

Originally Processed With FOIA(s):

S

FOIA Number:

S

FOIA MARKER

This is not a textual record. This is used as an administrative marker by the George Bush Presidential Library Staff.

Record Group/Collection: George H.W. Bush Presidential Records
Collection/Office of Origin: Speechwriting, White House Office of Series: Speech File Draft Files
Subseries: Chron File, 1989-1993

OA/ID Number: 13527
Folder ID Number: 13527-008

Folder Title:
American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC) 4/19/90 [OA 4729]

Stack:	Row:	Section:	Shelf:	Position:
G	26	16	2	5

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 4/26/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: -----

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGISLATIVE EXCHANGE COUNCIL

	ACTION FYI			ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMEYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Rogers	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Winston	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Pinkerton	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Boskin	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Bennett	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

The attached has been forwarded to the President.

RESPONSE:

00 : 01v 92 MAR 26 90

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

1990 APR 25 PM 8:21

April 25, 1990

INFORMATION

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

Through: CHRISS WINSTON W
From: MARK DAVIS MD
Subject: American Legislative Exchange Council

I. SUMMARY:

You will address the American Legislative Exchange Council -- a bipartisan group of conservative state elected officials and business leaders at 10:30 a.m., Friday, April 27, in Room 450. Your remarks, about ten minutes in length, are on cards.

II. DISCUSSION:

This group is very supportive of the Administration's transportation strategy, stance against drugs, position on choice in education and the capital gains tax cut. And, of course, they will respond enthusiastically to your position on federalism.

Davis/Martin
Date: 4/16/90
Title: ALEC
Draft: Three

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGIS. EXCHANGE COUNCIL, Rm. 450
Friday, April 27, 1990, 10:30 a.m.

((Frank Messersmith, congratulations to you on completing a very successful tenure. And congratulations also to Ellen Sauerbrey, soon to become your new President.)) ((Other acknowledgements to come.))

((With all the traveling I do, it's a welcome change of pace for me to be making an appearance so close to the West Wing.\\ In fact, Barbara says I spend more time on the road than Charles Kuralt.))\\

((And it seems I'm always following John Sununu at every speech. As one of my grandkids said, he's the engineer,\\ and I'm the caboose.))\\

It's great to be back among so many great American leaders from the states -- those of you who belong to the American Legislative Exchange Council, more than sixteen hundred strong. As state leaders, in alliance with leaders from the business community, you are proving every day that government closest to the people is truly government of the people.

We've seen the wisdom of federalism vindicated time and again. In the 1960s, the prevailing belief was that big problems required big government solutions. Of course, this country did face very real problems -- private heartaches that, taken together, afflicted all of America.

But our pockets were often deeper than our thinking. Take the war on poverty as the prime example. This was a unilateral war in which the federal government sought no allies, and followed only one strategy. And we soon learned what this strategy lacked. It lacked an understanding of the problems. It lacked flexibility. And often, it simply lacked programs that worked.\\

So we learned a very hard lesson in the '60s. Good intentions can easily go awry if the federal government neglects state and local governments. So let me say it plain and simple: I am a follower of the Jeffersonian tradition. I believe that innovation springs from these fifty laboratories of democracy. I believe in the inherent wisdom and leadership of the states.

Federalism must be a dynamic partnership if we are to end that age-old affliction of mankind, poverty -- poverty of knowledge and skills, poverty of opportunity, poverty of hope. We will need such a partnership if we are to meet new missions - - to keep expanding opportunity and improving education, to implement a national transportation strategy, and to fight the scourge of illegal drug use. Our partnership must begin with an accurate account of the depth and scope of our needs that can only begin with the U.S. Census -- a project that needs your involvement.

At this moment, Census Bureau workers are beginning to visit all addresses from which Census forms have not been received. Your support is needed to help us get an accurate count of all Americans. This will allow Washington to allocate funds for programs, from housing to health. But more to the point, Census data will help you make important decisions for your states.

This is all part of the decentralization of government, of putting our trust where it belongs -- with the people. So it is not enough to seek a dynamic partnership between Washington, and Austin, Atlanta and Sacramento. We must turn to our families, our schools, our small businesses. We must often seek the achievement of public goals through private means and individual action -- individual empowerment. Our partnership must include everyone if we are to fulfill our agenda -- an agenda that is pro-growth, pro-family and pro-freedom.

We need this dynamic partnership to keep America growing. That's why Congress must pass a cut in the capital gains tax this year. For America to be competitive, we need to invest money in productive uses, generating new jobs and opportunities for all.

We also need a dynamic partnership to keep America moving - - to implement a national transportation strategy for the 21st Century. You understand that leadership must begin with those closest to our transportation problems -- the states. You understand that the states deserve a greater say in how our transportation dollars are spent. And so I am asking you to help others understand that our transportation strategy is the road to the future.\\

And, as you often stress, we also need to protect the bedrock institution of American life -- the family. We are not yet certain what kind of child-care legislation Congress will pass. ((But I am very interested in the outcome. You see, my grandkids often enjoy a certain kind of child care that is sweeping the nation.\\ It's known as Grandma and Grandpa.))\\\ So if Congress stamps out the power of parents to choose family or church-affiliated child-care, I will give this bill a stamp of my own\\ -- a veto stamp.\\\

We also want to bring these same principles of choice and flexibility to the way in which we educate our children. I'll leave it to Roger Porter, my domestic policy advisor, to fully brief you on our education goals and all that we can do together. Just let me say that as I work with the governors to bring renewed excellence to American education, I am also looking to you for advice, support and leadership.

And when it comes to leadership, your federation is already supporting open enrollment plans to give parents choice in selecting their kids' schools; alternative certification to let the talented share their knowledge; and finally -- merit pay, with accountability for all. So we are not just thinking along the same lines. We are working to achieve the same goals in education.\\\

Your federation also calls itself pro-freedom. What does this mean? It means working at the federal and state levels to develop ways to liberate people from dependency on government, not bind them to it -- one generation after another. And it can only mean freedom from drugs.\\\ I commend your Substance Abuse

Task Force for doing an excellent job in devising a set of tough, realistic recommendations that complements and expands our national effort.

And finally, Americans must be free from fear. When honest working people are afraid to go to the corner grocery store, or to walk home from the bus at night, then fear of crime has stolen our most precious possession -- our liberty. It is to protect this freedom -- the freedom to safely walk the streets -- that I offered my crime package last year. Congress has, to its credit, approved new prison space and more federal law enforcement officers. But too much work remains unfinished on the rest of my crime package, the portion that concerns violent crime. Once again, I call on Congress to pass laws as least as tough as the criminals we convict.\\\

Crime and illegal drug use, transportation, education: As we near the end of the century, these challenges that confront our nation sometimes seem bigger than our ability to solve them. And they are -- if we act only as partisan Democrats or Republicans, as parochial members of a region, or a faction, or an interest group. But by working together, as Americans, we can lick any problem -- no matter how big, how complex or how deeply rooted it may be.

That is why I value our partnership -- our dynamic partnership -- and look forward to working with you in the years ahead. Thank you, God bless you and may God bless the United States of America.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

90 MAR 25 P7:17

April 25, 1990

INFORMATION

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

Through: CHRISS WINSTON W
From: MARK DAVIS MD
Subject: American Legislative Exchange Council

I. SUMMARY:

You will address the American Legislative Exchange Council -- a bipartisan group of conservative state elected officials and business leaders at 10:30 a.m., Friday, April 27, in Room 450. Your remarks, about ten minutes in length, are on cards.

II. DISCUSSION:

This group is very supportive of the Administration's transportation strategy, stance against drugs, position on choice in education and the capital gains tax cut. And, of course, they will respond enthusiastically to your position on federalism.

Davis/Martin
Date: 4/16/90
Title: ALEC
Draft: Three

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGIS. EXCHANGE COUNCIL, Rm. 450
Friday, April 27, 1990, 10:30 a.m.

((Frank Messersmith, congratulations to you on completing a very successful tenure. And congratulations also to Ellen Sauerbrey, soon to become your new President.)) ((Other acknowledgements to come.))

((With all the traveling I do, it's a welcome change of pace for me to be making an appearance so close to the West Wing.\\ In fact, Barbara says I spend more time on the road than Charles Kuralt.))\\

((And it seems I'm always following John Sununu at every speech. As one of my grandkids said, he's the engineer,\\ and I'm the caboose.))\\

It's great to be back among so many great American leaders from the states -- those of you who belong to the American Legislative Exchange Council, more than sixteen hundred strong. As state leaders, in alliance with leaders from the business community, you are proving every day that government closest to the people is truly government of the people.

We've seen the wisdom of federalism vindicated time and again. In the 1960s, the prevailing belief was that big problems required big government solutions. Of course, this country did face very real problems -- private heartaches that, taken together, afflicted all of America.

But our pockets were often deeper than our thinking. Take the war on poverty as the prime example. This was a unilateral war in which the federal government sought no allies, and followed only one strategy. And we soon learned what this strategy lacked. It lacked an understanding of the problems. It lacked flexibility. And often, it simply lacked programs that worked.\\

So we learned a very hard lesson in the '60s. Good intentions can easily go awry if the federal government neglects state and local governments. So let me say it plain and simple: I am a follower of the Jeffersonian tradition. I believe that innovation springs from these fifty laboratories of democracy. I believe in the inherent wisdom and leadership of the states.

Federalism must be a dynamic partnership if we are to end that age-old affliction of mankind, poverty -- poverty of knowledge and skills, poverty of opportunity, poverty of hope. We will need such a partnership if we are to meet new missions - - to keep expanding opportunity and improving education, to implement a national transportation strategy, and to fight the scourge of illegal drug use. Our partnership must begin with an accurate account of the depth and scope of our needs that can only begin with the U.S. Census -- a project that needs your involvement.

At this moment, Census Bureau workers are beginning to visit all addresses from which Census forms have not been received. Your support is needed to help us get an accurate count of all Americans. This will allow Washington to allocate funds for programs, from housing to health. But more to the point, Census data will help you make important decisions for your states.

This is all part of the decentralization of government, of putting our trust where it belongs -- with the people. So it is not enough to seek a dynamic partnership between Washington, and Austin, Atlanta and Sacramento. We must turn to our families, our schools, our small businesses. We must often seek the achievement of public goals through private means and individual action -- individual empowerment. Our partnership must include everyone if we are to fulfill our agenda -- an agenda that is pro-growth, pro-family and pro-freedom.

We need this dynamic partnership to keep America growing. That's why Congress must pass a cut in the capital gains tax this year. For America to be competitive, we need to invest money in productive uses, generating new jobs and opportunities for all.

