PROPOSED VIDEO MESSAGE
WONDERFUL WORLD OF DISNEY

Good morning, and a Merry Christmas to everyone watching the Wonderful World of Disney parade. Barbara, and the whole Bush family, join me in sending our warmest Christmas wishes on this very special morning.

I've long felt that Christmas is the most wonderful time of the year. A time of quiet fires warming a house, candlelight, and gloriously decorated Christmas trees. It's also a time for family and friends to gather and rejoice in all the blessings we enjoy here at home.

And, this Christmas we have much for which to be thankful. America is at peace and the chimes of freedom are ringing throughout a new part of the world -- Eastern Europe. A year ago, who could have imagined that we would bear witness to the rapid changes of peace and freedom in that part of the world?

But Christmas is also a time to count the blessings closer to home and right across the table. As we share this day with our loved ones, as we see the sparkle in our children's and grandchildren's eyes and gather around the tree, let's remember that our family is the true blessing we celebrate this Christmas.

And as we celebrate, let's make sure to remember those less fortunate. Reach out to those neighbors in your community who may need a hand this holiday season. Not only will their lives be enriched, but so will yours.

Barbara joins me in sending a Merry Christmas to everyone. Thank you, and God bless each and everyone of you on this special day. And now, let's rejoin this wonderful parade.

PROPOSED :30 VIDEO MESSAGE

MESSAGE #1

Some of my best College memories were on the athletic field. Those were exciting times. So it's a pleasure to tell you about the NCAA Foundation. Not only does the NCAA work for excellence in education, but the NCAA is a leader in the fight against drugs. And that is a fight that we can't afford to loose. So when the NCAA Foundation asks for help, take the time and do what you can -- be what I call a "point of light." Thank you and God Bless you all.

MESSAGE #2 NEW YEAR'S NCAA MESSAGE

Happy New Year to everyone and I hope you're enjoying a great game. Some of my best memories from college were on the athletic field. So its a pleasure to talk about the NCAA Foundation. The NCAA works for excellence in education and is a leader in the fight against drugs. So when the NCAA asks for your help, take the time to volunteer -- to be what I call a point of light. Thank you and God bless you all.

PROPOSED VIDEO MESSAGE
STEVE LARGENT RETIREMENT GALA

Good evening. It's wonderful to join you in the "Emerald City" to celebrate the outstanding career of Steve Largent.

"Yoda", congratulations. In fourteen years, you've run enough patterns, made enough circus catches, and scored enough touchdowns to establish yourself as one of football's greatest athletes. No, Steve, we never saw a vapor trail following your open field sprints, but your precise patterns and timing made the difference. Take it from one who knows, it's results and not flash that really matters.

And when it comes to results off the field, your Seattle community knows full well of your tremendous contributions. Your selfless efforts on behalf of Children's Hospital, the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center and so many other groups have been an inspiration to everyone. And Steve, the phone calls you've made to all those young people in hospital beds has speeded many a recovery.

You're one of those people who've made made a difference. And, for those efforts not only do you have the heartfelt thanks of your community, but also of this President.

Thank you for including me in tonight's event. Steve, Barbara joins me in sending along our best holiday wishes to you, your family, and every Seahawk fan. Thank you, and God bless you all.

PROPOSED VIDEO MESSAGE
STEVE LARGENT RETIREMENT GALA

Good evening. It's wonderful to join you in the "Emerald City" to celebrate the outstanding career of Steve Largent.

"Yoda", congratulations. In fourteen years, you've run enough patterns, made enough circus catches, and scored enough touchdowns to establish yourself as one of football's greatest athletes. And while we never saw a vapor trail following you in your open field sprints, your precise patterns and timing made up for your alleged lack of speed. But, Steve, everybody knows, it's results and not flash that really matters.

And when it comes to results off the field, your Seattle community knows full well of your tremendous contributions. Your selfless efforts on behalf of Children's Hospital, the Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center and numerous other groups have truly been an inspiration to everyone. And Steve, we all admire your phone calls to lift the spirits of all those young people in hospital beds. I know your concern and interest in their well being has speeded many a recovery.

You've made a difference. Not only on the field, but off. And, for those efforts not only do you have the heartfelt thanks of your community, but also of this President.

Thank you for including me in tonight's event. Steve, Barbara joins me in sending along our best holiday wishes to you,

your family, and every Seahawk fan. Thank you, and God bless you all.

PROPOSED VIDEO MESSAGE
WONDERFUL WORLD OF DISNEY

Good morning, and a Merry Christmas to everyone watching the Wonderful World of Disney parade. Barbara, and the whole Bush family, join me in sending our warmest Christmas wishes on this very special morning.

I've long felt that Christmas is the most wonderful time of the year. A time of quiet fires warming a house, candlelight, and gloriously decorated Christmas trees. It's also a time for family and friends to gather and rejoice in all the blessings we enjoy here at home.

And, this Christmas we have much for which to be thankful. America is at peace and the chimes of freedom are ringing throughout a new part of the world -- Eastern Europe. A year ago, who could have imagined that we would bear witness to the rapid changes of peace and freedom in that part of the world?

But Christmas is also a time to count the blessings closer to home and right across the table. As we share this day with our loved ones, as we see the sparkle in our children's and grandchildren's eyes and gather around the tree, let's remember that our family is the true blessing we celebrate this Christmas.

And as we celebrate, let's make sure to remember those less fortunate. Reach out to those neighbors in your community who may need a hand this holiday season. Not only will their lives be enriched, but so will yours.

Barbara joins me in sending a hardy Merry Christmas to everyone. Thank you, and God bless each and everyone of you on this special day. And now, let's rejoin this wonderful parade.

Title: DISNEY

PROPOSED VIDEO MESSAGE
WONDERFUL WORLD OF DISNEY

Good morning, and a Merry Christmas to everyone watching the Wonderful World of Disney parade. Barbara, and the whole Bush family, join me in sending our warmest Christmas wishes on this very special morning.

I've long felt that Christmas is the most wonderful time of the year. A time of quiet fires warming a house, candlelight, and gloriously decorated Christmas trees. It's also a time for family and friends to gather and rejoice in all the blessings we enjoy here at home.

And, this Christmas we have much for which to be thankful. America is at peace and the chimes of freedom are ringing throughout a new part of the world -- Eastern Europe. A year ago, who could have imagined that we would bear witness to the rapid changes of peace and freedom in that part of the world?

But Christmas is also a time to count the blessings closer to home and right across the table. As we share this day with our loved ones, as we see the sparkle in our children's and grandchildren's eyes and gather around the tree, let's remember that our family is the true blessing we celebrate this Christmas.

And as we celebrate, let's make sure to remember those less fortunate. Reach out to those neighbors in your community who may need a hand this holiday season. Not only will their lives be enriched, but so will yours.

Barbara joins me in sending a ~~hardy~~ Merry Christmas to everyone. Thank you, and God bless each and everyone of you on this special day. And now, let's rejoin this wonderful parade.

PROPOSED :30 VIDEO MESSAGE
NCAA

MESSAGE #1

Some of my best memories from college were on the athletic field. And those were exciting times. So its a pleasure to talk about the NCAA Foundation. Not only does the NCAA work for excellence in education, but is a leader in the fight against drugs. So when the NCAA Foundation asks for your help, take the time to volunteer -- to be what I call a point of light. Thank you and God bless you all.
