

Originally Processed With FOIA(s):

FOIA Number:

S

FOIA MARKER

This is not a textual record. This is used as an administrative marker by the George Bush Presidential Library Staff.

Record Group/Collection: George H.W. Bush Presidential Records Collection/Office of Origin: Speechwriting, White House Office of Series: Speech File Draft Files
Subseries: Chron File, 1989-1993

OA/ID Number: 13506
Folder ID Number: 13506-005

Folder Title:
Guiliani Fundraiser 10/12/89 [OA 3536] [1]

Stack:	Row:	Section:	Shelf:	Position:
G	25	6	5	5

THE WHITE HOUSE
Office of the Press Secretary
(New York, New York)

For Immediate Release

October 12, 1989

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT
DURING FUNDRAISING DINNER
FOR RUDY GIULIANI

New York Hilton Hotel
New York, New York

7:34 P.M. EDT

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you all very much. Bill, you did a first-class job. And thank you -- please be seated -- and thank you for those warm words and, most important, for all your hard work in working for Rudy and making this a tremendously successful evening.

And it's always good to see our outstanding political leaders. The Chairman of our party, Pat Barrett, is here. (Applause.) Ralph Marino and Rap Rappleyea and -- (applause) -- and with a certain pride, a former finance chairman of the state of New York, my brother, John. (Applause.)

And last, but not least, are two of my best friends in the state -- Senator Roy Goodman and -- (applause) -- and one of the great movers and out-front people in my own election over a year ago, Guy Molinari, who's here. (Applause.) And Al is here. And my pal, Al D'Amato -- Al, welcome. I didn't see you come in. (Applause.)

I'll tell you something -- when we get into the tough scrapes down there in the Senate, it is a joy to have this Senator on our side. And he's doing a fine job. Welcome. (Applause.)

I hear that a guy went to Rudy a few weeks ago and said, "Good news. I've got you the most powerful man in America for your fundraiser." Rudy told him, "Look, we've already had Donald Trump." (Laughter.)

But he asked me to come and speak on his behalf -- in a city that I lost in last year's election. People say he has no sense of humor? (Laughter and applause.)

My staff called Rudy's office last week, asking if there was anything in particular the campaign would like me to say here. And they came back with a one-word memo. True story. A phonetic guide to pronouncing the word: "JEW-LEE-AH-NEE." (Laughter and applause.)

So I've come here for two reasons. The first is to endorse -- as strongly and as enthusiastically as I can -- the next mayor of the City of New York -- Rudy Giuliani. Number one. (Applause.)

And secondly, I urge every single one of you to support Rudy's candidacy as energetically and as generously as you possibly can because he deserves the backing of everyone who really wants to bring this city totally back. And everyone who wants a mayor who knows how to fight crime, crack and corruption -- and win. And that's why we need your help here. (Applause.)

You know, Barbara and I lived not far from here when I served as U.N. Ambassador. And we had a terrific time. And flying in today on Air Force One, seeing the magnificent skyline, I remembered many of the wonderful things the city offers -- the sports and, of course, the arts and music and dance. There's a certain pace -- there's a certain pace to New York life -- an exciting, vibrant atmosphere that no place else can match.

MORE

And in some ways, I'm thinking of the impacts that drugs have had on this and other cities. And New York City isn't the city in this regard that it used to be. But Rudy holds out the hope that it can again become the city that it once was.

And most of us know him as America's great crime-fighter. (Applause.) I told that to one of my grandkids. I said I'm going up to meet America's greatest crime fighter -- he thought I was going to New York to meet Batman. (Laughter.)

But seriously -- to try to pigeon-hole this guy as "just one more crime-fighter" would be like dismissing Chuck Yeager as "just another test pilot;" calling Teddy Roosevelt a "former police commissioner." Rudy's the real thing. And I'm not talking about quality of prosecutor. I'm talking about quality and heart of the person. As one New York columnist put it -- a Democrat put it: "In an era of lawlessness, he stood for law. In an era of private greed, he stood for public service." (Applause.)

Born in Brooklyn of Italian parents who ran a local bar and grill, while still in his 20's, he fought police corruption. His cases literally became the stuff of movies. And what happened in his next big case wouldn't be believed if Hollywood tried to put it into a movie. It was "Rudy versus Goliath" -- an unknown Brooklyn kid, barely 30 years old, against the United States congressman accused of bribery. And the congressman broke down under Rudy's cross-examination, stopped the trial and confessed on the spot.

And it really happened. The newspapers were in awe, and Rudy's too modest to brag about it. But every generation or so, there emerges a larger-than-life crime-buster who captures the public imagination. And Teddy Roosevelt was one, and Thom Dewey and Elliot Ness were others. And Rudy won his reputation, as they say, "the old-fashioned way." He earned it. (Applause.) And his secret has been hard work, an innovative mind, unflagging idealism, and then this flair for leadership. And he has imagination and energy. And he's a man of ideas.

It was his brainstorm to use the existing RICO law and use it in a way that had never been tried -- to attack the ruling board of New York's crime families. And he did it without new legislation. He did it without new resources. And he did it by seeing what no one else had seen -- and by making it work.

And he has all the right instincts. He's fought not only for criminal justice, but also social justice. Some years ago, the ranks of the homeless here swelled when hundreds of mentally ill people were stripped of Social Security benefits. But Rudy did the right thing. He refused to go along. And The New York Times called it, "one of his finest hours." And he took a stand -- for New York and for the homeless.

And his leadership really and truly has earned respect across America. In a recent letter, former Attorney General William French Smith said without qualification that Rudy Giuliani has "done more than any individual I know to extinguish the myth that crime is an unconquerable and somehow tolerable presence in our society."

Rudy demonstrated to a skeptical nation that one man with courage and conviction can make a difference. As U.S. Attorney, he commanded about 160 troops. And think what he can do from City Hall. (Applause.) Think of the energy, the renaissance, that this young and imaginative leader can bring to New York.

-- Rudy is the leader New York City needs in City Hall.

You see, he's right on the issues. And he's ready to debate them one on one with his opponent. And frankly, debates are good for democracy and I think they'd be very good for New York City, too. (Applause.)

So my words, as one who loves this city -- lived here for a couple of fascinating years -- New York, don't postpone your return to good government, your return to greatness. Don't wait another four years.

Okay, at this moment, Rudy's an underdog. But he reminds me of Yogi Berra's description of the Miracle Mets of '69. Sure, Yogi admitted, they were underdogs. But they were overwhelming underdogs. (Laughter.)

Look, I've got a sense things are moving in this campaign. Ever since I've come today, you can feel it and all the pros are telling me it's happening. (Applause.) So take your polls and do what you want with them. (Laughter.) He may be an underdog at this moment, but New York loves an underdog. And he's a fighter with overwhelming character. (Applause.)

So let's start now. Let's bring back New York. And let's elect a winner -- the next mayor of this city -- Rudy Giuliani.

Thank you and God bless you. And God bless the City of New York. (Applause.)

END

7:50 P.M. EDT

In the war on drugs, no man in America has a better chance of succeeding. Let's "take back the streets." Let's bring back New York.

