REMARKS: DISABLED AMERICAN VETERANS CONVENTION
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA
MONDAY, JULY 31, 1989
1:00 P.M.

THANK YOU, BILLY. NATIONAL ADJUTANT JOECKEL
[JOKE-EL], OFFICERS; SENATOR MURKOWSKI, CONGRESSMAN
STUMP, SECRETARY DERWINSKI... AND MY BROTHERS IN ARMS:

I AM PROUD TO BE WITH YOU TODAY, AT YOUR 68TH
ANNUAL CONVENTION. I UNDERSTAND I'M THE FIRST SITTING
PRESIDENT TO MEET WITH THIS GROUP. WELL... I THOUGHT
IT WAS ABOUT TIME. [PAUSE] THIS IS A GATHERING OF
EXTRAORDINARY AMERICANS. AN ASSEMBLY OF HEROES.
TOGETHER YOU REPRESENT OVER ONE MILLION MEN AND WOMEN
DISABLED IN MILITARY SERVICE TO OUR COUNTRY.

IN THE NAME OF FREEDOM; FOR THE SAKE OF JUSTICE;
TO DEFEND DEMOCRACY -- ALL OF YOU HAVE MADE THE
DEFINITIVE COMMITMENT TO KEEP AMERICA FIRST, FREE,
STRONG, AND PROUD. WHILE YOU WERE LIVING UP TO THAT COMMITMENT, SERVING YOUR COUNTRY, MANY OF YOU WILL REMEMBER HOW IN ONE BRIEF, BLINDING INSTANT, EVERYTHING
CHANGED. [PAUSE]

MAYBE YOU REMEMBER THE HANDS THAT REACHED FOR YOU.
THE VOICES IN DARKNESS. THE VESSELS THAT DELIVERED YOU
FROM THE HORROR OF WAR.

ALL OF YOU STILL BEAR THOSE WOUNDS -- AND CAN BEAR
THEM WITH PRIDE. FIGHTING TO TEAR POWER FROM TYRANTS, STRUGGLING TO SECURE FREEDOM AROUND THE WORLD, THE
DISABLED VETERANS OF AMERICA HAVE PAID THE HIGHEST
PRICE THE LIVING CAN PAY FOR FREEDOM.

TO PRESERVE WHAT YOU HAVE WON -- TO HONOR WHAT YOU HAVE DONE -- THE UNITED STATES MUST KEEP THE PEACE. TO DO THAT WE HAVE A DEFENSE STRATEGY CENTERED ON
DETERRENCE -- TO MAINTAIN CREDIBLE, CAPABLE MILITARY
FORCES STRONG ENOUGH TO PREVENT ATTACK OR COERCION.
YET ACTION TO DATE IN THE CONGRESS ON THE DEFENSE
BUDGET, HAS BEEN INFLUENCED BY THOSE WHO WOULD BLOCK
OUR ABILITY TO IMPLEMENT THIS STRATEGY. THEY HAVE CUT WEAPONS WE NEED, AND ADDED WEAPONS WE DON'T NEED.

THOSE WHO ATTEMPT TO CHANGE THE CRITICAL ELEMENTS OF OUR DEFENSE PROGRAM WOULD IN EFFECT, DISMANTLE OUR DEFENSE STRATEGY, PIECE BY PIECE. BUT THEY HAVE NO STRATEGY WITH WHICH TO REPLACE IT. YOU WHO KNOW SACRIFICE, DESERVE BETTER. OUR NATION DESERVES BETTER.

WE HAVE A CLOSELY-INTEGRATED STRATEGIC PROGRAM, DESIGNED TO ENHANCE U.S. STRENGTH, BOLSTER DETERRENCE, AND FACILITATE ARMS CONTROL. IT DEMANDS THAT WE MODERNIZE OUR ICBM FORCE, REDEPLOYING THE PEACEKEEPER IN RAIL-GARRISON NOW, AND COMPLETING THE DEVELOPMENT TO DEPLOY THE NEW SMALL ICBM. THESE MOBILE SYSTEMS WILL BRING IMPROVED SURVIVABILITY AND STABILITY TO THE LAND-BASED LEG OF OUR STRATEGIC TRIAD.

A STRONG DEFENSE MEANS SUFFICIENT FUNDING FOR THE STEALTH BOMBER. AND IT MEANS SUPPORT FOR THE STRATEGIC DEFENSE INITIATIVE -- BECAUSE SDI OFFERS THE PROMISE OF A STABLE NUCLEAR BALANCE THAT RELIES INCREASINGLY ON DEFENSE. IT WILL MAKE ANY START TREATY MORE EFFECTIVE. AND IT REPRESENTS OUR BEST STEP TOWARD STABILITY -- THE SAME GOAL WE SEEK THROUGH OFFENSIVE MODERNIZATION AND ARMS CONTROL. THIS IS THE PROGRAM THE COUNTRY NEEDS -- AND I WILL WORK TO SEE THAT THIS IS THE PROGRAM THE CONGRESS RATIFIES.

FELLOW VETERANS: WHILE AMERICA'S DEBT TO THOSE WOUNDED IN WARTIME CAN NEVER BE REPAID, IT CAN AND WILL BE REMEMBERED. YOU SHOULD BE ABLE TO TAKE OUR GRATITUDE FOR GRANTED. BUT WHAT YOU DESERVE... IS OUR RESPECT. [PAUSE]

THAT'S WHY I'M HERE TODAY: TO TALK ABOUT RESPECTING THOSE WOUNDED IN SERVICE -- AND ENCOURAGING THEM TO FIND NEW STRENGTH, IN SERVICE TO AMERICA.

FIRST, RESPECT. A NATION THAT RESPECTS WOUNDED VETERANS WON'T STAND BY AS THE FLAG THAT SO MANY OF THEM FOUGHT FOR -- AND SO MANY HAVE DIED FOR -- IS DESECRATED. HONEST PEOPLE CAN DIFFER ON THE APPROACH WE TAKE. BUT WE ALL AGREE ON PRINCIPLE: IT IS WRONG -- -SIMPLY, ABSOLUTELY WRONG -- TO DESECRATE THE AMERICAN FLAG. SINCE OUR SACRED CONSTITUTION NEEDS CLARIFICATION ON THIS POINT I HAVE PROPOSED A VERY SIMPLE AMENDMENT -- THAT WILL MAKE IT CLEAR -- OUR FLAG MUST NOT BE DESCRATED.

SECOND, A NATION THAT RESPECTS WOUNDED VETS MAKES SURE THEY HAVE A STRONG VOICE IN THE GOVERNMENT THAT SERVES THEM. THAT'S WHY I'VE BEEN SO PLEASED TO WELCOME THE DEPARTMENT OF VETERAN'S AFFAIRS TO A PLACE IN THE CABINET. [PAUSE] AND WHEN I SEE MY CLOSE FRIEND AND FORMER CONGRESSIONAL COLLEAGUE, ED DERWINSKI, SITTING AT THE TABLE IN CABINET MEETINGS, I KNOW WE DID SOMETHING RIGHT FOR AMERICA'S VETERANS.

THIRD, A NATION THAT RESPECTS WOUNDED VETS WORKS TO GUARANTEE THEM A FAIR SHOT IN THE MARKETPLACE. SO WE'RE WORKING ON A SIGNIFICANT NEW EXPANSION IN CIVIL RIGHTS LAWS, WITH LEGISLATION TO EXTEND THOSE PROTECTIONS TO ALL AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES.

FOURTH, ALL VETERANS WHO WERE EXPOSED TO AGENT ORANGE HERBICIDE IN SOUTHEAST ASIA DESERVE AND SHOULD EXPECT A SOUND NATIONAL POLICY IN HANDLING BENEFIT CLAIMS. ED DERWINSKI IS DEVISING NEW GUIDELINES WHICH WILL GIVE A FULL AND FAIR HEARING TO THOSE VETERANS WHO MAY HAVE SUFFERED FROM EXPOSURE TO AGENT ORANGE IN SERVICE TO AMERICA.

AND FINALLY, A NATION THAT RESPECTS WOUNDED VETS MUST DO ALL IT CAN TO MAKE SURE THAT THEY GET QUALITY HEALTH CARE. [PAUSE] YOU KNOW THAT IMPROVEMENTS ARE NEEDED -- AND IN SPITE OF BUDGET CONSTRAINTS, I'M COMMITTED TO SEE THAT THEY'RE MADE.

