

Originally Processed With FOIA(s):

FOIA Number:

S

FOIA MARKER

This is not a textual record. This is used as an administrative marker by the George Bush Presidential Library Staff.

Record Group/Collection: George H.W. Bush Presidential Records Collection/Office of Origin: Speechwriting, White House Office of Series: Speech File Draft Files
Subseries: Chron File, 1989-1993

OA/ID Number: 13513
Folder ID Number: 13513-003

Folder Title:
Poland Economic Mission Send-Off 11/28/89 [OA 3540]

Stack:	Row:	Section:	Shelf:	Position:
G	25	6	6	5

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 11/27/89 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: -----

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF
BLAIR HOUSE

SUBJECT: NOVEMBER 28, 1989 (11/27-5:30 pm draft)
7:00 PM

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

The attached has been forwarded to the President.

RESPONSE:

89 OCT 28 A 9: 37

James W. Cicconi
Assistant to the President and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
Ext. 2702

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 27, 1989

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: CHRISS WINSTON W
FROM: DAN MCGROARTY DMcG
SUBJECT: POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF

1989 NOV 27 PM 6:07

I. SUMMARY

At Blair House on Tuesday, November 28, at 7:00 p.m., you will open a briefing for the Presidential Mission to Poland. The Mission includes Secretaries Yeutter, Dole, Mosbacher, Chairman Boskin, and various representatives of the private sector. When you finish your remarks (5 minutes, cards, pool coverage), you will turn the briefing over to Secretary Yeutter.

II. DISCUSSION

The remarks emphasize that U.S. aid to Poland must serve as a basis for Polish economic recovery -- a launching pad, in effect -- and not as a quick cure-all. It is the Mission's task to discover the best and most efficient methods to make sure American aid will truly help to restructure the Polish economic system.

#

McGroarty/Dooley
November 27, 1989
5:30 pm
[POLAND]

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF
BLAIR HOUSE
NOVEMBER 28, 1989
7:00 PM

General Scowcroft. Deputy Secretary Eagleburger. Members of this mission team: I've come by tonight to wish you well as you embark on a mission of tremendous importance -- a history-making journey to a country that is making history every day.

And let me say to Secretaries Yeutter, Mosbacher, and Dole, and my economic advisor, Michael Boskin: you lead a delegation of tremendous talent and expertise. Together, it is a cross-section of the private sector institutions that constitute democracy's great strength -- and gives practical meaning to the principles of free government.

Helping Poland rejoin the community of free nations is a task that cannot be accomplished by government alone. It depends on building the countless exchanges that take place every day among businesses, organized labor, and the academic community and their counterparts in other free countries. The trip you are making is really the first step in that process.

As you know, I'm taking a trip of my own this weekend. // In my meetings with Mr. Gorbachev and afterwards with our NATO allies, I can assure you that the historic developments that have taken place in Poland and elsewhere in Central and Eastern Europe will be high on the agenda. And when I return from Malta, I will be anxious to hear your report on ways we can help Poland achieve its democratic destiny and become a model of transition to a free economy -- a model for the rest of Eastern Europe and the U.S.S.R. as well.

As you know, Congress has authorized and I have approved $938 million dollars in American aid over the next three years for Poland and Hungary -- aid that will enable the United States to do its part to encourage reform.

But we've got to recognize the fact that dollars alone won't make the difference. Think back to the economic miracle in Western Europe after the Second World War. The secret to that great success wasn't the price tag of the aid we sent. Our aid came with our advice, our example and the full engagement of our private sector in shaping the free market system that has generated unprecedented prosperity across Western Europe.

That lesson holds true for Poland today. Our aid must be seed money for free market reform and for the involvement of our private sector.

Lane Kirkland is here tonight: you all heard Lech Walesa in his address to the AFL-CIO -- when he joked about the strange twist of fate, that it fell to a Polish trade unionist to launch a publicity campaign for private entrepreneurship.

What we want for Poland -- what the Polish people want for themselves -- is to begin a process of economic development that is self-sustaining -- a process that puts free market principles principles on a firm foundation. Because the fate of Polish reform -- Poland's future as a free nation -- depends upon its ability to build a functioning, productive economy.

It is with missions like yours that the real work begins. I urge you to make the most of it. Talk to your counterparts in all parts of Polish society. Find out what kinds of investment and what kind of expertise will help Poland succeed in transforming its economy, and in the larger transformation into a fully free nation. Everyone of you can contribute. Everyone of you can be a catalyst for change at this critical moment in Poland's history.

Tonight, as you begin your fascinating mission, let me wish you well. Godspeed and good luck.

#

POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF / BLAIR HOUSE
NOVEMBER 28, 1989 / 7:45 PM

GENERAL SCOWCROFT. DEPUTY SECRETARY EAGLEBURGER.
MEMBERS OF THIS MISSION TEAM: I'VE COME BY TONIGHT TO WISH YOU WELL AS YOU EMBARK ON A MISSION OF TREMENDOUS IMPORTANCE -- A HISTORY-MAKING JOURNEY TO A COUNTRY THAT IS MAKING HISTORY EVERY DAY.

AND LET ME SAY TO SECRETARIES YEUTTER, MOSBACHER, AND DOLE, AND MY ECONOMIC ADVISOR, MICHAEL BOSKIN: YOU LEAD A DELEGATION OF TREMENDOUS TALENT AND EXPERTISE.

- 2 -

TOGETHER, IT IS A CROSS-SECTION OF THE PRIVATE SECTOR INSTITUTIONS THAT CONSTITUTE DEMOCRACY'S GREAT STRENGTH
-- AND GIVES PRACTICAL MEANING TO THE PRINCIPLES OF FREE GOVERNMENT.

HELPING POLAND REJOIN THE COMMUNITY OF FREE NATIONS IS A TASK THAT CANNOT BE ACCOMPLISHED BY GOVERNMENT ALONE.

