

Originally Processed With FOIA(s):

S

FOIA Number:

2011-2184-F

FOIA MARKER

This is not a textual record. This is used as an administrative marker by the George Bush Presidential Library Staff.

Record Group/Collection: George H.W. Bush Presidential Records Collection/Office of Origin: Speechwriting, White House Office of Series: Speech File Draft Files
Subseries: Chron File, 1989-1993

OA/ID Number: 13516
Folder ID Number: 13516-013

Folder Title:
Bob Martinez Fundraiser 1/19/90 [OA 4390][1]

Stack:	Row:	Section:	Shelf:	Position:
G	26	16	4	4

MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER, OMNI, MIAMI
7 P.M. FRIDAY, JAN. 19, 1990

JEB, MARY JANE MARTINEZ, VAN POOLE, SECRETARY
LUJAN, ALEC COURTELIS, DISTINGUISHED MEMBERS OF CONGRESS -- SENATOR CONNIE MACK, BILL GRANT, CRAIG
JONES, BILL MCCOLLUM, PORTER GOSS AND ILEANA ROS-LEHTINEN [[ILL-EE-AHNA ROSS LAY-TEN-EN]].

((YOU KNOW, WHEN IT COMES TO STANDING BY BOB
MARTINEZ, BARBARA AND I ARE NOT GOING TO LET ANYTHING
GET IN OUR WAY -- AS MUCH AS WE HATE HAVING TO LEAVE
WASHINGTON IN JANUARY TO COME SOUTH TO FLORIDA.\\))

AS YOU KNOW, I ORIGINALLY INTENDED TO COME HERE IN DECEMBER. BUT, AS I TOLD BARBARA, IN ORDER TO MEET WITH THE MOST IMPORTANT MAN IN THE SOVIET UNION, I HAD TO POSTPONE A GET-TOGETHER WITH THE MOST IMPORTANT MAN IN FLORIDA. ((BARBARA SAID: "YOU KNOW DENNIS ERICKSON?"\\ AND, OF COURSE, THE HURRICANES WERE NOT ALONE. EVERY TIME YOU CHANGED THE TV CHANNEL THIS YEAR, THERE WAS ANOTHER TEAM FROM FLORIDA.))

BUT TONIGHT WE'RE HERE FOR ANOTHER CHAMPION, MY EARLY SUPPORTER, MY FRIEND, A GREAT REPUBLICAN\\ AND A GREAT CHIEF EXECUTIVE,\\ GOVERNOR BOB MARTINEZ.\\ \\

IN THE NEW DECADE, FLORIDA WILL NEED HIS LEADERSHIP AS NEVER BEFORE. EVERY YEAR, THE EQUIVALENT OF THE POPULATION OF A NEW CITY EVEN LARGER THAN BOB'S OWN TAMPA MOVES TO FLORIDA. SOME SAY THIS GROWTH IS A MIXED BLESSING. EVERYONE LOVES THE NEW BUSINESSES AND NEW JOBS, BUT GROWTH CAN ALSO BRING PROBLEMS -- HOW TO PRESERVE THE ENVIRONMENT, AND TO FIGHT CRIME. BUT FLORIDA'S GROWTH IS THE PROOF OF FLORIDA'S PROSPERITY.

SO WHAT YOU NEED IS A GOVERNOR WHO WILL ALWAYS SEEK THE BEST FOR FLORIDA, WHO WILL CAREFULLY WEIGH THE NEEDS OF NATURE AND MAN, WHO WILL MAKE THE MOST OF ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY WHILE PROTECTING YOUR SPECIAL WAY OF LIFE. THAT'S THE KIND OF GOVERNOR YOU NEED.\\ THAT'S THE GOVERNOR YOU'VE GOT.\\ AND THAT'S THE GOVERNOR YOU'RE GOING TO RE-ELECT.\\

SOME LEADERS LOOK ONLY FOR IMMEDIATE POLITICAL GAIN. BUT BOB MARTINEZ LOOKS BEYOND THE HORIZON, TO THE STARS. THIS HAS BEEN AN INCREDIBLE YEAR OF CHANGE, AND PROMISES TO BE A DECADE OF CHANGE -- BEGINNING WITH THE SUCCESSFUL MISSION OF THE SPACE SHUTTLE COLUMBIA. AND NOW, THANKS TO BOB MARTINEZ, AMERICAN BUSINESS IS ON THE LAUNCHPAD WITH SPACEPORT FLORIDA.\\

A PRESIDENT, TOO, MUST LOOK TO THE FAR HORIZONS,\\ AND THE OTHER GREAT FRONTIER OF OUR TIME IS THE FREEDOM FRONTIER. THE WORLD IN JANUARY, 1990 IS A VERY DIFFERENT PLACE THAN IT WAS IN JANUARY, 1989. THEN, THE BERLIN WALL SEEMED TO BE AN IMPENETRABLE VEIL BETWEEN EAST AND WEST. NOW THE IRON CURTAIN HAS OPENED. THEN, A DICTATOR REIGNED IN PANAMA. NOW THE PEOPLE RULE IN PANAMA.\\ IN FACT, THERE ARE ONLY TWO HOLDOUTS PREVENTING A TOTALLY DEMOCRATIC HEMISPHERE. SO LET DANIEL ORTEGA AND FIDEL CASTRO TAKE NOTE -- LIKE THE DINOSAUR, THE DAY OF THE DICTATOR IS OVER.\\ \\ \\

IF THIS IS AN ERA OF BRISK CHANGE ABROAD, LET US ALSO MAKE IT A TIME OF GREAT ACHIEVEMENT AT HOME. BOB AND I BEGAN THIS YEAR BY WORKING TOGETHER TO HELP FLORIDA FARMERS RECOVER FROM THE TERRIBLE FREEZE. AND I WAS PLEASED TO SIGN A MAJOR DISASTER DECLARATION FOR SOUTHERN FLORIDA EARLIER THIS WEEK AUTHORIZING FEDERAL RELIEF AND RECOVERY ASSISTANCE. \ \ AND WE WILL WORK ON A WIDE-RANGE OF DOMESTIC ISSUES -- FROM THE ENVIRONMENT, TO CRIME-FIGHTING, SOUND ECONOMIC POLICIES AND EDUCATION. BUT TO BE EFFECTIVE, WE WILL BOTH NEED THE COOPERATION -- NOT THE OPPOSITION -- OF PARTISAN LEGISLATORS.

TAKE CLEAN AIR. LAST SUMMER, I PROPOSED THE FIRST MAJOR REVISION OF THE CLEAN AIR ACT SINCE 1977, ONE THAT USES MARKET SOLUTIONS TO CUT ACID RAIN, SMOG AND OTHER POISONS IN OUR AIR. IT WAS A BALANCED PROPOSAL BUT CONGRESS STILL HASN'T ACTED. SO I CALL ON CONGRESS, AS SOON AS IT RECONVENES, TO PRESERVE THE BALANCE; TO KEEP COSTS UNDER CONTROL BUT TO ACT ON CLEAN AIR. \ \ \

AND WE HAVE OTHER ENVIRONMENTAL CONCERNS. I KNOW THAT EVERY TIME I FISH ALONG THE FLATS OFF ISLAMORADA, I AM REMINDED OF JUST HOW SPECIAL FLORIDA TRULY IS. YOU HAVE THE LONGEST COAST OF ANY STATE IN THE CONTINENTAL UNITED STATES. SOME OF IT -- BEAUTIFUL BEACHES. SOME OF IT LINED WITH LEAFY MANGROVES. YOUR INTERIOR LANDSCAPE IS A TROPICAL JEWEL GLISTENING WITH RIVERS, MARSHES, FRESHWATER SWAMPS, AND THE FAMOUS RIVER OF GRASS. JUST THIS AFTERNOON, BOB AND I TOURED THE EVERGLADES, AND SAW SANCTUARIES FOR CROCODILES AND TURTLES. THIS IS THE HOME OF THE ROYAL PALM AND THE BALD CYPRESS, THE FLORIDA PANTHER AND SO MANY OTHER RARE AND ENDANGERED PLANT AND ANIMAL SPECIES.

AND ALL THESE CREATURES, GREAT AND SMALL, NEED VERY SPECIAL PROTECTION.

SO BOB HAS BEEN WORKING WITH MY ADMINISTRATION TO EXTEND THE EVERGLADES EASTWARD, ACROSS THE VERY LAND WE SAW TODAY. THIS SUCCESSFUL PARTNERSHIP BETWEEN FLORIDA AND THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN FURTHERED BY THE ABLE LEADERSHIP OF INTERIOR SECRETARY, MANUEL LUJAN. WORKING WITH SECRETARY LUJAN, BOB TOOK THE INITIATIVE NECESSARY TO MAKE THIS MAJOR EVERGLADES EXPANSION A REALITY. HE CREATED THE EAST EVERGLADES LAND ACQUISITION TASK FORCE. AND BECAUSE THE STATE OF FLORIDA WAS WILLING TO SET ASIDE PART OF THE LAND, I WAS ABLE TO SIGN INTO LAW A BILL INCREASING THE SIZE OF EVERGLADES NATIONAL PARK BY MORE THAN 100,000 ACRES. BECAUSE OF OUR EFFORTS, TOGETHER WE HAVE ENSURED THAT THE EVERGLADES WILL REMAIN AN EVERLASTING TREASURE FOR THE CHILDREN OF AMERICA.

((IN FACT, I HEAR THAT EVEN THE ALLIGATORS ARE PLEASED. THEY'RE SO PLEASED THAT THEY'RE WEARING POLO SHIRTS WITH A LITTLE PICTURE OF BOB MARTINEZ ON THEIR CHEST.\\))

AND WE WILL GO FURTHER TO PROTECT NATURAL FLORIDA.
BUT WE ALSO NEED COMMON SENSE TO PROTECT ANOTHER DELICATE ECOLOGY -- THE ECOLOGY OF AN EXPANDING ECONOMY WITH GOOD JOBS AND GOOD GOVERNMENT.\ \

AS I START MY SECOND YEAR AS PRESIDENT, ONE OF MY PRIME ECONOMIC GOALS IS TO CUT THE TAX ON CAPITAL GAINS.

I BELIEVE SUCH A TAX CUT WOULD CREATE EVEN GREATER OPPORTUNITIES FOR MORE AMERICANS. OF COURSE, THERE ARE THOSE WHO CLAIM OTHERWISE. BUT WE KNOW THAT SUCH A TAX CUT WILL HELP EVERY AMERICAN WHO HOLDS A JOB OR OWNS A HOME. A MAJORITY OF THE MEMBERS OF CONGRESS WANT TO CUT CAPITAL GAINS, AND I CALL ON THE LEADERSHIP IN CONGRESS TO GET OUT OF THEIR WAY AND LET THE WILL OF THE MAJORITY WORK ON THIS IMPORTANT ISSUE.\ \ \

BOB AND I AGREE ON OTHER BASIC ECONOMIC PRINCIPLES, AS TRUE IN TALLAHASSEE AS THEY ARE IN WASHINGTON, D.C. WHEN LEGISLATORS SEND US SPENDTHRIFT LEGISLATION, WE SEND IT BACK. BUT IF LEGISLATORS WILL WORK WITH US, WE CAN DEVISE CREATIVE NEW WAYS TO USE FRUGAL MEANS TO ACHIEVE GENEROUS ENDS. FOR THOSE WHO SAY THAT WE NEED TO SPEND MORE MONEY TO GET PEOPLE OFF WELFARE, I SAY LOOK TO FLORIDA. THANKS TO YOUR GOVERNOR'S PROJECT INDEPENDENCE, 31,000 MEN AND WOMEN -- ALL WELFARE RECIPIENTS -- WERE ABLE TO USE STATE TRAINING AND EDUCATION TO REPLACE WELFARE WITH WORK. THIS IS THE BEST KIND OF ANTI-POVERTY PROGRAM, ONE THAT SAVES THE TAXPAYERS' MONEY -- TENS OF MILLIONS OF DOLLARS.

BOB AND I SHARE YET ANOTHER GOAL -- TO BEAT THE SCOURGE OF DRUGS, A MENACE TO THE VERY FUTURE OF AMERICA. BOB IS THE LEAD GOVERNOR ON SUBSTANCE ABUSE AND DRUG TRAFFICKING FOR THE NATIONAL GOVERNORS' ASSOCIATION. HE SET A NATIONAL PRECEDENT BY APPOINTING A STATE DRUG CZAR. AND HE HAS WORKED TO MAKE PAROLEES UNDERGO DRUG TESTING -- WITH COUNSELING -- TO GET STRAIGHT, AND TO STAY STRAIGHT.

BOB AND I ALSO SHARE A PHILOSOPHY ABOUT PRISON SENTENCES -- MAKE THEM ^A~~AS~~ LEAST AS TOUGH AS THE CRIMINALS YOU CONVICT. BOB HAS ALREADY STIFFENED THE FLORIDA CODE, AND ADDED THE PRISON SPACE TO ENFORCE IT. IN WASHINGTON, CONGRESS, TO ITS CREDIT, ACTED ON PART OF MY ANTI-CRIME PACKAGE. MORE MONEY HAS BEEN PROVIDED FOR ADDITIONAL PRISON SPACE AND MORE FEDERAL LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS, BUT CONGRESS HAS LEFT TOO MUCH WORK UNDONE. HELP SENATOR MACK, ^{our members of Congress} ~~ILLIANA~~ AND ME TO GET ~~to get~~ ~~CONGRESS~~ ^{ION} TO ACT ON THE REST OF MY VIOLENT CRIME PACKAGE -- TO TOUGHEN FEDERAL SENTENCES FOR THOSE USING A FIREARM IN THE COMMISSION OF A FELONY -- TO REFORM THE RULES OF EVIDENCE -- AND TO ENACT THE DEATH PENALTY PROPOSAL I SENT THEM. JOIN ME IN CALLING ON CONGRESS TO TAKE THE SHACKLES OFF THE COPS, THE COURTS AND THE LAW. \ \

YOU SEE, BOB AND I SUPPORT AN OPPRESSED MINORITY THAT TOO OFTEN HAS BEEN STRIPPED OF ITS RIGHTS IN AMERICA \ \ -- THE VICTIMS OF CRIME.

WELL, I SAY A KILLER DESERVES SOMETHING ELSE\ \ -- JUSTICE.\ \ AND JUSTICE IS EXACTLY WHAT BOB MARTINEZ IS DISPENSING IN THIS STATE. SO LET THOSE WHO VALUE LIFE
SO LITTLE KNOW ONE SURE THING -- THAT WHEN THEY COME TO FLORIDA, THEY'VE REACHED THE END OF THE LINE.\ \ \

BUT THE CHALLENGES OF THE FUTURE ALSO REQUIRE VISION AND COMPASSION, ESPECIALLY THE CHALLENGE OF PREPARING OUR CHILDREN FOR THE FUTURE.

