DAN COATS FUNDRAISER
INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA
TUESDAY, APRIL 3, 1990
12:30 P.M.

THANK YOU. IT'S GREAT TO BE BACK IN INDIANAPOLIS WITH GOOD FRIENDS LIKE SENATOR DICK LUGAR AND, OF COURSE, DON COX AND MARGIE [MAR-GEE] HILL OF OUR NATIONAL COMMITTEE. I SEE OUR NEW REPUBLICAN STATE CHAIRMAN IS ALSO HERE, KEITH LUCE, A HARD WORKER DOING A GREAT JOB. AND MOST OF ALL, I'M PLEASED TO BE HERE ON BEHALF OF THE MAN WHO BRINGS HOOSIER IDEAS TO WASHINGTON EVERYDAY, SENATOR DAN COATS.\\

I'M SORRY THAT I COULDN'T HAVE LUNCH WITH YOU TODAY, BUT I WASN'T ALLOWED TO. ON THE WAY OVER I WAS NOTIFIED THAT THE SECRET SERVICE HAD FOUND MY FOOD TASTER FACE-DOWN IN THE SALAD. \\ \\ THEY SAID SOMEBODY HAD WASHED MY LETTUCE WITH PERRIER. \\ \\

THROUGHOUT THE EIGHTIES -- THE DECADE WHICH SAW THE GREATEST ECONOMIC EXPANSION IN U.S. PEACETIME HISTORY, AND FIRES OF FREEDOM BEGIN TO BURN ALL OVER THE WORLD -- THROUGHOUT THIS TURBULENT DECADE, THE PEOPLE OF INDIANA HAD TWO GREAT MEN REPRESENTING THEM IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE. DICK LUGAR, AND OF COURSE, DAN QUAYLE -- A FOREIGN POLICY DUO THAT HAVE BEEN INSTRUMENTAL TO THE PROGRESS WE'VE SEEN INTERNATIONALLY. DICK LUGAR'S TENURE ON THE SENATE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE HAS BEEN NOTHING SHORT OF SUPERB, AND I CONTINUE TO DEPEND ON HIS WISE COUNSEL AS WE WRESTLE WITH A WORLD IN CHANGE.

I DON'T HAVE TO TELL YOU -- YOU ALREADY KNOW -- HOW IMPORTANT DAN QUAYLE'S OUTSTANDING LEADERSHIP HAS BEEN IN CRUCIAL AREAS LIKE CENTRAL AND LATIN AMERICA. HE'S SERVED OUR ADMINISTRATION WELL, AND HE'S SERVED OUR NATION WELL. \\ INDIANA'S GOT A LOT TO BE PROUD OF IN THESE 2 FINE MEN. \\ NOW IT'S TIME FOR DAN COATS TO STEP INTO THAT LEGACY OF LEADERSHIP IN THE SENATE.

FOR THE LAST TEN YEARS, DICK LUGAR AND DAN QUAYLE HAVE BUILT A DYNASTY OF REPUBLICAN LEADERSHIP IN INDIANA -- WITH A COMMAND OF THE ISSUES THAT HAS KEPT AMERICA NUMBER ONE. IN 1986, DAN QUAYLE WAS RE-ELECTED BY THE BIGGEST LANDSLIDE OF ANY SENATE CANDIDATE IN INDIANA HISTORY. YET TWO YEARS LATER, SENATOR LUGAR BROKE THE RECORD WITH AN EVEN BIGGER WINNING MARGIN. AND COME NOVEMBER, MY COMMON SENSE TELLS ME THE VOTERS OF INDIANA WILL CONTINUE THE TRADITION AND GIVE DAN COATS AN EVEN GREATER VICTORY MARGIN. \ \

I'M HERE, "BACK HOME AGAIN" IN INDIANA, -- IN WHAT NATIVES CALL THE "CROSSROADS OF AMERICA" -- TO TALK TO YOU TODAY ABOUT COMMON SENSE, SOMETHING HOOSIERS KNOW A LOT ABOUT. INDIANA IS THE HEART OF THE HEARTLAND, AND HOOSIERS ARE RIGHT IN THE MIDDLE OF THE AMERICAN MAINSTREAM -- WITH THE KIND OF VALUES THAT HAVE MADE THIS NATION GREAT. I'M TALKING ABOUT VALUES LIKE HARD WORK, OPPORTUNITY, DECENCY, LOYALTY, FAITH AND FAMILY.