Like many of us, Rudy knows what it's like to meet a payroll, to run a business. In 1978, he was appointed by a court to take over a bankrupt, strike-threatened coal company in Kentucky. And he saved hundreds of jobs. Got the miners a raise, paid off the creditors -- 100 cents on the dollar.

And he was the one to turn it around, and I honestly believe that he's the one to turn around New York City. (Applause.)

People do get tired. They're tired of a city that can't cope with New York's problems -- the shortage of affordable housing and the decline of the school system and neighborhood tensions and the homeless and the crumbling highways and bridges and tunnels. And Rudy has the energy, the intelligence, and the will to solve New York's problems.

He knows that when he becomes mayor he'll have the second toughest job in America. The first, of course, is managing the New York Yankees. (Laughter and applause.)

No, but this guy cares about New York. People always wonder whether New York politicians are using their jobs as stepping stones to Washington. But Rudy's the one who left Washington to help clean up New York City, the city of his birth, his hometown.

And he's a family man. Just a few weeks ago -- my beautiful dinner partner -- Donna gave birth to a daughter, Caroline. Son Andrew, three and a half, now has a little sister. (Applause.) And wouldn't it be nice to see those kids playing on the lawn at Gracie Mansion? We'll send him 11 grandchildren to play with them. (Applause.)

Now I've known Rudy for years and he's fiercely proud of this town. And he has a dream for New York. The dream is of a city that gives everybody a chance -- in which everybody is free to make the most of himself or herself. Rudy will create a New York where that is possible. And he'll bring everyone together in this city -- because he's running for mayor of all New York.

Half a century ago, Mayor La Guardia inherited a city bled by a decade of mismanagement and knavery. And on his first day in office he swore in a new police commissioner with a single, blunt message: "Drive out the racketeers -- or get out yourselves." And at City Hall he bounded past a gauntlet of shouting reporters, giving them only a four-word comment -- in Italian. "What the hell does that mean?" someone asked. "It means," said a newsman who knew both Italian and La Guardia, "no more free lunch."

And with those words, Mayor La Guardia launched what many consider 12 years of the best reform government in American urban history. And it helped that his three terms as Mayor coincided closely with FDR's 12 years in the White House. And they forged an undeclared alliance that lifted New York up and brought back the lost respect of the nation.

It's time to bring the Big Apple all the way back. And I want Rudy to know -- and I want New York to know -- that Mayor Giuliani will have a friend in the Oval Office that looks forward to working with him for the benefit of New York City. (Applause.)

As I thought back of the history of the city, I thought that like La Guardia, our man is an American original, an American hero. And a world-class city deserves a world-class mayor. And time's running out. Resources are scarce. The stakes are high. And if the problems are to be solved -- and not simply put off, postponed

Jeff Murray
dropx263

REMARKS: RUDY GIULIANI FUNDRAISER DINNER
NEW YORK HILTON HOTEL
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1989
7:30 P.M.

THANK YOU. AND THANK YOU, BILL ((~~KOH-PELL~~)) FOR THOSE WARM WORDS AND FOR ALL YOUR HARD WORK IN MAKING TONIGHT A SUCCESS.

ADD

AND IT'S ALWAYS GOOD TO SEE OUR OUTSTANDING SENATOR AL D'AMATO AND CONGRESSMAN BILL GREEN, AND OF COURSE, ~~NEW YORK'S GREAT REPUBLICAN FINANCE CHIEF~~, MY BROTHER JONATHAN BUSH. [[PAUSE]]

ADD

great Republican finance leaders.

and, of course
one of NY's
great financiers
Idris

AND LAST, BUT NOT LEAST, ARE TWO OF MY BEST FRIENDS IN THE STATE -- SENATOR ROY GOODMAN, AND ONE OF THE GREAT ~~SECRETS~~ OF MY SUCCESS -- GUY MOLINARI.

[[PAUSE]]

movers of my election one yr ago in

I HEAR GUY [~~MOLINARI~~] WENT TO RUDY A FEW WEEKS AGO AND SAID: "GOOD NEWS. I GOT YOU THE MOST POWERFUL MAN IN AMERICA FOR YOUR FUNDRAISER." RUDY TOLD HIM:
"GUY, WE'VE ALREADY HAD DONALD TRUMP." [[PAUSE]]

RUDY ASKED ME TO COME AND SPEAK ON HIS BEHALF --
IN A CITY I LOST IN LAST YEAR'S ELECTION. [[PAUSE]]
AND PEOPLE SAY HE HAS NO SENSE OF HUMOR. [[PAUSE]]

MY STAFF CALLED RUDY'S OFFICE LAST WEEK, ASKING IF THERE WAS ANYTHING IN PARTICULAR THE CAMPAIGN'D LIKE ME TO SAY HERE. THEY CAME BACK WITH A ONE-WORD MEMO. TRUE STORY. IT WAS A PHONETIC GUIDE TO PRONOUNCING THE WORD: "JEW-LEE-AH-NEE." [[PAUSE]]

I'VE COME TO NEW YORK FOR TWO REASONS. THE FIRST IS TO ENDORSE -- AS STRONGLY AND ENTHUSIASTICALLY AS I CAN -- THE NEXT MAYOR OF NEW YORK: RUDY GIULIANI. [[PAUSE]]

SECONDLY, I URGE ALL OF YOU TO SUPPORT RUDY'S CANDIDACY AS ENERGETICALLY AND AS GENEROUSLY AS YOU CAN.

RUDY DESERVES THE BACKING OF EVERYONE WHO REALLY WANTS TO BRING BACK NEW YORK CITY. EVERYONE WHO WANTS A MAYOR WHO KNOWS HOW TO FIGHT CRIME, CRACK AND CORRUPTION -- AND WIN. [[PAUSE]]

YOU KNOW, BARBARA AND I LIVED NOT FAR FROM HERE WHEN I SERVED AS U.N. AMBASSADOR. WE HAD A TERRIFIC TIME. AND FLYING IN TODAY, SEEING THE MAGNIFICENT SKYLINE, I REMEMBERED MANY OF THE WONDERFUL THINGS THE CITY OFFERS, THE SPORTS, ART, MUSIC AND DANCE. THERE'S A CERTAIN PACE TO LIFE HERE -- AN EXCITING, VIBRANT ATMOSPHERE THAT NO PLACE ELSE CAN MATCH.

IN SOME WAYS, ~~NEW YORK~~ NEW YORK ISN'T THE CITY IT USED TO BE. BUT RUDY HOLDS OUT THE HOPE THAT IT CAN AGAIN BECOME THE CITY IT ONCE WAS.

MOST OF US KNOW HIM AS AMERICA'S GREATEST CRIME-FIGHTER. [[PAUSE]] I TOLD THAT TO ONE OF MY GRANDKIDS, AND HE THOUGHT I WAS GOING TO NEW YORK TO MEET BATMAN! [[PAUSE]]

* -- and I'm thinking of the impact drugs have had on this ~~and~~ other cities -- and

BUT SERIOUSLY -- TO PIGEON-HOLE RUDY GIULIANI AS "JUST ANOTHER CRIME-FIGHTER" WOULD BE LIKE DISMISSING THE YOUNG CHUCK YEAGER AS "JUST ANOTHER TEST PILOT," OR CALLING THE YOUNG TEDDY ROOSEVELT A "FORMER POLICE COMMISSIONER." RUDY GIULIANI IS THE REAL THING. I'M NOT TALKING ABOUT QUALITY OF PROSECUTOR. I'M TALKING ABOUT QUALITY OF PERSON. AS ONE NEW YORK COLUMNIST, A DEMOCRAT, PUT IT: "IN AN ERA OF LAWLESSNESS, HE STOOD FOR LAW. IN AN ERA OF PRIVATE GREED, HE STOOD FOR PUBLIC SERVICE."