- 3 -

IT DEPENDS ON BUILDING THE COUNTLESS EXCHANGES THAT TAKE PLACE EVERY DAY AMONG BUSINESSES, ORGANIZED LABOR, AND THE ACADEMIC COMMUNITY AND THEIR COUNTERPARTS IN OTHER FREE COUNTRIES. THE TRIP YOU ARE MAKING IS REALLY THE FIRST STEP IN THAT PROCESS.

AS YOU KNOW, I'M TAKING A TRIP OF MY OWN THIS WEEKEND. //

- 4 -

IN MY MEETINGS WITH MR. GORBACHEV AND AFTERWARDS WITH OUR NATO ALLIES, I CAN ASSURE YOU THAT THE HISTORIC DEVELOPMENTS THAT HAVE TAKEN PLACE IN POLAND AND ELSEWHERE IN CENTRAL AND EASTERN EUROPE WILL BE HIGH ON THE AGENDA. I WILL BE ANXIOUS TO HEAR YOUR REPORT ON WAYS WE CAN HELP POLAND ACHIEVE ITS DEMOCRATIC DESTINY AND BECOME A MODEL OF TRANSITION TO A FREE ECONOMY. YOUR WORK CAN BE OF GREAT HELP TO OTHER COUNTRIES IN EASTERN EUROPE AS THEY MOVE TOWARDS ECONOMIC REFORM.

- 5 -

I'M PLEASED THAT THE INITIATIVES I PROPOSED LAST SUMMER FOR AID TO POLAND AND HUNGARY HAVE BECOME A REALITY. IN JUST A FEW MOMENTS I WILL SIGN INTO LAW A PACKAGE AUTHORIZING $938 MILLION DOLLARS IN AMERICAN AID OVER THE NEXT THREE YEARS -- AID THAT WILL ENABLE THE UNITED STATES TO DO ITS PART TO ENCOURAGE THESE TWO NATIONS ON THE ROAD TO REFORM.

BUT WE'VE GOT TO RECOGNIZE THE FACT THAT DOLLARS ALONE WON'T MAKE THE DIFFERENCE.

- 6 -

THINK BACK TO THE ECONOMIC MIRACLE IN WESTERN EUROPE AFTER THE SECOND WORLD WAR. THE SECRET TO THAT GREAT SUCCESS WASN'T THE PRICE TAG OF THE AID WE SENT. OUR AID CAME WITH OUR ADVICE, OUR EXAMPLE AND THE FULL ENGAGEMENT OF OUR PRIVATE SECTOR IN SHAPING THE FREE MARKET SYSTEM THAT HAS GENERATED UNPRECEDENTED PROSPERITY ACROSS WESTERN EUROPE.

- 7 -

THAT LESSON HOLDS TRUE FOR POLAND TODAY. OUR AID MUST BE SEED MONEY FOR FREE MARKET REFORM AND FOR THE INVOLVEMENT OF OUR PRIVATE SECTOR.

LANE KIRKLAND AND BOB GEORGINE ARE HERE TONIGHT: YOU ALL HEARD LECH WALESZA IN HIS ADDRESS TO THE AFL-CIO -- WHEN HE JOKED ABOUT THE STRANGE TWIST OF FATE, THAT IT FELL TO A POLISH TRADE UNIONIST TO LAUNCH A PUBLICITY CAMPAIGN FOR PRIVATE ENTREPRENEURSHIP.

- 8 -

WHAT WE WANT FOR POLAND -- WHAT THE POLISH PEOPLE WANT FOR THEMSELVES -- IS TO BEGIN A PROCESS OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT THAT IS SELF-SUSTAINING -- A PROCESS THAT PUTS FREE MARKET PRINCIPLES ON A FIRM FOUNDATION. BECAUSE THE FATE OF POLISH REFORM -- POLAND'S FUTURE AS A FREE NATION -- DEPENDS UPON ITS ABILITY TO BUILD A FUNCTIONING, PRODUCTIVE ECONOMY.

IT IS WITH MISSIONS LIKE YOURS THAT THE REAL WORK BEGINS. I URGE YOU TO MAKE THE MOST OF IT.

- 9 -

TALK TO YOUR COUNTERPARTS IN ALL PARTS OF POLISH SOCIETY. FIND OUT WHAT KINDS OF INVESTMENT AND WHAT KIND OF EXPERTISE WILL HELP POLAND SUCCEED IN TRANSFORMING ITS ECONOMY, AND IN THE LARGER TRANSFORMATION INTO A FULLY FREE NATION. EVERYONE OF YOU CAN CONTRIBUTE. EVERYONE OF YOU CAN BE A CATALYST FOR CHANGE AT THIS CRITICAL MOMENT IN POLAND'S HISTORY.

- 10 -

TONIGHT, AS YOU BEGIN YOUR FASCINATING MISSION, LET ME WISH YOU WELL. GODSPEED AND GOOD LUCK -- AND NOW, LET ME SIGN THE SUPPORT FOR EAST EUROPEAN DEMOCRACY ACT OF 1989 INTO LAW.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 28, 1989

MEMORANDUM FOR JIM CICCONI.

FROM:

CHRISS WINSTON CW
DAN MCGROARTY DM

SUBJECT:

POLISH ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF -- CHANGES

This text includes the President's changes, as well as changes on page 2 and in the final sentence. These changes reflect the fact that the President will sign the aid bill at the end of his remarks and allow him to claim credit for the aid initiatives.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE
Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release

November 28, 1989

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT
AT POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF

The Blair House
Washington, D.C.

THE PRESIDENT: Well, thank you very much. To our distinguished guests here and to all the members of this important Mission team, I just wanted to come by tonight to wish you well as you leave on this important mission. I view it as -- really, as a mission of tremendous importance, a history-making journey to a country that's making history every day.

And let me say to Secretaries Yeutter and -- I don't know that Bob Mosbacher is here --

SECRETARY YEUTTER: He'll come later.