EVERYONE HERE BELIEVES THAT THE FAMILY IS THE CORNERSTONE OF AMERICAN SOCIETY. OUR ADMINISTRATION HAS PLACED THE FAMILY AT THE CENTER OF ITS AGENDA FOR THE 1990S -- TO BUILD AN AMERICA WHERE EVERY MAN, WOMAN AND CHILD IS DRUG-FREE; WHERE SCHOOLS CHALLENGE AND SUPPORT OUR KIDS AND OUR TEACHERS; AND WHERE OUR FAMILIES CAN LIVE IN A CLEAN, SAFE ENVIRONMENT. DAN HAS BEEN ONE OF THE BIGGEST SUPPORTERS OF OUR PRO-FAMILY AGENDA, REACHING OUT TO FAMILIES LIKE YOURS WITH HOPES AND DREAMS FOR THEIR CHILDREN'S FUTURES. DAN COATS IS A VOICE FOR YOUR VALUES.\\

AND IT'S A STRONG VOICE. HIS WORK IN CONGRESS SPONSORING IMPORTANT PRO-FAMILY LEGISLATION WAS CRUCIAL TO THE PROGRESS WE'VE ALREADY MADE IN STRENGTHENING THE FAMILY IN THIS COUNTRY. DAN COATS HAS HELPED PEOPLE IN AREAS LIKE EDUCATIONAL REFORM, FAMILY SUPPORT, HELP FOR "AT RISK" CHILDREN, AND FAMILIES IN NEED. IN FACT, THE REPUBLICAN PARTY FELT SO STRONGLY ABOUT HIS LEGISLATION, THAT WE MADE IT PART OF THE NATIONAL PLATFORM. MAINSTREAM VALUES THAT ALL AMERICANS CARE ABOUT -- THAT'S WHY I BELIEVE WE NEED DAN COATS IN THE SENATE. \\ AND I THINK YOU ALL AGREE. \\

NOTHING RAVAGES THE AMERICAN FAMILY MORE THAN DRUG ABUSE. OUR NATIONAL DRUG STRATEGY, WHICH I ANNOUNCED LAST SEPTEMBER, DEALS WITH ALL SIDES OF THE ISSUE -- FROM EDUCATION AND PREVENTION TO EXPANDED TREATMENT TO STRONGER PENALTIES AND STEPPED-UP ENFORCEMENT. IT'S A TOUGH APPROACH, BUT IT'S A SENSIBLE ONE.

NO PART OF AMERICA IS SAFE FROM THE SCOURGE OF DRUGS. THIS IS NOT SIMPLY AN "INNER-CITY" PROBLEM OR A "BORDER" PROBLEM FOR THE BUREAUCRATS IN WASHINGTON TO HANDLE. WE'VE GOT TO GET PCP AND CRACK OFF EVERY STREET AND OUT OF EVERY SCHOOL IN AMERICA. AND IT'S TIME WE GOT MORE FEDERAL RESOURCES INTO THE HANDS OF THOSE IN THE THICK OF THE FIGHT -- THOSE ON THE FRONT LINES. IF WE ARE TO BUILD A BETTER FUTURE FOR THIS COUNTRY, AMERICA FIRST MUST BE DRUG-FREE.\

AS THE REPUBLICAN LEADER OF THE SENATE SUBCOMMITTEE THAT DEALS WITH DRUGS, DAN KNOWS THE ROAD AHEAD WON'T BE EASY, BUT THAT'S WHY I NEED HIM BACK IN THE SENATE. I NEED DAN'S EXPERIENCE AND INTELLIGENCE AS WE FIGHT TO TAKE BACK OUR STREETS.\

BRINGING HOOSIER VALUES AND HOOSIER VISION TO WASHINGTON IS IMPORTANT TO ME. AND NOT JUST IN STOPPING CRIME AND DRUGS -- BUT ALSO IN STOPPING THOSE WHO MEASURE PROGRESS MADE SOLELY BY DOLLARS SPENT.

