THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release

November 7, 1989

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT
TO THE WORLD SERIES CHAMPION OAKLAND ATHLETICS

The Rose Garden

2:02 P.M. EST

THE PRESIDENT: Mayor Wilson, officially, and to Mr. Walter Haas over here, an old friend of mine, and Wally and Dr. Bobby Brown, the President of the American League. Tony La Russa and the players and staff of the Oakland A's. And also the distinguished members of the enormous, effective Congressional delegation from California. Also the members of the Babe Ruth League Championship teams from Forest Grove, Oregon; Cherry Hill, New Jersey; and Oakland, California. And anybody left over, welcome to you. (Laughter.)

It's a great day. And I feel this is a special and historic occasion. After all, I'll bet it's not often that the Oakland A's are honored by an unofficial scout for the Texas Rangers. (Laughter.)

Today we're talking baseball. And a team that is clearly and truly Number One -- the world champion Oakland A's.

And the A's, of course, have this wonderful baseball heritage. Nine world titles going back, what, 88 years -- including four since coming to Oakland. A tradition of character and triumph. A tradition embodied, perhaps, by the elephant gracing your uniform sleeve. (Laughter.) You read that any way you want, but I'm impressed. (Laughter.)

And this year's champions were true to that heritage. Ninety-nine games won, and the American League West -- as Casey Stengel would say, "You could look it up." And then downing Toronto in the playoffs and sweeping the cross-town Giants in the Battle of the Bay. I only wish Tony La Russa could help pilot my budget through Congress the way he piloted the A's to this World Series victory.

And what remarkable moments really for those of us that love sports you have given us -- that saver, No. 43, charging from the bullpen. You know how the A's spell relief? E-C-K. And of the Series' outstanding player, well, I'm just glad I'm not running for office against Dave Stewart. Perhaps a newsweekly said it best of Dave's brilliance and community service: "In the eyes of his Oakland neighbors, Dave's MVP meant Most Valuable Person."

And then there's perhaps baseball's all-time leading leadoff hitter, Rickey Henderson. Stealing a ton of bases -- stealing the hearts of Oakland. And Mark McGwire of the Bash Brothers. And, of course, Jose Canseco and Walt Weiss and Carney Lansford and Terry Steinbach. And, yes, Dave Henderson.

Let me say, with your homers against the Giants, when I go to talk to Mr. Gorbachev about reducing offensive weapons, I'm going to tell him that Hindu's bat is not negotiable. (Laughter.)

Big-leaguers all. Each contributing, big-time, to the cause -- a cause led by Tony La Russa -- a lawyer and an even greater manager. And one of baseball's pioneering front-office staffs as well. A club which hit superbly and fielded brilliantly, and which

-- spurred by Mike Moore and Bob Welch, Storm Davis, an outstanding bullpen -- echoed your franchise's founder, Connie Mack, who said, "Pitching is 90 percent of baseball."

And this year, the A's built on 1988, delighting some of baseball's greatest fans. Think of it. Regular-season attendance of almost 2.7 million -- no wonder the Haas's are smiling here -- (laughter) -- with some of the greatest baseball played since Abner Doubleday got his tape measure out and started laying out the diamond.

And, yes, champions on the field, and champions off it. For you helped the Bay Area through some hard and tragic times -- as did those equally magnificent Giants.

And the earthquake which shook Northern California delayed the Series and for a moment paralyzed the entire region. But like the citizens of Oakland, San Francisco, San Jose, you, too, bounced back, overcoming adversity, uniting a populace, showing how true pros perform when the odds are longest and the evening darkest, and the game is on the line -- the game of baseball or the larger game of life.

And for that I congratulate you, and each American salutes you. The great pitcher, Dizzy Dean, used to say, "It ain't bragging if you can back it up." Well, first in the regular-season, first in the post-season, here stand the championship Oakland A's. And in 1989, you sure backed it up. And to you we all say, well done.

Thank you so very much for coming to the White House. Thank you for the example you set for the young people in this country, and God bless you all. Thank you very much. (Applause.)

ALDERSON, TONY LA RUSSA, PLAYERS AND STAFF OF THE OAKLAND ATHLETICS, MEMBERS OF THE CALIFORNIA DELEGATION, AND MEMBERS OF THE BABE RUTH LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP TEAMS OF FOREST GROVE, OREGON; CHERRY HILL, NEW JERSEY; AND OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA. LADIES AND GENTLEMEN.

