Red Lodge, Roundup, and Billings that will range from daily rodeos, ice cream socials, and pitch fork barbecues to Western Poetry readings, historic plays and costumed balls.

The Official MONTANA Centennial 1889-1989 Medals

IN BRONZE

CELEBRATE MONTANA'S CENTENNIAL

The Commemorative Bronze Medals

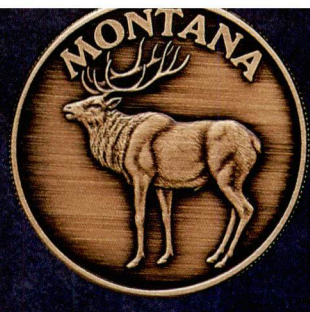

These 40 millimeter bronze medals were designed by Montana artist Frank Hagel. Each medal depicts a historical theme and an animal representing Montana's rich and diverse heritage. These outstanding medals offer a tribute to Montana's past and an heirloom to hand down to future generations. These bronze medals will be limited to the number minted on or before December 31, 1989.

Don't miss out on this once-in-100 years opportunity to collect these beautiful medals, individually or as sets.

PIONEER FAMILY/GRIZZLY

The pioneer families were people of great strength, determination and courage who represented an enthusiastic hope for Montana's future. Depicted on the reverse of this medal is the grizzly bear, whose kingdom began to change with the arrival of the white man.

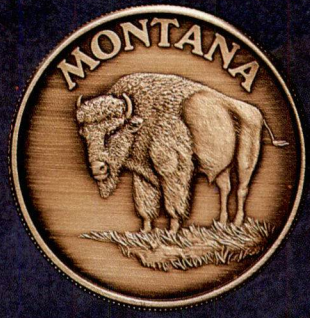

THE TRAPPER/ELK

The mountain men who helped map out the West were rugged, independent adventurers who explored and trapped in the Montana wilderness. The elk, one of Montana's most prized big game animals, is on the reverse of this medal.

THE RAILROAD/MOUNTAIN GOAT

The coming of the railroad helped create prosperous times and laid the groundwork for Montana's statehood in 1889. The mountain goat, found on the reverse of this medal, is at home in Montana's rugged terrain.

NATIVE AMERICANS/BUFFALO

As our state's earliest residents, Native Americans have provided important cultural and social contributions to Montana's history. On the reverse of this medal is the buffalo, so numerous in the mid-1880s that westbound travelers reported herds they could not see across.

THE COWBOY/MOOSE

The cowboy has always been one of Montana's favorite heroes and will forever be a reminder of adventure and romance in our past. On the reverse of this medal is the moose, which inhabits the mountain ranges of western and central Montana.

A TREASURE BOX

This distinctive wood treasure box is made in Montana and is available for the medals and can also serve as a gift box. This large presentation case holds the set of five bronze medals.

Official Guide to Centennial Events

THIS CENTENNIAL GUIDE includes a listing of scheduled events, Centennial Affiliates, Chambers of Commerce, telephone numbers. CALL LISTED NUMBERS to confirm events, dates, times.

Of special interest are the many reunions and special events taking place in small communities everywhere across the state. Attending these will give one a special sense of Montana and its people, who pride themselves on having the fourth highest literacy rate in the nation and the fourth lowest school dropout rate.

Some years ago in his book Inside U.S.A., author John Gunther described Montana as "a splendid, various, and exciting state. It illustrates, once again, the stupefying vastness and variety of the United States, its overwhelming sense of power, spaciousness, uncurable vitality..."