OUR "EDUCATIONAL EXCELLENCE ACT" HAS BEEN ONE OF MY TOP PRIORITIES SINCE I SENT THIS LEGISLATION TO CONGRESS ALMOST NINE MONTHS AGO. TO MAKE OUR SCHOOLS
WORK, WE MUST GIVE PARENTS, TEACHERS AND CHILDREN
CHOICE AND FLEXIBILITY -- AND THEN HOLD EVERYONE ACCOUNTABLE FOR THE RESULTS. AND ACCOUNTABILITY SHOULD BEGIN WITH CONGRESS. IT'S HIGH TIME CONGRESS FINISHED ITS HOMEWORK AND PASSED NEEDED EDUCATION REFORMS.\ \

WHEN IT COMES TO CARING FOR CHILDREN, PERHAPS WASHINGTON COULD LEARN A THING OR TWO FROM BOB MARTINEZ -- WHO HAS WORKED SO HARD ON BEHALF OF CHILDREN AT RISK; WHOSE "ONE CHURCH, ONE CHILD" PROGRAM HAS PLACED SO MANY FOSTER CHILDREN IN LOVING HOMES.

I'VE SPOKEN AT LENGTH ABOUT SOME OF MY HOPES FOR THIS YEAR BECAUSE THEY MESH SO WELL WITH BOB'S OUTLOOK. BUT BOB'S ACHIEVEMENTS STAND ALONE -- FROM THE ENVIRONMENT, TO CRIME-FIGHTING, TO PREPARING THE CHILDREN OF FLORIDA FOR THE FUTURE. HIS WOULD BE A REMARKABLE RECORD OF ACHIEVEMENT FOR ANY GOVERNOR. BUT FOR THIS GOVERNOR, IT'S ALL JUST ANOTHER DAY AT THE OFFICE.\\

THE BOTTOM LINE IS THIS: I NEED BOB MARTINEZ. FLORIDA NEEDS BOB MARTINEZ. SO LET'S HIT THE CAMPAIGN TRAIL -- THE TRAIL TO VICTORY IN NOVEMBER.\\

THANK YOU, GOD BLESS YOU AND GOD BLESS AMERICA.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

1990 JAN 16 PM 7:29

January 16, 1990

INFORMATION

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN

THROUGH: CHRISS WINSTON cu
FROM: MARK DAVIS MD
SUBJECT: Bob Martinez Fundraiser

I. SUMMARY

You will speak to about 1,500 people at a fundraiser for Governor Bob Martinez at the Omni, Miami, at 7 p.m. Friday, Jan. 19. Your remarks will be on a teleprompter.

II. DISCUSSION

This draft touches on the themes near the hearts of Floridians -- fighting crime and drugs, Castro and Ortega "the two hemispheric holdouts," and the space program. This draft also highlights your goals in clean air, capital gains, and your crime and education packages. Finally, it includes a section on the Everglades -- which you increased by more than 100,000 acres -- and which you will have toured with Bob Martinez Friday afternoon.

Davis/Martin
Jan. 16, 1990
Title: Martinez
Draft: Seven

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER, Omni, MIAMI
7 p.m. Friday, Jan. 19, 1990

((Acknowledgements -- Jeb, Mary Jane Martinez, Van Poole, Secretary Lujan, Alec Courtelis, distinguished Members of Congress -- Senator Connie Mack, Bill Grant, Craig Jones, Bill McCollum, Porter Goss and Ileana Ros-Lehtinen [[ILL-ee-ahna Ross LAY-ten-en]]))

((You know, when it comes to standing by Bob Martinez, Barbara and I are not going to let anything get in our way -- as much as we hate having to leave Washington in January to come south to Florida.\\))

As you know, I originally intended to come here in December. But, as I told Barbara, in order to meet with the most important man in the Soviet Union, I had to postpone a get-together with the most important man in Florida. ((Barbara said: "You know Dennis Erickson?"\\ And, of course, the Hurricanes were not alone. Every time you changed the TV channel this year, there was another team from Florida.))

But tonight we're here for another champion, ~~the most important man in Florida~~, my early supporter, my friend, a great Republican\\ and a great chief executive,\\ Governor Bob Martinez.\\ \\ \\

In the new decade, Florida will need his leadership as never before. Every year, the equivalent of the population of a new city even larger than Bob's own Tampa moves to Florida. Some say this growth is a mixed blessing. Everyone loves the new businesses and new jobs, but growth can also bring problems -- how to preserve the environment, and to fight crime. But Florida's growth is the proof of Florida's prosperity.

So what you need is a governor who will always seek the best for Florida, who will carefully weigh the needs of nature and man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting your special way of life. That's the kind of governor you need.\\ That's the governor you've got.\\ And that's the governor you're going to re-elect.\\

Some leaders look only for immediate political gain. But Bob Martinez looks beyond the horizon, to the stars. This has been an incredible year of change, and promises to be a decade of change -- beginning with the successful mission of the Space Shuttle Colombia. And now, thanks to Bob Martinez, American business is on the launchpad with Spaceport Florida.\\

A president, too, must look to the far horizons,\\ and the other great frontier of our time is the freedom frontier. The world in January, 1990 is a very different place than it was in January, 1989. Then, the Berlin Wall seemed to be an impenetrable veil between East and West. Now the Iron Curtain has opened. Then, a dictator reigned in Panama. Now the people rule in Panama.\\ In fact, there are only two holdouts preventing a totally democratic hemisphere. So let Daniel Ortega and Fidel Castro take note -- like the dinosaur, the day of the dictator is over.\\\

If this is an era of brisk change abroad, let us also make it a time of great achievement at home. Bob and I began this year by working together to help Florida farmers recover from the terrible freeze. And I was pleased to sign a major disaster declaration for southern Florida earlier this week authorizing federal relief and recovery assistance. \ And we will work on a wide-range of domestic issues -- from the environment, to crime-fighting, sound economic policies and education. But to be effective, we will both need the cooperation -- not the opposition -- of partisan legislators.

Take ~~my ideas for~~ clean air. Last summer, I proposed the first major revision of the Clean Air Act since 1977, one that uses market solutions to cut acid rain, smog and other poisons in our air. It was a balanced proposal but Congress still hasn't acted. So I call on Congress, as soon as it reconvenes, to preserve the balance; to keep costs under control but to act on clean air.\\\

And we have other environmental concerns. I know that every time I fish along the flats off Islamorada, I am reminded of just how special Florida truly is. You have the longest coast of any state in the continental United States. Some of it -- beautiful beaches. Some of it lined with leafy mangroves. Your interior landscape is a tropical jewel glistening with rivers, marshes, freshwater swamps, and the famous River of Grass. Just this afternoon, Bob and I toured the Everglades, and saw sanctuaries for crocodiles and turtles. This is the home of the royal palm and the bald cypress, the Florida panther and so many other rare and endangered plant and animal species.

And all these creatures, great and small, need very special protection.

So Bob has been working with my Administration to extend the Everglades eastward, across the very land we saw today. This successful partnership between Florida and the Federal Government has been furthered by the able leadership of ~~my~~ Interior Secretary, Manuel Lujan. Working with Secretary Lujan, Bob took the initiative necessary to make this major Everglades expansion a reality. He created the East Everglades Land Acquisition Task Force. And because the State of Florida was willing to set aside part of the land, I was able to sign into law a bill increasing the size of Everglades National Park by more than 100,000 acres. Because of our efforts, together we have ensured that the Everglades will remain an everlasting treasure for the children of America.

((In fact, I hear that even the alligators are pleased. They're so pleased that they're wearing polo shirts with a little picture of Bob Martinez on their chest.\\))

And we will go further to protect natural Florida. But we also need common sense to protect another delicate ecology -- the ecology of an expanding economy with good jobs and good government.\\

As I start my second year as president, one of my prime economic goals is to cut the tax on capital gains.

I believe such a tax cut would create even greater opportunities for more Americans. Of course, there are those who claim otherwise. But we know that such a tax cut will help every American who holds a job or owns a home. A majority of the members of Congress want to cut capital gains, and I call on the leadership in Congress to get out of their way and let the will of the majority work on this important issue.\\\

Bob and I agree on other basic economic principles, as true in Tallahassee as they are in Washington, D.C. When legislators send us spendthrift legislation, we send it back. But if legislators will work with us, we can devise creative new ways to use frugal means to achieve generous ends. For those who say that we need to spend more money to get people off welfare, I say look to Florida. Thanks to your governor's Project Independence, 31,000 men and women -- all welfare recipients -- were able to use state training and education to replace welfare with work. This is the best kind of anti-poverty program, one that saves the taxpayers' money -- tens of millions of dollars.

Bob and I share yet another goal -- to beat the scourge of drugs, a menace to the very future of America. Bob is the Lead Governor on Substance Abuse and Drug Trafficking for the National Governors' Association. He set a national precedent by appointing a state drug czar. And he has worked to make parolees undergo drug testing -- with counseling -- to get straight, and to stay straight.

Bob and I also share a philosophy about prison sentences -- make them as least as tough as the criminals you convict. Bob has already stiffened the Florida code, and added the prison space to enforce it. ~~I only wish Congress would finish the job asked them to do last spring.~~ In Washington Congress, to its credit, acted on More money has been provided for additional prison space and more federal law enforcement part of my anti crime package officers, but Congress has left too much work undone. ~~Senator Mark & Eleanor and me to get congress to~~ help Congress must act on the rest of my violent crime package -- to toughen federal sentences for those using a firearm in the commission of a felony -- to reform the rules of evidence -- and to enact the death penalty proposal I sent them. ~~But Congress is keeping our crime proposals for tougher criminal penalties languishing in committee for months.~~ Took me in I call on Congress to take the shackles off the cops, the courts and the law.\\

You see, Bob and I support an oppressed minority that too often has been stripped of its rights in America\\ -- the victims of crime.

Some say there is no such thing as evil. Some say that murderers are just misunderstood -- that they were not loved enough, or that they were loved too much. Some say they are even victims, too -- just sick people who deserve therapy.

Well, I say a killer deserves something else\\ -- justice.\\ And justice is exactly what Bob Martinez is dispensing in this state. So let those who value life so little know one sure thing

Over hill

-- that when they come to Florida, they've reached the end of the line.\\\

But a governor must also have compassion and vision. So must a president.) And nowhere is deep compassion and great vision needed more than in preparing our children for the future.

Our "Educational Excellence Act" has been one of my top priorities since I sent this legislation to Congress almost nine months ago. To make our schools work, we must give parents, teachers and children choice and flexibility -- and then hold everyone accountable for the results. And accountability should begin with Congress. It's high time Congress finished its homework and passed needed education reforms.\\

When it comes to caring for children, perhaps Washington could learn a thing or two from Bob Martinez -- who has worked so hard on behalf of children at risk; whose "One Church, One Child" program has placed so many foster children in loving homes.

I've spoken at length about some of my hopes for this year because they mesh so well with Bob's outlook. But Bob's achievements stand alone -- from the environment, to crime-fighting, to preparing the children of Florida for the future. His would be a remarkable record of achievement for any governor. But for Bob Martinez, it's all just another day at the office.\\

~~Ladies and gentlemen, I would like to propose a toast.~~
 ((RAISE GLASS)) ~~Bob and Mary Jane -- thank you for your~~ friendship, your leadership\\ . . . and may the sun never set on

NO TOAST

the sunshine state.\\ Thank you, God bless you and God bless America.

#

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

FACSIMILE TRANSMITTAL SHEET

NUMBER OF PAGES INCLUDING COVER 12

DATE 1/18

TO Miami Staff Ofc - ATTN: WHCA - Nita

FAX NUMBER 305/350-4812

OFFICE NUMBER _____

COMMENTS Please note the circled ones on pg. 3 + 6. Make these changes on the prompter.

FROM S. Laudner

FAX NUMBER 202/456-6218

OFFICE NUMBER 202/456-2930

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 1/17/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: ----

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER

	ACTION FYI			ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	DELAND	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WRAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

The attached has been forwarded to the President.

RESPONSE:

James W. Cicconi
Assistant to the President and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
Ext. 2702

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

1990 JAN 16 PM 7:29

January 16, 1990

INFORMATION

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: CHRISS WINSTON cw
FROM: MARK DAVIS MD
SUBJECT: Bob Martinez Fundraiser

I. SUMMARY

You will speak to about 1,500 people at a fundraiser for Governor Bob Martinez at the Omni, Miami, at 7 p.m. Friday, Jan. 19. Your remarks will be on a teleprompter.

II. DISCUSSION

This draft touches on the themes near the hearts of Floridians -- fighting crime and drugs, Castro and Ortega "the two hemispheric holdouts," and the space program. This draft also highlights your goals in clean air, capital gains, and your crime and education packages. Finally, it includes a section on the Everglades -- which you increased by more than 100,000 acres -- and which you will have toured with Bob Martinez Friday afternoon.

Davis/Martin
Jan. 16, 1990
Title: Martinez
Draft: Seven

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER, Omni, MIAMI
7 p.m. Friday, Jan. 19, 1990

((Acknowledgements -- Jeb, Mary Jane Martinez, Van Poole, Secretary Lujan, Alec Courtelis, distinguished Members of Congress -- Senator Connie Mack, Bill Grant, Craig Jones, Bill McCollum, Porter Goss and Ileana Ros-Lehtinen [[ILL-ee-ahna Ross LAY-ten-en]].))

((You know, when it comes to standing by Bob Martinez, Barbara and I are not going to let anything get in our way -- as much as we hate having to leave Washington in January to come south to Florida.\\))

As you know, I originally intended to come here in December. But, as I told Barbara, in order to meet with the most important man in the Soviet Union, I had to postpone a get-together with the most important man in Florida. ((Barbara said: "You know Dennis Erickson?"\\ And, of course, the Hurricanes were not alone. Every time you changed the TV channel this year, there was another team from Florida.))

But tonight we're here for another champion, the most important man in Florida, a great Republican\\ and a great chief executive,\\ Governor Bob Martinez.\\ \\ \\

In the new decade, Florida will need his leadership as never before. Every year, the equivalent of the population of a new city even larger than Bob's own Tampa moves to Florida. Some say this growth is a mixed blessing. Everyone loves the new businesses and new jobs, but growth can also bring problems -- how to preserve the environment, and to fight crime. But Florida's growth is the proof of Florida's prosperity.

So what you need is a governor who will always seek the best for Florida, who will carefully weigh the needs of nature and man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting your special way of life. That's the kind of governor you need.\\ That's the governor you've got.\\ And that's the governor you're going to re-elect.\\

Some leaders look only for immediate political gain. But Bob Martinez looks beyond the horizon, to the stars. This has been an incredible year of change, and promises to be a decade of change -- beginning with the successful mission of the Space Shuttle Colombia. And now, thanks to Bob Martinez, American business is on the launchpad with Spaceport Florida.\\

A president, too, must look to the far horizons,\\ and the other great frontier of our time is the freedom frontier. The world in January, 1990 is a very different place than it was in January, 1989. Then, the Berlin Wall seemed to be an impenetrable veil between East and West. Now the Iron Curtain has opened. Then, a dictator reigned in Panama. Now the people rule in Panama.\\ In fact, there are only two holdouts preventing a totally democratic hemisphere. So let Daniel Ortega

and Fidel Castro take note -- like the dinosaur, the day of the dictator is over.\\\

If this is an era of brisk change abroad, let us also make it a time of great achievement at home. Bob and I began this year by working together to help Florida farmers recover from the terrible freeze. And I was pleased to sign a major disaster declaration for southern Florida earlier this week authorizing federal relief and recovery assistance. \ And we will work on a wide-range of domestic issues -- from the environment, to crime-fighting, sound economic policies and education. But to be effective, we will both need the cooperation -- not the opposition -- of partisan legislators.