BORN IN BROOKLYN OF ITALIAN PARENTS WHO RAN A LOCAL BAR AND GRILL, WHILE STILL IN HIS TWENTIES HE FOUGHT POLICE CORRUPTION. RUDY'S CASES LITERALLY BECAME THE STUFF OF MOVIES. AND WHAT HAPPENED IN HIS NEXT BIG CASE WOULDN'T BE BELIEVED IF HOLLYWOOD TRIED TO PUT IT IN A MOVIE. IT WAS "RUDY VERSUS GOLIATH" -- AN UNKNOWN BROOKLYN KID, BARELY 30 YEARS OLD, AGAINST A UNITED STATES CONGRESSMAN ACCUSED OF BRIBERY. THE CONGRESSMAN BROKE DOWN UNDER RUDY'S CROSS-EXAMINATION. STOPPED THE TRIAL. AND CONFESSED ON THE SPOT.

IT REALLY HAPPENED. THE NEWSPAPERS WERE IN AWE. RUDY'S TOO MODEST TO BRAG ABOUT IT. BUT, EVERY GENERATION OR SO, THERE EMERGES A LARGER THAN LIFE CRIME-BUSTER WHO CAPTURES THE PUBLIC IMAGINATION. TEDDY ROOSEVELT WAS ONE. THOMAS E. DEWEY AND ELLIOT NESS WERE OTHERS. RUDY WON HIS REPUTATION, AS THEY SAY, "THE OLD-FASHIONED WAY." HE EARNED IT. HIS SECRET HAS BEEN HARD WORK, AN INNOVATIVE MIND, UNFLAGGING IDEALISM, AND A FLAIR FOR LEADERSHIP. HE HAS IMAGINATION AND ENERGY. AND HE IS A MAN OF IDEAS.

DELETE "dust off" ADD "use"

IT WAS RUDY'S BRAINSTORM TO USE THE EXISTING RICO LAW AND USE IT IN A WAY THAT HAD NEVER BEEN TRIED: TO ATTACK THE RULING BOARD OF NEW YORK'S CRIME FAMILIES. HE DID IT WITHOUT NEW LEGISLATION. HE DID IT WITHOUT NEW RESOURCES. HE DID IT BY SEEING WHAT NO ONE ELSE HAD SEEN -- AND BY MAKING IT WORK.

AND HE HAS ALL THE RIGHT INSTINCTS. HE'S FOUGHT NOT ONLY FOR CRIMINAL JUSTICE, BUT ALSO SOCIAL JUSTICE. SOME YEARS AGO, THE RANKS OF THE HOMELESS HERE SWELLED WHEN HUNDREDS OF MENTALLY ILL PEOPLE WERE STRIPPED OF SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS. RUDY "DID THE RIGHT THING." HE REFUSED TO GO ALONG. THE NEW YORK TIMES CALLED IT, "ONE OF HIS FINEST HOURS." HE TOOK A STAND -- FOR NEW YORK -- AND FOR THE HOMELESS.

RUDY'S LEADERSHIP HAS EARNED RESPECT ACROSS AMERICA. IN A RECENT LETTER, FORMER ATTORNEY GENERAL WILLIAM FRENCH SMITH SAID, WITHOUT QUALIFICATION, THAT RUDY GIULIANI HAS "DONE MORE THAN ANY INDIVIDUAL I KNOW TO EXTINGUISH THE MYTH THAT CRIME IS AN UNCONQUERABLE AND SOMEHOW TOLERABLE PRESENCE IN OUR SOCIETY."

RUDY DEMONSTRATED TO A SKEPTICAL NATION THAT ONE MAN WITH COURAGE AND CONVICTION CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE. AS U.S. ATTORNEY, HE COMMANDED ABOUT 160 TROOPS. THINK WHAT HE CAN DO FROM CITY HALL. THINK OF THE ENERGY, THE RENAISSANCE, THAT THIS YOUNG AND IMAGINATIVE LEADER CAN BRING TO NEW YORK.

- 7 - DELETE []

IN THE WAR ON DRUGS, [HE WAS A FOUR-STAR GENERAL.
HE WAS A WAR HERO.]ⁿ NO MAN IN AMERICA HAS A BETTER CHANCE OF SUCCEEDING. LET'S "TAKE BACK THE STREETS."
LET'S BRING BACK NEW YORK.

LIKE MANY OF US, RUDY ALSO KNOWS WHAT IT'S LIKE TO MEET A PAYROLL. TO RUN A BUSINESS. IN 1978, RUDY WAS APPOINTED BY A COURT TO TAKE OVER A BANKRUPT, STRIKE-THREATENED COAL COMPANY IN KENTUCKY. HE SAVED HUNDREDS OF JOBS. GOT THE MINERS A RAISE AND PAID OFF THE CREDITORS -- 100 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR.

RUDY WAS THE ONE TO TURN IT AROUND. AND RUDY'S
THE ONE TO TURN AROUND NEW YORK CITY. [[PAUSE]]

NEW YORKERS ARE TIRED OF A CITY HALL THAT CAN'T COPE WITH NEW YORK'S PROBLEMS: THE SHORTAGE OF AFFORDABLE HOUSING, THE DECLINE OF THE SCHOOL SYSTEM, NEIGHBORHOOD TENSIONS, THE HOMELESS, AND THE CRUMBLING
HIGHWAYS, BRIDGES AND TUNNELS. RUDY HAS THE ENERGY,
THE INTELLIGENCE, AND THE WILL TO SOLVE NEW YORK'S PROBLEMS.

RUDY KNOWS THAT WHEN HE BECOMES MAYOR HE'LL HAVE THE SECOND TOUGHEST JOB IN AMERICA. [[PAUSE]] THE FIRST, OF COURSE, IS MANAGING THE YANKEES. [[PAUSE]]

RUDY CARES ABOUT NEW YORK. PEOPLE ALWAYS WONDER WHETHER NEW YORK POLITICIANS ARE USING THEIR JOBS AS STEPPING STONES TO WASHINGTON. BUT RUDY'S THE ONE WHO LEFT WASHINGTON TO HELP CLEAN UP NEW YORK, THE CITY OF HIS BIRTH, HIS HOMETOWN.

AND HE'S A FAMILY MAN. JUST A FEW WEEKS AGO, DONNA GAVE BIRTH TO A DAUGHTER, CAROLINE. SON ANDREW, THREE AND A HALF, NOW HAS A LITTLE SISTER. WOULDN'T IT BE NICE TO SEE THOSE KIDS PLAYING ON THE LAWN AT GRACIE MANSION? WE SURE THINK SO.