THE PRESIDENT: -- and certainly Elizabeth Dole, and to Dr. Mike Boskin over here: you lead a delegation of tremendous experience and talent. Together, it's a cross-section of the private sector institutions that constitute democracy's great strength and gives practical meaning to the principles of free government.

Helping Poland rejoin the Community of Free Nations is a task that simply cannot be accomplished by government alone. It depends on building the countless exchanges that take place every day among businesses and organized labor and the academic community, and their counterparts in other free countries. The trip you're making is really the first step in that process.

As you know, I'm taking a trip of my own this weekend. And in my meetings with Mr. Gorbachev and afterwards with our NATO allies, I can assure you that the historic developments that have taken place in Poland and, of course, elsewhere in Central and Eastern Europe will be high on our agenda. I will be anxious to hear your report on the ways that we can help Poland achieve its democratic destiny and become a model of transition for these other states -- a model of transition to a free economy. And your work can be of great help to other countries in Eastern Europe as they move towards economic reform.

I am very pleased that the initiatives that I've proposed last summer for aid to Poland and Hungary have become a reality. In just a few moments, I will sign into law a package authorizing $938 million in American aid over the next three years. And that will enable the United States to do its part to encourage these two nations on the road to reform.

We've got to recognize, though, that the fact that dollars alone will not make the difference. Think back to the economic miracle of Western Europe after the Second World War. The secret to that success wasn't the price tag on the aid that we sent. Our aid came with our advice, our example and the full engagement of our private sector in shaping the free market system that has generated unprecedented prosperity all across Western Europe.

And that lesson holds true for Poland today. Our aid must be seed money for free market reform and for the involvement of our private sector.

Lane Kirkland -- I see Lane back there, but I don't see

MORE

Bob Georgine. Is he there? There he is. Normally, they're in the front row. Something's gone awry here. (Laughter.) But with Lane and Bob here, I might say that you all heard, I'm sure, Lech Walesa in his address to the AFL-CIO when he joked about that strange twist of fate, that it fell to a Polish trade unionist to launch a publicity campaign for private entrepreneurship.

What we want for Poland -- and what the Polish people want for themselves -- is to begin a process of economic development that is self-sustaining -- a process that puts free market principles on a firm foundation. And because the fate of Polish reform, indeed Poland's future as a free nation -- depends upon its ability to build a functioning, productive economy.

It's with missions like yours that the real work begins. I urge you to make the most of it. So talk to your counterparts in all parts of Polish society. Find out what kinds of investment, what kind of expertise will help Poland succeed in transforming its economy, and then in the larger transformation that flows into a fully free nation. Every one of you can contribute. Every one of you can be a catalyst for change at this critical moment in Poland's history. You're all busy people. You're all successful people. And the fact that you are willing to undertake this very important assignment for your country, that means a great deal. And I am grateful to each and every single one of you.

And so as you begin this fascinating mission, I really wanted to come across and wish you the very best. I hope, Clayton, if you get far enough along -- you or Elizabeth or Bob, that -- maybe you can be in touch with General Scowcroft or Secretary Baker or me in Malta. I want to know how this goes. And if it's not too soon to get an impression, I'd like to hear it there in Malta and then it would give me flexibility in my talks with the General Secretary.

So it's important work you're involved in, and Godspeed, and good luck. And thank you very much for doing this. And now, let me just sign this Support for Eastern European Democracy Act, the Act of 1989 -- sign that into law. God bless you all, and thank you.

(The bill is signed.)

END

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 27, 1989

1989 NOV 27 PM 6:07

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: CHRISS WINSTON cw
FROM: DAN MCGROARTY DMcA
SUBJECT: POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF

OK
slight change
WB

I. SUMMARY

At Blair House on Tuesday, November 28, at 7:00 p.m., you will open a briefing for the Presidential Mission to Poland. The Mission includes Secretaries Yeutter, Dole, Mosbacher, Chairman Boskin, and various representatives of the private sector. When you finish your remarks (5 minutes, cards, pool coverage), you will turn the briefing over to Secretary Yeutter.

II. DISCUSSION

The remarks emphasize that U.S. aid to Poland must serve as a basis for Polish economic recovery -- a launching pad, in effect -- and not as a quick cure-all. It is the Mission's task to discover the best and most efficient methods to make sure American aid will truly help to restructure the Polish economic system.

#

McGroarty/Dooley
November 27, 1989
5:30 pm
[POLAND]

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF
BLAIR HOUSE
NOVEMBER 28, 1989
7:00 PM

✓ General Scowcroft. Deputy Secretary Eagleburger. Members of this mission team: I've come by tonight to wish you well as you embark on a mission of tremendous importance -- a history-making journey to a country that is making history every day.

✓ And let me say to Secretaries Yeutter, Mosbacher, and Dole, and my economic advisor, Michael Boskin: you lead a delegation of tremendous talent and expertise. Together, it is a cross-section of the private sector institutions that constitute democracy's great strength -- and gives practical meaning to the principles of free government.

✓ Helping Poland rejoin the community of free nations is a task that cannot be accomplished by government alone. It depends on building the countless exchanges that take place every day among businesses, organized labor, and the academic community and their counterparts in other free countries. The trip you are making is really the first step in that process. ~~I think your work will have enormous impact on Poland, and it can also be of great help~~ As you know, I'm taking a trip of my own this weekend. ~~to other~~

In my meetings with Mr. Gorbachev and afterwards with our NATO ~~countries~~ ^{in the East} allies, I can assure you that the historic developments that have ~~taken place in Poland and elsewhere in Central and Eastern Europe~~ ^{as they now favor return}

Handwritten text, possibly a signature or name, written in cursive script. The text is oriented vertically and appears to read "L. S. Jones" followed by a large flourish and the word "J. S. Jones" written vertically.

will be high on the agenda. ~~And when I return from Malta,~~ I will be anxious to hear your report on ways we can help Poland achieve its democratic destiny and become a model of transition to a free economy ~~a model for the rest of Eastern Europe and the~~ your work can be of great help to other countries

~~U.S.S.R. as well.~~

in Eastern Europe do try move towards
As you know, Congress has authorized and I have approved $938 million dollars in American aid over the next three years for Poland and Hungary -- aid that will enable the United States to do its part to encourage reform. Economic reform

But we've got to recognize the fact that dollars alone won't make the difference. Think back to the economic miracle in Western Europe after the Second World War. The secret to that great success wasn't the price tag of the aid we sent. Our aid came with our advice, our example and the full engagement of our private sector in shaping the free market system that has generated unprecedented prosperity across Western Europe.

