RE: OLYMPIC DINNER/AL OERTER

discus
Al Oerter - 4 time gold in 4 straight Olyps.
48 yr. @ last one, always underdog tore muscles, went into spasms knew he'd have to throw again, did, won.

Al Oerter:

parents home: (813) 463-5929
his home: (813) 765-0112
David Burns, agent: (312) 236-2377
US Olympic Committee: (719) 632-5551

only athlete to win gold medal @ 4 successive Games

Al Oerter competed in four straight Olympics as a discus thrower.

The Olympic games were:

- 1956 - Melbourne
- 1960 - Rome
- 1964 - Tokyo
- 1968 - Mexico City

He won gold medals at all four Games, the one and only person ever to do so.

During one Olympiad, he slipped on a ring during practice, 2 or three days before his event. This fall tore all the cartilage from his ribcage and was in acute pain, couldn't sleep or move around well. He decided that he had not come that far only to go home...somehow he made through to the finals, with his torso black, green, blue, yellow etc. and made one last throw...for the gold!

He was 32 years old at his last Olympics, in 1968 and everyone said he was too old to even be there much less go home a medal winner.

Today he is 53 and still competing setting new world records in his age class. He also is competing in new events in addition to the discus: the javelin, shotput, 35 lb. weight, and the hammer throw.

He retired from Grumann Aerospace a few years ago; he now some speaking engagements but concentrates on training. He maintains homes in New York and in Florida. Florida is his training ground because in NY, he loses his discus in the snow!

Considered by many to be the greatest modern Olympic champion, Al Oerter is the only athlete to win a gold medal at four successive Olympic Games. He achieved this feat by establishing new discus Olympic records in Melbourne, 1956; Rome, 1960; Tokyo, 1964 and Mexico City, 1968.

Oerter had been competing for less than three years when he first competed in Olympic Games. He had never won the U.S. Olympic Trials nor was he considered the favorite in any of the four games. Yet he won by being, at his best in each Olympiad.

His story is one of overcoming inexperience, severe injuries, theoretically better competitors and, most importantly, the complex barriers that impede progress. His record for being at his best when it counts has never been equalled in Olympic competition. In May 1980, Oerter threw his best official discus throw ever, 227 feet 11 inches. This throw, more than 15 feet farther than his winning effort in Mexico City 1968, could have won the 1980 Moscow Olympic Gold Medal had the U.S. participation not been cancelled. Today, he continues his quest for excellence with a thorough understanding of what is required, based on long experience. It is this true-to-life motivation story that continues to impress and inspire audiences today.

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: JESSE OWENS GOLD MEDAL PRESENTATION
THE ROOSEVELT ROOM
MARCH 28, 1990
xx:00 AM

Mrs. Owens. [Introductory acknowledgements.] Congressman Stokes. Friends and teammates of the legendary Jesse Owens. Welcome, all of you. //

It's my pleasure to welcome you here to the White House, to honor a man who honored this Nation -- as an Olympic hero, and an American hero, every day of his life. //

Jesse Owens was born with the gift of burning speed. He took that God-given talent, and developed it -- through years of training. // He was always the fastest. On one afternoon in 1935 in Ann Arbor, Michigan, Jesse Owens set 3 world records and tied a fourth // all in 45 minutes. // [[Talk about a young man in a hurry....]]

And as an 18-year-old in 1933, he won the City of Cleveland Championship 100 yard dash -- in 9.4 seconds -- // tying the world record while still in high school. //

Jesse Owens burst onto the world scene in 1936. The Berlin Olympics -- Hitler's Olympic Games, the last Olympics before the outbreak of the Second World War. The Berlin Games were to be the showcase of Hitler's theories on the superiority of the Master Race -- until a 24-year-old named Jesse Owens dashed to victory in the 100, the 200 and the 400 meter relay -- and sent Hitler storming from the stadium. // It was an unrivaled athletic triumph -- but more than that: it was a triumph for all humanity. //

Jesse Owens returned to this nation a hero. A household name -- the fastest man on earth. // But it's what he did after the spectacular performance at the Berlin games that earned him the enduring gratitude of all Americans. Jesse Owens dedicated himself to helping everyone he met -- and especially the children of America -- [[Jesse's friend and fellow Clevelander Harrison Dillard is here today. In 1941, at the Ohio State High School Track Championship.]]

Upholding the Olympic ideal of sportsmanship -- and the American ideals of fair play, hard work and open competition.

Jesse Owens became a special ambassador for sports -- a man who taught that ideals I just mentioned were the key to success not just on the athletic field -- but in the game of life. //

And that legacy lives today. Through the Jesse Owens Games -- a "playground Olympics" open to kids from 8 to 15 years old all across the country. Through the Jesse Owens International (?) Trophy Award, presented each year to the best amateur athlete in America. // And of course, through the Jesse Owens Foundation, which enables talented young people who can't afford college to fulfill that dream and get that degree. And I know it is a point of pride to Ruth Owens that the Jesse Owens Scholarships are awarded without regard to race, creed, or color.