LET ME WELCOME YOU TO THE WHITE HOUSE. AND TO A SPECIAL AND HISTORIC OCCASION. ((AFTER ALL, I'LL BET IT'S NOT OFTEN THAT THE OAKLAND A'S ARE HONORED BY AN UNOFFICIAL SCOUT FOR THE TEXAS RANGERS.)) //

((YOU KNOW, USUALLY WHEN I'M TOLD I'LL BE HAVING A WHITE HOUSE MEETING WITH SOME HEAVY HITTERS, IT TURNS OUT TO BE THE CONGRESSIONAL LEADERSHIP.)) // BUT NOT TODAY.

TODAY, WE'RE TALKING BASEBALL. AND A TEAM THAT'S TRULY
No. 1. THE WORLD CHAMPION OAKLAND ATHLETICS.

THE A'S, OF COURSE, HAVE A WONDERFUL HERITAGE.
NINE WORLD TITLES IN 88 YEARS -- INCLUDING FOUR SINCE COMING TO OAKLAND. A TRADITION OF CHARACTER AND TRIUMPH. A TRADITION EMBODIED, PERHAPS, BY THE ELEPHANT GRACING YOUR UNIFORM SLEEVE. AFTER ALL, HOW COULD A REPUBLICAN NOT BE IMPRESSED? //

THIS YEAR'S CHAMPIONS WERE TRUE TO THAT HERITAGE.
WINNING 99 GAMES AND THE AMERICAN LEAGUE WEST . . . AS CASEY STENDEL WOULD SAY, "YOU COULD LOOK IT UP." THEN DOWNING TORONTO IN THE PLAYOFFS. AND SWEEPING THE CROSS-TOWN GIANTS IN THE BATTLE OF THE BAY. ((I ONLY WISH TONY LA RUSSA COULD HELP PILOT MY BUDGET THROUGH CONGRESS THE WAY HE PILOTED THE A'S TO YOUR WORLD SERIES VICTORY.))

WHAT MOMENTS YOU'VE GIVEN US. AND WHAT MEMORIES WE HOLD. OF THAT SAVER, NO. 43, CHARGING FROM THE BULLPEN. ((YOU KNOW HOW THE A'S SPELL RELIEF? IT'S EASY: "E-C-K.")) AND OF THE SERIES' OUTSTANDING PLAYER: WELL, I'M JUST GLAD I'M NOT RUNNING FOR OFFICE AGAINST DAVE STEWART. PERHAPS A NEWSWEEKLY SAID IT BEST OF DAVE'S PITCHING BRILLIANCE AND COMMUNITY SERVICE: "IN THE EYES OF HIS OAKLAND NEIGHBORS, [DAVE'S] M.V.P. MEANT MOST VALUABLE PERSON."

THEN, THERE'S PERHAPS BASEBALL'S ALL-TIME LEADING LEAD-OFF HITTER, RICKEY HENDERSON. STEALING A TON OF BASES -- STEALING THE HEARTS OF OAKLAND. AND MARK MCGWIRE OF THE BASH BROTHERS. AND LET'S NOT FORGET WALT WEISS, JOSE CANSECO, CARNEY LANDSFORD, AND TERRY STEINBACH. AND YES, DAVE HENDERSON.

((LET ME SAY: WITH YOUR HOMERS AGAINST THE GIANTS, WHEN I TALK TO MR. GORBACHEV ABOUT REDUCING OFFENSIVE WEAPONS, I'M GOING TO TELL HIM THAT "HENDU" HENDERSON'S BAT IS NOT NEGOTIABLE.)) //

BIG-LEAGUERS ALL. EACH CONTRIBUTING, BIG-TIME, TO THE CAUSE. A CAUSE LED BY TONY LA RUSSA -- A LAWYER AND EVEN GREATER MANAGER. AND ONE OF BASEBALL'S PIONEERING FRONT-OFFICE STAFFS.

A CLUB WHICH HIT SUPERBLY AND FIELDED BRILLIANTLY. AND WHICH -- SPURRED BY MIKE MOORE, BOB WELCH, STORM DAVIS, AND AN OUTSTANDING BULLPEN -- ECHOED YOUR FRANCHISE'S FOUNDER, CONNIE MACK, WHO SAID: "PITCHING IS 90 PER CENT OF BASEBALL."

THIS YEAR, THE A'S BUILT ON 1988. DELIGHTING SOME OF BASEBALL'S GREATEST FANS -- THINK OF IT: REGULAR-SEASON ATTENDANCE OF ALMOST 2.7 MILLION -- WITH SOME OF THE GREATEST BASEBALL PLAYED SINCE ABNER DOUBLEDAY GOT HIS TAPE MEASURE OUT AND STARTED LAYING-OUT THE DIAMOND.

