It's not only a great honor to have a Barbara Bush rose in the same ~~garden~~^{class} with the Bob Hope, Bing Crosby and Dorothy Lamour roses... it's also appropriate. Given the polls, I'm thinking about staying home myself and sending Barbara -- 'on the road.'

- o I'll let you in on a secret. Very few people know this, but ~~Hope, Arkansas -- is actually named after Bob Hope! Believe it or not, it's Bob Hope's birthplace.~~ But what Bill Clinton won't tell you is that ever since Bob left as a child -- it's been known as Hopeless.

Victory '92 Luncheon with the President
Home of Bob and Dolores Hope
Toluca Lake, California
Sunday, September 13, 1992

Notes for the President's remarks:

Thank you to: Bob & Dolores Hope for hosting.

Jim Dignan, California Republican Party and Victory '92 Chairman. He has put $1.4 million in reserve to provide the President with a Republican Congress.

Karl Samuelian, Victory '92 Finance Chairman.
He is responsible for today's successful lunch.

Lod Cook, Chairman, October 8 Victory '92 Simulcast Gala. He also just chaired the hugely successful Houston Gala which raised $4.4 million dollars.

When presented with "Barbara Bush" roses by Mrs. Hope, suggested remarks:

"The White House, as you know, has one rose garden. I'm quite impressed that Bob and Dolores have two. Perhaps you saw Bob's in front when you drove in. They tell me it's called the "Road to the the Roses" because in it are only the Bob Hope, Bing Crosby and Dorothy Lamour rose bushes."

"Now, Dolores' garden here in the back, though, I can tell is even more special, because she is growing the Barbara Bush rose. Dolores...where's my rose?"

o We kid Bob about his age, but I don't think he minds. In fact, I don't think he even hears us right now. //

[Or. . . In fact, I'm not sure he even knows we're here. //]

o It's not often I get a chance to thank everyone for what they do for this campaign, for this Party. But I want to say, here and now, thanks for all your time, all your effort, all your support. We're going to win this race, not because I'm the prettiest candidate -- we all know that -- but because we've got the best people on the team. Thank you for this welcome and God bless you all.