That lesson holds true for Poland today. Our aid must be seed money for free market reform and for the involvement of our private sector.

Bob Georgine
Lane Kirkland is here tonight: you all heard Lech Walesa in his address to the AFL-CIO -- when he joked about the strange twist of fate, that it fell to a Polish trade unionist to launch a publicity campaign for private entrepreneurship.

What we want for Poland -- what the Polish people want for themselves -- is to begin a process of economic development that is self-sustaining -- a process that puts free market principles principles on a firm foundation. Because the fate of Polish reform -- Poland's future as a free nation -- depends upon its ability to build a functioning, productive economy.

Georgine

It is with missions like yours that the real work begins. I urge you to make the most of it. Talk to your counterparts in all parts of Polish society. Find out what kinds of investment and what kind of expertise will help Poland succeed in transforming its economy, and in the larger transformation into a fully free nation. Everyone of you can contribute. Everyone of you can be a catalyst for change at this critical moment in Poland's history.

Tonight, as you begin your fascinating mission, let me wish you well. Godspeed and good luck.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 27, 1989

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: CHRISS WINSTON W
FROM: DAN MCGROARTY DMcG
SUBJECT: POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF

I. SUMMARY

At Blair House on Tuesday, November 28, at 7:00 p.m., you will open a briefing for the Presidential Mission to Poland. The Mission includes Secretaries Yeutter, Dole, Mosbacher, Chairman Boskin, and various representatives of the private sector. When you finish your remarks (5 minutes, cards, pool coverage), you will turn the briefing over to Secretary Yeutter.

II. DISCUSSION

The remarks emphasize that U.S. aid to Poland must serve as a basis for Polish economic recovery -- a launching pad, in effect -- and not as a quick cure-all. It is the Mission's task to discover the best and most efficient methods to make sure American aid will truly help to restructure the Polish economic system.

#

McGroarty/Dooley
November 27, 1989
5:30 pm
[POLAND]

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF
BLAIR HOUSE
NOVEMBER 28, 1989
7:00 PM

General Scowcroft. Deputy Secretary Eagleburger. Members of this mission team: I've come by tonight to wish you well as you embark on a mission of tremendous importance -- a history-making journey to a country that is making history every day.

And let me say to Secretaries Yeutter, Mosbacher, and Dole, and my economic advisor, Michael Boskin: you lead a delegation of tremendous talent and expertise. Together, it is a cross-section of the private sector institutions that constitute democracy's great strength -- and gives practical meaning to the principles of free government.

Helping Poland rejoin the community of free nations is a task that cannot be accomplished by government alone. It depends on building the countless exchanges that take place every day among businesses, organized labor, and the academic community and their counterparts in other free countries. The trip you are making is really the first step in that process.

As you know, I'm taking a trip of my own this weekend. // In my meetings with Mr. Gorbachev and afterwards with our NATO allies, I can assure you that the historic developments that have taken place in Poland and elsewhere in Central and Eastern Europe will be high on the agenda. And when I return from Malta, I will be anxious to hear your report on ways we can help Poland achieve its democratic destiny and become a model of transition to a free economy -- a model for the rest of Eastern Europe and the U.S.S.R. as well.

As you know, Congress has authorized and I have approved $938 million dollars in American aid over the next three years for Poland and Hungary -- aid that will enable the United States to do its part to encourage reform.

But we've got to recognize the fact that dollars alone won't make the difference. Think back to the economic miracle in Western Europe after the Second World War. The secret to that great success wasn't the price tag of the aid we sent. Our aid came with our advice, our example and the full engagement of our private sector in shaping the free market system that has generated unprecedented prosperity across Western Europe.

That lesson holds true for Poland today. Our aid must be seed money for free market reform and for the involvement of our private sector.

Lane Kirkland is here tonight: you all heard Lech Walesa in his address to the AFL-CIO -- when he joked about the strange twist of fate, that it fell to a Polish trade unionist to launch a publicity campaign for private entrepreneurship.

What we want for Poland -- what the Polish people want for themselves -- is to begin a process of economic development that is self-sustaining -- a process that puts free market principles principles on a firm foundation. Because the fate of Polish reform -- Poland's future as a free nation -- depends upon its ability to build a functioning, productive economy.

It is with missions like yours that the real work begins. I urge you to make the most of it. Talk to your counterparts in all parts of Polish society. Find out what kinds of investment and what kind of expertise will help Poland succeed in transforming its economy, and in the larger transformation into a fully free nation. Everyone of you can contribute. Everyone of you can be a catalyst for change at this critical moment in Poland's history.

Tonight, as you begin your fascinating mission, let me wish you well. Godspeed and good luck.

#

HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 11/27/89 NOON

REMARKS: POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF

Brett Coulson
NSC -
can only verify
Q38 - 3 yr. total.
Chris Wick

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BATES N/C	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN N/C	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	5042	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, Monday, November 27, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

1989 NOV 22 PM 3.31

McGroarty/Dooley
November 22, 1989
10:00 am
[POLAND]

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF
BLAIR HOUSE
NOVEMBER 28, 1989
7:00 PM

General Scowcroft. Deputy Secretary Eagleburger.

~~[Introductory acknowledgements.]~~ Members of this mission team:
I've come by tonight to wish you well as you embark on a mission of tremendous importance -- a history-making journey to a country that is making history every day.