We also need a dynamic partnership to keep America moving - - to implement a national transportation strategy for the 21st Century. You understand that leadership must begin with those closest to our transportation problems -- the states. You understand that the states deserve a greater say in how our transportation dollars are spent. And so I am asking you to help others understand that our transportation strategy is the road to the future.\\\

And, as you often stress, we also need to protect the bedrock institution of American life -- the family. We are not

Task Force for doing an excellent job in devising a set of tough, realistic recommendations that complements and expands our national effort.

And finally, Americans must be free from fear. When honest working people are afraid to go to the corner grocery store, or to walk home from the bus at night, then fear of crime has stolen our most precious possession -- our liberty. It is to protect this freedom -- the freedom to safely walk the streets -- that I offered my crime package last year. Congress has, to its credit, approved new prison space and more federal law enforcement officers. But too much work remains unfinished on the rest of my crime package, the portion that concerns violent crime. Once again, I call on Congress to pass laws as least as tough as the criminals we convict.\\\

Crime and illegal drug use, transportation, education: As we near the end of the century, these challenges that confront our nation sometimes seem bigger than our ability to solve them. And they are -- if we act only as partisan Democrats or Republicans, as parochial members of a region, or a faction, or an interest group. But by working together, as Americans, we can lick any problem -- no matter how big, how complex or how deeply rooted it may be.

That is why I value our partnership -- our dynamic partnership -- and look forward to working with you in the years ahead. Thank you, God bless you and may God bless the United States of America.

Davis/Martin
Date: 4/16/90
Title: ALEC
Draft: Three

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGIS. EXCHANGE COUNCIL, Rm. 450
Friday, April 27, 1990, 10:30 a.m.

((Frank Messersmith, congratulations to you on completing a very successful tenure. And congratulations also to Ellen Sauerbrey, soon to become your new President.)) ((Other acknowledgements to come.))

((With all the traveling I do, it's a welcome change of pace for me to be making an appearance so close to the West Wing.\\ In fact, Barbara says I spend more time on the road than Charles Kuralt.))\\

((And it seems I'm always following John Sununu at every speech. As one of my grandkids said, he's the engineer,\\ and I'm the caboose.))\\

to talk about something - Americans with imp ~~((Before I begin, let me say that our work together, as federal and state leaders, must begin with an accurate account~~ from the U.S. Census -- a project that needs your involvement. At this moment, Census Bureau workers are beginning to visit all addresses from which Census forms have not been received. Your support is needed to help us get an accurate count of all Americans. This will allow Washington to allocate funds for programs, from housing to health. But more to the point, Census data will help you make important decisions for your states.)) to any one who has not - please send it in.

~~AREA~~ and provided

~~Let me say, it's great to be back among~~ so many great American leaders from the states -- those of you who belong to the American Legislative Exchange Council, more than sixteen hundred strong. As state leaders, in alliance with leaders from the business community, you are proving every day that government closest to the people is truly government of the people.

We've seen the wisdom of federalism vindicated time and again. In the 1960s, the prevailing belief was that big problems required big government solutions. Of course, this country did face very real problems -- private heartaches that, taken together, afflicted all of America.

But our pockets were often deeper than our thinking. Take the war on poverty as the prime example. This was a unilateral war in which the federal government sought no allies, and followed only one strategy. And we soon learned what this strategy lacked. It lacked an understanding of the problems. It lacked flexibility. And often, it simply lacked programs that worked.\

So we learned a very hard lesson in the '60s. Good intentions can easily go awry if the federal government neglects state and local governments. So let me say it plain and simple: I am a follower of the Jeffersonian tradition. I believe that innovation springs from these fifty laboratories of democracy. I believe in the inherent wisdom and leadership of the states.

Federalism must be a dynamic partnership if we are to end that age-old affliction of mankind, poverty -- poverty of knowledge and skills, poverty of opportunity, poverty of hope. We will need such a partnership if we are to meet new missions -- to keep expanding opportunity and improving education, to implement a national transportation strategy, and to fight the scourge of illegal drug use.

To achieve these goals, we must put our trust where it belongs -- with the people. So it is not enough to seek a dynamic partnership between Washington, and Austin, Atlanta and Sacramento. We must turn to our families, our schools, our small businesses. We must often seek the achievement of public goals through private means and individual action -- individual empowerment. Our partnership must include everyone if we are to fulfill our agenda -- an agenda that is pro-growth, pro-family and pro-freedom.

We need this dynamic partnership to keep America growing. That's why Congress must pass a cut in the capital gains tax this year. For America to be competitive, we need to invest money in productive uses, generating new jobs and opportunities for all.

We also need a dynamic partnership to keep America moving -- to implement a national transportation strategy for the 21st Century. You understand that leadership must begin with those closest to our transportation problems -- the states. You understand that the states deserve a greater say in how our transportation dollars are spent. And so I am asking you to help others understand that our transportation strategy is the road to the future.\\\

And, as you often stress, we also need to protect the bedrock institution of American life -- the family. We are not yet certain what kind of child-care legislation Congress will pass. ((But I am very interested in the outcome. You see, my grandkids often enjoy a certain kind of child care that is sweeping the nation.\\ It's known as Grandma and Grandpa.))\\ \\ So if Congress stamps out the power of parents to choose family or church-affiliated child-care, I will give this bill a stamp of my own\\ -- a veto stamp.\\ \\

We also want to bring these same principles of choice and flexibility to the way in which we educate our children. I'll leave it to Roger Porter, my domestic policy advisor, to fully brief you on our education goals and all that we can do together. Just let me say that as I work with the governors to bring renewed excellence to American education, I am also looking to you for advice, support and leadership.

And when it comes to leadership, your federation is already supporting open enrollment plans to give parents choice in selecting their kids' schools; alternative certification to let the talented share their knowledge; and finally -- merit pay, with accountability for all. So we are not just thinking along the same lines. We are working to achieve the same goals in education.\\ \\

Your federation also calls itself pro-freedom. What does this mean? It means working at the federal and state levels to develop ways to liberate people from dependency on government, not bind them to it -- one generation after another. And it can only mean freedom from drugs.\\\ I commend your Substance Abuse Task Force for doing an excellent job in devising a set of tough, realistic recommendations that complements and expands our national effort.

And finally, Americans must be free from fear. When honest working people are afraid to go to the corner grocery store, or to walk home from the bus at night, then fear of crime has stolen our most precious possession -- our liberty. It is to protect this freedom -- the freedom to safely walk the streets -- that I offered my crime package last year. Congress has, to its credit, approved new prison space and more federal law enforcement officers. But too much work remains unfinished on the rest of my crime package, the portion that concerns violent crime. Once again, I call on Congress to pass laws as least as tough as the criminals we convict.\\\

Crime and illegal drug use, transportation, education: As we near the end of the century, these challenges that confront our nation sometimes seem bigger than our ability to solve them. And they are -- if we act only as partisan Democrats or Republicans, as parochial members of a region, or a faction, or an interest group. But by working together, as Americans, we can lick any problem -- no matter how big, how complex or how deeply rooted it may be.

That is why I value our partnership -- our dynamic partnership -- and look forward to working with you in the years

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

1990 APR 25 PM 8:21

April 25, 1990

INFORMATION

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

Through: CHRISS WINSTON W
From: MARK DAVIS MD
Subject: American Legislative Exchange Council

*OK
with changes!
W*

I. SUMMARY:

You will address the American Legislative Exchange Council -- a bipartisan group of conservative state elected officials and business leaders at 10:30 a.m., Friday, April 27, in Room 450. Your remarks, about ten minutes in length, are on cards.

II. DISCUSSION:

This group is very supportive of the Administration's transportation strategy, stance against drugs, position on choice in education and the capital gains tax cut. And, of course, they will respond enthusiastically to your position on federalism.

90 MAR 27 4:18

Davis/Martin
Date: 4/16/90
Title: ALEC
Draft: Three

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGIS. EXCHANGE COUNCIL, Rm. 450
Friday, April 27, 1990, 10:30 a.m.

((Frank Messersmith, congratulations to you on completing a very successful tenure. And congratulations also to Ellen Sauerbrey, soon to become your new President.)) ((Other acknowledgements to come.))

((With all the traveling I do, it's a welcome change of pace for me to be making an appearance so close to the West Wing.\\ In fact, Barbara says I spend more time on the road than Charles Kuralt.))\\\

~~((And it seems I'm always following John Sununu at every speech. As one of my grandkids said, he's the engineer, \\ and I'm the caboose.))\\\~~

It's great to be back among so many great American leaders from the states -- those of you who belong to the American Legislative Exchange Council, more than ^{23 hundred} sixteen hundred strong. As state leaders, in alliance with leaders from the business community, you are proving every day that government closest to the people is truly government of the people.

We've seen the wisdom of federalism vindicated time and again. In the 1960s, the prevailing belief was that big problems required big government solutions. Of course, this country did face very real problems -- private heartaches that, taken together, afflicted all of America.

But our pockets were often deeper than our thinking. Take the war on poverty as the prime example. This was a unilateral war in which the federal government sought no allies, and followed only one strategy. And we soon learned what this strategy lacked. It lacked an understanding of the problems. It lacked flexibility. And often, it simply lacked programs that worked.\\

So we learned a very hard lesson in the '60s. Good intentions can easily go awry if the federal government neglects state and local governments. So let me say it plain and simple: I am a follower of the Jeffersonian tradition. I believe that innovation springs from these fifty laboratories of democracy. I believe in the inherent wisdom and leadership of the states.

Federalism must be a dynamic partnership if we are to end that age-old affliction of mankind, poverty -- poverty of knowledge and skills, poverty of opportunity, poverty of hope. We will need such a partnership if we are to meet new missions -- to keep expanding opportunity and improving education, to implement a national transportation strategy, and to fight the scourge of illegal drug use. Our partnership must begin with an accurate account of the depth and scope of our needs that can only begin with the U.S. Census -- a project that needs your involvement.

At this moment, Census Bureau workers are beginning to visit all addresses from which Census forms have not been received. Your support is needed to help us get an accurate count of all Americans. This will allow Washington to allocate funds for programs, from housing to health. But more to the point, Census data will help you make important decisions for your states.

This is all part of the decentralization of government, of putting our trust where it belongs -- with the people. So it is not enough to seek a dynamic partnership between Washington, and Austin, Atlanta and Sacramento. We must turn to our families, our schools, our small businesses. We must often seek the achievement of public goals through private means and individual action -- individual empowerment. Our partnership must include everyone if we are to fulfill our agenda -- an agenda that is pro-growth, pro-family and pro-freedom.