THIS MONTH SECRETARY DERWINSKI SENT TO CONGRESS OUR PROPOSAL TO CREATE A NATIONAL COMMISSION THAT WILL REVIEW VA MEDICAL FACILITIES ACROSS THE COUNTRY. WE WANT TO IMPROVE THE SYSTEM TO INCLUDE SPECIALIZED CENTERS OF EXCELLENCE, AMBULATORY CARE, COMMUNITY-BASED CARE, AND HOME HEALTH CARE OPTIONS.

WE ALSO WANT TO BROADEN ACCESS TO SERVICES AND CONTROL COSTS, BY ENCOURAGING THE VA AND THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE TO SHARE FACILITIES -- PROVIDING BETTER SERVICES THROUGH BETTER COOPERATION. YOU'VE GIVEN YOUR BEST -- THE LEAST WE CAN DO IS PROVIDE YOU WITH THE VERY BEST HEALTH CARE.

SO MUCH HAS BEEN EXPECTED OF YOU -- IN WAR, AND IN PEACE. SO THIS MAY STRIKE YOU AS A PARADOX -- BUT TODAY THIS PRESIDENT IS ASKING YOU TO DO MORE. TO GIVE EVEN MORE OF YOURSELVES, YOUR TIME, YOUR TALENTS -- TO OTHERS.

YOU MAY FIND, AS MANY HERE HAVE, THAT THE MORE YOU GIVE, THE MORE YOU HAVE TO GIVE. THERE MAY BE NO GREATER FEELING IN THE WORLD, THAN TO HAVE SOMEONE DEPENDING ON YOU -- AND TO LIVE UP TO THEIR EXPECTATIONS.

ABOUT A YEAR AGO, AT ANOTHER CONVENTION, I REFERRED TO THE DISABLED AMERICAN VETERANS AS PART OF "A BRILLIANT DIVERSITY SPREAD LIKE STARS, LIKE A THOUSAND POINTS OF LIGHT IN A BROAD AND PEACEFUL SKY."

YOU ARE SUCH PEOPLE -- PART OF A CONSTELLATION OF CONCERNED CITIZENS, COMMITTED TO BUILDING A BETTER AMERICA. IN WAR, YOU HAVE SEEN THE WORST. IN PEACE, YOU'RE AMONG THE BEST.

YOUR COUNTRY NEEDS YOU ONCE AGAIN.

EACH OF YOU HAS COME TO TERMS WITH WAR AND ITS COSTS -- FIGHTING PRIVATE BATTLES THAT THOSE YOU FOUGHT FOR, AND DEFENDED, CAN ONLY DIMLY UNDERSTAND. A POET I ADMIRE, WHO DID UNDERSTAND, WROTE:

IT MAY BE THAT OUR LATER SELVES, OR ELSE OUR UNBORN SONS,

WILL SEARCH FOR MEANING IN THE DUST OF LONG-DESERTED GUNS.

FOR MANY OF YOU, THAT SEARCH FOR MEANING HAS LED YOU TO THE FACES OF YOUNG PEOPLE THREATENED BY DRUGS AND ALCOHOL. TO A BASKETBALL COURT, OR A LITTLE LEAGUE TEAM, THAT NEEDS A COACH. TO THE SMALL BUSINESS THAT NEEDS YOUR SKILLS. OR THE LOCAL SCHOOL THAT NEEDS A TEACHER.

MAYBE YOU KNOW ALLEN CLARK, OUR NOMINEE AS ASSISTANT SECRETARY FOR VETERANS LIAISON AND PROGRAM COORDINATION. HE LOST BOTH LEGS TO MORTAR FIRE AT THE AGE OF 24. OVER 15 MONTHS AND 12 OPERATIONS, HE SAYS HE HAD PLENTY OF TIME TO THINK. "I WONDERED HOW I WOULD BE ABLE TO SUPPORT MYSELF," HE SAYS. "WHAT I WOULD BE DOING. WHETHER I WOULD BE ABLE TO PICK UP AND HOLD CHILDREN IN MY ARMS. HOW I COULD BRING MY LIFE TOGETHER AGAIN."

BUT HE DIDN'T STOP THERE. HE'S INSPIRED PEOPLE ACROSS THE COUNTRY, SAYING "WE CAN DO ANYTHING THAT WE DECIDE WE CAN DO. WE CAN TRAIN OR RETRAIN OURSELVES. WE CAN REDIRECT OUR LIVES. I THANK THE LORD FOR THE OPPORTUNITY TO LIVE A SECOND LIFE. ONE OF MY FRIENDS ONCE TOLD ME YOU HAVE NEVER LIVED UNTIL YOU'VE ALMOST DIED. FOR THOSE WHO FIGHT FOR IT, LIFE HAS A FLAVOR THE PROTECTED WILL NEVER KNOW."

JUST ASK RON CASTILLE, WHO AT 23 WAS ALREADY WOUNDED AND LYING ON THE FLOOR OF A HELICOPTER, WHEN ANOTHER MACHINE GUN SLUG RIPPED THROUGH THE FLOOR AND HIT HIM. TODAY HE'S DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOR THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA -- SERVING THE YOUTH AID COUNCIL, THE URBAN COALITION, AND FOUNDING AN ANTI-DRUG PROGRAM FOR KIDS. ASK HIM IF HIS JOB IS FRUSTRATING, AND HE'LL TELL YOU, "NO, GOLF IS REALLY FRUSTRATING."

THIS YEAR'S OUTSTANDING DISABLED VETERAN, TOMMY CLACK, HAS TRAVELLED TO ALL 50 STATES AS A SPEAKER AND LECTURER. HE'S HELD POSTS IN THE GEORGIA DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS SERVICES, THE JAYCEES, THE RED CROSS, THE ATLANTA VA MEDICAL CENTER, AND ORGANIZED A PROGRAM THAT HAS HELPED OVER 400 VETERANS SECURE $84 MILLION IN SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION LOANS SINCE '83. HE HUNTS DEER AND DUCKS EACH FALL FROM HIS WHEELCHAIR. THEY SAY HE "ALWAYS GETS HIS DEER." LUCKY MAN.

I SINGLE OUT THE FEW, BECAUSE THEY REPRESENT THE MANY. THEY, LIKE EVERY ONE OF YOU, REPRESENT AMERICA'S HIGHEST, MOST ENDURING IDEALS. THEY'RE THE IDEALS OF DUTY. HONOR. SACRIFICE. BUT ABOVE ALL, REDEMPTION. BECAUSE ONCE YOU'RE GIVEN A SECOND CHANCE, YOU NEVER LOOK BACK.

WE HAVE WITHIN OUR REACH -- AND MANY OF YOU HAVE FOUND -- A WAY TO HEAL THE WOUNDS WITHIN. YOU HAVE TURNED YOUR GAZE OUTWARD, AND FOCUSED THE BRILLIANCE OF YOUR WILL TO LIVE ON THOSE WHO MOST NEED IT -- AND IN DOING SO, YOU HAVE STRENGTHENED YOURSELVES.

YOUR VOLUNTEER AND AUXILIARY PROGRAMS PROVIDE OVER TWO MILLION HOURS OF ABSOLUTELY VITAL HELP EACH YEAR IN VA MEDICAL CENTERS. AND VOLUNTEERS BEHIND THE WHEEL OF VANS IN THE DAV TRANSPORTATION PROGRAM WILL TRAVEL OVER SEVEN MILLION MILES THIS YEAR, GETTING VETS TO FACILITIES FOR MEDICAL TREATMENT.

THESE ARE OUTSTANDING EXAMPLES OF PRIVATE EFFORTS MEETING CRUCIAL NEEDS. I'D LIKE TO COMMEND ALL OF YOU INVOLVED -- ALONG WITH YOUR DIRECTOR OF VOLUNTARY SERVICES, BRUCE NITSCHÉ [NITS-SHEE]. [PAUSE]

LET ME ENCOURAGE YOU TO APPLY YOUR TALENTS, YOUR STRENGTH, YOUR INSIGHT, YOUR SENSITIVITY, YOUR COMPASSION -- THE DEPTH AND BRILLIANCE OF YOUR GIFTS -- TO BRING NEW AND HOPEFUL LIGHT TO EVERY CORNER OF AMERICA, WHETHER IN INNER CITIES OR MOUNTAIN HOLLOWES.