Take my ideas for clean air. Last summer, I proposed the first major revision of the Clean Air Act since 1977, one that uses market solutions to cut acid rain, smog and other poisons in our air. It was a balanced proposal but Congress still hasn't acted. So I call on Congress, as soon as it reconvenes, to preserve the balance; to keep costs under control but to act on clean air.\\\

And we have other environmental concerns. I know that every time I fish along the flats off Islamorada, I am reminded of just how special Florida truly is. You have the longest coast of any state in the continental United States. Some of it -- beautiful beaches. Some of it lined with leafy mangroves. Your interior landscape is a tropical jewel glistening with rivers, marshes, freshwater swamps, and the famous River of Grass. Just this afternoon, Bob and I toured the Everglades, and saw sanctuaries for crocodiles and turtles. This is the home of the royal palm and the bald cypress, the Florida panther and so many other rare and endangered plant and animal species.

And all these creatures, great and small, need very special protection.

So Bob has been working with my Administration to extend the Everglades eastward, across the very land we saw today. This successful partnership between Florida and the Federal Government has been furthered by the able leadership of my Interior Secretary, Manuel Lujan. Working with Secretary Lujan, Bob took the initiative necessary to make this major Everglades expansion a reality. He created the East Everglades Land Acquisition Task Force. And because the State of Florida was willing to set aside part of the land, I was able to sign into law a bill increasing the size of Everglades National Park by more than 100,000 acres. Because of our efforts, together we have ensured that the Everglades will remain an everlasting treasure for the children of America.

((In fact, I hear that even the alligators are pleased. They're so pleased that they're wearing polo shirts with a little picture of Bob Martinez on their chest.\\ \\ \\))

And we will go further to protect natural Florida. But we also need common sense to protect another delicate ecology -- the ecology of an expanding economy with good jobs and good government.\\

As I start my second year as president, one of my prime economic goals is to cut the tax on capital gains.

I believe such a tax cut would create even greater opportunities for more Americans. Of course, there are those who claim otherwise. But we know that such a tax cut will help every American who holds a job or owns a home. A majority of the members of Congress want to cut capital gains, and I call on the leadership in Congress to get out of their way and let the will of the majority work on this important issue.

Bob and I agree on other basic economic principles, as true in Tallahassee as they are in Washington, D.C. When legislators send us spendthrift legislation, we send it back. But if legislators will work with us, we can devise creative new ways to use frugal means to achieve generous ends. For those who say that we need to spend more money to get people off welfare, I say look to Florida. Thanks to your governor's Project Independence, 31,000 men and women -- all welfare recipients -- were able to use state training and education to replace welfare with work. This is the best kind of anti-poverty program, one that saves the taxpayers' money -- tens of millions of dollars.

Bob and I share yet another goal -- to beat the scourge of drugs, a menace to the very future of America. Bob is the Lead Governor on Substance Abuse and Drug Trafficking for the National Governors' Association. He set a national precedent by appointing a state drug czar. And he has worked to make parolees undergo drug testing -- with counseling -- to get straight, and to stay straight.

Bob and I also share a philosophy about prison sentences -- make them as least as tough as the criminals you convict. Bob has already stiffened the Florida code, and added the prison space to enforce it. I only wish Congress would finish the job I asked them to do last spring. More money has been provided for additional prison space and more federal law enforcement officers, but Congress has left too much work undone. Congress must act on the rest of my violent crime package -- to toughen federal sentences for those using a firearm in the commission of a felony -- to reform the rules of evidence -- and to enact the death penalty proposal I sent them. But Congress is keeping our crime proposals for tougher criminal penalties languishing in committee for months. I call on Congress to take the shackles off the cops, the courts and the law.\\

You see, Bob and I support an oppressed minority that too often has been stripped of its rights in America\\ -- the victims of crime.

Some say there is no such thing as evil. Some say that murderers are just misunderstood -- that they were not loved enough, or that they were loved too much. Some say they are even victims, too -- just sick people who deserve therapy.

Well, I say a killer deserves something else\\ -- justice.\\ And justice is exactly what Bob Martinez is dispensing in this state. So let those who value life so little know one sure thing

-- that when they come to Florida, they've reached the end of the line.\\\

But a governor must also have compassion and vision. So must a president. And nowhere is deep compassion and great vision needed more than in preparing our children for the future.

Our "Educational Excellence Act" has been one of my top priorities since I sent this legislation to Congress almost nine months ago. To make our schools work, we must give parents, teachers and children choice and flexibility -- and then hold everyone accountable for the results. And accountability should begin with Congress. It's high time Congress finished its homework and passed needed education reforms.\\

When it comes to caring for children, perhaps Washington could learn a thing or two from Bob Martinez -- who has worked so hard on behalf of children at risk; whose "One Church, One Child" program has placed so many foster children in loving homes.

I've spoken at length about some of my hopes for this year because they mesh so well with Bob's outlook. But Bob's achievements stand alone -- from the environment, to crime-fighting, to preparing the children of Florida for the future. His would be a remarkable record of achievement for any governor. But for Bob Martinez, it's all just another day at the office.\\

Ladies and gentlemen, I would like to propose a toast.
((RAISE GLASS)) Bob and Mary Jane -- thank you for your friendship, your leadership\\ . . . and may the sun never set on the sunshine state.\\ Thank you, God bless you and God bless America.

. # # #

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

January 16, 1990

MEMORANDUM FOR CHRISS WINSTON

FROM: ROGER B. PORTER RBP
SUBJECT: Presidential Remarks: Martinez Fundraiser
Miami, Florida

The draft remarks are well written and should go over well with this audience. We have one suggested change from a policy standpoint.

insert A

In the second sentence of the second full paragraph of page five, we recommend deleting "build more prison space, and hire more law-enforcement officers." The Congress has provided the money for these two proposals. We suggest inserting the following. "I only wish Congress would finish the job I asked them to do last spring. More money has been provided for additional prison space and more federal law enforcement officers, but Congress has left too much work undone. Congress must act on the rest of my violent crime package -- to toughen federal sentences for those using a firearm in the commission of a felony -- to reform the rules of evidence -- and to enact the death penalty proposal I sent them."

If you have any questions or we can help in any other way, please let me know.

cc: James W. Cicconi

80 : 212 P12 : 08
09 DEC 16 91 030 60

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

JAN 12 1990
CEO

DATE: 1/11/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 AM, TUES., JAN. 16
 PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER
 MIAMI, FLORIDA
 SUBJECT: FRIDAY, JANUARY 19, 1990
 7:00 PM

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	DELAND	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide comments/edits directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 10:00 AM, TUESDAY, JANUARY 16, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

*CEQ concurs.
 Environmental section is on target.*

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

Davis/Martin
Jan. 11, 1990
Title: Martinez
Draft: Four

1990 JAN 11 PM 6:59

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER, MIAMI
7 p.m. Friday, Jan. 19, 1990 1990

((Acknowledgements -- Jeb and Colomba, Mary Jane Martinez, etc.))

((You know, when it comes to standing by Bob Martinez, Barbara and I are not going to let anything get in our way -- as much as we hate having to leave Washington in January to come south to Florida.\\))

((As you know, I originally intended to come here in December. But, as I told Barbara, in order to meet with the most important man in the Soviet Union, I had to turn down a get-together with the most important man in Florida.\\ She said: "You know Don Shula?"\\))

But, of course, we are here today to honor the most important man in Florida,\\ a great Republican\\ and a great chief executive,\\ Governor Bob Martinez.\\\\

In the new decade, Florida will need his leadership as never before. Every year, the equivalent of the population of a new city the size of Bob's own Tampa moves to Florida. This growth is a mixed blessing. Everyone loves the new businesses and new jobs, but we deplore the crime and congestion.

So what you need is a governor who will always seek the best for Florida, who will carefully balance the needs of nature and

man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting your special way of life. That's the kind of governor you need.\\ That's the governor you've got.\\ And that's the governor you're going to re-elect.\\

Some leaders look only for immediate political gain. But Bob Martinez looks beyond the horizon, to the stars. This has been an incredible year of change, and promises to be a decade of change -- beginning with the successful mission of the Space Shuttle Colombia. And now, thanks to Bob Martinez, American business is on the launchpad with Spaceport Florida.\\

A president, too, must look to the far horizons,\\ and the other great frontier of our time is the freedom frontier. The world in January, 1990, is a very different place than it was in January, 1989. Then, the Berlin Wall seemed to be an impenetrable veil between East and West. Now the Iron Curtain has opened. Then, a dictator reigned in Panama. Now the people rule in Panama.\\ In fact, there are only two holdouts preventing a totally democratic hemisphere. So let Daniel Ortega and Fidel Castro take note -- like the dinosaur, the day of the dictator is over.\\ \\ \\

If this is an era of brisk change abroad, let us also make it a time of great achievement at home. Bob and I began this year by working together to help Florida farmers recover from the terrible freeze.\\ And we will work on a wide-range of domestic issues -- from the environment, to crime-fighting, sound economic policies and education. But to be effective, we will both need the cooperation -- not the opposition -- of partisan legislators.

Take my ideas for clean air. Last summer, I proposed the first major revision of the Clean Air Act since 1977, one that uses market solutions to cut acid rain, smog and other poisons in our air. Congress still hasn't acted. So I call on Congress, as soon as it reconvenes, to act on clean air.\\\

And we have other environmental concerns. I know that every time I fish along the beaches of Islamorada, I am reminded of just how special Florida truly is. You have the longest coast of any state in the continental United States. Your interior landscape is a tropical jewel glistening with rivers, marshes, freshwater swamps, mangrove forests and coastal estuaries. Just this afternoon, Bob and I toured the Everglades, and saw rich and abundant sanctuaries for crocodiles and eagles, for rookeries of wading birds. This is the home of the royal palm and the bald cypress, the Florida panther and so many other rare and endangered plant and animal species.

And all these creatures, great and small, need very special protection.

So Bob and I worked together, as partners, to extend the Everglades eastward, across the very land we saw today. Because Bob took the initiative and created the East Everglades Land Acquisition Task Force -- because the State of Florida was willing to set aside part of the land -- I signed into law a bill expanding the Everglades National Park by 108,000 acres.\\\ And we will bestow the Everglades as an everlasting treasure for the children of America.

((In fact, I hear that even the alligators are pleased. They're so pleased that they're wearing golf shirts with a little picture of Bob Martinez on their chest.\\))

And we will go further to protect natural Florida. But we also need a sense of balance -- to protect another delicate ecology -- the ecology of good jobs and good government.

As I start my second year as president, one of my prime economic goals is to cut the tax on capital gains.

I believe such a tax cut would create even greater opportunities for more Americans. Of course, there are those who claim otherwise. But ask yourself this: Why is it that the very same people who call this is a tax cut for the rich are the ones who keep proposing tax hikes for the middle class?\\ Don't be fooled by demagogues -- a capital gains tax cut will help every American who holds a job or owns a home.\\ A majority of the members of Congress want to cut capital gains, and I call on the leaders of the House and Senate to get out of their way and let democracy work.

Bob and I agree on other basic economic principles, as true in Tallahassee as they are in Washington, D.C. When legislators send us liberal spending legislation, we send it back. But if legislators will work with us, we can devise creative new ways to use frugal means to achieve generous ends. For those liberals who say that we need to spend more money to help the poor, I say look to Florida. Thanks to your governor's Project Independence, 31,000 men and women -- all welfare recipients -- were able to use state training and education to replace welfare with work. This is the best kind of anti-poverty program, one that saves the taxpayers' money -- tens of millions of dollars.

Bob and I share yet another goal -- to beat the scourge of drugs, a menace to the very future of America. Bob is the Lead Governor on Substance Abuse and Drug Trafficking for the National Governors' Association. He set a national precedent by appointing a state drug czar. And he has worked to make parolees undergo drug testing -- with counseling -- to get straight, and to stay straight.

Bob and I also share a philosophy about prison sentences -- make them as least as tough as the criminals you convict. Bob has already stiffened the Florida code, and added the prison space to enforce it. I only wish Congress was as farsighted. Last spring, I sent Congress our proposals to toughen federal sentences, build more prison space, and hire more law-enforcement officers. But Congress is keeping our crime proposals locked away in the dungeon of parliamentary maneuver. I call on Congress to take the shackles off the cops, the courts and the law.\\

You see, Bob and I support an oppressed minority that too often has been stripped of its rights in America\\ -- the victims of crime.

Some say there is no such thing as evil. Some say that murderers are just misunderstood -- that they were not loved enough, or that they were loved too much. Some say they are even victims, too -- just sick people who deserve therapy.

Well, I say a killer deserves something else -- justice. And justice is exactly what Bob Martinez is dispensing in this state. So let the those who value life so little know one sure thing -- that when they come to Florida, they've reached the end of the line.

But a governor must also have compassion and vision. So must a president. And nowhere is deep compassion and great vision needed more than in preparing our children for the future.

Our "Educational Excellence Act" has been one of my top priorities since I sent this legislation to Congress almost nine months ago. To make our schools work, we must give parents, teachers and children choice and flexibility -- and then hold everyone accountable for the results. And accountability should begin with Congress. It's high time Congress sat down to do its homework on education.

When it comes to caring for children, perhaps Washington could learn a thing or two from Bob Martinez -- who has worked so hard on behalf of children at risk; whose "One Church, One Child" program has placed so many foster children in loving homes.

I've spoken at length about some of my hopes for this year because they mesh so well with Bob's outlook. But Bob's achievements stand alone -- from the environment, to crime-

fighting, to preparing the children of Florida for the future. His would be a remarkable record of achievement for any governor. But for Bob Martinez, it's all just another day at the office.\\

Ladies and gentlemen, I would like to propose a toast.

((RAISE GLASS)) Bob and Mary Jane -- thank you for your friendship, your leadership\\ . . . and may the sun never set on the sunshine state.\\

Thank you, God bless you and God bless America.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

January 16, 1990

INFORMATION

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: CHRISS WINSTON cw
FROM: MARK DAVIS MD
SUBJECT: Bob Martinez Fundraiser

I. SUMMARY

You will speak to about 1,500 people at a fundraiser for Governor Bob Martinez at the Omni, Miami, at 7 p.m. Friday, Jan. 19. Your remarks will be on a teleprompter.

II. DISCUSSION

This draft touches on the themes near the hearts of Floridians -- fighting crime and drugs, Castro and Ortega "the two hemispheric holdouts," and the space program. This draft also highlights your goals in clean air, capital gains, and your crime and education packages. Finally, it includes a section on the Everglades -- which you increased by more than 100,000 acres -- and which you will have toured with Bob Martinez Friday afternoon.