YOU KNOW, AS I DO, THAT CONGRESSIONAL SPENDING IS SPIRALLING OUT OF CONTROL -- 1.2 TRILLION RIGHT NOW. AND COMMON SENSE TELLS US THE AMERICAN PEOPLE AREN'T UNDER-TAXED. WE NEED A BUDGET PROCESS THAT CAN DEAL RATIONALLY WITH WASTEFUL GOVERNMENT SPENDING. WE NEED A LINE-ITEM VETO. \\\ GIVE ME WHAT 43 GOVERNORS HAVE - - THE POWER TO CUT UNNECESSARY SPENDING. ONE OF THE FIRST THINGS DAN COATS DID WHEN HE ARRIVED IN THE SENATE WAS TO INTRODUCE IMPORTANT LINE-ITEM VETO LEGISLATION. ((IN FACT, I HAVEN'T SEEN ANYBODY MOVE THAT ADEPTLY SINCE CHUCK PERSON SLAM-DUNKED AN OPPONENT AT MARKET SQUARE ARENA.))

TOGETHER, WE'RE FIGHTING TO KEEP YOUR TAXES LOW
AND FEDERAL SPENDING DOWN. NOW THAT'S WHAT I CALL
COMMON SENSE.\ \

AMERICANS WANT TO KEEP THE LONGEST PEACETIME ECONOMIC EXPANSION EVER MOVING FORWARD -- 89 MONTHS AND COUNTING. AND AMERICANS WANT A CLEAN ENVIRONMENT, TOO.
WE CAN DO BOTH.

THIS MORNING HERE IN INDIANAPOLIS, I PLANTED A TREE TO HELP KICK OFF A GREAT COMMUNITY EFFORT TO PROTECT AND PRESERVE THE BEAUTY OF THIS WONDERFUL CITY.
TODAY IN WASHINGTON, THERE'S ALSO A LOT AT STAKE: CLEAN
AIR, A SAFE ENVIRONMENT, ECONOMIC GROWTH, AND THE JOBS OF THOUSANDS OF AMERICANS. THE SENATE WILL CAST AN HISTORIC VOTE ON OUR AMENDMENTS TO THE CLEAN AIR ACT, A VOTE WHICH WILL AFFECT GENERATIONS TO COME AS WE WORK
TO BUILD A CLEANER, SAFER AMERICA. IT'S GOING TO TAKE A LOT OF WORK TO PROTECT THIS GREAT PLANET WITHOUT THROWING HARD-WORKING AMERICANS OUT OF WORK. I REJECT
THE EXTREMISTS IN THE ENVIRONMENTAL MOVEMENT WHO WOULD BURDEN OUR ECONOMY BY MINDLESS REGULATION AND I REJECT
THOSE IN INDUSTRY WHO DO NOT RECOGNIZE THEIR OBLIGATIONS TO CLEAN UP THE ENVIRONMENT.

COMMON SENSE TELLS US TO FIND NEEDED BALANCE. WE WILL FIND THAT BALANCE.

TONIGHT, DAN COATS WILL BE BACK IN THE SENATE TO CAST ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT VOTES OF HIS LIFE. AND I KNOW I CAN COUNT ON HIM. BUT I NEED TO COUNT ON HIS EXPERIENCE, HIS JUDGMENT, AND HIS CONCERN FOR PEOPLE NOT JUST TONIGHT OR TOMORROW -- BUT IN THE MONTHS AND YEARS TO COME. AND THAT'S WHY I'M COUNTING ON EACH OF YOU IN THIS ROOM TO GIVE YOUR ALL FOR DAN COATS. \\