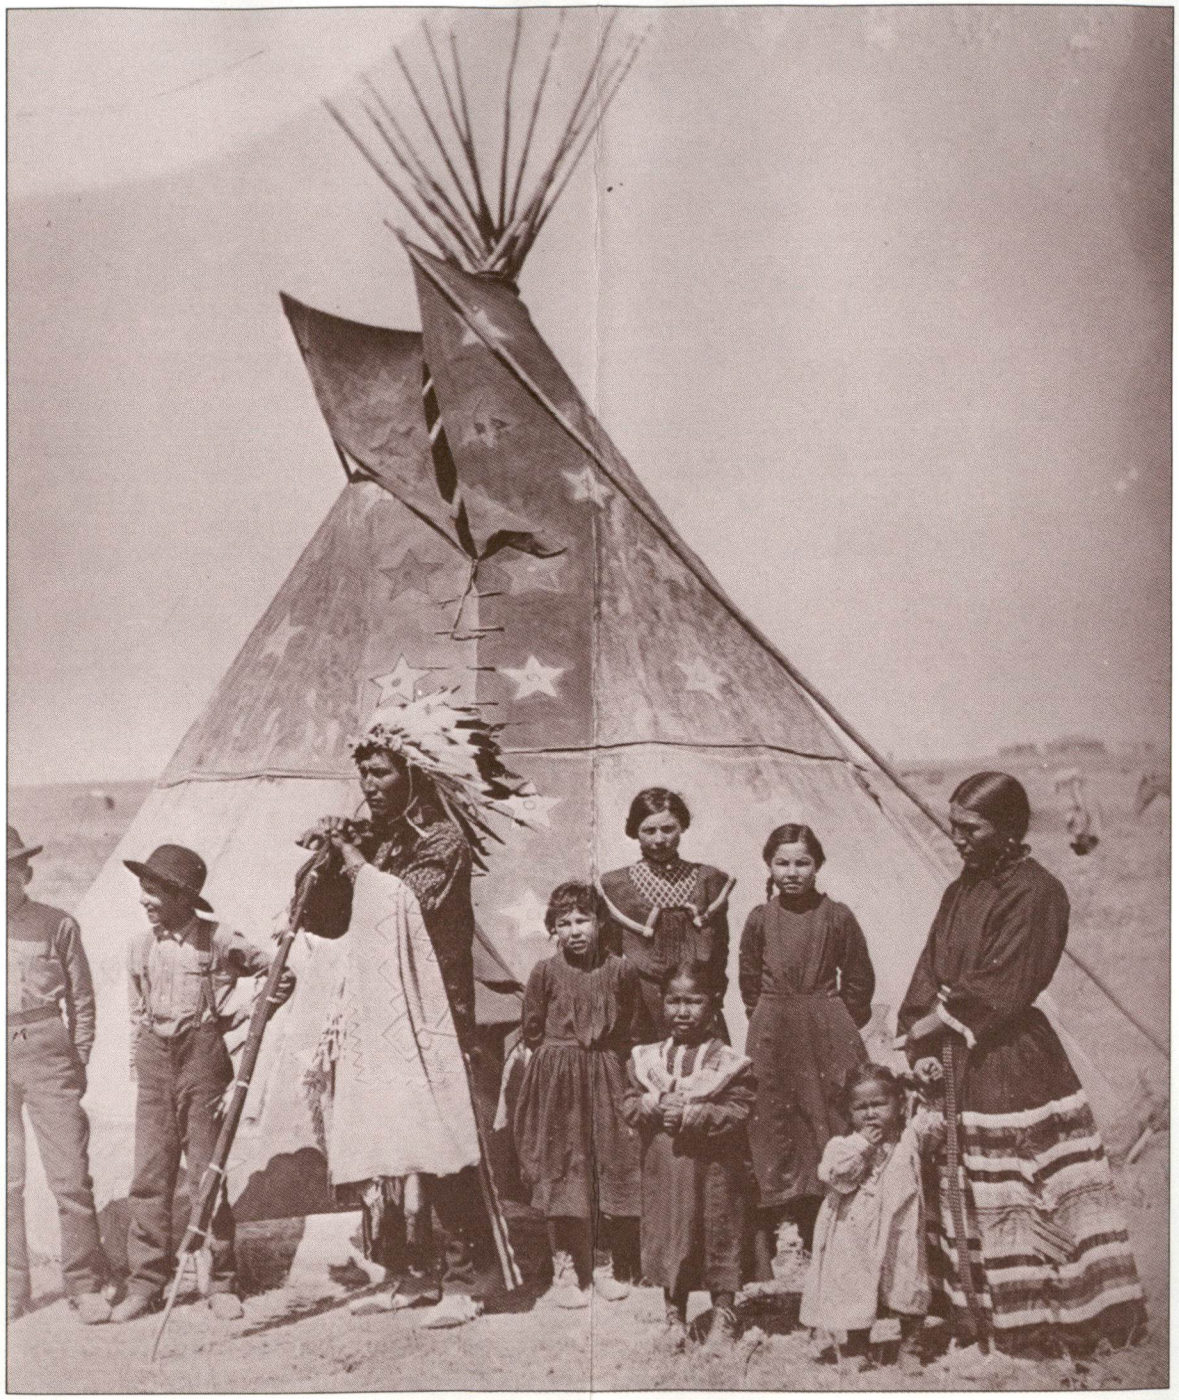

This Centennial Year promises to be a once-in-a-lifetime adventure and the best possible time to visit Big Sky Country and the Land of the Shining Mountains.

"Waking up on a fall morning in [Montana] is just as near going to heaven as any earthly experience can be."

"No land has ever been more avid for its own history than Montana. Montana had a Historical Society organized and collecting dues and materials while many of the pioneers were still using the covered wagons they had arrived in."