Davis/Martin
Jan. 16, 1990
Title: Martinez
Draft: Seven

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER, Omni, MIAMI
7 p.m. Friday, Jan. 19, 1990

((Acknowledgements -- Jeb, Mary Jane Martinez, Van Poole, Secretary Lujan, Alec Courtelis, distinguished Members of Congress -- Senator Connie Mack, Bill Grant, Craig Jones, Bill McCollum, Porter Goss and Ileana Ros-Lehtinen [[ILL-ee-ahna Ross LAY-ten-en]]))

((You know, when it comes to standing by Bob Martinez, Barbara and I are not going to let anything get in our way -- as much as we hate having to leave Washington in January to come south to Florida.\\))

As you know, I originally intended to come here in December. But, as I told Barbara, in order to meet with the most important man in the Soviet Union, I had to postpone a get-together with the most important man in Florida. ((Barbara said: "You know Dennis Erickson?"\\ And, of course, the Hurricanes were not alone. Every time you changed the TV channel this year, there was another team from Florida.))

But tonight we're here for another champion, the most important man in Florida, a great Republican\\ and a great chief executive,\\ Governor Bob Martinez.\\\\

In the new decade, Florida will need his leadership as never before. Every year, the equivalent of the population of a new city even larger than Bob's own Tampa moves to Florida. Some say this growth is a mixed blessing. Everyone loves the new businesses and new jobs, but growth can also bring problems -- how to preserve the environment, and to fight crime. But Florida's growth is the proof of Florida's prosperity.

So what you need is a governor who will always seek the best for Florida, who will carefully weigh the needs of nature and man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting your special way of life. That's the kind of governor you need.\\ That's the governor you've got.\\ And that's the governor you're going to re-elect.\\

Some leaders look only for immediate political gain. But Bob Martinez looks beyond the horizon, to the stars. This has been an incredible year of change, and promises to be a decade of change -- beginning with the successful mission of the Space Shuttle Colombia. And now, thanks to Bob Martinez, American business is on the launchpad with Spaceport Florida.\\

A president, too, must look to the far horizons,\\ and the other great frontier of our time is the freedom frontier. The world in January, 1990 is a very different place than it was in January, 1989. Then, the Berlin Wall seemed to be an impenetrable veil between East and West. Now the Iron Curtain has opened. Then, a dictator reigned in Panama. Now the people rule in Panama.\\ In fact, there are only two holdouts preventing a totally democratic hemisphere. So let Daniel Ortega

and Fidel Castro take note -- like the dinosaur, the day of the dictator is over.\\ \\ \\

If this is an era of brisk change abroad, let us also make it a time of great achievement at home. Bob and I began this year by working together to help Florida farmers recover from the terrible freeze. And I was pleased to sign a major disaster declaration for southern Florida earlier this week authorizing federal relief and recovery assistance. \\ And we will work on a wide-range of domestic issues -- from the environment, to crime-fighting, sound economic policies and education. But to be effective, we will both need the cooperation -- not the opposition -- of partisan legislators.

Take my ideas for clean air. Last summer, I proposed the first major revision of the Clean Air Act since 1977, one that uses market solutions to cut acid rain, smog and other poisons in our air. It was a balanced proposal but Congress still hasn't acted. So I call on Congress, as soon as it reconvenes, to preserve the balance; to keep costs under control but to act on clean air.\\ \\

And we have other environmental concerns. I know that every time I fish along the flats off Islamorada, I am reminded of just how special Florida truly is. You have the longest coast of any state in the continental United States. Some of it -- beautiful beaches. Some of it lined with leafy mangroves. Your interior landscape is a tropical jewel glistening with rivers, marshes, freshwater swamps, and the famous River of Grass. Just this afternoon, Bob and I toured the Everglades, and saw sanctuaries for crocodiles and turtles. This is the home of the royal palm and the bald cypress, the Florida panther and so many other rare and endangered plant and animal species.

And all these creatures, great and small, need very special protection.

So Bob has been working with my Administration to extend the Everglades eastward, across the very land we saw today. This successful partnership between Florida and the Federal Government has been furthered by the able leadership of my Interior Secretary, Manuel Lujan. Working with Secretary Lujan, Bob took the initiative necessary to make this major Everglades expansion a reality. He created the East Everglades Land Acquisition Task Force. And because the State of Florida was willing to set aside part of the land, I was able to sign into law a bill increasing the size of Everglades National Park by more than 100,000 acres. Because of our efforts, together we have ensured that the Everglades will remain an everlasting treasure for the children of America.

((In fact, I hear that even the alligators are pleased. They're so pleased that they're wearing polo shirts with a little picture of Bob Martinez on their chest.\\))

And we will go further to protect natural Florida. But we also need common sense to protect another delicate ecology -- the ecology of an expanding economy with good jobs and good government.\\

As I start my second year as president, one of my prime economic goals is to cut the tax on capital gains.

I believe such a tax cut would create even greater opportunities for more Americans. Of course, there are those who claim otherwise. But we know that such a tax cut will help every American who holds a job or owns a home. A majority of the members of Congress want to cut capital gains, and I call on the leadership in Congress to get out of their way and let the will of the majority work on this important issue.

Bob and I agree on other basic economic principles, as true in Tallahassee as they are in Washington, D.C. When legislators send us spendthrift legislation, we send it back. But if legislators will work with us, we can devise creative new ways to use frugal means to achieve generous ends. For those who say that we need to spend more money to get people off welfare, I say look to Florida. Thanks to your governor's Project Independence, 31,000 men and women -- all welfare recipients -- were able to use state training and education to replace welfare with work. This is the best kind of anti-poverty program, one that saves the taxpayers' money -- tens of millions of dollars.

Bob and I share yet another goal -- to beat the scourge of drugs, a menace to the very future of America. Bob is the Lead Governor on Substance Abuse and Drug Trafficking for the National Governors' Association. He set a national precedent by appointing a state drug czar. And he has worked to make parolees undergo drug testing -- with counseling -- to get straight, and to stay straight.

Bob and I also share a philosophy about prison sentences -- make them as least as tough as the criminals you convict. Bob has already stiffened the Florida code, and added the prison space to enforce it. I only wish Congress would finish the job I asked them to do last spring. More money has been provided for additional prison space and more federal law enforcement officers, but Congress has left too much work undone. Congress must act on the rest of my violent crime package -- to toughen federal sentences for those using a firearm in the commission of a felony -- to reform the rules of evidence -- and to enact the death penalty proposal I sent them. But Congress is keeping our crime proposals for tougher criminal penalties languishing in committee for months. I call on Congress to take the shackles off the cops, the courts and the law.\\

You see, Bob and I support an oppressed minority that too often has been stripped of its rights in America\\ -- the victims of crime.

Some say there is no such thing as evil. Some say that murderers are just misunderstood -- that they were not loved enough, or that they were loved too much. Some say they are even victims, too -- just sick people who deserve therapy.

Well, I say a killer deserves something else\\ -- justice.\\ And justice is exactly what Bob Martinez is dispensing in this state. So let those who value life so little know one sure thing

-- that when they come to Florida, they've reached the end of the line.\\\

But a governor must also have compassion and vision. So must a president. And nowhere is deep compassion and great vision needed more than in preparing our children for the future.

Our "Educational Excellence Act" has been one of my top priorities since I sent this legislation to Congress almost nine months ago. To make our schools work, we must give parents, teachers and children choice and flexibility -- and then hold everyone accountable for the results. And accountability should begin with Congress. It's high time Congress finished its homework and passed needed education reforms.\\

When it comes to caring for children, perhaps Washington could learn a thing or two from Bob Martinez -- who has worked so hard on behalf of children at risk; whose "One Church, One Child" program has placed so many foster children in loving homes.

I've spoken at length about some of my hopes for this year because they mesh so well with Bob's outlook. But Bob's achievements stand alone -- from the environment, to crime-fighting, to preparing the children of Florida for the future. His would be a remarkable record of achievement for any governor. But for Bob Martinez, it's all just another day at the office.\\

Ladies and gentlemen, I would like to propose a toast.
 ((RAISE GLASS)) Bob and Mary Jane -- thank you for your friendship, your leadership\\ . . . and may the sun never set on the sunshine state.\\ Thank you, God bless you and God bless America.

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 1/11/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 AM, TUES., JAN. 16
 PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER
MIAMI, FLORIDA
 SUBJECT: FRIDAY, JANUARY 19, 1990
7:00 PM

	ACTION FYI			ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN 5042	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY n/c	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	DELAND 5080 n/c	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide comments/edits directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 10:00 AM, TUESDAY, JANUARY 16, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

* State Sen. ref.

Davis/Martin
Jan. 11, 1990
Title: Martinez
Draft: Four

1990 JAN 11 PM 6:59

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER, MIAMI
7 p.m. Friday, Jan. 19, 1990

((Acknowledgements -- Jeb ~~and Barbara~~, Mary Jane Martinez, etc.))

((You know, when it comes to standing by Bob Martinez, Barbara and I are not going to let anything get in our way -- as much as we hate having to leave Washington in January to come south to Florida.\\))

((As you know, I originally intended to come here in December. But, as I told Barbara, in order to meet with the most important man in the Soviet Union, I had to turn down a get-together with the most important man in Florida.\\ She said:

*

("You know Don Shula?"\\)) Purkeston insert

But, of course, we are here today to honor the most important man in Florida,\\ a great Republican\\ and a great chief executive,\\ Governor Bob Martinez.\\ \\ \\

In the new decade, Florida will need his leadership as never before. Every year, the equivalent of the population of a new city ~~the size of~~ even larger than Bob's own Tampa moves to Florida. Some say This growth is a mixed blessing. Everyone loves the new businesses and new jobs, but we deplore ~~the crime and congestion~~ growth can also bring problems -- preserving the environment, and environmental problems. and fighting crime

Check

So what you need is a governor who will always seek the best for Florida, who will carefully weigh balance the needs of nature and

But Florida's growth is the proof of Florida's prosperity.

man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting your special way of life. That's the kind of governor you need.\\ That's the governor you've got.\\ And that's the governor you're going to re-elect.\\

Some leaders look only for immediate political gain. But Bob Martinez looks beyond the horizon, to the stars. This has been an incredible year of change, and promises to be a decade of change -- beginning with the successful mission of the Space Shuttle Colombia. And now, thanks to Bob Martinez, American business is on the launchpad with Spaceport Florida.\\

A president, too, must look to the far horizons,\\ and the other great frontier of our time is the freedom frontier. The world in January, 1990^X is a very different place than it was in January, 1989. Then, the Berlin Wall seemed to be an impenetrable veil between East and West. Now the Iron Curtain has opened. Then, a dictator reigned in Panama. Now the people rule in Panama.\\ In fact, there are only two holdouts preventing a totally democratic hemisphere. So let Daniel Ortega and Fidel Castro take note -- like the dinosaur, the day of the dictator is over.\\ \\ \\

If this is an era of brisk change abroad, let us also make it a time of great achievement at home. Bob and I began this year by working together to help Florida farmers recover from the terrible freeze.\\ And we will work on a wide-range of domestic issues -- from the environment, to crime-fighting, sound economic policies and education. But to be effective, we will both need the cooperation -- not the opposition -- of partisan legislators.

And I was pleased to sign a major disaster declaration for southern Florida earlier this week authorizing federal relief and recovery assistance.

Take my ideas for clean air. Last summer, I proposed the first major revision of the Clean Air Act since 1977, one that uses market solutions to cut acid rain, smog and other poisons in our air. ^{It was a balanced proposal but} Congress still hasn't acted. ^{to preserve the balance; to keep costs under control but} So I call on Congress, as soon as it reconvenes, ^{to act on clean air.\\\}

And we have other environmental concerns. I know that every time I fish along the ^{flats off} beaches of Islamorada, I am reminded of just how special Florida truly is. You have the longest coast of any state in the continental United States, ^{Some of it - beautiful beaches. Some of it lined with} Your interior ^{leafy mangroves} landscape is a tropical jewel glistening with rivers, marshes, ^{and the famous River of ?} freshwater swamps, ~~mangrove forests and coastal estuaries.~~ Just this afternoon, Bob and I toured the Everglades, and saw rich and abundant sanctuaries for crocodiles and eagles, ^{le ?} ~~for rookeries of wading birds.~~ This is the home of the royal palm and the bald cypress, the Florida panther and so many other rare and endangered plant and animal species.

And all these creatures, great and small, need very special protection.

insert
So Bob and I worked together, as partners, to extend the Everglades eastward, across the very land we saw today. Because Bob took the initiative and created the East Everglades Land Acquisition Task Force -- because the State of Florida was willing to set aside part of the land -- I signed into law a bill expanding the Everglades National Park by 108,000 acres.\\\ And

~~we will bestow the Everglades as an everlasting treasure for the children of America.~~

((In fact, I hear that even the alligators are pleased. They're so pleased that they're wearing golf shirts with a little picture of Bob Martinez on their chest.\\))

And we will go further to protect natural Florida. But we also need a ~~sense of balance~~ ^{Common sense} -- to protect another delicate ecology -- the ecology ^{of an expanding economy with} of good jobs and good government.\\

As I start my second year as president, one of my prime economic goals is to cut the tax on capital gains.

I believe such a tax cut would create even greater opportunities for more Americans. Of course, there are those who claim otherwise. ~~But ask yourself this: Why is it that the very same people who call this is a tax cut for the rich are the ones who keep proposing tax hikes for the middle class?~~ \\ Don't be fooled by demagogues -- a capital gains tax cut will help every American who holds a job or owns a home.\\ A majority of the members of Congress want to cut capital gains, and I call on the ~~leadership of the Congress~~ ^{Leadership of the Congress} ~~leaders of the House and Senate~~ to get out of their way and let ~~the will~~ ^{of the majority} ~~democracy~~ work.\\ \\ ^{on this important issue.}

Bob and I agree on other basic economic principles, as true in Tallahassee as they are in Washington, D.C. When legislators send us ~~liberal~~ ^{think} spending legislation, we send it back. But if legislators will work with us, we can devise creative new ways to use frugal means to achieve generous ends. For those ~~liberals~~ ^{get people off welfare} who say that we need to spend more money to ~~help the poor~~, I say

look to Florida. Thanks to your governor's Project Independence, 31,000 men and women -- all welfare recipients -- were able to use state training and education to replace welfare with work. This is the best kind of anti-poverty program, one that saves the taxpayers' money -- tens of millions of dollars.

Bob and I share yet another goal -- to beat the scourge of drugs, a menace to the very future of America. Bob is the Lead Governor on Substance Abuse and Drug Trafficking for the National Governors' Association. He set a national precedent by appointing a state drug czar. And he has worked to make parolees undergo drug testing -- with counseling -- to get straight, and to stay straight.