I'VE TALKED TODAY ABOUT SOME OF THE ISSUES THAT ARE IMPORTANT TO ME AS WE FACE THE NEW DECADE. BUT ONE THING TO REMEMBER: AS THE WORLD CHANGES, ISSUES WILL CHANGE BUT PRINCIPLES REMAIN TO THE END. DAN COATS IS A PRINCIPLED MAN -- WHO WILL BE A VOICE FOR YOUR VALUES. \\

I KNOW HOOSIER VALUES, AND I ADMIRE THEM -- I CHOSE MY RUNNING MATE FROM INDIANA BECAUSE OF THEM. AND ON NOVEMBER 6, WHEN THE VOTERS OF INDIANA THINK OF DAN COATS, I KNOW THEY'LL THINK OF THE SONG BY ANOTHER HOOSIER, THE GREAT COLE PORTER, -- CALLED "YOU'RE THE TOP." \\

SENATOR DAN COATS, GIVES VOICE TO THE VALUES OF
THE HEARTLAND. NOTHING COULD BE MORE IMPORTANT AS WE HEAD INTO A NEW CENTURY OF CHALLENGE AND CHANGE.
LET'S KEEP INDIANA GREAT, AND KEEP THE DYNASTY OF REPUBLICAN LEADERSHIP GOING STRONG. LET'S CONTINUE THE TRADITION AND GIVE DAN A HUGE VICTORY. \\

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT, GOD BLESS YOU, AND GOD BLESS INDIANA.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

THROUGH: CHRISS WINSTON CW
FROM: MARY KATE GRANT MKG
SUBJECT: DAN COATS FUNDRAISING LUNCHEON

OK

I. SUMMARY

Attached are proposed remarks for the Dan Coats fundraising luncheon to be held at the Indianapolis, Indiana Convention Center on Tuesday, April 3rd at 12:30 p.m. You will arrive after lunch has been served and deliver the remarks from teleprompter, before a crowd of approximately 2,000 supporters.

II. DISCUSSION

Senator Lugar will introduce Senator Coats, who will introduce you. After voicing your support for Indiana's Republican team of Dick Lugar, Dan Quayle and Dan Coats, you focus on renewing family values, fighting drug use, and passing the Clean Air amendments and line-item veto legislation. The campaign will be filming your speech for use in television ads.

Thank you. My thanks to ((Father Mallory)) of Notre Dame for his invocation, and of course it's always a pleasure to see Senator Lugar. I see our new Republican state chairman is here, Keith Luce, a hard worker doing a great job. And most of all, I'm pleased to be here on behalf of the man who brings Hoosier ideas to Washington everyday, Senator Dan Coats.\\

I'm sorry that I couldn't have lunch with you today, but ~~I want to~~ ~~live really~~ ~~lost~~ ~~my~~ ~~appetite~~. ~~to~~ On the way over I was notified that the Secret Service had found my food taster face-down in the salad. \\ \\ They said somebody had washed my lettuce with Perrier. \\ \\

Throughout the eighties -- the decade which saw the greatest economic expansion in U.S. peacetime history, and fires of freedom begin to burn all over the world -- throughout this turbulent decade, the people of Indiana had two great men representing them in the United States Senate. Dick Lugar, and of course, Dan Quayle -- a foreign policy duo that have been instrumental to the progress we've seen internationally. Dick Lugar's tenure on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee has been nothing short of superb, and I continue to depend on his wise counsel as we wrestle with a world in change.

I don't have to tell you -- you already know -- how important Dan Quayle's outstanding leadership has been in crucial areas like Central and Latin America. He's served our Administration well, and he's served our Nation well. \\ Indiana's got a lot to be proud of in ~~her~~ ^{there 2 fine men} favorite son -- ~~Dan Quayle~~. \\ Now it's time for Dan Coats to step into that legacy of leadership in the Senate. \\

For the last ten years, Dick Lugar and Dan Quayle have built a dynasty of Republican leadership in Indiana -- with a command of the issues that has kept America number one. In 1986, Dan Quayle was re-elected by the biggest landslide of any Senate candidate in Indiana history. Yet two years later, Senator Lugar broke the record with an even bigger winning margin. And come November, my common sense tells me the voters of Indiana will continue the tradition and give Dan Coats an even greater victory margin. \\

Indiana is the heart of the heartland, and Hoosiers are right in the middle of the American mainstream -- with the kind of values that have made this nation great. I'm talking about values like hard work, opportunity, decency, loyalty, faith and family.