And let me say to Secretaries ^{Heutter} Mosbacher, ^{and} Dole, ~~and Yuetter,~~ and my economics advisor, Michael Boskin: you lead a delegation of tremendous talent and expertise. Together, it is a cross-section of the private sector institutions that constitute democracy's great strength -- that ^{and} gives practical meaning to the principles of free government.

^{Helping} ~~Bringing~~ Poland ^{rejoin} ~~into~~ the community of free nations is a task that cannot be accomplished by government alone. It depends on building the countless exchanges that take place every day ^{among} ~~between~~ businesses, organized labor, and the academic community and their counterparts in other free countries. The trip you are making is really the first step in that process.

^{As you know,} ~~Of course,~~ I'm taking a trip of my own this weekend. // In ^{and afterwards with our NATO allies} my meetings with Mr. Gorbachev, I can assure you that the historic developments that have taken place in Poland and elsewhere in Central and Eastern Europe will be high on the agenda. And when I return from Malta, I will be anxious to hear your report on ways we can help Poland achieve its democratic destiny and become a model of transition to a free economy -- a model for the rest of Europe Eastern Europe and the USSR as well.

As you know, ^{(set) in FY 1990 Congress} ~~over the next three years~~, Poland and Hungary (Congress has authorized ~~to~~ and I have approved for ~~will receive~~ $938 million dollars in American aid) -- aid that will enable the United States to do its part to encourage reform.

But we've got to recognize the fact that dollars alone won't make the difference. Think back to the economic miracle in Western Europe after the Second World War. The secret to that great success wasn't the price tag of the aid we sent. Our aid come with our advice, our example and the full engagement of our private sector ~~it was the role our aid played~~ in shaping the free market system that has generated unprecedented prosperity across Western Europe.

That lesson holds true for Poland today. Our aid must be seed money for free market reform, and for the involvement of our private sector.

Lane Kirkland is here tonight: you all heard Lech Walesa in his address to the AFL-CIO -- when he joked about the strange twist of fate, that it fell to a Polish trade unionist to launch a publicity campaign for private entrepreneurship.

What we want for the Poland -- what the Polish people want for themselves -- is to begin a process of economic development that is self-sustaining -- a process that puts free market principles on a firm foundation. Because the fate of Polish reform -- Poland's future as a free nation -- depends upon its ability to build a functioning, productive economy.

It is
With missions like yours that the real work begins. I urge you to make the most of it. Talk to your counterparts in all parts of Polish society. Find out what kinds of investment and assistance ~~is~~ what kind of expertise ~~is~~ will help Poland succeed in transforming its economy, and in the larger transformation into a fully free nation. Everyone of you can contribute. Everyone of you can be a catalyst for change at this critical moment in Poland's history.

Tonight, as you begin your fascinating mission, let me wish you well. Godspeed and good luck.

#

9452

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 11/22/89

ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 11/27/89 NOON

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, Monday, November 27, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE: TO: Chriss Winston November 27, 1989

The NSC concurs with the changes indicated.

Brent Scowcroft
Brent Scowcroft

cc: James W. Cicconi

James W. Cicconi
Assistant to the President
and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
Ext. 2702

21:11

11:49 1570000

89 NOV 22 P 4: 33

1989 NOV 22 PM 3.31

McGroarty/Dooley
November 22, 1989
10:00 am
[POLAND]

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF
BLAIR HOUSE
NOVEMBER 28, 1989
7:00 PM

General Scowcroft, Deputy Secretary Eagleburger.

[Introductory acknowledgements, ^{including}] Members of this mission team:

I've come by tonight to wish you well as you embark on a mission of tremendous importance -- a history-making journey to a country that is making history every day.

And let me say to Secretaries Mosbacher, ^{and} Dole, ^{and} Yuetter, and my economics advisor, Michael Boskin: you lead a delegation of tremendous talent and expertise. Together, it is a cross-section of the private sector institutions that constitute democracy's great strength -- ^{and} ~~that~~ give practical meaning to the principles of free government.

^{Helping} Bringing Poland ^{rejoin} into the community of free nations is a task that cannot be accomplished by government alone. It depends on building the countless exchanges that take place every day ^{among} ~~between~~ businesses, organized labor, and the academic community and their counterparts in other free countries. The trip you are making is really the first step in that process.

^{As you know} ~~Of course~~, I'm taking a trip of my own this weekend. // In my meetings with Mr. Gorbachev, ^{and afterwards with our NATO} I can assure you that the ^{Allies} historic developments that have taken place in Poland and for the rest of Eastern Europe and for the USSR as well.

elsewhere in Central and Eastern Europe will be high on the agenda. And when I return from Malta, I will be anxious to hear your report on ways we can help Poland ^{to} achieve its democratic destiny and ~~become~~ ^{to} become a model of transition to a free economy -- a model ~~that could have an impact not only~~.

As you know, ^{Congress has authorized} over the next three years ^{for} Poland and Hungary will receive $938 million dollars in American aid -- aid that will ^{symbolize} ~~enable~~ the United States ^{commitment} ~~to~~ do its part to encourage reform.

But we've got to recognize the fact that dollars alone won't make the difference. Think back to the economic miracle in Western Europe after the Second World War. The secret to that great success wasn't the price tag of the aid we sent, -- ~~it was~~ ^{full} ~~the role our aid played~~ ^{Our aid came with} ~~together with our advice, our example, and the engagement~~ ^{of our private sector} in shaping the free market system that has generated unprecedented prosperity across Western Europe.

That lesson holds true for Poland today. Our aid must be seed money for free market reform ^{and for the involvement of our private sector.}

Lane Kirkland is here tonight: you all heard Lech Walesa in his address to the AFL-CIO -- when he joked about the strange twist of fate, that it fell to a Polish trade unionist to launch a publicity campaign for private entrepreneurship.

What we want for the Poland -- what the Polish people want for themselves -- is to begin a process of economic development that is self-sustaining -- a process that puts free market principles on a firm foundation. Because the fate of Polish reform -- Poland's future as a free nation -- depends upon its ability to build a functioning, productive economy.