RUDY IS FIERCELY PROUD OF THIS TOWN. AND HE HAS A DREAM FOR NEW YORK. THE DREAM IS OF A CITY THAT GIVES EVERYBODY A CHANCE -- IN WHICH EVERYBODY IS FREE TO MAKE THE MOST OF THEMSELVES. RUDY GIULIANI WILL CREATE A NEW YORK WHERE THAT IS POSSIBLE.

[DELETE P " Let me read ... through "Mario Cuomo"]

RUDY WILL BRING EVERYONE TOGETHER IN THIS CITY.
BECAUSE RUDY IS RUNNING FOR MAYOR OF ALL NEW YORK.

HALF A CENTURY AGO, MAYOR LA GUARDIA INHERITED A CITY BLEED BY A DECADE OF MISMANAGEMENT AND KNAVERY. ON HIS FIRST DAY IN OFFICE HE SWORE IN A NEW POLICE COMMISSIONER WITH A SINGLE, BLUNT MESSAGE: "DRIVE OUT THE RACKETEERS -- OR GET OUT YOURSELVES."

AT CITY HALL HE BOUNDED PAST A GAUNTLET OF SHOUTING REPORTERS, GIVING THEM ONLY A FOUR-WORD COMMENT -- IN ITALIAN.

"WHAT THE HELL DOES THAT MEAN?" SOMEONE ASKED.

"IT MEANS," SAID A NEWSMAN WHO KNEW BOTH ITALIAN AND LA GUARDIA, "NO MORE FREE LUNCH!"

WITH THOSE WORDS, FIORELLO LA GUARDIA LAUNCHED WHAT MANY CONSIDER 12 YEARS OF THE BEST REFORM GOVERNMENT IN AMERICAN URBAN HISTORY. IT HELPED THAT HIS THREE TERMS AS MAYOR COINCIDED CLOSELY WITH F.D.R.'S 12 YEARS IN THE WHITE HOUSE. THEY FORGED AN UNDECLARED ALLIANCE THAT LIFTED NEW YORK UP, AND BROUGHT BACK THE LOST RESPECT OF THE NATION.

the B.A. all the way back

IT'S TIME TO BRING ~~BACK~~ THE BIG APPLE. I WANT RUDY TO KNOW -- AND I WANT NEW YORK TO KNOW -- THAT MAYOR GIULIANI WILL HAVE A FRIEND IN THE OVAL OFFICE.
[[PAUSE]]

LIKE LA GUARDIA, RUDY IS AN AMERICAN ORIGINAL, AN AMERICAN HERO. AND A WORLD-CLASS CITY DESERVES A WORLD-CLASS MAYOR. TIME IS RUNNING OUT. RESOURCES ARE SCARCE AND THE STAKES ARE HIGH. IF THE PROBLEMS ARE TO BE SOLVED -- AND NOT SIMPLY POSTPONED -- RUDY IS THE LEADER NEW YORK NEEDS IN CITY HALL.

NEW YORK -- DON'T POSTPONE YOUR RETURN TO GOOD GOVERNMENT -- YOUR RETURN TO GREATNESS. DON'T WAIT ANOTHER FOUR YEARS.

DELETE "But . . . Underdog."

YES, RUDY'S AN UNDERDOG, ^V BUT HE REMINDS ME OF YOGI BERRA'S DESCRIPTION OF THE MIRACLE METS OF 1969. SURE, YOGI ADMITTED, THEY WERE UNDERDOGS. BUT THEY WERE "OVERWHELMING UNDERDOGS." [[PAUSE]]

ADD {

RUDY MAY BE AN UNDERDOG, BUT NEW YORK LOVES AN UNDERDOG. AND HE'S A FIGHTER WITH OVERWHELMING CHARACTER.

LET'S START NOW. LET'S BRING BACK NEW YORK. LET'S ELECT A WINNER -- THE NEXT MAYOR -- RUDY GIULIANI. [[PAUSE]]

THANK YOU. GOD BLESS YOU. AND GOD BLESS NEW YORK CITY.

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 10-11-89 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: --

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RUDY GIULIANI FUNDRAISER DINNER

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WRAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

THE ATTACHED HAS BEEN FORWARDED TO THE PRESIDENT.

RESPONSE:

James W. Cicconi
Assistant to the President
and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
Ext. 2702

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

1989 OCT 10 PM 7:48

October 10, 1989

INFORMATION

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: CHRISS WINSTON cw

SUBJECT: REMARKS FOR THE GIULIANI FUNDRAISER IN NEW YORK

I. SUMMARY

Attached for your consideration and review are draft remarks for Thursday night's fundraiser in New York for Rudy Giuliani.

I. DISCUSSION

At 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, October 12, 1989, you are scheduled to arrive at the main ballroom of the New York Hilton Hotel, to address an audience of 1,200 persons at a $1,000 a plate fundraiser for Rudy Giuliani's mayoral campaign.

You will be introduced by Bill Koepel [[KOH-PELL]], a major fundraiser for both Giuliani and for the Bush-Quayle campaign. In addition to Rudy Giuliani, his wife (T.V. newscaster Donna Hanover), and mother, special guests will include Rep. Guy Molinari, Sen. Roy Goodman, Sen. Al D'Amato, Rep. Bill Green, and your brother, Jonathan Bush.

Incidentally, the second joke ("And people say he has no sense of humor...") is intended to give Rudy a chance to laugh at his own public persona, which has been portrayed in the media as that of a humorless prosecutor. The campaign has reviewed it and encourages us to include it.

((Simon))
October 10, 1989 7:00 pm
Draft Five (B:RUDY)

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RUDY GIULIANI FUNDRAISER DINNER
NEW YORK HILTON HOTEL
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1989
7:30 p.m.

Thank you. And thank you, Bill ((KOH-PELL)) for those warm words and for all your hard work in making tonight a success.

And it's always good to see Senator D'Amato and Congressman Bill Green, and of course, New York's great Republican finance chief, my brother Jonathan Bush. [[PAUSE]]

And last, but not least, are two of my best friends in the state -- Senator Roy Goodman, and one of the great secrets of my success -- Guy Molinari. [[PAUSE]]

I hear Guy [[MOLINARI]] went to Rudy a few weeks ago and said: "Good news. I got you the most powerful man in America for your fundraiser." Rudy told him: "Guy, we've already had Donald Trump." [[PAUSE]]

Rudy asked me to come and speak on his behalf -- in a city I lost in last year's election. [[PAUSE]] And people say he has no sense of humor. [[PAUSE]]

My staff called Rudy's office last week, asking if there was anything in particular the campaign'd like me to say here. They came back with a one-word memo. True story. It was a phonetic guide to pronouncing the word: "JEW-LEE-AH-NEE." [[PAUSE]]

I've come to New York for two reasons. The first is to endorse -- as strongly and enthusiastically as I can -- the next Mayor of New York: Rudy Giuliani. [[PAUSE]]

Secondly, I urge all of you to support Rudy's candidacy as energetically and as generously as you can.

Rudy deserves the backing of everyone who really wants to bring back New York City. Everyone who wants a Mayor who knows how to fight crime, crack and corruption -- and WIN. [[PAUSE]]

You know, Barbara and I lived not far from here when I served as U.N. Ambassador. We had a terrific time. And flying in today, seeing the magnificent skyline, I remembered many of the wonderful things the City offers, the sports, art, music and dance. There's a certain pace to life here -- an exciting, vibrant atmosphere that no place else can match.

