NATL. REP. SEN. COMMITTEE / CAPITOL HILTON
MONDAY, JULY 30, 1990 / 12:15 P.M.

THANK YOU, SENATOR NICKLES.

((WE KNOW DON NICKLES AS AN OUTSTANDING LEADER, SOMEONE WHOSE HARD WORK AND ACHIEVEMENT IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE SUGGESTS MANY YEARS OF ACCOMPLISHMENT TO COME.))

((OF COURSE, I WAS JUST TELLING DON THAT ALL OF OUR SENATORS ARE SO MUCH BETTER KNOWN NOW THAT THEY TELEWISE THE PROCEEDINGS OF THAT BODY.\\ AND DON SHOT BACK: "YEAH, I JUST HOPE NOBODY CONFUSES US WITH AMERICA'S FUNNIEST HOME VIDEOS.")\\

KIDDING ASIDE, I HAVE A WARM PLACE IN MY HEART FOR THE SENATE. YOU MIGHT KNOW THAT I AM THE SON OF A SENATOR.

WHEN I SERVED AS VICE PRESIDENT, I WAS ALSO THE "101ST MEMBER OF THE SENATE." AND NO ONE CAN SERVE IN THAT POST WITHOUT HAVING A SPECIAL REVERENCE AND AFFECTION FOR THAT INSTITUTION: IT TRULY IS THE WORLD'S GREATEST DELIBERATIVE BODY.

GO TO THE OLD SENATE IN THE CAPITOL, LOOK AT THE EXQUISITE MAHOGANY DESKS LINED WITH INK-WELLS, AND YOU CAN CATCH A GLIMMER OF GREATNESS; YOU CAN ALMOST HEAR THE ECHO OF CONTENDING VOICES, THE VOICES OF CALHOUN, WEBSTER AND CLAY.

IT IS IN THE SENATE THAT SO MUCH OF OUR HISTORY HAS BEEN MADE: WARS DECLARED, OUR CONSTITUTION AMENDED TO ABOLISH SLAVERY AND WOMEN GIVEN THE RIGHT TO VOTE. BUT THE SENATE HAS NO MORE SERIOUS OR FAR-REACHING DUTY THAN ITS CONSTITUTIONAL RESPONSIBILITY TO CONFIRM A NEW JUSTICE TO SIT ON THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.

I CERTAINLY EXPECT THAT THE SENATE MAJORITY WILL RECOGNIZE IN OUR NOMINEE, DAVID SOUTER, A JURIST POSSESSING UNCOMMON ABILITY, A FIRST-RATE LEGAL MIND, THE MAKINGS OF A GREAT JUSTICE.

I ONLY ASK THAT THE SENATE CONFIRM THIS MAN ON THE BASIS OF A LIFETIME OF EXCEPTIONAL ACHIEVEMENT, NOT BY THE NARROW STANDARDS OF A LITMUS TEST, OR A PARTISAN OR SPECIAL INTEREST. IT IS TIME TO ACT -- NOT FOR THE GOOD OF A PARTY -- BUT FOR THE GOOD OF AMERICA.

BUT IN THE COMING MONTHS, THE SENATE WILL HAVE TO MAKE OTHER FAR-REACHING DECISIONS ON CRIME, EDUCATION, CLEAN AIR AND THE BUDGET. AND IT IS ON THESE MATTERS THAT PARTY DIFFERENCES DO COUNT.

AS CONGRESS TAKES ACTION ON THESE ISSUES CRITICAL TO THE FUTURE OF THE UNITED STATES, THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WILL SEE THE STARK DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE REPUBLICAN APPROACH OF GROWTH AND OPPORTUNITY, AND THE DEMOCRAT'S APPROACH OF BIGGER GOVERNMENT AND MORE SPENDING. AND I BELIEVE THE AMERICAN PEOPLE WILL CHOOSE THE REPUBLICAN PATH -- BY ELECTING MORE REPUBLICANS TO THE SENATE -- BY RESTORING BOB DOLE TO HIS RIGHTFUL PLACE AS THE MAJORITY LEADER OF THE UNITED STATES SENATE. \\\

OUR OUTSTANDING CANDIDATES ARE CERTAINLY DOING EVERYTHING THEY CAN TO WIN BACK THE SENATE, OR TO POSITION US WITHIN STRIKING RANGE FOR '92. BUT WE COULD ACHIEVE VERY LITTLE WITHOUT YOUR COMMITMENT AND SUPPORT. AND THAT'S WHY I HAD TO COME BY TODAY, TO THANK YOU FOR ALL YOU ARE DOING -- NOT JUST FOR THE REPUBLICAN PARTY -- BUT FOR THE FUTURE OF AMERICA.

LET ME ALSO SAY HOW APPROPRIATE IT IS FOR THE NRSC HEADQUARTERS TO BE NAMED AFTER RONALD REAGAN.

AFTER ALL, I VIVIDLY REMEMBER THE DIFFERENCE HAVING A REPUBLICAN SENATE MADE TO HIS ADMINISTRATION. A REPUBLICAN SENATE CAN MAKE THIS SAME DIFFERENCE FOR OUR PARTY, OUR ADMINISTRATION AND OUR COUNTRY OVER THE NEXT TWO YEARS.\\ ONLY SIX SEATS STAND BETWEEN A REPUBLICAN MAJORITY AND MORE YEARS OF DEMOCRAT CONTROL. WE MUST HAVE MORE REPUBLICANS TO BUILD A BETTER AMERICA.