Bob and I also share a philosophy about prison sentences -- make them as least as tough as the criminals you convict. Bob has already stiffened the Florida code, and added the prison space to enforce it. I only wish Congress was ~~as farsighted.~~ Last spring, I sent Congress our proposals to toughen federal sentences, ~~(build more prison space, and hire more law-enforcement officers.)~~ But Congress is keeping our crime proposals, locked ^{for tougher criminal penalties} away in the dungeon of parliamentary maneuver. I call on Congress to take the shackles off the cops, the courts and the law.\\

You see, Bob and I support an oppressed minority that too often has been stripped of its rights in America\\ -- the victims of crime.

*insert
A*

Some say there is no such thing as evil. Some say that murderers are just misunderstood -- that they were not loved enough, or that they were loved too much. Some say they are even victims, too -- just sick people who deserve therapy.

Well, I say a killer deserves something else -- justice. And justice is exactly what Bob Martinez is dispensing in this state. So let ~~the~~ those who value life so little know one sure thing -- that when they come to Florida, they've reached the end of the line.

But a governor must also have compassion and vision. So must a president. And nowhere is deep compassion and great vision needed more than in preparing our children for the future.

Our "Educational Excellence Act" has been one of my top priorities since I sent this legislation to Congress almost nine months ago. To make our schools work, we must give parents, teachers and children choice and flexibility -- and then hold everyone accountable for the results. And accountability should begin with Congress. It's high time Congress ^{finished} ~~sat down to do its~~ ~~homework~~ ^{and passed needed} on education. ~~reforms.~~

When it comes to caring for children, perhaps Washington could learn a thing or two from Bob Martinez -- who has worked so hard on behalf of children at risk; whose "One Church, One Child" program has placed so many foster children in loving homes.

I've spoken at length about some of my hopes for this year because they mesh so well with Bob's outlook. But Bob's achievements stand alone -- from the environment, to crime-

fighting, to preparing the children of Florida for the future. His would be a remarkable record of achievement for any governor. But for Bob Martinez, it's all just another day at the office.\\

Ladies and gentlemen, I would like to propose a toast.

((RAISE GLASS)) Bob and Mary Jane -- thank you for your friendship, your leadership\\ . . . and may the sun never set on the sunshine state.\\

Thank you, God bless you and God bless America.

Acknowledgements: Martinez
Fndrsr

Head Table —

Jeb Bush

Mary Jane Martinez

Van Poole

Chairman FL Rep. Party

Sen. Connie Mack

Alec Corteluis

Members of Congress hosting tables:

Bill Grant
Craig James
Bill McCollum
Peter Goss
Ileana Ros-Lehtinen

MAY GROSS
Strike Columbus

3] "even larger than Bolis own Tampa."

3] [REWRITE 2ND PAGE -
ABUNDANT SANCTUARY

4] [more than 100,000

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

January 16, 1990

89 DEC 16 AIO: 44

MEMORANDUM FOR CHRISS WINSTON

FROM: JIM PINKERTON

SUBJECT: Martinez Fundraiser Draft Speech

By way of suggestion: It may be worth noting the number of GOP registrants and/or party switches. GOP new voter registration in Florida ran, in the last election, at an incredible clip -- the figure 13 GOP registrants to every 1 Democrat comes to mind -- and the current figures are apt to be impressive to this GOP audience.

pg. 1, para. 3, line 5 "'You know Don Shula?'"

Would it perhaps be more appropriate to refer to the coach of the top-ranked Univ. of Miami Hurricanes? -- making the joke funnier to this audience by making the reference more local and more "inside." If we are not mistaken, Shula has had a bad year. This would also allow the draft to perhaps tie-in a reference to the remarkable records of Florida's college football teams this year (U. Miami, Florida State, U. of Florida, Florida A&M), many of which were in national bowl games. E.g., "This year is seemed like every time you changed the TV channel, there was a team from Florida."

pg. 1, para. 5, line 4 "This growth is a mixed blessing. Everyone loves the new business and new jobs, but we deplore the crime and congestion."

The phrase "mixed blessing," along with "crime and congestion," is too pessimistic. A better way might be to say, "Some say this growth is a mixed blessing. Well, if it is, it is surely more blessing than curse. Florida's growth is the proof of Florida's prosperity. And as I have always said, prosperity brings with it responsibilities as well as benefits."

4,5,3 "Why is it that the very same people who call this a tax cut for the rich are the ones who keep proposing tax hikes for the middle class?"

This is asking for some reporter to knock our block off. To avoid having the well-known exceptions to this generalization pointed out to us, we urge omitting this sentence.

###

United States Department of the Interior

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20240

January 16, 1990

MEMORANDUM FOR MARNIE HAINES

FROM: TOM WEIMER

SUBJECT: SPEECH FOR THE GOVERNOR MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER

I would suggest the following change on page three, the last paragraph:

"So Bob has been working with my Administration to extend the Everglades eastward, across the very land we saw today. This successful partnership between Florida and the Federal Government has been furthered by the able leadership of my Interior Secretary, Manuel Lujan, who is with us here this evening. Working with Secretary Lujan, Bob took the initiative necessary to make this major Everglades expansion a reality. He created the East Everglades Land Acquisition Task Force. And because the State of Florida was willing to set aside part of the land, I was able to sign into law a bill increasing the size of Everglades National Park by ~~108,000~~ acres. Because of our efforts, together we have ensured that the Everglades will remain an everlasting treasure for the children of America."

insert b

more than 100,000

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 1/11/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 AM, TUES., JAN. 16
 PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER
MIAMI, FLORIDA
 SUBJECT: FRIDAY, JANUARY 19, 1990
7:00 PM

	ACTION FYI			ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	DELAND	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide comments/edits directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 10:00 AM, TUESDAY, JANUARY 16, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

See comments

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

Davis/Martin
Jan. 11, 1990
Title: Martinez
Draft: Four

1990 JAN 11 PM 6:59

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER, MIAMI
7 p.m. Friday, Jan. 19, 1989-1990

((Acknowledgements -- Jeb and Colomba, Mary Jane Martinez, etc.))

((You know, when it comes to standing by Bob Martinez, Barbara and I are not going to let anything get in our way -- as much as we hate having to leave Washington in January to come south to Florida.\\))

((As you know, I originally intended to come here in December. But, as I told Barbara, in order to meet with the most important man in the Soviet Union, I had to turn down a get-together with the most important man in Florida.\\ She said: "You know Don Shula?"\\))

But, of course, we are here today to honor the most important man in Florida,\\ a great Republican\\ and a great chief executive,\\ Governor Bob Martinez.\\ \\ **

In the new decade, Florida will need his leadership as never before. Every year, the equivalent of the population of a new city the size of Bob's own Tampa moves to Florida. This growth is a mixed blessing. Everyone loves the new businesses and new jobs, but we deplore the crime and congestion.

So what you need is a governor who will always seek the best for Florida, who will carefully balance the needs of nature and

man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting your special way of life. That's the kind of governor you need.\\ That's the governor you've got.\\ And that's the governor you're going to re-elect.\\

Some leaders look only for immediate political gain. But Bob Martinez looks beyond the horizon, to the stars. This has been an incredible year of change, and promises to be a decade of change -- beginning with the successful mission of the Space Shuttle Colombia. And now, thanks to Bob Martinez, American business is on the launchpad with Spaceport Florida.\\

A president, too, must look to the far horizons,\\ and the other great frontier of our time is the freedom frontier. The world in January 1990, is a very different place than it was in January 1989. Then, the Berlin Wall seemed to be an impenetrable veil between East and West. Now the Iron Curtain has opened. Then, a dictator reigned in Panama. Now the people rule in Panama.\\ In fact, there are only two holdouts preventing a totally democratic hemisphere. So let Daniel Ortega and Fidel Castro take note -- like the dinosaur, the day of the dictator is over.\\ \\ \\

If this is an era of brisk change abroad, let us also make it a time of great achievement at home. Bob and I began this year by working together to help Florida farmers recover from the terrible freeze.\\ And we will work on a wide-range of domestic issues -- from the environment, to crime-fighting, sound economic

Holen
5176

✓
✓
✓

policies and education. But to be effective, we will both need the cooperation -- not the opposition -- of partisan legislators.

Take my ideas for clean air. Last summer, I proposed the first major revision of the Clean Air Act since 1977, one that uses market solutions to cut acid rain, smog and other poisons in our air. *It was a balanced proposal -- but, Congress still hasn't acted. So I call on Congress, as soon as it reconvenes, to act on clean air. * to preserve the balance; to keep the costs under control, but most of all, ~~to~~

And we have other environmental concerns. I know that every time I fish along the beaches of Islamorada, I am reminded of just how special Florida truly is. You have the longest coast of any state in the continental United States. Your interior landscape is a tropical jewel glistening with rivers, marshes, freshwater swamps, mangrove forests and coastal estuaries. Just this afternoon, Bob and I toured the Everglades, and saw rich and abundant sanctuaries for crocodiles and eagles, for rookeries of wading birds. This is the home of the royal palm and the bald cypress, the Florida panther and so many other rare and endangered plant and animal species.

And all these creatures, great and small, need very special protection.

So Bob and I worked together, as partners, to extend the Everglades eastward, across the very land we saw today. Because Bob took the initiative and created the East Everglades Land Acquisition Task Force -- because the State of Florida was willing to set aside part of the land -- I signed into law a bill expanding the Everglades National Park by 108,000 acres. \\\ And we will bestow the Everglades as an everlasting treasure for the children of America.

Brady
4/8/4

((In fact, I hear that even the alligators are pleased. They're so pleased that they're wearing golf shirts with a little picture of Bob Martinez on their chest.\\))

And we will go further to protect natural Florida. But we also need a sense of balance -- to protect another delicate ecology -- the ecology of good jobs and good government.\\

As I start my second year as president, one of my prime economic goals is to cut the tax on capital gains.

Shady

I believe such a tax cut would create even greater opportunities for more Americans. Of course, there are those who claim otherwise. But look at the record = ~~what~~ The last time we cut the capital gains tax, the result was an explosion of new jobs -- over a million in the electronics industry alone. ✓
~~But ask yourself this: Why is it that the very same people who call this is a tax cut for the rich are the ones who keep proposing tax hikes for the middle class?\\~~ Don't be fooled by demagogues -- a capital gains tax cut will help every American who holds a job or owns a home.\\ A majority of the members of Congress want to cut capital gains, and I call on the leaders of the House and Senate to get out of their way and let democracy work.\\

Bob and I agree on other basic economic principles, as true in Tallahassee as they are in Washington, D.C. When legislators send us liberal spending legislation, we send it back. But if legislators will work with us, we can devise creative new ways to use frugal means to achieve generous ends. For those liberals who say that we need to spend more money to help the poor, I say

look to Florida. Thanks to your governor's Project Independence, 31,000 men and women -- all welfare recipients -- were able to use state training and education to replace welfare with work. This is the best kind of anti-poverty program, one that saves the taxpayers' money -- tens of millions of dollars.

Bob and I share yet another goal -- to beat the scourge of drugs, a menace to the very future of America. Bob is the Lead Governor on Substance Abuse and Drug Trafficking for the National Governors' Association. He set a national precedent by appointing a state drug czar. And he has worked to make parolees undergo drug testing -- with counseling -- to get straight, and to stay straight.

Bob and I also share a philosophy about prison sentences -- make them as least as tough as the criminals you convict. Bob has already stiffened the Florida code, and added the prison space to enforce it. I only wish Congress was as farsighted. Last spring, I sent Congress our proposals to toughen federal sentences, build more prison space, and hire more law-enforcement officers. But Congress is keeping our crime proposals locked away in the dungeon of parliamentary maneuver. I call on Congress to take the shackles off the cops, the courts and the law.\\

You see, Bob and I support an oppressed minority that too often has been stripped of its rights in America\\ -- the victims of crime.

Some say there is no such thing as evil. Some say that murderers are just misunderstood -- that they were not loved enough, or that they were loved too much. Some say they are even victims, too -- just sick people who deserve therapy.

Well, I say a killer deserves something else -- justice. And justice is exactly what Bob Martinez is dispensing in this state. So let the those who value life so little know one sure thing -- that when they come to Florida, they've reached the end of the line.

But a governor must also have compassion and vision. So must a president. And nowhere is deep compassion and great vision needed more than in preparing our children for the future.

Our "Educational Excellence Act" has been one of my top priorities since I sent this legislation to Congress almost nine months ago. To make our schools work, we must give parents, teachers and children choice and flexibility -- and then hold everyone accountable for the results. And accountability should begin with Congress. It's high time Congress sat down to do its homework on education.

When it comes to caring for children, perhaps Washington could learn a thing or two from Bob Martinez -- who has worked so hard on behalf of children at risk; whose "One Church, One Child" program has placed so many foster children in loving homes.

I've spoken at length about some of my hopes for this year because they mesh so well with Bob's outlook. But Bob's achievements stand alone -- from the environment, to crime-

fighting, to preparing the children of Florida for the future. His would be a remarkable record of achievement for any governor. But for Bob Martinez, it's all just another day at the office.\\

Ladies and gentlemen, I would like to propose a toast.

((RAISE GLASS)) Bob and Mary Jane -- thank you for your friendship, your leadership\\ . . . and may the sun never set on the sunshine state.\\

Thank you, God bless you and God bless America.

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 1/11/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 AM, TUES., JAN. 16
 PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER
MIAMI, FLORIDA
 SUBJECT: FRIDAY, JANUARY 19, 1990
7:00 PM

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	DELAND	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide comments/edits directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 10:00 AM, TUESDAY, JANUARY 16, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

OK,
 Bruce Zam for Sig Rogus

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

Davis/Martin
Jan. 11, 1990
Title: Martinez
Draft: Four

1990 JAN 11 PM 6:59

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER, MIAMI
7 p.m. Friday, Jan. 19, 1989-1990

((Acknowledgements -- Jeb and Colomba, Mary Jane Martinez, etc.))

((You know, when it comes to standing by Bob Martinez, Barbara and I are not going to let anything get in our way -- as much as we hate having to leave Washington in January to come south to Florida.\\))

((As you know, I originally intended to come here in December. But, as I told Barbara, in order to meet with the most important man in the Soviet Union, I had to turn down a get-together with the most important man in Florida.\\ She said: "You know Don Shula?"\\))

But, of course, we are here today to honor the most important man in Florida,\\ a great Republican\\ and a great chief executive,\\ Governor Bob Martinez.\\ \\ \\

In the new decade, Florida will need his leadership as never before. Every year, the equivalent of the population of a new city the size of Bob's own Tampa moves to Florida. This growth is a mixed blessing. Everyone loves the new businesses and new jobs, but we deplore the crime and congestion.