In some ways, New York isn't the city it used to be. But Rudy holds out the hope that it can again become the city it once was.

Most of us know him as America's greatest crime-fighter. [[PAUSE]] I told that to one of my grandkids, and he thought I was going to New York to meet Batman! [[PAUSE]]

But seriously -- to pigeon-hole Rudy Giuliani as "just another crime-fighter" would be like dismissing the young Chuck Yeager as "just another test pilot," or calling the young Teddy Roosevelt a "former police commissioner." Rudy Giuliani is the real thing. I'm not talking about quality of prosecutor. I'm talking about quality of person. As one New York columnist, a Democrat, put it: "In an era of lawlessness, he stood for law. In an era of private greed, he stood for public service."

Born in Brooklyn of Italian parents who ran a local bar and grill, while still in his twenties he fought police corruption. Rudy's cases literally became the stuff of movies. And what happened in his next big case wouldn't be believed if Hollywood tried to put it in a movie. It was "Rudy versus Goliath" -- an unknown Brooklyn kid, barely 30 years old, against a United States Congressman accused of bribery. The Congressman broke down under Rudy's cross-examination. Stopped the trial. And confessed on the spot.

It really happened. The newspapers were in awe. Rudy's too modest to brag about it. But, every generation or so, there emerges a larger than life crime-buster who captures the public imagination. Teddy Roosevelt was one. Thomas E. Dewey and Elliot Ness were others. Rudy won his reputation, as they say, "the old-fashioned way." He earned it. His secret has been hard work, an innovative mind, unflagging idealism, and a flair for leadership. He has imagination and energy. And he is a man of ideas.

It was Rudy's brainstorm to dust off the existing RICO law and use it in a way that had never been tried: to attack the ruling board of New York's crime families. He did it without new legislation. He did it without new resources. He did it by seeing what no one else had seen -- and by making it work.

And he has all the right instincts. He's fought not only for criminal justice, but also social justice. Some years ago, the ranks of the homeless here swelled when hundreds of mentally ill people were stripped of social security benefits. Rudy "did the right thing." He refused to go along. The New York Times called it, "one of his finest hours." He took a stand -- for New York -- and for the homeless.

Rudy's leadership has earned respect across America. In a recent letter, former Attorney General William French Smith said, without qualification, that Rudy Giuliani has "done more than any individual I know to extinguish the myth that crime is an unconquerable and somehow tolerable presence in our society."

Rudy demonstrated to a skeptical nation that one man with courage and conviction can make a difference. As U.S. Attorney, he commanded about 160 troops. Think what he can do from City Hall. Think of the energy, the renaissance, that this young and imaginative leader can bring to New York.

In the war on drugs, he was a four-star general. He was a war hero. No man in America has a better chance of succeeding. Let's "take back the streets." Let's bring back New York.

Like many of us, Rudy also knows what it's like to meet a payroll. To run a business. In 1978, Rudy was appointed by a court to take over a bankrupt, strike-threatened coal company in Kentucky. He saved hundreds of jobs. Got the miners a raise and paid off the creditors -- 100 cents on the dollar.

Rudy was the one to turn it around. And Rudy's the one to turn around New York City. [[PAUSE]]

New Yorkers are tired of a City Hall that can't cope with New York's problems: the shortage of affordable housing, the decline of the school system, neighborhood tensions, the homeless, and the crumbling highways, bridges and tunnels. Rudy has the energy, the intelligence, and the will to solve New York's problems.

Rudy knows that when he becomes Mayor he'll have the second toughest job in America. [[PAUSE]] The first, of course, is managing the Yankees. [[PAUSE]]

Rudy cares about New York. People always wonder whether New York politicians are using their jobs as stepping stones to Washington. But Rudy's the one who left Washington to help clean up New York, the city of his birth, his hometown.

And he's a family man. Just a few weeks ago, Donna gave birth to a daughter, Caroline. Son Andrew, three and a half, now has a little sister. Wouldn't it be nice to see those kids playing on the lawn at Gracie Mansion? We sure think so.

Rudy is fiercely proud of this town. And he has a dream for New York. The dream is of a city that gives everybody a chance -- in which everybody is free to make the most of themselves. Rudy Giuliani will create a New York where that is possible.

Let me read you one other letter. "Dear Rudy," it begins. "For most of this decade, you have been at the center of our constant struggle to vindicate common decency. You were uncompromising in the struggle against political corruption, and in the vigorous prosecution of insider trading, organized crime, and drug trafficking. Your example, and your achievements, helped to inspire a new generation of young people with a deep and selfless commitment to public service." It was signed on St. Patrick's Day, 1989. And it was signed: "Mario Cuomo."

Rudy will bring everyone together in this city. Because Rudy is running for Mayor of all New York.

Half a century ago, Mayor La Guardia inherited a city bled by a decade of mismanagement and knavery. On his first day in office he swore in a new police commissioner with a single, blunt message: "Drive out the racketeers -- or get out yourselves."

At City Hall he bounded past a gauntlet of shouting reporters, giving them only a four-word comment -- in Italian.

"What the hell does that mean?" someone asked.

"It means," said a newsman who knew both Italian and La Guardia, "no more free lunch!"

With those words, Fiorello La Guardia launched what many consider 12 years of the best reform government in American urban history. It helped that his three terms as Mayor coincided closely with F.D.R.'s 12 years in the White House. They forged an undeclared alliance that lifted New York up, and brought back the lost respect of the nation.

It's time to bring back the Big Apple. I want Rudy to know -- and I want New York to know -- that Mayor Giuliani will have a friend in the Oval Office. [[PAUSE]]

Like La Guardia, Rudy is an American original, an American hero. And a world-class city deserves a world-class Mayor. Time is running out. Resources are scarce and the stakes are high.

If the problems are to be solved -- and not simply postponed --
Rudy is the leader New York needs in City Hall.

New York -- don't postpone your return to good government -- your return to greatness. Don't wait another four years.

Yes, Rudy's an underdog. But New York loves an underdog.

And Rudy Giuliani reminds me of Yogi Berra's description of the Miracle Mets of 1969. Sure, he admitted, they were underdogs. But they were "overwhelming underdogs." [[PAUSE]]

Let's start now. Let's bring back New York. Let's elect a winner -- the next Mayor -- Rudy Giuliani. [[PAUSE]]

Thank you. God bless you. And God bless New York City.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

October 10, 1989

INFORMATION

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: CHRISS WINSTON cw

SUBJECT: REMARKS FOR THE GIULIANI FUNDRAISER IN NEW YORK

I. SUMMARY

Attached for your consideration and review are draft remarks for Thursday night's fundraiser in New York for Rudy Giuliani.

I. DISCUSSION

At 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, October 12, 1989, you are scheduled to arrive at the main ballroom of the New York Hilton Hotel, to address an audience of 1,200 persons at a $1,000 a plate fundraiser for Rudy Giuliani's mayoral campaign.