LET THIS NOW BE A WAR WAGED AGAINST DRUGS, ALCOHOL ABUSE, CHILD ABUSE, VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN, ILLITERACY, POLLUTION -- AGAINST ALL LOST HOPES AND BROKEN DREAMS. IN THIS BATTLE, YOUR BEST WEAPON WILL BE HOPE.

I KNOW YOU ALREADY HAVE THE COURAGE AND WILL TO PERSEVERE. YOU'VE SHED BLOOD FOR AMERICA. AND AS LONG AS YOUR HEARTS BEAT WITHIN YOU, YOU CAN DO GOOD FOR AMERICA.

TOGETHER, WE CAN PROVE THAT TRUE PATRIOTISM CAN NEVER BE PATRONIZED, NOR COMPROMISED. TOGETHER, WE CAN PROVE THAT EVERYWHERE THERE IS A NEED IN AMERICA, WE HAVE THE STRENGTH TO MEET IT. TOGETHER, WE CAN SHOW THE WORLD THAT ANY DEFINITION OF A SUCCESSFUL LIFE MUST INCLUDE SERVING OTHERS -- IN TIMES OF PEACE, AS WELL AS TIMES OF WAR.

THROUGH THOUSANDS OF ACTS OF QUIET VALOR, YOU ARE TURNING WHAT LESSER MEN AND WOMEN MIGHT HAVE SEEN AS TRAGEDY, TO TRIUMPH.

FOR THAT -- AND FOR YOUR DEVOTION AND SERVICE TO AMERICA -- I THANK YOU. GOD BLESS YOU. AND GOD BLESS THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH:           CHRISS WINSTON cc
FROM:               MARK LANGE ML
SUBJECT:            REMARKS FOR DISABLED AMERICAN VETERANS CONVENTION

I.    SUMMARY

Attached are remarks for the 68th National Convention of the Disabled American Veterans, at the Hilton Hotel in Las Vegas, Nevada -- 1:00 p.m., on Monday, July 31.

Roughly 3,500 disabled veterans will attend.

II.   DISCUSSION

You will be introduced by Billy Kirby, a Texan and the DAV's National Commander. Also in attendance will be Secretary Derwinski, Senator Murkowski, Congressman Stump, and the DAV's National Adjutant Butch Joeckel.

Your remarks begin by outlining your defense strategy, given the activity in Congress.

You then turn to two themes: First, conveying respect for disabled veterans -- through protection of the flag, a seat in the Cabinet, civil rights protection, and health issues. And second: the important voluntary contributions disabled veterans can make in service to America.

The couplet of poetry on page four comes from David Bains' "War Poet."

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS:      DISABLED AMERICAN VETERANS CONVENTION
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA
MONDAY, JULY 31, 1989
1:00 P.M.

Thank you, Billy. National Adjutant Joeckel [JOKE-el],
Officers; Senator Murkowski, Congressman Stump, Secretary
Derwinski... and my brothers in arms:

I am proud to be with you today, at your 68th annual convention. I understand I'm the first sitting President to meet with this group. Well... I thought it was about time... [PAUSE]
Just sorry I couldn't get here sooner...

This is a gathering of extraordinary Americans. An assembly of heroes. Together you represent over one million men and women disabled in military service to our country.

In the name of freedom; for the sake of justice; to defend democracy -- all of you have made the definitive commitment to keep America first, free, strong, and proud. While you were living up to that commitment, serving your country, many of you will remember how in one brief, blinding instant, everything
changed. [PAUSE]

Maybe you remember the hands that reached for you. The voices in darkness. The vessels that delivered you from the horror of war.

All of you still bear those wounds -- and can bear them with pride. Fighting to tear power from tyrants, struggling to secure freedom around the world, the disabled veterans of America have paid the highest price the living can pay for freedom.

The moment you fell in service, you ascended in the hearts and minds of all Americans. Short of death itself, there can be no greater gift given to -- nor accepted by -- a grateful nation. No words are the equal of your actions.

[ To preserve what you have won, the United States has a defense strategy centered on deterrence -- to maintain credible, capable military forces strong enough to prevent attack or coercion. Yet in the current Congressional debate on the Defense budget, some would tear down our ability to implement this strategy, by cutting weapons that we need, and adding weapons we don't need.

Those who attempt to change the critical elements of my defense program would dismantle our defense strategy, piece by piece. But they have no strategy with which to replace it. You who know sacrifice, deserve better. Our nation deserves better.

We have a closely-integrated strategic program, designed to enhance U.S. strength, bolster deterrence, and facilitate arms control. It demands that we modernize our ICBM force, redeploing the Peacekeeper in rail-garrison now, and completing the development to deploy the new Small ICBM. These mobile systems will bring improved survivability and stability to the land-based leg of our strategic triad.

A strong defense means sufficient funding for the Stealth Bomber. And it means support for the Strategic Defense

Initiative -- because SDI offers the promise of a stable nuclear balance that relies increasingly on defense. It will make any START treaty more effective. And it represents our best step toward stability -- the same goal we seek through offensive modernization and arms control. That is the program the country needs -- and that is the program the Congress should ratify. ]

Fellow veterans: While America's debt to those wounded in wartime can never be repaid, it can and will be remembered. You should be able to take our gratitude for granted. But what you deserve... is our respect. [PAUSE]

That's why I'm here today: to talk about respecting those wounded in service -- and encouraging them to find new strength, in service to America.

First, respect. A nation that respects wounded veterans won't stand by as the flag that so many of them fought for -- and so many have died for -- is desecrated. Honest people can differ on the approach we take. But we all agree on principle: It is wrong -- simply, absolutely wrong -- to desecrate the American flag.

Second, a nation that respects wounded vets makes sure they have a strong voice in the government that serves them. That's why I've been so pleased to welcome the Department of Veteran's Affairs to a place in the Cabinet. [PAUSE] And when I see my close friend and former Congressional colleague, Ed Derwinski, sitting at the table in Cabinet meetings, I know we did something right for America's veterans.

Third, a nation that respects wounded vets works to guarantee them a fair shot in the marketplace. So we're working on a significant new expansion in civil rights laws, with legislation to extend those protections to all Americans with disabilities.

Fourth, all veterans who were exposed to Agent Orange herbicide in Southeast Asia deserve and should expect a sound national policy in handling benefit claims. Ed Derwinski is devising new guidelines which will give a full and fair hearing to those veterans who may have suffered from exposure to Agent Orange in service to America.

And finally, a nation that respects wounded vets must do all it can to make sure that they get quality health care. [PAUSE] You know that improvements are needed -- and in spite of budget constraints, I'm committed to see that they're made.

This month Secretary Derwinski sent to Congress our proposal to create a national commission that will review VA medical facilities across the country. We want to improve the system to include specialized centers of excellence, ambulatory care, community-based care, and home health care options.

We also want to broaden access to services and control costs, by encouraging the VA and the Department of Defense to share facilities -- providing better services through better cooperation. You've given your best -- the least we can do is provide you with the very best health care.

So much has been expected of you -- in war, and in peace. So this may strike you as a paradox -- but today this President is asking you to do more. To give even more of yourselves, your time, your talents -- to others.

You may find, as many here have, that the more you give, the more you have to give. There may be no greater feeling in the world, than to have someone depending on you -- and to live up to their expectations.

About a year ago, at another convention, I referred to the Disabled American Veterans as part of "a brilliant diversity spread like stars, like a thousand points of light in a broad and peaceful sky."

You are such people -- part of a constellation of concerned citizens, committed to building a better America. In war, you have seen the worst. In peace, you're among the best.

Your country needs you once again.

Each of you has come to terms with war and its costs -- fighting private battles that those you fought for, and defended, can only dimly understand. A poet I admire, who did understand, wrote:

It may be that our later selves, or else our unborn sons,
Will search for meaning in the dust of long-deserted guns.

For many of you, that search for meaning has led you to the faces of young people threatened by drugs and alcohol. To a basketball court, or a little league team, that needs a coach.

To the small business that needs your skills. Or the local school that needs a teacher.