So what you need is a governor who will always seek the best for Florida, who will carefully balance the needs of nature and

man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting your special way of life. That's the kind of governor you need.\\ That's the governor you've got.\\ And that's the governor you're going to re-elect.\\

Some leaders look only for immediate political gain. But Bob Martinez looks beyond the horizon, to the stars. This has been an incredible year of change, and promises to be a decade of change -- beginning with the successful mission of the Space Shuttle Colombia. And now, thanks to Bob Martinez, American business is on the launchpad with Spaceport Florida.\\

A president, too, must look to the far horizons,\\ and the other great frontier of our time is the freedom frontier. The world in January, 1990, is a very different place than it was in January, 1989. Then, the Berlin Wall seemed to be an impenetrable veil between East and West. Now the Iron Curtain has opened. Then, a dictator reigned in Panama. Now the people rule in Panama.\\ In fact, there are only two holdouts preventing a totally democratic hemisphere. So let Daniel Ortega and Fidel Castro take note -- like the dinosaur, the day of the dictator is over.\\ \\ \\

If this is an era of brisk change abroad, let us also make it a time of great achievement at home. Bob and I began this year by working together to help Florida farmers recover from the terrible freeze.\\ And we will work on a wide-range of domestic issues -- from the environment, to crime-fighting, sound economic policies and education. But to be effective, we will both need the cooperation -- not the opposition -- of partisan legislators.

Take my ideas for clean air. Last summer, I proposed the first major revision of the Clean Air Act since 1977, one that uses market solutions to cut acid rain, smog and other poisons in our air. Congress still hasn't acted. So I call on Congress, as soon as it reconvenes, to act on clean air.\\\

And we have other environmental concerns. I know that every time I fish along the beaches of Islamorada, I am reminded of just how special Florida truly is. You have the longest coast of any state in the continental United States. Your interior landscape is a tropical jewel glistening with rivers, marshes, freshwater swamps, mangrove forests and coastal estuaries. Just this afternoon, Bob and I toured the Everglades, and saw rich and abundant sanctuaries for crocodiles and eagles, for rookeries of wading birds. This is the home of the royal palm and the bald cypress, the Florida panther and so many other rare and endangered plant and animal species.

And all these creatures, great and small, need very special protection.

So Bob and I worked together, as partners, to extend the Everglades eastward, across the very land we saw today. Because Bob took the initiative and created the East Everglades Land Acquisition Task Force -- because the State of Florida was willing to set aside part of the land -- I signed into law a bill expanding the Everglades National Park by 108,000 acres.\\\ And we will bestow the Everglades as an everlasting treasure for the children of America.

((In fact, I hear that even the alligators are pleased. They're so pleased that they're wearing golf shirts with a little picture of Bob Martinez on their chest.\\\\))

And we will go further to protect natural Florida. But we also need a sense of balance -- to protect another delicate ecology -- the ecology of good jobs and good government.

As I start my second year as president, one of my prime economic goals is to cut the tax on capital gains.

I believe such a tax cut would create even greater opportunities for more Americans. Of course, there are those who claim otherwise. But ask yourself this: Why is it that the very same people who call this is a tax cut for the rich are the ones who keep proposing tax hikes for the middle class?\\\\ Don't be fooled by demagogues -- a capital gains tax cut will help every American who holds a job or owns a home.\\ A majority of the members of Congress want to cut capital gains, and I call on the leaders of the House and Senate to get out of their way and let democracy work.

Bob and I agree on other basic economic principles, as true in Tallahassee as they are in Washington, D.C. When legislators send us liberal spending legislation, we send it back. But if legislators will work with us, we can devise creative new ways to use frugal means to achieve generous ends. For those liberals who say that we need to spend more money to help the poor, I say look to Florida. Thanks to your governor's Project Independence, 31,000 men and women -- all welfare recipients -- were able to use state training and education to replace welfare with work. This is the best kind of anti-poverty program, one that saves the taxpayers' money -- tens of millions of dollars.

Bob and I share yet another goal -- to beat the scourge of drugs, a menace to the very future of America. Bob is the Lead Governor on Substance Abuse and Drug Trafficking for the National Governors' Association. He set a national precedent by appointing a state drug czar. And he has worked to make parolees undergo drug testing -- with counseling -- to get straight, and to stay straight.

Bob and I also share a philosophy about prison sentences -- make them as least as tough as the criminals you convict. Bob has already stiffened the Florida code, and added the prison space to enforce it. I only wish Congress was as farsighted. Last spring, I sent Congress our proposals to toughen federal sentences, build more prison space, and hire more law-enforcement officers. But Congress is keeping our crime proposals locked away in the dungeon of parliamentary maneuver. I call on Congress to take the shackles off the cops, the courts and the law.\

You see, Bob and I support an oppressed minority that too often has been stripped of its rights in America\ -- the victims of crime.

Some say there is no such thing as evil. Some say that murderers are just misunderstood -- that they were not loved enough, or that they were loved too much. Some say they are even victims, too -- just sick people who deserve therapy.

Well, I say a killer deserves something else -- justice. And justice is exactly what Bob Martinez is dispensing in this state. So let the those who value life so little know one sure thing -- that when they come to Florida, they've reached the end of the line.

But a governor must also have compassion and vision. So must a president. And nowhere is deep compassion and great vision needed more than in preparing our children for the future.

Our "Educational Excellence Act" has been one of my top priorities since I sent this legislation to Congress almost nine months ago. To make our schools work, we must give parents, teachers and children choice and flexibility -- and then hold everyone accountable for the results. And accountability should begin with Congress. It's high time Congress sat down to do its homework on education.

When it comes to caring for children, perhaps Washington could learn a thing or two from Bob Martinez -- who has worked so hard on behalf of children at risk; whose "One Church, One Child" program has placed so many foster children in loving homes.

I've spoken at length about some of my hopes for this year because they mesh so well with Bob's outlook. But Bob's achievements stand alone -- from the environment, to crime-

fighting, to preparing the children of Florida for the future.
His would be a remarkable record of achievement for any governor.
But for Bob Martinez, it's all just another day at the office.\\

Ladies and gentlemen, I would like to propose a toast.

((RAISE GLASS)) Bob and Mary Jane -- thank you for your friendship, your leadership\\ . . . and may the sun never set on the sunshine state.\\

Thank you, God bless you and God bless America.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Mark -

① Write in The Acknowledgements. Colombea Bush will not be there.

② pg#1 Pink insert needs rewrite

③

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 1/11/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 AM, TUES., JAN. 16
 PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER
 MIAMI, FLORIDA
 SUBJECT: FRIDAY, JANUARY 19, 1990
 7:00 PM

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	DELAND	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide comments/edits directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 10:00 AM, TUESDAY, JANUARY 16, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

*Please see comments
 1/15/90*

89 DEC 16 4 59:45

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

Davis/Martin
Jan. 11, 1990
Title: Martinez
Draft: Four

1990 JAN 11 PM 6:59

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER, MIAMI
7 p.m. Friday, Jan. 19, 1989-1990

((Acknowledgements -- Jeb and Colomba, Mary Jane Martinez, etc.))

((You know, when it comes to standing by Bob Martinez, Barbara and I are not going to let anything get in our way -- as much as we hate having to leave Washington in January to come south to Florida.\\))

((As you know, I originally intended to come here in December. But, as I told Barbara, in order to meet with the most important man in the Soviet Union, I had to turn down a get-together with the most important man in Florida.\\ She said: "You know Don Shula?"\\))

But, of course, we are here today to honor the most important man in Florida,\\ a great Republican\\ and a great chief executive,\\ Governor Bob Martinez.\\ \\ \\

In the new decade, Florida will need his leadership as never before. Every year, the equivalent of the population of a new city the size of Bob's own Tampa moves to Florida. This growth is a mixed blessing. Everyone loves the new businesses and new jobs, but ~~we deplore the crime and congestion,~~ ^{with growth comes problems; we also see} environmental problems, ^{strains on state and local} gov't services, ~~also~~ ~~and~~

So what you need is a governor who will always seek the best for Florida, who will carefully balance the needs of nature and

✓
[CRIME/GROWTH association seems ill-advised]

man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting your special way of life. That's the kind of governor you need.\\ That's the governor you've got.\\ And that's the governor you're going to re-elect.\\

Some leaders look only for immediate political gain. But Bob Martinez looks beyond the horizon, to the stars. This has been an incredible year of change, and promises to be a decade of change -- beginning with the successful mission of the Space Shuttle Colombia. And now, thanks to Bob Martinez, American business is on the launchpad with Spaceport Florida.\\

A president, too, must look to the far horizons,\\ and the other great frontier of our time is the freedom frontier. The world in January, 1990, is a very different place than it was in January, 1989. Then, the Berlin Wall seemed to be an impenetrable veil between East and West. Now the Iron Curtain has opened. Then, a dictator reigned in Panama. Now the people rule in Panama.\\ In fact, there are only two holdouts preventing a totally democratic hemisphere. So let Daniel Ortega and Fidel Castro take note -- ~~like~~ like the dinosaur, the day of the dictator is over.\\ \\ \\

If this is an era of brisk change abroad, let us also make it a time of great achievement at home. Bob and I began this year by working together to help Florida farmers recover from the terrible freeze.\\ And we will work on a wide-range of domestic issues -- from the environment, to crime-fighting, sound economic policies and education. But to be effective, we will both need the cooperation -- not the opposition -- of partisan legislators.

I signed a major disaster declaration for southern Florida earlier this week, authorizing federal relief and recovery assistance for the area.

Take my ideas for clean air. Last summer, I proposed the first major revision of the Clean Air Act since 1977, one that uses market solutions to cut acid rain, smog and other poisons in our air. Congress still hasn't acted. So I call on Congress, as soon as it reconvenes, to act on clean air.\\\

And we have other environmental concerns. I know that every time I fish along the beaches of Islamorada, I am reminded of just how special Florida truly is. You have the longest coast of any state in the continental United States. Your interior landscape is a tropical jewel glistening with rivers, marshes, freshwater swamps, mangrove forests and coastal estuaries. Just this afternoon, Bob and I toured the Everglades, and saw rich and abundant sanctuaries for crocodiles and eagles, for rookeries of wading birds. This is the home of the royal palm and the bald cypress, the Florida panther and so many other rare and endangered plant and animal species.

And all these creatures, great and small, need very special protection.

So Bob and I worked together, as partners, to extend the Everglades eastward, across the very land we saw today. Because Bob took the initiative and created the East Everglades Land Acquisition Task Force -- because the State of Florida was willing to set aside part of the land -- I signed into law a bill expanding the Everglades National Park by 108,000 acres.\\\ And we will bestow the Everglades as an everlasting treasure for the children of America.

((In fact, I hear that even the alligators are pleased. They're so pleased that they're wearing golf shirts with a little picture of Bob Martinez on their chest.\\))

And we will go further to protect natural Florida. But we also need a sense of balance -- to protect another delicate ecology -- the ecology of good jobs and good government.\\

As I start my second year as president, one of my prime economic goals is to cut the tax on capital gains.

I believe such a tax cut would create even greater opportunities for more Americans. Of course, there are those who claim otherwise. But ask yourself this: Why is it that the very same people who call this is a tax cut for the rich are the ones who keep proposing tax hikes for the middle class?\\ Don't be fooled by demagogues -- a capital gains tax cut will help every American who holds a job or owns a home.\\ A majority of the members of Congress want to cut capital gains, and I call on the leadership in the Congress ~~leaders of the House and Senate~~ to get out of their way and let the will of the majority democracy work.\\ on this important issue.

Bob and I agree on other basic economic principles, as true in Tallahassee as they are in Washington, D.C. When legislators send us liberal spending legislation, we send it back. But if legislators will work with us, we can devise creative new ways to use frugal means to achieve generous ends. For those liberals who say that we need to spend more money to help the poor, I say

(We, too, use parliamentary procedures calling for 60 votes in the Senate - need to be careful)

Folks did not get it the way of the majority

look to Florida. Thanks to your governor's Project Independence, 31,000 men and women -- all welfare recipients -- were able to use state training and education to replace welfare with work. This is the best kind of anti-poverty program, one that saves the taxpayers' money -- tens of millions of dollars.

Bob and I share yet another goal -- to beat the scourge of drugs, a menace to the very future of America. Bob is the Lead Governor on Substance Abuse and Drug Trafficking for the National Governors' Association. He set a national precedent by appointing a state drug czar. And he has worked to make parolees undergo drug testing -- with counseling -- to get straight, and to stay straight.

Bob and I also share a philosophy about prison sentences -- make them as least as tough as the criminals you convict. Bob has already stiffened the Florida code, and added the prison space to enforce it. I only wish Congress was as farsighted. Last spring, I sent Congress our proposals to toughen federal sentences, build more prison space, and hire more law-enforcement officers. But Congress is keeping our crime proposals locked away in ^{Committee?} the dungeon of parliamentary maneuver. I call on Congress to take the shackles off the cops, the courts and the law. \\

You see, Bob and I support an oppressed minority that too often has been stripped of its rights in America \\ -- the victims of crime.

✓
 [Really, in Committee]

Some say there is no such thing as evil. Some say that murderers are just misunderstood -- that they were not loved enough, or that they were loved too much. Some say they are even victims, too -- just sick people who deserve therapy.

Well, I say a killer deserves something else -- justice. And justice is exactly what Bob Martinez is dispensing in this state. So let the those who value life so little know one sure thing -- that when they come to Florida, they've reached the end of the line.

But a governor must also have compassion and vision. So must a president. And nowhere is deep compassion and great vision needed more than in preparing our children for the future.

Our "Educational Excellence Act" has been one of my top priorities since I sent this legislation to Congress almost nine months ago. To make our schools work, we must give parents, teachers and children choice and flexibility -- and then hold everyone accountable for the results. And accountability should begin with Congress. It's high time Congress ^{finished} ~~sat down to do~~ its homework ^{and passed needed} ~~on education.~~ ^{reforms.}

When it comes to caring for children, perhaps Washington could learn a thing or two from Bob Martinez -- who has worked so hard on behalf of children at risk; whose "One Church, One Child" program has placed so many foster children in loving homes.

I've spoken at length about some of my hopes for this year because they mesh so well with Bob's outlook. But Bob's achievements stand alone -- from the environment, to crime-

[The Education Excellence Act also voted on in Senate -
Sen. Helms really held it up]

fighting, to preparing the children of Florida for the future.
His would be a remarkable record of achievement for any governor.
But for Bob Martinez, it's all just another day at the office.\\

Ladies and gentlemen, I would like to propose a toast.

((RAISE GLASS)) Bob and Mary Jane -- thank you for your friendship, your leadership\\ . . . and may the sun never set on
the sunshine state.\\

Thank you, God bless you and God bless America.

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

0268

DATE: 1/11/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 AM, TUES., JAN. 16
 PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER
 MIAMI, FLORIDA
 SUBJECT: FRIDAY, JANUARY 19, 1990
 7:00 PM

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	DELAND	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide comments/edits directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 10:00 AM, TUESDAY, JANUARY 16, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

TO: CHRISS WINSTON January 16, 1990
 NSC concurs with the Presidential remarks for the Martinez fundraiser.

Brent Scowcroft
 Brent Scowcroft

09 DEC 16 4:49 PM '90

cc: James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

RECEIVED

90 JAN 12 10 48:30 AM '88

Davis/Martin
Jan. 11, 1990
Title: Martinez
Draft: Four

1990 JAN 11 PM 6:59

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER, MIAMI
7 p.m. Friday, Jan. 19, 1989-1990

((Acknowledgements -- Jeb and Colomba, Mary Jane Martinez, etc.))