We need this dynamic partnership to keep America growing. That's why Congress must pass a cut in the capital gains tax this year. For America to be competitive, we need to invest money in productive uses, generating new jobs and opportunities for all.

We also need a dynamic partnership to keep America moving -- to implement a national transportation strategy for the 21st Century. You understand that leadership must begin with those closest to our transportation problems -- the states. You understand that the states deserve a greater say in how our transportation dollars are spent. And so I am asking you to help others understand that our transportation strategy is the road to the future.\\\

And, as you often stress, we also need to protect the bedrock institution of American life -- the family. We are not yet certain what kind of child-care legislation Congress will pass. ((But I am very interested in the outcome. You see, my grandkids often enjoy a certain kind of child care that is sweeping the nation.\\ It's known as Grandma and Grandpa.))\\

But if Congress stamps out the power of parents to choose family or church-affiliated child-care, I will give this bill a stamp of my own\\ -- a veto stamp.\\

We also want to bring these same principles of choice and flexibility to the way in which we educate our children. I'll leave it to Roger Porter, my domestic policy advisor, to fully brief you on our education goals and all that we can do together. Just let me say that as I work with the governors to bring renewed excellence to American education, I am also looking to you for advice, support and leadership.

And when it comes to leadership, your federation is already supporting open enrollment plans to give parents choice in selecting their kids' schools; alternative certification to let the talented share their knowledge; and finally -- merit pay, with accountability for all. So we are not just thinking along the same lines. We are working to achieve the same goals in education.\\

Your federation also calls itself pro-freedom. What does this mean? It means working at the federal and state levels to develop ways to liberate people from dependency on government, not bind them to it -- one generation after another. And it can only mean freedom from drugs.\\ I commend your Substance Abuse

Task Force for doing an excellent job in devising a set of tough, realistic recommendations that complements and expands our national effort.

And finally, Americans must be free from fear. When honest working people are afraid to go to the corner grocery store, or to walk home from the bus at night, then fear of crime has stolen our most precious possession -- our liberty. It is to protect this freedom -- the freedom to safely walk the streets -- that I offered my crime package last year. Congress has, to its credit, approved new prison space and more federal law enforcement officers. But too much work remains unfinished on the rest of my crime package, the portion that concerns violent crime. Once again, I call on Congress to pass laws as least as tough as the criminals we convict.\\\

Crime and illegal drug use, transportation, education: As we near the end of the century, these challenges that confront our nation sometimes seem bigger than our ability to solve them. And they are -- if we act only as partisan Democrats or Republicans, as parochial members of a region, or a faction, or an interest group. But by working together, as Americans, we can lick any problem -- no matter how big, how complex or how deeply rooted it may be.

That is why I value our partnership -- our dynamic partnership -- and look forward to working with you in the years ahead. Thank you, God bless you and may God bless the United States of America.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

April 25, 1990

INFORMATION

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

Through: CHRISS WINSTON W
From: MARK DAVIS MD
Subject: American Legislative Exchange Council

I. SUMMARY:

You will address the American Legislative Exchange Council -- a bipartisan group of conservative state elected officials and business leaders at 10:30 a.m., Friday, April 27, in Room 450. Your remarks, about ten minutes in length, are on cards.

II. DISCUSSION:

This group is very supportive of the Administration's transportation strategy, stance against drugs, position on choice in education and the capital gains tax cut. And, of course, they will respond enthusiastically to your position on federalism.

1990 APR 25 PM 8:09

Davis/Martin
Date: 4/16/90
Title: ALEC
Draft: Three

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGIS. EXCHANGE COUNCIL, Rm. 450
Friday, April 27, 1990, 10:30 a.m.

((Frank Messersmith, congratulations to you on completing a very successful tenure. And congratulations also to Ellen Sauerbrey, soon to become your new President.)) ((Other acknowledgements to come.))

((With all the traveling I do, it's a welcome change of pace for me to be making an appearance so close to the West Wing.\\ In fact, Barbara says I spend more time on the road than Charles Kuralt.))\\\

((And it seems I'm always following John Sununu at every speech. As one of my grandkids said, he's the engineer,\\ and I'm the caboose.))\\\

It's great to be back among so many great American leaders from the states -- those of you who belong to the American Legislative Exchange Council, more than sixteen hundred strong. As state leaders, in alliance with leaders from the business community, you are proving every day that government closest to the people is truly government of the people.

We've seen the wisdom of federalism vindicated time and again. In the 1960s, the prevailing belief was that big problems required big government solutions. Of course, this country did face very real problems -- private heartaches that, taken together, afflicted all of America.

But our pockets were often deeper than our thinking. Take the war on poverty as the prime example. This was a unilateral war in which the federal government sought no allies, and followed only one strategy. And we soon learned what this strategy lacked. It lacked an understanding of the problems. It lacked flexibility. And often, it simply lacked programs that worked.\\

So we learned a very hard lesson in the '60s. Good intentions can easily go awry if the federal government neglects state and local governments. So let me say it plain and simple: I am a follower of the Jeffersonian tradition. I believe that innovation springs from these fifty laboratories of democracy. I believe in the inherent wisdom and leadership of the states.

Federalism must be a dynamic partnership if we are to end that age-old affliction of mankind, poverty -- poverty of knowledge and skills, poverty of opportunity, poverty of hope. We will need such a partnership if we are to meet new missions -- to keep expanding opportunity and improving education, to implement a national transportation strategy, and to fight the scourge of illegal drug use. Our partnership must begin with an accurate account of the depth and scope of our needs that can only begin with the U.S. Census -- a project that needs your involvement.

At this moment, Census Bureau workers are beginning to visit all addresses from which Census forms have not been received. Your support is needed to help us get an accurate count of all Americans. This will allow Washington to allocate funds for programs, from housing to health. But more to the point, Census data will help you make important decisions for your states.

This is all part of the decentralization of government, of putting our trust where it belongs -- with the people. So it is not enough to seek a dynamic partnership between Washington, and Austin, Atlanta and Sacramento. We must turn to our families, our schools, our small businesses. We must often seek the achievement of public goals through private means and individual action -- individual empowerment. Our partnership must include everyone if we are to fulfill our agenda -- an agenda that is pro-growth, pro-family and pro-freedom.

We need this dynamic partnership to keep America growing. That's why Congress must pass a cut in the capital gains tax this year. For America to be competitive, we need to invest money in productive uses, generating new jobs and opportunities for all.

We also need a dynamic partnership to keep America moving - - to implement a national transportation strategy for the 21st Century. You understand that leadership must begin with those closest to our transportation problems -- the states. You understand that the states deserve a greater say in how our transportation dollars are spent. And so I am asking you to help others understand that our transportation strategy is the road to the future.\\\

And, as you often stress, we also need to protect the bedrock institution of American life -- the family. We are not yet certain what kind of child-care legislation Congress will pass. ((But I am very interested in the outcome. You see, my grandkids often enjoy a certain kind of child care that is sweeping the nation.\\ It's known as Grandma and Grandpa.))\\\ So if Congress stamps out the power of parents to choose family or church-affiliated child-care, I will give this bill a stamp of my own\\ -- a veto stamp.\\\

We also want to bring these same principles of choice and flexibility to the way in which we educate our children. I'll leave it to Roger Porter, my domestic policy advisor, to fully brief you on our education goals and all that we can do together. Just let me say that as I work with the governors to bring renewed excellence to American education, I am also looking to you for advice, support and leadership.

And when it comes to leadership, your federation is already supporting open enrollment plans to give parents choice in selecting their kids' schools; alternative certification to let the talented share their knowledge; and finally -- merit pay, with accountability for all. So we are not just thinking along the same lines. We are working to achieve the same goals in education.\\\

Your federation also calls itself pro-freedom. What does this mean? It means working at the federal and state levels to develop ways to liberate people from dependency on government, not bind them to it -- one generation after another. And it can only mean freedom from drugs.\\\ I commend your Substance Abuse

Task Force for doing an excellent job in devising a set of tough, realistic recommendations that complements and expands our national effort.

And finally, Americans must be free from fear. When honest working people are afraid to go to the corner grocery store, or to walk home from the bus at night, then fear of crime has stolen our most precious possession -- our liberty. It is to protect this freedom -- the freedom to safely walk the streets -- that I offered my crime package last year. Congress has, to its credit, approved new prison space and more federal law enforcement officers. But too much work remains unfinished on the rest of my crime package, the portion that concerns violent crime. Once again, I call on Congress to pass laws as least as tough as the criminals we convict.\\\

Crime and illegal drug use, transportation, education: As we near the end of the century, these challenges that confront our nation sometimes seem bigger than our ability to solve them. And they are -- if we act only as partisan Democrats or Republicans, as parochial members of a region, or a faction, or an interest group. But by working together, as Americans, we can lick any problem -- no matter how big, how complex or how deeply rooted it may be.

That is why I value our partnership -- our dynamic partnership -- and look forward to working with you in the years ahead. Thank you, God bless you and may God bless the United States of America.

OFFICE OF CABINET AFFAIRS STAFFING MEMORANDUM

Date: 4-24-90

Due by: 9:00 am Wednesday, 4-25-90

Subject: Presidential Remarks: American Legislative Exchange Council

From: Holly Williamson

	ACTION	CONCUR	FYI		ACTION	CONCUR	FYI
BATES	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	JACKSON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DANZANSKY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	MCBEE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
ADAIR	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	SCHALL	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
BUCHHOLZ	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WETHINGTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
D'ANDREA	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	WILLIAMSON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEWITT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	YALE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DUGGAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
EVANS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FARRAR	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HEIMBACH	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

Comments:

Please review and provide comments to me by 9:00 am Wednesday, April 25.

I did not send to any Departments. Thanks.

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 4/24/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 AM 4/25/90

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGISLATIVE EXCHANGE COUNCIL

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	BENNETT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Room 122, ext. 2930, no later than 10:00 AM, WEDNESDAY, April 25, 1990, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

1990 APR 23 PM 7:08

Davis/Martin
Date: 4/16/90
Title: ALEC
Draft: Two

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGIS. EXCHANGE COUNCIL, Rm. 450
Friday, April 27, 1990 ((Time))

((Frank Messersmith, congratulations to you on completing a very successful tenure. And congratulations also to Ellen Sauerbrey, soon to become your new President.)) ((Other acknowledgements to come.))

((With all the traveling I do, it's a welcome change of pace for me to be making an appearance so close to the West Wing.\\ In fact, Barbara says I spend more time on the road than Charles Kuralt.))\\

((And it seems I'm always following John Sununu at every speech. As one of my grandkids said, he's the engineer,\\ and I'm the caboose.))\\

It's great to be back among so many great American leaders from the states -- those of you who belong to the American Legislative Exchange Council, more than sixteen hundred strong. As state leaders, in alliance with leaders from the business community, you are proving every day that government closest to the people is truly government of the people.