Maybe you know Allen Clark, our nominee as Assistant Secretary for Veterans Liaison and Program Coordination. He lost both legs to mortar fire at the age of 24. Over 15 months and 12 operations, he says he had plenty of time to think. "I wondered how I would be able to support myself," he says. "What I would be doing. Whether I would be able to pick up and hold children in my arms. How I could bring my life together again."

But he didn't stop there. He's inspired people across the country, saying "We can do anything that we decide we can do. We can train or retrain ourselves. We can redirect our lives. I thank the Lord for the opportunity to live a second life. One of my friends once told me you have never lived until you've almost died. For those who fight for it, life has a flavor the protected will never know."

Just ask Ron Castille, who at 23 was already wounded and lying on the floor of a helicopter, when another machine gun slug ripped through the floor and hit him. Today he's district attorney for the city of Philadelphia -- serving the Youth Aid Council, the Urban Coalition, and founding an anti-drug program for kids. Ask him if his job is frustrating, and he'll tell you, "No, golf is really frustrating."

This year's Outstanding Disabled Veteran, Tommy Clack, has travelled to all 50 states as a speaker and lecturer. He's held posts in the Georgia Department of Veterans Services, the Jaycees, the Red Cross, the Atlanta VA Medical Center, and organized a program that has helped over 400 veterans secure $84 million in Small Business Administration loans since '83.

He hunts deer and ducks each fall from his wheelchair. They say he "always gets his deer." Lucky man.

I single out the few, because they represent the many. They, like every one of you, represent America's highest, most enduring ideals. They're the ideals of duty. Honor. Sacrifice. But above all, redemption. Because once you're given a second chance, you never look back.

We have within our reach -- and many of you have found -- a way to heal the wounds within. You have turned your gaze outward, and focused the brilliance of your will to live on those who most need it -- and in doing so, you have strengthened yourselves.

Your volunteer and auxiliary programs provide over two million hours of absolutely vital help each year in VA Medical Centers. And volunteers behind the wheel of vans in the DAV Transportation Program will travel over seven million miles this year, getting vets to facilities for medical treatment.

These are outstanding examples of private efforts meeting crucial needs. I'd like to commend all of you involved -- along with your director of voluntary services, Bruce Nitsche [NITS-shee]. [PAUSE]

Let me encourage you to apply your talents, your strength, your insight, your sensitivity, your compassion -- the depth and brilliance of your gifts -- to bring new and hopeful light to every corner of America, whether in inner cities or mountain hollows.

Let this now be a war waged against drugs, alcohol abuse, child abuse, violence against women, illiteracy, pollution -- against all lost hopes and broken dreams. In this battle, your best weapon will be hope.

I know you already have the courage and will to persevere. You've shed blood for America. And as long as your hearts beat within you, you can do good for America.

Together, we can prove that true patriotism can never be patronized, nor compromised. Together, we can prove that everywhere there is a need in America, we have the strength to meet it. Together, we can show the world that any definition of a successful life must include serving others -- in times of peace, as well as times of war.

Through thousands of acts of quiet valor, you are turning what lesser men and women might have seen as tragedy, to triumph.

For that -- and for your devotion and service to America -- I thank you. God bless you. And God bless the United States of America.

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS:      DISABLED AMERICAN VETERANS CONVENTION
                                 LAS VEGAS, NEVADA
                                 MONDAY, JULY 31, 1989
                                 1:00 P.M.

Thank you, Billy. National Adjutant Joeckel [JOKE-el],
Officers; Senator Murkowski, Congressman Stump, Secretary
Derwinski... my friends --" and brothers in arms:

I am proud to be with you today, at your 68th annual convention. I understand I'm the first sitting President to meet with this group. Well... I thought it was about time. [pause]
Just sorry I couldn't get here sooner...

This is a gathering of extraordinary Americans. An assembly of heroes. Together you represent over one million men and women disabled during wartime, in service to our country.

In the name of freedom; for the sake of justice; to defend democracy -- all of you have made the definitive commitment to keep America first, free, strong, and proud.

And while you were living up to that commitment, serving your country, many of you will remember -- and some of you thankfully won't -- how in one brief, blinding instant, everything changed.

Maybe you remember the hammer of chopper blades, the voices in darkness, the hands that reached for you, the vessels that delivered you from the horror of war.

All of you still bear those wounds -- and can bear them with pride. Fighting to tear power from tyrants, struggling to secure freedom around the world, the disabled veterans of America have paid the highest price the living can pay for freedom.

The moment you fell in service, you ascended in the hearts and minds of all Americans. Short of death itself, there can be no greater gift given to -- nor accepted by -- a grateful nation. No words are the equal of your actions.

And while such a debt can never be repaid, it can and will be remembered. You should be able to take our gratitude for granted. But what you deserve... is our respect. [pause]

And that's what I want to talk to you about today: respecting those wounded in service -- and encouraging them to find new strength, in service to America.

First, respect. A nation that respects wounded veterans won't stand by as the flag that so many of them fought for -- and so many have died for -- is desecrated. Honest people can differ on the approach we take. But we all agree on principle: It is wrong -- simply, absolutely wrong -- to desecrate the American flag. It stands for too much. Too many have died for it.

Second, a nation that respects wounded veterans makes sure that they have a strong voice in the government that serves them. That's why I've been so pleased to welcome the Department of Veteran's Affairs to a place in the Cabinet. [pause] And when I see my close friend and former Congressional colleague, Ed

Derwinski, sitting at the table in Cabinet meetings, I know we did something right for America's veterans.

Third, a nation that respects wounded veterans works to guarantee them a fair shot in the marketplace. So we're supporting a significant new expansion in civil rights laws, with legislation to extend those protections to all Americans with disabilities. It's time to trade litigation for cooperation.

And fourth, a nation that respects wounded veterans must do all it can to make sure that they get quality health care. [pause] You know that improvements are needed -- and in spite of budget constraints, I'm committed to see that they're made.

This month Secretary Derwinski sent to Congress our proposal to create a national commission, that will review VA medical facilities across the country. We want to improve the system to include specialized centers of excellence, ambulatory care, community-based care, and home health care options.

We also want to broaden services and control costs, by encouraging the VA and the Department of Defense to share facilities -- providing better services through better cooperation. You've given your best -- the least we can do is provide you with the very best health care.

My friends, so much has been expected of you -- in war, and in peace. So this may strike you as a paradox -- but today this President is asking you to do more. To give even more of yourselves, your time, your talents -- to others.

You may find, as many here have, that the more you give, the more you have to give. There may be no greater feeling in the world, than to have someone depending on you -- and to live up to their expectations.

About a year ago, at another convention, I referred to the Disabled American Veterans as part of "a brilliant diversity spread like stars, like a thousand points of light in a broad and peaceful sky."

You are such people -- part of a constellation of concerned citizens, committed to building a better America. In war, you have seen the worst. In peace, you're among the best.

Your country needs you once again.

Each of you has come to terms with war and its costs -- fighting private battles that those you fought for, and defended, can only dimly understand. A poet I admire, who did understand, wrote:

It may be that our later selves, or else our unborn sons,
Will search for meaning in the dust of long-deserted guns.

For many of you, that search for meaning has led you to the faces of young people threatened by drugs and alcohol. To a basketball court, or a little league team, that needs a coach. To the small business that needs your skills. Or the local school that needs a teacher.

Maybe you know Allen Clark, who lost both legs to mortar fire at the age of 24. Over 15 months and 12 operations, he says he had plenty of time to think. "I wondered how I would be able to support myself," he says. "What I would be doing. Whether I would be able to pick up children in my arms. How I could bring my life together again."

But he didn't stop there. He's inspired people across the country, saying "We can do anything that we decide we can do. We can train or retrain ourselves. We can redirect our lives. I thank the Lord for the opportunity to live a second life. One of my friends once told me you have never lived until you've almost died. For those who fight for it, life has a flavor the protected will never know." and he is now joining the Veterans Team as an Assistant Secretary - designate.

Just ask Ron Castille, who at 23 was already wounded and lying on the floor of a helicopter, when another machine gun slug ripped through the floor and hit him. Today he's district attorney for the city of Philadelphia -- serving the Youth Aid Council, the Urban Coalition, and founding an anti-drug program for kids. Ask him if his job is frustrating, and he'll tell you, "No, golf is really frustrating."