You will be introduced by Bill Koepel [[KOH-PELL]], a major fundraiser for both Giuliani and for the Bush-Quayle campaign. In addition to Rudy Giuliani, his wife (T.V. newscaster Donna Hanover), and mother, special guests will include Rep. Guy Molinari, Sen. Roy Goodman, Sen. Al D'Amato, Rep. Bill Green, and your brother, Jonathan Bush.

Incidentally, the second joke ("And people say he has no sense of humor...") is intended to give Rudy a chance to laugh at his own public persona, which has been portrayed in the media as that of a humorless prosecutor. The campaign has reviewed it and encourages us to include it.

((Simon))
October 10, 1989 7:00 pm
Draft Five (B:RUDY)

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RUDY GIULIANI FUNDRAISER DINNER
NEW YORK HILTON HOTEL
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1989
7:30 p.m.

Thank you. And thank you, Bill ((KOH-PELL)) for those warm words and for all your hard work in making tonight a success.

And it's always good to see Senator D'Amato and Congressman Bill Green, and of course, New York's great Republican finance chief, my brother Jonathan Bush. [[PAUSE]]

And last, but not least, are two of my best friends in the state -- Senator Roy Goodman, and one of the great secrets of my success -- Guy Molinari. [[PAUSE]]

I hear Guy [[MOLINARI]] went to Rudy a few weeks ago and said: "Good news. I got you the most powerful man in America for your fundraiser." Rudy told him: "Guy, we've already had Donald Trump." [[PAUSE]]

Rudy asked me to come and speak on his behalf -- in a city I lost in last year's election. [[PAUSE]] And people say he has no sense of humor. [[PAUSE]]

My staff called Rudy's office last week, asking if there was anything in particular the campaign'd like me to say here. They came back with a one-word memo. True story. It was a phonetic guide to pronouncing the word: "JEW-LEE-AH-NEE." [[PAUSE]]

I've come to New York for two reasons. The first is to endorse -- as strongly and enthusiastically as I can -- the next Mayor of New York: Rudy Giuliani. [[PAUSE]]

Secondly, I urge all of you to support Rudy's candidacy as energetically and as generously as you can.

Rudy deserves the backing of everyone who really wants to bring back New York City. Everyone who wants a Mayor who knows how to fight crime, crack and corruption -- and WIN. [[PAUSE]]

You know, Barbara and I lived not far from here when I served as U.N. Ambassador. We had a terrific time. And flying in today, seeing the magnificent skyline, I remembered many of the wonderful things the City offers, the sports, art, music and dance. There's a certain pace to life here -- an exciting, vibrant atmosphere that no place else can match.

In some ways, New York isn't the city it used to be. But Rudy holds out the hope that it can again become the city it once was.

Most of us know him as America's greatest crime-fighter. [[PAUSE]] I told that to one of my grandkids, and he thought I was going to New York to meet Batman! [[PAUSE]]

But seriously -- to pigeon-hole Rudy Giuliani as "just another crime-fighter" would be like dismissing the young Chuck Yeager as "just another test pilot," or calling the young Teddy Roosevelt a "former police commissioner." Rudy Giuliani is the real thing. I'm not talking about quality of prosecutor. I'm talking about quality of person. As one New York columnist, a Democrat, put it: "In an era of lawlessness, he stood for law. In an era of private greed, he stood for public service."

Born in Brooklyn of Italian parents who ran a local bar and grill, while still in his twenties he fought police corruption. Rudy's cases literally became the stuff of movies. And what happened in his next big case wouldn't be believed if Hollywood tried to put it in a movie. It was "Rudy versus Goliath" -- an unknown Brooklyn kid, barely 30 years old, against a United States Congressman accused of bribery. The Congressman broke down under Rudy's cross-examination. Stopped the trial. And confessed on the spot.

It really happened. The newspapers were in awe. Rudy's too modest to brag about it. But, every generation or so, there emerges a larger than life crime-buster who captures the public imagination. Teddy Roosevelt was one. Thomas E. Dewey and Elliot Ness were others. Rudy won his reputation, as they say, "the old-fashioned way." He earned it. His secret has been hard work, an innovative mind, unflagging idealism, and a flair for leadership. He has imagination and energy. And he is a man of ideas.

It was Rudy's brainstorm to dust off the existing RICO law and use it in a way that had never been tried: to attack the ruling board of New York's crime families. He did it without new legislation. He did it without new resources. He did it by seeing what no one else had seen -- and by making it work.

And he has all the right instincts. He's fought not only for criminal justice, but also social justice. Some years ago, the ranks of the homeless here swelled when hundreds of mentally ill people were stripped of social security benefits. Rudy "did the right thing." He refused to go along. The New York Times called it, "one of his finest hours." He took a stand -- for New York -- and for the homeless.

Rudy's leadership has earned respect across America. In a recent letter, former Attorney General William French Smith said, without qualification, that Rudy Giuliani has "done more than any individual I know to extinguish the myth that crime is an unconquerable and somehow tolerable presence in our society."

Rudy demonstrated to a skeptical nation that one man with courage and conviction can make a difference. As U.S. Attorney, he commanded about 160 troops. Think what he can do from City Hall. Think of the energy, the renaissance, that this young and imaginative leader can bring to New York.

In the war on drugs, he was a four-star general. He was a war hero. No man in America has a better chance of succeeding. Let's "take back the streets." Let's bring back New York.

Like many of us, Rudy also knows what it's like to meet a payroll. To run a business. In 1978, Rudy was appointed by a court to take over a bankrupt, strike-threatened coal company in Kentucky. He saved hundreds of jobs. Got the miners a raise and paid off the creditors -- 100 cents on the dollar.

Rudy was the one to turn it around. And Rudy's the one to turn around New York City. [[PAUSE]]

New Yorkers are tired of a City Hall that can't cope with New York's problems: the shortage of affordable housing, the decline of the school system, neighborhood tensions, the homeless, and the crumbling highways, bridges and tunnels. Rudy has the energy, the intelligence, and the will to solve New York's problems.

Rudy knows that when he becomes Mayor he'll have the second toughest job in America. [[PAUSE]] The first, of course, is managing the Yankees. [[PAUSE]]

Rudy cares about New York. People always wonder whether New York politicians are using their jobs as stepping stones to Washington. But Rudy's the one who left Washington to help clean up New York, the city of his birth, his hometown.

And he's a family man. Just a few weeks ago, Donna gave birth to a daughter, Caroline. Son Andrew, three and a half, now has a little sister. Wouldn't it be nice to see those kids playing on the lawn at Gracie Mansion? We sure think so.

Rudy is fiercely proud of this town. And he has a dream for New York. The dream is of a city that gives everybody a chance -- in which everybody is free to make the most of themselves. Rudy Giuliani will create a New York where that is possible.

Let me read you one other letter. "Dear Rudy," it begins. "For most of this decade, you have been at the center of our constant struggle to vindicate common decency. You were uncompromising in the struggle against political corruption, and in the vigorous prosecution of insider trading, organized crime, and drug trafficking. Your example, and your achievements, helped to inspire a new generation of young people with a deep and selfless commitment to public service. It was signed on St. Patrick's Day, 1989. And it was signed: "Mario Cuomo."

Rudy will bring everyone together in this city. Because Rudy is running for Mayor of all New York.