We've seen the wisdom of federalism vindicated time and again. In the 1960s, the prevailing belief was that big problems required big government solutions. Of course, this country did face very real problems -- private heartaches that, taken together, afflicted all of America.

But our pockets were often deeper than our thinking. Take the war on poverty as the prime example. This was a unilateral war in which the federal government sought no allies, and followed only one strategy. And we soon learned what this strategy lacked. It lacked an understanding of the problems. It lacked flexibility. And often, it simply lacked programs that worked.\\

So we learned a very hard lesson in the '60s. Good intentions can easily go awry if the federal government neglects state and local governments. So let me say it plain and simple: I am a follower of the Jeffersonian tradition. I believe in the inherent wisdom and leadership of the states.\\ I am a federalist.\\\

Federalism is a dynamic partnership, one we need if we are to end that age-old affliction of mankind, poverty -- poverty of knowledge and skills, poverty of opportunity, poverty of hope. And we will need such a partnership if we are to meet new missions -- to keep expanding opportunity and improving education, to implement a national transportation plan and to fight the scourge of illegal drug use. ← ~~to be~~ insert

As we learn to decentralize decision-making in government, we are also learning to put our trust where it belongs -- with the people. So it is not enough to seek a dynamic partnership between Washington, and Austin, Atlanta and Sacramento. We must turn to our families, our schools, our small businesses. We must often seek the achievement of public goals through private means

INSET FOR ALEC SPEECH

(Recommended place of insertion: page 2, after the third full paragraph, i.e., after ". . . fight the scourge of illegal drugs."

I would ask your help in a project of mutual concern, one that is now at a crucial stage -- the 1990 Census. Census Bureau workers are now beginning to visit all addresses from which Census forms have not been received. Your support, your voice is needed with your constituents to help us obtain a complete and accurate count of all Americans. And each of you will, of course, soon be using the Census data in the important reapportionment decisions that the states will make.

and individual action. Our partnership must include everyone if we are to fulfill our agenda -- an agenda that is pro-growth, pro-family and pro-freedom.

We need this dynamic partnership to keep America growing. That's why Congress must pass a cut in the capital gains tax this year. For America to be competitive, we need to invest money in productive uses, generating new jobs and opportunities for all.

We also need a dynamic partnership to keep America moving - - to implement a national transportation plan for the 21st century. You understand that leadership must begin with those closest to our transportation problems -- the states. You understand that the states deserve a greater say in how our transportation dollars are spent. And so I am asking you to help others understand that our transportation plan is the road to the future.\\\

And, as you often stress, we also need to protect the bedrock institution of American life -- the family. We are not yet certain what kind of child-care legislation Congress will pass. ((But I am very interested in the outcome. You see, my grandkids often enjoy a certain kind of child care that is sweeping the nation.\\ It's known as Grandma and Grandpa.))\\\ So if Congress stamps out the power of parents to choose family or church-affiliated child-care, I will give this bill a stamp of my own\\ -- a veto stamp.\\\

We also want to bring these same principles of choice and flexibility to the way in which we educate our children. I'll leave it to Roger Porter, my domestic policy advisor, to fully brief you on our education goals and all that we can do together. Just let me say that as I work with the governors to bring renewed excellence to American education, I am also looking to you for advice, support and leadership.

And when it comes to leadership, your federation is already supporting open enrollment plans to give parents choice in selecting their kids' schools; alternative certification to let the talented share their knowledge; and finally -- merit pay, with accountability for all. So we are not just thinking along the same lines. We are working to achieve the same goals in education.\\\

Your federation also calls itself pro-freedom. What does this mean? It means working at the federal and state levels to develop ways to liberate people from dependency on government, not bind them to it -- one generation after another. And it can only mean freedom from drugs.\\\ I commend your Substance Abuse Task Force for doing an excellent job in devising a set of tough, realistic recommendations that complements and expands our national effort.

And finally, Americans must be free from fear. When honest working people are afraid to go to the corner grocery store, or to walk home from the bus at night, then fear of crime has stolen our most precious possession -- our liberty. It is to protect this freedom -- the freedom to safely walk the streets -- that I offered my crime package last year. Congress has, to its credit, approved new prison space and more federal law enforcement officers. But too much work remains unfinished on the rest of my crime package, the portion that concerns violent crime. Once again, I call on Congress to pass laws as least as tough as the criminals we convict.\\\

Crime and illegal drug use, transportation, education: As we near the end of the century, these challenges that confront our nation sometimes seem bigger than our ability to solve them. And they are -- if we act only as partisan Democrats or Republicans, as parochial members of a region, or a faction, or an interest group. But by working together, as Americans, we can lick any problem -- no matter how big, how complex or how deeply rooted it may be.

That is why I value our partnership -- our dynamic partnership -- and look forward to working with you in the years ahead. Thank you, God bless you and may God bless the United States of America.

#

#

#

HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 AM 4/25/90

ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGISLATIVE EXCHANGE COUNCIL

Highlighted sentences are for your review. So okay, all take to Cicconis etc.

Stop

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	ROGERS	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	BENNETT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Room 122, ext. 2930, no later than 10:00 AM, WEDNESDAY, April 25, 1990, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

No Comment 4/24/90

90 MAR 25 P 3: 02

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 4/24/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 AM 4/25/90

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGISLATIVE EXCHANGE COUNCIL

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER N/C	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Rogers	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON →	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN N/C	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	BENNETT N/C	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Room 122, ext. 2930, no later than 10:00 AM, WEDNESDAY, April 25, 1990, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

Census insert to come

1990 APR 23 PM 7:08

Davis/Martin
Date: 4/16/90
Title: ALEC
Draft: Two

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGIS. EXCHANGE COUNCIL, Rm. 450
Friday, April 27, 1990 ((Time))

((Frank Messersmith, congratulations to you on completing a very successful tenure. And congratulations also to Ellen Sauerbrey, soon to become your new President.)) ((Other acknowledgements to come.))

((With all the traveling I do, it's a welcome change of pace for me to be making an appearance so close to the West Wing.\\ In fact, Barbara says I spend more time on the road than Charles Kuralt.))\\\

((And it seems I'm always following John Sununu at every speech. As one of my grandkids said, he's the engineer,\\ and I'm the caboose.))\\\

It's great to be back among so many great American leaders from the states -- those of you who belong to the American Legislative Exchange Council, more than sixteen hundred strong. As state leaders, in alliance with leaders from the business community, you are proving every day that government closest to the people is truly government of the people.

We've seen the wisdom of federalism vindicated time and again. In the 1960s, the prevailing belief was that big problems required big government solutions. Of course, this country did face very real problems -- private heartaches that, taken together, afflicted all of America.

But our pockets were often deeper than our thinking. Take the war on poverty as the prime example. This was a unilateral war in which the federal government sought no allies, and followed only one strategy. And we soon learned what this strategy lacked. It lacked an understanding of the problems. It lacked flexibility. And often, it simply lacked programs that worked.\\

So we learned a very hard lesson in the '60s. Good intentions can easily go awry if the federal government neglects state and local governments. So let me say it plain and simple: I am a follower of the Jeffersonian tradition. I believe in the inherent wisdom and leadership of the states.\\ ~~I am a federalist.~~\\

Federalism ^{must be} is a dynamic partnership, ~~one we need~~ if we are to end that age-old affliction of mankind, poverty -- poverty of knowledge and skills, poverty of opportunity, poverty of hope. And we will need such a partnership if we are to meet new missions -- to keep expanding opportunity and improving education, to implement a national transportation ^{strategy} ~~plan~~ and to fight the scourge of illegal drug use.

As we learn to decentralize decision-making in government, we are also learning to put our trust where it belongs -- with the people. So it is not enough to seek a dynamic partnership between Washington, and Austin, Atlanta and Sacramento. We must turn to our families, our schools, our small businesses. We must often seek the achievement of public goals through private means and individual action. Our partnership must include everyone if we are to fulfill our agenda -- an agenda that is pro-growth, pro-family and pro-freedom.

We need this dynamic partnership to keep America growing. That's why Congress must pass a cut in the capital gains tax this year. For America to be competitive, we need to invest money in productive uses, generating new jobs and opportunities for all.

We also need a dynamic partnership to keep America moving - - to implement a national transportation ^{strategy} ~~plan~~ for the 21st century. You understand that leadership must begin with those closest to our transportation problems -- the states. You understand that the states deserve a greater say in how our transportation dollars are spent. And so I am asking you to help others understand that ^{strategy} our transportation plan is the road to the future.\\\

And, as you often stress, we also need to protect the bedrock institution of American life -- the family. We are not yet certain what kind of child-care legislation Congress will pass. ((But I am very interested in the outcome. You see, my grandkids often enjoy a certain kind of child care that is sweeping the nation.\\ It's known as Grandma and Grandpa.))\\\ So if Congress stamps out the power of parents to choose family or church-affiliated child-care, I will give this bill a stamp of my own\\ -- a veto stamp.\\\

We also want to bring these same principles of choice and flexibility to the way in which we educate our children. I'll leave it to Roger Porter, my domestic policy advisor, to fully brief you on our education goals and all that we can do together. Just let me say that as I work with the governors to bring renewed excellence to American education, I am also looking to you for advice, support and leadership.

And when it comes to leadership, your federation is already supporting open enrollment plans to give parents choice in selecting their kids' schools; alternative certification to let the talented share their knowledge; and finally -- merit pay, with accountability for all. So we are not just thinking along the same lines. We are working to achieve the same goals in education.\\\

Your federation also calls itself pro-freedom. What does this mean? It means working at the federal and state levels to develop ways to liberate people from dependency on government, not bind them to it -- one generation after another. And it can only mean freedom from drugs.\\\ I commend your Substance Abuse Task Force for doing an excellent job in devising a set of tough, realistic recommendations that complements and expands our national effort.

And finally, Americans must be free from fear. When honest working people are afraid to go to the corner grocery store, or to walk home from the bus at night, then fear of crime has stolen our most precious possession -- our liberty. It is to protect this freedom -- the freedom to safely walk the streets -- that I offered my crime package last year. Congress has, to its credit, approved new prison space and more federal law enforcement officers. But too much work remains unfinished on the rest of my crime package, the portion that concerns violent crime. Once again, I call on Congress to pass laws as least as tough as the criminals we convict.\\\

Crime and illegal drug use, transportation, education: As we near the end of the century, these challenges that confront our nation sometimes seem bigger than our ability to solve them. And they are -- if we act only as partisan Democrats or Republicans, as parochial members of a region, or a faction, or an interest group. But by working together, as Americans, we can lick any problem -- no matter how big, how complex or how deeply rooted it may be.

