FROM: MICHELE NIX MN

SUBJECT: HOUSTON "WELCOME HOME" RALLY

This is a "Welcome Home" rally, which takes place at the Astro Arena -- same room as the opening event before the convention. The pre-program begins at 7:30 p.m. -- POTUS goes on stage at 9:30 p.m.

- The pre-program includes the following celebrities: Ricky Scaggs, Lee Greenwood, Gatlin Brothers, Loretta Lynn, Naomi Judd, Nolan Ryan, Mary Lou Retton, Charlton Heston, Bob Hope. Arnold Palmer, Ted Williams (Hall of Fame), Johnny Lee (Country singer)
- Bob Hope will be the last to speak before the President is introduced by an off-stage announce. So one Bob Hope line right off the bat would work well.
- Mayor Bob Lanier will ~~probably~~ be on stage -- but he's been wishy washy in his support. Handle as you see fit.
- The celebrities will be lined up across the stage and behind POTUS. Behind them will be the Bush family -- except for Mrs. Bush who will be announced on stage with the President and will stand near him when he speaks.

Behind the Bush family will be state and national Bush-Quayle officials and some local officials.

Brief remarks are expected -- particularly ones that reflect the President's happiness at being home. Also Advance says everyone down there wants the President to really fire the crowd up -- so the momentum will be high and wild going into election day.

The Holy Bible: Ephesians — I Timothy

- 14 Let your speech be alway with grace, seasoned with salt. Colossians 4:6
- 15 Luke, the beloved physician. 4:14
- 16 Labor of love. The First Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Thessalonians 1:3
- 17 Study to be quiet, and to do your own business. 4:11
- 18 The day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. 5:2
- 19 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. 5:5
- 20 Putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation. 5:8
- 21 Pray without ceasing. 5:17
- 22 Prove all things; hold fast that which is good. 5:21
- 23 The law is good, if a man use it lawfully. The First Epistle of Paul the Apostle to Timothy 1:8
- 24 Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. 1:15
- 25 For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?² 3:5
- 26 Not greedy of filthy lucre. 3:8
- 27 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron. 4:2
- 28 Every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving. 4:4
- 29 Refuse profane and old wives' fables. 4:7
- 30 Let them learn first to show piety at home. 5:4
- 31 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel. 5:8
- 32 They learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not. 5:13
- 33 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake. 5:23

²See Sophocles, 74:19.

The Holy Bible: I Timothy — James

- 1 We brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.¹ I Timothy 6:7
- 2 The love of money is the root of all evil.² 6:10
- 3 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life. 6:12
- 4 Rich in good works. 6:18
- 5 O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called. 6:20
- 6 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. The Second Epistle of Paul the Apostle to Timothy 1:7
- 7 A workman that needeth not to be ashamed. 2:15
- 8 Be instant in season, out of season. 4:2
- 9 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. 4:7
- 10 The Lord reward him according to his works. 4:14
- 11 Unto the pure all things are pure. The Epistle of Paul to Titus 1:15
- 12 Making mention of thee always in my prayers. The Epistle of Paul to Philemon 1:4
- 13 Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire. The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Hebrews 1:7
- 14 The word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. 4:12
- 15 Strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age. 5:14
- 16 They crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame. 6:6
- 17 Without shedding of blood is no remission. 9:22
- 18 Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. The General Epistle of James 2:18
- 19 Wherefore seeing about with so great a care, let us run with patience, as who run against the opposition, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith. 1:2
- 20 Whom the Lord loveth, him will he call to himself. 2:7
- 21 The spirits of just men are in prison, because they have not done the will of God. 2:9
- 22 Let brotherly love continue. Be not forgetful to entertain one another, as ye have entertained strangers. 2:1
- 23 The Lord is my helper, and I will not be overcome. What man shall do us hurt? 4:4
- 24 Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever. 5:7
- 25 For here have we no continual city, we seek one to come. 6:13
- 26 To do good and to condescend with the lowly is wisdom. 6:16
- 27 Let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, without spot. If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth to all liberally, and without reproach. 5:7
- 28 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which God will give to him that loveth him. 1:12
- 29 Every good gift and every perfect manner, which we have, cometh of the Father of lights, with whom there is no shadow of turning. 1:17
- 30 Be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath: for the wrath of man worketh not righteousness of God. 1:19
- 31 Be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only. 1:22
- 32 Unspotted from the world, and simple, without guile. 3:17
- 33 As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also. 2:26
- 34 How great a matter is it for us to fall short in one of these things! 2:10
- 35 The tongue can no man tame; it is unruly evil, full of deadly poison. 3:5

³See Homer, 58:10.

there are many who confine themselves to criticism of the way others do what they themselves dare not even attempt. There is no more unhealthy being, no man less worthy of respect, than he who either really holds, or feigns to hold, an attitude of sneering disbelief toward all that is great and lofty, whether in achievement or in that noble effort which, even if it fails, comes second to achievement. A cynical habit of thought and speech, a readiness to criticise work which the critic himself never tries to perform, an intellectual aloofness which will not accept contact with life's realities—all these are marks, not, as the possessor would fain think, of superiority, but of weakness. They mark the men unfit to bear their part manfully in the stern strife of living, who seek, in the affectation of contempt for the achievements of others, to hide from others and from themselves their own weakness. The rôle is easy; there is none easier, save only the rôle of the man who sneers alike at both criticism and performance.