It's that legacy we celebrate today. We remember Jesse Owens not only as the first athlete in Olympic history to win four gold medals. // Today -- 10 years since the passing of this great hero -- it's my honor to add to Jesse Owens' collection a 5th Gold Medal. This one -- as Ruth Owens said on Capitol Hill -- "for his humanitarian contributions in the race of life." //

Mrs. Owens, it is with great pride that -- in honor of your late husband and his lasting achievements -- I present to you the Jesse Owens Congressional Gold Medal.

TO: Carolyn Cawley
FROM: Lynne Peterson
SUBJECT: FUND-RAISING DINNER, MARCH 28, 1990

It was a pleasure speaking with you this week, Carolyn. Following are answers to the questions you asked about our dinner, scheduled for March 28 at the Omni Shoreham Hotel in Washington, D.C. (a copy of the inside of our invitation is attached).

- INTRODUCTION OF PRESIDENT BUSH: The Honorable George Mitchell will be at our dinner, and is scheduled to introduce the President.
- GUESTS: We are expecting around 900 guests at the dinner.
- THEME: The theme of the dinner is "A Celebration of America's Olympic Spirit."
- PRESIDENTIAL SPEECHES TO OUR ORGANIZATION: To the best of our knowledge, Mr. Bush has not spoken to the Blue Cross and Blue Shield organization, nor have past presidents while they were in office.
- OLYMPIANS IN ATTENDANCE: We plan to have roughly 30 Olympic athletes in attendance. A list of the well-known Olympians who will be in attendance is attached. The United States Olympic Committee informs us that most Olympic athletes give their time unselfishly to volunteer efforts, especially in support of the U.S. Olympic Teams. Of particular note are volunteer efforts on the part of Jeff Blatnick, gold medal winner in Greco-Roman wrestling in the 1984 Games, and Mike Eruzione, gold medal hockey player during the 1980 Games. Jeff is very active as a volunteer for the American Cancer Society and is honorary chairman of the Leukemia Society of America. Mike frequently speaks at charity functions, and recently participated in Disney's Goofy Games for charity.

- O DINNER GUESTS TO ACKNOWLEDGE: The attached page also lists dinner guests who Mr. Bush may wish to recognize. (Both Mr. Helmick and Mr. Tresnowski are mentioned in the draft speech I sent to you.)

I will follow up in a few days to make sure you have everything you need. In the meantime, I can be reached at (312) 440-5534.

TO: MARK LANGE
FROM: CAROLYN CAWLEY
SUBJECT: US OLYMPIC COMMITTEE DINNER SPEECH

Here is the information I got from Scheduling:

Event: US Olympic Committee Dinner
March 28, 1990
Dinner at 7:00
Brief remarks, 10 - 15 minutes; speak before dinner and then leave.
POTUS will be the keynote speaker.

Sponsor: US Olympic Committee and the Blue Cross/Blue Shield organization.

Guests: The Blue Cross/Blue Shield in every state will be inviting US Senators, Representatives, governors, mayors, legislators, and key business leaders.
Also, many young Olympic hopefuls from different states, and some outstanding gold medal winners from previous Games. They will be the athletes who have contributed to youth and community groups since winning their medals.
1,000 guests expected.

The dinner will raise funds for the US Olympic Team that will be competing in the 1992 Games. This will be the kickoff for the 1992 Olympic quadrennium.

POTUS WILL BE APPOINTED HONORARY CHAIRMAN OF THE US OLYMPIC COMMITTEE.

They will honor the ideals, qualities, and achievements of past and future Olympians. These ideals represent American youth at its best; sports offer young Americans an avenue to a drug-free life.

The dinner will also highlight the fact that the USOT is sponsored by its individual citizens, rather than by government funding and that all Americans have a chance to participate in our Olympic adventure.

This fundraising dinner will keep alive a tradition that was launched by the two organizations before the 1988 Games. As a national sponsor of the USOT in 1988, the Blue Cross and Blue Shield organization embraced the spirit of the Games when its 73 member Plans sponsored many community fund-raising events toward their goal of raising $2.5 million for the USOT.

They are looking into getting leading sportscasters from CBS and NBC as co-hosts.

Dear Mr. Helmick and Mr. Tresnowski:

On behalf of the President, I wish to acknowledge and thank you for your letter inviting him to address the dinner honoring our Olympic athletes this month.

Dear Mr. President:

On behalf of the United States Olympic Committee and the Blue Cross and Blue Shield organization, we would like to extend an invitation to you to be our keynote speaker at a March 29, 1990 dinner to honor America's Olympic athletes. The dinner will be at the Shoreham Hotel in Washington, D.C. at 7:00 p.m.

The dinner also will raise funds for the U.S. Olympic Team that will compete in the 1992 Games. Blue Cross and Blue Shield Plans in every state will be inviting U.S. Senators, Representatives, governors, mayors and legislators, as well as key business leaders to this event. We anticipate having at least 1,000 guests.