That is why I value our partnership -- our dynamic partnership -- and look forward to working with you in the years ahead. Thank you, God bless you and may God bless the United States of America.

#

#

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

90 MAR 25 P5:18

DATE: 4/24/90

ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 AM 4/25/90

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGISLATIVE EXCHANGE COUNCIL

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Rogers	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	BENNETT →	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Room 122, ext. 2930, no later than 10:00 AM, WEDNESDAY, April 25, 1990, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

4/25
On SEP -
No comment
Shirley -
David Case &
John Balestrini
02013126 # 2992

Phoned in 10⁰⁰ am 4/25

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

1990 APR 23 PM 7:08

Davis/Martin
Date: 4/16/90
Title: ALEC
Draft: Two

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGIS. EXCHANGE COUNCIL, Rm. 450
Friday, April 27, 1990 ((Time))

((Frank Messersmith, congratulations to you on completing a very successful tenure. And congratulations also to Ellen Sauerbrey, soon to become your new President.)) ((Other acknowledgements to come.))

((With all the traveling I do, it's a welcome change of pace for me to be making an appearance so close to the West Wing.\\ In fact, Barbara says I spend more time on the road than Charles Kuralt.))\\\

((And it seems I'm always following John Sununu at every speech. As one of my grandkids said, he's the engineer,\\ and I'm the caboose.))\\\

It's great to be back among so many great American leaders from the states -- those of you who belong to the American Legislative Exchange Council, more than sixteen hundred strong. As state leaders, in alliance with leaders from the business community, you are proving every day that government closest to the people is truly government of the people.

We've seen the wisdom of federalism vindicated time and again. In the 1960s, the prevailing belief was that big problems required big government solutions. Of course, this country did face very real problems -- private heartaches that, taken together, afflicted all of America.

But our pockets were often deeper than our thinking. Take the war on poverty as the prime example. This was a unilateral war in which the federal government sought no allies, and followed only one strategy. And we soon learned what this strategy lacked. It lacked an understanding of the problems. It lacked flexibility. And often, it simply lacked programs that worked.\\

So we learned a very hard lesson in the '60s. Good intentions can easily go awry if the federal government neglects state and local governments. So let me say it plain and simple: I am a follower of the Jeffersonian tradition. I believe in the inherent wisdom and leadership of the states.\\ I am a federalist.\\\

Federalism is a dynamic partnership, one we need if we are to end that age-old affliction of mankind, poverty -- poverty of knowledge and skills, poverty of opportunity, poverty of hope. And we will need such a partnership if we are to meet new missions -- to keep expanding opportunity and improving education, to implement a national transportation plan and to fight the scourge of illegal drug use.

As we learn to decentralize decision-making in government, we are also learning to put our trust where it belongs -- with the people. So it is not enough to seek a dynamic partnership between Washington, and Austin, Atlanta and Sacramento. We must turn to our families, our schools, our small businesses. We must often seek the achievement of public goals through private means and individual action. Our partnership must include everyone if we are to fulfill our agenda -- an agenda that is pro-growth, pro-family and pro-freedom.

We need this dynamic partnership to keep America growing. That's why Congress must pass a cut in the capital gains tax this year. For America to be competitive, we need to invest money in productive uses, generating new jobs and opportunities for all.

We also need a dynamic partnership to keep America moving - - to implement a national transportation plan for the 21st century. You understand that leadership must begin with those closest to our transportation problems -- the states. You understand that the states deserve a greater say in how our transportation dollars are spent. And so I am asking you to help others understand that our transportation plan is the road to the future.\\\

And, as you often stress, we also need to protect the bedrock institution of American life -- the family. We are not yet certain what kind of child-care legislation Congress will pass. ((But I am very interested in the outcome. You see, my grandkids often enjoy a certain kind of child care that is sweeping the nation.\\ It's known as Grandma and Grandpa.))\\\ So if Congress stamps out the power of parents to choose family or church-affiliated child-care, I will give this bill a stamp of my own\\ -- a veto stamp.\\\

We also want to bring these same principles of choice and flexibility to the way in which we educate our children. I'll leave it to Roger Porter, my domestic policy advisor, to fully brief you on our education goals and all that we can do together. Just let me say that as I work with the governors to bring renewed excellence to American education, I am also looking to you for advice, support and leadership.

And when it comes to leadership, your federation is already supporting open enrollment plans to give parents choice in selecting their kids' schools; alternative certification to let the talented share their knowledge; and finally -- merit pay, with accountability for all. So we are not just thinking along the same lines. We are working to achieve the same goals in education.\\\

Your federation also calls itself pro-freedom. What does this mean? It means working at the federal and state levels to develop ways to liberate people from dependency on government, not bind them to it -- one generation after another. And it can only mean freedom from drugs.\\\ I commend your Substance Abuse Task Force for doing an excellent job in devising a set of tough, realistic recommendations that complements and expands our national effort.

And finally, Americans must be free from fear. When honest working people are afraid to go to the corner grocery store, or to walk home from the bus at night, then fear of crime has stolen our most precious possession -- our liberty. It is to protect this freedom -- the freedom to safely walk the streets -- that I offered my crime package last year. Congress has, to its credit, approved new prison space and more federal law enforcement officers. But too much work remains unfinished on the rest of my crime package, the portion that concerns violent crime. Once again, I call on Congress to pass laws as least as tough as the criminals we convict.\\\

Crime and illegal drug use, transportation, education: As we near the end of the century, these challenges that confront our nation sometimes seem bigger than our ability to solve them. And they are -- if we act only as partisan Democrats or Republicans, as parochial members of a region, or a faction, or an interest group. But by working together, as Americans, we can lick any problem -- no matter how big, how complex or how deeply rooted it may be.

That is why I value our partnership -- our dynamic partnership -- and look forward to working with you in the years ahead. Thank you, God bless you and may God bless the United States of America.

#

#

#

9:20 am

4/24

To: Annie Case

Re: - per our conversations - regarding due back by 10⁰⁰ am

Tomorrow (Wed. 4/25)

John -

452-2992

(5) 4. free page follow
(Ann. Reg. Exchange Council)

Paula Zimm
2:00 5:10
7142

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

April 25, 1990

MEMORANDUM FOR CHRISS WINSTON

FROM: JIM PINKERTON
SUBJECT: A.L.E.C. Draft Speech

A truly fine draft that will help puncture the canard that federalism is a means for the Federal government to slough off responsibility. The draft ably points out that federalism is a form of the decentralization of authority and decision making that is sweeping the country and the world.

We would only suggest that this connection be made explicit -- it is a point of pride for Americans that we have been at the decentralization game for over 200 years; and that, in addition to choice and flexibility (how about adding "individual empowerment"?), which are mentioned as virtues of federalism, we also mention the role of federalism in promoting innovation -- the idea that the states are the "laboratories of democracy."

###

90 MAR 25 10:46

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 4/24/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 AM 4/25/90

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGISLATIVE EXCHANGE COUNCIL

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Rogers	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	BENNETT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Room 122, ext. 2930, no later than 10:00 AM, WEDNESDAY, April 25, 1990, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE: See comments

90 MAR 25 A10:55

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

1990 APR 23 PM 7:08

Davis/Martin
Date: 4/16/90
Title: ALEC
Draft: Two

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGIS. EXCHANGE COUNCIL, Rm. 450
Friday, April 27, 1990 ((Time))

((Frank Messersmith, congratulations to you on completing a very successful tenure. And congratulations also to Ellen Sauerbrey, soon to become your new President.)) ((Other acknowledgements to come.))

((With all the traveling I do, it's a welcome change of pace for me to be making an appearance so close to the West Wing.\\ In fact, Barbara says I spend more time on the road than Charles Kuralt.))\\\

((And it seems I'm always following John Sununu at every speech. As one of my grandkids said, he's the engineer,\\ and I'm the caboose.))\\\

It's great to be back among so many great American leaders from the states -- those of you who belong to the American Legislative Exchange Council, more than sixteen hundred strong. As state leaders, in alliance with leaders from the business community, you are proving every day that government closest to the people is truly government of the people.

We've seen the wisdom of federalism vindicated time and again. In the 1960s, the prevailing belief was that big problems required big government solutions. Of course, this country did face very real problems -- private heartaches that, taken together, afflicted all of America.

But our pockets were often deeper than our thinking. Take the war on poverty as the prime example. This was a unilateral war in which the federal government sought no allies, and followed only one strategy. And we soon learned what this strategy lacked. It lacked an understanding of the problems. It lacked flexibility. And often, it simply lacked programs that worked.\\

So we learned a very hard lesson in the '60s. Good intentions can easily go awry if the federal government neglects state and local governments. So let me say it plain and simple: I am a follower of the Jeffersonian tradition. I believe in the inherent wisdom and leadership of the states.\\ I am a federalist.\\\

Federalism is a dynamic partnership, one we need if we are to end that age-old affliction of mankind, poverty -- poverty of knowledge and skills, poverty of opportunity, poverty of hope. And we will need such a partnership if we are to meet new missions -- to keep expanding opportunity and improving education, to implement a national transportation ^{strategy} ~~plan~~ and to fight the scourge of illegal drug use.

As we learn to decentralize decision-making in government, we are also learning to put our trust where it belongs -- with the people. So it is not enough to seek a dynamic partnership between Washington, and Austin, Atlanta and Sacramento. We must turn to our families, our schools, our small businesses. We must often seek the achievement of public goals through private means and individual action. Our partnership must include everyone if we are to fulfill our agenda -- an agenda that is pro-growth, pro-family and pro-freedom.

Hale
x 3120

We need this dynamic partnership to keep America growing. That's why Congress must pass a cut in the capital gains tax this year. For America to be competitive, we need to invest money in productive uses, generating new jobs and opportunities for all.

We also need a dynamic partnership to keep America moving -
 - to implement a national transportation ^{strategy} ~~plan~~ for the 21st ^{Whole} ~~century.~~ ^{X 3120} You understand that leadership must begin with those closest to our transportation problems -- the states. You understand that the states deserve a greater say in how our transportation dollars are spent. And so I am asking you to help others understand that ^{strategy} ~~our transportation plan~~ is the road to the future.\\\

And, as you often stress, we also need to protect the bedrock institution of American life -- the family. We are not yet certain what kind of child-care legislation Congress will pass. ((But I am very interested in the outcome. You see, my grandkids often enjoy a certain kind of child care that is sweeping the nation.\\ It's known as Grandma and Grandpa.))\\\ So if Congress stamps out the power of parents to choose family or church-affiliated child-care, I will give this bill a stamp of my own\\ -- a veto stamp.\\\

We also want to bring these same principles of choice and flexibility to the way in which we educate our children. I'll leave it to Roger Porter, my domestic policy advisor, to fully brief you on our education goals and all that we can do together. Just let me say that as I work with the governors to bring renewed excellence to American education, I am also looking to you for advice, support and leadership.