YES, CHAMPIONS ON THE FIELD. AND CHAMPIONS OFF IT. FOR YOU HELPED THE BAY AREA THROUGH SOME HARD AND TRAGIC TIMES. AS DID THOSE EQUALLY MAGNIFICENT GIANTS.

THE EARTHQUAKE WHICH SHOOK NORTHERN CALIFORNIA DELAYED THE WORLD SERIES. AND FOR A MOMENT, PARALYZED THE REGION. BUT LIKE THE CITIZENS OF OAKLAND, SAN FRANCISCO, AND SAN JOSE, YOU, TOO, BOUNCED BACK. OVERCOMING ADVERSITY. AND UNITING A POPULACE. SHOWING HOW TRUE PROS PERFORM WHEN THE ODDS ARE LONGEST, THE EVENING DARKEST, AND THE GAME IS ON THE LINE -- THE GAME OF BASEBALL, OR THE LARGER GAME OF LIFE.

FOR THAT, I CONGRATULATE YOU. AND EACH AMERICAN SALUTES YOU. THE GREAT PITCHER, DIZZY DEAN, USED TO SAY, "IT AIN'T BRAGGIN' IF YOU CAN BACK IT UP." WELL, FIRST IN THE REGULAR-SEASON, FIRST IN POST-SEASON, HERE STAND THE OAKLAND A'S. IN 1989, YOU BACKED IT UP. AND TO YOU WE SAY: WELL-DONE.

THANK YOU FOR COMING HERE. GOD BLESS YOU, AND GOD BLESS THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Ladies and Gentlemen.

Let me welcome you to the White House. And to a special and historic occasion. ((After all, I'll bet it's not often that the Oakland A's are honored by an unofficial scout for the Texas Rangers.)) //

((You know, usually when I'm told I'll be having a White House meeting with some heavy hitters, it turns out to be the Congressional leadership.)) // But not today. Today, we're talking baseball. And a team that's truly No. 1. The world champion Oakland Athletics.

The A's, of course, have a wonderful heritage. Nine world titles in 88 years -- including four since coming to Oakland. A tradition of character and triumph. A tradition embodied, perhaps, by the elephant gracing your uniform sleeve. After all, how could a Republican not be impressed? //

This year's champions were true to that heritage. Winning 99 games and the American League West . . . as Casey Stengel would say, "You could look it up." Then downing Toronto in the playoffs. And sweeping the cross-town Giants in the Battle of the Bay. ((I only wish Tony La Russa could help pilot my budget through Congress the way he piloted the A's to your World Series victory.))

What moments you've given us. And what memories we hold. Of that saver, No. 43, charging from the bullpen. ((You know how the A's spell relief? It's easy: "E-C-K.")) And of the Series' outstanding player: Well, I'm just glad I'm not running for office against Dave Stewart. Perhaps a newsweekly said it best of Dave's pitching brilliance and community service: "In the eyes of his Oakland neighbors, [Dave's] M.V.P. meant most valuable person."

Then, there's perhaps baseball's all-time leading leadoff hitter, Rickey Henderson. Stealing a ton of bases -- stealing the hearts of Oakland. And Mark McGwire of the Bash Brothers. And let's not forget Walt Weiss, Jose Canseco, Carney Lansford, and Terry Steinbach. And yes, Dave Henderson.

((Let me say: With your homers against the Giants, when I talk to Mr. Gorbachev about reducing offensive weapons, I'm going to tell him that "Hindu" Henderson's bat is not negotiable.)) //

Big-leaguers all. Each contributing, big-time, to the cause. A cause led by Tony La Russa -- a lawyer and even greater manager. And one of baseball's pioneering front-office staffs.

A club which hit superbly and fielded brilliantly. And which -- spurred by Mike Moore, Bob Welch, Storm Davis, and an outstanding bullpen -- echoed your franchise's founder, Connie Mack, who said: "Pitching is 90 per cent of baseball."

This year, the A's built on 1988. Delighting some of baseball's greatest fans -- think of it: regular-season attendance of almost 2.7 million -- with some of the greatest baseball played since Abner Doubleday got his tape measure out and started erecting the diamond.

Yes, champions on the field. And champions off it. For you helped the Bay Area through some hard and tragic times. As did those equally magnificent Giants.