We will honor the ideals, qualities and achievements of past and future Olympians. We believe that these ideals represent American youth at its best, and that sports offer young Americans an avenue to a drug-free life.

The event also will highlight the fact that the United States' Olympic Team is sponsored by its individual citizens, rather than by government funding, and that all Americans have a chance to participate in our Olympic adventure.

Dear Sig:

Thanks for taking the time today to speak with Duane Carlson, our vice president of communications, and me about our request to have the President speak at our March 29 Olympic dinner.

I have attached the original letter of request that was sent to Mr. Bush in October.

To summarize, here are the highlights of the event:

- It will be at the Shoreham Hotel, March 29, 1990.
- We will have a cocktail reception from 6:00-7:00 p.m.
- Dinner will be served at 7:00 p.m.; the program will start around 7:45-8:00 p.m.
- By virtue of his title, President Bush is the honorary President of the United States Olympic Committee. If he is in attendance at our event, we will organize a special ceremony honoring him in this role.
- We are already receiving a very enthusiastic response from a number of Blue Cross and Blue Shield Plans around the country, who have committed to buying tables at this event.
- We have hired Courtesy & Associates in Washington, D.C. to help with some of the event planning details.
- As we mentioned on the phone today, we are looking at the possibility of asking Walter Cronkite or sportscasters from CBS and NBC to help emcee parts of the program.

Dear Sig:

I wanted to add some thoughts to those sent to you by Lynne Peterson following our phone call about the March 29 Olympic dinner co-sponsored by our organization and the United States Olympic Committee.

- Many of our Blue Cross and Blue Shield Plans will be bringing young Olympic hopefuls from their states to the dinner, which will add an interesting dimension to the evening.
- We also will have some outstanding gold medal winners from previous Olympic games at the event. In choosing who attends we are placing emphasis on those who have made contributions to the nation since winning their medals, such as engaging in youth and community work in a variety of settings.
- The United States Olympic Committee has agreed that this is an excellent time to make President Bush the honorary president of USOC. In effect, he will be given his appointment for the 1992 Olympic quadrennium at this time.
- We agree with your instincts, that leading sportscasters from CBS and NBC as co-hosts are a better choice than someone such as Walter Cronkite. We are pursuing this course.

Our initial response from Plans all over the nation is strong. They are booking tables and making plans to invite members of their Congressional delegations to the dinner.

Thanks for all your help. If there is anything more we can do or information we can provide please give us a call.

THE DIAMOND STRINGS

Olympic Dinner Entertainment

THE DIAMOND STRINGS is a very unique group of musicians, primarily classically trained, who also love the pop music idiom. Many play regularly in symphonies or chamber music groups and several are former members of the Air Force Strolling Strings. As a matter of record, THE DIAMOND STRINGS counts in its current roster members of the National, Roanoke, Richmond, McLean and Fairfax Symphonies. Many of the members also perform in small chamber ensembles regularly.

One of the factors that make this group special is that, although they play all the standard string literature, both classical and pop, they also play everything from big band arrangements to Top 40 tunes with the addition of a strong rhythm section and horns.

THE DIAMOND STRINGS players strive to convey a feeling of excitement and joy with their music. A smile is part of the standard uniform for all the members in addition to tuxedos for the men and silver/gray taffeta dresses for the ladies. The sound is reminiscent of Montovani but the flavor is definitely contemporary. The harp is a featured part of THE DIAMOND STRINGS. Tunes like "Satin Doll," "Sentimental Journey," "Moonlight Serenade," "Chattanooga Choo Choo," "In The Mood" will be mixed with "I Just Called To Say I Love You," "Memory" from "Cats," and even "Rock Around the Clock." The best current Top 40 tunes are added satisfy all tastes.

Past clients include the National Association of Cardiologists, American Bar Association, National Association of Allergists and Immunologists, National Republican Senatorial Committee, Democratic Governors Association, Marriott Corporation, Sheraton Carlton, Sheraton Premiere, International Iron and Steel, Federated Investors, American Electronics, Squibb, International Security Council and National Association of Industrial and Office Parks.

MEMORANDUM

TO: CHRISS WINSTON
FROM: CAROLYN CAWLEY
RE: OLYMPIC COMMITTEE DINNER

As you know, Mark and I have been working on brief remarks for the Olympic Committee Dinner drop-by on Thursday, March 28.

My contact has been a woman named Lynne Peterson and she has been a real pleasure to work with. Today she called to see if you, Mark, and I would like to come to the dinner as guests.

I explained to her that when possible, we get to go to "our events" but that we leave after the President speaks. So, she has invited us as guests, to stay for the evening's program. It sounds like a fun night: a black-tie fundraiser with many past gold medal winners, 1992 Olympic hopefuls, and many politicians from across the nation.

She asked that I check the staff-as-guest policy with you and get back to her as soon as I can so they can plan seating accordingly. All three of us -- you, Lange, and myself -- are invited. I'll check back with you on this later today.