This year's Outstanding Disabled Veteran, Tommy Clack, has travelled to all 50 states as a speaker and lecturer. He's held posts in the Georgia Department of Veterans Services, the Jaycees, the Red Cross, the Atlanta VA Medical Center, and organized a program that has helped over 400 veterans secure $84 million in Small Business Administration loans since '83.

He hunts deer and ducks each fall from his wheelchair. They say he "always gets his deer." Lucky man.

I single out the few, because they represent the many. They, like every one of you, represent America's highest, most enduring ideals. They're the ideals of duty. Honor. Sacrifice. But above all, redemption. Because once you're given a second chance, you never look back.

We have within our reach -- and many of you have found -- a way to heal the wounds within. You have turned your gaze outward, and focused the brilliance of your will to live on those who most need it -- and in doing so, you have found yourselves strengthened.

Your volunteer and auxiliary programs provide over two million hours of absolutely vital help each year in VA Medical Centers. That makes sure that deserving veterans aren't turned away, and wards aren't closed.

should not mention.

And volunteers behind the wheel of vans in the DAV Transportation Program will travel over seven million miles this year, getting vets to facilities for medical treatment. These are outstanding examples of private initiatives meeting crucial needs. I'd like to commend all of you involved -- along with your director of voluntary services, Bruce Nitsche. [pron.]

Gathered here today, you represent a million Americans -- men and women we call "disabled," but who rightly ought to be known as the handi-capable.

Let me encourage you to apply your talents, your strength, your insight, your sensitivity, your compassion -- the depth and brilliance of your gifts -- to bring new and hopeful light to every corner of America, whether in inner cities or mountain hollows.

Let this now be a war waged against drugs, alcohol abuse, child abuse, violence against women, illiteracy, pollution -- against all lost hopes and broken dreams. In this battle, your best weapon will be hope.

I know you already have the courage and will to persevere. You've shed blood for America. And as long as your hearts beat within you, you can do good for America.

Together, we can prove that true patriotism can never be patronized, nor compromised. Together, we can show the world that everywhere there is a need in America, we have the strength to meet it.

Through thousands of acts of quiet valor, you are turning what lesser men and women might have let be tragedy, to triumph.

For that I thank you. God bless you.

And God bless the United States of America.

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS:      DISABLED AMERICAN VETERANS CONVENTION
   LAS VEGAS, NEVADA
   MONDAY, JULY 31, 1989
   1:00 P.M.

Thank you, Billy. National Adjutant Joeckel [JOKE-el],
Officers; Senator Murkowski, Congressman Stump, Secretary
Derwinski... my friends --" and brothers in arms:

I am proud to be with you today, at your 68th annual convention. I understand I'm the first sitting President to meet with this group. Well... I thought it was about time. [pause]
Just sorry I couldn't get here sooner...

This is a gathering of extraordinary Americans. An assembly of heroes. Together you represent over one million men and women disabled ~~during wartime~~, <sup>military</sup> in service to our country.

In the name of freedom; for the sake of justice; to defend democracy -- all of you have made the definitive commitment to keep America first, free, strong, and proud.

And while you were living up to that commitment, serving your country, many of you will remember -- ~~and some of you~~ ~~thankfully won't~~ -- how in one brief, blinding instant, everything changed. [PAUSE] <sup>etc</sup>

Maybe you remember the ~~hammer of chopper blades~~, <sup>(add other ref.)</sup> the voices in darkness, the hands that reached for you, the vessels that delivered you from the horror of war.

All of you still bear those wounds -- and can bear them with pride. Fighting to tear power from tyrants, struggling to secure freedom around the world, the disabled veterans of America have paid the highest price the living can pay for freedom.

The moment you fell in service, you ascended in the hearts and minds of all Americans. Short of death itself, there can be no greater gift given to -- nor accepted by -- a grateful nation. No words are the equal of your actions.

And while such a debt can never be repaid, it can and will be remembered. You should be able to take our gratitude for granted. But what you deserve... is our respect. [pause]

And that's what I want to talk to you about today: respecting those wounded in service -- and encouraging them to find new strength, in service to America.

First, respect. A nation that respects wounded veterans won't stand by as the flag that so many of them fought for -- and so many have died for -- is desecrated. Honest people can differ on the approach we take. But we all agree on principle: It is wrong -- simply, absolutely wrong -- to desecrate the American flag. It stands for too much. Too many have died for <sup>all it stands for</sup> ~~it~~.

Second, a nation that respects wounded veterans makes sure that they have a strong voice in the government that serves them. That's why I've been so pleased to welcome the Department of Veteran's Affairs to a place in the Cabinet. [pause] And when I see my close friend and former Congressional colleague, Ed

Derwinski, sitting at the table in Cabinet meetings, I know we did something right for America's veterans.

~~Third, a nation that respects wounded veterans works to guarantee them a fair shot in the marketplace. So we're supporting a significant new expansion in civil rights laws, with legislation to extend those protections to all Americans with disabilities. It's time to trade litigation for cooperation.~~

And <sup>stet</sup>fourth, a nation that respects wounded veterans must do all it can to make sure that they get quality health care.

[pause] You know that improvements are needed -- and in spite of budget constraints, I'm committed to see that they're made.

This month Secretary Derwinski sent to Congress our proposal to create a national commission~~x~~ that will review VA medical facilities across the country. We want to improve the system to of excellence, ambulatory care, some health care options.

REMARKS: DISABLED AMERICAN VETERANS CONVENTION
LAS VEGAS, NEVADA
MONDAY, JULY 31, 1989
1:00 P.M.

THANK YOU, BILLY. NATIONAL ADJUTANT JOECKEL
[JOKE-EL], OFFICERS; SENATOR MURKOWSKI, CONGRESSMAN
STUMP, ~~SECRETARY DERWINSKI~~... AND MY BROTHERS IN ARMS: ?

I AM PROUD TO BE WITH YOU TODAY, AT YOUR 68TH
ANNUAL CONVENTION. [I UNDERSTAND I'M THE FIRST SITTING
PRESIDENT TO MEET WITH THIS GROUP. WELL... I THOUGHT
IT WAS ABOUT TIME. [PAUSE] THIS IS A GATHERING OF
EXTRAORDINARY AMERICANS. AN ASSEMBLY OF HEROES.
TOGETHER YOU REPRESENT OVER ONE MILLION MEN AND WOMEN
DISABLED IN MILITARY SERVICE TO OUR COUNTRY.

IN THE NAME OF FREEDOM; FOR THE SAKE OF JUSTICE;
TO DEFEND DEMOCRACY -- ALL OF YOU HAVE MADE THE
DEFINITIVE COMMITMENT TO KEEP AMERICA FIRST, FREE,
STRONG, AND PROUD. WHILE YOU WERE LIVING UP TO THAT COMMITMENT, SERVING YOUR COUNTRY, MANY OF YOU WILL REMEMBER HOW IN ONE BRIEF, BLINDING INSTANT, EVERYTHING
CHANGED. [PAUSE]

MAYBE YOU REMEMBER THE HANDS THAT REACHED FOR YOU.
THE VOICES IN DARKNESS. THE VESSELS THAT DELIVERED YOU
FROM THE HORROR OF WAR.

ALL OF YOU STILL BEAR THOSE WOUNDS -- AND CAN BEAR
THEM WITH PRIDE. FIGHTING TO TEAR POWER FROM TYRANTS, STRUGGLING TO SECURE FREEDOM AROUND THE WORLD, THE
DISABLED VETERANS OF AMERICA HAVE PAID THE HIGHEST
PRICE THE LIVING CAN PAY FOR FREEDOM.

TO PRESERVE WHAT YOU HAVE WON -- TO HONOR WHAT YOU HAVE DONE -- THE UNITED STATES MUST KEEP THE PEACE. TO DO THAT WE HAVE A DEFENSE STRATEGY CENTERED ON
DETERRENCE -- TO MAINTAIN CREDIBLE, CAPABLE MILITARY
FORCES STRONG ENOUGH TO PREVENT ATTACK OR COERCION.
YET ACTION TO DATE IN THE CONGRESS ON THE DEFENSE
BUDGET, HAS BEEN INFLUENCED BY THOSE WHO WOULD BLOCK
OUR ABILITY TO IMPLEMENT THIS STRATEGY. THEY HAVE CUT WEAPONS WE NEED, AND ADDED WEAPONS WE DON'T NEED.