The earthquake which shook Northern California delayed the World Series. And for a moment, paralyzed the region. But like the citizens of Oakland, San Francisco, and San Jose, you, too, bounced back. Overcoming adversity. And uniting a populace. Showing how true pros perform when the odds are longest, the evening darkest, and the game is on the line -- the game of baseball, or the larger game of life.

For that, I congratulate you. And each American salutes you. The great pitcher, Dizzy Dean, used to say, "It ain't braggin' if you can back it up." Well, first in the regular-season, first in post-season, here stand the Oakland A's. In 1989, you backed it up. And to you we say: Well-done.

Thank you for coming here. God bless you, and God bless the United States of America.

Let me welcome you to the White House. And to a special and historic occasion. ((After all, I'll bet it's not often that the Oakland A's are honored by an unofficial scout for the Texas Rangers.)) //

((You know, usually when I'm told I'll be having a White House meeting with some heavy hitters, it turns out to be the Congressional leadership.)) // But not today. Today, we're talking baseball. And a team that's truly No. 1. The world champion Oakland Athletics.

The A's, of course, have a wonderful heritage. __ world titles in __ years -- and four since coming to Oakland. A tradition of character and triumph. A tradition embodied, perhaps, by the elephant gracing your uniform sleeve. After all, how could a Republican not be impressed? //

This year's champions were true to that heritage. Winning __ games and the American League ~~East~~ <sup>West</sup> . . . as Casey Stengel would say, "You could look it up." Then downing Toronto in the playoffs. And sweeping the cross-town Giants in the Battle of the Bay. ((I only wish Tony LaRussa could help pilot my budget through Congress the way he piloted the A's to your World Series victory.))

What moments you've given us. And what memories we hold. Of that saver, No. 43, charging from the bullpen. ((You know how the A's spell relief? It's easy: "E-C-K.")) And of the Series' outstanding player: Well, I'm just glad I'm not running for office against Dave Stewart.

Then, there's perhaps baseball's all-time leading leadoff hitter, Rickey Henderson. Stealing a ton of bases -- stealing the hearts of Oakland. And Dave "Hindu" Henderson -- he of the dramatic homers. And Mark McGuire of the Bash Brothers. And Walt Weiss. And Carney Lansford. And, yes, Jose Canseco. //

((Let me say: After that homer you hit against Toronto, when I talk to Mr. Gorbachev about reducing offensive weapons, I'm going to tell him that Jose's bat is not negotiable.)) //

Big-leaguers all. Each contributing, big-time, to the cause. A cause led by Tony LaRussa -- lawyer, author, even better manager. And one of baseball's pioneering front-office staffs. A club which hit superbly and fielded brilliantly. And which -- spurred by Mike Moore, Bob Welch, and Storm Davis -- echoed your franchise's founder, Connie Mack, who said: "Pitching is 90 per cent of baseball."

This year, the A's built on 1988. Delighting some of baseball's greatest fans -- think of it: regular-season attendance of over 2.7 million -- with some of the greatest baseball played since General Doubleday got his tape measure out and started erecting the diamond.

Yes, champions on the field. And champions off it. For you helped the Bay Area through some hard and tragic times. As did those equally magnificent Giants.

The earthquake which shook Northern California delayed the World Series. And for a moment, paralyzed the region. But like the citizens of Oakland, San Francisco, and San Jose, you, too, bounced back. Overcoming adversity. And uniting a populace. Showing how true pros perform when the odds are longest, the evening darkest, and the game is on the line -- the game of baseball, or the larger game of life.

For that, I congratulate you. And each American salutes you. // Even those who were rooting for a San Francisco sweep. // The great pitcher, Dizzy Dean, used to say, "It ain't braggin' if you can back it up." Well, first in the regular-season, first in post-season, here stand the Oakland A's. In 1989, you backed it up. And to you we say: Well-done.

Thank you for coming here. God bless you, and God bless the United States of America.

OK - S.R. But I'd take out elaboration on Canseco in view of his recent airline skirmish - highlight Dave
 Stewart instead - I think
 La Russa - its safer.

My good friend Fay Vincent. Mr. Haas, Mr. Eisenhardt, Tony LaRussa, Players and Staff of the Oakland Athletics, Ladies and Gentlemen.

Let me welcome you to the White House. And to a special and historic occasion. ((After all, I'll bet it's not often that the Oakland A's are honored by an unofficial scout for the Texas Rangers.)) //

((You know, usually when I'm told I'll be having a White House meeting with some heavy hitters, it turns out to be the Congressional leadership.)) // But not today. Today, we're talking baseball. And a team that's truly No. 1. The world champion Oakland Athletics.