Everyone here believes that the family is the cornerstone of American society. Our Administration has placed the family at the center of its agenda for the 1990s -- to build an America where every man, woman and child is drug-free; where schools challenge and support our kids and our teachers; and where our families can live in a clean, safe environment. Dan has been one of the biggest supporters of our pro-family agenda, reaching out to families like yours with hopes and dreams for their children's futures. Dan Coats is a voice for your values. \\\

Bringing Hoosier values and Hoosier vision to Washington is important to me. And I'll tell you about another great Indiana Republican who brought those values to Washington, President Benjamin Harrison. One hundred years ago, President Harrison presided over the first Congress to appropriate a billion dollar budget. That was a lot of money back then -- still is.

But since then, Congressional spending has spiralled out of control -- 1.2 trillion right now. And common sense tells us the American people aren't under-taxed. REMARKS: DAN COATS FUNDRAISER
INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA
TUESDAY, APRIL 3, 1990
12:20 P.M.

Thank you. My thanks to ((Father Mallory)) of Notre Dame for his invocation, and of course it's always a pleasure to see Senator Lugar. I see our new Republican state chairman is here, Keith Luce, a hard worker doing a great job. And most of all, I'm pleased to be here on behalf of the man who brings Hoosier ideas to Washington everyday, Senator Dan Coats. \\

I'm sorry that I couldn't have lunch with you today, but I've really lost my appetite. On the way over I was notified that the Secret Service had found my food taster face-down in the salad. \\ \\ They said somebody had washed my lettuce with Perrier. \\ \\

Throughout the eighties -- the decade which saw the greatest economic expansion in U.S. peacetime history, and fires of freedom begin to burn all over the world -- throughout this turbulent decade, the people of Indiana had two great men representing them in the United States Senate. Dick Lugar, and of course, Dan Quayle -- a foreign policy duo that have been instrumental to the progress we've seen internationally. Dick Lugar's tenure on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee has been nothing short of superb, and I continue to depend on his wise counsel as we wrestle with a world in change.

Should the President be making a job about Perrier? Is it Presidential? Moller x3060

I don't have to tell you -- you already know -- how important Dan Quayle's outstanding leadership has been in crucial areas like Central and Latin America. He's served our Administration well, and he's served our Nation well. \\ Indiana's got a lot to be proud of in her favorite son -- Dan Quayle.\\ Now it's time for Dan Coats to step into that legacy of leadership in the Senate. \\

For the last ten years, Dick Lugar and Dan Quayle have built a dynasty of Republican leadership in Indiana -- with a command of the issues that has kept America number one. In 1986, Dan Quayle was re-elected by the largest winning margin of any Republican in Indiana history. Yet two years later, Senator Lugar broke the record with an even bigger margin. And come November, my common sense tells me the voters of Indiana will continue the tradition and give Dan Coats a great victory. \\

I'm here, "Back Home in Indiana," -- in what natives call the "Crossroads of America" -- to talk to you today about common sense, something Hoosiers know a lot about. Indiana is the heart of the heartland, and Hoosiers are right in the middle of the American mainstream -- with the kind of values that have made this nation great. I'm talking about values like hard work, opportunity, decency, loyalty, faith and family.