FINALLY, LET ME SAY THAT AS WE NEAR THIS CRUCIAL NOVEMBER ELECTION, WE ARE REMINDED AGAIN -- NOT AS REPUBLICANS, BUT AS AMERICANS -- OF HOW MUCH OUR REMARKABLE 200-YEAR-OLD EXPERIMENT IN DEMOCRACY MEANS TO THE WORLD.

AMERICA HAS ALWAYS BEEN A NATION OF WORLD LEADERSHIP, STRONG AND WILLING TO HELP. AND WE'VE ALREADY SEEN THE DIFFERENCE AMERICA IS HELPING TO MAKE IN WHAT I CALL THE MAGNIFICENT REVOLUTION OF '89 -- A STRUGGLE TO BUILD NEW DEMOCRACIES THAT CONTINUES TO THIS VERY DAY.

LET ME SHARE A STORY -- ABOUT AN AMERICAN VISITOR ON A RECENT TRIP TO THE TROUBLED LAND OF ROMANIA -- WHO ASKED THE PEOPLE SHE MET WHAT WAS MOST IMPORTANT TO THEM NOW, WHAT THEY NEEDED MOST.

AND LISTEN TO ONE SURPRISING ANSWER: IN A COUNTRY WHERE THE STREETS ARE DARK AT NIGHT AND THE HOMES LACK HEAT, ONE ROMANIAN WOMAN PULLED FROM HER PURSE A WORN COPY OF AN AMERICAN MAGAZINE -- A THREE-YEAR-OLD ISSUE, WITH A SPECIAL BICENTENNIAL COPY OF THE UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION. AND SHE SAID, "WHAT WE NEED NOW IS MORE OF THESE."

THAT IS WHAT OUR POLITICAL ACTIVITY IS REALLY ABOUT; YOU ARE DOING MORE THAN JUST SUPPORTING ONE PARTY OR ONE CAUSE. YOU ARE CITIZENS LEADERS, FULFILLING THE CONSTITUTION, REALIZING THE POTENTIAL OF ONE WORD: DEMOCRACY.

ONCE AGAIN, I THANK YOU FOR ALL THAT YOU'VE DONE. MAY GOD BLESS YOU ALL, AND THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

It is in the Senate that so much of our history has been made: wars declared, and peace treaties ratified; reform legislation, from the Square Deal to the New Deal debated and passed into law. But the Senate has no more serious or far-reaching duty than the confirmation of a new justice to sit on the United States Supreme Court.

I certainly expect that the Senate majority will recognize in our nominee, David Souter, a jurist possessing uncommon ability, a first-rate legal mind, the makings of a great justice. I only ask that the Senate confirm this man on the basis of a lifetime of achievement, not by the narrow standards of a litmus test, or a partisan or special interest.

But in the coming months, the Senate will have to make other far-reaching decisions on crime, education, clean air and the budget. And it is on these matters that party differences count.

Nowhere will these differences be more apparent than in our approach to family issues. As you know, there are many new pressures on the American family -- especially young families. Republicans believe in leave for new parents. But we also believe that companies and employees should be free to bargain for what is best for them. That is why I vetoed the Parental Leave Bill -- and last week the House sustained that veto -- against this new form of mandated benefits.

Family and Medical Act of 1993

Republicans also put forward a child-care bill to let families choose the kind of care that is best for them and their children -- whether at home, at a church or a synagogue, or from a local child-care provider.

Well, the Senate majority passed a child-care bill that takes choice out of the hands of parents, dumps more red tape and costs on child-care providers, and builds a huge day-care bureaucracy -- at double the cost of our bill -- from nine billion dollars to eighteen billion dollars.

Then the House, deciding spending equals compassion, outbid the Senate by tripling our request -- to 29 billion dollars, -- adding another 20 billion dollars to the federal deficit over the next five years. So the Democrats are no longer satisfied to just outbid a Republican Administration. Now they are competing among themselves.\\

Don Nickles and his crackerjack staff are certainly doing everything they can to win the Senate back, or at the very least to position us within striking range for '92. In closing, let me say something about the NRSC headquarters, named -- appropriately -- after Ronald Reagan. After all, I vividly remember the difference having a Republican Senate made to his Administration. Ronald Reagan's first six years were all the better for having a Republican Senate -- just like the next six years could be for us, for our Administration, and our country.\\

When I consider the commitment and dedication you have already shown, I am confident that the future will be a Republican future.

Our outstanding candidates are certainly doing everything they can to win back the Senate, or to position us within striking range for '92. Finally, let me say that as we near this crucial November election, we are reminded again -- not as Republicans, but as Americans -- of how much our remarkable 200-year-old experiment in democracy means to the world.

America has always been a nation of world leadership, strong and willing to help. And we've already seen the difference America is helping to make in what I call the magnificent Revolution of '89 -- a struggle to build new democracies that continues to this very day.

Let me share a story -- about an American visitor on a recent trip to the troubled land of Romania -- who asked the people she met what was most important to them now, what they needed most. And listen to one surprising answer: In a country where the streets are dark at night and the homes lack heat, one Romanian woman pulled from her purse a worn copy of an American magazine -- a three-year-old issue, with a special bicentennial copy of the United States Constitution. And she said, "What we need now is more of these."

That is what our political activity is really about; you are doing more than just supporting one party or one cause. You are citizens leaders, fulfilling the Constitution, realizing the potential of one word: democracy.

Once again, I thank you for all that you've done. May God bless you all, and the United States of America.