((You know, when it comes to standing by Bob Martinez, Barbara and I are not going to let anything get in our way -- as much as we hate having to leave Washington in January to come south to Florida.\\))

((As you know, I originally intended to come here in December. But, as I told Barbara, in order to meet with the most important man in the Soviet Union, I had to turn down a get-together with the most important man in Florida.\\ She said: "You know Don Shula?"\\))

But, of course, we are here today to honor the most important man in Florida,\\ a great Republican\\ and a great chief executive,\\ Governor Bob Martinez.\\ \\ \\

In the new decade, Florida will need his leadership as never before. Every year, the equivalent of the population of a new city the size of Bob's own Tampa moves to Florida. This growth is a mixed blessing. Everyone loves the new businesses and new jobs, but we deplore the crime and congestion.

So what you need is a governor who will always seek the best for Florida, who will carefully balance the needs of nature and

man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting your special way of life. That's the kind of governor you need.\\ That's the governor you've got.\\ And that's the governor you're going to re-elect.\\

Some leaders look only for immediate political gain. But Bob Martinez looks beyond the horizon, to the stars. This has been an incredible year of change, and promises to be a decade of change -- beginning with the successful mission of the Space Shuttle Colombia. And now, thanks to Bob Martinez, American business is on the launchpad with Spaceport Florida.\\

A president, too, must look to the far horizons,\\ and the other great frontier of our time is the freedom frontier. The world in January, 1990, is a very different place than it was in January, 1989. Then, the Berlin Wall seemed to be an impenetrable veil between East and West. Now the Iron Curtain has opened. Then, a dictator reigned in Panama. Now the people rule in Panama.\\ In fact, there are only two holdouts preventing a totally democratic hemisphere. So let Daniel Ortega and Fidel Castro take note -- like the dinosaur, the day of the dictator is over.\\ \\ \\

If this is an era of brisk change abroad, let us also make it a time of great achievement at home. Bob and I began this year by working together to help Florida farmers recover from the terrible freeze.\\ And we will work on a wide-range of domestic issues -- from the environment, to crime-fighting, sound economic policies and education. But to be effective, we will both need the cooperation -- not the opposition -- of partisan legislators.

Take my ideas for clean air. Last summer, I proposed the first major revision of the Clean Air Act since 1977, one that uses market solutions to cut acid rain, smog and other poisons in our air. Congress still hasn't acted. So I call on Congress, as soon as it reconvenes, to act on clean air.\\\

And we have other environmental concerns. I know that every time I fish along the beaches of Islamorada, I am reminded of just how special Florida truly is. You have the longest coast of any state in the continental United States. Your interior landscape is a tropical jewel glistening with rivers, marshes, freshwater swamps, mangrove forests and coastal estuaries. Just this afternoon, Bob and I toured the Everglades, and saw rich and abundant sanctuaries for crocodiles and eagles, for rookeries of wading birds. This is the home of the royal palm and the bald cypress, the Florida panther and so many other rare and endangered plant and animal species.

And all these creatures, great and small, need very special protection.

So Bob and I worked together, as partners, to extend the Everglades eastward, across the very land we saw today. Because Bob took the initiative and created the East Everglades Land Acquisition Task Force -- because the State of Florida was willing to set aside part of the land -- I signed into law a bill expanding the Everglades National Park by 108,000 acres.\\\ And we will bestow the Everglades as an everlasting treasure for the children of America.

((In fact, I hear that even the alligators are pleased. They're so pleased that they're wearing golf shirts with a little picture of Bob Martinez on their chest.\\))

And we will go further to protect natural Florida. But we also need a sense of balance -- to protect another delicate ecology -- the ecology of good jobs and good government.

As I start my second year as president, one of my prime economic goals is to cut the tax on capital gains.

I believe such a tax cut would create even greater opportunities for more Americans. Of course, there are those who claim otherwise. But ask yourself this: Why is it that the very same people who call this is a tax cut for the rich are the ones who keep proposing tax hikes for the middle class?\\ Don't be fooled by demagogues -- a capital gains tax cut will help every American who holds a job or owns a home.\\ A majority of the members of Congress want to cut capital gains, and I call on the leaders of the House and Senate to get out of their way and let democracy work.

Bob and I agree on other basic economic principles, as true in Tallahassee as they are in Washington, D.C. When legislators send us liberal spending legislation, we send it back. But if legislators will work with us, we can devise creative new ways to use frugal means to achieve generous ends. For those liberals who say that we need to spend more money to help the poor, I say look to Florida. Thanks to your governor's Project Independence, 31,000 men and women -- all welfare recipients -- were able to use state training and education to replace welfare with work. This is the best kind of anti-poverty program, one that saves the taxpayers' money -- tens of millions of dollars.

Bob and I share yet another goal -- to beat the scourge of drugs, a menace to the very future of America. Bob is the Lead Governor on Substance Abuse and Drug Trafficking for the National Governors' Association. He set a national precedent by appointing a state drug czar. And he has worked to make parolees undergo drug testing -- with counseling -- to get straight, and to stay straight.

Bob and I also share a philosophy about prison sentences -- make them as least as tough as the criminals you convict. Bob has already stiffened the Florida code, and added the prison space to enforce it. I only wish Congress was as farsighted. Last spring, I sent Congress our proposals to toughen federal sentences, build more prison space, and hire more law-enforcement officers. But Congress is keeping our crime proposals locked away in the dungeon of parliamentary maneuver. I call on Congress to take the shackles off the cops, the courts and the law.\\

You see, Bob and I support an oppressed minority that too often has been stripped of its rights in America\\ -- the victims of crime.

Some say there is no such thing as evil. Some say that murderers are just misunderstood -- that they were not loved enough, or that they were loved too much. Some say they are even victims, too -- just sick people who deserve therapy.

Well, I say a killer deserves something else -- justice. And justice is exactly what Bob Martinez is dispensing in this state. So let the those who value life so little know one sure thing -- that when they come to Florida, they've reached the end of the line.

But a governor must also have compassion and vision. So must a president. And nowhere is deep compassion and great vision needed more than in preparing our children for the future.

Our "Educational Excellence Act" has been one of my top priorities since I sent this legislation to Congress almost nine months ago. To make our schools work, we must give parents, teachers and children choice and flexibility -- and then hold everyone accountable for the results. And accountability should begin with Congress. It's high time Congress sat down to do its homework on education.

When it comes to caring for children, perhaps Washington could learn a thing or two from Bob Martinez -- who has worked so hard on behalf of children at risk; whose "One Church, One Child" program has placed so many foster children in loving homes.

I've spoken at length about some of my hopes for this year because they mesh so well with Bob's outlook. But Bob's achievements stand alone -- from the environment, to crime-

fighting, to preparing the children of Florida for the future.
His would be a remarkable record of achievement for any governor.
But for Bob Martinez, it's all just another day at the office.\

Ladies and gentlemen, I would like to propose a toast.

((RAISE GLASS)) Bob and Mary Jane -- thank you for your friendship, your leadership\ . . . and may the sun never set on
the sunshine state.\

Thank you, God bless you and God bless America.

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

Action: Howard
10:00 AM, TUES., JAN. 16

DATE: 1/11/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 AM, TUES., JAN. 16

PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER
 MIAMI, FLORIDA

SUBJECT: FRIDAY, JANUARY 19, 1990
 7:00 PM

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	DELAND	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please provide comments/edits directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 10:00 AM, TUESDAY, JANUARY 16, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

Chriss
See my comments on p 4
+ minor edit on p 2
Mike Baker

89 DEC 16 All : 28

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

Davis/Martin
Jan. 11, 1990
Title: Martinez
Draft: Four

1990 JAN 11 PM 6:59

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER, MIAMI
7 p.m. Friday, Jan. 19, 1990 ~~1989~~ 1990

((Acknowledgements -- Jeb and Colomba, Mary Jane Martinez, etc.))

((You know, when it comes to standing by Bob Martinez, Barbara and I are not going to let anything get in our way -- as much as we hate having to leave Washington in January to come south to Florida.\\))

((As you know, I originally intended to come here in December. But, as I told Barbara, in order to meet with the most important man in the Soviet Union, I had to turn down a get-together with the most important man in Florida.\\ She said: "You know Don Shula?"\\))

But, of course, we are here today to honor the most important man in Florida,\\ a great Republican\\ and a great chief executive,\\ Governor Bob Martinez.\\ \\ \\

In the new decade, Florida will need his leadership as never before. Every year, the equivalent of the population of a new city the size of Bob's own Tampa moves to Florida. This growth is a mixed blessing. Everyone loves the new businesses and new jobs, but we deplore the crime and congestion.

So what you need is a governor who will always seek the best for Florida, who will carefully balance the needs of nature and

man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting your special way of life. That's the kind of governor you need.\\ That's the governor you've got.\\ And that's the governor you're going to re-elect.\\

Some leaders look only for immediate political gain. But Bob Martinez looks beyond the horizon, to the stars. This has been an incredible year of change, and promises to be a decade of change -- beginning with the successful mission of the Space Shuttle Colombia. And now, thanks to Bob Martinez, American business is on the launchpad with Spaceport Florida.\\

A president, too, must look to the far horizons,\\ and the other great frontier of our time is the freedom frontier. The world in January, 1990, is a very different place than it was in January, 1989. Then, the Berlin Wall seemed to be an impenetrable veil between East and West. Now the Iron Curtain has opened. Then, a dictator reigned in Panama. Now the people rule in Panama.\\ In fact, there are only two holdouts preventing a totally democratic hemisphere. So let Daniel Ortega and Fidel Castro take note -- like the dinosaur, the day of the dictator is over.\\

If this is an era of brisk change abroad, let us also make it a time of great achievement at home. Bob and I began this year by working together to help Florida farmers recover from the terrible freeze.\\ And we will work on a wide-range of domestic issues -- from the environment, to crime-fighting, sound economic policies and education. But to be effective, we will both need the cooperation -- not the opposition -- of partisan legislators.

Take my ideas for clean air. Last summer, I proposed the first major revision of the Clean Air Act since 1977, one that uses market solutions to cut acid rain, smog and other poisons in our air. Congress still hasn't acted. So I call on Congress, as soon as it reconvenes, to act on clean air.\\\

And we have other environmental concerns. I know that every time I fish along the beaches of Islamorada, I am reminded of just how special Florida truly is. You have the longest coast of any state in the continental United States. Your interior landscape is a tropical jewel glistening with rivers, marshes, freshwater swamps, mangrove forests and coastal estuaries. Just this afternoon, Bob and I toured the Everglades, and saw rich and abundant sanctuaries for crocodiles and eagles, for rookeries of wading birds. This is the home of the royal palm and the bald cypress, the Florida panther and so many other rare and endangered plant and animal species.

And all these creatures, great and small, need very special protection.

So Bob and I worked together, as partners, to extend the Everglades eastward, across the very land we saw today. Because Bob took the initiative and created the East Everglades Land Acquisition Task Force -- because the State of Florida was willing to set aside part of the land -- I signed into law a bill expanding the Everglades National Park by 108,000 acres.\\\ And we will bestow the Everglades as an everlasting treasure for the children of America.

((In fact, I hear that even the alligators are pleased. They're so pleased that they're wearing golf shirts with a little picture of Bob Martinez on their chest.\\))

And we will go further to protect natural Florida. But we also need a sense of balance -- to protect another delicate ecology -- the ecology of good jobs and good government.\\

As I start my second year as president, one of my prime economic goals is to cut the tax on capital gains.

I believe such a tax cut would create even greater opportunities for more Americans. Of course, there are those who claim otherwise. [But ask yourself this: Why is it that the very same people who call this ~~is~~ a tax cut for the rich are the ones who keep proposing tax hikes for the middle class?\\] Don't be fooled by demagogues -- a capital gains tax cut will help every American who holds a job or owns a home.\\ A majority of the members of Congress want to cut capital gains, and I call on the leaders of the House and Senate to get out of their way and let democracy work.\\

Bob and I agree on other basic economic principles, as true in Tallahassee as they are in Washington, D.C. When legislators send us liberal spending legislation, we send it back. But if legislators will work with us, we can devise creative new ways to use frugal means to achieve generous ends. For those liberals who say that we need to spend more money to help the poor, I say

*This stems from any time with Magnum in the works
borderplate*

*Recommend deleting to avoid embarrassing
the President
Magnum
Please*

look to Florida. Thanks to your governor's Project Independence, 31,000 men and women -- all welfare recipients -- were able to use state training and education to replace welfare with work. This is the best kind of anti-poverty program, one that saves the taxpayers' money -- tens of millions of dollars.

Bob and I share yet another goal -- to beat the scourge of drugs, a menace to the very future of America. Bob is the Lead Governor on Substance Abuse and Drug Trafficking for the National Governors' Association. He set a national precedent by appointing a state drug czar. And he has worked to make parolees undergo drug testing -- with counseling -- to get straight, and to stay straight.

Bob and I also share a philosophy about prison sentences -- make them as least as tough as the criminals you convict. Bob has already stiffened the Florida code, and added the prison space to enforce it. I only wish Congress was as farsighted. Last spring, I sent Congress our proposals to toughen federal sentences, build more prison space, and hire more law-enforcement officers. But Congress is keeping our crime proposals locked away in the dungeon of parliamentary maneuver. I call on Congress to take the shackles off the cops, the courts and the law.\

You see, Bob and I support an oppressed minority that too often has been stripped of its rights in America\ -- the victims of crime.

Some say there is no such thing as evil. Some say that murderers are just misunderstood -- that they were not loved enough, or that they were loved too much. Some say they are even victims, too -- just sick people who deserve therapy.

Well, I say a killer deserves something else\\ -- justice.\\ And justice is exactly what Bob Martinez is dispensing in this state. So let the those who value life so little know one sure thing -- that when they come to Florida, they've reached the end of the line.\\

But a governor must also have compassion and vision. So must a president. And nowhere is deep compassion and great vision needed more than in preparing our children for the future.

Our "Educational Excellence Act" has been one of my top priorities since I sent this legislation to Congress almost nine months ago. To make our schools work, we must give parents, teachers and children choice and flexibility -- and then hold everyone accountable for the results. And accountability should begin with Congress. It's high time Congress sat down to do its homework on education.\\

When it comes to caring for children, perhaps Washington could learn a thing or two from Bob Martinez -- who has worked so hard on behalf of children at risk; whose "One Church, One Child" program has placed so many foster children in loving homes.

I've spoken at length about some of my hopes for this year because they mesh so well with Bob's outlook. But Bob's achievements stand alone -- from the environment, to crime-

fighting, to preparing the children of Florida for the future.
His would be a remarkable record of achievement for any governor.
But for Bob Martinez, it's all just another day at the office.\\

Ladies and gentlemen, I would like to propose a toast.

((RAISE GLASS)) Bob and Mary Jane -- thank you for your friendship, your leadership\\ . . . and may the sun never set on
the sunshine state.\\

Thank you, God bless you and God bless America.