Nov. 15th 1954

THOSE WHO ATTEMPT TO CHANGE THE CRITICAL ELEMENTS OF OUR DEFENSE PROGRAM WOULD IN EFFECT, DISMANTLE OUR DEFENSE STRATEGY, PIECE BY PIECE. BUT THEY HAVE NO STRATEGY WITH WHICH TO REPLACE IT. YOU WHO KNOW SACRIFICE, DESERVE BETTER. OUR NATION DESERVES BETTER.

WE HAVE A CLOSELY-INTEGRATED STRATEGIC PROGRAM, DESIGNED TO ENHANCE U.S. STRENGTH, BOLSTER DETERRENCE, AND FACILITATE ARMS CONTROL. IT DEMANDS THAT WE MODERNIZE OUR ICBM FORCE, REDEPLOYING THE PEACEKEEPER IN RAIL-GARRISON NOW, AND COMPLETING THE DEVELOPMENT TO DEPLOY THE NEW SMALL ICBM. THESE MOBILE SYSTEMS WILL BRING IMPROVED SURVIVABILITY AND STABILITY TO THE LAND-BASED LEG OF OUR STRATEGIC TRIAD.

A STRONG DEFENSE MEANS SUFFICIENT FUNDING FOR THE STEALTH BOMBER. AND IT MEANS SUPPORT FOR THE STRATEGIC DEFENSE INITIATIVE -- BECAUSE SDI OFFERS THE PROMISE OF A STABLE NUCLEAR BALANCE THAT RELIES INCREASINGLY ON DEFENSE. IT WILL MAKE ANY START TREATY MORE EFFECTIVE. AND IT REPRESENTS OUR BEST STEP TOWARD STABILITY -- THE SAME GOAL WE SEEK THROUGH OFFENSIVE MODERNIZATION AND ARMS CONTROL. THIS IS THE PROGRAM THE COUNTRY NEEDS -- AND I WILL WORK TO SEE THAT THIS IS THE PROGRAM THE CONGRESS RATIFIES.

? FELLOW VETERANS: WHILE AMERICA'S DEBT TO THOSE WOUNDED IN WARTIME CAN NEVER BE REPAID, IT CAN AND WILL BE REMEMBERED. YOU SHOULD BE ABLE TO TAKE OUR GRATITUDE FOR GRANTED. BUT WHAT YOU DESERVE... IS OUR RESPECT. [PAUSE]

THAT'S WHY I'M HERE TODAY: TO TALK ABOUT RESPECTING THOSE WOUNDED IN SERVICE -- AND ENCOURAGING THEM TO FIND NEW STRENGTH, IN SERVICE TO AMERICA.

FIRST, RESPECT. A NATION THAT RESPECTS WOUNDED VETERANS WON'T STAND BY AS THE FLAG THAT SO MANY OF THEM FOUGHT FOR -- AND SO MANY HAVE DIED FOR -- IS DESECRATED. HONEST PEOPLE CAN DIFFER ON THE APPROACH WE TAKE. BUT WE ALL AGREE ON PRINCIPLE: IT IS WRONG -- SIMPLY, ABSOLUTELY WRONG -- TO DESECRATE THE AMERICAN FLAG. SINCE OUR SACRED CONSTITUTION NEEDS CLARIFICATION ON THIS POINT I HAVE PROPOSED A VERY SIMPLE AMENDMENT -- THAT WILL MAKE IT CLEAR -- OUR FLAG MUST NOT BE DESCRATED.

SECOND, A NATION THAT RESPECTS WOUNDED VETS MAKES SURE THEY HAVE A STRONG VOICE IN THE GOVERNMENT THAT SERVES THEM. THAT'S WHY I'VE BEEN SO PLEASED TO WELCOME THE DEPARTMENT OF VETERAN'S AFFAIRS TO A PLACE IN THE CABINET. [PAUSE] AND WHEN I SEE MY CLOSE FRIEND AND FORMER CONGRESSIONAL COLLEAGUE, ED DERWINSKI, SITTING AT THE TABLE IN CABINET MEETINGS, I KNOW WE DID SOMETHING RIGHT FOR AMERICA'S VETERANS.

THIRD, A NATION THAT RESPECTS WOUNDED VETS WORKS TO GUARANTEE THEM A FAIR SHOT IN THE MARKETPLACE. SO WE'RE WORKING ON A SIGNIFICANT NEW EXPANSION IN CIVIL RIGHTS LAWS, WITH LEGISLATION TO EXTEND THOSE PROTECTIONS TO ALL AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES.

FOURTH, ALL VETERANS WHO WERE EXPOSED TO AGENT ORANGE HERBICIDE IN SOUTHEAST ASIA DESERVE AND SHOULD EXPECT A SOUND NATIONAL POLICY IN HANDLING BENEFIT CLAIMS. <sup>WE ARE</sup> ~~ED DERWINSKI~~ IS DEVISING NEW GUIDELINES WHICH WILL GIVE A FULL AND FAIR HEARING TO THOSE VETERANS WHO MAY HAVE SUFFERED FROM EXPOSURE TO AGENT ORANGE IN SERVICE TO AMERICA.

AND FINALLY, A NATION THAT RESPECTS WOUNDED VETS MUST DO ALL IT CAN TO MAKE SURE THAT THEY GET QUALITY HEALTH CARE. [PAUSE] YOU KNOW THAT IMPROVEMENTS ARE NEEDED -- AND IN SPITE OF BUDGET CONSTRAINTS, I'M COMMITTED TO SEE THAT THEY'RE MADE.

<sup>WE</sup>
THIS MONTH SECRETARY ~~DERWINSKI~~ SENT TO CONGRESS
OUR PROPOSAL TO CREATE A NATIONAL COMMISSION THAT WILL REVIEW VA MEDICAL FACILITIES ACROSS THE COUNTRY. WE WANT TO IMPROVE THE SYSTEM TO INCLUDE SPECIALIZED CENTERS OF EXCELLENCE, AMBULATORY CARE, COMMUNITY-BASED CARE, AND HOME HEALTH CARE OPTIONS.

WE ALSO WANT TO BROADEN ACCESS TO SERVICES AND CONTROL COSTS, BY ENCOURAGING THE VA AND THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE TO SHARE FACILITIES -- PROVIDING BETTER SERVICES THROUGH BETTER COOPERATION. YOU'VE GIVEN YOUR BEST -- THE LEAST WE CAN DO IS PROVIDE YOU WITH THE VERY BEST HEALTH CARE.

SO MUCH HAS BEEN EXPECTED OF YOU -- IN WAR, AND IN PEACE. SO THIS MAY STRIKE YOU AS A PARADOX -- BUT <sup>ADMINISTRATION</sup>
~~TODAY~~ THIS ~~PRESIDENT~~ IS ASKING YOU TO DO MORE. TO GIVE EVEN MORE OF YOURSELVES, YOUR TIME, YOUR TALENTS -- TO OTHERS.

YOU MAY FIND, AS MANY HERE HAVE, THAT THE MORE YOU GIVE, THE MORE YOU HAVE TO GIVE. THERE MAY BE NO GREATER FEELING IN THE WORLD, THAN TO HAVE SOMEONE DEPENDING ON YOU -- AND TO LIVE UP TO THEIR EXPECTATIONS.

ABOUT A YEAR AGO, AT ANOTHER CONVENTION, ~~THE~~ THE PRESIDENT REFERRED TO THE DISABLED AMERICAN VETERANS AS PART OF "A BRILLIANT DIVERSITY SPREAD LIKE STARS, LIKE A THOUSAND POINTS OF LIGHT IN A BROAD AND PEACEFUL SKY."

YOU ARE SUCH PEOPLE -- PART OF A CONSTELLATION OF CONCERNED CITIZENS, COMMITTED TO BUILDING A BETTER AMERICA. IN WAR, YOU HAVE SEEN THE WORST. IN PEACE, YOU'RE AMONG THE BEST.

YOUR COUNTRY NEEDS YOU ONCE AGAIN.