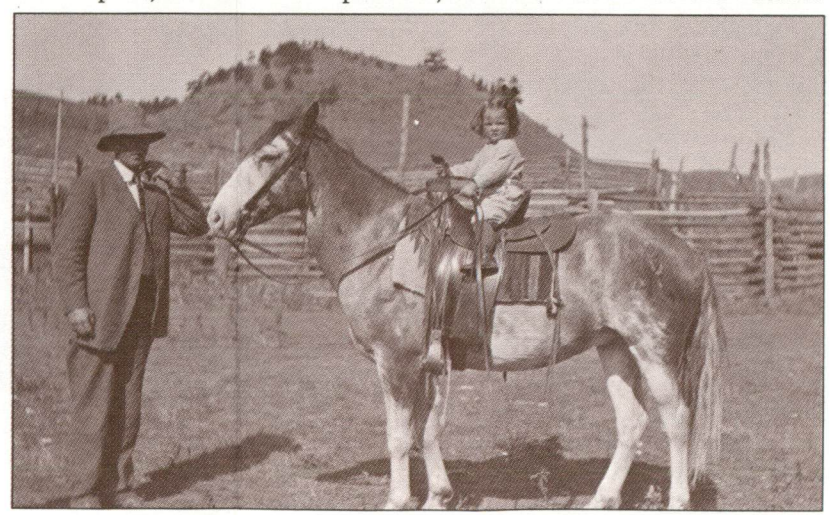

—Dan Cushman

MONTANA'S CENTENNIAL

ON NOVEMBER 8, 1889, President Harrison issued the proclamation by which Montana Territory became the forty-first state. While Montana first sought statehood as early as 1865, it took more than 20 years before Congress was willing to put Montana's star on the American Flag. By 1888, Helena, enjoying a gold-rush boom, had over 700 millionaires, more per capita than any other city in the world. One hundred years later Montana's 147,000 square miles house few millionaires, but each square mile holds 1.4 elk or antelope, 3.3 deer, 896 catchable-sized fish, and one person. The states of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, and New Jersey would all fit into Montana with room to spare. First the expansive homeland for many Native American tribes, Montana has seen many changes, from early fur-trading to gold-rush days, from the days of the "Copper Kings" and the coming of the railroads, to the logger, cattleman, the homesteader.

The Montana Centennial is really a grassroots venture to honor all those from the past, celebrate the present, look forward into the future.

Rural Montana. Vast and changing. A haven for the crowd-weary. People with roots in the land providing high quality food and fiber at the world's lowest cost.

Rural but not isolated.

Because there is affordable electricity, small farms and large industries can locate in rural areas, providing jobs for the people there, letting Montanans have a choice where they want to live and how they want to live.

Montana's rural electric cooperatives. Providing electricity, thousands of jobs, but most of all, opportunity for 300,000 citizens.

And in 1989 our new Rural Development Foundation will be working to expand educational and economic opportunities for rural and small town Montana.

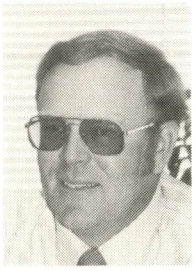

For a half century, Montana's electric cooperatives have been working to bring the lowest cost electricity possible to Montana. . . still a land of opportunity.

Montana's rural telephone cooperatives and small independent telephone systems. Helping provide a quality of life unavailable a generation ago. Making rural Montana a place for native sons and daughters to return with their families . . . to jobs, to services and opportunities once only dreams.

More than just a communications link, Montana's rural telephone systems are here for the long run. Taxpaying, locally controlled businesses whose first interest is not profit, but service. Connecting rural Montana with the world.

Montana's Capitol

Montana's capitol, overlooking Prickly Pear Valley and one mile west of famed Last Chance Gulch, was completed in 1902. Two large wings were added in 1912, making the present structure 464 feet long and some 130 feet wide.

On the main floor are the executive offices, with the Governor's reception room in the east wing the most impressively decorated. The rotunda, located in the center of the structure, offers an interior view of the dome - 100 feet above the rotunda floor. Imbedded in the terrrazo floor of the rotunda is "The Great Seal of the State of Montana," containing a representation of a plow, a miner's pick and shovel and surrounded by mountain scenery and the Great Falls of the Missouri River.

In the west wing of the third floor are the House of Representatives and Senate chambers and their committee rooms and offices. The east wing houses the Senate offices.

Constituting the largest room in the Capitol, the rectangular House of Representatives chamber also houses the largest and most valuable painting owned by the State of Montana - Charles M. Russell's historical depiction of Lewis and Clark meeting with the Indians at Ross' Hole in 1805. Valued at upwards of $1 million, the painting measures almost 25x12 feet and hangs over the desk of the Speaker of the House.

The fourth floor of the capitol provides gallery seating for both the House and Senate chambers and provides an excellent view of both chambers. Committee rooms and staff offices are also located on this floor.

Decorated extensively throughout with historical paintings and statuary, the capitol has long been a tourist showplace - a "must" while visiting in Helena.