Half a century ago, Mayor La Guardia inherited a city bled by a decade of mismanagement and knavery. On his first day in office he swore in a new police commissioner with a single, blunt message: "Drive out the racketeers -- or get out yourselves."

At City Hall he bounded past a gauntlet of shouting reporters, giving them only a four-word comment -- in Italian.

"What the hell does that mean?" someone asked.

"It means," said a newsman who knew both Italian and La Guardia, "no more free lunch!"

With those words, Fiorello La Guardia launched what many consider 12 years of the best reform government in American urban history. It helped that his three terms as Mayor coincided closely with F.D.R.'s 12 years in the White House. They forged an undeclared alliance that lifted New York up, and brought back the lost respect of the nation.

It's time to bring back the Big Apple. I want Rudy to know -- and I want New York to know -- that Mayor Giuliani will have a friend in the Oval Office. [[PAUSE]]

Like La Guardia, Rudy is an American original, an American hero. And a world-class city deserves a world-class Mayor. Time is running out. Resources are scarce and the stakes are high.

If the problems are to be solved -- and not simply postponed --
Rudy is the leader New York needs in City Hall.

New York -- don't postpone your return to good government --
your return to greatness. Don't wait another four years.

Yes, Rudy's an underdog. But New York loves an underdog.

And Rudy Giuliani reminds me of Yogi Berra's description of the Miracle Mets of 1969. Sure, he admitted, they were underdogs. But they were "overwhelming underdogs." [[PAUSE]]

Let's start now. Let's bring back New York. Let's elect a winner -- the next Mayor -- Rudy Giuliani. [[PAUSE]]

Thank you. God bless you. And God bless New York City.

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUMDATE: 10/10/89 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10/10/89 5:00 PMSUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RUDY GIULIANI FUNDRAISER DINNER

4:15

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN N/c	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	STUDDERT ROGICH N/c	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BREEDEN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 5:00 TODAY, October 10, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

James W. Cicconi
Assistant to the President
and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
Ext. 2702

1989 OCT 10 AM 8:16 ((Simon))
October 9, 1989 4:00 pm
Draft Four (B:RUDY)

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: RUDY GIULIANI FUNDRAISER DINNER
NEW YORK HILTON HOTEL
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1989
4:30 PM

[[ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS]] I hear Guy [[MOLINARI]] went to Rudy a few weeks ago and said: "Good news. I got you the most powerful man in America for your fundraiser." Rudy told him: "Guy, we've already had Donald Trump." [[PAUSE]]

Rudy asked me to come and speak on his behalf -- in a city I lost in last year's election. [[PAUSE]] And people say he has no sense of humor. [[PAUSE]]

My staff called Rudy's office last week, asking if there was anything in particular the campaign'd like me to say here. They came back with a one-word memo. True story. It was a phonetic guide to pronouncing the word: "JEW-LEE-AH-NEE." [[PAUSE]]

I've come to New York for two reasons. The first is to endorse -- as strongly and enthusiastically as I can -- the next Mayor of New York: Rudy Giuliani. [[PAUSE]]

Secondly, I urge all of you to support Rudy's candidacy as energetically and as generously as you can.

Rudy deserves the backing of everyone who really wants to bring back New York City. Everyone who wants a Mayor who knows how to fight crime, crack and corruption -- and WIN. [[PAUSE]]

You know, Barbara and I lived not far from here when I served as U.N. Ambassador. We had a terrific time. And flying in ^{today} tonight, seeing the ^(magnificent) skyline and ~~the lights~~, I remembered many of the wonderful things the City offers, the sports, art, music and dance. There's a certain pace to life here -- an exciting, vibrant atmosphere that no place else can match.

In some ways, New York isn't the city it used to be. But Rudy holds out the hope that it can again become the city it once was.

Most of us know him as America's greatest crime-fighter. [[PAUSE]] I told that to one of my grandkids, and he thought I was going to New York to meet Batman! [[PAUSE]]

But seriously -- to pigeon-hole Rudy Giuliani as "just another crime-fighter" would be like dismissing ~~the young~~ ^{Chuck Yeager?} J.F.K. as "just another ~~war here,~~" or calling the young Teddy Roosevelt a "former police commissioner." Rudy Giuliani is the real thing. I'm not talking about quality of prosecutor. I'm talking about quality of person. As one New York columnist, a Democrat, put it: "In an era of lawlessness, he stood for law. In an era of private greed, he stood for public service."

Born in Brooklyn of Italian ^{parents} immigrants who ran a local bar and grill, while still in his twenties he ~~did work with the Knapp Commission cases that~~ ^{Sought police corruption.} literally became the stuff of movies.

And what happened in his next big case wouldn't be believed if Hollywood ~~did try to~~ ^{tried} put it in ^a movie. It was "Rudy versus Goliath" -- an unknown Brooklyn kid, ~~not yet~~ ^{barely} 30, ^{years old} against a United States Congressman accused of bribery. The Congressman broke down under Rudy's cross-examination. ~~Actually poked one lens out of his glasses.~~ Stopped the trial. And confessed on the spot.

It really happened. The newspapers were in awe. Rudy's too modest to brag about it. ~~But I know it because, on the wall just outside his office, he keeps the clippings framed. [[PAUSE]]~~

~~But~~ Every generation or so, there emerges a larger than life crime-buster who captures the public imagination. Teddy Roosevelt was one. Thomas E. Dewey and Elliot Ness were others.

Rudy won his reputation, as they say, "the old-fashioned way." He earned it. His secret has been hard work, an innovative mind, unflagging idealism, and a flair for leadership. He has imagination and energy. And he is a man of ideas.

It was Rudy's brainstorm to dust off the existing RICO law and use it in a way that had never been tried: to attack the ruling board of New York's crime families. He did it without new legislation. He did it without new resources. He did it by seeing what no one else had seen -- and by making it work.

And he has all the right instincts. He's fought not only for criminal justice, but also social justice. Some years ago, the ranks of the homeless here swelled when hundreds of mentally ill people were stripped of social security benefits. Rudy "did the right thing." He refused to go along. He took a stand -- for New York -- and for the homeless.

The New York Times called it, "one of his finest hours." ~~But Rudy's stand wasn't just courageous. It was also smart -- he was ultimately backed up by the U.S. Supreme Court.~~

Rudy's leadership has earned respect across America. In a recent letter, former ~~A.G.~~ ^{Attorney General} William French Smith said, without qualification, that Rudy Giuliani has "done more than any individual I know to extinguish the myth that crime is an unconquerable and somehow tolerable presence in our society."

Rudy demonstrated to a skeptical nation that one man with courage and conviction can make a difference. As U.S. Attorney, he commanded about ¹⁶⁰~~130~~ troops. Think what he can do from City Hall. Think of the energy, the renaissance, that this young and imaginative leader can bring to New York.

In the war on drugs, he was a four-star general. He was a war hero. No man in America has a better chance of succeeding. Let's "take back the streets." Let's bring back New York.