EACH OF YOU HAS COME TO TERMS WITH WAR AND ITS COSTS -- FIGHTING PRIVATE BATTLES THAT THOSE YOU FOUGHT FOR, AND DEFENDED, CAN ONLY DIMLY UNDERSTAND. A POET I ADMIRE, WHO DID UNDERSTAND, WROTE:

IT MAY BE THAT OUR LATER SELVES, OR ELSE OUR UNBORN SONS,

WILL SEARCH FOR MEANING IN THE DUST OF LONG-DESERTED GUNS.

FOR MANY OF YOU, THAT SEARCH FOR MEANING HAS LED YOU TO THE FACES OF YOUNG PEOPLE THREATENED BY DRUGS AND ALCOHOL. TO A BASKETBALL COURT, OR A LITTLE LEAGUE TEAM, THAT NEEDS A COACH. TO THE SMALL BUSINESS THAT NEEDS YOUR SKILLS. OR THE LOCAL SCHOOL THAT NEEDS A TEACHER.

MAYBE YOU KNOW ALLEN CLARK, OUR NOMINEE AS ASSISTANT SECRETARY FOR VETERANS LIAISON AND PROGRAM COORDINATION. HE LOST BOTH LEGS TO MORTAR FIRE AT THE AGE OF 24. OVER 15 MONTHS AND 12 OPERATIONS, HE SAYS HE HAD PLENTY OF TIME TO THINK. "I WONDERED HOW I WOULD BE ABLE TO SUPPORT MYSELF," HE SAYS. "WHAT I WOULD BE DOING. WHETHER I WOULD BE ABLE TO PICK UP AND HOLD CHILDREN IN MY ARMS. HOW I COULD BRING MY LIFE TOGETHER AGAIN."

BUT HE DIDN'T STOP THERE. HE'S INSPIRED PEOPLE ACROSS THE COUNTRY, SAYING "WE CAN DO ANYTHING THAT WE DECIDE WE CAN DO. WE CAN TRAIN OR RETRAIN OURSELVES. WE CAN REDIRECT OUR LIVES. I THANK THE LORD FOR THE OPPORTUNITY TO LIVE A SECOND LIFE. ONE OF MY FRIENDS ONCE TOLD ME YOU HAVE NEVER LIVED UNTIL YOU'VE ALMOST DIED. FOR THOSE WHO FIGHT FOR IT, LIFE HAS A FLAVOR THE PROTECTED WILL NEVER KNOW."

JUST ASK RON CASTILLE, WHO AT 23 WAS ALREADY WOUNDED AND LYING ON THE FLOOR OF A HELICOPTER, WHEN ANOTHER MACHINE GUN SLUG RIPPED THROUGH THE FLOOR AND HIT HIM. TODAY HE'S DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOR THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA -- SERVING THE YOUTH AID COUNCIL, THE URBAN COALITION, AND FOUNDING AN ANTI-DRUG PROGRAM FOR KIDS. ASK HIM IF HIS JOB IS FRUSTRATING, AND HE'LL TELL YOU, "NO, GOLF IS REALLY FRUSTRATING."

THIS YEAR'S OUTSTANDING DISABLED VETERAN, TOMMY CLACK, HAS TRAVELLED TO ALL 50 STATES AS A SPEAKER AND LECTURER. HE'S HELD POSTS IN THE GEORGIA DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS SERVICES, THE JAYCEES, THE RED CROSS, THE ATLANTA VA MEDICAL CENTER, AND ORGANIZED A PROGRAM THAT HAS HELPED OVER 400 VETERANS SECURE $84 MILLION IN SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION LOANS SINCE '83. HE HUNTS DEER AND DUCKS EACH FALL FROM HIS WHEELCHAIR. THEY SAY HE "ALWAYS GETS HIS DEER." LUCKY MAN.

I SINGLE OUT THE FEW, BECAUSE THEY REPRESENT THE MANY. THEY, LIKE EVERY ONE OF YOU, REPRESENT AMERICA'S HIGHEST, MOST ENDURING IDEALS. THEY'RE THE IDEALS OF DUTY. HONOR. SACRIFICE. BUT ABOVE ALL, REDEMPTION. BECAUSE ONCE YOU'RE GIVEN A SECOND CHANCE, YOU NEVER LOOK BACK.

WE HAVE WITHIN OUR REACH -- AND MANY OF YOU HAVE FOUND -- A WAY TO HEAL THE WOUNDS WITHIN. YOU HAVE TURNED YOUR GAZE OUTWARD, AND FOCUSED THE BRILLIANCE OF YOUR WILL TO LIVE ON THOSE WHO MOST NEED IT -- AND IN DOING SO, YOU HAVE STRENGTHENED YOURSELVES.

YOUR VOLUNTEER AND AUXILIARY PROGRAMS PROVIDE OVER TWO MILLION HOURS OF ABSOLUTELY VITAL HELP EACH YEAR IN VA MEDICAL CENTERS. AND VOLUNTEERS BEHIND THE WHEEL OF VANS IN THE DAV TRANSPORTATION PROGRAM WILL TRAVEL OVER SEVEN MILLION MILES THIS YEAR, GETTING VETS TO FACILITIES FOR MEDICAL TREATMENT.

THESE ARE OUTSTANDING EXAMPLES OF PRIVATE EFFORTS MEETING CRUCIAL NEEDS. I'D LIKE TO COMMEND ALL OF YOU INVOLVED -- ALONG WITH YOUR DIRECTOR OF VOLUNTARY SERVICES, BRUCE NITSCHÉ [NITS-SHEE]. [PAUSE]

LET ME ENCOURAGE YOU TO APPLY YOUR TALENTS, YOUR STRENGTH, YOUR INSIGHT, YOUR SENSITIVITY, YOUR COMPASSION -- THE DEPTH AND BRILLIANCE OF YOUR GIFTS -- TO BRING NEW AND HOPEFUL LIGHT TO EVERY CORNER OF AMERICA, WHETHER IN INNER CITIES OR MOUNTAIN HOLLOWES.

LET THIS NOW BE A WAR WAGED AGAINST DRUGS, ALCOHOL ABUSE, CHILD ABUSE, VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN, ILLITERACY, POLLUTION -- AGAINST ALL LOST HOPES AND BROKEN DREAMS. IN THIS BATTLE, YOUR BEST WEAPON WILL BE HOPE.

I KNOW YOU ALREADY HAVE THE COURAGE AND WILL TO PERSEVERE. YOU'VE SHED BLOOD FOR AMERICA. AND AS LONG AS YOUR HEARTS BEAT WITHIN YOU, YOU CAN DO GOOD FOR AMERICA.

TOGETHER, WE CAN PROVE THAT TRUE PATRIOTISM CAN NEVER BE PATRONIZED, NOR COMPROMISED. TOGETHER, WE CAN PROVE THAT EVERYWHERE THERE IS A NEED IN AMERICA, WE HAVE THE STRENGTH TO MEET IT. TOGETHER, WE CAN SHOW THE WORLD THAT ANY DEFINITION OF A SUCCESSFUL LIFE MUST INCLUDE SERVING OTHERS -- IN TIMES OF PEACE, AS WELL AS TIMES OF WAR.

THROUGH THOUSANDS OF ACTS OF QUIET VALOR, YOU ARE TURNING WHAT LESSER MEN AND WOMEN MIGHT HAVE SEEN AS TRAGEDY, TO TRIUMPH.

FOR THAT -- AND FOR YOUR DEVOTION AND SERVICE TO AMERICA -- I THANK YOU. GOD BLESS YOU. AND GOD BLESS THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS:     DISABLED AMERICAN VETERANS CONVENTION
                                  LAS VEGAS, NEVADA
                                  MONDAY, JULY 31, 1989
                                  1:00 P.M.

Thank you, Billy. National Adjutant Joeckel [JOKE-el],
Officers; Senator Murkowski, Congressman Stump, Secretary
Derwinski... and my brothers in arms:

I am proud to be with you today, at your 68th annual convention. I understand I'm the first sitting President to meet with this group. Well... I thought it was about time. [PAUSE]
Just sorry I couldn't get here sooner...

This is a gathering of extraordinary Americans. An assembly of heroes. Together you represent over one million men and women disabled in military service to our country.

