PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: CHRISTMAS IN WASHINGTON
PENSION BUILDING
TAPING: DECEMBER 13, 1992

To all the performers -- Julie, Peabo, Midori, Neil, the Army's Herald Trumpets, and these two magnificent choirs: Soul Children of Chicago, and the Naval Academy Glee Club -- what a glorious performance! From the Bush family, and on behalf of all those watching this evening, thank you for sharing your wonderful gift of music with us.

This holiday season is a special time for all of us to open our hearts just a little wider. You won't find the meaning of Christmas on a shelf at the toy store, or under your tree on Christmas morning. The real meaning of Christmas is sharing the love in your heart and the joy in your soul. Giving of yourself is the best gift anyone can ask for.

So, in all the preparations for this festive holiday season, take a moment to celebrate, in your own way, God's many gifts to us. Help a neighbor in need... make sure every child has someone they can turn to... someone who knows their name. It takes just a moment to care, and the rewards will sustain your spirits for a lifetime.

Most of all, say a special prayer for our troops in Somalia. Their mission is just, and we wish them a safe return. May God

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

bless each and every one of you, and may He grant us everlasting peace. Merry Christmas.