Porter

Davis/Martin
Jan. 11, 1990
Title: Martinez
Draft: Four

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER, MIAMI
7 p.m. Friday, Jan. 19, 1989

((Acknowledgements -- Jeb and Colomba, Mary Jane Martinez, etc.))

((You know, when it comes to standing by Bob Martinez, Barbara and I are not going to let anything get in our way -- as much as we hate having to leave Washington in January to come south to Florida.\\))

((As you know, I originally intended to come here in December. But, as I told Barbara, in order to meet with the most important man in the Soviet Union, I had to turn down a get-together with the most important man in Florida.\\ She said: "You know Don Shula?"\\))

But, of course, we are here today to honor the most important man in Florida,\\ a great Republican\\ and a great chief executive,\\ Governor Bob Martinez.\\\\

In the new decade, Florida will need his leadership as never before. Every year, the equivalent of the population of a new city the size of Bob's own Tampa moves to Florida. This growth is a mixed blessing. Everyone loves the new businesses and new jobs, but we deplore the crime and congestion.

So what you need is a governor who will always seek the best for Florida, who will carefully balance the needs of nature and

man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting your special way of life. That's the kind of governor you need.\\ That's the governor you've got.\\ And that's the governor you're going to re-elect.\\

Some leaders look only for immediate political gain. But Bob Martinez looks beyond the horizon, to the stars. This has been an incredible year of change, and promises to be a decade of change -- beginning with the successful mission of the Space Shuttle Colombia. And now, thanks to Bob Martinez, American business is on the launchpad with Spaceport Florida.\\

A president, too, must look to the far horizons,\\ and the other great frontier of our time is the freedom frontier. The world in January, 1990, is a very different place than it was in January, 1989. Then, the Berlin Wall seemed to be an impenetrable veil between East and West. Now the Iron Curtain has opened. Then, a dictator reigned in Panama. Now the people rule in Panama.\\ In fact, there are only two holdouts preventing a totally democratic hemisphere. So let Daniel Ortega and Fidel Castro take note -- like the dinosaur, the day of the dictator is over.\\ \\ \\

If this is an era of brisk change abroad, let us also make it a time of great achievement at home. Bob and I began this year by working together to help Florida farmers recover from the terrible freeze.\\ And we will work on a wide-range of domestic issues -- from the environment, to crime-fighting, sound economic policies and education. But to be effective, we will both need the cooperation -- not the opposition -- of partisan legislators.

Take my ideas for clean air. Last summer, I proposed the first major revision of the Clean Air Act since 1977, one that uses market solutions to cut acid rain, smog and other poisons in our air. Congress still hasn't acted. So I call on Congress, as soon as it reconvenes, to act on clean air.\\\

And we have other environmental concerns. I know that every time I fish along the beaches of Islamorada, I am reminded of just how special Florida truly is. You have the longest coast of any state in the continental United States. Your interior landscape is a tropical jewel glistening with rivers, marshes, freshwater swamps, mangrove forests and coastal estuaries. Just this afternoon, Bob and I toured the Everglades, and saw rich and abundant sanctuaries for crocodiles and eagles, for rookeries of wading birds. This is the home of the royal palm and the bald cypress, the Florida panther and so many other rare and endangered plant and animal species.

And all these creatures, great and small, need very special protection.

So Bob and I worked together, as partners, to extend the Everglades eastward, across the very land we saw today. Because Bob took the initiative and created the East Everglades Land Acquisition Task Force -- because the State of Florida was willing to set aside part of the land -- I signed into law a bill expanding the Everglades National Park by 108,000 acres.\\\ And we will bestow the Everglades as an everlasting treasure for the children of America.

((In fact, I hear that even the alligators are pleased. They're so pleased that they're wearing golf shirts with a little picture of Bob Martinez on their chest.\\))

And we will go further to protect natural Florida. But we also need a sense of balance -- to protect another delicate ecology -- the ecology of good jobs and good government.\\

As I start my second year as president, one of my prime economic goals is to cut the tax on capital gains.

I believe such a tax cut would create even greater opportunities for more Americans. Of course, there are those who claim otherwise. But ask yourself this: Why is it that the very same people who call this is a tax cut for the rich are the ones who keep proposing tax hikes for the middle class?\\ Don't be fooled by demagogues -- a capital gains tax cut will help every American who holds a job or owns a home.\\ A majority of the members of Congress want to cut capital gains, and I call on the leaders of the House and Senate to get out of their way and let democracy work.\\

Bob and I agree on other basic economic principles, as true in Tallahassee as they are in Washington, D.C. When legislators send us liberal spending legislation, we send it back. But if legislators will work with us, we can devise creative new ways to use frugal means to achieve generous ends. For those liberals who say that we need to spend more money to help the poor, I say

look to Florida. Thanks to your governor's Project Independence, 31,000 men and women -- all welfare recipients -- were able to use state training and education to replace welfare with work. This is the best kind of anti-poverty program, one that saves the taxpayers' money -- tens of millions of dollars.

Bob and I share yet another goal -- to beat the scourge of drugs, a menace to the very future of America. Bob is the Lead Governor on Substance Abuse and Drug Trafficking for the National Governors' Association. He set a national precedent by appointing a state drug czar. And he has worked to make parolees undergo drug testing -- with counseling -- to get straight, and to stay straight.

Bob and I also share a philosophy about prison sentences -- make them as least as tough as the criminals you convict. Bob has already stiffened the Florida code, and added the prison space to enforce it. I only wish Congress was as farsighted. Last spring, I sent Congress our proposals to toughen federal sentences, ~~build more prison space, and hire more law enforcement officers.~~ (has already been done -- looking for replacement sentence) But Congress is keeping our crime proposals locked away in the dungeon of parliamentary maneuver. I call on Congress to take the shackles off the cops, the courts and the law.\

You see, Bob and I support an oppressed minority that too often has been stripped of its rights in America\ -- the victims of crime.

Some say there is no such thing as evil. Some say that murderers are just misunderstood -- that they were not loved enough, or that they were loved too much. Some say they are even victims, too -- just sick people who deserve therapy.

Well, I say a killer deserves something else -- justice. And justice is exactly what Bob Martinez is dispensing in this state. So let the those who value life so little know one sure thing -- that when they come to Florida, they've reached the end of the line.

But a governor must also have compassion and vision. So must a president. And nowhere is deep compassion and great vision needed more than in preparing our children for the future.

Our "Educational Excellence Act" has been one of my top priorities since I sent this legislation to Congress almost nine months ago. To make our schools work, we must give parents, teachers and children choice and flexibility -- and then hold everyone accountable for the results. And accountability should begin with Congress. It's high time Congress sat down to do its homework on education.

When it comes to caring for children, perhaps Washington could learn a thing or two from Bob Martinez -- who has worked so hard on behalf of children at risk; whose "One Church, One Child" program has placed so many foster children in loving homes.

I've spoken at length about some of my hopes for this year because they mesh so well with Bob's outlook. But Bob's achievements stand alone -- from the environment, to crime-

fighting, to preparing the children of Florida for the future.
His would be a remarkable record of achievement for any governor.
But for Bob Martinez, it's all just another day at the office.\\

Ladies and gentlemen, I would like to propose a toast.

((RAISE GLASS)) Bob and Mary Jane -- thank you for your friendship, your leadership\\ . . . and may the sun never set on
the sunshine state.\\

Thank you, God bless you and God bless America.

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 1/11/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 AM, TUES., JAN. 16
 PRESIDENTIAL REMARKS: MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER
MIAMI, FLORIDA
 SUBJECT: FRIDAY, JANUARY 19, 1990
7:00 PM

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	DELAND	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS: Please provide comments/edits directly to Chriss Winston, Rm. 122, x2930, no later than 10:00 AM, TUESDAY, JANUARY 16, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

Davis/Martin
Jan. 11, 1990
Title: Martinez
Draft: Four

1990 JAN 11 PM 6:59

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: MARTINEZ FUNDRAISER, MIAMI
7 p.m. Friday, Jan. 19, 1989-1990

((Acknowledgements -- Jeb and Colomba, Mary Jane Martinez, etc.))

((You know, when it comes to standing by Bob Martinez, Barbara and I are not going to let anything get in our way -- as much as we hate having to leave Washington in January to come south to Florida.\\))

((As you know, I originally intended to come here in December. But, as I told Barbara, in order to meet with the most important man in the Soviet Union, I had to turn down a get-together with the most important man in Florida.\\ She said: "You know Don Shula?"\\))

But, of course, we are here today to honor the most important man in Florida,\\ a great Republican\\ and a great chief executive,\\ Governor Bob Martinez.\\\\

In the new decade, Florida will need his leadership as never before. Every year, the equivalent of the population of a new city the size of Bob's own Tampa moves to Florida. This growth is a mixed blessing. Everyone loves the new businesses and new jobs, but we deplore the crime and congestion.

So what you need is a governor who will always seek the best for Florida, who will carefully balance the needs of nature and

man, who will make the most of economic opportunity while protecting your special way of life. That's the kind of governor you need.\\ That's the governor you've got.\\ And that's the governor you're going to re-elect.\\

Some leaders look only for immediate political gain. But Bob Martinez looks beyond the horizon, to the stars. This has been an incredible year of change, and promises to be a decade of change -- beginning with the successful mission of the Space Shuttle Colombia. And now, thanks to Bob Martinez, American business is on the launchpad with Spaceport Florida.\\

A president, too, must look to the far horizons,\\ and the other great frontier of our time is the freedom frontier. The world in January, 1990, is a very different place than it was in January, 1989. Then, the Berlin Wall seemed to be an impenetrable veil between East and West. Now the Iron Curtain has opened. Then, a dictator reigned in Panama. Now the people rule in Panama.\\ In fact, there are only two holdouts preventing a totally democratic hemisphere. So let Daniel Ortega and Fidel Castro take note -- like the dinosaur, the day of the dictator is over.\\ \\ \\

If this is an era of brisk change abroad, let us also make it a time of great achievement at home. Bob and I began this year by working together to help Florida farmers recover from the terrible freeze.\\ And we will work on a wide-range of domestic issues -- from the environment, to crime-fighting, sound economic policies and education. But to be effective, we will both need the cooperation -- not the opposition -- of partisan legislators.

Take my ideas for clean air. Last summer, I proposed the first major revision of the Clean Air Act since 1977, one that uses market solutions to cut acid rain, smog and other poisons in our air. Congress still hasn't acted. So I call on Congress, as soon as it reconvenes, to act on clean air.\\\

And we have other environmental concerns. I know that every time I fish along the beaches of Islamorada, I am reminded of just how special Florida truly is. You have the longest coast of any state in the continental United States. Your interior landscape is a tropical jewel glistening with rivers, marshes, freshwater swamps, mangrove forests and coastal estuaries. Just this afternoon, Bob and I toured the Everglades, and saw rich and abundant sanctuaries for crocodiles and eagles, for rookeries of wading birds. This is the home of the royal palm and the bald cypress, the Florida panther and so many other rare and endangered plant and animal species.

And all these creatures, great and small, need very special protection.

So Bob and I worked together, as partners, to extend the Everglades eastward, across the very land we saw today. Because Bob took the initiative and created the East Everglades Land Acquisition Task Force -- because the State of Florida was willing to set aside part of the land -- I signed into law a bill expanding the Everglades National Park by 108,000 acres.\\\ And we will bestow the Everglades as an everlasting treasure for the children of America.

((In fact, I hear that even the alligators are pleased. They're so pleased that they're wearing golf shirts with a little picture of Bob Martinez on their chest.\\))

And we will go further to protect natural Florida. But we also need a sense of balance -- to protect another delicate ecology -- the ecology of good jobs and good government.

As I start my second year as president, one of my prime economic goals is to cut the tax on capital gains.

I believe such a tax cut would create even greater opportunities for more Americans. Of course, there are those who claim otherwise. But ask yourself this: Why is it that the very same people who call this is a tax cut for the rich are the ones who keep proposing tax hikes for the middle class?\\ Don't be fooled by demagogues -- a capital gains tax cut will help every American who holds a job or owns a home.\\ A majority of the members of Congress want to cut capital gains, and I call on the leaders of the House and Senate to get out of their way and let democracy work.

Bob and I agree on other basic economic principles, as true in Tallahassee as they are in Washington, D.C. When legislators send us liberal spending legislation, we send it back. But if legislators will work with us, we can devise creative new ways to use frugal means to achieve generous ends. For those liberals who say that we need to spend more money to help the poor, I say look to Florida. Thanks to your governor's Project Independence, 31,000 men and women -- all welfare recipients -- were able to use state training and education to replace welfare with work. This is the best kind of anti-poverty program, one that saves the taxpayers' money -- tens of millions of dollars.

Bob and I share yet another goal -- to beat the scourge of drugs, a menace to the very future of America. Bob is the Lead Governor on Substance Abuse and Drug Trafficking for the National Governors' Association. He set a national precedent by appointing a state drug czar. And he has worked to make parolees undergo drug testing -- with counseling -- to get straight, and to stay straight.

Bob and I also share a philosophy about prison sentences -- make them as least as tough as the criminals you convict. Bob has already stiffened the Florida code, and added the prison space to enforce it. I only wish Congress was as farsighted. Last spring, I sent Congress our proposals to toughen federal sentences, ~~build more prison space, and hire more law-enforcement officers.~~ But Congress is keeping our crime proposals locked away in the dungeon of parliamentary maneuver. I call on Congress to take the shackles off the cops, the courts and the law.\\

You see, Bob and I support an oppressed minority that too often has been stripped of its rights in America\\ -- the victims of crime.

Some say there is no such thing as evil. Some say that murderers are just misunderstood -- that they were not loved enough, or that they were loved too much. Some say they are even victims, too -- just sick people who deserve therapy.

Well, I say a killer deserves something else -- justice. And justice is exactly what Bob Martinez is dispensing in this state. So let the those who value life so little know one sure thing -- that when they come to Florida, they've reached the end of the line.

But a governor must also have compassion and vision. So must a president. And nowhere is deep compassion and great vision needed more than in preparing our children for the future.

Our "Educational Excellence Act" has been one of my top priorities since I sent this legislation to Congress almost nine months ago. To make our schools work, we must give parents, teachers and children choice and flexibility -- and then hold everyone accountable for the results. And accountability should begin with Congress. It's high time Congress sat down to do its homework on education.

When it comes to caring for children, perhaps Washington could learn a thing or two from Bob Martinez -- who has worked so hard on behalf of children at risk; whose "One Church, One Child" program has placed so many foster children in loving homes.

I've spoken at length about some of my hopes for this year because they mesh so well with Bob's outlook. But Bob's achievements stand alone -- from the environment, to crime-

fighting, to preparing the children of Florida for the future.
His would be a remarkable record of achievement for any governor.
But for Bob Martinez, it's all just another day at the office.\\

Ladies and gentlemen, I would like to propose a toast.

((RAISE GLASS)) Bob and Mary Jane -- thank you for your friendship, your leadership\\ . . . and may the sun never set on
the sunshine state.\\

Thank you, God bless you and God bless America.