Everyone here believes that the family is the cornerstone of American society. Our Administration has placed the family at the center of its agenda for the 1990s -- to build an America where every man, woman and child is drug-free; where schools challenge and support our kids and our teachers; and where our families can live in a clean, safe environment. Dan has been one of the biggest supporters of our pro-family agenda, reaching out to families like yours with hopes and dreams for their children's futures. Dan Coats is a voice for your values.\\\

And it's a strong voice. His work in Congress sponsoring important pro-family legislation was crucial to the progress we've already made in strengthening the family in this country. Dan Coats has helped people in areas like educational reform, family support, help for "at risk" children, and families in need. In fact, the Republican Party felt so strongly about his legislation, that we made it part of the National Platform. Mainstream values that all Americans care about -- that's why I believe we need Dan Coats in the Senate. \\\ And I think you all agree. \\\

Nothing ravages the American family more than drug abuse. Our National Drug Strategy, which I announced last September, deals with all sides of the issue -- from education and prevention to expanded treatment to stronger penalties and stepped-up enforcement. It's a tough approach, but it's a sensible one.

No part of America is safe from the scourge of drugs. This is not simply an "inner-city" problem or a "border" problem for the bureaucrats in Washington to handle. We've got to get PCP and crack off every street and out of every school in America. And it's time we got more federal resources into the hands of those in the thick of the fight -- those on the front lines. If we are to build a better future for this country, America first must be drug-free.\\

As the Republican leader of the Senate subcommittee that deals with drugs, Dan knows the road ahead won't be easy, but that's why I need him back in the Senate. I need Dan's experience and intelligence as we fight to take back our streets.\\

Bringing Hoosier values and Hoosier vision to Washington is important to me. ~~[And I'll tell you about another great Indiana Republican who brought those values to Washington, President Benjamin Harrison. * One hundred years ago, President Harrison~~ was in office when ~~presided over) the first Congress to appropriate a billion dollar budget. That was a lot of money back then -- still is.~~

~~But since then,~~ is spiralling Congressional spending ~~has spiralled~~ out of control -- 1.2 trillion right now. And common sense tells us the American people aren't over-taxed. We need a budget process that can deal rationally with wasteful government spending. We need a line-item veto. \\ \\ Give me what 43 governors have -- the power to cut unnecessary spending. One of the first things Dan Coats did when he arrived in the Senate was to introduce important line-item veto legislation. ((In fact, I haven't seen anybody move that adeptly since the Indianapolis Colts snuck out of Baltimore.))

Together, we're fighting to keep your taxes low and federal spending down. Now that's what I call common sense.\\

 The President who "presided over" the first Congress to appropriate a billion-dollar budget was President Lincoln - not Pres. Harrison.*

A. L. Samarin

Americans want to keep the longest peacetime economic expansion ever moving forward -- ⁸⁸~~89~~ months and counting. And Americans want a clean environment, too. We can do both.

*Ad-Summer
x 5873*

Tomorrow in Washington, there's a lot at stake: clean air, a safe environment, economic growth, and the jobs of thousands of Americans. The Senate will cast an historic vote on our amendments to the Clean Air Act, a vote which will affect generations to come as we work to build a cleaner, safer America. It's going to take a lot of work to protect this great planet without throwing hard-working Americans out of work.

But common sense tells us this too. We must find that balance. And we will find that balance.

Tomorrow, Dan Coats will be in the Senate to cast one of the most important votes of his life. And I know I can count on him. But I need to count on his experience, his judgment, and his concern for people not just tomorrow, or the day after that -- but in the months and years to come. And that's why I'm counting on each of you in this room to give your all for Dan Coats. \\

I've talked today about some of the issues that are important to me as we face the new decade. But one thing to remember: as the world changes, issues will change but principles remain to the end. Dan Coats is a principled man -- who will be a voice for your values. \\

I know Hoosier values, and I admire them -- I chose my running mate from Indiana because of them. And on November 6, when the voters of Indiana think of Dan Coats, I know they'll think of the song by another Hoosier, the great Cole Porter, -- called "You're the Top." \\

This man, Dan Coats, gives voice to the values of the heartland. Nothing could be more important as we head into a new century of challenge and change. Let's keep Indiana great, and keep the dynasty of Republican leadership going strong. Let's continue the tradition and give Dan a huge victory. **

Thank you for your support, God bless you, and God bless Indiana.