→ It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs, and comes short again and again, because there is no effort without error and shortcoming; but who does actually strive to do the deeds; who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions; who spends himself in a worthy cause; who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat. Shame on the man of cultivated taste who permits refinement to develop into a fastidiousness that unfits him for doing the rough work of a workaday world. Among the free peoples who govern themselves there is but a small field of usefulness open for the men of cloistered life who shrink from contact with their fellows. Still less room is there for those who deride or slight what is done by those who actually bear the brunt of the day; nor yet for those others who always profess that they would like to take action, if only the conditions of life were not what they actually are. The man who does nothing cuts the same sordid figure in the pages of history, whether he be cynic, or fop, or voluptuary. There is little use for the being whose tepid soul knows nothing of the great and generous emotion, of the high pride, the stern belief, the lofty enthusiasm, of the men who quell the storm and ride the thunder. Well for these men if they succeed; well also, though not so well, if they fail, given only that they have nobly ventured, and have put forth all their heart and strength. It is war-worn Hotspur, spent with hard fighting, he of the many errors and the valiant end, over whose memory we love to linger, not over the memory of the young lord who "but for the vile guns would have been a soldier."

France has taught many lessons to other nations: surely one of the most important is the lesson her whole history teaches, that a high artistic and literary development is compatible with notable leadership in arms and statecraft. The brilliant gallantry of the French soldier has for many centuries been proverbial; and during these same centuries at every court in Europe the "freemasons of fashion" have treated the French tongue as their common speech; while every artist and man of letters, and every man of science able to appreciate that marvellous instrument of precision, French prose, has turned toward France for aid and inspiration. How long the leadership in arms and letters has lasted is curiously illustrated by the fact that the earliest masterpiece in a modern tongue is the splendid French epic which tells of Roland's doom and the vengeance of Charlemagne when the lords of the Frankish host were stricken at Roncevalles.

Let those who have, keep, let those who have not, strive to attain, a high standard of cultivation and scholarship. Yet let us remember that these stand second to certain other things. There is need of a sound body, and even more need of a sound

FROM: MICHELE NIX

SUBJECT: UNITY/HEALING QUOTE

"With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in: to bind up the nation's wounds; . . . to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations."

-- Lincoln, second Inaugural Address, March 4, 1865
Bartlett's, p. 524.

"We are not enemies, but friends. We must not be enemies. Though passion may have strained, it must not break, our bonds of affection. The mystic chords of memory, stretching from every battlefield and patriot grave to every living heart and hearthstone all over this broad land, will yet swell the chorus of the Union when again touched, as surely they will be, by the better angels of our nature."

-- Lincoln, first Inaugural Address, March 4, 1861
Bartlett's, p. 521.

--Like I said: I finish what I start.
--Houston I won't be coming home....for four more years.
--I don't know if we annoyed the media -- but we sure did confuse them. You see, you don't ride off into the sunset when it's still high noon.
--I've got one question for the media: Are you annoyed yet?
--I can see the headlines now: "POLLSTERS LOSE JOBS: BLAME BUSH."
--The people have laid their trust in me, and now I shall return it: with more choice in education, more choice in health care, lower taxes and smaller government.
--If you didn't vote for me, but you're listening now, I'm asking you to come home, I'm leaving the door open. We've got a lot of work to do in this country. You can't join hands with a clenched fist.
--For better or for worse, in sickness and in health, America is one family: One Nation Under God.
--Governor Clinton asked you to vote your hopes not your fears....and you did. Ross Perot asked you to vote for the man you'd trust your kids' future with. You did that too.

QUOTES

--"Be not deceived. Revolutions do not go backward." --Lincoln
--"Destiny is not a matter of chance, it is a matter of choice; it is not a thing to be waited for, it is a thing to be achieved." --William Jennings Bryan.
--(Harriet Beecher Stowe) "The longest day must have its close - the gloomiest night will wear on to a morning." Dawn is here. The election is over. And yes, the truth is: the recession is over. America is getting back to business...and I'm here to open shop: entrepreneurial capitalism...capital gains tax cuts....opportunity for first time home buyers...etc. We're going to kick the sun back up into the sky.
--"The game is well worth the candle that may have to be burned far into the night." -- J. Paul Getty.