In the name of freedom; for the sake of justice; to defend democracy -- all of you have made the definitive commitment to keep America first, free, strong, and proud. While you were living up to that commitment, serving your country, many of you will remember how in one brief, blinding instant, everything
changed. [PAUSE]

Maybe you remember the hands that reached for you. The voices in darkness. The vessels that delivered you from the horror of war.

All of you still bear those wounds -- and can bear them with pride. Fighting to tear power from tyrants, struggling to secure freedom around the world, the disabled veterans of America have paid the highest price the living can pay for freedom.

The moment you fell in service, you ascended in the hearts and minds of all Americans. Short of death itself, there can be no greater gift given to -- nor accepted by -- a grateful nation. No words are the equal of your actions.

And while such a debt can never be repaid, it can and will be remembered. You should be able to take our gratitude for granted. But what you deserve... is our respect. [PAUSE]

That's what I want to talk to you about today: respecting those wounded in service -- and encouraging them to find new strength, in service to America.

First, respect. A nation that respects wounded veterans makes sure that its defenses remain strong. That means funding for the Stealth Bomber. ~~And it~~ means support for the Strategic Defense Initiative -- because SDI fosters a stable nuclear balance that relies increasingly on defense. It will make any START treaty more effective. And it represents our best step toward stability -- the same goal we seek through offensive modernization and arms control.

Second, a nation that respects wounded vets won't stand by as the flag that so many of them fought for -- and so many have died for -- is desecrated. Honest people can differ on the approach we take. But we all agree on principle: It is wrong -- simply, absolutely wrong -- to desecrate the American flag.

And it means we modernize our ICBM forces, redeploying the Peacekeeper in rail-garrison now and preparing to deploy the new

Third, a nation that respects wounded vets makes sure they have a strong voice in the government that serves them. That's why I've been so pleased to welcome the Department of Veteran's Affairs to a place in the Cabinet. [PAUSE] And when I see my close friend and former Congressional colleague, Ed Derwinski, sitting at the table in Cabinet meetings, I know we did something right for America's veterans.

Fourth, a nation that respects wounded vets works to guarantee them a fair shot in the marketplace. So we're working on a significant new expansion in civil rights laws, with legislation to extend those protections to all Americans with disabilities.

Fifth, all veterans who were exposed to Agent Orange herbicide in Southeast Asia deserve and should expect a sound national policy in handling benefit claims. And we have one. Ed Derwinski has devised new guidelines which would give a full and fair hearing to those veterans who may have suffered from exposure to Agent Orange in service to America.

And finally, a nation that respects wounded vets must do all it can to make sure that they get quality health care. [PAUSE] You know that improvements are needed -- and in spite of budget constraints, I'm committed to see that they're made.

This month Secretary Derwinski sent to Congress our proposal to create a national commission that will review VA medical facilities across the country. We want to improve the system to include specialized centers of excellence, ambulatory care, community-based care, and home health care options.

We also want to broaden access to services and control costs, by encouraging the VA and the Department of Defense to share facilities -- providing better services through better cooperation. You've given your best -- the least we can do is provide you with the very best health care.

So much has been expected of you -- in war, and in peace. So this may strike you as a paradox -- but today this President is asking you to do more. To give even more of yourselves, your time, your talents -- to others.

You may find, as many here have, that the more you give, the more you have to give. There may be no greater feeling in the world, than to have someone depending on you -- and to live up to their expectations.

About a year ago, at another convention, I referred to the Disabled American Veterans as part of "a brilliant diversity spread like stars, like a thousand points of light in a broad and peaceful sky."

You are such people -- part of a constellation of concerned citizens, committed to building a better America. In war, you have seen the worst. In peace, you're among the best.

Your country needs you once again.

Each of you has come to terms with war and its costs -- fighting private battles that those you fought for, and defended, can only dimly understand. A poet I admire, who did understand, wrote:

It may be that our later selves, or else our unborn sons,
Will search for meaning in the dust of long-deserted guns.

For many of you, that search for meaning has led you to the faces of young people threatened by drugs and alcohol. To a basketball court, or a little league team, that needs a coach. To the small business that needs your skills. Or the local school that needs a teacher.

Maybe you know Allen Clark, our nominee as Assistant Secretary for Veterans Liaison and Program Coordination. He lost both legs to mortar fire at the age of 24. Over 15 months and 12 operations, he says he had plenty of time to think. "I wondered how I would be able to support myself," he says. "What I would be doing. Whether I would be able to pick up and hold children in my arms. How I could bring my life together again."

But he didn't stop there. He's inspired people across the country, saying "We can do anything that we decide we can do. We can train or retrain ourselves. We can redirect our lives. I thank the Lord for the opportunity to live a second life. One of my friends once told me you have never lived until you've almost died. For those who fight for it, life has a flavor the protected will never know."

Just ask Ron Castille, who at 23 was already wounded and lying on the floor of a helicopter, when another machine gun slug ripped through the floor and hit him. Today he's district attorney for the city of Philadelphia -- serving the Youth Aid Council, the Urban Coalition, and founding an anti-drug program for kids. Ask him if his job is frustrating, and he'll tell you, "No, golf is really frustrating."

This year's Outstanding Disabled Veteran, Tommy Clack, has travelled to all 50 states as a speaker and lecturer. He's held posts in the Georgia Department of Veterans Services, the Jaycees, the Red Cross, the Atlanta VA Medical Center, and organized a program that has helped over 400 veterans secure $84 million in Small Business Administration loans since '83. He hunts deer and ducks each fall from his wheelchair. They say he "always gets his deer." Lucky man.

I single out the few, because they represent the many. They, like every one of you, represent America's highest, most enduring ideals. They're the ideals of duty. Honor. Sacrifice. But above all, redemption. Because once you're given a second chance, you never look back.

We have within our reach -- and many of you have found -- a way to heal the wounds within. You have turned your gaze outward, and focused the brilliance of your will to live on those who most need it -- and in doing so, you have strengthened yourselves.

Your volunteer and auxiliary programs provide over two million hours of absolutely vital help each year in VA Medical Centers. And volunteers behind the wheel of vans in the DAV

Transportation Program will travel over seven million miles this year, getting vets to facilities for medical treatment.

These are outstanding examples of private efforts meeting crucial needs. I'd like to commend all of you involved -- along with your director of voluntary services, Bruce Nitsche [NITS-shee]. [PAUSE]

Let me encourage you to apply your talents, your strength, your insight, your sensitivity, your compassion -- the depth and brilliance of your gifts -- to bring new and hopeful light to every corner of America, whether in inner cities or mountain hollows.

Let this now be a war waged against drugs, alcohol abuse, child abuse, violence against women, illiteracy, pollution -- against all lost hopes and broken dreams. In this battle, your best weapon will be hope.

I know you already have the courage and will to persevere. You've shed blood for America. And as long as your hearts beat within you, you can do good for America.

Together, we can prove that true patriotism can never be patronized, nor compromised. Together, we can prove that everywhere there is a need in America, we have the strength to meet it. Together, we can show the world that any definition of a successful life must include serving others -- in times of peace, as well as times of war.

Through thousands of acts of quiet valor, you are turning what lesser men and women might have seen as tragedy, to triumph.

For that -- and for your devotion and service to America --
I thank you. God bless you. And God bless the United States of America.

① And it means we modernize our ICBM force, redeploing the Peacekeeper in rail-garrison now, and completing the development to deploy the new ~~Samll~~ ICBM. These mobile systems will bring improved survivability and stability to the land-based leg of our strategic triad.

optional [ And fifth, a nation that recognizes and respects the sacrifices you have made for the country will ensure that the nation remains strong and that it preserves, protects, and cherishes the values and freedoms for which you fought. And the nation will do whatever possible so that others will not have to suffer as you have. ]

[ To preserve what you have won, the United States has a defense strategy centered on deterrence -- to maintain credible, capable military forces strong enough to prevent attack or coercion. Yet in the current Congressional debate on the Defense budget, some would tear down our ability to implement this strategy by cutting weapons that we need and adding weapons we don't need. Those who attempt to change the critical elements of my defense program would dismantle our defense strategy, piece by piece. But they have no strategy with which to replace it. You who know sacrifice deserve better. Our nation deserves better. We have a closely integrated strategic program designed to enhance U.S. strength, bolster deterrence and facilitate arms control. That is the program the country needs and the Congress should ratify. ]