It is ^{that} with missions like yours ^{the} real work begins. I urge you to make the most of it. Talk to your counterparts in all parts of Polish society. Find out what kinds of ^{investment and} ~~assistance~~ ^{—} what kind of expertise ^{—} will help Poland succeed in transforming its economy, and in the larger transformation into a fully free nation. Everyone of you can contribute. Everyone of you can be a catalyst for change at this critical moment in Poland's history.

Tonight, as you begin your fascinating mission, let me wish you well. Godspeed and good luck.

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 11/22/89 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 11/27/89 NOON

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF

	ACTION FYI			ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, Monday, November 27, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

See comments

89 OCT 27 PM 2:28

James W. Cicconi
Assistant to the President
and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
Ext. 2702

1989 NOV 22 PM 3.31

McGroarty/Dooley
November 22, 1989
10:00 am
[POLAND]

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF
BLAIR HOUSE
NOVEMBER 28, 1989
7:00 PM

General Scowcroft. Deputy Secretary Eagleburger.

[Introductory acknowledgements.] Members of this mission team: I've come by tonight to wish you well as you embark on a mission of tremendous importance -- a history-making journey to a country that is making history every day.

And let me say to Secretaries Mosbacher, Dole and Yuetter, and my economics advisor, Michael Boskin: you lead a delegation of tremendous talent and expertise. Together, it is a cross-section of the private sector institutions that constitute democracy's great strength -- that give practical meaning to the principles of free government.

Bringing Poland into the community of free nations is a task that cannot be accomplished by government alone. It depends on building the countless exchanges that take place every day between businesses, organized labor, and the academic community and their counterparts in other free countries. The trip you are making is really the first step in that process.

Of course, I'm taking a trip of my own this weekend. // In my meetings with Mr. Gorbachev, I can assure you that the historic developments that have taken place in Poland and elsewhere in Central and Eastern Europe will be high on the agenda. And when I return from Malta, I will be anxious to hear your report on ways we can help Poland achieve its democratic destiny.

IA-Lussemb.

As you know, ^{in 74 1990} ~~over the next three years~~, Poland and Hungary will receive $⁶⁵⁸~~938~~ million dollars in American aid -- aid that will enable the United States to do its part to encourage reform.

But we've got to recognize the fact that dollars alone won't make the difference. Think back to the economic miracle in Western Europe after the Second World War. The secret to that great success wasn't the price tag of the aid we sent -- it was the role our aid played in shaping the free market system that has generated unprecedented prosperity across Western Europe.

That lesson holds true for Poland today. Our aid must be seed money for free market reform.

Lane Kirkland is here tonight: you all heard Lech Walesa in his address to the AFL-CIO -- when he joked about the strange twist of fate, that it fell to a Polish trade unionist to launch a publicity campaign for private entrepreneurship.

What we want for the Poland -- what the Polish people want for themselves -- is to begin a process of economic development that is self-sustaining -- a process that puts free market principles on a firm foundation. Because the fate of Polish reform -- Poland's future as a free nation -- depends upon its ability to build a functioning, productive economy.

With missions like yours the real work begins. I urge you to make the most of it. Talk to your counterparts in all parts of Polish society. Find out what kind of assistance -- what kind of expertise -- will help Poland succeed in transforming its economy, and in the larger transformation into a fully free nation. Everyone of you can contribute. Everyone of you can be a catalyst for change at this critical moment in Poland's history.

Tonight, as you begin your fascinating mission, let me wish you well. Godspeed and good luck.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON
November 27, 1989

MEMORANDUM FOR CHRISS WINSTON

FROM: ROGER B. PORTER RBP
SUBJECT: Poland Economic Mission Send-Off

We have reviewed the draft remarks for the Poland Economic Mission Send-off. Our comments are included on the attached draft.

If you have any questions or we can help in any other way, please let me know.

cc: James W. Cicconi

89 OCT 27 PM 4: 57

See FIRRAR
ok.

1989 NOV 22 PM 3.31

McGroarty/Dooley
November 22, 1989
10:00 am
[POLAND]

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF
BLAIR HOUSE
NOVEMBER 28, 1989
7:00 PM

General Scowcroft. Deputy Secretary Eagleburger.

[Introductory acknowledgements.] Members of this mission team:
I've come by tonight to wish you well as you embark on a mission of tremendous importance -- a history-making journey to a country that is making history every day.

And let me say to Secretaries Mosbacher, Dole and Yuetter, and ~~my economics advisor~~ ^{OUR CEA CHAIRMAN}, Michael Boskin: you lead a delegation of tremendous talent and expertise. Together, it is a cross-section of the private sector institutions that constitute democracy's great strength -- that give practical meaning to the principles of free government.

Bringing Poland into the community of free nations is a task that cannot be accomplished by government alone. It depends on building the countless exchanges that take place every day between businesses, organized labor, and the academic community and their counterparts in other free countries. The trip you are making is really the first step in that process.

Of course, I'm taking a trip of my own this weekend. // In my meetings with Mr. Gorbachev, I can assure you that the historic developments that have taken place in Poland and

elsewhere in Central and Eastern Europe will be high on the agenda. And when I return from Malta, I will be anxious to hear your report on ways we can help Poland achieve its democratic destiny.

As you know, over the next three years, Poland and Hungary will receive $938 million dollars in American aid -- aid that will enable the United States to do its part to encourage reform.

But we've got to recognize the fact that dollars alone won't make the difference. Think back to the economic miracle in Western Europe after the Second World War. The secret to that great success wasn't the price tag of the aid we sent -- it was the role our aid played in shaping the free market system that has generated unprecedented prosperity across Western Europe.

That lesson holds true for Poland today. Our aid must be seed money for free market reform.

Lane Kirkland is here tonight: you all heard Lech Walesa in his address to the AFL-CIO -- when he joked about the strange twist of fate, that it fell to a Polish trade unionist to launch a publicity campaign for private entrepreneurship.