QUOTES

--"Every dogma has its day, but ideals are eternal." -- Israel Zangwill.

LANG

--Houston -- I'm coming home!
--God save the Union. (okay, maybe not.)
--maybe I shouldn't have vetoed the unemployment extension after all.
--Riding off into the sunrise.

The most rewarding things you do in life are often the ones that look like they cannot be done.

Arnold Palmer

Nearly all men can stand adversity, but if you want to test a man's character, give him power.

Abraham Lincoln

Once to every man and every nation comes the moment to decide.

James Russell Lowell

Tribulation brings about perserverance; and perserverance proven character; and proven character, hope.

FROM: ED WALTERS

SUBJECT: BACKGROUND QUOTES FOR TONIGHT'S SPEECH

"[I feel] somewhat like the boy in Kentucky who stubbed his toe while running to see his sweetheart. The boy said he was too big to cry, and far too badly hurt to laugh."

- Lincoln's reply as to how he felt about the New York elections, in which a Democrat won. On that day, Democrats picked up a number of congressional seats in the North and won an number of state elections.

"So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God."

- Daniel 6:23

Quotes from Remarks of Vice President George Bush, announcing his candidacy for the Presidency in Houston Texas, on October 12, 1987: Sort of in the context of bookends -- I said when I announced my candidacy five years ago . . .

"We don't need radical new directions -- we need strong and steady leadership. We don't need to remake society, we just need to remember who we are."

"There are those who forget, in the warmth of 1987, how cold it was in 1980."

"Prosperity is not an end, but a beginning. It has a point: It gives us time to think and care; it frees us up to learn, to grow, to be better than we are." [[And the prosperity that Ronald Reagan and I have brought this nation since 1980 has another dividend -- it has allowed us to end permanently the global nuclear arms race -- to win the Cold War.]]

"And what is the proper attitude toward the Soviets as we pursue progress? Praise God -- and keep your guard up."

"The interests of the world are best served -- and the cause of peace best served -- by not merely containing communism, but by spreading freedom."

Today's Horoscope

By Sydney Omarr

Aries (March 21-April 19): Emphasis on added recognition, universal appeal, wider audience for your creative endeavors. Many desires fulfilled in dramatic fashion. Accent the unorthodox, utilize elements of timing, surprise.

Taurus (April 20-May 20): Make fresh start, assert independence. Professional superior says, "You, the student, have out-distanced the teacher!" Imprint style, accept challenge of added responsibility. Love will not be a stranger.

Gemini (May 21-June 20): Aquarian Moon highlights ability to reach beyond previous limitations. Romantic interval lends spice. Intuition hits bull's eye. You'll be told, "You are a fascinating, wonderful creature!" It's for real!

Cancer (June 21-July 22): Diversify, keep options open, add to apparel. Check accounting procedures. Someone could be playing fast and loose with your money. Ounce of prevention worth more than "costly cure." Investigate!

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22): Study Cancer message. Be aware of fine print, read between lines, be willing to tear down and to rebuild on more suitable base. Marital status figures prominently. Written report could prove "explosive."

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Read and write, disseminate information, format previously rejected will be enthusiastically accepted. Scenario features change, travel, variety, exciting "flirtation." Another Virgo plays role.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Attention revolves around home, harmony, music, color, time out for "gift wrapping." Focus also on style, creativity, ability to win major assignment. Before day's end, you'll be humming, "I'm in love!"

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Attention revolves around real estate, sale or purchase of property, frank discussion with family member who wants to "jump ship." Answers found through meditation, ability to be quiet within.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Focus on ideas, concepts that require "seasoning." Means-time is on your side. Emphasis also on organization, responsibility, strong love relationship, improved financial status. Persist!

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Long-range prospects become crystal clear. Aquarian Moon highlights finances, investments, payment received in surprising manner. You'll be completely vindicated. Reward follows. Deserved!

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Circumstances take sudden, dramatic turn in your favor. Imprint style, stress confidence, display courage of convictions. Love relationship will survive crisis. Leo, another Aquarian figure prominently.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20): Events begin to transpire in way that brings goal closer. Family member admits to being "pulled in two directions simultaneously." Be sympathetic but do not become inextricably involved. Win big!

If November 3 is your birthday: You possess intellectual curiosity, unusual sense of humor, are versatile, are capable of loving more than one person. Gemini, Sagittarius individuals play unusual roles in your life. During November, you gain wider audience, terms will be defined, you'll be regarded as mysterious, intriguing, romantic figure. You could be asked to appear before the media. You are creative, willing to fight when cause is right. During December, you'll know true meaning of love.