MEMORANDUM FOR CHRISS WINSTON

SUBJECT: Dan Coats Fundraiser

Pg. 1, para. 2, line 1 "On the way over here I was notified that the Secret Service had found my food taster face-down in the salad. They said somebody had washed my lettuce with Perrier."

To joke about Perrier seems a little after the fact now that the product has been back on the shelves for some time. For what it's worth, the Perrier Company will certainly see this as a cheap shot that will further hurt their sales. If we wish to joke about food, why not you-know-what?

E.g., "I've really lost my appetite. On the way over here I was notified that our spy satellites had spotted a shipment of broccoli headed for Indianapolis, just like the one that arrived in Washington not long ago. You can imagine my relief when they told me it was all a mistake. They had forgotten to switch the magnification on the satellite's lens. Turns out they'd been looking the whole time at all the trees in the Arbor Day event [I've just come from/I'm about to go to]."

MEMORANDUM FOR CHRISS WINSTON

FROM: ROGER B. PORTER RBP

SUBJECT: Presidential Remarks: Dan Coats Fundraiser-
Indianapolis, Indiana

Nice job on this one. I have a few suggestions that I believe will improve the draft.

I recommend we strike the Perrier joke. Perrier has enough problems. On page four, third full paragraph, the sentence "And common sense tells us the American people aren't over-taxed." I disagree with that statement, the American people are over-taxed. Either we correct the statement or simply delete it. On page five, second paragraph, the reference "Tomorrow in Washington" should be changed to "Tonight in Washington".

REMARKS: DAN COATS FUNDRAISER
INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA
TUESDAY, APRIL 3, 1990
12:20 P.M.

Thank you. My thanks to ((Father Mallory)) of Notre Dame for his invocation, and of course it's always a pleasure to see Senator Lugar. I see our new Republican state chairman is here, Keith Luce, a hard worker doing a great job. And most of all, I'm pleased to be here on behalf of the man who brings Hoosier ideas to Washington everyday, Senator Dan Coats.\\

I'm sorry that I couldn't have lunch with you today, but I've really lost my appetite. On the way over I was notified that the Secret Service had found my food taster face-down in the salad. \\ \\ They said somebody had washed my lettuce with Perrier. \\ \\

Throughout the eighties -- the decade which saw the greatest economic expansion in U.S. peacetime history, and fires of freedom begin to burn all over the world -- throughout this turbulent decade, the people of Indiana had two great men representing them in the United States Senate. Dick Lugar, and of course, Dan Quayle -- a foreign policy duo that have been instrumental to the progress we've seen internationally. Dick Lugar's tenure on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee has been nothing short of superb, and I continue to depend on his wise counsel as we wrestle with a world in change.

I don't have to tell you -- you already know -- how important Dan Quayle's outstanding leadership has been in crucial areas like Central and Latin America. He's served our Administration well, and he's served our Nation well. \\ Indiana's got a lot to be proud of in her favorite son -- Dan Quayle.\\ Now it's time for Dan Coats to step into that legacy of leadership in the Senate. \\

For the last ten years, Dick Lugar and Dan Quayle have built a dynasty of Republican leadership in Indiana -- with a command of the issues that has kept America number one. In 1986, Dan Quayle was re-elected by the largest winning margin of any Republican in Indiana history. Yet two years later, Senator Lugar broke the record with an even bigger margin. And come November, my common sense tells me the voters of Indiana will continue the tradition and give Dan Coats an even greater a great victory. \\ margin

I'm here, "Back Home in Indiana," -- in what natives call the "Crossroads of America" -- to talk to you today about common sense, something Hoosiers know a lot about. Indiana is the heart of the heartland, and Hoosiers are right in the middle of the American mainstream -- with the kind of values that have made this nation great. I'm talking about values like hard work, opportunity, decency, loyalty, faith and family.