And when it comes to leadership, your federation is already supporting open enrollment plans to give parents choice in selecting their kids' schools; alternative certification to let the talented share their knowledge; and finally -- merit pay, with accountability for all. So we are not just thinking along the same lines. We are working to achieve the same goals in education.\\\

Your federation also calls itself pro-freedom. What does this mean? It means working at the federal and state levels to develop ways to liberate people from dependency on government, not bind them to it -- one generation after another. And it can only mean freedom from drugs.\\\ I commend your Substance Abuse Task Force for doing an excellent job in devising a set of tough, realistic recommendations that complements and expands our national effort.

And finally, Americans must be free from fear. When honest working people are afraid to go to the corner grocery store, or to walk home from the bus at night, then fear of crime has stolen our most precious possession -- our liberty. It is to protect this freedom -- the freedom to safely walk the streets -- that I offered my crime package last year. Congress has, to its credit, approved new prison space and more federal law enforcement officers. But too much work remains unfinished on the rest of my crime package, the portion that concerns violent crime. Once again, I call on Congress to pass laws as least as tough as the criminals we convict.\\\

Crime and illegal drug use, transportation, education: As we near the end of the century, these challenges that confront our nation sometimes seem bigger than our ability to solve them. And they are -- if we act only as partisan Democrats or Republicans, as parochial members of a region, or a faction, or an interest group. But by working together, as Americans, we can lick any problem -- no matter how big, how complex or how deeply rooted it may be.

That is why I value our partnership -- our dynamic partnership -- and look forward to working with you in the years ahead. Thank you, God bless you and may God bless the United States of America.

#

#

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 4/24/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 AM 4/25/90

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGISLATIVE EXCHANGE COUNCIL

	ACTION	FYI		ACTION	FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Rogers	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	BENNETT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Room 122, ext. 2930, no later than 10:00 AM, WEDNESDAY, April 25, 1990, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

OK. S.F.

90 MAR 24 P 1:27

James W. Cicconi
Assistant to the President
and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
Ext. 2702

1990 APR 23 PM 7:08

Davis/Martin
Date: 4/16/90
Title: ALEC
Draft: Two

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGIS. EXCHANGE COUNCIL, Rm. 450
Friday, April 27, 1990 ((Time))

((Frank Messersmith, congratulations to you on completing a very successful tenure. And congratulations also to Ellen Sauerbrey, soon to become your new President.)) ((Other acknowledgements to come.))

((With all the traveling I do, it's a welcome change of pace for me to be making an appearance so close to the West Wing.\\ In fact, Barbara says I spend more time on the road than Charles Kuralt.))\\ \\

((And it seems I'm always following John Sununu at every speech. As one of my grandkids said, he's the engineer,\\ and I'm the caboose.))\\ \\

It's great to be back among so many great American leaders from the states -- those of you who belong to the American Legislative Exchange Council, more than sixteen hundred strong. As state leaders, in alliance with leaders from the business community, you are proving every day that government closest to the people is truly government of the people.

We've seen the wisdom of federalism vindicated time and again. In the 1960s, the prevailing belief was that big problems required big government solutions. Of course, this country did face very real problems -- private heartaches that, taken together, afflicted all of America.

But our pockets were often deeper than our thinking. Take the war on poverty as the prime example. This was a unilateral war in which the federal government sought no allies, and followed only one strategy. And we soon learned what this strategy lacked. It lacked an understanding of the problems. It lacked flexibility. And often, it simply lacked programs that worked.\\

So we learned a very hard lesson in the '60s. Good intentions can easily go awry if the federal government neglects state and local governments. So let me say it plain and simple: I am a follower of the Jeffersonian tradition. I believe in the inherent wisdom and leadership of the states.\\ I am a federalist.

Federalism is a dynamic partnership, one we need if we are to end that age-old affliction of mankind, poverty -- poverty of knowledge and skills, poverty of opportunity, poverty of hope. And we will need such a partnership if we are to meet new missions -- to keep expanding opportunity and improving education, to implement a national transportation plan and to fight the scourge of illegal drug use.

As we learn to decentralize decision-making in government, we are also learning to put our trust where it belongs -- with the people. So it is not enough to seek a dynamic partnership between Washington, and Austin, Atlanta and Sacramento. We must turn to our families, our schools, our small businesses. We must often seek the achievement of public goals through private means and individual action. Our partnership must include everyone if we are to fulfill our agenda -- an agenda that is pro-growth, pro-family and pro-freedom.

We need this dynamic partnership to keep America growing. That's why Congress must pass a cut in the capital gains tax this year. For America to be competitive, we need to invest money in productive uses, generating new jobs and opportunities for all.

We also need a dynamic partnership to keep America moving - - to implement a national transportation plan for the 21st century. You understand that leadership must begin with those closest to our transportation problems -- the states. You understand that the states deserve a greater say in how our transportation dollars are spent. And so I am asking you to help others understand that our transportation plan is the road to the future.

And, as you often stress, we also need to protect the bedrock institution of American life -- the family. We are not yet certain what kind of child-care legislation Congress will pass. ((But I am very interested in the outcome. You see, my grandkids often enjoy a certain kind of child care that is sweeping the nation.\\ It's known as Grandma and Grandpa.))\\\ So if Congress stamps out the power of parents to choose family or church-affiliated child-care, I will give this bill a stamp of my own\\ -- a veto stamp.

We also want to bring these same principles of choice and flexibility to the way in which we educate our children. I'll leave it to Roger Porter, my domestic policy advisor, to fully brief you on our education goals and all that we can do together. Just let me say that as I work with the governors to bring renewed excellence to American education, I am also looking to you for advice, support and leadership.

And when it comes to leadership, your federation is already supporting open enrollment plans to give parents choice in selecting their kids' schools; alternative certification to let the talented share their knowledge; and finally -- merit pay, with accountability for all. So we are not just thinking along the same lines. We are working to achieve the same goals in education.\\\

Your federation also calls itself pro-freedom. What does this mean? It means working at the federal and state levels to develop ways to liberate people from dependency on government, not bind them to it -- one generation after another. And it can only mean freedom from drugs.\\\ I commend your Substance Abuse Task Force for doing an excellent job in devising a set of tough, realistic recommendations that complements and expands our national effort.

And finally, Americans must be free from fear. When honest working people are afraid to go to the corner grocery store, or to walk home from the bus at night, then fear of crime has stolen our most precious possession -- our liberty. It is to protect this freedom -- the freedom to safely walk the streets -- that I offered my crime package last year. Congress has, to its credit, approved new prison space and more federal law enforcement officers. But too much work remains unfinished on the rest of my crime package, the portion that concerns violent crime. Once again, I call on Congress to pass laws as least as tough as the criminals we convict.\\\

Crime and illegal drug use, transportation, education: As we near the end of the century, these challenges that confront our nation sometimes seem bigger than our ability to solve them. And they are -- if we act only as partisan Democrats or Republicans, as parochial members of a region, or a faction, or an interest group. But by working together, as Americans, we can lick any problem -- no matter how big, how complex or how deeply rooted it may be.

That is why I value our partnership -- our dynamic partnership -- and look forward to working with you in the years ahead. Thank you, God bless you and may God bless the United States of America.

#

#

#

122

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 4/24/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 AM 4/25/90

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGISLATIVE EXCHANGE COUNCIL

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Rogers	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	BENNETT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Room 122, ext. 2930, no later than 10:00 AM, WEDNESDAY, April 25, 1990, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

See Comment. Thanks.
Holly Williamson HW

90 MAR 25 10:23

James W. Cicconi
Assistant to the President
and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
Ext. 2702

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

4-25-90

Chriss:

Cabinet Affairs has no comment, other than the insert from Michael Jackson on the census. He is working on that and will have it to you later today (probably shortly after lunch).

Thanks.

Holly Williamson

re: Presidential Remarks: American Legislative Exchange Council

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

April 24, 1990

MEMORANDUM FOR CHRISS WINSTON

FROM: ROGER B. PORTER RP

SUBJECT: Presidential Remarks: American Legislative
Exchange Council

We have reviewed the attached draft and have no suggested changes from a policy standpoint. We approve of the draft remarks in their current form.

cc: James W. Cicconi

51:9P 12 MAR 24 6:15

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 4/24/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 AM 4/25/90

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGISLATIVE EXCHANGE COUNCIL

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER →	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Rogers	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	BENNETT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Room 122, ext. 2930, no later than 10:00 AM, WEDNESDAY, April 25, 1990, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

1990 APR 23 PM 7:08

Davis/Martin
Date: 4/16/90
Title: ALEC
Draft: Two

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGIS. EXCHANGE COUNCIL, Rm. 450
Friday, April 27, 1990 ((Time))

((Frank Messersmith, congratulations to you on completing a very successful tenure. And congratulations also to Ellen Sauerbrey, soon to become your new President.)) ((Other acknowledgements to come.))

((With all the traveling I do, it's a welcome change of pace for me to be making an appearance so close to the West Wing.\\ In fact, Barbara says I spend more time on the road than Charles Kuralt.))\\

((And it seems I'm always following John Sununu at every speech. As one of my grandkids said, he's the engineer,\\ and I'm the caboose.))\\

It's great to be back among so many great American leaders from the states -- those of you who belong to the American Legislative Exchange Council, more than sixteen hundred strong. As state leaders, in alliance with leaders from the business community, you are proving every day that government closest to the people is truly government of the people.

We've seen the wisdom of federalism vindicated time and again. In the 1960s, the prevailing belief was that big problems required big government solutions. Of course, this country did face very real problems -- private heartaches that, taken together, afflicted all of America.

But our pockets were often deeper than our thinking. Take the war on poverty as the prime example. This was a unilateral war in which the federal government sought no allies, and followed only one strategy. And we soon learned what this strategy lacked. It lacked an understanding of the problems. It lacked flexibility. And often, it simply lacked programs that worked.\\

So we learned a very hard lesson in the '60s. Good intentions can easily go awry if the federal government neglects state and local governments. So let me say it plain and simple: I am a follower of the Jeffersonian tradition. I believe in the inherent wisdom and leadership of the states.\\ I am a federalist.\\\

Federalism is a dynamic partnership, one we need if we are to end that age-old affliction of mankind, poverty -- poverty of knowledge and skills, poverty of opportunity, poverty of hope. And we will need such a partnership if we are to meet new missions -- to keep expanding opportunity and improving education, to implement a national transportation plan and to fight the scourge of illegal drug use.