Like ^{many of us} ~~me~~, Rudy also knows what it's like to meet a payroll. To run a business. In 1978, Rudy was appointed by a court to take over a bankrupt, strike-threatened coal company in Kentucky. He saved hundreds of jobs. Got the miners a raise, ^{and} ~~paid~~ off the creditors -- 100 cents on the dollar. ~~And sold the company for a large profit.~~

Rudy was the one to turn ^{it} around. ~~it~~. And Rudy's the one to turn around New York City. [[PAUSE]]

Rudy has the energy, the intelligence, and the will to deal with New York's ^{problems,} ~~financial crisis~~. The shortage of affordable housing, the decline of the school system, neighborhood tensions, the homeless, and the crumbling highways and bridges and tunnels. ?

Rudy knows that when he becomes Mayor he'll have the second toughest job in America. [[PAUSE]] The first, of course, is managing the Yankees. [[PAUSE]]

Rudy cares about New York. People always wonder whether New York politicians are using their jobs as stepping stones to Washington. But Rudy's the one who left Washington to help clean up New York, the city of his birth, ^{his hometown.} ~~the city of his destiny.~~

And he's a family man. Just a few weeks ago, Donna gave birth to a daughter, Caroline. Son Andrew, three and a half, now has a little sister. Wouldn't it be nice to see those kids playing on the lawn at Gracie Mansion? We sure think so.

Rudy is fiercely proud of this town. And he has a dream for New York. The dream is of a city that gives everybody a chance -- in which everybody is free to make the most of themselves. ^{Rudy} He ^{Guliani will} ~~wants to create a climate in~~ New York where that is possible.

Let me read you one other letter. "Dear Rudy," it begins. "For most of this decade, you have been at the center of our constant struggle to vindicate common decency. You were uncompromising in the struggle against political corruption, and in the vigorous prosecution of insider trading, organized crime, and drug trafficking. Your example, and your achievements, helped to inspire a new generation of young people with a deep and selfless commitment to public service." It was signed on St. Patrick's Day, 1989. And it was signed: "Mario Cuomo."

Rudy will bring everyone together in this city. Because Rudy is running for Mayor of all New York. ?

Half a century ago, Mayor La Guardia inherited a city bled by a decade of mismanagement and knavery. On his first day in office he swore in a new police commissioner with a single, blunt message: "Drive out the racketeers -- or get out yourselves."

At City Hall he bounded past a gauntlet of shouting reporters, giving them only a four-word comment -- in Italian.

"What the hell does that mean?" someone asked.

"It means," said a newsman who knew both Italian and La Guardia, "no more free lunch!"

With those words, Fiorello La Guardia launched what many consider 12 years of the best reform government in American urban history. It helped that his three terms as Mayor coincided closely with F.D.R.'s 12 years in the White House. They forged an undeclared alliance that lifted New York up, and brought back the lost respect of the nation.

It's time to bring back ^{the Big Apple.} ~~America's greatest city.~~ I want Rudy to know -- and I want New York to know -- that Mayor Giuliani will have a friend in the Oval Office. [[PAUSE]]

Like La Guardia, Rudy is an American original, an American hero. And a world-class city deserves a world-class Mayor. The time is ~~too~~ ^{running out} late. The resources are ~~too~~ scarce, ^{and} The stakes are ~~too~~ high. ~~It~~ If the problems are to be solved -- and not simply postponed -- Rudy is the leader New York needs in City Hall.

New York -- don't postpone your return to good government -- your return to greatness. Don't wait another four years.

Yes, Rudy's an underdog. But New York loves an underdog.

And Rudy Giuliani reminds me of Yogi Berra's description of the Miracle Mets of 1969. Sure, he admitted, they were underdogs. But they were "overwhelming underdogs." [[PAUSE]]

Let's start now. Let's bring back New York. Let's elect a winner -- the next Mayor -- Rudy Giuliani. [[PAUSE]]

Thank you. God bless you. And God bless New York City.

#

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS FOR RUDY REMARKS (B:RUDY-ACK)

Thank you. And thank you, Bill ~~[[KOEPEL, A MAJOR FUNDRAISER FOR RUDY AND FOR BUSH-QUAYLE]]~~, for those warm words and for your hard work in making tonight a success. ^{((KOH-PELL))} _{all}

And it's always good to see Senator D'Amato and Congressman Bill Green, and of course, New York's great Republican finance chief, my brother, Jonathan Bush. [[PAUSE]]

And last, but not least, are two of my best friends in the state -- Senator Roy Goodman, ~~who's also doing such a terrific job with the Overseas Private Investment Corporation in Washington,~~ and one of the great secrets of my success -- Guy Molinari. [[PAUSE]]

DARMAN

5

Rudy cares about New York. People always wonder whether New York politicians are using their jobs as stepping stones to Washington. But Rudy's the one who left Washington to help clean up New York, the city of his birth, the city of his destiny.

And he's a family man. Just a few weeks ago, Donna gave birth to a daughter, Caroline. Son Andrew, three and a half, now has a little sister. Wouldn't it be nice to see those kids playing on the lawn at Gracie Mansion? We sure think so.

Rudy is fiercely proud of this town. And he has a dream for New York. The dream is of a city that gives everybody a chance -- in which everybody is free to make the most of themselves. He wants to create a climate in New York where that is possible.

Let me read you one other letter. "Dear Rudy," it begins. "For most of this decade, you have been at the center of our constant struggle to vindicate common decency. You were uncompromising in the struggle against political corruption, and in the vigorous prosecution of insider trading, organized crime, and drug trafficking. Your example, and your achievements, helped to inspire a new generation of young people with a deep and selfless commitment to public service." It was signed on St. Patrick's Day, 1989. And it was signed: "Mario Cuomo."

Rudy will bring everyone together in this city. Because Rudy is running for Mayor of all New York.

Half a century ago, Mayor La Guardia inherited a city bled by a decade of mismanagement and knavery. On his first day in office he swore in a new police commissioner with a single, blunt

Grady
4/8/84

Dinking
Stoepker

"Bring us together"

message: "Drive out the racketeers -- or get out yourselves."

At City Hall he bounded past a gauntlet of shouting reporters, giving them only a four-word comment -- in Italian.

"What the hell does that mean?" someone asked.

"It means," said a newsman who knew both Italian and La Guardia, "no more free lunch!"

With those words, Fiorello La Guardia launched what many consider 12 years of the best reform government in American urban history. It helped that his three terms as Mayor coincided closely with F.D.R.'s 12 years in the White House. They forged an undeclared alliance that lifted New York up, and brought back the lost respect of the nation.

It's time to bring back America's greatest city. I want Rudy to know -- and I want New York to know -- that Mayor Giuliani will have a friend in the Oval Office. [[PAUSE]]

Like La Guardia, Rudy is an American original, an American hero. And a world-class city deserves a world-class Mayor. The time is too late. The resources are too scarce. The stakes are too high. If the problems are to be solved -- and not simply postponed -- Rudy is the leader New York needs in City Hall.

New York -- don't postpone your return to good government -- your return to greatness. Don't wait another four years.

Yes, Rudy's an underdog. But New York loves an underdog.

And Rudy Giuliani reminds me of Yogi Berra's description of the Miracle Mets of 1969. Sure, he admitted, they were underdogs. But they were "overwhelming underdogs." [[PAUSE]]

I would use this, even though it's funny.

Rudy 4/8/4