Everyone here believes that the family is the cornerstone of American society. Our Administration has placed the family at the center of its agenda for the 1990s -- to build an America where every man, woman and child is drug-free; where schools challenge and support our kids and our teachers; and where our families can live in a clean, safe environment. Dan has been one of the biggest supporters of our pro-family agenda, reaching out to families like yours with hopes and dreams for their children's futures. Dan Coats is a voice for your values.\\\

And it's a strong voice. His work in Congress sponsoring important pro-family legislation was crucial to the progress we've already made in strengthening the family in this country. Dan Coats has helped people in areas like educational reform, family support, help for "at risk" children, and families in need. In fact, the Republican Party felt so strongly about his legislation, that we made it part of the National Platform. Mainstream values that all Americans care about -- that's why I believe we need Dan Coats in the Senate. \\ And I think you all agree. \\

Nothing ravages the American family more than drug abuse. Our National Drug Strategy, which I announced last September, deals with all sides of the issue -- from education and prevention to expanded treatment to stronger penalties and stepped-up enforcement. It's a tough approach, but it's a sensible one.

No part of America is safe from the scourge of drugs. This is not simply an "inner-city" problem or a "border" problem for the bureaucrats in Washington to handle. We've got to get PCP and crack off every street and out of every school in America. And it's time we got more federal resources into the hands of those in the thick of the fight -- those on the front lines. If we are to build a better future for this country, America first must be drug-free.\\

As the Republican leader of the Senate subcommittee that deals with drugs, Dan knows the road ahead won't be easy, but that's why I need him back in the Senate. I need Dan's experience and intelligence as we fight to take back our streets.\\

Bringing Hoosier values and Hoosier vision to Washington is important to me. And I'll tell you about another great Indiana Republican who brought those values to Washington, President Benjamin Harrison. One hundred years ago, President Harrison presided over the first Congress to appropriate a billion dollar budget. That was a lot of money back then -- still is.

X? But since then, Congressional spending has spiralled out of control -- 1.2 trillion right now. (And common sense tells us the American people aren't over-taxed.) We need a budget process that can deal rationally with wasteful government spending. We need a line-item veto. \\ \\ Give me what 43 governors have -- the power to cut unnecessary spending. One of the first things Dan Coats did when he arrived in the Senate was to introduce important line-item veto legislation. ((In fact, I haven't seen anybody move that adeptly since the Indianapolis Colts snuck out of Baltimore.))

Together, we're fighting to keep your taxes low and federal spending down. Now that's what I call common sense.\\

Americans want to keep the longest peacetime economic expansion ever moving forward -- 89 months and counting. And Americans want a clean environment, too. We can do both.

Tomorrow in Washington, there's a lot at stake: clean air, a safe environment, economic growth, and the jobs of thousands of Americans. The Senate will cast an historic vote on our amendments to the Clean Air Act, a vote which will affect generations to come as we work to build a cleaner, safer America. It's going to take a lot of work to protect this great planet without throwing hard-working Americans out of work.

But common sense tells us this too. We must find that balance. And we will find that balance.

Tomorrow, Dan Coats will be in the Senate to cast one of the most important votes of his life. And I know I can count on him. But I need to count on his experience, his judgment, and his concern for people not just tomorrow, or the day after that -- but in the months and years to come. And that's why I'm counting on each of you in this room to give your all for Dan Coats. \\

I've talked today about some of the issues that are important to me as we face the new decade. But one thing to remember: as the world changes, issues will change but principles remain to the end. Dan Coats is a principled man -- who will be a voice for your values. \\

I know Hoosier values, and I admire them -- I chose my running mate from Indiana because of them. And on November 6, when the voters of Indiana think of Dan Coats, I know they'll think of the song by another Hoosier, the great Cole Porter, -- called "You're the Top." \\

This man, Dan Coats, gives voice to the values of the heartland. Nothing could be more important as we head into a new century of challenge and change. Let's keep Indiana great, and keep the dynasty of Republican leadership going strong. Let's continue the tradition and give Dan a huge victory. \\

Thank you for your support, God bless you, and God bless Indiana.