As we learn to decentralize decision-making in government, we are also learning to put our trust where it belongs -- with the people. So it is not enough to seek a dynamic partnership between Washington, and Austin, Atlanta and Sacramento. We must turn to our families, our schools, our small businesses. We must often seek the achievement of public goals through private means and individual action. Our partnership must include everyone if we are to fulfill our agenda -- an agenda that is pro-growth, pro-family and pro-freedom.

We need this dynamic partnership to keep America growing. That's why Congress must pass a cut in the capital gains tax this year. For America to be competitive, we need to invest money in productive uses, generating new jobs and opportunities for all.

We also need a dynamic partnership to keep America moving - - to implement a national transportation plan for the 21st century. You understand that leadership must begin with those closest to our transportation problems -- the states. You understand that the states deserve a greater say in how our transportation dollars are spent. And so I am asking you to help others understand that our transportation plan is the road to the future.

And, as you often stress, we also need to protect the bedrock institution of American life -- the family. We are not yet certain what kind of child-care legislation Congress will pass. ((But I am very interested in the outcome. You see, my grandkids often enjoy a certain kind of child care that is sweeping the nation.\\ It's known as Grandma and Grandpa.))\\\ So if Congress stamps out the power of parents to choose family or church-affiliated child-care, I will give this bill a stamp of my own\\ -- a veto stamp.\\\

We also want to bring these same principles of choice and flexibility to the way in which we educate our children. I'll leave it to Roger Porter, my domestic policy advisor, to fully brief you on our education goals and all that we can do together. Just let me say that as I work with the governors to bring renewed excellence to American education, I am also looking to you for advice, support and leadership.

And when it comes to leadership, your federation is already supporting open enrollment plans to give parents choice in selecting their kids' schools; alternative certification to let the talented share their knowledge; and finally -- merit pay, with accountability for all. So we are not just thinking along the same lines. We are working to achieve the same goals in education.\\\

Your federation also calls itself pro-freedom. What does this mean? It means working at the federal and state levels to develop ways to liberate people from dependency on government, not bind them to it -- one generation after another. And it can only mean freedom from drugs.\\\ I commend your Substance Abuse Task Force for doing an excellent job in devising a set of tough, realistic recommendations that complements and expands our national effort.

And finally, Americans must be free from fear. When honest working people are afraid to go to the corner grocery store, or to walk home from the bus at night, then fear of crime has stolen our most precious possession -- our liberty. It is to protect this freedom -- the freedom to safely walk the streets -- that I offered my crime package last year. Congress has, to its credit, approved new prison space and more federal law enforcement officers. But too much work remains unfinished on the rest of my crime package, the portion that concerns violent crime. Once again, I call on Congress to pass laws as least as tough as the criminals we convict.\\\

Crime and illegal drug use, transportation, education: As we near the end of the century, these challenges that confront our nation sometimes seem bigger than our ability to solve them. And they are -- if we act only as partisan Democrats or Republicans, as parochial members of a region, or a faction, or an interest group. But by working together, as Americans, we can lick any problem -- no matter how big, how complex or how deeply rooted it may be.

That is why I value our partnership -- our dynamic partnership -- and look forward to working with you in the years ahead. Thank you, God bless you and may God bless the United States of America.

#

#

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 4/24/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 AM 4/25/90

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGISLATIVE EXCHANGE COUNCIL

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Rogers	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	BENNETT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Room 122, ext. 2930, no later than 10:00 AM, WEDNESDAY, April 25, 1990, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

4/24/90
 I recommend the deletion on p. 2 of the line "I am a federalist."
 Andy Card

28 : 2 : 32
 James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

1990 APR 23 PM 7:08

Davis/Martin
Date: 4/16/90
Title: ALEC
Draft: Two

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGIS. EXCHANGE COUNCIL, Rm. 450
Friday, April 27, 1990 ((Time))

((Frank Messersmith, congratulations to you on completing a very successful tenure. And congratulations also to Ellen Sauerbrey, soon to become your new President.)) ((Other acknowledgements to come.))

((With all the traveling I do, it's a welcome change of pace for me to be making an appearance so close to the West Wing.\\ In fact, Barbara says I spend more time on the road than Charles Kuralt.))\\\

((And it seems I'm always following John Sununu at every speech. As one of my grandkids said, he's the engineer,\\ and I'm the caboose.))\\\

It's great to be back among so many great American leaders from the states -- those of you who belong to the American Legislative Exchange Council, more than sixteen hundred strong. As state leaders, in alliance with leaders from the business community, you are proving every day that government closest to the people is truly government of the people.

We've seen the wisdom of federalism vindicated time and again. In the 1960s, the prevailing belief was that big problems required big government solutions. Of course, this country did face very real problems -- private heartaches that, taken together, afflicted all of America.

But our pockets were often deeper than our thinking. Take the war on poverty as the prime example. This was a unilateral war in which the federal government sought no allies, and followed only one strategy. And we soon learned what this strategy lacked. It lacked an understanding of the problems. It lacked flexibility. And often, it simply lacked programs that worked.\\

So we learned a very hard lesson in the '60s. Good intentions can easily go awry if the federal government neglects state and local governments. So let me say it plain and simple: I am a follower of the Jeffersonian tradition. I believe in the inherent wisdom and leadership of the states.\\ ~~I am a~~

~~federalist.~~\\

Federalism is a dynamic partnership, one we need if we are to end that age-old affliction of mankind, poverty -- poverty of knowledge and skills, poverty of opportunity, poverty of hope. And we will need such a partnership if we are to meet new missions -- to keep expanding opportunity and improving education, to implement a national transportation plan and to fight the scourge of illegal drug use.

As we learn to decentralize decision-making in government, we are also learning to put our trust where it belongs -- with the people. So it is not enough to seek a dynamic partnership between Washington, and Austin, Atlanta and Sacramento. We must turn to our families, our schools, our small businesses. We must often seek the achievement of public goals through private means and individual action. Our partnership must include everyone if we are to fulfill our agenda -- an agenda that is pro-growth, pro-family and pro-freedom.

We need this dynamic partnership to keep America growing. That's why Congress must pass a cut in the capital gains tax this year. For America to be competitive, we need to invest money in productive uses, generating new jobs and opportunities for all.

We also need a dynamic partnership to keep America moving - - to implement a national transportation plan for the 21st century. You understand that leadership must begin with those closest to our transportation problems -- the states. You understand that the states deserve a greater say in how our transportation dollars are spent. And so I am asking you to help others understand that our transportation plan is the road to the future.\\\

And, as you often stress, we also need to protect the bedrock institution of American life -- the family. We are not yet certain what kind of child-care legislation Congress will pass. ((But I am very interested in the outcome. You see, my grandkids often enjoy a certain kind of child care that is sweeping the nation.\\ It's known as Grandma and Grandpa.))\\\ So if Congress stamps out the power of parents to choose family or church-affiliated child-care, I will give this bill a stamp of my own\\ -- a veto stamp.\\\

We also want to bring these same principles of choice and flexibility to the way in which we educate our children. I'll leave it to Roger Porter, my domestic policy advisor, to fully brief you on our education goals and all that we can do together. Just let me say that as I work with the governors to bring renewed excellence to American education, I am also looking to you for advice, support and leadership.

And when it comes to leadership, your federation is already supporting open enrollment plans to give parents choice in selecting their kids' schools; alternative certification to let the talented share their knowledge; and finally -- merit pay, with accountability for all. So we are not just thinking along the same lines. We are working to achieve the same goals in education.\\\

Your federation also calls itself pro-freedom. What does this mean? It means working at the federal and state levels to develop ways to liberate people from dependency on government, not bind them to it -- one generation after another. And it can only mean freedom from drugs.\\\ I commend your Substance Abuse Task Force for doing an excellent job in devising a set of tough, realistic recommendations that complements and expands our national effort.

And finally, Americans must be free from fear. When honest working people are afraid to go to the corner grocery store, or to walk home from the bus at night, then fear of crime has stolen our most precious possession -- our liberty. It is to protect this freedom -- the freedom to safely walk the streets -- that I offered my crime package last year. Congress has, to its credit, approved new prison space and more federal law enforcement officers. But too much work remains unfinished on the rest of my crime package, the portion that concerns violent crime. Once again, I call on Congress to pass laws as least as tough as the criminals we convict.\\\

Crime and illegal drug use, transportation, education: As we near the end of the century, these challenges that confront our nation sometimes seem bigger than our ability to solve them. And they are -- if we act only as partisan Democrats or Republicans, as parochial members of a region, or a faction, or an interest group. But by working together, as Americans, we can lick any problem -- no matter how big, how complex or how deeply rooted it may be.

That is why I value our partnership -- our dynamic partnership -- and look forward to working with you in the years ahead. Thank you, God bless you and may God bless the United States of America.

#

#

#

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

U

April 24, 1990

MEMORANDUM FOR CHRISS WINSTON
Deputy Assistant to the President for Communications

FROM: BRENT O. HATCH BOH
Associate Counsel to the President

SUBJECT: Presidential Address: American Legislative
Exchange Council

Counsel's office has reviewed the above-referenced Presidential remarks. We have no legal objections.

Thank you for the opportunity to review this matter.

cc: James W. Cicconi

90 MAR 24 P 2: 17

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 4/24/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 AM 4/25/90

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGISLATIVE EXCHANGE COUNCIL

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Rogers	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY 	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	BENNETT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Room 122, ext. 2930, no later than 10:00 AM, WEDNESDAY, April 25, 1990, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

James W. Cicconi
Assistant to the President
and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
Ext. 2702

1990 APR 23 PM 7:08

Davis/Martin
Date: 4/16/90
Title: ALEC
Draft: Two

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGIS. EXCHANGE COUNCIL, Rm. 450
Friday, April 27, 1990 ((Time))

((Frank Messersmith, congratulations to you on completing a very successful tenure. And congratulations also to Ellen Sauerbrey, soon to become your new President.)) ((Other acknowledgements to come.))

((With all the traveling I do, it's a welcome change of pace for me to be making an appearance so close to the West Wing.\\ In fact, Barbara says I spend more time on the road than Charles Kuralt.))\\ \\

((And it seems I'm always following John Sununu at every speech. As one of my grandkids said, he's the engineer,\\ and I'm the caboose.))\\ \\

It's great to be back among so many great American leaders from the states -- those of you who belong to the American Legislative Exchange Council, more than sixteen hundred strong. As state leaders, in alliance with leaders from the business community, you are proving every day that government closest to the people is truly government of the people.