What we want for the Poland -- what the Polish people want for themselves -- is to begin a process of economic development that is self-sustaining -- a process that puts free market principles on a firm foundation. Because the fate of Polish reform -- Poland's future as a free nation -- depends upon its ability to build a functioning, productive economy.

With missions like yours the real work begins. I urge you to make the most of it. Talk to your counterparts in all parts of Polish society. Find out ~~what~~ ^{THE} kind ^S of assistance ~~AND~~ ^{AND} ~~what~~ kind of expertise ^{THAT} ~~X~~ will help Poland succeed in transforming its economy, and in the larger transformation into a fully free nation. Everyone of you can contribute. Everyone of you can be a catalyst for change at this critical moment in Poland's history.

Tonight, as you begin your fascinating mission, let me wish you well. Godspeed and good luck.

#

Sorry this is last - minute but we just got
the call now from USDA.
Marnie Haines
3:30.

G MEMORANDUM

COMMENT DUE BY: 11/27/89 NOON

ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF

			ACTION	FYI
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
MCCLURE			<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
NEWMAN			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
PORTER			<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
ROGICH			<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
UNTERMAYER			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
ROGERS			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
WINSTON			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
PINKERTON			<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BOSKIN			<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, Monday, November 27, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

One change from USDA -
1st page, 2nd P

James W. Cicconi
Assistant to the President
and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
Ext. 2702

McGroarty/Dooley
November 22, 1989
10:00 am
[POLAND]

1989 NOV 22 PM 3.31

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF
BLAIR HOUSE
NOVEMBER 28, 1989
7:00 PM

General Scowcroft. Deputy Secretary Eagleburger.

[Introductory acknowledgements.] Members of this mission team: I've come by tonight to wish you well as you embark on a mission of tremendous importance -- a history-making journey to a country that is making history every day.

And let me say to Secretaries Mosbacher, Dole and ^{ev} Yuetter, and my economics advisor, Michael Boskin: you lead a delegation of tremendous talent and expertise. Together, it is a cross-section of the private sector institutions that constitute democracy's great strength -- that give practical meaning to the principles of free government.

Bringing Poland into the community of free nations is a task that cannot be accomplished by government alone. It depends on building the countless exchanges that take place every day between businesses, organized labor, and the academic community and their counterparts in other free countries. The trip you are making is really the first step in that process.

Of course, I'm taking a trip of my own this weekend. // In my meetings with Mr. Gorbachev, I can assure you that the historic developments that have taken place in Poland and

This name should go in because it is heading up delegation

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 11/22/89 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 11/27/89 NOON

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:
 Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, Monday, November 27, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:
 N/C 11/27/89

89 OCT 27 PM 2:30

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

1989 NOV 22 PM 3.31

McGroarty/Dooley
November 22, 1989
10:00 am
[POLAND]

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF
BLAIR HOUSE
NOVEMBER 28, 1989
7:00 PM

General Scowcroft. Deputy Secretary Eagleburger.

[Introductory acknowledgements.] Members of this mission team:
I've come by tonight to wish you well as you embark on a mission of tremendous importance -- a history-making journey to a country that is making history every day.

And let me say to Secretaries Mosbacher, Dole and Yuetter,
and my economics advisor, Michael Boskin: you lead a delegation of tremendous talent and expertise. Together, it is a cross-section of the private sector institutions that constitute democracy's great strength -- that give practical meaning to the principles of free government.

Bringing Poland into the community of free nations is a task that cannot be accomplished by government alone. It depends on building the countless exchanges that take place every day
between businesses, organized labor, and the academic community and their counterparts in other free countries. The trip you are making is really the first step in that process.

Of course, I'm taking a trip of my own this weekend. // In my meetings with Mr. Gorbachev, I can assure you that the historic developments that have taken place in Poland and

elsewhere in Central and Eastern Europe will be high on the agenda. And when I return from Malta, I will be anxious to hear your report on ways we can help Poland achieve its democratic destiny.

As you know, over the next three years, Poland and Hungary will receive $938 million dollars in American aid -- aid that will enable the United States to do its part to encourage reform.

But we've got to recognize the fact that dollars alone won't make the difference. Think back to the economic miracle in Western Europe after the Second World War. The secret to that great success wasn't the price tag of the aid we sent -- it was the role our aid played in shaping the free market system that has generated unprecedented prosperity across Western Europe.

That lesson holds true for Poland today. Our aid must be seed money for free market reform.

Lane Kirkland is here tonight: you all heard Lech Walesa in his address to the AFL-CIO -- when he joked about the strange twist of fate, that it fell to a Polish trade unionist to launch a publicity campaign for private entrepreneurship.

What we want for the Poland -- what the Polish people want for themselves -- is to begin a process of economic development that is self-sustaining -- a process that puts free market principles on a firm foundation. Because the fate of Polish reform -- Poland's future as a free nation -- depends upon its ability to build a functioning, productive economy.

With missions like yours the real work begins. I urge you to make the most of it. Talk to your counterparts in all parts of Polish society. Find out what kind of assistance -- what kind of expertise -- will help Poland succeed in transforming its economy, and in the larger transformation into a fully free nation. Everyone of you can contribute. Everyone of you can be a catalyst for change at this critical moment in Poland's history.

Tonight, as you begin your fascinating mission, let me wish you well. Godspeed and good luck.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 27, 1989

Memorandum to Chriss Winston

From: Jim Pinkerton

Subject: Poland Economic Mission Send-off

pg. 2, para. 1, line 1 "...Central and Eastern Europe will be high on the agenda [at the Malta meeting]."

The news media has noticed that the President has in the past said "there's not going to be an agenda" at the meeting with Gorbachev. We wonder, therefore, whether we should use the term "agenda" as it now appears in the draft. Also, to say that E. Europe will be "high on the agenda" may raise questions about what the President believes to be higher on that agenda. We, of course, defer to whatever the National Security Council recommends on this point.

###

89 OCT 27 12:10 68
ALL: 27

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 24, 1989

MEMORANDUM FOR CHRISS WINSTON

FROM: STEPHEN G. RADEMAKER SR
ASSOCIATE COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Presidential Remarks: Poland Economic Mission
Send-Off

Pursuant to James Cicconi's request, Counsel's Office has reviewed the above-referenced matter and has no objection to the Presidential Remarks as drafted.

Thank you for bring this matter to our attention.

cc: James W. Cicconi

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 11/22/89 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 11/27/89 NOON

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	 	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than NOON, Monday, November 27, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

OK

89 OCT 27 10:50 AM

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

1989 NOV 22 PM 3.31

McGroarty/Dooley
November 22, 1989
10:00 am
[POLAND]

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF
BLAIR HOUSE
NOVEMBER 28, 1989
7:00 PM

General Scowcroft. Deputy Secretary Eagleburger.

[Introductory acknowledgements.] Members of this mission team:
I've come by tonight to wish you well as you embark on a mission of tremendous importance -- a history-making journey to a country that is making history every day.

And let me say to Secretaries Mosbacher, Dole and Yuetter,
and my economics advisor, Michael Boskin: you lead a delegation of tremendous talent and expertise. Together, it is a cross-section of the private sector institutions that constitute democracy's great strength -- that give practical meaning to the principles of free government.

Bringing Poland into the community of free nations is a task that cannot be accomplished by government alone. It depends on building the countless exchanges that take place every day
between businesses, organized labor, and the academic community and their counterparts in other free countries. The trip you are making is really the first step in that process.

Of course, I'm taking a trip of my own this weekend. // In my meetings with Mr. Gorbachev, I can assure you that the historic developments that have taken place in Poland and

elsewhere in Central and Eastern Europe will be high on the agenda. And when I return from Malta, I will be anxious to hear your report on ways we can help Poland achieve its democratic destiny.

As you know, over the next three years, Poland and Hungary will receive $938 million dollars in American aid -- aid that will enable the United States to do its part to encourage reform.

But we've got to recognize the fact that dollars alone won't make the difference. Think back to the economic miracle in Western Europe after the Second World War. The secret to that great success wasn't the price tag of the aid we sent -- it was the role our aid played in shaping the free market system that has generated unprecedented prosperity across Western Europe.

That lesson holds true for Poland today. Our aid must be seed money for free market reform.

Lane Kirkland is here tonight: you all heard Lech Walesa in his address to the AFL-CIO -- when he joked about the strange twist of fate, that it fell to a Polish trade unionist to launch a publicity campaign for private entrepreneurship.

What we want for the Poland -- what the Polish people want for themselves -- is to begin a process of economic development that is self-sustaining -- a process that puts free market principles on a firm foundation. Because the fate of Polish reform -- Poland's future as a free nation -- depends upon its ability to build a functioning, productive economy.

With missions like yours the real work begins. I urge you to make the most of it. Talk to your counterparts in all parts of Polish society. Find out what kind of assistance -- what kind of expertise -- will help Poland succeed in transforming its economy, and in the larger transformation into a fully free nation. Everyone of you can contribute. Everyone of you can be a catalyst for change at this critical moment in Poland's history.

Tonight, as you begin your fascinating mission, let me wish you well. Godspeed and good luck.

#

Suffled!

McGroarty/Dooley
November 22, 1989
10:00 am
[POLAND]

3: POLAND ECONOMIC MISSION SEND-OFF
BLAIR HOUSE
NOVEMBER 28, 1989
7:00 PM

oft. Deputy Secretary Eagleburger.

wledgements.] Members of this mission team:

c to wish you well as you embark on a mission

ance -- a history-making journey to a country

ory every day.

And let me say to Secretaries Mosbacher, Dole and Yuetter, and my economics advisor, Michael Boskin: you lead a delegation of tremendous talent and expertise. Together, it is a cross-section of the private sector institutions that constitute democracy's great strength -- that give practical meaning to the principles of free government.

Bringing Poland into the community of free nations is a task that cannot be accomplished by government alone. It depends on building the countless exchanges that take place every day between businesses, organized labor, and the academic community and their counterparts in other free countries. The trip you are making is really the first step in that process.

Of course, I'm taking a trip of my own this weekend. // In my meetings with Mr. Gorbachev, I can assure you that the historic developments that have taken place in Poland and elsewhere in Central and Eastern Europe will be high on the agenda. And when I return from Malta, I will be anxious to hear your report on ways we can help Poland achieve its democratic destiny.

As you know, over the next three years, Poland and Hungary will receive $938 million dollars in American aid -- aid that will enable the United States to do its part to encourage reform.

But we've got to recognize the fact that dollars alone won't make the difference. Think back to the economic miracle in Western Europe after the Second World War. The secret to that great success wasn't the price tag of the aid we sent -- it was the role our aid played in shaping the free market system that has generated unprecedented prosperity across Western Europe.

That lesson holds true for Poland today. Our aid must be seed money for free market reform.

Lane Kirkland is here tonight: you all heard Lech Walesa in his address to the AFL-CIO -- when he joked about the strange twist of fate, that it fell to a Polish trade unionist to launch a publicity campaign for private entrepreneurship.

What we want for the Poland -- what the Polish people want for themselves -- is to begin a process of economic development that is self-sustaining -- a process that puts free market principles on a firm foundation. Because the fate of Polish reform -- Poland's future as a free nation -- depends upon its ability to build a functioning, productive economy.

With missions like yours the real work begins. I urge you to make the most of it. Talk to your counterparts in all parts of Polish society. Find out what kind of assistance -- what kind of expertise -- will help Poland succeed in transforming its economy, and in the larger transformation into a fully free nation. Everyone of you can contribute. Everyone of you can be a catalyst for change at this critical moment in Poland's history.

Tonight, as you begin your fascinating mission, let me wish you well. Godspeed and good luck.

#