We've seen the wisdom of federalism vindicated time and again. In the 1960s, the prevailing belief was that big problems required big government solutions. Of course, this country did face very real problems -- private heartaches that, taken together, afflicted all of America.

But our pockets were often deeper than our thinking. Take the war on poverty as the prime example. This was a unilateral war in which the federal government sought no allies, and followed only one strategy. And we soon learned what this strategy lacked. It lacked an understanding of the problems. It lacked flexibility. And often, it simply lacked programs that worked.\\

So we learned a very hard lesson in the '60s. Good intentions can easily go awry if the federal government neglects state and local governments. So let me say it plain and simple: I am a follower of the Jeffersonian tradition. I believe in the inherent wisdom and leadership of the states.\\ I am a federalist.\\\

Federalism is a dynamic partnership, one we need if we are to end that age-old affliction of mankind, poverty -- poverty of knowledge and skills, poverty of opportunity, poverty of hope. And we will need such a partnership if we are to meet new missions -- to keep expanding opportunity and improving education, to implement a national transportation plan and to fight the scourge of illegal drug use.

As we learn to decentralize decision-making in government, we are also learning to put our trust where it belongs -- with the people. So it is not enough to seek a dynamic partnership between Washington, and Austin, Atlanta and Sacramento. We must turn to our families, our schools, our small businesses. We must often seek the achievement of public goals through private means and individual action. Our partnership must include everyone if we are to fulfill our agenda -- an agenda that is pro-growth, pro-family and pro-freedom.

We need this dynamic partnership to keep America growing. That's why Congress must pass a cut in the capital gains tax this year. For America to be competitive, we need to invest money in productive uses, generating new jobs and opportunities for all.

We also need a dynamic partnership to keep America moving - - to implement a national transportation plan for the 21st century. You understand that leadership must begin with those closest to our transportation problems -- the states. You understand that the states deserve a greater say in how our transportation dollars are spent. And so I am asking you to help others understand that our transportation plan is the road to the future.\\\

And, as you often stress, we also need to protect the bedrock institution of American life -- the family. We are not yet certain what kind of child-care legislation Congress will pass. ((But I am very interested in the outcome. You see, my grandkids often enjoy a certain kind of child care that is sweeping the nation.\\ It's known as Grandma and Grandpa.))\\\ So if Congress stamps out the power of parents to choose family or church-affiliated child-care, I will give this bill a stamp of my own\\ -- a veto stamp.\\\

We also want to bring these same principles of choice and flexibility to the way in which we educate our children. I'll leave it to Roger Porter, my domestic policy advisor, to fully brief you on our education goals and all that we can do together. Just let me say that as I work with the governors to bring renewed excellence to American education, I am also looking to you for advice, support and leadership.

And when it comes to leadership, your federation is already supporting open enrollment plans to give parents choice in selecting their kids' schools; alternative certification to let the talented share their knowledge; and finally -- merit pay, with accountability for all. So we are not just thinking along the same lines. We are working to achieve the same goals in education.\\\

Your federation also calls itself pro-freedom. What does this mean? It means working at the federal and state levels to develop ways to liberate people from dependency on government, not bind them to it -- one generation after another. And it can only mean freedom from drugs.\\\ I commend your Substance Abuse Task Force for doing an excellent job in devising a set of tough, realistic recommendations that complements and expands our national effort.

And finally, Americans must be free from fear. When honest working people are afraid to go to the corner grocery store, or to walk home from the bus at night, then fear of crime has stolen our most precious possession -- our liberty. It is to protect this freedom -- the freedom to safely walk the streets -- that I offered my crime package last year. Congress has, to its credit, approved new prison space and more federal law enforcement officers. But too much work remains unfinished on the rest of my crime package, the portion that concerns violent crime. Once again, I call on Congress to pass laws as least as tough as the criminals we convict.\\\

Crime and illegal drug use, transportation, education: As we near the end of the century, these challenges that confront our nation sometimes seem bigger than our ability to solve them. And they are -- if we act only as partisan Democrats or Republicans, as parochial members of a region, or a faction, or an interest group. But by working together, as Americans, we can lick any problem -- no matter how big, how complex or how deeply rooted it may be.

That is why I value our partnership -- our dynamic partnership -- and look forward to working with you in the years ahead. Thank you, God bless you and may God bless the United States of America.

#

#

#

WHITE HOUSE STAFFING MEMORANDUM

DATE: 4/24/90 ACTION/CONCURRENCE/COMMENT DUE BY: 10:00 AM 4/25/90

SUBJECT: PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGISLATIVE EXCHANGE COUNCIL

	ACTION FYI			ACTION FYI
VICE PRESIDENT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	MCCLURE	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SUNUNU	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	NEWMAN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
SCOWCROFT	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PORTER	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
DARMAN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	ROGICH	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
BATES	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	UNTERMAYER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
CARD	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Rogers	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
CICCONI	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WINSTON	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
DEMAREST	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	PINKERTON	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
FITZWATER	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	BOSKIN	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
GRAY	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	BENNETT	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
HAGIN	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	_____	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

REMARKS:

Please forward any comments directly to Chriss Winston, Room 122, ext. 2930, no later than 10:00 AM, WEDNESDAY, April 25, 1990, with a copy to my office. Thank you.

RESPONSE:

no comment
[Signature]
 80:11V 90 MAR 24 11:08

James W. Cicconi
 Assistant to the President
 and Deputy to the Chief of Staff
 Ext. 2702

1990 APR 23 PM 7:08

Davis/Martin
Date: 4/16/90
Title: ALEC
Draft: Two

PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS: AMERICAN LEGIS. EXCHANGE COUNCIL, Rm. 450
Friday, April 27, 1990 ((Time))

((Frank Messersmith, congratulations to you on completing a very successful tenure. And congratulations also to Ellen Sauerbrey, soon to become your new President.)) ((Other acknowledgements to come.))

((With all the traveling I do, it's a welcome change of pace for me to be making an appearance so close to the West Wing.\\ In fact, Barbara says I spend more time on the road than Charles Kuralt.))\\

((And it seems I'm always following John Sununu at every speech. As one of my grandkids said, he's the engineer,\\ and I'm the caboose.))\\

It's great to be back among so many great American leaders from the states -- those of you who belong to the American Legislative Exchange Council, more than sixteen hundred strong. As state leaders, in alliance with leaders from the business community, you are proving every day that government closest to the people is truly government of the people.

We've seen the wisdom of federalism vindicated time and again. In the 1960s, the prevailing belief was that big problems required big government solutions. Of course, this country did face very real problems -- private heartaches that, taken together, afflicted all of America.

But our pockets were often deeper than our thinking. Take the war on poverty as the prime example. This was a unilateral war in which the federal government sought no allies, and followed only one strategy. And we soon learned what this strategy lacked. It lacked an understanding of the problems. It lacked flexibility. And often, it simply lacked programs that worked.\\

So we learned a very hard lesson in the '60s. Good intentions can easily go awry if the federal government neglects state and local governments. So let me say it plain and simple: I am a follower of the Jeffersonian tradition. I believe in the inherent wisdom and leadership of the states.\\ I am a federalist.\\

Federalism ^{must be} is a dynamic partnership, ~~one we need~~ if we are to end that age-old affliction of mankind, poverty -- poverty of knowledge and skills, poverty of opportunity, poverty of hope. And we will need such a partnership if we are to meet new missions -- to keep expanding opportunity and improving education, to implement a national transportation plan and to fight the scourge of illegal drug use.

As we learn to decentralize decision-making in government, we are also learning to put our trust where it belongs -- with the people. So it is not enough to seek a dynamic partnership between Washington, and Austin, Atlanta and Sacramento. We must turn to our families, our schools, our small businesses. We must often seek the achievement of public goals through private means and individual action. Our partnership must include everyone if we are to fulfill our agenda -- an agenda that is pro-growth, pro-family and pro-freedom.

We need this dynamic partnership to keep America growing. That's why Congress must pass a cut in the capital gains tax this year. For America to be competitive, we need to invest money in productive uses, generating new jobs and opportunities for all.

We also need a dynamic partnership to keep America moving -- to implement a national transportation plan for the 21st century. You understand that leadership must begin with those closest to our transportation problems -- the states. You understand that the states deserve a greater say in how our transportation dollars are spent. And so I am asking you to help others understand that our transportation plan is the road to the future.\\\

And, as you often stress, we also need to protect the bedrock institution of American life -- the family. We are not yet certain what kind of child-care legislation Congress will pass. ((But I am very interested in the outcome. You see, my grandkids often enjoy a certain kind of child care that is sweeping the nation.\\ It's known as Grandma and Grandpa.))\\\ So if Congress stamps out the power of parents to choose family or church-affiliated child-care, I will give this bill a stamp of my own\\ -- a veto stamp.\\\

We also want to bring these same principles of choice and flexibility to the way in which we educate our children. I'll leave it to Roger Porter, my domestic policy advisor, to fully brief you on our education goals and all that we can do together. Just let me say that as I work with the governors to bring renewed excellence to American education, I am also looking to you for advice, support and leadership.

And when it comes to leadership, your federation is already supporting open enrollment plans to give parents choice in selecting their kids' schools; alternative certification to let the talented share their knowledge; and finally -- merit pay, with accountability for all. So we are not just thinking along the same lines. We are working to achieve the same goals in education.\\\

Your federation also calls itself pro-freedom. What does this mean? It means working at the federal and state levels to develop ways to liberate people from dependency on government, not bind them to it -- one generation after another. And it can only mean freedom from drugs.\\\ I commend your Substance Abuse Task Force for doing an excellent job in devising a set of tough, realistic recommendations that complements and expands our national effort.

And finally, Americans must be free from fear. When honest working people are afraid to go to the corner grocery store, or to walk home from the bus at night, then fear of crime has stolen our most precious possession -- our liberty. It is to protect this freedom -- the freedom to safely walk the streets -- that I offered my crime package last year. Congress has, to its credit, approved new prison space and more federal law enforcement officers. But too much work remains unfinished on the rest of my crime package, the portion that concerns violent crime. Once again, I call on Congress to pass laws as least as tough as the criminals we convict.\\\

Crime and illegal drug use, transportation, education: As we near the end of the century, these challenges that confront our nation sometimes seem bigger than our ability to solve them. And they are -- if we act only as partisan Democrats or Republicans, as parochial members of a region, or a faction, or an interest group. But by working together, as Americans, we can lick any problem -- no matter how big, how complex or how deeply rooted it may be.

That is why I value our partnership -- our dynamic partnership -- and look forward to working with you in the years ahead. Thank you, God bless you and may God bless the United States of America.

#

#

#